"Brother Shan, aren't your actions too despicable?" A person from the Desolate Ground's Four Palace spoke. However, the moment the words left his mouth, a terrifying flow of sword intent pierced right into the center of his brows. He instantly fell to the ground dead. At the same time, terrifying beams of sword light chased after those who were fleeing, causing blood to flow unceasingly.

This madman's control of sword laws has already reached a transcendent state where he could use it as his heart desires. It was effortless for him even if he wishes to kill someone from a thousand miles away. There was basically no way for anyone to escape.

"Still want to flee?" Swordcraze pushed his hair back as he coldly laughed. His gaze was extremely terrifying.

"Senior, you have already transcended the emperor realm. Why must you make things difficult for juniors like us?" Yi Qing stared at the madman as he spoke.

"Because I like it." That madman laughed. "A thousand years to sharpen my sword. Now that I've gained completion of my dao, how can I not let myself go wild?"

"Completion of your dao?" A voice suddenly rang out.

"You merely gained comprehension of the source origin of sword laws, how can you make such a grand claim like this? If your dao is already considered complete, what about the Realmlord?"

This voice was somewhat mocking. Everyone felt puzzled, who would dare to be so audacious?

They turned their gazes over, Yi Qing and his group actually started when they discovered it was Qin Wentian who spoke. He actually said such a thing at this moment. Was he courting death?

That madman turned his gaze to Qin Wentian as an expression of interest appeared on his face. There was actually someone who didn't fear death here? He laughed, "In that case, in your opinion, what is the completion of dao?"

"Although you have comprehended the source origin of swords and obtained empyrean-level strength, able to soar as you will through the skies, you must know that the Great Dao is ethereal. Can what you comprehend now be considered as completing the great dao? Right now, senior has awakened your law's will, using it to control the laws, acting as your heart desired. You can even say that your will is heaven's will, but is it really so?" Qin Wentian asked. He then continued, "Let alone senior with your empyrean cultivation base, even world overlords cannot represent heaven's will with their will."

"I feel that the great Dao is supreme and eternal. One day when one truly reaches the state where his will equals to heaven's will, every single thought by him would cause the sky and earth to tremble, controlling the lives of everyone with ease. If your dao is complete, why do you feel the need to use such cruel methods to deal with everyone here? Only after a dao is complete would that person truly be free from all bindings in the world. He would be able to calculate the destiny of everything and manipulate fate if he wants it. Why would he need to use such cruel killing methods to prove his own accomplishments? What you have comprehended, is nothing more than a part of the grand eternal dao. A mere minor dao."

The smile on the madman's face widened. He stared at Qin Wentian and laughed, "Your comprehension really isn't bad and you gained the insight earlier that the laws can take on countless forms. Now, after listening to what you have said, I have to agree that it makes sense. Me killing people is nothing more than to satisfy myself and to celebrate the fact that I've succeeded in sharpening my sword. But so what of it? I can do it because I like it. So what if you are right? I still want to kill you."

"Senior, please provide me with some guidance then." Qin Wentian spoke. That madman's eyes flashed, staring at Qin Wentian in bewilderment. Guidance?

Could it be that this young man believes that he could fight against him?

Upon seeing law energies radiating from Qin Wentian, that madman laughed out loud, revealing his white teeth. His laughter contained a hint of evil to it. With an intention of his will, a sword river appeared in front of him as it gushed towards Qin Wentian. This terrifying sword river wanted to bury Qin Wentian completely within.

Qin Wentian didn't use his sword laws. He released his buddha law energy and manifested a golden dharma body around him to protect himself, isolating him from the attacking sword laws.

When the terrifying sword river gushed forth, the nature of it instantly became extremely sharp. However, when it gushed into the dharma body, it was like it encountered a great obstruction. Although the sword intent in the attack continued to seep in, it had no way to directly destroy the dharma body.

This was the first time Swordcraze had met such a scene. When he killed others, it didn't take any effort at all. But now, his sword river was actually being blocked.

Murong Xiaoxiao and the others were completely stunned. They stared with shock at this scene. The dharma body was actually able to block the madman's attacks. This Tianwen was actually so powerful?

Before this when the madman attacked Shan Lengqiu, he easily subdued him. One could tell the disparity in strength between Shan Lengqiu and Qin Wentian with just a single glance.

However, not too long ago, their opinions differed as they discussed the dao. Because of that, Shan Lengqiu tyrannically suggested a spar but Qin Wentian didn't respond to that. At that time, they all felt Qin Wentian didn't dare to battle. But from the looks of things now, what an irony. Shan Lengqiu was clearly in the wrong and his strength was inferior. Yet, he was still so tyrannical. Regardless of comprehension abilities or strength, Qin Wentian was stronger than Shan Lengqiu, yet he kept a low-profile.

From this, the disparity between them was clear.

Yi Qing and the others coldly looked at Shan Lengqiu, their eyes filled with a mocking expression. Earlier they followed Shan Lengqiu, but now Shan Lengqiu had abandoned them with no hesitation. It was Qin Wentian who spoke up to temporarily alleviate them from the danger of certain death.

Shan Lengqiu's expression was extremely ugly to behold. He who had always been proud and lofty, felt extremely tiny and inconsequential now. When he sensed the looks of contempt Yi Qing and the others threw him, his facial features contorted.

That madman had a look of astonishment when he saw Qin Wentian's defense. He waved his hand and boundless sword might was generated in an instant, raining down on the dharma body. The bursts of sword might sometimes had the attribute of heavy swords, containing immense power, and sometimes would be extremely sharp, capable of slicing through everything.

Qin Wentian's dharma body continued expanding. A countless number of runes were within as they transformed to deal with the occasion. Those years ago, he had already defeated many supreme and transcendent-level emperors when he was just at the mid-stage. Now given his current cultivation base, transcendent-level immortal emperors wouldn't even be able to withstand a single strike. His astral souls were all from the 8th heavenly layer after all. From this, one could very well imagine how strong his laws were.

At this moment, Qin Wentian's gigantic dharma body suddenly manifested many arms. These arms expanded in size and launched their attacks. He wasn't going to passively defend.

The hearts of many trembled. When facing against an expert who had comprehended the source origin of a law, Qin Wentian was actually powerful enough to retaliate.

The eyes of the madman flashed. His dishevelled hair fluttered in the wind. His fingers formed sword mudras as numerous terrifying sword intents, in the form of lotuses, appeared from his sword river. The petals of the sword loti covered everything, tearing the dharma arms into pieces.

The petals continued and flew towards Qin Wentian as they expanded in size, forming a gigantic version of a sword lotus, wanting to rip Qin Wentian apart.

Numerous spatial gates appeared as a fearsome pair of phantasm eyes appeared in the air. The eyes shot a glance at the madman, instantly dragging him into a dimension. At the next moment, Qin Wentian stepped through a spatial gate in front of him and appeared before the madman in an instant, bypassing the sword lotus.

The madman instantly broke free from the eye-technique dimension. However, what awaited him was a burst of incomparably resplendent radiance.

"BOOM!" His sword intent instantly covered himself. When the fist of radiance slammed into him, he was forced back several steps, to the edge of the sword river raining from the sky. After a few moments, the madman straightened his body. His gaze grew even more terrifying. He was actually forced back by Qin Wentian.

The people in the surroundings felt their hearts shaking, all of them staring in shock at Qin Wentian. That madman who sharpened his sword for a thousand years and came out after succeeding, wanting to celebrate his success with the blood of everyone here, was actually stopped by this transcendent-level immortal emperor?

"You are not Tianwen, you are Qin Wentian! The northern governor of Lifire City. Tens of years ago, during the last grand banquet, you defeated everyone else from the eight other world palaces with your cultivation base at the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm, gaining the admiration of the Realmlord." Yi Qing suddenly spoke. Although he wasn't present during the grand banquet then, he had heard of that battle before. Qin Wentian and Di Tian were simply too famous and their stories were spread everywhere. When Yi Qing thought about the name 'Tianwen,' he was suddenly struck by a flash of light and connected the dots to Qin Wentian.

"Qin Wentian?" The people from the Desolate Ground's Four Palaces and Murong Xiaoxiao exclaimed in surprise. This man was proclaimed by the Realmlord to be one of the two immortal emperors in the younger generation with the most potential. When compared to him, Shan Lengqiu was nothing at all. After all, Qin Wentian was merely a mid-stage immortal emperor back then. But now, his cultivation base was already at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm.

However Qin Wentian was different from Shan Lengqiu. He was truly low-profile enough.

When the madman heard that Qin Wentian was someone admired by the Realmlord, he frowned and spoke, "Your control over your laws is very strong. However, you still cannot win against me since I've comprehended the source origin of the laws of sword."

"Senior, other than the fact that your sword laws surpassed mine, I'm not at any disadvantage in terms of other laws. It won't be an easy task if you wish to defeat me." Qin Wentian replied.

"Even if it's so, how can you block me if I want to kill the others?" The madman coldly laughed.

"I naturally won't be able to block you. However, in the future, I will definitely be able to kill you." Qin Wentian looked at the madman as he calmly stated.

Chapter 1648: Comprehended

Right now, Qin Wentian was already a peak-stage immortal emperor but his opponent was an empyrean that had comprehended the source origin of his sword laws. He had already transcended the emperor realm and achieved a qualitative transformation. No matter how strong Qin Wentian's combat prowess was, it was still impossible. Upon fighting with an empyrean, Qin Wentian could clearly sense how terrifying characters at this level were.

In addition, this man before him was someone who had merely gained comprehension over the source origin of a single law. How terrifying would someone become if he manages to gain comprehension over the source origins of all his laws? The emperor energy in their body would be completely transformed into Empyrean might that would suppress him. Even if his astral souls were monstrous, it would still be impossible to resist against an expert at that level.

Naturally, if Qin Wentian himself has also comprehended the source origin of one of his laws, things would be different. He would be able to insta-kill this madman before his eyes.

Qin Wentian's threatening voice made the madman look at him. The madman smiled, "It's rare to meet such an interesting person. Since this is the case, I can spare them. It's just that if you believe it's so easy to comprehend the source origin of a law, you would be sorely mistaken. I spent a thousand years to sharpen my sword, killing people is merely to test out my strength. It's fine if I don't kill them too. I'm very curious how long it would take you to comprehend it."

"Senior doesn't need to worry about this." Qin Wentian smiled. That madman laughed. However, he soon vanished from sight as he transformed into a beam of light, disappearing in the blink of an eye.

After he left, many people turned their gazes to Qin Wentian as they sighed in relief. Numerous figures walked over and bowed to Qin Wentian, "Many thanks for saving our lives."

"Senior, your strength is transcendent, to think that you can actually fight against empyreans. I'm truly impressed."

"I've long heard of Brother Qin's name. Now that we've met, it's true that your reputation is well justified. That has been an eye-opener for me." Yi Qing walked over and clasped his hands at Qin Wentian. "In the past, if I have been disrespectful in anyway to Brother Qin, please forgive me. If it wasn't for Brother Qin saving us, we would definitely have all died."

"It's nothing much, I just did what anyone would do." Qin Wentian smiled, he was as casual and easy-going as before.

"Brother Qin, you truly hid yourself deeply. If I knew you were so powerful, I would have long hugged you for dear life and wouldn't let go." Murong Xiaoxiao walked over with a gentle smile on her face.

Yi Leng glanced at Murong Xiaoxiao, feeling a sensation of loathing. This woman truly was shameless, she wondered how did Murong Xiaoxiao cultivate until her current realm today. She turned her beautiful eyes to Qin Wentian as she felt some frustration in her heart. Why didn't she notice how handsome and heroic Qin Wentian was before this? His entire person seemed to be giving off a dazzling light.

In comparison, Shan Lengqiu was nothing. He wasn't qualified at all to compare with Qin Wentian.

Although Yi Leng found Murong Xiaoxiao shameless, she also felt an impulse in her heart to rush over. However, at this moment, Qin Wentian turned to Murong Xiaoxiao and spoke, "I've never hidden anything. It's just that Brother Shan was too outstanding. It's very normal that Fairy Murong wished to befriend him."

Although Qin Wentian was smiling, he projected a sense of casting her away. After hearing his words, Yi Leng also abolished any thoughts of going forward. That was right, earlier, all of them wanted to get close to Yi Leng and fawned over him while ignoring and disregarding Qin Wentian. In fact, she had even mocked him before. What would she be if she rushed over just because Qin Wentian was powerful?

It was already extremely benevolent of Qin Wentian that he acted to save them. If it was someone who was petty-minded, they would all have already died.

"There's no need for everyone to be so polite. Cultivation is tough, I believe everyone came to the Taotie Mine for the purpose of their cultivation. I hope everyone will find success." Qin Wentian clasped his hands towards the crowd and continued forward. The crowd opened up a path for him as gratitude shone in their eyes.

Murong Xiaoxiao had an embarrassed look on her face. She naturally understood that their so-called alliance had never existed before in the first place.

"What does he want to do?" At this moment, the eyes of everyone flashed as they looked at Qin Wentian. They saw Qin Wentian moving closer to the sword river that radiated towering amounts of sword intent. With an intention of will, his dharma body appeared around him, blocking the currents.

"He wants to learn from that madman, using the sword river to temper himself, to sense the source origin of the sword laws." The hearts of everyone trembled.

Before this when Qin Wentian and Shan Lengqiu were discussing the dao, the topic was about sword laws. From this, one could tell that Qin Wentian was proficient in the way of the sword. In addition, his comprehension of sword laws was deeper than Shan Lengqiu.

Since he was proficient in sword laws, and the fact that the madman could enter the sword abyss to meditate a thousand years ago, why couldn't he do so now?

The crowd only saw Qin Wentian's body descending deeper and deeper down the sword abyss. Finally, he vanished from the vision of the crowd.

"Daring to temper himself in the sword abyss. Other than needing a high-level of comprehension, one must have a high enough defense or they won't be able to stop themselves from being killed by the sword river." Someone spoke. The rest of them could only comprehend the sword laws at the edge of the abyss. Nobody dared to venture in.

Numerous figures flashed as the experts each found a position as they continued to comprehend the energy of the sword river. After seeing how strong that madman was, their hearts were filled with an even more intense yearning.

Naturally, there were also some who were more cautious as they left. They were worried that the madman might come back and start another rampage again. If that was the case, they would surely be in dire straits.

Shan Lengqiu didn't leave. He walked to the edge of the sword river and sat down as his eyes gleamed with terrifying sharpness. He wanted to gain back the face he lost. In that case, the only way for him to do so was to break through to the empyrean realm faster than Qin Wentian.

Murong Xiaoxiao and the others were already abandoned once by Shan Lengqiu and almost died as a result. They naturally didn't want to group with him any more. They walked further away and pretended that they weren't acquainted with him. They naturally didn't dare to seek revenge on Shan Lengqiu. No matter how despicable he was, his strength was beyond doubt. Also, given his identity as a grand-disciple of the Realmlord, nobody would really dare to act against him.

In the blink of an eye, several years passed. During these years, Shan Lengqiu sat there alone as he tried to comprehend the sword intent. It was like as long as he couldn't succeed, he would not give up. Many of those saved by Qin Wentian that day were still around. They came into the Taotie Mine for the sake of cultivation. There were some who initially wanted to leave, but because Qin Wentian ventured into the sword abyss, they decided to stay and see when he would exit it.

Some times, curiosity can become a great source of motivation as well.

Right now in the sword abyss, a figure was clad in a sphere of light. The sword river flowing down landed on the sphere and transformed into droplets of sword intent, seeping into it, flowing towards Qin Wentian. It felt like rain falling over him, but Qin Wentian could feel a sense of extreme sharpness in them that wanted to destroy his body.

Qin Wentian finally understood why the clothing of that madman was so torn and tattered and why he had so many wounds. Clearly, the madman had undergone the same experience as him and had to endure this hellish pain.

Not only was he attempting to comprehend the source origin of sword laws, he was also tempering his flesh. No wonder that madman earlier would go wild and start a killing spree after he broke through to the empyrean level. This process of tempering was too miserable and painful. If one endured this for extended periods of time, they would surely want to go crazy to vent.

Fresh blood leaked from the corners of Qin Wentian's mouth as a painful expression could be seen on his face. However, he continued to endure as he personally experienced the power of the sword river with his body. Only then would he be able to sense it clearer.

Things continued, Qin Wentian slowly gained insights, feeling the tyranny of swords, the sharpness of swords, as well as the softness and gentleness of swords.

The source origin of a law contains many different forms. As long as you were strong enough, you would be able to control it, your will would be the sword will.

However, knowing this was one thing. Fully understanding the concept and comprehending the insights within was another.

Time continued to flow by. Qin Wentian's understanding grew deeper and deeper as his cultivation base solidified at the true peak of the immortal emperor realm. Right now, he was only a step away from comprehending the source origin.

Today, inside the sword abyss, Qin Wentian stood there as the currents of the sword river gushed over him. Right now, he no longer resisted and was completely immersed in the sword river. His white robe was long stained with blood but the him now no longer moved when the river submerged him. He no longer felt the pain he once felt when he just started those years ago. He quietly closed his eyes and sank into the depths of this feeling, entering a miraculous world of insights.

Why did the sword river not injure him despite him being submerged within?

The sword lords contained many forms, if he could truly sense the gentleness of the sword, it meant that the sword river would no longer be able to hurt him.

The more important thing was that by reaching this step, it meant that he already could faintly control the nature of sword laws.

However, the Qin Wentian at this moment knew nothing at all. He was completely immersed in a state of complete focus, like he was in an epiphany.

Ever since Qin Wentian entered the Taotie Mine, it had already been over ten years. Today, the sword river continued flowing down from the sky, gushing over Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian, who always had his eyes closed, finally opened his eyes today. His eyes shone with a resplendent light akin to the stars as a faint smile could be seen within.

Inclining his head, the flow of the sword river started to reverse. Instead of flowing down from the sky, it flowed upwards from the sword abyss instead.

At this moment, above the abyss, there were still many experts here. After one batch left, another batch would arrive. Shan Lengqiu, Murong Xiaoxiao and the others were still here as well. Shan Lengqiu felt reluctance in his heart. He vowed that he wouldn't leave unless he manages to comprehend the source origin of sword laws.

At this moment, the gazes of everyone froze. They stared into the abyss, they could sense an extremely terrifying aura gushing over. At the next instant, all of them retreated with explosive speed. They peered downwards, only to see the sword river reversing its flow, the momentum in which it did so generated a blast of wind that transformed into a fearsome windstorm. Any gust of wind from this windstorm was capable of killing an immortal emperor.

The experts who had retreated far away all stared at the windstorm. At the next moment, their eyes narrowed as they focused at the center of the storm. Over there, a figure could actually be seen. The figure was wearing a white robe that was stained by blood. He stood calmly at the center of the storm, resembling a divinity that was accepting the worship of the masses!

Chapter 1649: Nearing The Truth

This scene was similar to back then when the madman appeared. Those who had seen the madman breaking through before all understood.

Qin Wentian had stepped into that level. Surpassing immortal emperors, entering the Empyrean Realm.

"How terrifying." Someone felt his heart shuddering. Murong Xiaoxiao and the rest also stared in shock at Qin Wentian. Tens of years ago, he was merely a mid-stage immortal emperor at the grand banquet of the Lifelong Realm. He only took such a short period of time to reach the peak-stage and now, had even entered that realm where countless people aspired to.

As for that madman, he actually spent a thousand years here before he broke through. From this, one could see how terrifying the disparity was between them.

"This is comprehension ability. Maybe, although he was in the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm, his comprehension over his laws had already exceeded many peak-stage immortal emperors or even surpassing supreme-level immortal emperors like Shan Lengqiu."

Those years ago when the two of them discussed the Dao, it was evident that Qin Wentian's understanding of sword laws was indeed deeper than Shan Lengqiu.

"Congratulations senior." Yi Qing spoke. Right now, he no longer referred to Qin Wentian as Brother Qin and called him senior instead. In the cultivation world, the strong would always reign supreme and strength would determine one's status. As for their age, it was impossible to tell just by looking at the cultivator's appearance and in addition, it didn't mean that because you are older than me, I should respect you. For example, there should be some old fellows in the Lifelong Realm who had cultivated longer than the Realmlord. Could it be that the Lifelong Realmlord still had to call them seniors?

Unless the older ones are seniors of one's clan or sect, or someone you respect a lot, there wouldn't be such a case.

An example was that if Qin Wentian met some older people with a lower cultivation base than him but he respected them, he would still refer to them as seniors. But to strangers, this was naturally not applicable. Strength was the determinant.

"There are different opinions about the Dao. Only those who eventually enter the Empyrean Realm can be considered extraordinary." Someone sighed with admiration.

"I've heard in the past that when one reached the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm, their cultivation base is already at the great circle and their laws should be solid enough. If they wanted to take the next step, it isn't as simple as absorbing more energy. They had to break through by pure comprehension. Some people can comprehend that in a day, but there were also many who were stuck at the bottleneck for the rest of their lives. Now that senior has broken through to the empyrean realm, this point is truly proven."

"That's right. Senior Qin's cultivation base was already at the great circle of the immortal emperor realm before this. Right now, based on his supreme comprehension abilities, he managed to take the next step within just mere tens of years. We are all extremely impressed." The attitude of everyone was completely different from the past. Tens of years ago, they felt gratitude to Qin Wentian for saving their lives and were already filled with respect with regards to his combat prowess. But now, they treated Qin Wentian as a senior of the empyrean realm. In their eyes, the reverence within was true respect for a higher existence. After taking that step, Qin Wentian had successfully crossed the gap, he had became someone that was a different level from them.

Although Qin Wentian had now only gained comprehension over the source origin of a single law attribute, but given his extraordinary talent and comprehension abilities and the fact that he used a mere tens of years to take the first step, it was a given that he would soon be able to quickly comprehend the source origins of his other laws. The first step was always the hardest. In the future, he would definitely become a character that was equal to the palace lords of the nine world palaces. Characters at that level were all lofty individuals. Their respect for Qin Wentian was only natural.

Only Shan Lengqiu had a heavy look on his face. His heart was filled with misery. He had been cultivating here and hoping he would break through one day. However, in a mere tens of years, which was an extremely short period of time to experts like them, he still had comprehended nothing while Qin Wentian already broke through. When he thought of this, his pride felt incomparably suppressed.

However, this was merely Shan Lengqiu's feeling. Qin Wentian didn't even glance at him. He who was standing in the center of the storm nodded his head lightly at everyone. After that, his figure flashed, transforming into a beam of sword light and left here directly.

Upon seeing Qin Wentian departing, everyone felt a sense of disappointment and frustration and the state of their hearts couldn't calm down even after a long time. Qin Wentian was too terrifying, he only took such a short period of time to enter the empyrean realm. It was still understandable if Qin Wentian had been comprehending the sword laws for countless years, but everyone knew that just a mere tens of years ago, he was only at the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm.

However, Qin Wentian naturally wouldn't care about what these people were thinking. He soared through space quickly and not long after, he came to a fire mountain. This fire mountain's atmosphere was extremely scorching. That was a blood-colored redness in the center of the fire mountain, exceedingly vibrant, causing people's heart to shudder as they looked at it.

Qin Wentian used his sword intent to cover his body. His sword intent was like an armor, protecting his body. He stepped out and entered the fire mountain, coming to the central core of it. Over there, rocks of a brilliant red could be seen and a reddish gas was emitted from them. There were no other existences here, only the fire existed.

Qin Wentian controlled his sword intent to scoop up some rocks before tossing them back down. He knew that these terrifying rocks that contained fiery destructive properties were unable to be contained inside an interspatial ring, there was no way for him to bring them away as they would melt the space within any storage items. Only empyrean-ranked treasures would be able to contain them.

Qin Wentian roamed here for several days before transforming into a beam of light and departing. He continued to roam the Taotie Mine. He originally came here for the sake of his cultivation and not for mining. Hence, he didn't feel any need to excavate anything.

Time continued to flow. Qin Wentian ignored all external matters, pushing them to the back of his mind. The news brought to him by Beiming Youhuang had provoked him. But he knew that without strength, he was helpless to change anything.

...

During these years where Qin Wentian had disappeared, many things happened to the Lifire Palace everyday. But the most major thing that had happened within these years was still the death of the Jialan Monarch. There were still no clues as to who that bandit head was. The Lifire Empyrean was still enraged and continued to use heavy benefits to tempt more bandits to surrender for the sake of gaining information.

In addition, there actually was a greedy individual who came to the Lifire Empyrean during these years. This man was none other than one of the bandits back then. He was from Heavenly City and had provided a sketch of the bandit head's features using his immortal sense. However, nobody recognized the bandit head. Zhuge Xiong began to suspect that the bandit head must have disguised his features and none of the other bandits knew a thing about him or each other. There basically weren't any clues for him to investigate further.

Zhuge Xiong finally understood it was useless to tempt the bandits.

Hence, that immortal king expert who surrendered, just as he was still fantasizing about the good life he would have, he was brought away to some other areas and killed the instant he exited Lifire City. The cultivation resources and rewards he obtained were naturally completely taken back as well.

Luckily none of the other bandits were tempted by their greed or they would have suffered the same fate.

In the Lifire Palace, Zhuge Xiong was making a report to the Lifire Empyrean.

"It has been so many years. Is there no news about Jialan Monarch's death at all?" The Lifire Empyrean's tone sounded unhappy.

"Reporting to palace lord. The bandit head had only appeared once and I found out that the bandits all had no idea about the identities of each other. That bandit head who killed the Jialan Monarch is a very intelligent man. I suspect that he disguised his features when he met with the other bandits. There are no clues for us to follow, and there's only a single point that I find slightly more suspicious." Zhuge Xiong continued.

"What point?" The Lifire Empyrean asked. The Jialan Clan had made a huge fuss about this matter to the upper echelons. Right now, the Lifelong Saint Hall already knew about this and had questioned him through his messaging crystal, causing the Lifire Empyrean to be extremely unhappy.

"The gathering of bandits seemed to have started from Heavenly City. And Heavenly City is none other than the place where Ye Qianyu's Thousand Feather Palace was located." Zhuge Xiong spoke.

The Lifire Empyrean's eyes flashed with a terrifying sharpness. "You are suspecting Qin Wentian?"

"Without enough proof, this subordinate dares not suspect anyone recklessly." Zhuge Xiong lowered his head. Right now, Qin Wentian was different from the past, he was no longer the Qin Wentian who had just became the northern governor.

"Zhuge Xiong, you have followed me for all these years and I've allowed you to manage and control everything in Lifire City. This seat has always trusted in your intelligence. Just speak without worries, regardless of who it may implicate." The Lifire Empyrean spoke. This Zhuge Xiong was someone extremely intelligent, he can be considered the Lifire Empyrean's advisor. Hence, he had the position of the grand governor.

"Palace lord, since this is the case, this subordinate will say this. From my investigations of Governor Qin, I know that he is capable of disguising his features and knew of many such techniques. Back then in Heavenly City, he appeared before with a different face." Zhuge Xiong continued, "In addition, after the Jialan Monarch had died, all of our suspicions were cast on him. But there's no doubt that he being the killer has the highest possibility."

"But everyone in the northern governor's manor can be his alibi. It's impossible for this matter to be wrong." The Lifire Empyrean was certain.

"This is what this subordinate wants to talk about. What sort of character is Governor Qin? Does he need to inform anything to his subordinates when he leaves his governor's manor? Usually, who in his manor would dare to disturb him? Although his actions looked casual that day, I feel that he did this intentionally. The timing is just too coincidental." Zhuge Xiong frowned.

"Also, there's another very important point. Since Qin Wentian knows the art of disguise, can there not be other cultivators who also know the art, disguising themselves with Qin Wentian's appearance?" Zhuge Xiong spoke,

The eyes of the Lifire Empyrean flashed after he heard this. He fell silent and eventually still shook his head. "Being able to walk out from the governor's manor so openly...it would be too risky if he cooperated with someone else. Who would have the guts to work with Qin Wentian to fool me? I doubt this is possible."

"Palace lord is truly intelligent. This subordinate feels this way as well, this doesn't seem to be too possible, right?" Zhuge Xiong spoke. The Lifire Empyrean glanced at him, "Since you said that you feel it's impossible too, why are you telling me this?"

"Because, your subordinate has another more audacious conjecture." Zhuge Xiong spoke.

"What is it?" The Lifire Empyrean asked.

"Qin Wentian might have cultivated some sort of cloning or avatar creation technique. This technique should be a supreme-level one, capable of emulating his true-self aura temporarily." Zhuge Xiong replied. Instantly, the Lifire Empyrean's eyes flashed with lightning.

Zhuge Xiong's words seemed to have lit up something in his mind. He soon understood what Zhuge Xiong was implying and he felt that this was highly possible and might really be the truth!

Upon thinking of this, the Lifire Empyrean's eyes narrowed, flickering with a hint of killing intent!

Chapter 1650: The Palace Lord’s Decision

Zhuge Xiong's conjecture was very possible. There were truly some powerful cloning and avatar creation techniques here in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Even if the two are separated by distance, they could still appear simultaneously for a long period of time. There were even more heaven-defying ones where the avatar could possess the same combat prowess as the true-self.

They didn't think of this earlier because this was simply a dead angle. When the Jialan Monarch died, it was very natural for Qin Wentian to appear in his governor's manor. No one would suspect him further.

However, Zhuge Xiong was exceedingly intelligent and was always the one thinking up schemes and devising strategies for the Lifire Palace. He was highly regarded by the Lifire Empyrean. After rounds of investigation, he discovered that there was no way to continue investigating the Jialan Monarch's death. This was an unresolved case, destined to be unsolvable.

However, there was a single clue in this case which pointed to Heavenly City. This was why Zhuge Xiong kept analysing the case from different angles, hoping to find more clues. The one with the most suspicion was naturally Qin Wentian, he tried to see if he could remove Qin Wentian completely from it but at the end, he discovered that nothing seemed to make sense. Only with the conjecture that Qin Wentian had an avatar out there somewhere would make things logical, causing everything to fit. This was why he said this to the Lifire Empyrean today.

The Lifire Empyrean seemed to have been shocked awake by Zhuge Xiong. He felt that the truth should be this.

"Immediately summon all the governors other than Qin Wentian here." The Lifire Empyrean coldly spoke.

"Yes." Zhuge Xiong nodded. He took out his messaging crystal and began to summon the other governors.

After receiving Zhuge Xiong's command, the various governors all appeared in front of the Lifire Empyrean. They were brought to the outside of the empyrean's residence. In this area, everyone was a trusted aide to the Lifire Empyrean.

"Palace Lord, Grand Governor, did something happen?" The central governor Sun Qian asked. He could feel that the atmosphere felt somewhat strange. The palace lord and grand governor seemed to have something they wanted to announce."

"Zhuge, these people can all be trusted. Tell them what you just told me." The Lifire Empyrean spoke. Zhuge Xiong nodded and told everyone of his conjecture. After they heard it, the eyes of the various governors flashed. The habit-like smile on Beauty Xiao's face vanished, replaced by a heaviness.

One could not help but say that this conjecture by Zhuge Xiong was truly highly possible. Even they felt themselves believing that this was the truth. One must know that that year when the Jialan Monarch died, everyone instantly suspected Qin Wentian. But because of his alibi, everyone dismissed the notion. But if the gaps were filled up by the conjecture made by Zhuge Xiong, that Qin Wentian had an avatar somewhere, there was no doubt that Qin Wentian was surely the killer.

"What do you all think?" The Lifire Empyrean asked.

"We still can't be sure if Governor Qin has an avatar or not. This subordinate feels that it isn't that suitable to pin the blame of the Jialan Monarch's death on him just like that." Beauty Xiao spoke.

"Beauty Xiao, you are speaking up for Governor Qin just because he is handsome?" Yin Qiu coldly spoke. "Oh, I remember now. Didn't Governor Qin resolve the humiliation and insults you received from your clan when were at Lifelong City back then?"

"I'm only judging the matter as it stands. What do you mean by this?" Beauty Xiao coldly looked at Yin Qiu.

Right now, Yin Qiu had already given up on obtaining Beauty Xiao. This woman has always looked down on him. Since this was the case, there was no longer a need for him to be courteous to her.

"Everyone knows that Qin Wentian's probability of being the killer is the highest with regards to the Jialan Monarch's death. Given the strength he displayed back in Lifelong City as well as the powerful techniques he used, it's not strange that he would have gained access to an avatar creation technique. I don't feel surprised at all. There's an 80% to 90% chance that he is the killer. You are the first to step out to speak for him. Has he bedded you already?" Yin Qiu mocked. He had never liked Qin Wentian right from the start.

"Enough." The Lifire Empyrean interrupted when he saw that the two of them were going to quarrel. "I only want your opinions and not to hear you two quarrelling. Lin Ba, Sun Qian, what do the two of you think?"

"Your subordinate completely respects any decision palace lord wants to make." Sun Qian spoke, he was clearly a boot-licker but the timing of his words was very suitable. Because, he knew that the Lifire Empyrean gathered them here evidently not only to hear their opinions on this matter.

Zhuge Xiong has already said that there was no way to investigate this case. So everything now would depend on a thought by the Lifire Empyrean. Since Sun Qian could become the central governor after Xia Hou, he naturally was someone intelligent. Although he always appeared to be polite and amiable on the surface, he was actually an extremely shrewd individual.

"We can't rule out that possibility." Lin Ba's words contained a hint of neutrality, not daring to accept or deny. The various governors all had different opinions, they then turned their gazes to the Lifire Empyrean. For matters without evidence, they would naturally be concluded depending on what the Lifire Empyrean's willed.

Since this was already a dead case, if the Lifire Empyrean says that Qin Wentian is the killer, he would be the killer. If he says no, then he would not be.

Everything depended on a single thought from him.

The beautiful eyes of Beauty Xiao flashed with nervousness. If Qin Wentian came back without being strong enough, and if the Lifire Empyrean wanted to deal with him, he would definitely be in dire straits.

"No one is allowed to leak anything about this matter. For the past few contribution dates, Qin Wentian didn't come, he sent someone in his stead instead. Now, another ten-year mark is almost up. Zhuge Xiong, transmit a message to him to say that he has to personally show up for this year's contribution date. I have something important to ask him." The Lifire Empyrean slowly spoke. A moment later, the eyes of everyone flashed. They all understood that this sentence of the Lifire Empyrean had already announced his attitude and his decision.

Qin Wentian was going to be in for it. The Lifire Empyrean wanted to move against him, strangling Qin Wentian, who could grow into a threatening factor in the future, while he was still in his cradle. They all understood that if the Jialan Monarch was really killed by Qin Wentian, given how impulsive Qin Wentian was, he would sooner or later kill the Lifire Empyrean once he grows strong enough.

For that incident back in the past, although the Jialan Monarch was the one executing the orders, the orders were sent from the Lifire Palace. They had even sent experts to reinforce the Jialan Monarch.

"Palace Lord, the Qin Wentian today is different from the past. Back then at the competition in the grand banquet, even the Realmlord admired him highly. If we...would it not be suitable and might influence the Realmlord's view of you?" Yin Qiu seemed to be very loyal, thinking on behalf of the Lifire Empyrean. However, Beauty Xiao stared at him coldly. This was simply trying to provoke the Lifire Empyrean.

The Lifire Empyrean coldly glanced at Yin Qiu, causing him to tremble. It was clear that his little scheme had been seen through.

"During the contribution date, all of you come here as well. I'll ask Qin Wentian about the killing and you all will be witnesses. A governor masquerading as a bandit to kill one of my monarchs, this is an act of betrayal against the Lifire Palace, an act of betrayal against the Lifelong Realm. He will be executed." The Lifire Empyrean's voice was glacial.

"Yes, Palace Lord." Yin Qiu bowed to expressed his stance.

"We obey palace lord's orders." Lin Ba and Sun Qian bowed. This place was the Lifire Palace, who would dare to defy the Lifire Empyrean's orders? Since he wanted to deal with Qin Wentian, this meant that no matter how elite Qin Wentian was, he would also be helpless to fight back.

It would be good if there wasn't this incident of the Jialan Monarch's death. The Lifire Empyrean would not be able to have an excuse to deal with him or he would have to answer to the Lifelong Saint Hall. However, the Jialan Monarch's death undoubtedly was the best excuse.

"Yes, Palace Lord." Beauty Xiao also nodded.

Zhuge Xiong glanced at them, "You guys should know the consequences if you all leak any information about the meeting here today."

The Lifire Empyrean calmly glanced at them. He was confident that nobody would dare to leak anything. After being in control of the Lifire Palace for so many years, he does still have this bit of prestige. In addition, would they even side with a sinking Qin Wentian that's about to die? That would really be courting death.

"You all have leave to go." The Lifire Empyrean waved his hands in dismissal as everyone bowed and retreated.

After leaving the Lifire Palace, Beauty Xiao increased her speed. She took out her messaging crystal and sent a strand of her immortal sense in, "Reply as soon as you get my message."

"What's the matter?" A voice rang out in her mind. She then sent another strand of immortal sense in, "If Zhuge Xiong looks for you, do not return no matter what. He and the palace lord guessed that you might have cultivated an avatar creation technique and they are 80% to 90% sure that the Jialan Monarch's killer is you. The palace lord himself wants to act against you."

As the sound of her voice faded, the other party she was conversing with fell silent. After some time, a voice replied, "I understand. You be careful as well."

"Mhm." Beauty Xiao replied. She then kept her messaging crystal and continued on her way. A moment later, she heard that voice ringing out in her mind again, "Thank you."

When she heard that, Beauty Xiao suddenly had a charming smile on her face. Her sexy red lips curled in an alluring manner.

As expected, not long after Beauty Xiao spread the news to Qin Wentian, Zhuge Xiong soon messaged him. Qin Wentian didn't reply. He knew that earlier, Beauty Xiao hurried to message him because she wanted to warn him before Zhuge Xiong contacted him. If Zhuge Xiong spoke to him first and he replied, and didn't came back, that would mean that he already knew of this plot. But now, as long as he didn't reply, the Lifire Empyrean and Zhuge Xiong would be suspicious at best.

After all, there were many reasons for failing to reply. For example, he might be in a crisis, or he might have lost his messaging crystal.

Since Qin Wentian knew about this, Di Tian naturally knew as well. Right now, Di Tian was no longer in Lifire City, he was in Lifelong City instead.

Today, the Xuanyuan Clan had organized a banquet and invited Di Tian. The Emperor Pavilion's business was extremely booming in Lifelong City. He was now building up a major power here in Lifelong City.

There was no need to mention about the Jialan Clan, but the Xuanyuan Clan also wanted to ally with him. Since that was the case, it was extremely easy for Di Tian to make friends with them.

The Di Tian now was already very rarely seen in Lifire City. All the matters there were handed to his subordinates to handle. Other than focusing on his cultivation, he would occasionally appear in events organized by the other major powers of Lifelong City.

"Grandmaster Di, what are you thinking about?" At this moment, an expert from the Jialan Clan asked. The revealed eyes of Di Tian from the mask, flashed. He smiled, "Nothing much."

However, in truth, there were some waves in his heart. he didn't expect Zhuge Xiong to actually guess that he would have an avatar. Although he was sure that he left no evidence behind in the Jialan Monarch's death that would implicate him, but since the Lifire Empyrean wanted to move against him, there was naturally no need for any real evidence. The Lifire Empyrean would just directly pin the guilt onto him.

"Seems like I have to make some arrangements before the confrontation." Di Tian silently mused!

Chapter 1651: Do you know your crime?

Zhuge Xiong had no way to reach Qin Wentian. No matter what he did, Qin Wentian didn't reply.

He even personally paid a visit to the northern governor's manor and told the subordinates there to contact Qin Wentian. However, when the Evil Emperor attempted to do so in front of Zhuge Xiong, he also failed to contact Qin Wentian. From the countenance of the Evil Emperor, a faint trace of worry could be seen. He was worried that something might have happened to Qin Wentian. It didn't seem to be fake.

Hence, another riddle was formed. Right now, what was going on? What happened to Qin Wentian? Was he intentionally not replying to messages or did he lose his messaging crystal?

Their plan has already been set. But because Qin Wentian didn't reply, their plan was worthless now. Also, they had no other ideas. For the next contribution date, Qin Wentian wasn't here as well. The Evil Emperor brought some other subordinates and headed to the Lifire Palace in Qin Wentian's stead. Their contribution amounts were correct, not being less than what it ought to be. Right now, the major powers in the northern city regions no longer dared to not pay their contributions. Although Qin Wentian wasn't present, the sense of threat he projected was far different from the past.

Also, not only did their plan fail this time, for the next several contribution dates that happened once every ten years, Qin Wentian didn't turn up as well. This meant that Qin Wentian had already been outside for many tens of years and no one had any news of him. It was like he had completely vanished. The Lifire Empyrean felt extremely unhappy and a trace of worry.

Had someone betrayed him?

According to normal logic, none of the other governors would have the guts to do so. After all, this place was the Lifire Palace and he was the highest voice of authority here. Nobody could resist him and all of them knew clearly about the consequences of betrayal. Also, Qin Wentian was famous in Lifire City for not interacting with others. Even when Beauty Xiao wanted to get closer to him, she still failed to do so. But even if there was something between them, given Beauty Xiao's pragmatic nature, she would definitely abandon Qin Wentian since he was in trouble and stand at his side.

Right now, the Lifire Empyrean was not only worried about Qin Wentian. He was also worried about someone else. That other existence who was rewarded by the Realmlord, the current supervisory commander of Lifire City, Di Tian.

Di Tian has developed far too quickly in recent years. He was different from the low-profile Qin Wentian and took great strides forward, advancing with a ferocious pace. His Emperor Pavilion had branches everywhere. Because of the Realmlord's support, all the other major powers were willing to assist the Emperor Pavilion, allying with Di Tian. Right now, the power controlled by the Emperor Pavilion had already exceeded the Jialan Clan in Lifire City. It was just that their foundations weren't as deep. There has yet to be an empyrean character in the Emperor Pavilion.

Despite so, the Emperor Pavilion still caused the Lifire Empyrean to feel uncomfortable. It was enough to have a single Jialan Clan in his territory. Now that the Emperor Pavilion had appeared and the fact that he could do nothing to it was a very uncomfortable feeling. Also, what made him even more unhappy was that the Emperor Pavilion had very close relations with the Jialan Clan, Di Tian was far closer to them compared to him.

...

In the western city regions of Lifire City, the Emperor Pavilion had also extended their branches to here. They had a huge influence in the western city regions. Today, Di Tian personally came and gathered many major and minor powers together as he hosted a banquet.

During the banquet, the atmosphere was extremely lively. Di Tian sat in the host seat, he still had a mask on his face but there was the hint of a smile in his eyes as he stared at everyone below. "My Emperor Pavilion has already developed for several years in the western city regions. This time, I invited all of you here because I wish to seek out more cooperation opportunities for my Emperor Pavilion to develop faster."

Di Tian'ws words caused many of the experts here to feel their hearts pounding. Right now, in all the city regions, as long as they had a relationship with Di Tian, they would immediately soar to the top. For those minor and major powers that cooperated with the Emperor Pavilion, their development was sped up as well. The previous Yan Aristocrat Clan that was equal to the Mo Clan, had already collapsed, all their assets swallowed up.

"However, the prerequisite is that the powers cooperating with me have to be a first-tier power. I wonder if there are any clans or sects here who are interested?" Di Tian asked.

"My Nie Clan is willing to work with the Emperor Pavilion."

"My Purple Thunder Pavilion is also willing to cooperate together with Grandmaster Di Tian."

Many of the first-tier powers spoke. Di Tian smiled and nodded, "To think that everyone is so supportive. I'm really in a dilemma as to how to choose."

"Grandmaster Di Tian. At this moment, a person spoke. "My He Clan might not be a first-tier power but the businesses we control and the strength level of my clan, isn't in any way inferior to that of first-tier powers. Grandmaster Di Tian, please consider us as well."

"Oh?" Di Tian laughed. "I heard of your He Clan before. It's said that the He Clan has the most beauties out of all the great clans in the western city regions. I wonder if it's true or false."

"If Grandmaster Di is interested, you can come and visit my He Clan anytime." The elder from the He Clan cast a meaningful smile at Di Tian. He heard that this Di Tian had many beauties chasing him but he didn't take a wife even after so long. Most probably, this man was far too proud, he didn't feel that the young misses of any aristocrat clans were qualified to be his wife. However, it should be true that these women chasing him should have some illicit relationship with him before. If not, why would he be so close to the Jialan Clan and why would he help the Mo Clan to develop themselves into a supreme first-tier power?

Since this is the case, if the young females of his He Clan could have a sexual relationship with Di Tian too, he naturally wouldn't mind it. It wasn't a big deal to sacrifice a person for the sake of the entire clan. Let alone, if that female could become Di Tian's woman, it wouldn't be too bad for her. Jialan Qiuyue from the Jialan Clan kept a very close relationship with Di Tian. Nobody knew of their actual status.

"Okay, I will visit there whenever I have an opportunity to." Di Tian smiled at the elder from the He Clan. After that, he then asked in a bewildered tone, "But does the He Clan really have the strength and assets of a first-tier power? Why is the He Clan not classified as a first-tier power?"

"Grandmaster Di, do you still need to ask this?" The experts from the other powers laughed.

"Grandmaster Di Tian, you have already heard that the He Clan is famed for having many beauties. Our lord governor Yin Qiu, would also often visit the He Clan." A few people snickered. The other experts from the He Clan grinned but didn't say anything.

"Oh, no wonder. Since this is the case, I will definitely place the He Clan inside the list for my consideration. It's just that wouldn't Governor Yin Qiu be worried that the palace lord would blame him?" Di Tian had a look of enlightenment on his face, before he smiled and shook his head bitterly.

"Haha, Grandmaster Di Tian is too naive." Somebody laughed uproariously.

"What do you mean?" Di Tian asked.

"No, no, we shouldn't say anything. In any case, these are all rules hidebound by convention." That person laughed and waved his hand.

"Understood, understood." Di Tian nodded. "I wonder, how good is the relationship between the He Clan and Governor Yin Qiu. Since my Emperor Pavilion wants to develop here in the west, I believe everything would be much smoother if I can gain the governor manor's support."

"Grandmaster Di Tian, there's no need to worry. The relationship between my He Clan and Governor Yin Qiu is extremely good." The elder from the He Clan smiled.

"Since this is the case, let me ask one more time. Does the He Clan really have the strength and assets that are equivalent to a first-tier power?" Di Tian asked.

"Mhm, I can confirm that. All the powers here can be my witness as well." The elder from the He Clan laughed. Upon hearing his words, Di Tian smiled and nodded, "Come in."

A human figure sped over and respectfully bowed, "Pavilion lord."

"Help me make a trip to the governor's manor and invite Governor Yin Qiu here." Di Tian spoke. That person nodded and retreated, departing here.

"Grandmaster Di, why do you want to invite Governor Yin Qiu here?" The elder from the He Clan was puzzled.

"Everyone will know my plans after he is here." Di Tian laughed. "Come, let us continue to drink."

The group of them continued to chat and drink wine, feeling extremely relaxed. After three rounds of wine, they all felt much more close to each other. Hence, their conversation became more casual and was no longer as restrained as before.

After some time, Yin Qiu brought his subordinates here. When he saw how lively the atmosphere here was, he couldn't help but furrow his brows. This place was the western city regions, his territory. Di Tian actually gathered all the powers and was so friendly to them? However, there was some conflict between him and Di Tian. Back then when Di Tian wanted to act against Xia Hou, he was the only one who objected.

"Commander Di, why didn't you tell me that you were coming over to my western city regions? I would definitely have planned a good welcome reception for you." Yin Qiu laughed. Yet, Di Tian calmly sat there and glanced at him with a smile, "Earlier, I was chatting with everyone here and the topic of our discussion just so coincidentally involved Governor Yin. Hence, I invited Governor Yin to come here."

"Oh?" Yin Qiu laughed as he glanced at everyone.

"Yup, we were chatting about the good relationship Governor Yin has with the He Clan and that you would often pay a visit there. In addition, the He Clan says that they have the strength level and assets of a first-tier power yet they are classified as a third-tier one. This has truly opened my eyes." Di Tian laughed. Yin Qiu's expressions instantly changed. He glanced at the elder of the He Clan and berated, "What nonsense are you talking about. How is the He Clan a first-tier power? How dare you lie to the Commander Di Tian, you simply don't know the immensity of the heavens and earth."

All the experts from the He Clan started as their expressions changed. They felt that the atmosphere was now different from earlier.

Among the crowd, there were some experts who lowered their heads as an icy smile flashed in their eyes. They had already participated in the banquet hosted by the Emperor Pavilion in the past. That was the time when the Central Governor Xia Hou's fate was decided. At that time, Governor Yin Qiu objected to Di Tian's views but Di Tian cared nothing and pushed forward. Also, given that Di Tian was the supervisory commander of the Lifire Palace, it meant that he had power over the governors. In that case, the meaning of this banquet hosted today in the western city regions was extremely clear. How sad that the He Clan couldn't even see things clearly.

"Yes. Sigh, this old man must be muddled and boasted too much. Grandmaster Di, please forgive me for my boastful speech earlier." The elder of the He Clan reacted quickly and changed his stance.

"In that case, the He Clan only has strength and assets equal to a third-tier power? This is why you are classified as such?" Di Tian asked.

"That's right." Yin Qiu replied on their behalf.

Di Tian laughed. He turned his gaze to the back as a few figures walked forward and bowed, "Lord Commander, earlier, we have already investigated everything clearly. The He Clan has met the requirements to be classified as a first-tier power."

"Mhm." Di Tian nodded. He lifted his wine cup and sipped at the wine. His dark eyes flashed with sharpness as he turned to Yin Qiu, "Governor Yin Qiu, do you know your crime?"

Yin Qiu's heart sank. Di Tian truly came with unkind intentions, clearly intended to target him. This bastard, it wasn't enough for him to bring down Xia Hou. Now, he wanted to do the same to him as well? Could it be that he didn't know each governor of the Lifire Palace was under the command of the Lifire Empyrean who had personally chosen them for the posts? They all belonged to the Lifire Empyrean. Now that Di Tian was planning to make a move on them one by one, was this really just a private grudge? Or could it be that he is planning to challenge the Lifire Empyrean's authority and prestige?!

Chapter 1652: Acting Against Yin Qiu

"Commander Di Tian must be joking. What crime am I guilty of?" Yin Qiu's expression was awkward. He sinisterly glanced at the experts of the He Clan. The atmosphere of the banquet instantly quietened down. How could they fail to understand what was happening now?

Commander Di Tian might have hosted a banquet, but the wine drinkers heart wasn't in drinking the wine.

Before this, Di Tian was still chatting and laughing with the various major powers. But in the blink of an eye, he directly invited Yin Qiu here and immediately called him into account. It gave everyone the feeling that this banquet was simply a scheming plot. The He Clan fell for the trap and made a blunder. Naturally, there were also people who were gloating over their misfortune. They had long expected something like this to happen here. Who is to blame for the fact that the He Clan couldn't see things clearly?

"Earlier, the people of the He Clan personally told me that they have the strength and assets of first-tier powers but was classified as a third-tier. In addition, they also told me that Governor Yin Qiu would often visit their clan and have a very good relationship with them. I believe everyone here can be my witnesses, right?" Di Tian glanced at everyone before turning back to Yin Qiu.

"I must have misspoken. It's all nonsense. Grandmaster Di Tian, please don't take it that my words are real." The elder from the He Clan stood up and inclined his wine cup in a toast. "Grandmaster Di Tian, I spoke nonsense earlier due to me drinking too much. Please forgive me."

As he spoke, he drained the contents of his cup. Di Tian coldly looked at him, "After you told me about all of that, I've already sent my men to investigate. The investigation report was as what you have stated. I believe that the palace lord would definitely want to investigate this matter and he would be able to do so easily. It won't do you any good if you continue to lie."

The elder of the He Clan broke out in cold sweat. Di Tian slowly stood up and glanced at Yin Qiu, "Governor Yin Qiu, anything you want to say?"

"Commander Di, even if there's truly such a matter, that's only because I must have failed in supervising my subordinates. I'll investigate this and give you a clear response as soon as possible." Yin Qiu replied.

"Governor Yin Qiu already frequents the He Clan. What's there to investigate?" Di Tian coldly laughed. "As the western governor of the Lifire Palace, Yin Qiu, you ignored the palace's rules and exempted the He Clan from paying first-tier taxes because of your personal relations with them. The difference between the amount of tax paid by a first-tier and third-tier power is extremely great. By doing this, how would the other powers in the west be willing to submit to you? The Realmlord trusts me and held me in high regards, giving me the position of the supervisory commander. Since I learned of this, I naturally won't sit back to do nothing."

"Bastard!" Yin Qiu cursed in his heart. This bastard has now finally revealed his true colors, even bringing the Realmlord's name out. He actually was really planning to move against him.

"Commander Di, there was just a minor conflict between us in the past. There's no need for you to make use of your official position to get revenge on me, right?" Yin Qiu's tone turned sinister. What he did was considered extremely minor, all other governors would have definitely done so as well. If Di Tian really wants to investigate, all the governors of Lifire City would definitely have problems.

This Di Tian was clearly here for revenge because he objected back then about acting against Xia Hou.

Yin Qiu naturally didn't expect that Di Tian wanted to move against him today, wasn't it because of that small conflict back then. It was because when the Lifire Empyrean gathered the governors for a meeting with regards to Qin Wentian, this Yin Qiu clearly wanted Qin Wentian to die. At that time, he supported Zhuge Xiong's words wholeheartedly. Since this is the case, there was naturally no need for Di Tian to show any mercy to Yin Qiu. It's about time to touch the governors of the Lifire Palace.

Let Yin Qiu be the first governor then.

"When this seat does things, I always do it with fairness. This is my responsibility as the supervisory commander. You actually dare to insult this seat? Men, come in and capture Governor Yin Qiu, he ignored the rules of our Lifire Palace." Di Tian coldly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, two immortal emperors stepped out and moved towards Yin Qiu.

"Impudent!" There were also people stepping out behind Yin Qiu. It was none other than the vice governors of his governor's manor, his subordinates.

"Those who dare to obstruct me from carrying out my duties will be seen as defying the Realmlord, disrespecting his eminence. I will kill them all without mercy." Di Tian coldly spoke. After that, the two vice governors froze as they perspired cold sweat. This Di Tian clearly wanted to deal with Yin Qiu today. He kept bringing up the Realmlord's name and added the words 'no mercy.' If they were really killed by Di Tian because of this, how stupid would that be?

What a bastard.

"Di Tian, you can just say it outright that you want to move against me. There's no need to keep bringing the Realmlord's name up. If the Realmlord knows that you kept making use of his esteemed name, he would definitely be unhappy." Yin Qiu coldly glanced at the two immortal emperors moving forward. "I'm the western governor of the Lifire Palace. Someone personally conferred by the Palace Lord. You guys dare to touch me?"

"Capture him. If he dares to resist, that would be a crime of defying my orders and I will act personally." Di Tian lifted his wine cup and drank a mouthful of wine. Instantly, the atmosphere here grew tenser than ever. There was too much pressure.

Everyone was staring with trepidation at Di Tian and Yin Qiu. The two of them had shredded all pretense of cordiality and was falling out.

The two immortal emperors continued walking towards Yin Qiu. Light from their laws flashed as they acted.

"How impudent can the two of you be?" Yin Qiu's expression turned extremely cold. His law energy erupted forth as a gloomy aura permeated the atmosphere. Instantly, the two immortal emperors shivered as their bodies started to freeze.

It was impossible for Yin Qiu to sit here and wait for death. He didn't dare to imagine what his fate would be if he allowed Di Tian to capture him. Hence, he had to resist no matter what. There was no choice at all.

"Insolence!" Di Tian spoke. He stood up and stepped forward, his eyes gleaming with sealing light. In an instant, resplendent light from his laws covered Yin Qiu, wanting to seal away Yin Qiu's laws.

"SCRAM!" Yin Qiu coldly roared, punching out with his fist. A cracking sound rang out as the seals broke apart. Di Tian's gaze turned even more terrifying. The sealing light flowed without end, seeping into Yin Qiu's body unceasingly. Yin Qiu actually could do nothing to restrict the sealing energy.

Di Tian stretched his hand out and grabbed. In an instant, boundless law energy enveloped Yin Qiu, sealing him from his laws. Yin Qiu groaned in misery, he only felt that the flow of the law energy in his body wasn't smooth. He stared at Qin Wentian with a venomous look as he spoke, "You've actually already reached the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm."

Di Tian ignored Yin Qiu. The law energy of sealing from his eyes continued to flow out. He grabbed with his hand again as the formless sealing energy continued to seep into Yin Qiu. Di Tian slowly walked towards him and spoke, "Western Governor Yin Qiu has betrayed the Lifire Palace's laws, using his official power to gain benefits privately and he even dared to resist me who is acting in the capacity of the supervisory commander. These crimes are unpardonable."

As Di Tian spoke, his palm directly slammed onto Yin Qiu, causing Yin Qiu to scream in agony. A terrifying change appeared in his body. Yin Qiu shivered. His countenance was already extremely pale before this. Right now, he stared with terror at Di Tian as he cursed out loud. Di Tian actually acted so ruthlessly against him.

"By acting so arrogantly, the Palace Lord will never spare you." Yin Qiu's voice was hoarse, the people in the surroundings felt their hearts trembling. How crazy, after Di Tian became the supervisory commander, he had eliminated two of the Lifire Palace's governors. Back then, it was understandable because of the deep grudge between him and Xia Hou. But now, he was preparing to cripple Yin Qiu.

One must know that these two are governors the Lifire Empyrean personally appointed. The Lifire Empyrean didn't say anything when Xia Hou was removed. But now that he wished to cripple Yin Qiu's cultivation, would the Lifire Empyrean really still remain silent?

What did this Di Tian want to do exactly?

The expression of that elder of the He Clan had long turned pale. His body trembled. This time, they were in trouble, in great trouble.

"I've terribly sorry that such a thing happened in my banquet today. I won't keep you all back, everyone, please feel free to leave." Di Tian clasped his hands and spoke. The crowd naturally knew that this was a sign for them to go. All of them respectively left, but the states of their hearts were unable to regain calmness for a long time.

This incident swiftly spread throughout Lifire City. Yin Qiu's two vice governors had already left. They were not stupid, they naturally knew what they should do now at this moment.

However, Di Tian also sent his men to the Lifire Palace to make a report about this.

When Zhuge Xiong heard of this incident, he instantly felt a sense of unease. His expression grew unsightly as he coldly spoke to the person reporting this, "Commander Di Tian is simply behaving nonsensically and creating trouble."

After he spoke, he took out his messaging crystal and send a strand of his immortal sense in, transmitting his voice to Di Tian, "Commander Di, how did Yin Qiu offend you?"

"Grand Governor, Yin Qiu didn't offend me. However, he actually made use of his position for personal gain and purposely messed up the classification tiers for the powers in the west. This made many powers in the west complain, they reported this to me hence I went ahead and did an investigation. Who would have known that the rumors were true? Hence, I had no choice but to act. In any case, don't worry about it, I've already sent someone to report this to palace lord." Di Tian transmitted his voice back, his tone was like he was acting for justice.

Zhuge Xiong coldly laughed in his heart. If he wanted to make a report, did he even need to send his subordinates? Why can't he simply use the messaging crystal. This Di Tian was clearly trying to play tricks with him. He was doing this precisely because he wanted to deal with Yin Qiu.

"Commander Di Tian, Yin Qiu is still someone that belongs to the palace lord after all. Can you listen to my suggestion? Why don't you check the facts again, your investigation might be wrong." Zhuge Xiong was pleading for mercy for Yin Qiu.

"Grand Governor. Don't worry about it, I've investigated clearly. It's impossible for there to be any mistakes." Di Tian replied, he was clearly determined that he wanted to move against Yin Qiu. Zhuge Xiong even used the palace lord's name but Di Tian still didn't give face.

"Commander Di, it's tough to explain to you clearly here. Wait for me, I'll go look for you." Zhuge Xiong kept his messaging crystal. He turned and entered the depths of the Lifire Palace, coming to the place where the Lifire Empyrean resided. He then stopped after he arrived outside a supreme great formation.

"What did he say?" The Lifire Empyrean sat in there cultivating as he asked.

"Palace lord, I'm preparing to look for him personally." Zhuge Xiong spoke. Upon hearing this, a terrifying fire flickered in the Lifire Empyrean's eyes, causing Zhuge Xiong to feel a sense of being stifled. It was terrifying to the extreme. He understood that the palace lord was angered.

"Okay, go and make a trip there personally and help me probe Di Tian. What does he want to do exactly? Is he planning to take my position? He wants to be the Lifire Palace Lord?" The Lifire Empyrean sinisterly spoke. Making a move against two of his governors, this was not only not giving him face but was smacking it instead. In fact, it was a provocation to his authority.

Could it be that Di Tian's ambition was to take over his position?

Maybe, it might be true. When he thought until here, the Lifire Empyrean's gaze turned even more fearsome than before!

Chapter 1653: Each Having Their Own Schemes

The Grand Governor Zhuge arrived at the Emperor Pavilion of the western city regions. It was the same place that Di Tian brought Yin Qiu to.

Di Tian clasped his hands towards Zhuge Xiong. "Grand Governor, why have you come?"

"Commander Di Tian, I naturally came because of Governor Yin Qiu's matters. What did he do to offend you exactly? You want to deal with him so badly, is there anything I can do to mitigate his wrongdoings if there are any?" Zhuge Xiong spoke.

"Governor Yin Qiu didn't offend me. Didn't I say it clearly? He ignored the rules of the Lifire Palace and used his official position to profit privately, classifying the powers in the western city regions wrongly intentionally. This is disrespect to the Palace Lord, and also a betrayal to the Realmlord. I naturally have to capture him. Is grand governor mistaken about something?" Di Tian spoke with a straight face.

"Commander Di, that year in the past, the Palace Lord knows of your grudge with Xia Hou. Hence, even after you acted against Xia Hou, the Palace Lord didn't say anything. But now, even if Yin Qiu has committed some mistakes, it's not too big of a deal. Who among the governors of the Lifelong Realm wouldn't have some problems? Hence, it's best that Commander Di Tian considers things from the Palace Lord's point of view."

Zhuge Xiong seriously spoke, the meaning in his words were already very clear.

"Governor Zhuge, what do you mean by this? According to you, does it mean that the Palace Lord is abetting his governors to commit crimes?" Di Tian asked.

Zhuge Xiong furrowed his brows. This Di Tian was still intentionally acting dumb at this moment.

"Brother Di Tian, you should know how has the Palace Lord has treated you. During these years, he has never interfered or obstructed the Emperor Pavilion from its development. In fact, even though you are extremely close to his enemies, the Jialan Clan, he didn't say a single thing. Can't you see these?" Zhuge Xiong spoke.

"Di Tian naturally understands the Palace Lord's intention. It's just that I'm the supervisory commander and I don't understand grand governor Zhuge's words." Di Tian's voice also grew colder. In truth, he was extremely unhappy about Zhuge Xiong. This man actually brought up the conjecture that his true-self had an avatar. He is an extremely dangerous man. It was fine that Zhuge Xiong had managed to guess it, but he even reported it up to the Lifire Empyrean, wanting his true-self to die.

If his true-self came back without knowing the situation, it would be an extremely dangerous matter. His true self might really have died.

"Commander Di Tian, do you truly not know or are you pretending?" The volume of Zhuge Xiong's voice grew louder.

"Grand Governor, please enlighten me." Di Tian calmly replied.

"Palace Lord wants you to release Yin Qiu. I'm here to bring him away." Zhuge Xiong didn't beat around the bush and directly spoke. He wanted to see how would Di Tian react. Only this way would he be able to probe where Di Tian's bottom line was.

"Alright."

Zhuge Xiong was taken aback, this was out of his expectations. Di Tian actually nodded in agreement, albeit in an unwilling manner. Di Tian then spoke, "Bring him in."

Upon hearing this, a smile appeared on Zhuge Xiong's face as he heaved a sigh of relief. "That's how things should be done. We are all comrades, there's no need to make things too ugly for each other."

Di Tian started, he cast a strange glance at Zhuge Xiong. Upon seeing Di Tian's gaze, Zhuge Xiong felt a little puzzled. However, when Di Tian's men brought Yin Qiu over, Zhuge Xiong instantly understood. His expression instantly turned ashen, becoming incredibly unsightly to behold. He stared at the feeble-looking Yin Qiu who couldn't even stand straight by himself as he coldly asked, "Commander Di, what did you do to Governor Yin Qiu?"

"I exercised my authority as the commander supervisor. Governor Yin Qiu refused to cooperate with me and even injured my subordinates. I had no choice but to personally act to cripple his cultivation in case he injure even more people. Grand Governor, the Palace Lord won't blame me for acting too heavily, right?" Di Tian clearly knew the answer but he still asked. Zhuge Xiong's current expression was as ugly as ugly can be.

Was he wasting his time speaking for so long earlier? Yin Qiu was already crippled and he was still trying so hard to get Di Tian to compromise. Never would he have expected that Di Tian didn't even plan to negotiate from the start, directly acting ruthlessly, chopping all paths of retreats and crippled Yin Qiu.

"Di Tian, you are too impudent!" Zhuge Xiong's face was filled with rage. Di Tian had gone overboard by doing this. He didn't inform the Palace Lord and directly crippled Yin Qiu. What did this mean?

"Grand Governor Zhuge. I respect you because of your position and have always been polite to you. The Realmlord gave me this position to safeguard the Lifire Palace's interests, yet you kept wanting to shield a governor like him who misused his authority for self-interest? Is this the Palace Lord's idea or is it you asserting your own viewpoint? To me, the Palace Lord will naturally understand my kind intentions. If you continue to use him to attempt to suppress me, don't blame me for not being polite." Di Tian coldly snorted, his tone suddenly became domineering.

Zhuge Xiong started. He stared fixedly at Di Tian. A cracking sound rang out as he clenched his fists. Despite his self-control, he still wanted nothing more than to kill Di Tian at this moment. However, he knew this was impossible because he basically wasn't Di Tian's opponent.

If he really made his move here, maybe Di Tian would dare to do what he did to Yin Qiu, crippling his cultivation base as well.

Di Tian clearly already wanted to challenge the Lifire Empyrean's prestige. What sort of character was he, Zhuge Xiong? How could he fail to see this?

Yin Qiu was merely a convenient excuse. What an unlucky fellow.

"You better watch out." Zhuge Xiong spoke in rage, bringing Yin Qiu away with him.

"From Grand Governor's words, it seems that the governors of the Lifire Palace have already 'rotted' to such an extent? Seems like I, the supervisory commander, must have been remiss in my duties." As Zhuge Xiong soared into the air, he heard Di Tian's voice drifting over behind him. His body trembled, he was so angered that he almost coughed out blood. From Di Tian's meaning, was he planning to investigate the other governors as well?

"Di Tian must have already joined forces with the Jialan Clan." A thought flashed through Zhuge Xiong's mind. After that, he confirmed his own guess. He truly couldn't think of any other reasons why Di Tian would do this. During these years, although the Emperor Pavilion's development was fast, they still didn't have any empyrean-level characters after all. Di Tian himself also hasn't broken through yet. Since he would challenge the Lifire Empyrean's prestige at this time, there was only one possibility - he had joined forces with the Jialan Clan.

However, what made Zhuge Xiong puzzled was that Di Tian already had such a good future. Why would he want to take the risk and ally with the Jialan Clan? He had no idea why Di Tian did so.

After the Lifire Empyrean received Zhuge Xiong's report, as he stared at Yin Qiu who was kneeling and begging him to take revenge for him, his expression grew heavy to the extreme.

"Does Di Tian have that kind of relationship with the Jialan Clan?" The Lifire Empyrean asked Zhuge Xiong. The first thing that appeared in his mind was that Di Tian and the Jialan Clan have joined forces. If not, Di Tian wouldn't have chosen to do this.

"I'm not really clear about that. According to what I know, Jialan Qiuyue has always admired Di Tian and might really be fond of him. The Jialan Clan naturally hopes that she could become Di Tian's main wife. Hence, as long as Di Tian nods his head, regardless of gaining a beauty or the friendship of the Jialan Clan, he can have it anytime." Zhuge Xiong analysed. The Lifire Empyrean had a heavy look on his face.

Back then those years ago at the grand banquet, the Realmlord personally backed Di Tian, opening up a path for him. It was destined that no one in Lifire City would dare to touch Di Tian as long as he didn't break any rules of the Lifire Palace. Hence, as long as Di Tian did things more carefully, even if he is joining forces with the Jialan Clan, there was nothing the Lifire Empyrean can do to him. Things would be extremely troublesome.

The matter today was a good example. Di Tian wanted to act against his governors and he did so directly. Even if he, the Palace Lord, feels unhappy about it, he could only endure because it was true that Yin Qiu truly had some problems and Di Tian had investigated it.

Right now, unless he voluntarily disband his current governors making it so that Di Tian had no place to 'attack,' all his governors would definitely be extremely unlucky if Di Tian decided to investigate one by one.

They haven't settled Qin Wentian's matter and now, a Di Tian suddenly appeared. The Lifire Empyrean was truly in a very bad mood during these recent years.

"How do you think we should handle Di Tian's matter." The Lifire Empyrean asked Zhuge Xiong.

"It's very troublesome. Yin Qiu says that Di Tian has already broken through to the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm. Unless Palace Lord acts yourself, no one would be able to deal with him." Zhuge Xiong replied. The Lifire Empyrean extremely felt that this matter was extremely tough to deal with. Who would have thought that he would be threatened by an immortal emperor character today. He truly didn't know what to do.

"Right now, our only plan is to temporarily allow him to do as he pleases. Also, Palace Lord you should send out a message and tell the various governors to admit to their wrongdoings if there are any and you will personally administer the punishments on them. Di Tian wouldn't be able to do anything then." Zhuge Xiong stated. The eyes of the Lifire Empyrean flashed. "Alright, we can only do this for now. You can go ahead and handle this matter on my behalf. Since Di Tian wants to walk this path, I'll see what he can do then."

"Right." Zhuge Xiong retreated.

As for Di Tian, he had already returned to the headquarters of the Emperor Pavilion that's located in the central city regions. However, the news about how he dealt with Yin Qiu swiftly circulated around Lifire City.

Right now, Di Tian was considered a legendary character of Lifire City. Such a major incident about him crippling Yin Qiu, how could this not cause a commotion that shakes the entire city? Yin Qiu was already the second governor that had fallen to Di Tian. Everyone could still recall the fact that Yin Qiu objected when Di Tian wanted to act against Xia Hou. Who would have thought that now, Di Tian directly acted against Yin Qiu. This Grandmaster Di Tian was starting to show off more and more.

At the Emperor Pavilion, Jialan Qiuyue came by to look for Di Tian. Di Tian knew that the Jialan Clan would send someone here to meet him, he had also anticipated that they would send Jialan Qiuyue.

"What do you want to do?" Jialan Qiuyue directly asked when she saw Di Tian. Di Tian smiled, "What are you referring to?"

Jialan Qiuyue rolled her eyes, "What else could I mean? By acting against Yin Qiu, you will definitely enrage the Lifire Empyrean. After so many years, you still have not expressed your attitude towards me clearly. Isn't it because you wanted to avoid falling out with the Lifire Empyrean? Now that you suddenly did this, what do you mean by it?"

"Eh…" Di Tian sweated. This woman felt that the reason why he didn't ask for her hand in marriage was because of the Lifire Empyrean?

"You are truly narcissistic." Di Tian looked at Jialan Qiuyue as he spoke.

"Hmph, am I wrong?" Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes flashed with a confident look. She sat opposite to Di Tian and smiled at him, "You have not replied me yet. Can it be that you have finally thought things through? I'm just waiting for you to ask the question."

"Cough, cough…" Di Tian stared at her soul-stirring beautiful eyes as he sighed to himself. The guts of this woman keep growing...now, she even dared to take the initiative to flirt with him.

"I only feel that it's about time for us to touch the position of the Lifire Empyrean." Di Tian looked at Jialan Qiuyue as he slowly spoke.

Chapter 1654: A Storm is Coming

Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes froze, staring at Di Tian with trepidation.

This Di Tian wanted to touch the Lifire Empyrean's position?

Isn't that too audacious? In addition, did Di Tian really have such capabilities?

The Lifire Empyrean was, after all, an empyrean character, who's at the half-step world overlord realm. It's said that he has already gained comprehension over a hint of world energy. Although he hasn't acted for many years, there was no need to doubt that his strength was extremely strong.

Di Tian wants to touch the Lifire Empyrean's position? That's nothing more than a foolish dream.

"What do you mean by that exactly?" Jialan Qiuyue stared at Di Tian as she asked.

"Isn't it true that your Jialan Clan has always been against the Lifire Empyrean? Now, I know that the Lifire Empyrean will soon make a mistake. We can use this chance to deal him a heavy blow but naturally, I would need the Jialan Clan to cooperate with me." Di Tian explained.

"What kind of mistake." Jialan Qiuyue asked.

"You should know about Governor Qin, right?" Di Tian glanced at her and continued, "Back then when the Jialan Monarch had died, many people suspected him. Right now, the Lifire Empyrean wants to make an issue out of this, he is prepared to act first before reporting up to the Lifelong Saint Hall and is planning to kill Qin Wentian."

"Qin Wentian has obtained the Realmlord's favor in the grand banquet those years ago, performing admirably during the competition between the world palaces. Could it be that the Lifire Empyrean has obtained some evidence to prove that Qin Wentian really is the killer?" A cold light flashed in Jialan Qiuyue's eyes. No matter what, the Jialan Monarch was her uncle.

"I'm not sure about that. I only know that the Lifire Empyrean secretly gathered all the governors and is secretly plotting to lure Qin Wentian back to the Lifire Palace to kill him first before he reports it up to the Realmlord. The Lifire Empyrean doesn't want Qin Wentian to be alive. From my spy, the Lifire Empyrean has no evidence at all. If the Realmlord knows how little regard the Lifire Empyrean has for him, what would he think?" Di Tian replied.

"You actually have spies beside the Lifire Empyrean? What are you planning exactly? Could it be that you acting against Yin Qiu is nothing but to pave the way forward?" Jialan Qiuyue felt that Di Tian was growing more and more mysterious to her.

"How is my relationship with you?" Di Tian glanced at her. Although she could only see his eyes, Jialan Qiuyue felt her heart pounding as a blush of shyness appeared on her face.

"How is my relationship with the Jialan Clan?" Di Tian continued. "The Lifire Empyrean has long been wary of me. Just because he suspects Qin Wentian, he is already prepared to finish him off without proof. In that case, what about me? I will become a second Qin Wentian the moment he finds an excuse to act against me. But things would be different if the Jialan Clan can get the position of the Lifire Palace Lord. Given the relationship between your clan and me, I naturally would prefer Jialan Jiangshan to become the Lifire Palace Lord."

"Oh, so you know this? Why don't you marry into my Jialan Clan now, I can recommend a young miss of our clan to you." Jialan Qiuyue giggled as she teased. Di Tian perspired cold sweat, to think that this Jialan Qiuyue was still thinking about such things now. He hurriedly continued, "Qiuyue, this matter is considered as me laying my cards out against the Lifire Empyrean. I also have no way to predict how the situation would go. You should inform your clan members and if the Jialan Clan has no wish to make use of this opportunity, just pretend that I didn't say anything. I will simply be more low-profile in the future. As for Qin Wentian, since he dies, he dies."

"Fine, I'll go now." Jialan Qiuyue nodded and left the area. Upon seeing her departing back, Di Tian sighed. Since the Jialan Monarch had died, in truth, he no longer had any grudge with the Jialan Clan. But for this matter, he had no choice but to make use of the Jialan Clan, and to make use of Jialan Qiuyue's feelings for him. He felt some guilt in doing so.

But when he thought of Ye Qianyu, as well as Beiming Youhuang being trapped in the Lifelong Saint Hall, he had no choice but to do this. He had to gain more power and status or he wouldn't even be able to have the opportunity to come in contact with Ye Qianyu and Beiming Youhuang.

...

The Lifire Empyrean personally told the governors to check for their own wrong-doings and strictly enforced the rules of each city region. If they were guilty of using their own official positions for personal benefits in the past, as long as they admitted it, they would be given a light punishment. All the governors naturally understood the Lifire Empyrean's intentions and all of them plead guilty to the Lifire Empyrean and this matter was simply brushed off just like that. At the very least, on paper, the Lifire Empyrean had already handled the matter. There was nothing Di Tian could do even if he wanted to try something.

When this news circulated out, many people felt shocked in their hearts. Clearly, the Lifire Empyrean was opposing Di Tian by doing this. After Di Tian captured Yin Qiu, the Lifire Empyrean didn't say anything and told his governors to check for their own wrongdoings and he will handle it. To a palace lord, this clearly was a humiliating matter but he still did so. From this, one could very well tell how bad the relationship between the Lifire Empyrean and Grandmaster Di Tian was.

During these few days, Grandmaster Di frequently went to the Jialan Clan as a guest. Jialan Qiuyue would also go to the Emperor Pavilion to look for him regularly. Everyone understood that Di Tian, ultimately has chosen to side with the Jialan Clan. He wanted to help the Jialan Clan to deal with the Lifire Empyrean.

So, he finally couldn't escape the beauty trap. Seems like Jialan Qiuyue has finally taken down this outstanding supervisory commander and weaponsmithing grandmaster.

And during this sensitive period, Zhuge Xiong actually received Qin Wentian's reply from his messaging crystal. According to Qin Wentian, he had entered one of the mines to temper himself and had placed his interspatial ring and other belongings in a secret place, including his messaging crystal. This was why he couldn't reply until now. Qin Wentian asked if there was anything the matter that Zhuge Xiong was looking for him for?

There seemed to be no problem. Zhuge Xiong told Qin Wentian to make haste to return as many things had happened in the Lifire Palace. The palace lord wanted to summon him for a meeting many times but Qin Wentian was nowhere to be found. Qin Wentian then replied that he would rush back immediately. Zhuge Xiong also felt more at ease. Seems like there should not be much trouble with regards to getting Qin Wentian to return.

It's just that even before they settled Qin Wentian's matter, the problem of Di Tian and the Jialan Clan had already jumped out. This made him felt somewhat gloomy.

After the Lifire Empyrean knew of this, he naturally told Qin Wentian to come to the Lifire Palace the moment he came back. After that, he planned to question him, take him down, and execute him on the spot, using the crime of killing the Jialan Monarch as the excuse. The Lifire Empyrean felt that it was best to kill Qin Wentian now to prevent any future trouble.

Since he had already decided to do this, the Lifire Empyrean naturally would be extremely decisive. He would definitely not be soft-hearted.

Finally, Qin Wentian returned to the Lifire Palace's territories today, back to the governor's manor of the northern city regions.

"Wentian, Zhuge Xiong came by here many times personally, asking me about your location. I've transmitted the messages to you." The Evil Emperor instantly spoke up when he saw Qin Wentian's return.

"I know, I also know why he is looking for me, hence I didn't reply you." Xu Li, is everything fine during this period of time that I've been away? Any huge incidents that would disrupt the normal operations, etc?" Qin Wentian asked. In his northern city regions, he didn't want to give his enemies any excuses to turn things to their advantages.

As long as his region had no problems, it wouldn't be so easy for the Lifire Empyrean to touch him. If the Lifire Empyrean still chooses to do so, it would be the Lifire Empyrean's problem then.

"No." Xu Li shook his head. "Everything in the northern city regions has been running smoothly."

"Good. I'm entering closed-door seclusion. If the grand governor or others come by to ask, tell them I'm entering a life-and-death one because I'm about to breakthrough. Nobody is to disturb me. Remember, no matter who is it, or what is the reason, no one is to disturb me." Qin Wentian instructed.

"About to breakthrough?" The eyes of the Evil Emperor and Xu Li flashed with sharpness.

He was about to breakthrough so quickly?

The two of them exchanged mutual glances, both of them felt difficult to mask the shock in their hearts. They all knew what cultivation base Qin Wentian had those years ago. How many years has it only been then? Is he already about to enter the legendary empyrean realm?

If they knew that Qin Wentian had already broken through, it was unknown what they would think.

Qin Wentian instructed them like this because he wanted to tell them that when the people from the Lifire Palace came by, they better take their actions fast because he was about to break through to the empyrean realm. If the Lifire Palace delays, things would be extremely troublesome if they want to deal with him in the future.

Qin Wentian decisively entered closed-door seclusion. The Lifire Palace soon received news that Qin Wentian has returned.

As the northern city governor, how could Qin Wentian be so naive? He knew that the Lifire Palace would immediately know the moment he entered his governor's manor. It was impossible that the northern governor's manor didn't have a few spies of the Lifire Palace mixed within his subordinates. If not, the Lifire Empyrean back then wouldn't have not suspected him in the Jialan Monarch's death. Clearly, one of the spies had reported that he or she had seen him leaving the governor's manor much later after the Jialan Monarch's death.

Hence, during the second day, the Grand Governor Zhuge Xiong personally came to the western governor manor. The Evil Emperor and vice governor Xu Li personally welcomed him.

"Why? Did Governor Qin not hear my words? He hasn't been to the Lifire Palace for so many years and actually chose to enter seclusion the instant he returned?" Zhuge Xiong was clearly extremely unhappy. He then continued speaking, "Tell him to come out immediately and return with me to the Lifire Palace."

"Grand Governor, please calm your rage. Governor Qin has told us that none of us are to disturb him during this crucial time of his cultivation. No matter who it is, or what matter it is, we are not allowed to disturb his cultivation or we would all be guilty." Xu Li respectfully replied.

"What crucial time during cultivation? Does he dare to disobey the palace lord's orders?" Zhuge Xiong stared at Xu Li. "Are you planning to disobey it as well?"

"Governor Qin has never mentioned anything about the palace lord's orders, he shouldn't know anything about that. If he did, he would definitely have headed to the Lifire Palace first." Xu Li explained. He then continued, "Also, before Governor Qin entered seclusion, he said that he was about to break through to the empyrean realm. At this time, no matter what matter is happening, this subordinate dares not be the one to disturb him. If I delayed Governor Qin's breakthrough, I wouldn't be able to answer for it."

Zhuge Xiong's eyes flashed with sharpness after he heard that. "Governor Qin really said that?"

"This subordinate dares not lie to the grand governor. That's what Governor Qin has said, he's currently in a closed-door seclusion session that's extremely crucial as he is about to break through. No matter who it is, or what is the matter, no one is to disturb him." Xu Li solemnly replied. Zhuge Xiong narrowed his eyes as a look of contemplation appeared on his face.

Qin Wentian was actually about to breakthrough? What a fast cultivation speed he had.

"Since this is the case, I'll return and report this to the Palace Lord first." Zhuge Xiong left with his unhappiness. Xu Li watched as he vanished, before glancing to the Evil Emperor as he spoke, "Why do I feel that something big is about to happen?"

The Evil Emperor narrowed his eyes. Qin Wentian entered closed-door seclusion the moment he returned and Zhuge Xiong arrived here almost immediately, wanting him to go to the Lifire Palace. Not only that, Zhuge Xiong's attitude was extremely domineering. This was something that has never happened before.

Also, from Qin Wentian's reactions, it was like he already knew Zhuge Xiong would come here, hence he gave the order that no one was to disturb him when he is in the closed-door seclusion. In that case, this means that Qin Wentian was intentionally avoiding Zhuge Xiong.

"Yes, a storm is coming." The Evil Emperor spoke, his eyes gleaming with an evil light.

Chapter 1655: Arrival

Qin Wentian had returned to Lifire City. On the surface, it seemed that the atmosphere was tranquil and fine. In truth, dark undercurrents were already brewing.

The Jialan Clan was silently making their moves. In fact, even the main pillar of support of the Jialan Clan, Jialan Jiangshan, who had once contended against the Lifire Empyrean for the position of the Lifire Palace Lord, had also secretly arrived at Lifire City. Not only that, a large number of experts had arrived. The Jialan Branch in Lifelong City had also prepared in case there were unexpected situations occurring.

The Emperor Pavilion had also summoned their core characters back and stationed them in the western city regions of Lifire City. The Emperor Pavilion in the western city regions was extremely large, there was enough space for many experts to stay there. They were ready to react to any unexpected incidents.

Just like what the Evil Emperor and Xu Li had guessed, a storm was about to come in Lifire City. It was just that the storm was still currently invisible, although the undercurrents of chaos could already be felt.

After Zhuge Xiong returned to Lifire Palace, he told the Lifire Empyrean about the news that Qin Wentian was about to break through to the next realm. After the Lifire Empyrean heard this, he stared at Zhuge Xiong and asked, "Will Qin Wentian do this intentionally? In truth, he has already received news and knows that we will be acting against him?"

"I don't think so. If he had received the news, he wouldn't have returned to Lifire City." Zhuge Xiong affirmed. How would Qin Wentian come back to die if he knew about this?

"This means that it must be true that he is about to break through to the empyrean realm and he's at a crucial moment of his cultivation." A terrifying fire flickered in the Lifire Empyrean's eyes. Although he had been in the empyrean realm for many years, and was confident that he would be able to easily deal with Qin Wentian even if Qin Wentian really broke through, he couldn't help but feel worried. After all, he had seen Qin Wentian's combat prowess before. There might be unexpected situations occurring if Qin Wentian really broke through.

"It's highly possible. I'm afraid he wouldn't come out of his seclusion unless he achieved his breakthrough. Palace Lord, should we wait for him?" Zhuge Xiong asked. It was the most suitable if they acted against Qin Wentian when in the Lifire Palace because this was the ultimate territory of the Lifire Empyrean. He could control all the factors here and news wouldn't leak out no matter how they dealt with Qin Wentian.

But now, Qin Wentian was in a life-and-death situation and would only come out after he achieved his breakthrough. This then became a problem of choice. Should they wait for him before summoning him to the Lifire Palace, or should they head over to the northern governor's manor now to act?

"No, we can't wait." A cold light flashed in the Lifire Empyrean's eyes.

"Palace lord, the Jialan Clan is in the northern city regions and their influence there is extremely great. Will there be trouble?" Zhuge Xiong felt some trepidation as he asked.

"Without Jialan Jiangshan, what can the Jialan Clan do against me? Also, no matter how strong the Jialan Clan is, this place is still my Lifire City." The Lifire Empyrean domineeringly stated. "Also, if they knew that Qin Wentian was the Jialan Monarch's killer, they would naturally also hope for Qin Wentian's death. With me acting personally, there shouldn't be any unexpected accidents occurring."

"Your subordinate is useless, I would have to trouble palace lord then." Zhuge Xiong bowed. This initially was something he ought to handle as the governors of the Lifire Palace were supposed to be his direct subordinates.

However, right now, a mere northern governor actually required the palace lord to act personally. This clearly meant that he was not strong enough.

"Qin Wentian is too monstrous, you can't be blamed for this. Immediately summon the other governors for a meeting to discuss things." The Lifire Empyrean commanded. Zhuge Xiong nodded and took out his messaging crystal, summoning the other governors to the Lifire Palace. Right now, the number of governors he could summon had dwindled down to a few. Only central governor Sun Qian, eastern governor Lin Ba and southern governor Beauty Xiao remained. Yin Qiu had been crippled, and the northern governor was none other than Qin Wentian.

The three governors received the orders and brought their vice governors and headed to the Lifire Palace respectively. On the way there, Beauty Xiao kept cursing in her heart. That fellow actually returned?

She had already warned him that the Lifire Empyrean wanted to kill him yet he still dared to return? Could it be that he really thought that the Lifire Empyrean wouldn't dare to kill him?

Right now, the Lifire Empyrean had already personally issued the order to gather the various governors and vice governors. Evidently, it was to deal with Qin Wentian. What was even more infuriating was that she had sent him a message to warn him, yet Qin Wentian actually didn't even reply her. That insufferable bastard fellow…

When the three governors reached the Lifire Palace, they discovered that there were already many people here. The subordinates of Grand Governor Zhuge Xiong and some experts and attendants of the Lifire Palace were here as well. There were tens of immortal emperors here. With such a powerful group, it was clear that the Lifire Empyrean was prepared to act personally.

However, the Lifire Empyrean didn't appear at all. The governors were led by Grand Governor Zhuge as well as two masked elders of the Lifire Palace. These two elders were the left and right arm of the Lifire Palace. They were extremely mysterious and could be considered the palace's envoys. Behind them, there were also a number of masked figures at the immortal emperor realm. These were all the secret guards of the Lifire Palace.

"Grand Governor, is it necessary to gather such a large group of expert just to deal with a single Qin Wentian" Beauty Xiao smiled.

"Right now, it's unknown how many hidden experts there are in the northern governor's manor. We have to capture the Evil Emperor and the others first and if they dare to resist, kill them all directly. No unexpected accidents are allowed to happen." Zhuge Xiong icily commanded. He then waved his hand, "Move out!"

As the sound of his voice faded, this big group of experts directly rushed towards the northern governor's manor, the two envoys led the masked experts separately, they didn't travel together with Zhuge Xiong and the rest. One party was moving in the light, the other in the dark. They were prepared to finish Qin Wentian off.

Beauty Xiao understood the Lifire Empyrean's character. Since he could sit in the palace lord's position, he was definitely an extremely decisive and ruthless individual. Since he decided to do this, he would go all the way to prevent any sources of future trouble. Qin Wentian was someone the Realmlord had taken notice of. If he killed Qin Wentian under the circumstances that there is no evidence, things would be extremely troublesome. If the Realmlord somehow learned of this and became unhappy, things would be extremely disadvantageous for him, the Lifire Palace Lord.

This group were made up of immortal emperors, not a single immortal king could be seen within it.

Currently, the people of Lifire City had no idea what was going on. They were leading their lives as usual or were cultivating alone, transacting treasures, drinking and chatting, or idling the time away.

Things were the same in the northern city regions too. Everything was normal, there didn't seem to be any different from usual.

"Did you guys know that lord governor has returned?" The people of the northern governor's manor were discussing.

"Yeah, I've heard about it. Lord governor has always been extremely mysterious about his movements. I heard that despite him having returned, he had never appeared out in public inside the manor to see the subordinates at all."

"I heard that during the second day after lord governor returns, the grand governor Zhuge Xiong came by, seeking to meet him immediately as though there was something extremely urgent. However, he was stopped by vice governor Xu Li. I wonder what has happened."

"What else can there be? Don't you know what sort of character our Governor Qin is? Although Zhuge Xiong is the Grand Governor, so what of it? In front of our lord governor, he still doesn't have any capacity to be arrogant." That person spoke with pride, filled with respect and reverence for Qin Wentian.

Although Qin Wentian has been extremely low profile these years, he was simply too special. Every deed he chose to do, would always be a major deed that can shake the entire city.

Just as they were speaking, terrifying fluctuations could suddenly be felt from the air. The clouds rolled and a moment later, a stifling pressure bore down on all of them.

"What's going on?" The crowd frowned.

"What happened?" All of them inclined their heads. The pressure grew stronger and stronger and in a short instant, the terrifying pressure had already enveloped the entire governor's manor as many experts descended from the sky, all of them immortal emperors.

Also, the man in the lead was actually the grand governor Zhuge Xiong.

At this moment, everyone in the governor's manor felt their hearts trembling. They understood that a major matter was going to happen. A heaven-shaking major matter!

The entire governor's manor instantly turned into chaos. Also, in the surroundings of the governor's manor, everyone here also felt the sense of pressure pressing down on them. When they saw the experts descending from the sky, all of them felt shocked in their hearts.

After descending, the experts all stood at different locations. Zhuge Xiong stepped out and spoke loudly, "Northern Governor Qin Wentian. Come out now."

Nobody replied to him. Within the governor's manor, the Evil Emperor, Xu Li and their subordinates appeared. They looked into the air and when they saw the many experts arrayed against them, they understood that the storm had come. Although they had been expecting it, they still didn't expect that the storm would come so fast.

"Governor Qin is in seclusion. Grand Governor, what do you mean by this?" Xu Li asked.

Zhuge Xiong's expression was solemn, icy to the extreme. He continued, "Qin Wentian has broken the palace's rules and his crime is unpardonable. The palace lord is summoning him to the Lifire Palace for questioning, including all the vice governors and attendants of the northern governor's manor."

Even now, Zhuge Xiong still wanted to bring them all back to the Lifire Palace and quietly settle things.

The gaze of the Evil Emperor and Xu Li froze. Did they want to capture all of them in one go, bringing all the vice governors and attendants away? Did the Lifire Empyrean wish for the core characters of the northern governor's manor to vanish completely?

Countless people felt their hearts shaking. The Lifire Empyrean wanted to capture the northern governor Qin Wentian? What the hell was going on exactly?

"I don't understand grand governor's meaning." The eyes of the Evil Emperor shone with a jade-green light as he coldly spoke.

"You will know after you come back with me to the Lifire Palace." Zhuge Xiong's immortal sense gushed forth. His eyes glanced towards the courtyard Qin Wentian was in. A moment later, he punched out, causing his fist light to cover the heavens, directly tearing through everything. Thunderous rumbling sounds rang out as the buildings in the surroundings collapsed, causing clouds of dust to rise up into the sky. A sturdy-looking grand cultivator formation appeared in the middle of the ruins and a white-robed figure could be seen sitting cross-legged within it.

This white-robed figure was naturally none other than Qin Wentian!

At this moment, Qin Wentian inclined his head. His eyes were like sharp swords, shooting across the distance, terrifying to the extreme. With a single glance, Zhuge Xiong felt his entire body shivering. At this moment, he actually felt as though he was facing against a divinity. It was like he was matching gazes with an invincible existence.

"Has the time finally arrived?" Qin Wentian's gaze was extremely terrifying as he slowly rose into the air. He has been waiting for this moment for a very long time!

Chapter 1656: Head-on Opposition

Qin Wentian floated in the air, staring at the experts of the Lifire Empyrean. He then turned his gaze to Zhuge Xiong and coldly spoke, "Governor Zhuge, what crime did I commit?"

His voice was extremely calm but Zhuge Xiong felt his heart shaking. For some reason, Qin Wentian actually gave off an unknown sense of pressure, an extremely powerful pressure.

"We will talk about this matter after we return to the Lifire Palace. The Palace Lord commands you to bring all your vice governors and attendants and return with me. Governor Qin, it's best to obey the order." Zhuge Xiong's voice was no longer as domineering as before. The calm Qin Wentian actually made him feel even more terrified. If Qin Wentian suddenly erupted, it was unknown whether he would be in danger or not.

"Today, leaving aside the fact whether I, Qin, have committed any crimes, why is Governor Zhuge humiliating my men and destroying my property so blatantly? I'm afraid if I return there with you, I will never be able to exit." Qin Wentian stood with his hands behind his back. His white robes fluttered in the wind, projecting a majestic aura, causing the eyes of everyone to gleam. This was as expected of the governor of the northern city regions, Qin Wentian.

Even if they had numerous experts with them and Zhuge Xiong was here to capture him to the Lifire Palace, all these didn't cause Qin Wentian's expression to fluctuate at all. Instead, it felt like if Zhuge Xiong was unable to give him a proper reply, there was no need for him and the experts he brought here to leave.

"In that case, does this mean the Palace Lord's commands are useless against you?" Zhuge Xiong's voice turned cold after being threatened.

"If I'm not guilty of any crime, even the Palace Lord cannot humiliate me like this and destroy my property." Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

"Oh?" A tyrannical voice rang out from the void, its might shaking the sky. In an instant, the vast northern city region was subjected to a stifling pressure. Countless people were shocked, they all stared up at the sky but couldn't see anything. Even their immortal sense was unable to discover anyone at all. They could only feel that terrifying pressure.

At this moment, all of them understood that the Lifire Empyrean had personally come.

What did the northern governor Qin Wentian do exactly? Why was the Lifire Empyrean personally here?

Zhuge Xiong's expression was ice-like. A beautiful figure behind him, Beauty Xiao, her face was painted with worry. Could it be that this fellow wanted to clash head-on with the Palace Lord? Didn't he know that this was simply courting death?

Qin Wentian also inclined his head, his eyes peering into the void. He naturally knew who had come. He had long expected that the Lifire Empyrean would surely personally come by. Because, other than Lifire Empyrean, none of his other subordinates would be able to capture him, Qin Wentian.

"Qin Wentian, I'm commanding you to go to the Lifire Palace right now. Are you going to obey or not?" The Lifire Empyrean coldly spoke as the might rolling off from him bore down on Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian stood up straight and proud. He replied arrogantly, "Palace lord, please make things clear then. What crime has this subordinate committed exactly? Why are you humiliating me like this?"

"You just have to reply, are you going to obey, or not?" The Lifire Empyrean domineering replied, not wanting to waste words.

Qin Wentian stood there, "I regret that I cannot comply."

"The vice governors and attendants of the northern governor manor, are you guys going to obey my command or not?" The Lifire Empyrean asked. A moment later, other than a few of those who had been following Qin Wentian since the time of Ye Qianyu being captured, the other vice governors and attendants were all trembling with fear.

Do they need to make a choice?

Although their governor was the magnificent Qin Wentian, the person asking them was none other than the Lifire Empyrean, the hegemon over this boundlessly vast region, the Palace Lord of the Lifire Palace.

"Your subordinates will obey Palace Lord's command."

"We are all willing to head to the Lifire Palace." An instant later, more and more people spoke out as their silhouettes flashed, moving towards Zhuge Xiong's side. Qin Wentian's other subordinates stared at this scene dumbfoundedly, they glanced at Qin Wentian again. They had always treated this imposing lord governor like a God. However, was this existence akin to a divinity to them, about to collapse today?

Qin Wentian had done something that enraged the Lifire Empyrean.

The atmosphere was incomparably tense. The hearts of Qin Wentian's subordinates pounded rapidly. During these years, Qin Wentian was their belief and conviction. No one had expected that such a thing would occur.

"Qin Wentian, this seat is going to ask you for the last time. Will you obey or not?" The domineering voice of the Lifire Empyrean thundered through the air. Qin Wentian was still as calm as ever. He stared into the void and replied, "I'd rather die than to be humiliated."

"Since this is the case, I'll grant you your wish." At the next instant, an even heavier pressure enveloped the surroundings. Flames filled the air, bolts of red lightning rained down. This was like a scene of the apocalypse, shaking the hearts of everyone.

After that, a thunderous rumble shook the sky, threatening to rend one's eardrums. In the air, a blazing giant palm descended from the sky. At this moment, it seemed that the entire world was about to be destroyed.

Below on the ground, countless people trembled in fear as they started to retreat in a frenzy. Zhuge Xiong and the others evaded. This giant palm was like a natural calamity, shooting right towards Qin Wentian, controlled by the Lifire Empyrean's law will.

A brilliant radiance radiated from Qin Wentian, creating a domain where buddhic light flared. A countless number of arms manifested, brimming with power as they welcomed the arrival of the giant palm attack. A sense of sorrow seem to tinge the atmosphere. It was clear that he should have just obeyed, but Qin Wentian chose death over humiliation.

The luxurious governor's manor laid in ruins. Qin Wentian's attacks all blasted towards the palm strike. Everyone watched in a dumbstruck manner at this scene before them. The Lifire Empyrean actually wanted to destroy Qin Wentian in a single strike, not giving him any chance at all.

When that apocalyptic palm landed, a fearsome explosion rang out. Everyone felt the ground trembling as a huge crater opened up. This crater still wanted a sense of fiery destruction. The ground turned red from the heat of the flaming palm. Lines and cracks could be seen on the ground as everyone waited for the dust to settle. Was the magnificent Qin Wentian really going to die so easily just like that?

If he really died, wouldn't it seem like a joke?

Also, this was extremely cruel. Such an outstanding and extraordinary governor but he died just like this. Before absolute strength, no matter how outstanding your talent is, it's nothing but floating clouds. No wonder those supreme monstrous geniuses who have yet to grown were no different from commoners before those of the older generations. So what if your talent is very high? I can kill you easily the moment you offend me. You won't even have a chance to grow and mature.

But at this moment, a light sound rang out. After that, a figure walked out from the deep crater in the ground. The white robes of the figure were stained red by his blood. He cut a sorry figure but his demeanor was as imposing as ever as he stared arrogantly up the sky.

This strike actually failed to kill him.

In the air, the stifling pressure once again enveloped the surroundings, in preparation for the second killing strike.

"Palace lord, what are you doing?" At this moment, a voice drifted from afar. After that, terrifying sonic booms sounded out as a group of figures appeared in the air.

The one in the lead was a figure robed in black. He had a mask on his face and was someone of equal fame with Qin Wentian. He was none other than the weaponsmith grandmaster, genius of the martial path, supervisory commander, Emperor Pavilion's pavilion lord, Di Tian.

Not only has Di Tian arrived, he also brought many experts with him, over tens of immortal emperors. The strength of their group actually wasn't in anyway inferior to the group from the Lifire Palace. Upon thinking of the latest rumor that Di Tian had decided to fall out with the Lifire Empyrean, all the spectators in the surroundings had an intrigued look on their faces.

Was Di Tian planning to ally with the Jialan Clan to clash against the Lifire Empyrean head-on?

Di Tian actually appeared at this moment. For a period of time, more and more experts appeared from various directions, rushing towards here. Other than the experts, the citizens of the city also came here, they wanted to see the eventual ending of this incident.

Zhuge Xiong frowned when he saw Di Tian's appearance. This fellow actually appeared here at this moment.

"Di Tian, this matter has nothing to do with you. You should leave quickly." Zhuge Xiong stared at Di Tian as he spoke.

"What crime did Governor Qin commit. Why must Palace Lord kill him on the spot?" Di Tian stared at the air as he directly questioned.

"Do I need to answer to you?" An imposing voice rang out from the void. The Lifire Empyrean was already extremely unhappy towards Di Tian. Right now, Di Tian even dared to question him.

"The Palace Lord naturally needs not answer to me. It's just that I received news saying that Palace Lord wants to frame and kill Governor Qin. I initially assumed that this news is false. What sort of character is the Palace Lord, how would he make a move against Governor Qin? But now, I've seen it with my own eyes that this is true. Hence, I have to ask that question." Di Tian calmly replied in a tone that was neither servile nor overbearing.

"Qin Wentian disobeyed the Palace Lord. This crime alone is already sufficient." Zhuge Xiong coldly spoke. "Governor Qin also dared to sully the Palace Lord by speaking untruth. This is a major crime."

"Disobedience?" Di Tian glanced at Qin Wentian and asked, "Governor Qin, is this true?"

"If the Palace Lords wants to kill me, just say it directly. Why is there a need for so much excuses? I entered close-door seclusion upon my return and grand governor Zhuge Xiong immediately killed his way over the next day and destroyed my manor, forcing me to awake from my seclusion and followed up by saying that I commited a great crime yet he refused to say what it is. He wants to bring me back to the Lifire Palace. I really want to ask the Palace Lord how can this be considered disobedience?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke.

"Shut up." The Lifire Empyrean berated. After that, he turned to Di Tian. "Commander Di, I know you are exercising your duty as the supervisory commander. However, Qin Wentian had committed an unpardonable crime. I naturally will report this up to the Lifelong Saint Hall. There's no need for you to worry about this. You can retreat for now."

"I initially thought the news was fake. However, since Palace Lord can't even give a name to the supposed crime governor Qin has committed, I, as the supervisory commander, naturally cannot stand aside. I hope Palace Lord will show mercy and allow me to report this up to the Lifelong Saint Hall for further investigation." Di Tian came here precisely for this matter. He had also waited for a very long time. How could he leave here just like that?

"This seat controls the Lifire Palace and is apprehending a guilty subordinate here. Do I even need your approval?" The pressure in the air intensified, terrifying to the extreme. The fearsome aura bore down on Di Tian. It was like the Lifire Empyrean was on the verge of an explosion. If his anger erupted, he might even act against Di Tian.

"Palace lord, you can't even name the crime he has committed. Seems like the news I received was real. In order to kill Governor Qin, you actually misused your power to such an extent. I, Di, am loved by the Realmlord and will naturally follow his orders and do my job well as the supervisory commander of the Lifire Palace. This matter is too serious. I have no choice but to interfere."

After being threatened by the Lifire Empyrean, Di Tian's voice actually became even more tyrannical, causing the hearts of everyone to tremble. They felt that the situation was getting more and more unclear!

Chapter 1657: One Betrayal after another

Di Tian's domineering voice caused the atmosphere to be even more tense. Right now, were these two monstrous geniuses was really planning to fight against the Lifire Empyrean?

Qin Wentian and Di Tian were famous at the same time, during the grand banquet organized by the Lifelong Saint Hall. At this moment, both of them were facing the same enemy - the supreme and lofty character of the Lifire Palace, the Lifire Empyrean.

"How, can you interfere?" The Lifire Empyrean coldly spoke when he heard Di Tian's voice. After that, red bolts of lightning flashed through the sky. Space was torn apart as a figure appeared. This was none other than the Lifire Empyrean. It was like he was the sovereign of his surroundings, gazing down with imperiousness at his subjects under the heavens. His eyes shone with a terrifying fire as he stared at Di Tian.

"I, Di, have received the love and regards of the Realmlord. I naturally can't let this slide when I encounter such a method. Even if I cannot interfere, I have to interfere and will do my best to do so." Di Tian spoke. He stared at the Lifire Empyrean, "If Palace Lord really wants to do this, Di Tian can only play along with you then."

"Hahaha…" The Lifire Empyrean started laughing uproariously, causing the space to tremble. A fearsome heat radiated from him, forming a storm of flames. The fire in his eyes grew even more intense as he spoke, "Tell your backer to step up."

What sort of character was he? Given how strong his immortal sense was, how could he not know that his old opponent has already arrived?

As expected, at the moment as the sound of his voice faded, a figure stepped forward. This was none other than Jialan Jiangshan. He stood in the air, resembling a divinity as he stared at the Lifire Empyrean. "I didn't expect that after you became the Lifire Palace Lord, you would actually act so brazenly with no restraint, even wanting to frame and kill your own subordinates."

"Is the Jialan Clan planning to interfere in the internal affairs of my Lifire Palace?" The Lifire Empyrean icily spoke. He then glanced at Di Tian, "Supervisory Commander. What crime are you guilty of? How dare you collude with the Jialan Clan."

"Collude?" Jialan Jiangshan spoke. "I just cannot stand your behaviour. The relationship between Di Tian and my Jialan Clan is truly not bad and he is also regarded highly by the Realmlord, supervising the Lifire Palace. Now, seeing how tyrannical you are acting, Di Tian merely wanted to stop you. Since this is the case, what's wrong with me helping him out? The Realmlord stands at the top of all existences. Even if he knew about this, he would also be able to understand."

"In that case, I can't even enforce the law in my Lifire Palace and am being restricted by a supervisory commander?" The Lifire Empyrean's voice rang out like thunder.

"Palace Lord, why must you try to beguile the masses? You didn't even say the crime Qin Wentian had committed and wanted to kill him on the spot. Could it be that, I, as the supervisory commander, don't have the right to ask why?" Di Tian spoke. "Or maybe, since Palace Lord is the hegemon of an entire region, you don't place me, a supervisory commander conferred by the Realmlord in your eyes at all, acting without law and order, attempting to murder a governor character."

"Since you guys want to know this so much, I shall tell you all. Qin Wentian, as a governor of the Lifire Palace, had actually killed the Jialan Monarch. Are you, the supervisory commander, happy now?" The Lifire Empyrean's voice was glacial like ice. He was actually forced to explain himself to an immortal emperor. This was simply a humiliation.

Also, everyone in the Lifire Palace knew that this supervisory commander Di Tian, was someone that stood against him.

"From what I know, when the Jialan Monarch was killed back then, many people saw that Governor Qin was in his governor's manor. Palace Lord, aren't your lies a little too weak?" Di Tian spoke.

"This is because Qin Wentian has cultivated an avatar-creation technique, allowing him to pull the wool over everyone's eyes. His true self masqueraded as the bandit head and he killed the Jialan Monarch while his avatar revealed himself at his governor's manor, granting him an ironclad alibi, shielding him from all suspicions." The Grand Governor Zhuge Xiong spoke out, answering Di Tian. Naturally, it wouldn't be too good for the Lifire Empyrean to answer every question or it would affect the prestige of his status.

"Governor Qin, is this true?" Di Tian asked.

Qin Wentian looked at Zhuge Xiong, "You want to pin this crime on me? I also want to know where this avatar of mine came about. Why don't I know about this?"

"Grand Governor, do you have proof?" Di Tian asked again.

"Naturally. We planned and lure a bandit in that group to surrender. He clearly gave us a painting via immortal sense of the features of the bandit head that recruited them. That painting was none other than that of Qin Wentian." Zhuge Xiong replied.

"Grand Governor, do you take me for a fool?" As Qin Wentian spoke, his features shimmered and transformed. He icily continued, "I'm skilled in the art of disguise. If I really was the bandit head, why would I use my true features?"

Everyone was stunned when they saw Qin Wentian's methods. However, the Lifire Empyrean radiated a strong killing intent, he was even more sure of his guess.

The Jialan Monarch is definitely killed by Qin Wentian.

However, now, this was already not a problem of who killed who. There was no way to explain clearly because they basically didn't have a single shred of evidence at all.

"It's very normal that Governor Qin might has a moment of carelessness." Zhuge Xiong spoke.

"Since this is the case, can Grand Governor Zhuge hand over the bandit you caught? My subordinate the Evil Emperor can control a person to speak the truth. We will immediately know whether this is true or not." Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

"Enough." The Lifire Empyrean berated. The might radiating from him was as terrifying as ever. He turned to Di Tian, "You are already clear of his crime. Qin Wentian assassinated the Jialan Monarch. Is the supervisory commander satisfied with this?"

"Senior Jialan. You are an elder of the Jialan Monarch. Do you believe in the Palace Lord's words?" Di Tian glanced at Jialan Jiangshan as he asked.

"Although I cannot eliminate Qin Wentian from all suspicions, but without proof, it's impossible to verify that the Jialan Monarch was killed by Qin Wentian." Jialan Jiangshan straightforwardly replied.

"How about everyone else?" Di Tian glanced at the people around him as they all shook their heads.

"Wanting to kill a governor without proof. This is simply too tyrannical." A person beside Di Tian spoke.

"Who the hell are you? You have no rights to comment on the internal affairs of our Lifire Palace." Zhuge Xiong coldly replied to that person. The eyes of that person gleamed sharply, he stared directly at Zhuge Xiong and laughed, "I'm a member of the Xuanyuan Clan from Lifelong City. What do you want?"

"Xuanyuan Clan of Lifelong City." Zhuge Xiong's expression instantly froze as he stared in trepidation at the man beside Di Tian.

The eyes of the Lifire Empyrean also flashed with light. Someone from the Xuanyuan Clan actually came here.

An icy smile lit up his face. Seems like Di Tian clearly came fully prepared today.

"There's not only people from the Xuanyuan Clan here today, people from the other major powers of Lifelong City are present as well. All of them are my good friends and came for a gathering with me in Lifire City. However, to think that I heard the news that Palace Lord is going crazy. Hence, me and my good friends all came here to take a look. Who would have thought that we would witness how tyrannical the Palace Lord is, capable of stooping to underhanded measures just to kill one of your own governors. It seems like you can just pin a crime on everyone you want to kill. What if one day, Palace Lord says that I'm guilty? Wouldn't my fate be the same as Governor Qin and I will be directly killed by you?" Di Tian's voice also grew more and more domineering.

When everyone heard that the people from the major powers of Lifelong City was here too, they instantly felt a change in the atmosphere.

What is this Di Tian planning exactly?

Not long ago, he acted against Yin Qiu. Could that be just a prelude to this? Was all his actions back then just to pave the way for him to deal with the Lifire Empyrean today?

This time around, even Zhuge Xiong and the others of the Lifire Palace felt a chill in their hearts.

Right now, they clearly didn't want additional trouble. This matter was gradually blowing out of proportions, out of their control.

But what was going on with Di Tian?

Why would Jialan Jiangshan of the Jialan Clan appear here today? Not only him, people from the other major powers of Lifelong City came here too. Was all this really just a coincidence?

Or could it be that Qin Wentian long knew all this would happen? Had he allied himself with Di Tian?

Even the Lifire Empyrean was confused. Why would the situation became like this?

"In that case, I wish to listen more about what news did Supervisor Commander Di receive?" The Lifire Empyrean asked.

"This matter has to start from Governor Qin Wentian. It was already known to all that back then, Governor Qin and Ye Qianyu have an extraordinary relationship. Your lordship captured Ye Qianyu and made use of Qin Wentian to govern the northern regions is something that everyone knows. After that, Governor Qin displayed his brilliance at the grand banquet of the Lifelong Realm. Palace Lord must have started to fear his growth because he is gradually spiralling out from your control. Hence, you wanted to use the Jialan Monarch's death as an excuse and pin this crime on Governor Qin, bringing him back to the Lifire Palace to kill him. After all, as long as he is dead, how can he refute your accusations? At that time, no matter what the truth was, Governor Qin would surely be deemed as the Jialan Monarch's killer. Am I right?"

Di Tian stared at the Lifire Empyrean as he spoke.

"Your ability to weave a story is not bad. The supervisory commander joined forces with the Jialan Clan and wished to take my position?" The Lifire Empyrean laughed.

"Story?" Di Tian coldly sneered. He turned his gaze towards Zhuge Xiong. Over there, a figure beside Zhuge Xiong suddenly sped over, coming to beside Di Tian.

"Sun Qian, what are you doing?" Zhuge Xiong froze. The Lifire Empyrean's eyes flashed, staring at Sun Qian.

"Palace Lord, you brazenly plotted to kill an innocent governor. Sun Qian dares not follow blindly and could only report this to Supervisory Commander Di Tian." Sun Qian spoke, undoubtedly admitting that Di Tian was right. The Lifire Empyrean was plotting to kill Qin Wentian.

A terrifying killing intent flickered in the Lifire Empyrean's eyes. This smiling Sun Qian...he had always assumed that Sun Qian was an honest individual. Who would have thought that Sun Qian had betrayed him?

In that case, the reason behind how Di Tian was able to know of this matter, was already clear.

"Sun Qian, how much benefits did the Jialan Clan and Di Tian give you? You even dare to betray the Palace Lord?" Zhuge Xiong's reacted quickly. He then continued, "Don't you know that doing this is a crime that's punishable by death?"

"Zhuge Xiong, this idea was suggested by you. As expected of the Palace Lord's advisor." Di Tian glanced at Zhuge Xiong. He then continued, "People of the Lifire Palace, do not be muddled any longer and blindly become a sword in the hands of others, being made use of without knowing. The implications of this matter are extremely great. I'll report this up to the Realmlord and seek his advice. Is there anyone willing to step out to reveal the truth?"

The hearts of everyone trembled. Right now, they already understood the situation now. This was a gamble between Di Tian plus the Jialan Clan, against the Lifire Empyrean. They made use of a blunder made by the Lifire Empyrean and attacked relentlessly. They wanted to pull the Lifire Empyrean from his position in a single shot.

Qin Wentian was merely the fuse, nothing more than a convenient excuse. Di Tian had long made arrangements for everything. Even Sun Qian was his man.

"How terrifying." Many people mused silently, even the people from the Lifire Palace felt their hearts trembling.

"Hehe." A charming voice rang out. Beauty Xiao's silhouette flashed and appeared behind Di Tian as she spoke, "Palace Lord, I always felt that it isn't appropriate to treat Governor Qin in this manner. Please rescind your order."

At this moment, the gazes of everyone froze.

Right now, there were only three governors remaining in the Lifire Palace. Lin Ba, Sun Qian and Beauty Xiao. Out of the three, two of them have turned traitor and admitted that the Lifire Empyrean had plotted to kill Qin Wentian!

Chapter 1658: The Victor Shall Be The King

Sun Qian and Beauty Xiao were the Lifire Empyrean's subordinates. Clearly, as governors, they were people that he had trusted. If it was only Sun Qian alone, he might have been bribed by Di Tian to betray the Lifire Empyrean. But now that there were two governors who stood out, the degree of credibility was much higher.

The Lifire Empyrean didn't have enough evidence to prove that the Jialan Monarch was killed by Qin Wentian. It meant that he really wanted to make use of this chance to finish off Qin Wentian.

With regards to this point, many people believed it. They also knew that this was highly possible given the relationship between Qin Wentian and the Lifire Empyrean. It was like how the Lifire Empyrean felt for sure that Qin Wentian had killed the Jialan Monarch.

"Beauty Xiao!" The Lifire Empyrean stared at her. In an instant, Beauty Xiao felt a stifling pressure boring down on her. Her body trembled as the light of lifire seemed to flicker in her eyes.

"Palace lord, are you planning to kill her to shut her up?" Di Tian coldly spoke. Jialan Jiangshan stepped out, blocking before the Lifire Empyrean as the two empyreans stared at each other.

Everyone felt incredibly shocked. This place was the Lifire City, the territory of the Lifire Empyrean. He, who was the supremely lofty Lifire Palace Lord, was actually forced into a passive state now.

"Palace lord, as the master of the Lifire Palace, you control a boundlessly vast stretch of territory. I didn't expect you would actually do such a thing, framing your subordinate to kill him. Such incidents should have occurred before too in the past, right? Because, in the Lifire Palace, nobody could restrain you." Di Tian coldly spoke. He then continued, "There's an ancient saying that states that a commander on the field might have to ignore the imperial orders and make his own decisions. Most probably, you have no regards for the Realmlord, right?"

"In the past, I've heard that Ye Qianyu and her bandits killed their way into the Jialan Emperor Palace and the Evil Emperor was among them. A subordinate of the Lifire Empyrean was there and could have stopped them but he did nothing to do so, causing countless casualties. Even the vast majority of Jialan Monarch's wives and children had died. Is this so?" Jialan Jiangshan asked.

"I can be the witness for this. Back then, it was none other than me who slaughtered my way into the Jialan Emperor Palace. The Lifire Empyrean's subordinate is named the Crow Immortal Emperor. He did nothing to obstruct me, allowing me to kill everyone in the Jialan Emperor Palace." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. "After that, the Palace Lord made use of me to deal with the Jialan Clan, placing me in the northern city regions. Yet now, he actually wanted to kill me to remove all future sources of trouble. Palace Lord, what a good method indeed."

Out of the four remaining city governors of the Lifire Palace, three of them had rebelled against the Lifire Empyrean.

"During these years, the northern governor's manor did nothing. It was the Jialan Clan who maintained the law and order in the northern city regions, yet we still need to pay tax to the Lifire Palace? What's the use of having a northern governor's manor? What's the purpose of the existence of the Lifire Palace? Why don't you let the Jialan Clan take over the managing of Lifire City?"

"That's right. Not only for the northern city region. Back then, the central governor Xia Hou actually directly acted against the Emperor Pavilion, using all sorts of despicable methods. Didn't the Lifire Palace also shielded Xia Hou and found a few scapegoats to take the blame for him? And this only happened after Grandmaster Di Tian became the supervisory commander, imposing his will to investigate clearly the events which happened in the past. The Lifire Palace is completely useless, what's the point of having it?"

Numerous voices rang out. Today, many powers from Lifire City also rose in revolt, giving off the feeling that the Lifire Empyrean had been completely betrayed. The people from the various major powers of Lifire City didn't approve of him, wanting him to get off the stage.

The Lifire Palace, it seemed that the gods are angry and the people are resentful. They felt that the Lifire Empyrean wasn't qualified to hold this position.

"What a drama." Those powers from Lifelong City had smiles on their faces. This Grandmaster Di Tian was truly an extraordinary character. His weaponsmithing abilities were supreme and he had terrifying combat prowess. Even in terms of scheming and plotting, he was outstanding, forcing the Lifire Empyrean into this situation. Right now, given the commotion this matter caused, even if it eventually abated, the position of the Lifire Palace Lord would no longer be as secure as before.

It was unknown how many experts appeared around this place. All of their hearts shuddered violently from the impact within.

This was forcing the Palace Lord to abdicate, the skies were going to change.

This time around, Grandmaster Di Tian had joined forces with the Jialan Clan, they were planning to pull the Lifire Empyrean down from his position as the Lifire Palace Lord.

Regardless of the Emperor Pavilion or the Jialan Clan, both of them had huge influence and power in Lifire City. They were long prepared and had made all arrangements. The voices of those opposing merged together like tidal waves, drowning out everything. None of the experts in the crowd dared to step out to directly support the Lifire Empyrean. They didn't dare to express their stance.

Everything was spiralling out of control.

As the saying goes, the loser would be vilified while the victor becomes king. The powers in Lifire City all had to pay tax and even if they had some connection with the Lifire Palace, that's only on the surface. They wouldn't be too close at all. The situation now was completely different. Nobody knew who would sit in the position of the Lifire Palace Lord in the near future. How would the major powers dare to casually express their stance? If they sided with the wrong person, it would truly be a path of no redemption.

The Lifire Empyrean's face grew more and more unsightly. His aura gushed forth, the scene behind him resembled an apocalypse. It felt like he wanted to burn down the heavens and earth due to his fury.

He, the master of the Lifire Palace, had stepped into this trap prepared for him by Di Tian today. Clearly, the arrangements were made long before this. All the spearheads were pointing at him, listing out all his mistakes before the view of the public.

"Zhuge Xiong, as the grand governor and advisor of the Lifire Empyrean, you actually instigated the Palace Lord to do the wrong thing, suggesting to the Palace Lord that he should kill Governor Qin. Do you know your crime?" Di Tian glanced at Zhuge Xiong who was in the air as he icily spoke.

"Governor Lin Ba and the protectors and soldiers of the Lifire Palace, I'll report this up to the Realmlord. Do you guys still want to stubbornly stand on that side and continue to be in the wrong?" Di Tian continued.

"Shut up!"

The Lifire Empyrean coldly berated. "Today, I came here to apprehend the criminal Qin Wentian. The supervisory commander Di Tian used every possible means to obstruct me and had even colluded with the Jialan Clan, conspiring together to usurp my position as the Lifire Palace Lord. Such a crime of betrayal, yet you still sound so dignified and pompous. How dare you incite the powers controlled by the Jialan Clan and Emperor Pavilion to revolt. Do you know how great this crime is? Di Tian, I'll ask you again. Are you sure you want to revolt and aid the Jialan Clan in seizing my authority?"

The Lifire Empyrean knew that what Di Tian said was right. But right now, he was already mounted on the back of a tiger and it was no longer possible for him to stop.

There were only these words for the situation now: The victor shall be the king, the losers will all be vilified.

The winner would always dictate how history is written. No matter what conflict, strength was the ultimate resolver. Since the two parties were facing each other in a head-on opposition and both had the laws on their side, strength would be the determinant of this outcome.

The Jialan Clan had joined forces with the Emperor Pavilion, waging a war against him for the position of the Lifire Palace Lord. Since this is the case, there was no way the Lifire Empyrean would back down.

"Seems like Palace Lord is planning to continue making mistake after mistake. How hurtful this is. I, as the supervisory commander that received the love and regards of the Realmlord, will hereby try to persuade Palace Lord one last time. If you stop now, it will still be in time. Maybe you will only be given a light punishment after the Realmlord finishes investigating everything." Di Tian sighed.

"Di Tian you started a rebellion with the Jialan Clan. This crime is unpardonable, and to think that you don't feel the slightest bit of regret even now. In that case, as the Lifire Palace Lord, I can only suppress all the rebels." The Lifire Empyrean waved his hand. In an instant, a powerful grand formation appeared with him standing at the center, ready to attack at any moment.

The crowd stirred, everyone understood that a battle was about to begin.

Right from the start, this conflict was already fated to be resolved by strength. Because, it was impossible for either side to compromise. If he, the Lifire Empyrean took a step back, where would his prestige be? If he admitted to his wrong-doing, would he still be able to sit securely in his position?"

It was also impossible for Di Tian and his group to retreat. The conflict has already occurred and the Jialan Clan also already mobilized their forces. In addition, the timing for this opportunity was perfect. It was impossible for them to give up now.

The experts from the Emperor Pavilion and the Jialan Clan moved, preparing to face the soldiers from the Lifire Palace. The spectators all retreated. The majestic northern governor's manor had now become the battlefield for the two forces. The battlefield that could potentially change the sky of Lifire City.

Those vice governors and attendants of the northern governor's manor felt their hearts shaking again. When the Lifire Empyrean appeared, although they feared and respected Qin Wentian, it was an easy and obvious choice for them to choose the Lifire Empyrean over Qin Wentian. But the situation now had far exceeded their expectations, they were embroiled in the center of this storm.

"People of the Lifire Palace, stop being a fool. It's time to wake up." Di Tian coldly stated. The hearts of everyone trembled. Now, there were already two governors shifting their allegiances. This caused some others to feel their hearts stirring too. Would the rebels be able to win this battle?

However, the Lifire Empyrean was currently like a divinity, backed by the deep foundation of the Lifire Palace that had accumulated resources for countless years. Who among the soldiers would dare to retreat in front of him?

"Di Tian has colluded with the Jialan Clan in an act of betrayal. Capture them all, kill without mercy for those who resist." The Lifire Empyrean officially gave the order.

Violent auras radiated forth. Astral light flashed brilliantly, illuminating the sky. The surroundings were filled with bursts of emperor light and a chaotic storm of law energy. The experts on both sides were unleashing their strongest strength in preparation for the battle.

"Hahaha, how invigorating. It has been a long time since I enjoyed a battle. Let us fight then." Jialan Jiangshan spoke to the Lifire Empyrean. They didn't act against the immortal emperors here or both sides would definitely have heavy casualties.

"Sure." The Lifire Empyrean nodded. The light of lifire shone brilliantly, transforming into streaks of red lightning that resembled a dragon, lunging straight for Jialan Jiangshan.

Jialan Jiangshan manifested snowy-white demonic snakes with his will. The snakes rushed towards the Lifire Empyrean. For the battlefield around them, chaos reigned supreme, no one else was able to participate in this battle between them.

"Governor Zhuge. You instigated the Palace Lord to frame me and kill me, barging into my governor's manor and forcing me out from my seclusion. Now, tell me how should I account for this debt?" Qin Wentian's white robes fluttered. He stared at Zhuge Xiong as he coldly spoke.

Upon seeing that pair of eyes, Zhuge Xiong's expression became incredibly unsightly. The Lifire Empyrean was fighting against Jialan Jiangshan. In that case, who would be the one to deal with Qin Wentian and Di Tian, these two monstrous characters?

Chapter 1659: The Situation is Already Set?

Qin Wentian and Di Tian's combat prowess were something he had personally witnessed those years ago at the grand banquet. Let alone today, even if it was in the past, he wouldn't be their match. Di Tian and Qin Wentian only depended on their mid-stage immortal emperor cultivation bases then to challenge the other geniuses and experts from the other world palaces in the competition, suppressing all their opponents. Their names shook Lifelong City and the Realmlord heavily rewarded them.

Right now, Qin Wentian's strength was even stronger. Just that gaze gave him a deep sense of fear. Other than the Lifire Empyrean, no one would be able to kill Qin Wentian.

"Governor Qin, everything is still changing. If you listen to the Palace Lord's orders now and stand with us, helping us to rout the traitors, you might even have a chance to gain merit and erase your crimes. Don't forget that the Realmlord once said that as long as you can accumulate a certain amount of merit, he would release Ye Qianyu." Zhuge Xiong spoke to Qin Wentian. He then continued, "Do not be used by others."

"You guys directly acted against me, seeking to kill me yet you still have the face to say such things now? Grand Governor Zhuge, your ability to pay lip service is really worthy of admiration." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Since you remain so stubborn, you only have a path of death before you. Everyone hear my commands, kill the rebels!" Zhuge Xiong waved his hands and spoke. After that, the immortal emperors on his side all launched terrifying law attacks, aiming for Qin Wentian.

"Kill!" The subordinates of Di Tian and Jialan Clan also attacked, as the great battle instantly occurred.

Qin Wentian's body shimmered with light. A sword-shaped shield manifested around him, allowing the law attacks to blast into it as he remained unmoving.

"Puchi…" A sword emerged from the darkness, gleaming with dark light, radiating a fearsome destructive might. This sword actually directly appeared behind Qin Wentian, aiming to pierce through his back. The suddenness of this attack caused many of the spectators to perspire cold sweat.

There was actually someone in the darkness, hiding in the void. There wasn't just a single person, but a small group of them. These assassins were all special guards of the Lifire Palace. The moment they acted, they would act like explosive thunder, holding nothing back.

However, when the terrifying sword of darkness brimming with a fearsome destructive might struck Qin Wentian, it had completely no way to pierce into Qin Wentian's body. The sword pierced into the shield, sinking in bit by bit. There seemed to be a terrifying vortex there, absorbing the sword into it. The assassin tried to pull out the sword but he discovered that he was unable to do so.

"How powerful." Everyone stared at Qin Wentian. Although Qin Wentian almost died to the Lifire Empyrean's attack earlier, it was only because his opponent was the Lifire Empyrean. When facing immortal emperors, his dominance could instantly be felt. He allowed his enemies to attack freely but he wasn't injured at all.

The assassin wanted to retreat. However, Qin Wentian merely tossed a palm out, manifesting a giant palm strike that completely crushed that assassin in a single attack.

"I've always done my duty and ensure that the northern city regions are governed by law and disciple, paying their taxes on time. However, I didn't expect that such a pitiful thing would happen to me. The Palace Lord and Grand Governor actually plotted secretly for my death. You guys even sent out the secret guards to assassinate me. Since you guys want my death so badly, I have no choice but to retaliate."

Qin Wentian stood in the air, his long robes fluttering in the wind. He seemed to be mumbling to himself, but also seemed to be speaking to everyone.

His voice seemed to contain a magical power, deeply drawing the attention of others. It gave the feeling that if he acted, the moment he retaliated, that moment would be heaven-shattering.

It felt like Qin Wentian had been suppressing himself before this, enduring everything, not wanting to retaliate. But since things came to this now, he finally could endure it no longer.

A fearsome aura radiated from Qin Wentian, causing countless eyes to turn to him.

The northern governor Qin Wentian. Before this, everyone felt that his fate would be death today. Even the other vice governors and attendants of his northern governor's manor chose to side with the Lifire Empyrean.

However, the reality wasn't like what everyone had expected. Qin Wentian suffered an attack of overwhelming power by the Lifire Empyrean that was supposed to kill him. Despite so, he survived. Not only that, even Di Tian appeared along with the Jialan Clan.

And as for the main lead that sparked the fuse to this entire situation, Qin Wentian, had now seemingly become nothing but a foil to enhance others. However, would he be willing to become a foil?

Qin Wentian finally wanted to take the initiative to retaliate.

What would the end result be?

Terrifying rumbling sounds rang out. Startling law energy radiated from Qin Wentian, directly permeating the area around him. Qin Wentian stared at Grand Governor Zhuge Xiong. With just a single look, Zhuge Xiong felt like his eyes were about to be pierced from the sharpness of Qin Wentian's gaze. In the next instant, boundless sword intent enveloped Zhuge Xiong, trapping him in the midst of a sword qi river.

Qin Wentian stood where he was, not moving from his original location. He calmly stared at Zhuge Xiong in the air. At this moment, Zhuge Xiong was completely trapped. It was like as long as Qin Wentian willed it, he would die immediately right here and now.

There were experts from the Lifire Palace that launched attacks at the sword qi river. However, the attack sparked a retaliation that sent out a wave of sword might that drowned the attackers within, instantly killing them all. Immortal emperors actually couldn't resist the power of his sword intent? All the attackers fell from the air, their corpses slamming upon the ground.

On seeing this scene, Zhuge Xiong trembled as a look of terror appeared on his face. He could sense that right now, he was on the dividing line of life and death.

Was this the retaliation by the northern governor Qin Wentian? In an instant, he forced the Grand Governor Zhuge Xiong into a dead end.

"Grand Governor Zhuge. Let me ask you this. When have I, Qin Wentian, ever offended you, why must you instigate the Palace Lord to frame and kill me?" Qin Wentian's voice was as sharp as swords. Zhuge Xiong turned pale, he could sense how powerful the sword intent surrounding him was. It seemed that that, wasn't something he could defend against.

"Qin Wentian, do you really want to head down this path that leads to eternal condemnation?" Zhuge Xiong still harbored some hope in his heart.

Qin Wentian's eyes shone with a terrifying light. The sword intent flowed, a slashing sound echoed as Zhuge Xiong screamed in pain. His right hand shot out, clutching his left arm. Blood pooled around the area he was in, falling from the air. Zhuge Xiong's expression was like dead ashes, he felt a bout of dizziness striking him.

How could Qin Wentian be so strong? So strong to the extent that he, the Grand Governor, couldn't even resist at all.

"Let me ask you again, what crime did I, Qin, commit? Why must you do this to me?" Qin Wentian's voice rang out, causing Zhuge Xiong to tremble with trepidation. He glanced at the battle between the Lifire Empyrean and Jialan Jiangshan and knew that it was impossible for the Lifire Empyrean to save him. He had a look of despair on his face. If he knew this was the ending, he would never have stepped into this muddy pool of water. Right now, Zhuge Xiong only felt endless regret.

He had always been intelligent but he actually made such a wrong choice then. But, who would have thought that something like this would happen today? The Lifire Palace Lord was the sovereign of this boundlessly vast stretch of territories!

Right now, the position of the Lifire Palace Lord, encountered a challenge.

Zhuge Xiong naturally knew what Qin Wentian wanted to hear. His body shivered, staring at Qin Wentian before he finally spoke, "This has never been my intent. Palace Lord wanted your life. Me, as his subordinate, could only do my best to aid my lord. The death of the Jialan Monarch was a perfect excuse to remove a threat like you."

"Zhuge Xiong has admitted it…" The hearts of everyone trembled when they heard this. Although he was forced to say this under threat of his life, there was a significance in his words. Right now, out of all the governors of the Lifire Palace, only Lin Ba has not spoken yet.

With a slashing sound, Zhuge Xiong screamed again. His other hand flew through the air as blood splashed onto the ground. He appeared extremely pitiful.

"You bullied me, wanting to kill me. By right, I should kill you but although you are a subordinate of the Lifire Palace, you are still ultimately the Realmlord's man. As a governor of the Lifire Palace myself, I do not have the authority to take your life. Hence, I'll cripple both your arms for the sake of my revenge." Qin Wentian spoke bluntly, like he was acting in the name of justice. He then turned his gaze towards Lin Ba as he asked, "Governor Lin, what about you? The Lifire Empyrean has defied the rules set by the Realmlord, are you going to continue to be in the wrong?"

"As the supervisory commander of the Lifire Palace, I will report this matter to the Realmlord. All those who are guilty will be handed over to his eminence, the Realmlord, to decide the punishment. I don't have the authority to punish them." Di Tian spoke out. Lin Ba glanced at the situation before him and understood that everything was already set.

Qin Wentian was too powerful. There was basically no one who could obstruct him.

Although as long as the Lifire Empyrean defeats Jialan Jiangshan, there would still be a chance for everything, he knew that if he didn't speak out now, Qin Wentian would take his life before the Lifire Empyrean could win against his opponent.

There seemed to be a choice for him but in truth, there was no choice at all. Unless he wished to die.

"Governor Qin, I'm merely following orders, I have no choice." Lin Ba had always felt that Qin Wentian was extraordinary, and his relationship with Qin Wentian couldn't be considered bad. But since the Palace Lord wanted to deal with Qin Wentian, he had no choice but to comply. Lin Ba also didn't expect Qin Wentian would clash against the Lifire Empyrean so quickly.

"You guys all dared to betray the Palace Lord. After he kills Jialan Jiangshan, all of you will become traitors, death is the only path remaining to all of you." A cold voice rang out. The speaker was none other than the Crow Immortal Emperor. He knew what his fate would be if he landed in Qin Wentian's hand. When he saw the experts on their side preparing to give up, he immediately shouted out, causing the hearts of many people on his side to waver again.

"You are courting death!" A voice rang out in the Crow Immortal Emperor's mind. At the next moment, he only saw Qin Wentian's figure vanishing. With a piercing sound, the Crow Immortal Emperor was directly slain by a beam of radiance. In the next moment, Qin Wentian appeared at the place where he was standing in, projecting an aura of staring down on everything with tyrannical arrogance.

"This man was none other than the Lifire Palace's expert who was in the Jialan Emperor Palace back then. He ignored the plights of the Jialan Monarch's family. Although this seat had a grudge with the Jialan Monarch, I cannot stand for the existence of such a man." Qin Wentian coldly spoke.

"How did he do that?" Everyone stared at Qin Wentian in shock, this man before their eyes grew more and more inscrutable. What level of strength has Qin Wentian reached exactly?

The battle continued, but experts who were fighting, had gradually ceased to do so. Qin Wentian's dominance made it so that the battles in his surroundings had no suspense. The situation was already set. Everything now depended on the battle between the Lifire Empyrean and Jialan Jiangshan!

Chapter 1660: Direct Clash

The other battles here have all concluded. The experts from the Lifire Palace were defeated. The instant Qin Wentian acted against Zhuge Xiong, everyone here understood that no one would be able to contend against Qin Wentian.

Many supreme and transcendent-level immortal emperors fixed Qin Wentian's image in their minds as their hearts trembled. They could sense that Qin Wentian had already entered that legendary level - the Empyrean Realm.

Tens of years ago, he was merely at the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm. This seemingly impossible thing has actually been accomplished by him.

What was peerless? This was peerless…

Before this, those subordinates from the northern governor's manor, who betrayed him, all felt their expressions turning stiff. Panic was in their hearts. Would the Lifire Empyrean be defeated today? This was something they would never believe possible even in their wildest dreams. But now, all of them were filled with doubts.

The battle today could be called a battle that could change the skies of Lifire City.

Numerous eyes turned to the apocalyptic scene. The sky was dyed with streaks of red as bolts of red lightning danced wildly, shattering the buildings on the ground. Although the buildings of Lifire City were constructed from special materials, they had no way to withstand the aftershocks that manifested from a battle between two empyreans. Fortunately, the area was deserted, the crowd had long retreated extremely far away.

The people in the surroundings of the governor's manor all stared at the battle in the air with shock on their faces. This seemed to be a battle of destiny. There always had been rumors about the grudge between the Lifire Empyrean and the Jialan Clan. Jialan Jiangshan was none other than the rumored person who contended against the Lifire Empyrean for the Lifire Palace Lord's position those years ago. Right now, the two of them finally fought against each other in a heaven-shaking battle.

The eyes of people of the Jialan Clan were filled with nervousness as they watched. This battle was too critical. The loser would be vilified while the victor becomes king. As long as they don't lose this battle, they would gain a tremendous amount of benefits. The position of the Lifire Palace Lord would shift hands. But if they were defeated, who else here still could fight against the Lifire Empyrean?

Numerous white snakes spiralled above Jialan Jiangshan. This was a special innate ability of the Jialan Clan. The Jialan Monarch also had this ability but he was clearly much more inferior to Jialan Jiangshan. There was simply no comparison between their strength at all.

At this moment, at the Lifire Palace that was extremely far away, the Lifire Palace suddenly trembled as rumbling sounds could be heard. After that, terrifying flames emitted forth as heat currents permeated the area.

The guards remaining behind at the Lifire Palace felt themselves trembling. A bell chimed as a voice rang out within all corners of the Lifire Palace, "Everyone, gather inside the Lifire Palace. The Lifire Grand Formation is going to activate."

"Lifire Grand Formation." The hearts of many people shook. The person who could control this grand formation was none other than the Lifire Empyrean himself. Right now, there was only a single possibility of why he activated this. The Lifire Empyrean must be in an extremely threatening situation and had no choice but to do so.

This is...what was going on? The Palace Lord actually activated the Lifire Grand Formation.

After the Lifire Grand Formation was activated, there was only a single place that would be safe. That place was undoubtedly the inner area of the Lifire Palace. Many figures sped over madly, directly rushing into the palace. The heat grew more and more terrifying as red dragons manifested, shooting through the air with the speed of a lightning bolt. A moment later, the sky above the Lifire Palace turned crimson, it was like a world of lava, wanting to incinerate everything.

Lava-like dragons appeared in the air as they howled at the heavens. After that, they sped towards the horizons with terrifying speed.

"Lifire dragons!" The hearts of everyone pounded. The majestic Lifire Palace was now a scorching red, emitting towering amounts of fire. The entire palace was shaking, and people in the boundlessly vast surrounding regions also felt their hearts shaking when they saw this. They stared at the lifire dragons with a dumbstruck look. They all understood that something big was going to happen, something earth-shattering big!

...

In the Lifelong Realm, within the Lifelong Saint Hall, an expert rushed through the air in a great hurry as he arrived outside a majestic palace inside the Lifelong Saint Hall. He then bowed low, "This subordinate has an important matter which I need to make a report to the Realmlord."

"What's the matter?" A voice rang out from within.

"The Lifire Empyrean activated the Lifire Grand Formation. After investigations, we learned that the Lifire Empyrean went to arrest Qin Wentian and encountered a counterattack from the Jialan Clan and Di Tian. He is currently fighting against Jialan Jiangshan now." That person replied.

The sound of wind whistling rang out. a figure abruptly appeared before the subordinate making the report. This figure was none other than the Lifelong Realmlord. He stared at the person and spoke, "Tell me in detail. What is going on? Why does Jialan Jiangshang dare to battle with the Lifire Empyrean?"

Although Jialan Jiangshan was the founder of a peak power, he is still considered an outsider. The Lifire Empyrean was his direct subordinate that managed a part of his territories for him. Now that there was a battle between them, he first had to ascertain who gave Jialan Jiangshan the courage to do so.

This, was the rules of the Lifelong Realm.

"This matter happened because of Governor Qin. The Lifire Empyrean says that Qin Wentian had killed the Jialan Monarch and went to arrest him, wanting to execute him. However, he didn't have any proof and sought to act first before making a report up. After Supervisory Commander Di Tian knew of this, he brought the Jialan Clan along with him and rushed over there. Both parties stuck to their views and a conflict occurred, leading to a battle." That person continued to bow as he made the report.

"The Lifire Empyrean most probably feared Qin Wentian's potential. How dare he act like this, killing someone whom I heavily regarded. Also, Di Tian's appearance with Jialan Jiangshan, could this be a coincidence? Hmph, they have grown truly audacious." What sort of character was the Lifelong Realmlord? He instantly saw through the majority of the things the moment he heard it.

"Realmlord, how should we handle this? Should we force them to stop?" That person asked.

"Since they want to play, let them play. There's no need to interfere. I really want to see if supervisory commander Di Tian, a genius that obtained first in the martial competition, can he really defeat the Lifire Empyrean when he joined forces with the Jialan Clan." The Realmlord casually spoke, as though he didn't care at all. His position was far too lofty, and could afford to treat the multitude of living things as his chess piece. As long as his position wasn't affected, they can play however they wanted to play. He couldn't be bothered to interfere.

"Retreat for now. There's no need to make any more reports about this incident. After this matter is concluded, the victor naturally will come to the Lifelong Saint Hall to seek a pardon for his crimes." The Realmlord calmly stated.

"Yes, Realmlord." That person bowed, The Lifelong Realmlord cast his gaze into the distance as a gleam of sharpness flashed through his eyes. He didn't expect that the two most outstanding individuals in the grand banquet that day, would so quickly cause a storm to manifest in Lifire City. Truly, geniuses disdain a lonely atmosphere.

...

In the airspace above the northern governor's manor of Lifire City, the fearsome combat continued. At this moment, a terrifying scene could be seen. Numerous dragons formed from lifire flames wanted to engulf everything, painting the sky red.

The lifire dragons lunged towards the white snakes manifested by Jialan Jiangshan. Each of the lifire dragons contained a towering amount of destructive might within.

"This is the power from the Lifire Grand Formation." Beauty Xiao's beautiful eyes froze. Although she knew the existence of the Lifire Grand Formation, she had never seen it being activated before, only having heard rumors about it. She didn't think that despite such a vast distance, the Lifire Empyrean could still activate the Lifire Grand Formation of the Lifire Palace. This caused a look of worry to appear in her beautiful eyes. If Jialan Jiangshan was defeated, the consequences would be unimaginable.

Just as she was worrying, the lifire dragons grew more and more terrifying. Numerous lifire dragons soared through the air, generated from the formation. They spiralled in the sky, controlled by the Lifire Empyrean's will, blotting out the sun.

Lin Ba and the others who had submitted, felt their hearts trembling. What should they do?

If the Lifire Empyrean was victorious, wouldn't they, the ones who turned traitor, be in extremely dire straits?

Just as they were worrying, thunderous rumbling sounds rang out. Jialan Jiangshan coughed out blood, the impact from the attack flung him through the air as the lifire dragons chased after him, breathing out molten-like flames. Jialan Jiangshan continuously retreated but he was struck once again. His entire body glowed red from the heat and he resembled a devil who came out from a fiery lava hell.

With an explosive bang, Jialan Jiangshan's aura wavered. His body was riddled with wounds as his countenance paled while he continued to retreat. The Lifire Empyrean closed in. The lifire dragons flew around him, the might they exuded boring down on everything. His eyes shone with lifire flames and everywhere he stared at, would burn up in flames.

"For traitors, all of you shall be annihilated." The Lifire Empyrean coldly spoke. At this instant, numerous auras erupted forth. Those who were convinced by Qin Wentian, wanted to change their side once more. They directly rushed at the experts from the Emperor Pavilion and Jialan Clan as they launched attacks. The situation reversed in an instant. These people wanted to live on no matter what. Backing the Lifire Empyrean was the right choice.

"Puchi…" A light sound rang out. Sword qi whistled, directly slicing off the head of an immortal emperor.

The swishing sound continued. The sword qi river around Qin Wentian flowed swiftly forth and to the shock of the crowd, they discovered that the enemy immortal emperors kept dying one after another. These immortal emperors turned with difficulty, wanting to see who was it that killed them. When they spotted Qin Wentian, their expressions turned ashen as despair and terror painted their faces.

"Fickle-minded people who keep changing their sides. Why do we need such despicable subordinates at all?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. His white robes fluttered as he took a step forth, instantly appearing beside Jialan Jiangshan.

The lifire dragons rushed over in a frenzy, breathing molten flames. However, an empyrean aura radiated from Qin Wentian. The sword qi river flowed towards the lifire dragons, drowning them in its tide. At the same time, numerous spatial prisons appeared in the air, imprisoning the dragons within.

The lifire dragons howled in anger, thrashing against the prison walls, wanting to break free.

"This…"

Everyone stared up in the sky, feeling their hearts trembling violently, as though they don't dare to believe what their eyes were seeing.

The northern governor Qin Wentian, he actually stood right before the Lifire Empyrean, preparing to clash against the Lifire Empyrean directly?

"Oh heavens, who can tell me what's going on?" Someone mumbled speechlessly to himself. This person was from the northern governor's manor. He originally already treated Qin Wentian as a peerless existence akin to a divinity. Now that he saw his governor actually able to stand against the Lifire Empyrean, he felt his blood surging with excitement all of a sudden.

Chapter 1661: Lifire Clone

The people from the northern governor's manor all trembled. They looked at their governor, Qin Wentian. Despite him being mysterious and rarely appearing in the public, it didn't affect their respect and reverence for him. Every deed he did was an earth-shattering one.

Right now, was this divinity-like existence in their hearts, once again going to baptize their knowledge of who he was?

What does it mean by fighting against the Lifire Empyrean?

Their governor only used a mere tens of years to accomplish something that many people would never be able to accomplish in their entire lives. From the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm, he broke through to the empyrean realm, becoming an existence on par with the Lifire Palace Lord. This was simply too terrifying and simply unprecedented.

They were all asking themselves in their hearts that could there really be such magnificent characters out there in the world? At the very least, they had never seen one before.

Not only for the people of the northern governor's manor, all the other spectators felt shock rocking their hearts when they saw Qin Wentian standing before the Lifire Empyrean, blocking his attack. This scene was truly stunning. They didn't dare to imagine this. A person's talent could actually be so outstanding?

Although one only needed to gain more insights and deepen their comprehension to break through from the immortal emperor realm to the empyrean realm, it was much more difficult in comparison to absorbing astral energy from one's constellation to cultivate. If not, there wouldn't be countless experts stuck at the immortal emperor realm, unable to advance a single inch forward. However, they all actually sensed that there seemed to be no bottlenecks at this realm for Qin Wentian.

Beauty Xiao's eyes flashed with a dazzling light as she smiled lightly. Her judgement was truly accurate. However, she also felt some worry. After all, she had been in the Lifire Palace for many years and had never seen the Lifire Empyrean personally in battle before. This Lifirer Empyrean that has been in the empyrean realm for many years should be much stronger in comparison, right? Would Qin Wentian be in danger?

The people from the Jialan Clan felt great waves in their heart. Right now, even for them, they had no way to see through the situation today.

Earlier, the spiritual character of their clan, Jialan Jiangshan, was defeated by the Lifire Empyrean. At that instant, they felt as though they had sunk into the abyss, that their involvement in this would lead the Jialan Clan into a mournful end. But at this moment, Qin Wentian actually stepped out and displayed empyrean-level strength.

In that case, why would Qin Wentian be injured from the Lifire Empyrean's earlier strike?

Why did he enter seclusion the instant he came back instead of answering the summons of the Lifire Palace?

This not only caused the people of the Jialan Clan to be puzzled. Even Zhuge Xiong and many people were puzzled. They initially thought that Qin Wentian was nothing more than a fuse that sparked this entire situation and Di Tian simply made use of this chance, allying himself with the Jialan Clan to overthrow the Lifire Empyrean. Qin Wentian, was nothing more than a secondary player, a foil that enhances the main characters of this incident today.

However, was the truth really like this?

At the moment when Qin Wentian stepped out, how many people felt their hearts shaking? Could Qin Wentian really not know everything?

Di Tian and Qin Wentian had allied together too, right?

Everyone glanced at Di Tian, they only felt that the masked Di Tian was extremely mysterious. Even the people of the Jialan Clan felt that they couldn't see through him at all.

This was especially so for the Jialan Clan Leader, Jialan Yuntian. Back then at the grand banquet, he already felt something was wrong when Di Tian displayed his talent. But after that, Di Tian had maintained a good relationship with his Jialan Clan and even borrowed their influence to expand the Emperor Pavilion in Lifelong City. Hence, he felt that it was possible that Di Tian only wanted a reliable ally as he developed his strength.

But today, a stronger sense of unease appeared in his heart after he saw this scene. Di Tian was growing more and more inscrutable. Did he come to an agreement with Qin Wentian after coming to an agreement with the Jialan Clan? Was his relationship with Qin Wentian something extraordinary?

No matter what everyone was thinking, everything was not as important as the battle currently occurring now. Hence, the attention of everyone was still fixed on the battle in the air.

"Back then when I told Zhuge Xiong to get you to come back, you ignored it for tens of years before returning. Also, at the instant of your return, you immediately entered closed-door seclusion saying that you are on the verge of a breakthrough. At that time, you should have already broken through, right? In that case, your purpose of doing that must be to lure me here. Back then, who was the one who leaked the secret to you?" The Lifire Empyrean stared at Qin Wentian as he spoke. His heart was also trembling slightly from the shock. Qin Wentian actually reached the same realm as him within such a short period of time. This was way too out of his anticipation.

He initially already felt that Qin Wentian would gradually grow out of his control in the future, hence he wanted to act first. But he didn't expect that Qin Wentian was already extremely difficult to control today.

Qin Wentian didn't reply, "I have always abided scrupulously by my role's responsibilities, yet the Palace Lord wants my death so badly. I have no choice but to challenge Palace Lord today."

"Abide scrupulously?" The Lifire Empyrean laughed. Right now, he could already be sure that the Jialan Monarch was killed by Qin Wentian.

"Let me take a guess. There are two traitors, Sun Qian and Beauty Xiao. Sun Qian is Di Tian's man, in that case, the person who informed you must be Beauty Xiao, right? I really didn't expect she would risk so much for you." The Lifire Empyrean laughed. "Since this is the case, I'll grant you two your wish. Although you are now also at the empyrean realm, you will understand how great the disparity of strength between experts at the empyrean realm is."

"I'm waiting with anticipation." Qin Wentian's white robes fluttered as the sword qi river flowed around him.

From the Lifire Palace, numerous lifire dragons manifested, spiralling up into the sky. The space behind the Lifire Empyrean was already scorched red, like a world of lava. A countless number of red lightning bolts flashed brilliantly, thundering down from the sky. The lifire dragons swam through the world of lava freely, issuing rumbling roars.

The Lifire Empyrean himself was already extremely terrifying. After borrowing the might of the Lifire Grand Formation, his strength explosively surged as he dominated Jialan Jiangshan. He wanted to tell the people of Lifire City that no one in his territories could challenge his authority and prestige.

"Kacha…" Numerous bolts of red lightning cleaved down, brimming with malevolence, directly blasting towards Qin Wentian. However, a fearsome spatial law fluctuation radiated from Qin Wentian and when the red lightning struck down, his body seemed to be in a separate dimension from his surroundings. Those bolts of red lightning clearly struck him, but they couldn't come into contact with him,

"Source origin of the laws of space?" Upon staring at this scene, the Lifire Empyrean felt his heart tremble. This meant that Qin Wentian didn't only comprehend the source origin of a single law, but multiple ones instead. At the grand banquet those years ago, was he really just a mid-stage immortal emperor? If he hadn't personally witnessed this, he would never have believed it.

Boundless lifire flames crackled. The Lifire Empyrean blasted out, manifesting an apocalyptic blood-red fiery lifire palm that seemed to be made up of ten thousand dancing dragons. This terrifying palm strike was capable of devouring everything as it blasted towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian stabbed out with his finger, his sword was akin to the wind. The sword qi river flowing around him erupted forth towards the palm strike, causing rumbling sounds to ring out. A countless number of sharp swords materialized, attempting to slay the lifire dragons. However, that apocalyptic palm imprint crushed everything and forced a way through, brimming with a world-destructive might, wanting to bury Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentina's expression turned solemn. Boundless radiance emitted from him, illuminating the area he was in. This light was even more blinding compared to the sun, many people couldn't endure it and had to close their eyes. There were even people that felt their eyes were being pierced through as they were blinded.

The terrifying palm strike then smashed into Qin Wentian. However, within the resplendent radiance, a dharma body appeared, enveloping his true body as the dharma body stood unmoving against that attack.

"BOOM, BOOM, BOOM!" The terrifying palm imprint launched attack after attack, wanting to crush Qin Wentian, burying him right where he stood.

Just as everyone thought that was merely a normal attack, the innate technique used by the Lifire Empyrean suddenly seemed to gain life. The palm trembled, and transformed into another lifire body in an instant. This lifire body was gigantic, and its palm was like a lifire prison, grabbing hold of Qin Wentian.

"Careful, that is his Lifire Clone. He borrows the power from the Lifire Grand Formation to create it, allowing him access to the entirety of the energy provided by the grand formation." Jialan Jiangshan was an old opponent of the Lifire Empyrean and he naturally knew that the Lifire Empyrean had this card up his sleeve. However, this was the first time he fought with the Lifire Empyrean inside Lifire City, he didn't expect the boost to strength provided by the Lifire Grand Formation would be so overwhelmingly great.

The hearts of everyone trembled. Qin Wentian also understood why when Zhuge Xiong brought up the suggestion of him having an avatar, the Lifire Empyrean directly believed that it was true.

So it turned out that the Lifire Empyrean himself has also cultivated a kind of cloning or avatar creation technique. This was why he felt that Zhuge Xiong's suggestion was highly probable, the Jialan Monarch should be killed by Qin Wentian's avatar.

Within the palm-like prison, a terrifying sword of light appeared. Numerous arms also manifested from the dharma body as Qin Wentian attempted to blast his way free. However, balls of flames fell from the air, wanting to incinerate the dharma body protecting Qin Wentian. Sizzling sounds rang out and a few moments later, Qin Wentian's true body appeared after his dharma body was burned through. His entire person was covered in lava, the Lifire Empyrean's clone grabbed his true body with both hands tightly, wanting to refine him by the intensity of his flames.

"No matter how high your talent is, you will find it hard to escape death today. As for Beauty Xiao, I'll grant her her wish and let her accompany you to death. Not only for her, for those who betrayed me today, they shall all be annihilated." The Lifire Empyrean and his clone spoke the same words, their voices rumbling through space, causing terror to fill the hearts of many people.

The Lifire Empyrean, the sovereign of Lifire City. Ultimately, could it be that no one could challenge his might?

Could no one really defeat the Lifire Empyrean?

Would this magnificent character Qin Wentian, really die here today?!

Chapter 1662: Lifire Empyrean’s Terror

The might radiating from the Lifire Empyrean was too terrifying. At this moment, the vast majority of people all hoped for Qin Wentian to become the victor. Because, once the Lifire Empyrean's attack defeated Qin Wentian, it was unknown how many people had to die here today.

The northern governor Qin Wentian, the supervisory commander Di Tian, as well as the Jialan Clan has forced the Lifire Empyrean into such a state today. This grudge can already be considered unresolvable as long as either party didn't die. Even if the Lifire Empyrean was victorious, he wouldn't be able to escape the denouncement from the other world palace lords at the Realmlord's side. But if he did win, the first thing he would do was to annihilate all of these traitors who dared to rebel against him.

Qin Wentian was now in extremely dire straits himself. Could he even protect himself? Let alone speaking about obtaining victory.

The terrifying lava flames buried Qin Wentian within. Boundless radiance radiated from Qin Wentian, a brilliant light that shone gloriously encapsulated everything. It seemed capable of purifying the myriad of things in this world, a fiery radiance that was unstoppable. Qin Wentian closed his eyes, his entire person seemed even more holy and saint-like. Gradually, the lava flames were burned away, devoured by the brilliant radiance.

The Lifire Empyrean and his clone wanted to crush Qin Wentian. However, with the fiery radiance of the laws of light, it felt like even if the entire might of the Lifire Grand Formation was to descend unceasingly upon Qin Wentian, it would be unable to harm him.

And at this moment, the Lifire Empyrean's true self stared at everyone from the air. "You guys betrayed this seat. Do you all feel regret now?"

The hearts of everyone trembled. When Sun Qian saw the Lifire Empyrean's gaze, he immediately hid himself behind Di Tian. Those who had surrendered also felt trepidation in their hearts. Today, things really had been too miserable for them. No matter what they did, no matter how they choose, the paths that laid before them all led to death. At the end, will they ultimately die in this battle for the Lifire Palace Lord's position?

"Kill!" The Lifire Empyrean roared. In an instant, lifire palm imprints descended from the sky, shooting towards Di Tian, Sun Qian and Beauty Xiao. The first people he wanted to kill were none other than these three. Two of them were governors who betrayed him, his direct subordinates, there was no way he would pardon them. And as for Di Tian, he was the mastermind of everything today. Hence, he wanted to kill these three no matter what.

His gaze was extremely terrifying, capable of scorching through everything. Di Tian's eyes narrowed when he saw such a powerful attack. A moment later, a fearsome gigantic phantom of a demon god from his bloodline protection ability appeared behind him, directly launching attacks against the lifire palm imprints, negating the force behind it. On the other side, Beauty Xiao who was far away from Di Tian, had no way to defend against this. She couldn't even withstand the Lifire Empyrean's gaze. The terrifying lifire palm easily captured her.

"Release her!" A resplendent light radiated forth. Qin Wentian was like the god of light, unexcelled in the world. He stared at the Lifire Empyrean as he repeated, "Release her."

The Lifire Empyrean had an ugly look on his face. He glanced at Qin Wentian before turning towards Di Tian as his countenance became cold. "Di Tian, to think that you actually have also broken through to this level."

The hearts of everyone trembled. They all seemed to be already numb…

Everything that happened today had been too overwhelmingly shocking. The incidents that happened one by one all filled them with endless shock.

Right now, the Lifire Empyrean said that the Supervisory Commander Di Tian was actually the same as Qin Wentian? He had also stepped into the empyrean realm?

Back then those years ago at the grand banquet of the Lifelong Realm, Di Tian and Qin Wentian shook the world with their names. Now, both of them actually broke through to the empyrean realm. These two are truly monstrous existences.

The experts of the Jialan Clan all had stiff looks on their faces. Their hearts were filled with waves of shock as they stared at the Di Tian who stepped out.

Di Tian had joined forces with their Jialan Clan, wanting to pull the Lifire Empyrean down from his position. However, was this really because of his relationship with the Jialan Clan? Because of his relationship with Jialan Qiuyue?

Did he do all of this just to help the Jialan Clan ascend to the top seat?

Before this, everyone thought so. But right now, their hearts were wavering.

If Di Tian was still at the immortal emperor realm, it was very possible that he did all this to help the Jialan Clan get the Lifire Palace Lord's position.

But he actually concealed the fact that he had broken through to the empyrean realm from everyone. What did this mean? This undoubtedly meant that he already has enough power to take the position of the Lifire Palace Lord for himself! Also, in addition to his talent, as well as the Realmlord's approval and backing, he, Di Tian, was more qualified than Jialan Jiangshan to sit on the Lifire Palace's throne if the Lifire Empyrean was defeated.

In the crowd far away, Jialan Qiuyue turned pale. Jialan Yuntian froze as well. Everything has been made clear.

By forming a friendship with the Jialan Clan, it was true that Di Tian needed to borrow their strength. However, his true intention was to grab the seat of the Lifire Palace Lord. For the sake of becoming the Lifire Palace Lord, what was friendship? What was Jialan Qiuyue's beauty? Evidently, they couldn't compare at all!

Di Tian had hidden this from everyone, including their Jialan Clan. They had unknowingly become Di Tian's chess pieces. As one of the peak powers of the Lifelong Realm, the Jialan Clan actually became a tool that was made use of by Di Tian. What an irony this was?

But this also proved what a terrifying character Di Tian was.

"Palace lord, things have already reached such a state. Why is there a need to implicate the innocents? Whether is there Sun Qian or Beauty Xiao or not, you ultimately have to give up your position. That's the irresistible general trend of events." Di Tian slowly spoke.

"Irresistible trend of events?" The Lifire Empyrean laughed. Balls of flame could be seen in floating in the air with the reddened sky as their backdrop. He continued, "Di Tian, what a terrifying scheme. I don't believe that you have the strength to contend against me. Also, you have so many subordinates. If I want to kill them all, can you even stop me?"

"Whether it was you fighting against Senior Jialan, or against Governor Qin, I have not acted, choosing to stand by the side. I did this because I wanted to allow palace lord to have a chance at a fair battle, to determine who the victor and the loser is. Palace lord, why must you implicate others and use my subordinates to threaten me? Could it be that you don't have any family members inside the Lifire Palace? No matter what, it's best that you consider their safety too." Di Tian's tone was undoubtedly also filled with the hint of a threat.

"HAHAHA!" The Lifire Empyrean laughed maniacally, sounding a little crazed. He, the Lifire Palace Lord, the sovereign of this region, was actually threatened by someone with his family.

With a violent grab, the Lifire Empyrean grabbed hold of Beauty Xiao and moved her before him. Di Tian's expression froze, but the Lifire Empyrean was looking at Qin Wentian instead of him. He then spoke, "In the past, you had once dared to do crazy things for the sake of Ye Qianyu and Beiming Youhuang. Now, I wonder if you would be crazy enough for the sake of Beauty Xiao who betrayed me to help you."

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with sharpness. "As the Lifire Palace Lord, using such a method to threaten me is simply too despicable."

"I also didn't expect that I would have to face off against three empyreans today. Since this is the case, I can only kill one of you first." The Lifire Empyrean icily replied. He then continued, "Beauty Xiao's charm is really not small. From what I know, in truth she actually hates men and is an extremely pragmatic individual. However, under the circumstances where the future cannot be foreseen, she actually took the risk to betray me for you. This isn't like her. In that case, I want you now to suffer my attacks for the sake of her. Are you willing?"

Beauty Xiao turned pale as she stared at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's expression also turned ashen. He glanced at Beauty Xiao before speaking to the Lifire Empyrean, "Lifire Empyrean, did you not hear Supervisory Commander Di Tian's words? Don't tell me you don't have family inside the Lifire Palace."

"After killing you, I'll naturally slaughter Di Tian. Daring to rebel yet you still expect to live?" The Lifire Empyrean coldly spoke.

"The Lifire Empyrean is starting to be afraid." The eyes of many flashed. If the Lifire Empyrean was confident enough to kill everyone, given his status, there was no need for him to do such an embarrassing thing. As the sovereign of this entire region, if he wanted to kill Beauty Xiao, he would have already done so. However, he didn't do so and chose to use Beauty Xiao to threaten Qin Wentian instead. This meant that the Lifire Empyrean could feel a true sense of threat from Qin Wentian. He was no longer as confident.

"Lifire Empyrean. I challenged you directly and openly but if you use such despicable methods, don't blame me for being ruthless." Qin Wentian's expression was like ice.

"Release your defense." The Lifire Empyrean exerted more force. Instantly, fire sprang up around Beauty Xiao, causing her to scream in pain. She was injured despite resisting it with her own law energy. Qin Wentian's eyes narrowed. He glanced at Beauty Xiao, and upon seeing the agony on her face, his heart trembled violently from an inner struggle.

He didn't really feel much emotions for her but no matter what, they did have a relationship before. In addition, Beauty Xiao betrayed the Lifire Empyrean for him. Before this, she had no idea that he had already reached the empyrean realm or whether he would defeat the Lifire Empyrean or not. But even so, she determinedly stood on his side.

"BOOM!" A towering might radiated from Di Tian. Boundless law energy churned in the surroundings as a fearsome sealing might permeated the atmosphere, blotting out the sky dyed red by lifire.

He stepped out as a sealing windstorm kicked up, wanting to seal this space. "Governor Qin, since the Lifire Empyrean is so despicable. Why don't we join forces to kill him?"

After speaking, he glanced at the Lifire Empyrean again, "Palace Lord, you best think things through. If you don't implicate others, I don't mind just watching from the sidelines."

Di Tian wanted to pressure the Lifire Empyrean by doing this. He wanted to force him to give up on harming Beauty Xiao.

"Qin Wentian, your decision?" The Lifire Empyrean could sense Di Tian's might. He was even more sure in his heart that he had to kill one of them first. If not, when these two magnificent characters and Jialan Jiangshan joined forces, things would be too dangerous for him.

Qin Wentian's expression turned unsightly. The Lifire Empyrean clearly was determined to threaten him.

"Fine, just do what you want." Qin Wentian gritted his teeth as the law energy radiating from him dissipated completely.

Beauty Xiao who was captured by the Lifire Empyrean, instantly felt her eyes redden. She stared at Qin Wentian, a hint of a radiant smile flashed in her eyes, filled with charm. She then whispered, "Have you gone mad? Given your talent, why did you give up on resisting just for a woman like me?"

"Shut up." Qin Wentian glanced at her and berated.

Beauty Xiao's mouth twitched, her smile seemed to grow even more radiant as she continued, "I once said that one day, if you stand in opposition to the Lifire Empyrean, I'll definitely stand on the palace lord's side. I thought that I was already foolish enough today, but I didn't expect that you are even more foolish than me. For a woman like me that's so cheap and lowly, looked down upon by everyone, how can it be worth to exchange your life, a life of that of a peerless genius, for mine?"

Laughing, her tears began to flow. At this moment, her resistance formed from her law energy dissipated completely. At the next instant, the fearsome lifire directly burned her body, a body of flesh and blood. Without the protection of her law energy, how could she endure the intensity of the lifire flames? She immediately let out a scream mingled with intense agony but she still gritted her teeth, determined to bear it. She wanted to maintain her most charming and beautiful smile as she stared at the young man in white who could sacrifice himself for her.

Sometimes, when you are filled with utter despair towards the world, there would sometimes be someone who appeared, bringing with them their own light to illuminate your world. This ray of light was much more precious and valuable compared to life itself.

Hence, she was willing to give her life up. In addition, she was finally truly happy, truly satisfied!

Chapter 1663: The Changed Skies of the Lifire Palace

Beauty Xiao's reaction caused the hearts of everyone to tremble. The terrifying flames instantly seeped into her body, burning her. This was simply too fast, so fast that nobody could react.

"You've gone mad!" The Lifire Empyrean roared.

Qin Wentian's gaze also froze as he stared at Beauty Xiao with shock.

"STOP!" He roared. But Beauty Xiao didn't heed him and continued to allow the destructive energy to seep into her body. Her smile was as radiant as ever. In this life, her road had always been one filled with frustrations and dashed hopes. She wasn't willing to listen to the arrangements of her clan, wasn't willing to submit to her fate. She went in the opposite direction, choosing to act wanton and unrestrained but she had never been happy before, despite what she showed others on the surface. Because, she didn't have dignity.

Her clan treated her with disdain and humiliation, the eyes of others in the world were filled with the same light of contempt. No one had truly respected her before. Even Yin Qiu, who had been wooing her, was only lusting over her beauty and wanted to play her. Many men were the same as Yin Qiu, hence, she didn't give them any chances.

She initially thought that all men in this world were the same, until she met Qin Wentian. He felt different from the rest, once, she had personally said to Qin Wentian that in the future, if he faced against the Lifire Empyrean, she would undoubtedly stand on the Lifire Empyrean's side. She would always side with the stronger one. But today, before anyone knew that Qin Wentian had the ability to face against the Lifire Empyrean head-on, she actually didn't stand on the Lifire Empyrean's side. She had chosen to help Qin Wentian.

This was something that defied logic, letting emotions rule over her mind. But this time around, she finally didn't regret it. Because, he was that outstanding, that extraordinary, and was even willing to give up his resisting because of a woman like her. How many foolish decisions are there in total? Most probably, everyone here would feel that she was unworthy of Qin Wentian to do so and felt that he was foolish. Who was she, Beauty Xiao? Could her life be of equal value to Qin Wentian's life?

"Thank you." Beauty Xiao gently smiled at Qin Wentian. The Lifire Empyrean had retracted his attack. After that, Beauty Xiao's body fell from the air, resembling a willow leave, so gentle and weak. A formless energy then enveloped her. Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed as he directly embraced her, while frenziedly infusing life energy into her body, wanting to extend her ruined vitality.

"Why must you do this?" Qin Wentian felt some pain in his heart. Even though he didn't feel too much emotion for Beauty Xiao, he still found this hard to bear.

"Because, it is worth it. Let me vanish just like this, I don't wish to see my body being ravaged by time in the future. I want to leave this world in my prettiest, most beautiful state." Beauty Xiao's voice sounded exceptionally relaxed. Her beautiful eyes were still filled with charm and luster. But this luster felt like the last hint of radiance, about to fade away at any moment.

"This time around, I finally made the right choice." Beauty Xiao's beautiful eyes shifted away from Qin Wentian, slowly glancing up at the sky. The sky that was painted red by streaks of lifire, was like the color of the setting sun. Right now, this scene in Beauty Xiao's eyes felt exceptionally beautiful.

Her beautiful eyes slowly closed quietly. She didn't feel any pain. Being able to step into death like this, she was already extremely satisfied. She has finally ended her life that was filled with the contempt of others as well as humiliation.

Qin Wentian saw true peace on her features. His heart had no way to calm down, even though nothing could be seen from his external appearance, his heart suddenly felt seized by an intense feeling of vengeance. This feeling of vengeance transformed into towering fires of rage. He inclined his head and stared at the Lifire Empyrean. Only killing intent could be seen in the Qin Wentian at this moment.

A bright light flashed. Beauty Xiao's body gradually vanished within the bright glare of the light. Just like what she had requested, she had left this world in her prettiest state.

Qin Wentian stood straight, a terrifying storm manifested around him, threatening to rend everything apart. His silhouette flashed as he vanished completely from sight. In the next instant, a spatial prison appeared, enveloping the space around him and the Lifire Empyrean. Numerous dharma arms materialized, launching palm attacks imbued with the power of God's Hand. His sword qi river seethed and surged, the sounds of buddhic chants filled the air, giving birth to buddhic light, including a spatial energy that twisted everything.

The Lifire Empyrean folded ancient imprints, unleashing the lifire palm strikes along with the lifire dragons. Their attacks clashed against each other violently, causing the entire space to tremble. Flames kept falling from the sky, burying this sealed space with fire. The eyes of the Lifire Empyrean also flickered with a fearsome killing intent.

Their battle caused the nearby surroundings to rumble. Even the Lifire Clone joined in. However, before it could do so, Di Tian already moved to block it. Boundless strands of sealing light shot towards the Lifire Clone, sealing the space it was in. After being separated from the Lifire Grand Formation's dimension, the Lifire Clone was clearly weakened by several times. It had no way to break free from Di Tian's seals.

The eyes revealed by the masked Di Tian were exceptionally cold. His hands folded gestures as numerous sealing gates blasted out towards the Lifire Clone. Gradually, the Lifire Clone grew smaller in size as the energy within it depleted. Finally, when the last sealing gate slammed into it, the Lifire Clone was directly devoured into the gate of sealing, vanishing from sight.

"The Lifire Clone was destroyed by Di Tian. How powerful." The hearts of everyone trembled. Right now, they had been shocked so many times that they were already somewhat numb.

On the other side, Qin Wentian was madly clashing against the Lifire Empyrean. This time around, Qin Wentian was truly enraged. That magnificent figure was angered for the sake of beauty. Everyone didn't know what the relationship was between Qin Wentian and Beauty Xiao but after they saw that scene earlier, all of them were moved by it. They didn't expect Beauty Xiao, who had an unsavoury reputation, would actually be willing to die for Qin Wentian. Not only so, she died in peace, she was really satisfied.

Maybe, she has finally found what she wanted. No matter what sort of person she was before, she deserved respect from everyone.

"Qin Wentian had comprehended the source origins of many laws. The Lifire Empyrean has been in the empyrean realm for many years, his comprehension should be deeper. But it seems that he could only contend against Qin Wentian due to the boost in power from the Lifire Grand Formation and his Lifire Clone. But now, the Lifire Clone is already destroyed and the Lifire Grand Formation was in danger of being sealed away. Fighting against Qin Wentian like this, the Lifire Empyrean actually was inferior in comparison.

Many people stared at the battle, and felt that they could already predict the ending. The Lifire Empyrean wasn't even a match for a single Qin Wentian, let alone with the addition of Di Tian.

At the next moment, resplendent light produced by the source origin of the laws of light radiated from Qin Wentian brilliantly, resembling divine fire. Each and every one of his attacks contained supreme might that could penetrate everything. Right now, whoever got close to Qin Wentian would be burned to nothingness by the intensity of the light radiating from him.

Di Tian's silhouette flashed. He stood in the air as boundless sealing light enveloped this space, isolating the power from the Lifire Grand Formation. The lifire dragons roared but they soon became trapped in the individual sealing prisons created by Di Tian. Di Tian's eyes could seal this sky, the trapped dragons struggled violently but there was nothing they could do after their source of power was cut off. The Lifire Empyrean also grew weaker and weaker due to the Lifire Grand Formation being isolated. He coughed out blood after being struck by one of Qin Wentian's attack.

The Lifire Empyrean turned pale. His silhouette flashed, wanting to flee the battlefield, yet he only saw Di Tian directly descending before him. Chains radiating sealing energy that were in the form of diagrams, sealed this entire space as they blasted towards the Lifire Empyrean.

The Lifire Empyrean howled in rage, he just avoided Qin Wentian's attack only to face Di Tian's attacks. A sealing chain flashed like lightning, instantly locking his arm. Runes of sealing seeped from it, extending towards the rest of his body.

"BOOM, BOOM, BOOM!" The numerous sealing chain diagrams directly locked down the Lifire Empyrean in a few short moments. If Qin Wentian was still here, he wouldn't be trapped by these chains so easily. But who could he blame?

If it wasn't for the fact that the Lifire Empyrean infuriated Qin Wentian completely and threatened Di Tian, the two of them would never have joined forces.

"BOOM!" A fist of divine radiance directly pierced a hole through the Lifire Empyrean's shoulder blade. A low-sounding roar of pain echoed out, as more sealing diagrams entered his body, wanting to completely seal his energy.

Qin Wentian stretched out his hand, grabbing the other arm of the Lifire Empyrean. With an intention of will, boundless motes of light converged into a sharp sword that slashed out, completely destroying that arm.

"Torturing him till he is dead?" At this moment, although the crowd was already numb, they still couldn't help but feel their hearts pounding. The Lifire Empyrean, the sovereign of this place, the Palace Lord of this world palace, was actually in such a state.

Before this, all of them felt that the chances of the Lifire Empyrean being the final victor was greater. But who would have thought that the ending would bring such shock to everyone?

If the Lifire Empyrean didn't use despicable methods and used Beauty Xiao and Di Tian's subordinates to threaten them, Qin Wentian would have fought him alone. The Lifire Empyrean had his strength greatly boosted by the Lifire Grand Formation and also had a Lifire Clone. How could he not be able to deal with a single empyrean? If he could win against Qin Wentian, he would kill him and target Di Tian next.

Sadly, he made a wrong move. This wrong move he made had completely enraged Qin Wentian. It also made Di Tian not want to give him any more chances. Hence, the two of them joined forces and the powerful Lifire Empyrean was completely unable to resist.

"ARGH!" Another scream rang out. The other arm of the Lifire Empyrean was crushed. His face contorted into an extremely malevolent expression. He could not accept such an ending.

Who was he? He was the king on the throne of this entire vast stretch of territories, a direct subordinate of the Lifelong Realmlord. Was he really going to die to two juniors who recently became famous tens of years ago?

Back then, he only treated Qin Wentian as a chess piece. But now, this chess piece was torturing him before killing him!

"BOOM!" Another punch flew out, blasting through the Lifire Empyrean's chest, destroying the interior of his body. The malevolent expression on the Lifire Empyrean's face was replaced by terror. He finally understood what his fate would be. He stared at Qin Wentian with eyes full of despair.

"BOOM, BOOM, BOOM!" Qin Wentian vented all his emotions out, launching strike after strike. The Lifire Empyrean was no longer in a humanly-recognizable form.

"Spare me please!" The Lifire Empyrean screamed. The powerful him, the prideful him, was actually begging for mercy.

"BOOM!" Another destructive strike blasted out. Under the despair-filled gaze of the Lifire Empyrean, this strike directly blasted towards his brain. Under the radiance of the light, his body shattered as his soul dissipated bit by bit. The last thought he had was what would have happened if back then those years ago, he didn't imprison Ye Qianyu and had chosen to give her to Qin Wentian instead.

In that case, would history be rewritten?

Would everything develop towards another ending?

Would Qin Wentian be willing to be used by him?

There were no 'what ifs,' everything was already fixed.

The Lifire Empyrean had died, the skies of the Lifire Palace changed!

Chapter 1664: Successor to the Lifire Palace Lord’s Position

The sealing might in the air dissipated. The sky that was streaked with red lifire, also reverted to its normal color. The Lifire Grand Formation fell to silence, no longer providing bursts of energy, sending it over to here.

Under the sunlight, a cool breeze could be felt, alleviating the warm temperature, causing everyone's hair to flutter.

However, at this moment, Lifire City had completely changed. Countless people were gathered here at the northern city regions but there was only dead silence. Their gazes all turned to a certain direction, the direction where the Lifire Empyrean vanished, which was also the location where Qin Wentian stood arrogantly.

His long robes fluttered with the wind, Qin Wentian quietly stood in the air. His aura had dissipated but it did nothing to mask his absolute magnificence. After everyone saw this scene, they understood that even without Di Tian, Qin Wentian alone was sufficient to win against the Lifire Empyrean. Maybe, it might not be as easy for him to do so, but the final ending wouldn't change.

This domineering governor was the symbol of faith and conviction for the northern governor's manor. He was as glorious as he was in the past. He might only appear in the vision of the public rarely but every time he did so, he would definitely cause earth-shattering levels of commotion. The commotion this time would surely sweep over the boundlessly vast territories controlled by the Lifire Palace, in addition to rocking many places in the Lifelong Realm.

This battle would become a battle that proclaimed him as a god, far more impressive compared to the competition between the nine world palaces at the grand banquet years ago.

In this battle, he killed the Lifire Empyrean.

The troops of the northern governor's manor stared at the figure in white who was standing in the air and their gazes were filled with awe, like they were looking upon a god. They thought that this governor whom they respected, would surely die today. Who would have expected such a situation?

From this moment onwards, the reverence in their hearts towards Qin Wentian was like the reverence towards a divinity.

Jialan Jiangshan and the others of the Jialan Clan stared at the figure in white whose magnificence knew no bounds. The Jialan Clan had tried to sue for peace with Qin Wentian multiple times but it has always been rejected. They felt that Qin Wentian was far too proud and didn't know the immensity of the heavens and earth. However, what about now?

Their Jialan Clan used all sorts of methods, wanting to knock the Lifire Empyrean down from his position. Today, the Lifire Empyrean finally fell. Not only did he fall from his position, he was even killed in public and their Jialan Clan had participated in that. However, none of them felt any joy or excitement. Instead, they felt a sense of worry pressing down on their hearts.

Today, everyone thought that this would be a battle where Di Tian allied with the Jialan Clan to take down the Lifire Empyrean. However, the situation that occurred clearly surpassed everyone's imagination. What secrets were there within this exactly? Nobody knew anything. Even the Jialan Clan couldn't see through the murk.

They didn't know what would happen after the Lifire Empyrean had died. What attitude would the Realmlord have? Who would be the new Lifire Palace Lord?

Nobody could be sure but no matter what, there's no doubt that the possibility of Jialan Jiangshan becoming the new palace lord was extremely slim. Because, during the gambling battle, their Jialan Clan was being made use of like chess pieces and Jialan Jiangshan himself was even defeated. After being made use of in addition to being a loser, would he have the qualifications to become the Lifire Palace Lord? Would he have the qualifications to win the Realmlord's trust? Would the Realmlord use such a man and incur the ridicules and gossips of others?

The people of the Emperor Pavilion stared at Di Tian. To this pavilion lord of theirs, they were filled with adoration and worship. He and Qin Wentian could definitely stand alongside with each other as equals. Also, no matter what secrets were hidden in the situation today, there was no doubt that their pavilion lord Di Tian had guided everything. He was truly a spiritual character of their Emperor Pavilion.

Zhuge Xiong's arms were crippled. He stared at everything as he sighed in his heart. He had always been intelligent but had still fallen so low today. Everything, was because of a single person - Qin Wentian.

Who would have expected that he actually grew so strong to this extent in just the blink of an eye? If they could predict this, the Lifire Empyrean back then wouldn't have made use of Qin Wentian at all, he would directly finish him off.

However, no matter what everyone else thought, the Qin Wentian now didn't feel any joy from the victory. He turned his glance over to the location where Beauty Xiao vanished. It was a long time before he spoke again.

...

From the deactivation of the Lifire Grand Formation as well as the vanishing of the reddened sky, everyone in Lifire City knew that the battle had already ended. They just didn't know what the ending was like.

Who was it that could force the Lifire Empyrean to such an extent in Lifire City?

Right now, for those who dared to challenge the palace lord's prestige should have been dead already, right?

The Lifire Empyrean had personally acted, dying the sky red with the activation of the grand formation. How could his opponents still be alive?

At this moment, a voice rang out in the minds of quite a few people. After that, they took out their messaging crystal and started to converse. Swiftly after, a thunderbolt roared in their minds, causing their hearts to be filled with endless shock.

"The Emperor Pavilion Lord, Supervisory Commander Di Tian, had joined forces with Northern Governor Qin Wentian and killed the Lifire Empyrean in the airspace above the northern governor's manor!"

This news, once circulated around, shocked the entire world. The news spread at a terrifying speed, soon even travelling beyond the territories of the Lifire Palace.

An earthquake-level commotion shook the entire Lifire City as countless people obtained the news. The Lifire Empyrean led his troops under a circumstance where there were no proof, wanting to frame and kill Governor Qin Wentian. However, Di Tian and the Jialan Clan arrived to stop the Lifire Empyrean. Both sides started fighting and as the grand battle started, the Lifire Empyrean activated the Lifire Grand Formation and defeated Jialan Jiangshan.

At this moment, the northern governor Qin Wentian suddenly erupted forth with empyrean-level strength. At the end, he joined forces with Di Tian to finish the Lifire Empyrean off.

Everyone in Lifire City came to a realization. The skies of Lifire City were changing.

The people in the Lifire Palace naturally also received this news. When they learned that the Lifire Empyrean had fallen, their hearts were completely stunned before terror and despair appeared on their faces. This was especially so after they knew that the Lifire Empyrean had used Beauty Xiao to threaten Qin Wentian, which eventually led to this ending. They instantly contacted the Lifelong Saint Hall and many people rushed to the teleportation array inside the palace and teleported to Lifelong City directly.

...

The speed which the Lifelong Saint Hall received news wasn't any slower than the Lifire Palace. In the Lifelong Saint Hall, the Lifelong Realmlord was currently sitting inside a great hall as he heard the reports. He learned that both Qin Wentian and Di Tian had broken through to the empyrean realm and had even joined forces to easily crush the Lifire Empyrean. Even he couldn't help but feel startled. He, who was a world overlord, naturally had seen many geniuses before. But even so, he was shocked.

This time around, there were two extraordinary geniuses that actually appeared in Lifire City. Also, these two were individuals he met before. They had both displayed their brilliance in the grand banquet hosted those years ago. Who would have thought that in a mere tens of years, they were actually already capable of pulling the Lifire Empyrean down from his throne.

"What do you all think?" After hearing all the reports, the Realmlord glanced at the experts before him as he asked.

"This subordinate feels that everything is nothing but a scene directed by supervisory commander Di Tian. Realmlord, you personally conferred to him his position. He is truly an extraordinary character with formidable methods. Even that crafty old fox Jialan Jiangshang and the entire force of the Jialan Clan were used by him as chess pieces. What's even more ridiculous is that the Jialan Clan still thought this was an opportunity for them, feeling that Di Tian has fallen for their young miss, Jialan Qiuyue. The entire Jialan Clan was played for fools by Di Tian." A person laughed.

"Not only the Jialan Clan, before Di Tian revealed his strength, everyone was ignorant about this. This move by him pulled the wool over everyone's eyes. They felt that he was helping the Jialan Clan to seize power, collaborating with them to deal with the Lifire Empyrean. Who would have thought that he had such ambitions, stirring up things on both sides, eventually allowing him to become the fisherman that benefits from the troubled waters." Another person stated.

"In that case, what about Qin Wentian?" The Lifelong Realmlord asked. "Did Di Tian join forces with Qin Wentian? Is there some secret plot between them?"

"Maybe, but at the very least from the surface, we have no idea how strong Di Tian is exactly. If his strength alone wasn't sufficient to deal with the Lifire Empyrean, it's very possible that he had already made a secret arrangement with Qin Wentian. If not, after the Lifire Empyrean defeated Jialan Jiangshan, things would be extremely dire for them if they failed to deal with the Lifire Empyrean."

"Logical. I also felt that Di Tian did so. He is the mastermind behind everything. What a character." A person at the side nodded.

"Isn't he a little too scheming? His relationship with the Jialan Clan cannot be considered bad but he ruthlessly used them for the sake of ascension. He is a man that is determined to get what he seeks by fair or foul means." Another person shook his head in disapproval.

"Isn't such a thing very normal? For someone of his abilities, intelligence and talent, how is he willing to serve under others?"

"That's true. For people like him, if we use him well, he can be a sword that kills our enemies. But if we don't use it well, he would turn into a sword that hurt ourselves. Di Tian is a double-edged sword."

Everyone was deep in discussion, they didn't specifically state Di Tian's purpose as there was no need to do so as well. Such deep schemes and with so many arrangements. Other than obtaining the Lifire Palace Lord's position, what else could he want?

"Realmlord, what do you think?" Everyone turned their gazes to the Lifelong Realmlord only to see him laughing, "Let's wait for them to come here and seek forgiveness before making a decision."

Everyone nodded. Very swiftly, someone came to report that there were people from the Lifire Palace who were begging for an audience., The Lifelong Realmlord directly rejected it.

The winner becomes king while the losers were vilified. The Lifire Empyrean was the hegemon of a stretch of territories but was actually killed by his own subordinates. Can he expect the Lifelong Realmlord to clean up after him? What status did the Realmlord have? He naturally didn't have the time nor inclination to do such things.

Although the Lifire Empyrean was the hegemon of a boundlessly vast region and had a high status, to him, the Lifire Empyrean was nothing but a subordinate. If this subordinate died for him, he could make arrangements to clean things up. However, the Lifire Empyrean died so pathetically despite trying to frame and kill one of his own subordinates. Since this is the case, since he died, just let him be dead. He will simply find a more capable person to take over the Lifire Palace Lord's position.

Right right now, he did have candidates to choose from. The victors of this battle had clearly proven that they were more outstanding than the Lifire Empyrean.

Just like what the Lifelong Realmlord had predicted, Di Tian, the Jialan Clan, and Qin Wentian all quickly came to the Lifelong Saint Hall to beg for an audience with him. The purpose of their arrival was naturally to seek forgiveness for their crimes.

After killing one of the nine world palace lords that was his direct subordinate, they naturally had to give him an explanation!

Chapter 1665: Who is the successor?

The Lifelong Saint Hall, inside the ancient hall, the Realmlord was seated on the throne. He exuded majesty and there were two rows of experts at the empyrean level before him. They stood there with solemn expressions, giving off a huge sense of pressure.

Qin Wentian, Di Tian and Jialan Jiangshan all stood in the front most row with many others behind them. Some of the people behind them were Sun Qian, Lin Ba, Zhuge Xiong, etc. These were all witnesses of the incident and naturally had to come.

"We pay our respects to Realmlord." All of them bowed. Regardless of whether they were sincere or not, at the very least, a respectful expression could be seen on their faces now.

The Lifelong Realmlord didn't say anything, he simply stared at them. The people standing all lowered their heads and after that, Di Tian took the lead and spoke, "Supervisory Commander of the Lifire Palace, Di Tian, begs your eminence for forgiveness."

"Oh? What crime did you commit?" The Realmlord's voice turned cold, no longer as casual as how he chatted with the others in this great hall before their arrival. However, a heavy pressure could be felt within his casual tone.

"In Lifire City, the Lifire Empyrean had designs on Governor Qin, wanting to frame the death of a monarch onto him, using this excuse as he sought the death of Governor Qin. After I received news from central governor of the Lifire Palace, Sun Qian, and after joining forces with Jialan Jiangshan I immediately rushed over, wanting to stop the Lifire Empyrean. However, the Lifire Empyrean was extremely tyrannical, treating all of us as traitors and wanting to slaughter everyone there. Helplessly, we could only choose to act together and killed the Lifire Empyrean. Realmlord, please forgive us." Di Tian bowed very low.

Although his words sounded logical, it was still a fact that he killed one of the world palace lords and did so before he informed his intentions up to the Lifelong Saint Hall. This was simply acting first and reporting later.

"You've already killed him before coming to beg for forgiveness. Acting first and making a report after? Although I conferred upon you the position of the supervisory commander, when had I ever given you the authority to kill my world palace lords?" The voice of the Realmlord was ice-cold as a formless pressure bore down on Di Tian.

"Realmlord, the situation at that time was extremely tense and the Lifire Empyrean had already gone crazy, using the lives of others to threaten me. If we didn't kill him, a scene of massacre would definitely happen. Given the Lifire Empyrean's strength, other than a few people, no one else would be able to block him if he wanted to start a massacre." Di Tian kept his back bowed as he replied.

"In that case, you were acting for justice and were helping me to clean my subordinates up?" The Lifelong Realmlord coldly snorted.

"Your subordinate doesn't dare to." Di Tian lowered his head even more. The Realmlord snorted, how would he not be able to tell that Di Tian was putting up a play? He had even brought members from the Xuanyuan Clan, Jialan Clan and many others from major powers in Lifelong City to act as his witnesses that his slaying the Lifire Empyrean was an act that was necessary.

"You don't dare to? You are truly audacious!" The Realmlord coldly snapped. "From now onwards, your position as the supervisory commander of the Lifire Palace will be stripped. Also for the lack of tax contribution during the development of your Emperor Pavilion, you are to pay out ten times the amount of tax you didn't pay through these years. Any objections?"

"Your subordinate will comply." Di Tian nodded respectfully.

"Jialan Jiangshan." The Realmlord then turned his gaze towards Jialan Jiangshan as he coldly spoke. "What about you? Back then when you contended against the Lifire Empyrean for authority, I had always closed one eye. Today, who gave you the guts to directly kill one of my direct subordinates? One of the nine world palace lords?"

"Jialan knows my crime." Jialan Jiangshan didn't dare to explain. Right now, no one knew what the Realmlord was thinking.

"In the future when you do things, use more of your brains." The Realmlord coldly spoke. Jialan Jiangshan turned pale. The Realmlord was mocking him.

As the true master of the Jialan Clan that was at the empyrean realm, he had lived for so many years but ended up being used by a junior like Di Tian. It was truly brainless. The Realmlord's mockery was nothing much because it's true that all the Jialan Clan's effort this time around, ended up benefiting someone else.

Lastly, the Realmlord turned to Qin Wentian and spoke, "Governor Qin, you are the most innocent out of all. You were narrowly framed and killed, it must have been tough on you. Beauty Xiao also died because of this. It's understandable about why you acted to kill the Lifire Empyrean."

"Many thanks Realmlord." Qin Wentian bowed.

The Lifelong Realmlord shifted his eyes away and glanced at everyone gathered below him, "The Lifire Empyrean acted too tyrannical and should have been punished indeed. Since he has already died, just forget everything then. Zhuge Xiong instigated his palace lord to break the laws. Since this is the case, he ought to die as well. Men, drag him out and execute him."

"Realmlord, I know my mistakes!" Zhuge Xiong howled but he was forcibly dragged away by the Realmlord's subordinates despite his pleading. This caused the hearts of everyone to tremble. The Realmlord was establishing his might using Zhuge Xiong to remind them all.

Very swiftly, a scream of misery rang out from the outside. Zhuge Xiong had been executed.

"Right now, the Lifire Palace is like a group of dragons without a leader. What do you all think?" The Realmlord swept his gaze at everyone here as he asked.

Right now, the great hall had fallen silent. This was the question everyone wanted to know the answer to.

Next, who would take over the Lifire Palace Lord's position?

"Realmlord, how about sending someone from the Lifelong Saint Hall to take over the Lifire Palace Lord's position?" A subordinate beside the Realmlord's throne suggested.

"Realmlord, your subordinate has a suggestion." At this moment, Di Tian spoke out.

"Speak." The Lifelong Realmlord turned to Di Tian, as Di Tian continued, "I believe that the new palace lord should be either Senior Jialan or Governor Qin. The successor should be chosen between them two. Everyone knows that Senior Jialan had been putting in all his efforts to work for the Realmlord all these years, given the authority the Jialan Clan wields in Lifire City, in addition to the fact that one of the Jialan Clan's members had also served as one of the nine monarchs before, Senior Jialan is extremely familiar with operations and is an extremely suitable choice as a successor."

"And for Governor Qin, he himself is originally the northern city governor of the Lifire Palace. His control over the northern city regions is absolute and everyone in his governor's manor respects him very much. If he takes over the position, everyone in the city would be satisfied and submit to his authority. He is also a very suitable candidate for a successor."

In any case, the possibility of Qin Wentian being chosen was extremely great as he himself was already a governor and had displayed empyrean-level strength now. He was also the party that was the most passive and innocent in this entire affair. The only stain he had now was that he still had not been cleared of the suspicion of killing the Jialan Monarch."

"Logical words. What about you? As the supervisory commander, your investigations revealed Xia Hou and Yin Qiu's problems and now, you have also stopped the Lifire Empyrean's killing of Governor Qin in time. This can also be considered an achievement of great merit. Also, given the current influence your Emperor Pavilion has in Lifire City, wouldn't it be more suitable for you to take over as the Lifire Palace Lord?" The Realmlord stared at Di Tian as he spoke, a playful tone could be heard in his voice.

"Your subordinate dares not think too much about that possibility." Di Tian lowered his head.

"You don't dare?" The Realmlord and his subordinates around him all stared at Di Tian. This fellow recommended Jialan Jiangshan and Qin Wentian right off the bat, he didn't want anyone from the Lifelong Saint Hall to be transferred over to take the Lifire Palace Lord's position. It was obvious that he wanted the Realmlord to pick a candidate from the three of them. Right at the start, he left out himself in the recommendations but in reality, none of the two he recommended had a better reason than him. He, Di Tian, was the key behind this entire plan of killing the Lifire Empyrean. When speaking of merit, his merit is naturally higher than the other two who were merely being used.

"What a sly fellow." Everyone mused, silently cursing at Di Tian's craftiness, advancing in the guise of a retreat. His talent was so high yet he was still so crafty. No wonder the Lifire Empyrean was played to death by his schemes.

Di Tian lowered his head and no longer spoke. His purpose was precisely to let everyone think that he was a crafty and scheming fellow. He wanted them to think that he had plotted everything out, strategizing the Lifire Empyrean's death step by step all for the sake of him ascending to the Palace Lord's position. Hence, he didn't mask his intents at all.

The Realmlord would only dare to use people with flaws. If the Realmlord knows of his connection with Qin Wentian and felt that Qin Wentian had a part to play in the schemes as well, he definitely wouldn't use either of them.

Right now, no matter how the Realmlord chooses, both him and Qin Wentian had a much higher probability of being chosen compared to Jialan Jiangshan. In fact, the possibility of him being chosen was higher because the Realmlord felt that Qin Wentian was Ancient Emperor Yi's disciple.

"Qin Wentian, you will temporarily replaced Zhuge Xiong as the grand governor and settle everything that needs to be settled in the Lifire Palace. Organize the people probably." The Lifelong Realmlord commanded.

"Yes, Realmlord." Qin Wentian's expression didn't changed. He bowed and accepted the order, as low-profile as ever.

"Alright, all of you can disperse for now and wait for my orders." The Lifelong Realmlord waved his hands in dismissal. This was also something they had predicted. The Realmlord would at most only punish them on the surface. After all, it was true that the Lifire Empyrean had made a mistake and they had settled things beautifully. There was nothing more the Realmlord could say.

After Qin Wentian and the others left, the Realmlord stared at the subordinates around him as one of them laughed, "Realmlord, this Di Tian is truly a character. If he can be loyal to you, you can consider him to take over the Lifire Palace Lord's position."

"I'll consider things a little more."

The Realmlord stood up and walked out from the great hall, arriving at an elegant courtyard.

Not long after, the Realmlord sat there, enjoying food with beautiful wine and there were even beauties before him presenting their dance. These beauties were none other than the people from the Red Dust Immortal Palace, Ye Qianyu was also aomg them.

Beside him, Beiming Youhuang silently stood there, watching the dance as well.

The Lifelong Realmlord slowly sipped his wine as his gaze focused on a beautiful figure out of all the dancers. A trace of heat could be seen in his gaze and after a long time, the dance stopped but he still didn't say anything, only continuing to drink his wine. After another long period of time, he finally spoke, "The Lifire Empyrean is dead, killed by Qin Wentian."

Ye Qianyu and Beiming Youhuang both trembled as their hearts were rocked by waves of shock.

Ye Qianyu didn't feel that it was strange for Qin Wentian to kill the Lifire Empyrean, she knew this would happen sooner or later. It was just that she didn't expect this to occur so fast. Her beautiful eyes stared at the Lifelong Realmlord, she didn't know if this matter would place Qin Wentian in danger or not.

"Don't you have anything you wish to say?" The Realmlord asked Ye Qianyu.

"Realmlord, what do you want me to say?" Ye Qianyu replied softly.

"There are people recommending him for the position of the Lifire Palace Lord. However, I'm thinking that he killed the Lifire Empyrean because of you. In that case, when he grows strong enough in the future, wouldn't he target to kill me as well?" The Realmlord stated, looking at Ye Qianyu. His words caused Ye Qianyu to turn pale. If the Realmlord thought this way, Qin Wentian would truly be in danger.

"Realmlord, you are not the Lifire Empyrean. Leaving aside your strength and status, just based on the fact that Realmlord has never made things difficult for me before, Qin Wentian would only feel gratitude towards you. Why would he have that sort of thinking?" Ye Qianyu hesitated for a moment before she replied.

Chapter 1666: Realmlord's thoughts

The Realmlord looked at Ye Qianyu's eyes. After that, he smiled, "Do you really think so?"

Ye Qianyu didn't match the Realmlord's gaze. She lowered her head and smiled, "Naturally. If not, what does the Realmlord think?"

The Lifelong Realmlord laughed and drank another mouthful of wine. He then suddenly asked, "Are you willing to belong to me?"

Ye Qianyu's body trembled, she shook her head soon after and replied, "This lowly servant is not fortunate enough, how can I be worthy of the Realmlord?"

"What if I said that you are worthy enough?" The Realmlord asked again.

"Realmlord, you should understand to whom my heart already belongs to." Ye Qianyu raised her head, staring at the Lifelong Realmlord. At this moment, her beautiful eyes didn't mask her emotions, matching gazes with the Realmlord.

The Lifelong Realmlord looked at her and laughed, "I understand your emotions now. I believe that you are truly sincere towards Qin Wentian and everything you do and every word you speak, are for his own good. You are dismissed for now."

"Yes, Realmlord." Ye Qianyu bowed before grouping up with the other maidens from the Red Dust Immortal Palace as they left the area.

After they left, the Lifelong Realmlord drank alone. All of a sudden, he turned to Beiming Youhuang and spoke, "Youhuang, take a seat."

"I don't dare to." Beiming Youhuang shook her head.

"If I tell you to sit, just sit." The Lifelong Realmlord spoke somewhat unhappily. Beiming Youhuang hesitated for a moment before walking to a seat beside the Lifelong Realmlord as she sat down.

"Refill the wine for me." The Realmlord spoke. Beiming Youhuang's hands trembled a little but she complied with the order. Her actions were extremely calm, just like her person, "Do you understand the meaning behind my conversation with Ye Qianyu?" The Lifelong Realmlord gazed at her.

Only to see Beiming Youhuang nodding lightly as she coldly spoke, "Realmlord has killing intent towards my junior apprentice brother."

The Lifelong Realmlord laughed. He stared at the side-profile of Beiming Youhuang's face and replied, "Originally, I shouldn't be so calculative towards a subordinate. Also, in the earlier meeting with the people from the Lifire Palace, Qin Wentian is the only one I didn't criticize. But in truth, he is the one I'm most worried about. For Ye Qianyu, he could keep a low-profile for so many years, enduring everything until he has the strength to kill the Lifire Empyrean. In that case, would he act against me, the Lifelong Realmlord after he grows strong enough in the future?"

"So, Realmlord told Ye Qianyu to choose. If Ye Qianyu chose to belong to you, maybe Realmlord would prepare to kill my junior apprentice brother right away." Beiming Youhuang's eyes flickered with coldness, staring at the Lifelong Realmlord. Upon staring at the cold look in his eyes, the Lifelong Realmlord wasn't angered. He smiled, "Ye Qianyu has rejected the offer I made her. I also believe that she is an intelligent woman and knows what to do for the sake of Qin Wentian. But now, I'm still hesitating."

"I don't understand." Beiming Youhuang shook her head. "Why is Realmlord treating my junior apprentice brother this way? Right from the start, you have been wary about him."

"Where is your master now?" The Lifelong Realmlord suddenly asked, his words causing Beiming Youhuang to start. She didn't have any master but at this moment, she suddenly thought of the undying old freak she met in the forbidden grounds of the Darknorth Immortal Mountain Range those years ago. It was only because of him that she was acquainted with Qin Wentian and they can be considered fellow disciples in some perspective. Since the Realmlord asked this, she replied, "Master is as elusive as a divine dragon, extremely inscrutable. I also have no idea where is he now."

"Do you really not know why I've always been wary against Qin Wentian?" The Lifelong Realmlord stared fixedly at Beiming Youhuang. Beiming Youhuang didn't evade his gaze, she shook her head in confusion.

"Right now, there are people recommending Qin Wentian for the Lifire Palace Lord's position, there are also people who recommend me to guard against him. I'm currently considering what decision to make. In any case, he is your junior apprentice brother. What do you suggest?" The Lifelong Realmlord asked as he stared at Beiming Youhuang,

"I naturally hope that Realmlord will place my junior brother in an important position. I also believe that if he can be a world palace lord, he would definitely do his tasks well." Beiming Youhuang directly replied.

"Allowing him to assume the position of one of the world palace lords?" The Lifelong Realmlord muttered. Yi's disciple again...It wasn't impossible to allow Qin Wentian to become the Lifire Palace Lord despite that, the Gemini

World Palace's palace lords are already Yi's disciples. He had to make the relationship between him and Yi to be closer before this can be done.

"I heard that you and your junior apprentice brother has a very close relationship. Those years back then, for the sake of rescuing you, he barged alone into Jialan Emperor City and almost died before he was saved by Ye Qianyu. If he really becomes the Lifire Palace Lord, Ye Qianyu cannot remain in the Lifelong Saint Hall, I don't want to be like the Lifire Empyrean and cause my direct subordinate to hate me." The Lifelong Realmlord laughed. Beiming Youhuang's eyes flickered with a bright light when she heard that.

This meant that if Qin Wentian becomes the Lifire Palace Lord, Ye Qianyu would be released from here. This would truly be a perfect ending. Qin Wentian would surely be very happy, right?

Staring at the light flickering in Beiming Youhuang's eyes, the Lifelong Realmlord laughed as he asked, "Youhuang, you have already been around me for sometime. In the future, are you willing to serve me? Are you willing to be my woman?"

Beiming Youhuang felt her heart trembling after she heard this. Her beautiful eyes involuntarily flashed. She stared at the Lifelong Realmlord only to see the Realmlord looking back at her with a warm smile in his eyes, as though he was speaking of an insignificant thing. Despite so, the words he had spoken caused great waves to rise up in Beiming Youhuang's heart.

In the next instant, she thought of many things and soon realized the Lifelong Realmlord's intentions. He didn't act like the Lifire Empyrean and didn't plan to use Ye Qianyu as a hostage to threaten Qin Wentian. In fact, since he was planning to use Qin Wentian, he didn't mind releasing Ye Qianyu for goodwill. But even so, he still felt worry. He wanted to pull their relationship closer, hence he asked her that question.

After all, Beiming Youhuang was different from Ye Qianyu, she was the senior apprentice sister of Qin Wentian. If his senior apprentice sister became the Realmlord's woman, wouldn't the Realmlord's relationship with Qin Wentian become much closer than before?

Beiming Youhuang didn't know that the Realmlord was considering things from another angle. From his perspective, he naturally didn't want to place Qin Wentian in an important position but there was no way for him to really act against Qin Wentian. After all, Qin Wentian's 'master,' was also at the world overlord level, the same level of existence as him. But if he really used Qin Wentian, he would feel unhappy in his heart. After all, the Gemini World Palace Lords are already disciples of Yi. Right now, did he really have to give another world palace lord's position to another disciple of Yi?

This was why he wanted Beiming Youhuang to become his woman. His thought process was that since I allowed one of your disciples to become a world palace lord, let the other become my woman then.

In addition, he wouldn't force her. If Beiming Youhuang rejected him, he wouldn't mind it at all.

Many scenes flashed through Beiming Youhuang's mind. That year in the past, if it wasn't for her, Qin Wentian wouldn't have barged into Jialan Emperor City and Ye Qianyu wouldn't have been captured. Qin Wentian wouldn't have been forced into this pool of troubled waters at all. Also, he used a mere tens of years to reach the same level as the Lifire Empyrean. What would his future hold?

She wanted to see how far Qin Wentian could walk on the path of cultivation.

"Okay!" A smile appeared on Beiming Youhuang's face, the coldness in her eyes vanished in an instant, and became filled with warmth and gentleness. This transformation caused the Realmlord to be stunned. To think that an ice beauty like Beiming Youhuang would actually have this side to her. Also, her smile was extremely sincere, like this was what she wanted all along.

"Hahaha!" The Realmlord started laughing. He stared at the flawless countenance of Beiming Youhuang and continued, "Alright. Youhuang, the situation might be a little difficult for you..."

The Lifelong Realmlord long had an official wife. He couldn't wed another one, he could only accept more concubines.

Beiming Youhuang didn't mind it and gave a casual smile. She naturally didn't mind it. Because, her heart was basically not in it at all.

"Temporarily, I won't announce this matter. I will find a chance and organize a grand banquet to marry you as my concubine in glory." The Realmlord warmly smiled. A disciple of Yi, although she might not know who her master was, he as the Lifelong Realmlord, wouldn't mistreat her. He would respect her wishes.

Hence, even if Yi found out and was unhappy, there was nothing he could say.

"Mhm." Beiming Youhuang nodded lightly. "I'll go and rest for now."

"Okay." The Lifelong Realmlord smiled as he nodded. Beiming Youhuang turned and left. The expression in her eyes grew cold and calm again, with no waves of emotions fluctuating within.

Let her agreement to this be a repayment to 'him' then...

...

Business continued as usual in the Lifelong Saint Hall. The death of a world palace lord didn't seem to have affected things too much.

However, the waves of the commotion of the Lifire Empyrean's death were still rumbling in Lifire City. All nine monarchs of the Lifire Palace actually already rushed to the Lifire Palace to wait for news.

After Qin Wentian and the rest returned, someone from the Lifelong Saint Hall relayed the Realmlord's order. Qin Wentian was to temporarily take over the grand governor's position and temporarily manage everything of the Lifire Palace. After the nine monarchs and especially the Lifire Empyrean's family, who were in the Lifire Palace heard that, their hearts all shook with terror.

Qin Wentian instantly ordered the Evil Emperor and central governor Sun Qian as well as eastern governor Lin Ba to lead their troops into the Lifire Palace and suppress the situation. Given Qin Wentian's current strength as well as the three imposing armies at the Lifire Palace, who would dare to resist?

Chaos manifested, experts fought everywhere. There were some close aides and clan members of the Lifire Empyrean who wanted to flee but they were all captured.

Qin Wentian stood arrogantly in the air, the pressure radiating from him extended in all directions. He then spoke, "For those who dare to resist, kill all without mercy."

His terrifying aura bore down on everyone inside the Lifire Palace, causing all the experts to tremble in fear. He then continued, "For everyone in the Lifire Palace, including the nine monarchs. None of you are allowed to take a single step out from the palace. For those who want to leave, you will need to obtain my permission first."

"What qualifications do you have to command us?" An expert shouted. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. With a single gaze, a bright beam of light shot over, directly piercing through the person who questioned him. That person screamed in pain as the others trembled involuntarily.

"By the Realmlord's orders, I'm temporarily the grand governor of the Lifire Palace and will manage everything here. If there's someone who dares to question the Realmlord's authority, I won't show any mercy." Qin Wentian icily spoke. "Anyone else who is dissatisfied?"

Many people were naturally unsatisfied but none of them dared to speak out. Even for the nine monarchs, the majority of them were unhappy but who would dare to stand out? Their strength was clearly weaker. If Qin Wentian was still at the immortal emperor realm, they might have dared to contend against him. But now, Qin Wentian was already at the empyrean realm. All of them could only stare up at him.

This northern governor that the vast majority of people weren't familiar with, or at most have only seen him once, was now above everyone else in terms of position and status in Lifire City. In fact, he even had a possibility of becoming the Lifire Palace Lord.

"All governors station your troops around the palace. Without my orders, no one is to leave. Everyone is to wait in the Lifire Palace to wait for the Realmlord's further commands." Qin Wentian calmly stated. As long as he exercised strict control, there wouldn't be anyone daring to start a revolt during this sensitive time for the sake of obtaining revenge for the Lifire Empyrean.

Right now, before the Realmlord made his decision on who should be the new Lifire Palace Lord, nobody would dare to act too brazenly. After all, until the very last moment, no one would know who the new Lifire Palace Lord was going to be!

Chapter 1667: The New Palace Lord

Di Tian was only punished slightly, Qin Wentian wasn't even punished and was temporarily granted the post of the grand governor, he now had the authority to manage everything in the Lifire Palace, causing shock to countless people. They were all speculating that it was highly possible for the new Lifire Palace Lord to be Qin Wentian.

After all, Qin Wentian originally was already the northern governor and his talent was extraordinary, able to fight against the Lifire Empyrean solo.

Naturally, the possibility for Di Tian to take over was similarly high. Everything would be dependent on this two. Sometimes, everyone felt that maybe Grandmaster Di Tian didn't ally with Qin Wentian because if Qin Wentian didn't appear, Di Tian would definitely be the new Palace Lord.

Jialan Jiangshan was completely ignored and forgotten. Everyone understood that it was impossible for him to become the new Lifire Palace Lord.

At this moment, at the headquarters of Jialan Clan located in the northern city regions, the atmosphere was somewhat tense. Many people of the Jialan Clan gathered here. Jialan Yuntian sat in the lead seat and asked, "Any news from the Lifelong Saint Hall?"

"Not yet, everyone is still waiting." A subordinate replied. "However, Qin Wentian's possibility of becoming the new Palace Lord is extremely high along with Di Tian. Many people feel that the Realmlord won't directly send his people from the Lifelong Saint Hall to take over but would choose a candidate from the two of them."

"Hmph." A cold snort rang out. An elder of the Jialan Clan smashed a table before him and he had an ugly look on his face. "This time around, our Jialan Clan has been completely played by Di Tian. What a joke, during these ten years of the Emperor Pavilion's development, we put in so much efforts but all of that was for nothing. All our sacrifices and effort turned out to benefit someone else instead."

Everyone had heavy expressions on their faces. Many people glanced in Jialan Qiuyue's direction only to see her standing up and speaking in a low voice, "I'm to blame for this matter. I must have been blinded and had implicated the clan."

"Qiuyue, this matter has nothing to do with you. Before this, it was I who gave the order to befriend and recruit Di Tian." Jialan Yuntian sighed. "Actually back then during the grand banquet, I've already sensed that something was amiss. At that time, I was already shocked and filled with wariness. It was just that despite my overestimation, I have still underestimated him. His growth is simply too fast, so fast to the extent that it's unimaginable."

"That's right, who would have expected for him to breakthrough to the empyrean realm within a mere tens of years? If we knew about it, we would definitely have been more cautious during that last battle. Di Tian hid things too well." Another person spoke. He then continued, "What should our attitude be when interacting with him in the future?"

Upon hearing these words, everyone fell silent. That's right, what attitude should they have when interacting with Di Tian in the future?

Although they were used by Di Tian, Di Tian's current status now was extraordinary. Just his strength alone was sufficient to set him apart from everyone. In addition, the Emperor Pavilion's influence now wouldn't be inferior to their Jialan Clan. If they became enemies with Di Tian, they would surely make an extremely terrifying enemy.

"Let's wait for more news first." Jialan Yuntian sighed softly. Right now, the matters about the Emperor Pavilion already weren't at a level where he could decide things. Only his father, Jialan Jiangshan, could make the decisions.

Other than the Jialan Clan, the experts of the Emperor Pavilion were waiting for news as well. After the battle against the Lifire Empyrean, Di Tian's fame surged to an unprecedented high. Right now, everyone viewed Di Tian like how they would view a god.

Not only them, everyone in Lifire City was waiting. A single thought of the Realmlord would decide who the new Lifire Palace Lord was. This decision would affect the future of the Lifire Palace.

Today, the various governor manor's troops were still stationed around the Lifire Palace. Everyone in the palace couldn't calm down, all extremely nervous. There were also people who were filled with anticipation as they waited for the news. However, for the close aides and relatives of the Lifire Empyrean, they only felt terror and panic. They understood that regardless if it was Qin Wentian or Di Tian who assumed the position of the Lifire Palace Lord, their fates wouldn't be good.

At this moment, a teleportation array within the Lifire Palace suddenly lit up. Resplendent light gleamed, illuminating its surroundings, attracting countless gazes over. Only people from the Lifelong Saint Hall could use this particular teleportation array that was located directly at the center of the Lifire Palace and it was very rare for them to do so. But now, the light from the teleportation array flashed brilliantly, attracting countless gazes over.

From within the teleportation array, a group of figures appeared. They directly soared up into the air as they radiated a sense of majesty. The person in the lead took out a command scroll and slowly opened it, emitting a brilliant radiance that cascaded down on everyone.

Each and every character on the command scroll was incomparably clear, manifesting themselves to be visible to everyone. Next, a person's voice rang out after the characters manifested.

"By command of his eminence, the Lifelong Realmlord, the position of the Lifire Palace Lord will taken by the northern city governor, Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian, accept your orders." The imposing voice read out the words in the air, causing the hearts of countless people to tremble, pounding wildly.

"Three days later, there will be people from the Lifelong Saint Hall coming here to officiate the ceremony and congratulate Palace Lord Qin. At the same time, the Realmlord has also commanded that a new position would be opened up. The position of the Vice Palace Lord will be given to Grandmaster Di Tian. At the same time, Di Tian shall hold the position of the grand governor as well as supervisory commander."

As the sound of his voice faded, the entire Lifire Palace was so quiet that it was terrifying. Even a pin falling on the ground could be heard at this moment.

The new Palace Lord was none other than Qin Wentian while Di Tian was the Vice Palace Lord.

Finally, between Qin Wentian and Di Tian, the Lifelong Realmlord had chosen Qin Wentian. But for some reason, he had set up a new position, allowing Di Tian to become the Vice Palace Lord. The meaning behind this was unclear.

But in any case, from today onwards, Qin Wentian would become the Lifire Palace Lord, controlling a boundless stretch of territories with the governors and monarchs under him.

From today onwards, nobody would dare to pursue an investigation about the death of the Jialan Monarch any longer. Even if Qin Wentian really was the killer, no one would dare to say anything. This case has also officially came to an end.

From today onwards, Qin Wentian no longer needed to keep a low profile. He was number one in the Lifire Palace from now on.

"Qin Wentian, any objections?" The person in the lead reading out the royal edict gazed down at the figure in white who was none other than Qin Wentian.

"This subordinate Qin Wentian, humbly thanks the Realmlord for his gratitude. I'll do my best to manage the Lifire Palace's territories on behalf of his eminence." Qin Wentian bowed and respectfully spoke. He felt very surprised, he initially thought that the position of the Lifire Palace Lord wouldn't be his but Di Tian's instead. Although that didn't matter because they were both the same person, this still caught him by surprise.

The Lifelong Realmlord actually gave him this World Palace Lord's position. Could it be that his attitude has changed?

"Palace Lord Qin, three days later, you should organize a ceremony. We will come here again then. Also, over at the Realmlord's side, he has prepared a surprise for you." That person smiled, changing his salutation of Qin Wentian, calling him Palace Lord Qin instead of Governor Qin now.

"This subordinate has no way to repay the Realmlord for his kindness." Qin Wentian was as courteous as ever. No matter what considerations or intents the Realmlord has, Qin Wentian couldn't act too arrogantly. On the contrary, he had to proceed even more cautiously now.

"Farewell then, you should settle the remnant matters here in Lifire City. See you three days later." That person bade farewell and led his men back to the teleportation array as they departed the Lifire Palace.

After the people from the Lifelong Saint Hall left, everyone inclined their heads and stared at the figure in white. That figure exuding boundless magnificence seemed to be even more imposing now. The him now not only has extraordinary strength, at the same time, he also had a transcendent status as well as immense authority.

"Your subordinates pays respect to Palace Lord."

"We pay respect to Palace Lord."

Only to see the subordinates of the northern governor's manor all kneeling with one knee as their eyes were filled with respect and reverence while they paid their respect to Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian had always been the source of their faith and conviction. Now, this governor of theirs had become the new Lifire Palace Lord.

After that, more and more experts knelt. Out of the massive crowd inside the Lifire Palace, over half knelt to pay their respects in sincerity.

"Your subordinates pay our respects to Palace Lord."

At this moment, even the nine monarchs were bowing as they paid their respects. Although they didn't kneel, they still bowed low in an incomparably respectful manner. Even if they might have dissent in their hearts, none of them dared to express it. After all, from now onwards, Qin Wentian would be the one who controls their fate.

"The nine monarchs, hear my commands." Qin Wentian swept his gaze at them and spoke.

"We are here." The nine monarchs respectively replied, staring at Qin Wentian. They didn't expect Qin Wentian would give a command so soon after he became the Lifire Palace Lord.

"During these few days, there has been a bunch of people in the Lifire Palace conspiring against me, attempting to plot a rebellion. The nine of you go and investigate who this group of people is. After that, split them up into smaller groups and send them to excavate in the mines under your control." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. The close aides and family of the Lifire Empyrean all paled. They naturally understood that they were the group of people Qin Wentian was talking about.

The victor becomes king while the losers would be vilified. Now that Qin Wentian had became the Lifire Palace Lord, how would he show mercy to them? Let alone the fact that everyone knew how Beauty Xiao had died.

"We hear and obey." The nine monarchs instantly led their forces and acted. The group of people naturally tried to resist, wanting to flee. However, under the encirclement of the monarchs forces, their resistance was like ants trying to shake a tree. Many of them were instantly crippled with several dead and injured. Qin Wentian watched on calmly, not feeling the slightest bit of pity at all. His heart was as hard as granite.

Humans ultimately have to pay the price for their actions.

A wave of commotion enveloped everything as the news of Qin Wentian becoming the Lifire Palace Lord soon spread to all corners of Lifire City.

Today, every topic of discussion in the city was about Qin Wentian becoming the Lifire Palace Lord.

Three days later, sunlight cascaded down on the majestic buildings of the Lifire Palace. The buildings stood there quietly, shining with a holy-looking light. Right now, the atmosphere inside the Lifire Palace was filled with silence yet the outside was filled with commotions. Countless people stood outside the Lifire Palace, long queues for a thousand miles, all of them waiting to spectate the official moment where Qin Wentian became the Lifire Palace Lord.

Since today was the day of Qin Wentian's official appointment, other than the normal citizens, the major powers of Lifire City would naturally lead their forces here to offer their congratulations.

The entrance of the Lifire Palace had a glorious stairway leading up to it. From the ground, everyone stepped onto the stairway, ascending step by step, none of them dared to soar through the air as a mark of respect. These people were all from the major powers who came here to congratulate Qin Wentian.

The nine monarchs were also here, including the various governors. The Xuanyuan Clan and other various powers of Lifelong City also came here as well. There was no need to mention about the minor and major powers of Lifire City themselves. Even the Jialan Clan had came.

Jialan Jiangshan personally led Jialan Yuntian, Jialan Qiuyue and the others of their clan here. As they walked on the stairway, they inclined their heads and saw the vast amount of experts in front of them, as well as the countless number of people behind them, all here to pay respects to the new Lifire Palace Lord. At this moment, everyone in the Jialan Clan couldn't help but to sigh ruefully.

Once, that nameless young man that was bullied by the Jialan Monarch is now already the Lifire Palace Lord, enjoying respect from all his subjects as they came from all over his territories to congratulate him.

Before this, Qin Wentian was merely a nobody. But now, he was the new lord of the Lifire Palace!

Chapter 1668: Empire and Beauties

The stairway of the Lifire Palace was towering and majestic, incomparably wide. Countless people climbed up, wanting to offer their congratulations, all of them respectful and pious.

From below, as everyone inclined their heads and stared at the Lifire Palace above, the ancient looking buildings seemed to glow with a holy light under the sunlight.

Today, was the day of official ascension for Qin Wentian.

The troops of the various governor manor have arrived, stationed in all directions. All of them had solemn expressions and exuded an imposing aura. This was especially so for troops of the northern governor manor. All of them raised their heads with pride and glory. The new palace lord was once the governor in charge of them, from their northern governor manor.

Back then those years ago, who would have imagined that the young man sent to take over the northern governor's manor by the Lifire Empyrean would actually have such a day today.

Right now, the Evil Emperor had already become the new northern governor. He stood at the foremost of his troops with his vice governors and attendants behind him. Many of these subordinates were new faces. After all, there were too many who had betrayed him due to a single sentence from the Lifire Empyrean from the battle back then. Although they were forced by the situation, a betrayal was ultimately still a betrayal. This indicated that those people were not loyal at the time when he needed them most. Since they were not loyal, he naturally didn't want to use them.

For the other governors, other than Sun Qian and Lin Ba, they were all replaced by new people. The Lifire Palace now had a completely brand new appearance.

But regardless of new faces or old faces, all of them had solemn looks on their faces right now. They all understood that times have changed. The new palace lord was even stronger compared to the old one and their Lifire Palace was on the path of rising up, becoming a legend in history.

As they climbed up step by step of the majestic stairway, the higher they climbed, the more impressive the sight was. As they neared the depths of the Lifire Palace, they continued climbing up until they saw the highest peak of the Lifire Palace, the Lifire Great Hall.

The stone pillars here were so tall that they seemed capable of touching the sky. They radiated a domineering air with engravings of dragons and phoenixes there, constructed from gleaming emperor-ranked stones.

All the way ahead, there was a throne with a mini-stairway underneath. Many people then stood before the throne.

At this moment, a white-robed figure could be seen seated on the throne. His simple clothing wasn't impressive, those handsome features of his also couldn't be considered tyrannical. However, as that transcendent white-robed young man sat there, the words 'boundless magnificence' flashed across their minds. Only these words could describe him.

The new palace lord Qin Wentian has sat upon his throne. Beside him, the masked Di Tian could be seen standing there, surveying the crowd. These people gathered here were mostly important personnel of the Lifire Palace such as protectors, the nine monarchs, as well as the governors.

"The Xuanyuan Clan of Lifelong City congratulates Palace Lord Qin." On the stairway, a group of people walked over as they offered their congratulations.

"Jialan Jiangshan of the Jialan Clan, leads the members of my clan here to pay our respects and offer our congratulations to Palace Lord Qin." Jialan Jiangshan bowed as he spoke in a loud voice,

"Mo Ting of the Mo Clan from Lifire City congratulates Palace Lord Qin."

"....."

Countless calls of respect rang out in the great hall, creating waves of echoes. The other people who weren't allowed into the great hall all knelt on one knee on the stairways outside, lowering their heads in the direction of the great hall.

"Central Governor Sun Qian leads my troops to pay our respects to Palace Lord." Sun Qian called out as he bowed. The ordinary troops knelt on one knee to express their respect.

"Eastern Governor Lin Ba leads my troops from the eastern city regions here to pay our respects to Palace Lord."

Countless people voiced their respects, their sounds converging like thunder. Even more people below inclined their heads to stare at the grand and majestic sight, only feeling a feeling of excitement surging in their hearts. A brand new era of the Lifire Palace was about to unfold.

Qin Wentian sat on the throne and observed everything calmly but he was also sighing with emotions in his heart. Everyone in this world pursued the path of the strong, seeking unparalleled strength because only with enough strength would it mean that you can obtain everything. With such towering authority as well as worship from the masses, what a shocking sight this was? Even if he didn't grow infatuated with power and authority, he was still deeply shocked.

"Now, I, Qin have taken over the position of the Lifire Palace Lord. In the future, I would still have to depend on all of you heavily. Everyone, there's no need to be so polite." Qin Wentian waved his hands and spoke. A moment later, the people either inclined their heads or straightened their backs as they stared in the direction of the Lifire Palace's great hall.

"Envoy of the Lifelong Saint Hall is here by the orders of the Realmlord to congratulate Palace Lord Qin." At this moment, another voice rang out. Qin Wentian didn't feel too surprised by this. Three days ago, this envoy had already said that he would be coming here and there would be a pleasant surprise for him as well.

At this moment, the envoy led a group of experts over. The group of experts behind him were lifting a sedan as they walked into the great hall.

Qin Wentian stared at the sedan feeling somewhat puzzled. After that, the curtains covering the entrance of the sedan were lifted as an alluring and beautiful figure slowly walked out from within. She inclined her head, her beautiful eyes staring at Qin Wentian. She seemed capable of mesmerizing the masses with a single smile.

Qin Wentian stood up from his throne, he stared at the beautiful figure before him as he started laughing. His smile was extremely radiant. Everyone else was admiring the beautiful looks of that maiden. She was clad in red, radiating incomparable charm, her clothes fully accentuating her figure. A phoenix crown could be seen on her head, giving a sense of nobility, presenting a stunning sight of magnificence.

Many people had already managed to guess her identity. Qin Wentian's story was no longer a secret, circulated all around by people. Ever since he took up the position of the northern governor back then, he had been doing so for the sake of one person. That person was none other than the bandit head those years ago - Ye Qianyu.

Appearing here at this moment, this beauty stood before the new palace lord and could even cause the new palace lord to stand from his throne...Other than Ye Qianyu, there wouldn't be another person.

"Palace Lord Qin, this time around, your actions in suppressing the chaos of the Lifire Palace have earned you sufficient merit for the Realmlord to grant amnesty towards Ye Qianyu. He hopes that you would be able to govern the Lifire Palace well on his behalf and not let down his expectations." That envoy smiled. Qin Wentian's act of killing the Lifire Empyrean had actually become an act of suppressing chaos. Naturally, this was only words. The Lifelong Realmlord could use any excuse as long as he wanted to.

"I, Qin, will definitely not disappoint his eminence." Qin Wentian smiled and nodded.

"Mhm, I'll bid farewell then." That envoy nodded and led his group away along with the sedan, only leaving Ye Qianyu behind.

Qin Wentian walked down the steps leading up to his throne, and came to Ye Qianyu's side. He stared at the beautiful maiden as his gaze grew gentle, "It has been tough on you all these years."

Ye Qianyu smiled lightly. She naturally had seen how majestic the scene was during Qin Wentian's ascension. From the bottom of her heart, she truly felt happy, as well as a streak of pride. Right now, he was no longer that young man who was merely an immortal king. He is truly an expert that stood at the peak of Lifire City.

"If you feel that I've suffered, why don't you marry me and let me become the official empress of the Lifire Palace?" Ye Qianyu didn't say this out loud, she transmitted her voice using a playful tone to Qin Wentian. Her charming smile grew wider, instantly causing atmosphere to be spoiled. Qin Wentian's face was suddenly filled with black lines as he mused silently to himself. "This demoness hasn't changed at all."

However, his smile grew warmer the longer he looked at her.

"Hmph, men are always only good with words." Ye Qianyu continued to transmit her voice over. After that, she turned and faced the countless people gathered here as the charming smile on her face vanished. Her expression turned regal, filled with a sense of elegance as she spoke, "Today, Palace Lord Qin has ascended to the throne of the Lifire Palace. Since there are so many outstanding heroes gathered here, let there be a banquet held in Lifire City for three entire days. There will be no lack of delicacies and good wine, everyone can enjoy yourselves to the utmost. Palace Lord Qin shall bear all the expenses."

With her bearing and the phoenix crown on her head, the Ye Qianyu at this moment was like a motherly model of the nation. Countless people stared at her flawless figure as they silently mused that most probably, this Ye Qianyu would undoubtedly become the Lifire Palace Lord's woman.

"Many thanks, Palace Lord." Everyone bowed and intoned. Their faces were all filled with smiles and their gazes had a hint of respect when they looked at Ye Qianyu, not daring to profane her beauty. This woman was the Lifire Palace Lord's woman, they could only admire her beauty.

From the crowd, Jialan Qiuyue glanced at that flawlessly beautiful figure. She had always been very confident in her own beauty and that she wasn't inferior to anyone in the Lifire Palace. However the Ye Qianyu at this moment, was undoubtedly more outstanding than her. The light of the entire Lifire Palace seemed to be shining on Ye Qianyu. The glory Qin Wentian obtained by becoming the new palace lord seemed also to belong to her.

What was Ye Qianyu feeling now? Did she feel a sense of elation because she had finished waiting for all the dark gloomy clouds to disperse, revealing the sun? It was truly a pity for Beauty Xiao.

Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes involuntarily glanced over to Di Tian. Di Tian was still as quiet and as mysterious as ever, standing at Qin Wentian's side. It felt like even if the heavens came crumbling down, his expression wouldn't change. He was always that confident. Even if he didn't become the new palace lord, it seemed that he didn't mind it at all.

However, did he truly not mind it?

He was the one who orchestrated so many schemes but the position of the Lifire Palace Lord ended up in Qin Wentian's hands. Since the Lifelong Realmlord specially created a position of vice palace lord for him, there might be another layer of meaning hidden underneath everything.

At this moment, Ye Qianyu's beautiful eyes turned over, smiling at Qin Wentian. The look in her eyes had a look like her plan had succeeded. Her earlier words to everyone was like announcing that she, Ye Qianyu, would be the female mistress of the entire Lifire Palace.

Staring at the smile on her face, Qin Wentian smiled wryly. Before this, he was always so worried about this demoness. But now that she has returned, he would undoubtedly not be free from worrying about her. After all, back then when he was her subordinate, he was played right and left by her, twiddling around in her palm.

Stepping out, Qin Wentian took advantage of the motion and held onto Ye Qianyu's hands. Her body trembled a little but she didn't reject it. She smiled charmingly, the look in her eyes was capable of toppling empires.

Qin Wentian held her hand as they continued walking forward. The young man in white exuded boundless magnificence, the young woman in red with the phoenix crown on her head exuded a sense of radiant beauty. The two of them were like an immortal couple. They continued to the top of the steps and turned, staring down at the countless people gathered here. Under the eyes of everyone, Qin Wentian tightened his hold on her hands as his eyes flickered with even more gentleness and warmth.

"There are some things I'm unable to give you. However, if you wish for this empire and if I can obtain it, everything shall be yours if you want it." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to her. Ye Qianyu naturally understood his words. She had a smile on her face but within the depths of her beautiful eyes, there were actually tears forming as they rolled down her face. The suffering she endured during all these years no longer mattered. She had never expected that she would be capable of being jealous over other women before but at this moment, she truly felt a strong sense of jealousy.

Qin Wentian was saying that he could give her all material things if she wanted them. The only things he couldn't give were the most important positions in his heart. She truly wanted to see who exactly the women that occupied the unshakable positions of importance deep in Qin Wentian's heart were!

Chapter 1669: Undetermined Status

After Qin Wentian's official ascension, the atmosphere in the Lifire Palace grew exceptionally lively as many outstanding heroes among the crowd partied.

The peak powers of Lifire City were all present and the people they sent were all their most important characters. Regardless what attitude they had towards Qin Wentian before, now that Qin Wentian was the Lifire Palace Lord, all the grudges and hatred they felt before had completely vanished into thin air. Right now, their only attitude towards him was respect.

What sort of power was the Jialan Clan? They were the strongest of the peak powers with the empyrean-level Jialan Jiangshan at their helm. Jialan Jiangshan had even contended for the position of the Lifire Palace Lord, but since he had failed, even though they were used by Di Tian, they were also willing to come here to pay their respects. Despite the additional fact that Qin Wentian had the highest suspicion of being the Jialan Monarch's killer. There was no need to mention about the other powers.

So what if the Jialan Monarch was really killed by Qin Wentian. That page has already been turned. Nobody would pursue that any longer.

The atmosphere in Lifire City was similarly extremely lively. There was only a single topic of discussion, about the legendary character of Lifire City, Qin Wentian, and how he rose up. They would occasionally glance in the direction of the Lifire Palace and stare at the majestic ancient great hall located at the peak. By making trouble now, that was undoubtedly challenging the prestige of the new palace lord and was undoubtedly a behavior that courted death. Don't forget that this new palace lord was even stronger and more terrifying that the previous Lifire Empyrean. Qin Wentian was a living legend.

Banquet tables were placed everywhere in the Lifire Palace. However, both Qin Wentian and Ye Qianyu had vanished. They held hands together and left the place earlier, handing everything over to Di Tian to settle. Everyone naturally didn't know that Di Tian was none other than Qin Wentian himself. There was no difference no matter which of them remained here.

Many people came over and toasted Di Tian. Although the person sitting on the Lifire Palace Lord's throne in the end was Qin Wentian, not a single person in Lifire City dared to underestimate how terrifying Di Tian could be. They didn't forget that the final confrontation with the Lifire Empyrean back then was a scheme planned by him. He was the mastermind behind everything, pulling the previous palace lord down from his throne.

The Jialan Clan was used by him. Right now, the influence and power the Emperor Pavilion had in Lifire City, had already surpassed the Jialan Clan. With Di Tian in the vice palace lord's position, there was no doubt that the Emperor Pavilion would only grow even stronger in the future.

Also, in the future, Di Tian's position would definitely be a main palace lord of a world palace. Given his strength, his talent and his intelligence, there was no doubt about that.

Now that Di Tian gained glory, the Mo Clan received the most benefits other than the Emperor Pavilion. They were the only clan who supported the Emperor Pavilion right from the start. Mo Fei, a Mo Clan's elder as well as their young miss Mo Junyi, held important positions in the Emperor Pavilion, helping Di Tian to manage it. As the Emperor Pavilion grew stronger, the Mo Clan naturally did so as well. Right now, they were completely different from the past. Currently, the Mo Clan's members were seated at the same table with Di Tian, all of them filled with respect towards him. After all, Di Tian's identity was already different. Just based on the fact that he has broken through to the Empyrean Realm, it was already enough to warrant the admiration of others.

Mo Ting no longer mentioned anything about his daughter Mo Junyi's relationship with Di Tian. If in the past, it was doing Mo Junyi's status an injustice by sending her to work in the Emperor Pavilion, then right now from a certain perspective, Mo Junyi was already no longer worthy of Di Tian. Even Jialan Qiuyue of the Jialan Clan had been made use of so ruthlessly. Mo Ting naturally wouldn't act as casual as he did before.

If Di Tian himself wanted it, Mo Junyi would be his woman. But if Di Tian didn't bring this up, the Mo Clan wouldn't dare to mention about the kindness they had shown him in the past by supporting him and wanting Di Tian to reciprocate it.

At this moment, a beautiful figure walked towards Di Tian. Jialan Qiuyue wore a sky-blue dress today and was extremely pretty. Her beautiful eyes stared at Di Tian and smiled, "Vice Palace Lord Di, can I speak a few words in private with you?"

"Qiuyue." Di Tian greeted, staring at Jialan Qiuyue before him.

"Qiuyue, come back now!" Not faraway, Jialan Qiuyue's father Jialan Chen, shouted. However Jialan Qiuyue didn't seem to have heard it. She continued looking at Di Tian.

"Sure." Di Tian stood up and brought Jialan Qiuyue to a private pavilion. This place was very quiet. When inside, one could see the magnificent scenery of Lifire City displayed before them. Because this pavilion was built at a very high location and there was nothing obstructing its view. The gentle wind that breezed through, also caused Jialan Qiuyue's hair and skirt to flutter.

"Vice Palace Lord Di, Grandmaster Di Tian. How should I address you?" Jialan Qiuyue was still smiling. However, a look of bitter sorrow could be seen in her eyes. Di Tian could already hear her feelings from her tone.

"Qiuyue, there's no need for you to be so polite with me. You can just call me Di Tian like you did in the past." Di Tian bitterly smiled. If he had hatred towards the Jialan Clan in the past, there didn't exist any now after the Jialan Monarch was dead and Ye Qianyu was freed. In addition to the fact that he had indeed made use of the Jialan Clan and Jialan Qiuyue, he no longer felt any hatred. In fact, he actually felt some guilt when facing Jialan Qiuyue,

Because, he knew that this young miss of the Jialan Clan, who had the highest talent among her clan members, had truly fallen in love with him.

"Sure." Jialan Qiuyue smiled. All of a sudden, her hand snaked out, moving towards his face, wanting to remove his mask.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed as a terrifying light erupted forth from his eyes. An immensely powerful pressure bore down, forcing Jialan Qiuyue backwards. Di Tian coldly spoke, "Qiuyue, what are you doing?"

Jialan Qiuyue stared at him and smiled, "I just want to see through you. I want to see clearly what sort of face is hidden under that mask of yours, as well as what sort of heart do you have."

Di Tian stared at Jialan Qiuyue with shock only to see that her beautiful eyes that had a smile in them, was suddenly wet with tears. All her pain and agony were completely revealed at this moment.

"Qiuyue, don't blame me. Back then when the Jialan Clan forced me to side with them, didn't they also used underhanded methods? What is the difference between that and what I did?" Di Tian stared at her as he spoke.

"Is that really the same?" Jialan Qiuyue's beautiful eyes stared fixedly at Di Tian as her tears flowed down continuously. Her smile had completely vanished, leaving behind only sorrow.

"Back then when the Jialan Clan dealt with you, they did so by openly oppressing you. What about you? You used your friendship with the Jialan Clan, making my clan aid you so much. I treated you wholeheartedly and even wanted to become your woman. Not only did you not give a reply, how did you treat me and my clan? Deceit, manipulation, exploitation… Everything are lies!"

Jialan Qiuyue sobbed. "During these years, you kept avoiding me. Even if you directly rejected me or acted against my clan, I would have accepted that. But, why must you continue to lie?"

"If you feel hatred due to the things the Jialan Clan did to you in the past, you can just kill me, I'll accept it. You can do it now."

Di Tian stared at the pitiful appearance of Jialan Qiuyue as the sense of guilt in his heart intensified. He shook his head, "There's no need to say anything more. I have my reason to do so. In the future, my grudge with the Jialan Clan will be wiped clean. If the Jialan Clan so wishes to, we can still be friends."

"Reason? Tell me your reason then." Jialan Qiuyue's eyes flashed with a hint of stubbornness, staring at Di Tian determinedly. She had fallen too deeply, the emotions she had for him for these tens of years were all real. As long as Di Tian was willing, she would have long become his woman. However, everything she thought she had, completely toppled in the span of one day. What did these tens of years count for?

At this moment, she only wanted an answer. She truly hoped that Di Tian had a solid-clad unexplainable reason for doing this to her. Only then would she be able to feel better.

"This involves a personal secret of mine, I cannot tell you the truth. Qiuyue, you just have to understand that I have never intended to harm you." Di Tian sighed.

"I can protect that secret for you." Jialan Qiuyue continued staring at Di Tian.

Di Tian shook his head, the implications of this matter was far too great. Even if he trusted Jialan Qiuyue, who could guarantee that Jialan Qiuyue wouldn't accidentally reveal his secret to her clan? The moment she did so, things would be extremely disadvantageous for him.

Only to see Jialan Qiuyue taking out a dagger that radiated a fearsome sharpness. She placed the dagger on her throat and sliced through the thin skin, causing blood to flow.

"What are you doing?" Di Tian shouted.

"Although my clan didn't really punish me, there's no doubt that I'm a sinner of the clan. Also, given that I was made use by you for so many years, my heart is already akin to dead ashes. If I cannot get an answer, I'd rather choose death." Jialan Qiuyue sobbed, slicing the dagger deeper into her skin as her fresh blood dripped onto her sky-blue dress, dying it a vibrant shocking red.

Di Tian froze, he had never expected Jialan Qiuyue to actually be so unyielding and stubborn.

"If I die after that, your secret would still remain a secret. Can you let me die fulfilled? I just want to understand." Jialan Qiuyue sobbed.

Di Tian waved his hand, causing a powerful wave of sealing might to gushed forth, sealing the space around them. He sighed and spoke to Jialan Qiuyue, "Do you know why Qin Wentian hated the Jialan Monarch so much?"

"There's a grudge between the Jialan Monarch and Qin Wentian, I know everything there is to know about their grudge from the beginning till the end. He does have a reason to hate my uncle and the Jialan Clan, but what does that have to do with you?" Jialan Qiuyue asked.

Di Tian placed his hand on his mask and slowly removed it, revealing a handsome face that appeared in Jialan Qiuyue's vision. At this moment, Jialan Qiuyue's heart pounded violently. Her grip on the dagger in her hand loosened due to shock as the dagger fell onto the ground with a clang. Her body trembled unceasingly. There were no words that could describe her current state of heart.

"Are you satisfied now?" A voice different from the one Di Tian usually used, rang out. He silently sighed in his heart. Ultimately, he was still too easily soft-hearted. He had no way to make his heart as hard as granite, completely emotionless.

...

At night, within the Lifelong Saint Hall, in the courtyard Beiming Youhuang was in, she stood there and stared up at the stars. She took out her messaging crystal but placed it back down again after some hesitation.

"He should already be seated on the throne of the Lifire Palace Lord, right? At this moment, everyone's attention should he on him and he should be very busy, right?" Beiming Youhuang smiled and kept her messaging crystal. She didn't send her congratulations over after all.

At this moment, a figure appeared behind Beiming Youhuang. She turned around and looked at the person as she greeted, "Realmlord."

"Youhuang, Qin Wentian has already ascended to the Lifire Palace Lord's position. Right now, the atmosphere at the Lifire Palace is extremely lively and I've also sent Ye Qianyu over. Let's hope he won't blame me too much." The Lifelong Realmlord laughed. He had always thought that the relationship between Beiming Youhuang and Qin Wentian was that of fellow apprentice siblings. He believed that since he had allowed Qin Wentian to become the Lifire Palace Lord and has also freed Ye Qianyu, Qin Wentian would surely be filled with gratitude for him.

"Naturally. I have to thank Realmlord on behalf of my junior apprentice brother." Beiming Youhuang smiled.

The Realmlord waved his hands, "You are my woman, there's no need to be so polite. Today is such a beautiful night, let's not waste it. Youhuang, why don't you come to me to my bed chambers?"

"Realmlord, my status is undetermined yet, wouldn't this be a little inappropriate?" Beiming Youhuang softly spoke.

"You are right, I'm too hasty. Despite living for so long, I still cannot stand up to the temptation of beauties." The Lifelong Realmlord shook his head and laughed. "Since this is the case, I'll announce to the entire world during the next grand banquet of my Lifelong Realm and give you an official status!"

Chapter 1670: Appointments

After the Lifelong Realmlord departed, Beiming Youhuang remained where she was, staring at the boundless star-filled sky. The night breeze gusted by, her long hair fluttered lightly as her entire being radiated a sense of loneliness.

"Youhuang." A voice suddenly rang out in her mind. Beiming Youhuang trembled a little as she took out her messaging crystal immediately.

Her hands were cold, she held onto the messaging crystal but she didn't know what to say. After that, a slight smile appeared on her face as she sent a strand of immortal sense into the crystal, "Congratulations!"

"You know about it already?" A voice filled with surprise transmitted back. Qin Wentian then continued, "Youhuang, where are you now?"

"I'm outside roaming the world, trying to increase my cultivation level. I messaged you because I heard about the news of you becoming the new Lifire Palace Lord." Beiming Youhuang lied.

"Qianyu told me that you are in the Lifelong Saint Hall and she would often see you there previously before she was freed."

"Mhm, that was before. But, I've already left there now." Beiming Youhuang replied in a light voice.

"Is it true?" Qin Wentian's voice was filled with doubt, ringing out in Beiming Youhuang's mind.

"Mhm." Beiming Youhuang replied. "In any case, my cultivation base is already at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm, there's no need for me to worry about you. Congratulations to you for finally being able to be together with Ye Qianyu after suffering so much. For you, she has suffered a lot. You have to treat her well."

Qin Wentian was silent for a few moments before he replied, "Mhm, I will. Youhuang you have to take care of yourself too. If there's anything you need my help with, you have to contact me and let me know alright?"

A gentle smile appeared in the frosty yet beautiful eyes of Beiming Youhuang. She didn't reply and kept her messaging crystal. She stared up at the stars, there is still around tens of years before the next Lifelong Grand Banquet. At that time, the Lifelong Realmlord would make the announcement to the entire world. If Qin Wentian learns of that then, how would he feel about it?

....

In the Lifire Palace, in a large and beautiful room, one would be able to see the lights formed of lifire as well as the entire magnificent scene of the Lifire City.

At this moment, Qin Wentian was standing before this window and staring at the horizons. He slowly placed down the messaging crystal in his hand. No more replies from Beiming Youhuang rang out in his mind. For some reason, he felt a little down. He didn't know why this was so. By rights, he should only feel happiness.

"What's wrong?" A gentle voice drifted over from behind. The moonlight that streamed in shone upon Ye Qianyu's figure. She who was in a red phoenix dress, exuded a sense of holiness. Her fair skin seemed to glow, resembling a goddess under the moonlight that caused the hearts of all men to stir.

"Youhuang says that she isn't in the Lifelong Saint Hall and has already gone out to temper herself." Qin Wentian glanced at Ye Qianyu as he spoke. Upon seeing how beautiful she was, he couldn't help but to take another look.

"She might have really left." Ye Qianyu spoke softly. After that, her eyes that were filled with love, gazed warmly at Qin Wentian. Her fair jade-like arms stretched out and wrapped themselves around Qin Wentian's neck as she smiled, "Is the relationship between you and her really so simple as a pair of apprentice siblings?"

Staring at Ye Qianyu's beautiful eyes, Qin Wentian replied, "If not?"

Ye Qianyu's mouth twitched before she gave a charming laugh. Her gaze turned more mesmerizing. Qin Wentian felt his blood surge as he stared at her flawless features that were inches away from him. From his angle, he could see her fair neck as well as her beautiful twin peaks below.

Upon seeing the heat in Qin Wentian's gaze, Ye Qianyu's smile widened. He stretched out his hand wanting to embrace her but Ye Qianyu easily slipped away with a twist. She giggled, "You want to eat me up before holding a wedding for me? Even if I cannot become the main empress, you can't be so biased, right?"

"Qianyu, it has been so many years. I want to make things up to you." Qin Wentian stared at her as he gently spoke. Ye Qianyu's beautiful eyes softened. Her limpid gaze that is akin to water, stared at him as she pouted, "How can you say such a shameless thing with such a straight face?"

"..." Qin Wentian's face was filled with black lines, he was speechless and didn't know what to reply.

"Let me dance a dance for you." Ye Qianyu gently spoke.

Qin Wentian's eyes brightened. He still remembered how alluring her dance was, capable of stunning everyone who saw it. He could still remember clearly even now. Was he going to witness that stunningly beautiful dance once again?

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. Ye Qianyu's back faced the window, allowing the moonlight to gather on her. After that, her body began to move, transitioning from one pose to the next. She seemed extremely light and airy, her beautiful movements were filled with grace, causing those who saw it to be unable to move their eyes away.

This was especially so for Ye Qianyu's beauty and charm at this moment. Her skirt fluttered with each of her movements as her eyes conveyed her emotions for him. Qin Wentian had no way to describe the beauty of this moment. He sat down on the bed and silently admired her dance. Faintly, he felt that the best scenery of the world was none other than this.

He was completely immersed, it was only after a long time before he regained his senses. The dance steps gradually slowed as the goddess under the moonlight slowly walked towards him with that charming smile on her face.

Qin Wentian simply sat there unmoving as he stared at her.

Finally, Ye Qianyu walked to his side. She faced him directly with her arms over his shoulders as she sat on his thighs. This goddess under the moonlight was just inches away from him.

Tearing sounds rang out only to see the sexy red dress Ye Qianyu's was wearing suddenly transformed into petals that danced in the air. The petals enveloped both of them. A perfect figure appeared before Qin Wentian, causing his eyes to turn slightly red from lust. His heart pounded rapidly, he could no longer endure it. He stretched out trembling hands as his palms roamed around Ye Qianyu's figure.

A moan of ecstasy rang out when his hands brushed crossed her sensitive parts, causing his lust to burn even fiercer.

This was destined to be a night of craziness, a sleepless night.

....

The moon hung high up in the sky. Star light flashed, shining into the majestic bed chambers. Time continued to flow by and at dawn, when the first ray of sunlight streamed into the room, Qin Wentian opened his eyes and stared at the lithe figure lying in his embrace. He then glanced at her flawless features as he leaned in to kiss her forehead.

Ye Qianyu's eyelashes fluttered as she opened her eyes. Her eyes still seemed to be blurred but they gradually brightened after she felt the kiss on her forehead. She snuggled and leaned against Qin Wentian's body, her gaze filled with boundless warmth.

"It's time to get up." Qin Wentian softly spoke.

"No…" Ye Qianyu turned, with her back facing Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian laughed in an evil manner and pull the blanket off her, causing a scream to shatter the tranquil atmosphere. Qin Wentian continued laughing as he dressed. Ye Qianyu clutched the blanket around her but she soon dressed up as well as she went to freshen up.

After she was done, Qin Wentian had a look of puzzlement on his face when he stared at her. The Ye Qianyu today seemed to have a different demeanor. She was less charming and seemed more elegant with a touch of nobility mixed within.

"What are you looking at?" Ye Qianyu smiled charmingly at Qin Wentian.

"A demoness is still a demoness, your demonic charm is as radiant as ever." Qin Wentian laughed as he stared at her.

"Is that so? Ye Qianyu tied her hair up and sat up while tidying her clothes. The charming smile on her face vanished, replaced by a slight smile of regalness, like she was a empress that ruled over millions, exuding a sense of imposingness.

Qin Wentian stared dumbfoundedly. This woman was truly adapt at transforming herself, her demeanor was instantly different. Upon seeing the look on Qin Wentian's face, Ye Qianyu giggled and became her charming self once again. "Don't forget that I used to be the Palace Mistress of the Thousand Feathers Palace. Now, after becoming your woman, I will naturally be docile and charming towards you but when facing outsiders, even though I'm not yet the true empress of the Lifire Palace, I still have to look the part. If not, when the two other wives of yours came over and become the female lords of this place, wouldn't I be bullied by them to death?"

"..." Qin Wentian had a face filled with black lines. He suddenly thought about the scene where Qing`er and Qingcheng met with Ye Qianyu. For some reason, a bitter smile appeared on his face as anxiety filled his heart.

He was extremely clear about the personalities Qing'er and Qingcheng had. They would bully Ye Qianyu? It was more likely that they would be bullied instead. Seems like he had to spend more time in the future to properly guide this demoness, he mustn't allow her to bully Qing'er and Qingcheng.

"Let's go, the nine monarch, governors, protectors and the other major powers are still waiting for you. If you don't say anything, they most probably wouldn't be able to feel at ease and leave." Ye Qianyu laughed. Qin Wentian nodded. The two of them then continued walking out of their bed chambers and moved towards the great hall. There were no guards around here as this place was protected by formations instead.

At the banquet held in the great hall, the vast majority of people were still here.

When Ye Qianyu and Qin Wentian walked over, their expressions all turned solemn, the atmosphere was no longer as casual as before. Staring at the imposing Qin Wentian as well as the elegant Ye Qianyu, many silently mused that these two were truly a match made in heaven.

Qin Wentian had always exuded magnificence and Ye Qianyu had incomparable charm back then. She now had a hint of regalness in her manner, exuding nobility and elegance. There had already been a separate smaller throne arranged for her beside Qin Wentian's throne, allowing her to have a separate seat of her own.

"During these few days, has everyone enjoyed themselves to the fullest?" Qin Wentian smiled as he glanced at everyone.

"Palace lord's generosity in hosting the banquet allowed all of us to enjoy to the maximum." A monarch laughed.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian calmly nodded. "Right now, since I've taken over the Lifire Palace Lord's position, I naturally will have to properly govern and manage the vast stretch of territories under the Lifire Palace's name. The nine monarchs, you all have to do your best and assist me."

"Yes, Palace Lord. All of us will definitely strive to the utmost and spare no effort." The nine monarchs all bowed to express their loyalty. The stones in their hearts were finally placed down. Seems like Qin Wentian didn't intend to touch their positions. They were truly worried that Qin Wentian might replace them with his own trusted aides.

Qin Wentian nodded and continued, "In addition, many traitorous subordinates have died or were injured due to the battle back then. Many important positions in my Lifire Palace still lack personnel and I have to make some adjustments to that. Right now, I officially confer upon the Evil Emperor the title of a protector. He shall become one of the protectors of my Lifire Palace. Xu Li will take over the position of the northern governor."

"Yes, Palace Lord." Both the Evil Emperor and Xu Li bowed while the others remained silent. Right now, how would there be anyone else who dares to question Qin Wentian's decision? It was only natural that Qin Wentian wanted to nurture his own trusted aides.

After that, after another round of adjusting, all those bandits who had followed Ye Qianyu back then were all given important positions. Their eyes were filled with respect when they stared at Qin Wentian and Ye Qianyu, silently musing at how great the judgement of their previous palace mistress, Ye Qianyu, was. Back then, everyone didn't understand why was she willing to give up so many things for Qin Wentian. Now when they looked at the two of them on the throne, the scene was simply perfect.

"Mo Clan's Mo Fei, you will also become a protector of my Lifire Palace. As for Mo Junyi, you will take over one of the vice governor positions in the central city regions." Qin Wentian continued. "Are the two of you willing?"

"Many thanks Palace Lord." Mo Fei and Mo Junyi both gave their thanks. They glanced at Di Tian. Seems like the relationship between the Palace Lord and Vice Palace Lord was unexpectedly good.

Chapter 1671: Heart Set on Speeding Home

Qin Wentian continued to give orders, adjusting the important positions of the Lifire Palace. The people below all quietly listened. The atmosphere was completely silent save for Qin Wentian giving commands. Nobody dared to question him.

"Is the Jialan Clan here?" At this moment, Qin Wentian suddenly called out, causing the eyes of Jialan Yuntian to flash. Jialan Jiangshan has already left. Although he did personally come by to attend Qin Wentian's ascension that day, he had left soon after that. After all, he was an empyrean-level character, it was natural that he wouldn't mingle with these others at a banquet.

"Here." Jialan Yuntian stepped out and bowed.

"Are the members of the Jialan Clan willing to take up official positions of the Lifire Palace?" Qin Wentian suddenly asked, instantly causing many to feel bewildered. Everyone knew of the relationship between Qin Wentian and the Jialan Clan. Yet now, Qin Wentian was actually planning to allow Jialan Clan's members to take over the important positions of the Lifire Palace? Was he trying to mend their relationship?

Jialan Yuntian's eyes flickered, he thought of Jialan Qiuyue's words, as well as Jialan Jiangshan's instructions. He then stared at the white-robed figure seated on the Lifire Palace Lord's throne and nodded, "If Palace Lord is willing to appoint us, we will naturally do our best to serve."

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. The Jialan Clan had extraordinary influence in Jialan City and has merit in suppressing the chaos that occurred during that last battle. For all governors, if you have positions such as vice governors or attendants lacking, I want you guys to communicate with the Jialan Clan. Also, if there are any suitable positions, consider the members of the Jialan Clan as the first priority. This command is not limited to just the northern city regions."

As the sound of his voice rang out, the eyes of everyone gleamed with sharpness. Qin Wentian actually allowed the members of the Jialan Clan to take up important positions in the various governor's manors. In this case, the Jialan Clan's influence would be sure to spread throughout Lifire City, seeping into the official authority. In addition, there are also some monarchs among the nine of them who had close relationships with the Jialan Clan. This move seemed to be extremely disadvantageous to Qin Wentian who had just ascended to the throne of the Lifire Palace Lord.

Jialan Yuntian naturally understood this. He cast a deep glance at Qin Wentian as he sighed in his heart. This man before his eyes was an unrivaled genius, he simply didn't care about the fact that the Jialan Clan's influence would spread throughout the city. When one's strength reached a certain level, no matter what schemes or plots you have, they would all be useless.

Ultimately, this was still a strength-oriented world. All other matters are nothing before absolute strength. Qin Wentian was so strong that he couldn't care less about the Jialan Clan.

Since Qin Wentian could become the Lifire Palace Lord, as well as the fact that he had enough strength to defeat the Lifire Empyrean who had been in the empyrean realm for countless years, he was naturally confident in his own talent and strength.

"Yes." Jialan Yuntian nodded, his heart was filled with a thousand emotions. Qin Wentian simply didn't give a damn about the Jialan Clan at all. What arrogance and confidence was this? After all, he broke through to the empyrean realm after a mere tens of years at the emperor realm and his strength had already surpassed Jialan Yuntian's father, Jialan Jiangshan. In the future, this disparity would only grow greater and greater. Qin Wentian undoubtedly has the qualifications to be arrogant!

"All the governors, make sure to cooperate and coordinate well with the Jialan Clan." Qin Wentian stared at his city governors as all of them nodded in compliance.

After completing the reorganizing of the Lifire Palace, Qin Wentian glanced at Jialan Yuntian. At this moment, it can be considered that he had repaid the Jialan Clan. Other than a trace of guilt he felt towards Jialan Qiuyue, the slate was wiped clean between him and the Jialan Clan. The position he had today, was also undoubtedly due to the Jialan Clan. Most probably, Jialan Mingyue would never have imagined that her wilful act those years ago, would set gears of fate turning and create the new Lifire Palace Lord.

"Alright, everyone can return to your posts first. From now on, I'll hand over the Lifire Palace's management to all of you. Do not disappoint me." Qin Wentian waved his hand as he spoke, incomparably solemn. Everyone bowed as they retreated, leaving the great hall. After that, they turned and went down the stairway. Only after they reached the exit did they dare to soar into the air to fly away.

The Lifire Palace Lord just ascended to his throne. No matter who it was, no one dared to show any disrespect. Nobody knew what Qin Wentian's temper would be like.

After the crowd left, Qin Wentian and Di Tian exchanged glances. After that, Di Tian's silhouette flashed as he soared through the air and departed.

Right now, Qin Wentian had settled the things here in the Lifire Palace but for Di Tian, his Emperor Pavilion still needed to develop. This was an opportunity for the Emperor Pavilion's influence to slowly seep throughout the entire Lifelong Realm now that it has a world palace lord supporting it. It would be extremely beneficial for their future plans.

"Palace lord." The Evil Emperor and Xu Li revealed smiles after the crowd left as they stared at the two people seated on top of the throne.

"Who are you two referring to?" Ye Qianyu giggled. The eyes of the Evil Emperor, Xu Li and a few others flashed before they laughed as well. That's right, they used to refer to Ye Qianyu as 'palace lord' or 'palace mistress' as well. Now that Qin Wentian has became the Lifire Palace Lord, who were they referring to when they called out the words 'palace lord'?

"In the future, there's only one palace lord and that's him. You all can refer to me as Madam." Ye Qianyu laughed. The Evil Emperor and Xu Li discovered Ye Qianyu's change. Both of them smiled as they called out, "Madam!"

"Mhm, you guys can leave for now, don't disturb the beautiful romantic couple's world between me and the palace lord. Oh, little lion, remember to help me guard this place too in the future." Ye Qianyu smiled. The Evil Emperor's expression froze before he depressedly lowered his head and turned about. With a roar, he transformed into a ferocious-looking lion king and left.

Xu Li and the others stared at the dispirited Evil Emperor as they laughed before leaving here as well.

In the Lifire Great Hall, only Qin Wentian and Ye Qianyu remained. The imposing expression on Ye Qianyu's face vanished, replaced by a charming smile. She turned to Qin Wentian, "How's the feeling of giving out orders while seated on the throne?"

Qin Wentian couldn't help but laugh when he saw Ye Qianyu's charming smile. "No matter how good the feeling is, it couldn't be better than the feelings I felt during the beautiful scenes between us last night."

Ye Qianyu's gaze stiffened before she started to giggle. Her voice was as gentle as water, "In that case, let your female servant properly serve my lord husband again."

Staring at her alluring gaze, that elegant figure with a hint of nobility in her demeanor, Qin Wentian felt an impulse to embrace her and lose himself in the bonding of their flesh and spirit once again. He couldn't help but to mumble in a low voice, "Demoness…"

"In that case, does my lord husband like it?" Ye Qianyu stepped lightly, as she sat on him, her hands cradled around his neck.

"What do you think?" Qin Wentian carried Ye Qianyu up. His figure flashed, directly soaring through the air, bringing her back to his bed chambers at the peak-most area of the Lifire Palace. Sounds of soul-stirring moans soon filled the air.

Being able to obtain both the beauty and the empire, this feeling was extremely marvelous indeed.

...

Several months later, the Lifire Palace gradually calmed down. The commotion caused by the storm in the past had also dissipated. The topics of discussion changed, only occasionally mentioning about Qin Wentian. However, there was no doubt that the story about Qin Wentian and Ye Qianyu had already became a legend. Not only that, there were different variations to the stories told as well.

But regardless of the variations, the ending would always be perfect. The two of them were like an immortal couple, causing people to envy them. That image of Qin Wentian holding Ye Qianyu's hand as they stared down at everyone looking up to them with worship and respect was an unforgettable one, deeply etched in their minds. On that day, the two of them looked down on everything from the peak, there were also tears of happiness flowing down Ye Qianyu's face.

However, to the legendary stories about Qin Wentian and Ye Qianyu, both of them didn't hear them at all. But there was no doubt that their lives were extremely wonderful now. This was especially so for Qin Wentian, he was in seventh heaven every night, Ye Qianyu was simply a vixen, extremely good in bed. The two of them stayed alone in the bed chambers at the peak of the Lifire Palace, enjoying themselves to the utmost.

During evening time, Qin Wentian stood at the peak of the Lifire Palace, casting his gaze down at the vast Lifire City. The setting sun dyed the sky a faint crimson, its glow reflected on the city walls. The scenery was magnificent and beautiful.

Ye Qianyu quietly walked to his side and leaned her soft body against his. She lightly spoke, "Are you missing them again?"

During this period of time, Qin Wentian had summarized his story and told it to Ye Qianyu. From Qin Wentian, she learned of Mo Qingcheng and Qing'er existences. These two had been with him ever since his youth, accompanying him as he traveled down his path. After they thought he had died, Qing'er's hair turned white overnight while Mo Qingcheng's heart died together with him.

Ye Qianyu finally understood why although she was imprisoned for many years, she still could not replace the two women in the most important place of Qin Wentian's heart. After all, the interactions and experiences that bound the two of them, was simply too little.

She also knew that in the heart of this magnificent young man beside her, the two women had positions that were immovable in his heart. She also had no thoughts of overtaking or replacing them, she truly only wanted to accompany him forever.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded lightly. "Are you jealous?"

"I'm not." Ye Qianyu truthfully shook her head. "I really wish to meet them. In the future, I'll definitely get along well with them."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with a doubtful look as he stared into Ye Qianyu's beautiful eyes. This demoness, how mysterious.

Upon seeing Qin Wentian's expression, Ye Qianyu placed her hand at Qin Wentian's waist and suddenly twisted his waist with her fingers, "This is for you not believing in me."

"Alright, I'll believe you." Qin Wentian bitterly smiled. He embraced her and allowed her to lean against his chest. "Qianyu, thank you for the beautiful scenes you brought me."

"Mhm, I'm sensing that something is wrong." Ye Qianyu rolled her eyes at him. "Tell me honestly, you have been accompanying me for so many days. Are you planning to leave me here alone and ignore me?"

"Eh…" Qin Wentian's face was filled with black lines. He bitterly smiled, "Can you not disrupt the beautiful atmosphere?"

"Hehe." Ye Qianyu wriggled out of Qin Wentian's embrace. Her charming eyes stared at him, "Qin Wentian, I'm warning you. Don't even think about abandoning me."

Qin Wentian instantly perspired. This demoness was too intelligent.

He had been accompanying Ye Qianyu during these few days to make up for the suffering she had to endure through these years. For the sake of him, Ye Qianyu was locked in the Lifire Jail for many years before being shifted to the Lifelong Saint Hall where she was treated like a dancing lady. It was tough for Qin Wentian to imagine how she had survived all these years. Now that they were together, he naturally wanted to treat her well and accompany her.

However, Ye Qianyu was correct about one point. He was planning to leave her here while he depart the Lifire Palace.

Now, he was already at the empyrean realm and was sufficient to sweep through the entire Azure Mystic Immortal Realms with impunity. So many years have passed since he left, he didn't know how Qing`er and Qingcheng were doing. There were still many people in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms waiting for him to return. If it wasn't for the fact that he didn't know how to return, he would have long taken the journey back.

The Qin Wentian now long had his heart set on speeding home. He didn't want to wait another moment. He didn't know what consequences there would be if he continued to wait. He didn't know if Qing`er and Qingcheng would encounter danger.

"Let me accompany you back to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms." Ye Qianyu softly spoke, staring at Qin Wentian. Clearly she had already deduced what he was thinking about.

"Impossible." Qin Wentian decisively rejected. Currently, he had no idea how to return and it was very possible that he needed to step across vast segments of space. If he encountered spatial turbulence on the journey back, things would truly be too dangerous. Even he at the empyrean realm might not be able to handle that safely, let alone Ye Qianyu who was only at the immortal emperor realm.

Chapter 1672: Daoask City

Ye Qianyu glared at Qin Wentian, those beautiful eyes of hers could cause the heart of one to melt. However, it was as though Qin Wentian's heart was made of stone, he didn't waver at all. After all, this concerned the safety of Ye Qianyu, he couldn't afford to be careless.

"I also don't really have the confidence. Right now, I still need to search around the space outside of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms for the coordinates of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms." Qin Wentian spoke to Ye Qianyu. Each of the thirty-three immortal realms are separated by vast amounts of distance. If one didn't have an accurate set of coordinates, it was easy for them to get lost in the starry space.

However, Ye Qianyu was like she didn't hear it at all and continued to glare at him.

"Wentian." At this moment, a voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. His eyes flashed and instantly took out his messaging crystal and sent a strand of his immortal sense into it. "Brother Qi, do you have any news?"

"Mhm, the Saint Lord has replied." The voice in his mind rang out again. The person speaking with Qin Wentian was one of the Palace Lords of the Gemini World Palace. Before this, Qin Wentian had already communicated with them and told them about his wish to return to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

The Saint Lord in the other party's words was naturally not referring to Qin Wentian. It was referring to the previous generation Saint Lord, Yi.

"What did Senior Yi say?" Qin Wentian hurriedly asked.

"Saint Lord suggested for you to head to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. The sacred academy has the spatial coordinates you need and it can transcend space to connect to each of the immortal realms. If the sacred academy is willing to help, you might be able to teleport to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms straightaway. There would be no need for you to traverse the starry space blindly." The Gemini Palace Lord spoke.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy...this name wasn't unfamiliar to him at all. Back then, he had once cultivated many years in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and achieved a transformation.

The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy would only manifest itself if ancient emperors are about to be born. That was the reason why it appeared in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. And time has proven that the sacred academy's legend was accurate. He himself had indeed broken through the emperor realm into the empyrean realm which was the 'ancient emperor realm' as referred to by people of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

From a certain perspective, he could also be considered a student of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

Now that he heard the name of the academy from the Gemini Palace Lord, Qin Wentian felt that this Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was truly an impressive power.

"Will the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy agree to help?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Since you know of it, you must have cultivated in it before. Even if the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy isn't willing to help, it would not be detrimental if you head there for a look. That place, can be considered as a holy ground in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms after all." The Gemini Palace Lord laughed. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, to think that the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy could be referred to as a holy ground in this immortal realm. From this, one could very well imagine how powerful the sacred academy truly was.

"My understanding about the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy isn't very deep. What sort of power is it and where is it located?" Qin Wentian asked.

"The influence of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy spreads around the world. It's rumored that the sacred academy contains the spatial coordinates of the other thirty-two immortal realms and could directly teleport there to guide the junior generations in their cultivations. For people who have cultivated in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy before, they can all be referred to as disciples of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. In addition, the students of the sacred academy aren't only limited to the other thirty-two immortal realms. The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was the most critical location. There are countless people here who had headed to the sacred academy for cultivation before. In fact, there were even many world overlord existences who would go there to seek guidance on their daos."

The Gemini Palace Lord explained, "As for the location, the Heavenly Sacred Academy is located in Daoask City. That place doesn't belong to any power, it is not governed by anything. The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy itself doesn't seek to gain territories or become a hegemonic power. Its only purpose is to transmit the dao. If not, the sacred academy can be considered a superpower here in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms."

"In that case, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy is a power that deserves to be respected." Qin Wentian sighed in admiration in his heart. Not seeking hegemony, existing only to transmit the dao.

"Yes, the sacred academy is truly held in high respect by many people. There were many world overlords who managed to step into that realm only due to the sacred academy. And because the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy never partakes in any conflict or shown any inclination to seize hegemony, the other superpowers of the realm wouldn't act against it as well. However, I heard that countless years ago, there was a great devil character in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms who established a world-shaking absolute devil sect. He coveted the ancient heavenly secrets in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and wanted to plunder them. Hence, he started a war with the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. After the other powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms learned about this, they rushed over to reinforce the sacred academy from all directions, sending countless experts to deal with the devil sect. After a grand battle, the experts rushed into the devil sect and demolish everything, razing it to the ground before surrounding that grand devil character and killing him. That battle was known as the Sacred War. After that, no other powers dared to make a move against the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy."

"A just cause enjoys abundant support." Qin Wentian replied.

"Mhm, a just cause enjoys abundant support indeed. A power like the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy that doesn't participate in any conflicts and only seeks to pass on the dao, it naturally shouldn't be destroyed." The Palace Lord of the Gemini World Palace replied.

"Since this is the case, I'll head to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy first. Brother Qi, please help me to convey my thanks to Senior Yi." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Don't mention about it. Saint Lord is also extremely interested in you. He says that if there's a chance to, he would definitely wish to meet you." The Gemini Palace Lord laughed.

"Mhm, if there's an opportunity in the future, I will definitely pay a visit to Senior Yi." Qin Wentian nodded. He and Ancient Emperor Yi truly had deep karma connecting them. Emperor Yi's inheritance in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms was obtained by him, and the two of them were also saint lords of the Battle Saint Tribe. He also wished to meet with Yi. It was just that right now, he didn't know where Yi was.

"Right, you should meet with the Saint Lord if there's a chance to in the future." The Gemini Palace Lord replied. After that, Qin Wentian kept his messaging crystal. Ye Qianyu who was before him, had been observing him. Upon seeing the smile on his face, she couldn't help but ask, "Who is that?"

"One of the Gemini World Palace Lords. Didn't I tell you before that they came from the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms too. There are deep karma ties connecting me and them." Qin Wentian replied. Right now, Ye Qianyu already knew many of his matters. He even told her about Qing`er and Qingcheng. Since Ye Qianyu was already his woman, there was no need to conceal many things from her.

However, the matter about the Battle Saint Tribe concerned the secret of an entire race. He had once promised not to reveal this. Hence, he could only hide the truth of the matter from her.

"Mhm, you said before that they also have no way to return to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Right now, did they find a way?" Ye Qianyu asked.

"Not yet, they just told me that I should try to find a way to seek the spatial coordinates first." Qin Wentian didn't tell the truth to Ye Qianyu. If he told her, she would definitely insist on going with him.

"You are lying to me." Ye Qianyu's beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian. This woman was extremely smart, it was too difficult to lie to her.

"Let me consider it a little more." Qin Wentian felt a little guilty. He cradled Ye Qianyu's face and gently spoke.

"Okay, but you definitely have to bring me along." Ye Qianyu cradled her arms around Qin Wentian's neck, her gaze as gentle as water. Qin Wentian was on the verge of agreeing but when he thought of how dangerous things might be, he still decided to steel his heart.

After several days, at the bed chambers at the peak of the Lifire Palace, Ye Qianyu hurriedly rang out from there and used her immortal sense to sweep over everything. After that, she rushed to the other peak-areas of the Lifire Palace as a look of resentment flashed in her eyes. She then bit her lips lightly before drawing in a deep breath and shouting, "QIN WENTIAN, YOU BASTARD!"

The intensity of this shout traveled throughout heaven and earth, causing the hearts of many to fill with shock. Everyone involuntarily trembled when they heard that.

Daring to call the Lifire Palace Lord a bastard inside the Lifire Palace, other than Ye Qianyu, who else would there be?

Isn't the relationship between the palace lord and madam very well? What happened?

"Could it be that palace lord has other women outside?" Some people shamelessly thought. Many beautiful serving girls felt their hearts stirring with excitement at this conjecture. After all, all previous palace lords have a throng of women around them while Qin Wentian now only had a single Ye Qianyu. This meant that the opportunity for them to rise up was extremely great indeed.

How would the others know that their Palace Lord Qin had left Ye Qianyu behind here as he snuck away.

For the following days, many beautiful serving ladies wanted to find a way to enter the bed chambers at the peak. How could Ye Qianyu not understand their thoughts? Hence, these pretty serving ladies were all chased away by Ye Qianyu who was already originally not in a good mood. Did these women think they could seduce her Qin Wentian just by being slightly pretty? Are they even worthy? In the future when Qin Wentian takes on a new woman, their beauty and demeanor definitely mustn't be inferior to hers. If not, wouldn't she be considered a failure?

The pitiful and poor Qin Wentian...As the majestic Lifire Palace Lord, he didn't even have a single serving lady waiting upon him.

...

Not only did Qin Wentian sneak away, he even purposely caused Ye Qianyu to sink into an illusion before he left. If not, given how tightly Ye Qianyu was watching him, it was completely impossible for him to sneak off. Hence, he could only use this despicable method. Hence, one could very well imagine Ye Qianyu's current mood.

He understood Ye Qianyu's heart but he also has his own considerations. If this trip to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy yielded nothing, he was prepared to break through the space of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and search blindly. He had no way to anticipate the dangers he would face and he naturally wouldn't be able to bring Ye Qianyu along. This was for her safety.

After leaving the Lifire Palace, he directly headed to Lifelong City. After he obtained the coordinates of the Daoask City from the map, he then used teleportation arrays to cut short the distance he had to travel. In the entire Lifelong Realm, only Lifelong City possessed a teleportation array that led to external areas outside the realm. In addition, after that, one still had to make use of multiple teleportation arrays in different locations to travel vast amounts of distance before they could reach the Daoask City. The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were simply too vast. This distance was simply terrifying. If he was just a peak-stage immortal emperor, it was also impossible for him to travel such a distance.

After using many teleportation arrays and after a period of many days, Qin Wentian finally arrived at Daoask City.

This was considered a supreme main city. Even in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, for cities who could be claimed as 'main cities,' they were all truly spectacular. Even for the largest city in the Lifelong Realm - Lifelong City, it was impossible to be compared to it.

There were countless supreme powers in this terrifying majestic main city. The prosperity level was to an extent where Qin Wentian found it hard to fathom. It was rumored that countless years ago, this was just a stretch of desolation. The rise of Daoask City was due to none other than the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy's influence, and it eventually became one of the main cities of this immortal realm.

Daoask City was precisely built around the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Through the countless years of development, it continued to expand larger and larger and became incomparably prosperous.

Daosk City was very chaotic, the powers within were tangled and complicated. Not only were there countless local powers, there would also be many experts arriving here daily. The vast majority of them were here because they wanted to seek dao advice from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, asking what should the path of their dao be. This majestic city was undoubtedly extremely attractive to cultivators.

Qin Wentian soared through the air of Daoask City. His immortal sense stretched out and could sense how prosperous and lively Daoask City was. He could only sigh in his heart at how powerful the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are. Right now, he was already a world palace lord, the hegemon of a certain region that controls boundless stretches of territories, capable of determining the fates of millions with a single command. Many people would undoubtedly be satisfied enough and there were many more who coveted such a position.

However, upon coming to a place like Daoask City, Qin Wentian couldn't help but sigh. So it turned out that the position of a world palace lord was nothing significant at all before the majesticness of a city like this.

Chapter 1673: Traversing the Starry Space

The Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was located right at the center of Daoask City, the academy resembled a majestic flying city, absorbing the boundless astral light cascading down, like it was receiving the transmittance of the great dao of the heavens and earth.

Qin Wentian came to the stairway below the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Countless people were around it and many of them had stepped on the stairway. Each individual here were all extraordinary characters. Qin Wentian began to climb the stairs, there were several people around him who did so as well and when they arrived outside the gate of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, he discovered that the guards here were all immortal emperors.

"Skyopener Realmlord's disciples are here to visit the sacred academy." A few figures walked out and bowed towards the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, their tones extremely polite.

"Xumi Realmlord's four law kings are here to pay a visit to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy." Another four figures dressed in kasaya bowed as they spoke. There were still many people following behind them.

More and more people standing at the side spoke out. Qin Wentian felt extremely shocked, many of these people were from supreme powers, either personal disciples of a world overlord or their direct subordinates. This made Qin Wentian feel that something was wrong. Since these people had such close relationship with world overlords, why do they still need to report their master's name when they came here? It didn't seem as though they were here to seek dao.

"Qin Wentian, a student of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy from the lower world, is here to pay a visit to the sacred academy." Qin Wentian walked up and clasped his hands with a respectful attitude. Since this was a holy ground, he naturally had to have respect in his heart. In addition, it was true that the guidance of the sacred academy had gave him many benefits before, especially during the dao lectures he had heard back then when in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

"Lower world?" The two guards glanced at Qin Wentian. They then transmitted their voices, "Which of the thirty-two other immortal realms are you from?"

"Azure Mystic." Qin Wentian transmitted back his reply. The guards nodded, they then glanced at everyone, "Please enter then, there will naturally be people receiving you inside."

"Many thanks." Everyone nodded and stepped into the gate leading to the sacred academy. This particular Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy was extremely mysterious, it was unknown how vast the inside was. There seemed to be a world inside a world, leading to a separate dimension.

After entering the sacred academy, everyone was led to a certain area where they could rest. Not only they were here, many others have also already arrived here and all the experts now were in earnest discussion.

"The four Xumi law kings." At this moment, someone noticed the four monks. The person who spoke was an emaciated, frail-looking individual. His skin was extremely white and he radiated a gloomy aura.

"The people of the White Bone Realm are also here to create trouble?" The Xumi law kings calmly questioned. Their words caused the people around the individual who spoke earlier to laugh coldly. They were indeed from the White Bone Realm.

"The Skyopener sages are here as well." Someone stared at the several experts from the Skyopener Realm, causing many people to turn their gazes there as well. Skyopener sages are personal disciples of the Skyopener Realmlord. They are all extremely strong and have arrived here at the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy as well.

"Currently, it can be said that experts all around have gathered here at the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Who would have thought that despite the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms being in decline for so long, it actually still poses such a great attractiveness and attracted so many disciples and subordinates of world overlords to rush here." A person crossed his arms before his chest and laughed. His words caused Qin Wentian's eyes to gleam with sharpness.

Azure Mystic?

These experts who came here to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy from all directions were actually for the sake of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms?

"Although it has declined, it was once glorious before. After that war countless years before, somebody imposed a ban on Azure Mystic, forbidding all empyrean-level characters from entering. The various superpowers were all reluctant to accept this. From what I know, through these countless years, they have never stop their probing of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms." Someone explained. Many people knew of this point. It was said that from ancient times until now, there would always be dao elements from here, manifesting themselves in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Was the purpose of the dao elements really just to accept talented disciples from there?

"In that case, does anyone know why the ban on entering the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms is relaxed?" Someone asked. Many people frowned in puzzlement. Through these countless years, they had always been forbidden from going there. Many people had no idea why the ban was now relaxed.

"The information is transmitted down to us by those above, how can we be capable of knowing everything? In fact, I know that we are already considered slow. Some supreme powers already have Azure Mystic's spatial coordinates and they have already set off. Sadly, we can only wait here for now."

"It's already considered very kind for the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to agree to send us directly into the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. What more do you guys want?" Somebody grumbled.

"I said the wrong thing in haste, I don't mean anything by it." That person laughed.

Qin Wentian felt more and more worried the more he listened. As expected, these people came here to the sacred academy for the same purpose as him. He had originally wanted to come to the sacred academy to find out more about the coordinates of his home, he didn't expect to encounter such a troublesome matter.

He suddenly remembered that it was Ancient Emperor Yi who told the Gemini World Palace Lord to tell him to come to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Did he already know of the situation here?

"Everyone, can I ask a question. When will we be able to set off?" Qin Wentian asked.

Many people glanced at him. One of them then laughed, "A month later."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Right now, the ban on the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms have been relaxed. Many groups of experts led their subordinates, all of them wanting to head there. He should summon some subordinates here as well or after reaching the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, there might be unexpected trouble and he would be ill-equipped to handle everything alone.

"What secret is hidden within the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms exactly?" Qin Wentian silently mused. There were inheritances of different dao elements in the City of Ancient Emperors, there must be a reason for that. Also, all the powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have never stopped their probing of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. This instantly made Qin Wentian think about the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

The Heavenly Talisman Realm had stayed in seclusion, hiding themselves in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms for a very long time. What end purpose do they have exactly? In the past, he was one of their selected members. Now that he thought back to it, their purpose doesn't seem to be so simple as just recruiting talented disciples.

Also, in the forbidden grounds of the Darknorth Immortal Mountains, that crazy old freak managed to send him and Youhuang through the boundless starry space, right into the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. That mysterious old freak, what sort of terrifying existence was he exactly?

The disciples and subordinates of the various Realmlords and world overlords all came here to borrow the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy's ability to teleport to Azure Mystic. Clearly, even world overlords didn't have the power to teleport someone directly from here, through the boundless starry space, to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

Qin Wentian's heart was filled with worry and unease when he thought about so many experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are leading groups of subordinates to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Many of the people here were existences on the same level as him, empyrean-level existences that were the same as ancient emperors back in Azure Mystic. An empyrean was sufficient to sweep aside everything in his old world. He naturally couldn't help but to worry. He wanted nothing more than for time to speed up so he could return to Azure Mystic faster.

"The ban on the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms is relaxed, but are world overlords still forbidden from entering there?" Qin Wentian asked again These people were all subordinates of different Realmlords. Not one of the world overlords had come here personally.

"That's indeed so, this is truly strange. I wonder who exactly is the person who imposed the ban. Why would he relax its criteria now and allow people from our Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to enter, yet world overlords are still forbidden." Someone spoke in bewilderment.

"How could the thoughts of an existence at that level be something we can guess at? Since he has relaxed the ban, we might be able to obtain unimaginable rewards in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms this time."

"Mhm. I wonder how many people would go there this time around." Everyone was in fervent discussion. Qin Wentian was still extremely worried but he could do nothing but to wait. Even if he could find the spatial coordinates on his own and traverse through the starry space by himself, even if he didn't encounter any danger, the time needed would still be extremely long. Waiting here for a month was actually already considered short.

Upon thinking of this, he could only try go calm himself down as he temporarily rested at the sacred academy.

During these few days, more and more experts gathered at the sacred academy, all of them were here to head to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms and many had extraordinary identities. There were also many who went to tour Daoask City to while time away but Qin Wentian didn't have any mood for that. He continued to quietly wait in the sacred academy, feeling that time was passing extremely slowly.

This short period of one month felt exceedingly long to him. But finally, the wait had ended.

Today, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy gathered those who wished to head to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Qin Wentian also summoned his subordinates to come here secretly for the sake of hiding things from Ye Qianyu.

Among his subordinates, three out of the nine monarchs under him were here, in addition to two governors. The two governors were the eastern governor Lin Ba and northern governor Xu Li. They had mobilized some subordinates to come here together with them. Qin Wentian was worried that he wouldn't have enough men after they reached the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms and thus, he sent for a regiment of immortal emperor-ranked subordinates to aid him. Only by doing so could he ease his worries a little. Doing things would be more convenient as well.

The people of the sacred academy then led all the experts to a place where a gigantic star platform was located. At this area, the boundless astral light from the heavens cascaded down and was converging onto the platform. This star platform shone brilliantly and was akin to a superstorm giant teleportation array.

Everyone respectively walked up the star platform, they only felt as though it was like stepping into space. The people of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy adjusted the spatial coordinates. Star light flashed and a star region map appeared on the star platform. Boundless points of light could be seen surrounding a huge continent-like location.

"That place must be the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, right?" In that case the boundless points of light must be the particle worlds around it." Qin Wentian silently speculated, his heart filled with an intense anticipation. Finally, could he return? He had waited far too long for this day to come.

"Everyone the journey there might take some time, just remain in the array and don't panic." The people of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy explained. Everyone nodded, the weakest of the experts here were at least at the immortal emperor realm. They naturally wouldn't be frightened easily.

"Alright, we are going to activate the teleportation array to send all of you to Azure Mystic now." That person spoke and retreated after that. The light cascading down on the star platform grew increasingly resplendent, until it became extremely blinding. After that, a wave of terrifying spatial fluctuations gushed forth and at the next instant, everyone felt as though the stars above them have changed. They had started on the journey of traversing through the starry space.

The scenes around them changed at rapid speed, they were shuttling through the boundless starry space, resembling shooting stars. They felt as though their bodies were out of control, like their bodies were not their own.

This was a grand teleportation through the boundless space, capable of traversing past different immortal realms. The speed naturally would reach a terrifying extent. No matter how the scenery around them changed, their target was fixed, constant and unchanging. This made their hearts feel at ease. Their targeted location was getting nearer and nearer in their vision at every passing second!

Note:

Xumi is something like space manipulation. An example: Placing a mountain into a mustard seed.

Chapter 1674: The Chaos in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms

The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. It has been close to 200 years since the war in the Evergreen Immortal Empire. That war, startled the heavens and earth, over half of the major powers in the immortal realms had participated in that.

The Skymist Immortal Empire, Paragon Sword Sect, Taihua Immortal Dynasty, Senluo Immortal Empire, Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, Sacred Sun Sect, Phoeroc Race, Heavenhold Demon Race, Void Beast Race, White Tiger Race, in addition to the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, the Violet Emperor and other terrifying existences. All of them descended personally at the Evergreen Immortal Empire to kill a single Qin Wentian.

But for that war, there was also plenty of powers who fought for Qin Wentian.

The Evergreen Immortal Empire, Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, Southern Phoenix Clan, Matriarch Ji, Emperor Yu… many powerful experts fought for the sake of protecting Qin Wentian. In fact, even the three great devil halls of the Myriad Devil Islands had participated to help him. Other than this, the monks from the Askheart Temple had joined in as well. But despite their strength, they still failed to protect Qin Wentian. He arrived at the Evergreen Immortal Empire with the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, cloaked in multi-colored light as he proposed to Evergreen Qing`er. With his cultivation base at the immortal king realm, he killed three immortal emperors in a single battle, exuding boundless magnificence. But ultimately, he still died at the end as his dao vanished.

For that war, over half of the peak powers in the immortal realms had joined in. That could be said to be an era-determining battle.

That battle had also affected the entire immortal realms. From that day onwards, true chaos descended as the peak powers rampaged against each other. The entire realms descended into the flames of war. Naturally, other than the war where Qin Wentian had died, the appearances of the dao elements in the City of Ancient Emperors had added to the cause. Because of the dao elements' existence, the people of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms had no choice but to fight each other for them. Many people contended against each other for a single dao element, each hoping to gain enough insights for them to break through to the ancient emperor level. No matter how slight the possibility was, since it existed before their eyes, they naturally had to fight for it even if their fight caused the heavens and earth to crumble.

And through these two hundred years, the impact of these many battles had ravaged the land, causing many experts to die. At the same time, there were also many legends that rose up.

Among these characters that rose up, all of them were extremely famous in the City of Ancient Emperors. They were all those characters who were at the very peak of the immortal king realm back then in the City of Ancient Emperors. And now, although some of them had died, the others were gradually climbing to the peak. There were people who once silently mused...back then, Qin Wentian defeated every single one of his enemies in the City of Ancient Emperors. Regardless of whether they were supreme demons from the Sun Gold Race, peak-level geniuses from the Phoeroc Race, all of them were not a match for him. In fact, even the supreme crown prince of the Senluo

Immortal Empire, as well as Jia Huangtian of the Phoeroc Race, were both killed by him, which invoked the furies of both the Senluo Immortal Emperor and the elders of the Pheoroc Race.

If Qin Wentian didn't die, what heights would he have reached…?

Nobody knew this. Everyone only knew that Evergreen Qing`er, whom Qin Wentian gave his life to protect back then, has now already broken through to the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm, with unparalleled control over spatial law energy, possessing numerous terrifying spatial slaughtering arts. She even had the strength to contend against ordinary peak-stage immortal emperors and could be said to be extremely powerful.

Right now, Evergreen Qing`er was known as the White-Hair Killing Goddess in the immortal realms. Because, she had a headful of silvery white hair and her hands were stained by the blood of her countless enemies. This was because, there were simply too many people who wanted to kill her, and too many people she wanted to kill. For those who had participated in the war back then and had participated in taking Qin Wentian's life, she wanted to hunt them down one by one. Hence, that princess of the Evergreen Immortal Empire that was once as pure as a snow lotus, gained the title of the killing goddess. Even the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, who had hatred with Qin Wentian back then, was forced into hiding by her. He didn't dare to show himself alone any longer.

Naturally, the increase in fame also put huge pressure on Qing`er. Many people wanted to kill her while they could now, not wanting her to grow any further. If it wasn't because of the fact that she had the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and White Emperor, who had both broken through to the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm, behind her. As well as her master Matriarch Ji and multiple immortal emperors as her apprentice sisters behind her back, she might have already died. But even so, the Evergreen Immortal Empire was in tatters, no longer having the glory it had in the past. The population here had grown sparse. Vast stretches of land ravaged by war could be commonly seen and they were now in the middle of a crisis.

Other than Evergreen Qing`er, Qin Wentian's junior brother from back then, Jun Mengchen, was also now a legendary character. Everyone gave him the title of Great Emperor Dominance, capable of dominating everything under the heavens, exuding boundless imposingness. From this title, one could imagine how strong he was.

Also, Qin Wentian's adorable demonic beast companion, that was a heaven devouring beast, has now matured into a supreme-grade greater demon. Ordinary characters didn't dare to antagonize him at all.

The Samsara Emperor Hua Taixu had once helped Evergreen Qing'er out before as well, rescuing the White-Hair Killing Goddess from a crisis or Evergreen Qing'er would have already died.

Also, the grand priestess of the Myriad Devil Island's judiciary devil hall, Blood Empress, was also said to have an unusual relationship with Qin Wentian. All of these people connected to Qin Wentian, had shocking growth in their strength.

Hence, this led everyone to muse that if Qin Wentian was still alive, how much more shocking would he be compared to his friends given his absurdly high talent.

Naturally, that was nothing more than a fantasy. Death was death. After that battle, Qin Wentian was blasted so badly that even his soul scattered, his body has long fade to dust. If it wasn't for the battle being too shocking as well as his friends all being too outstanding, he most probably would have already been forgotten by the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. This was especially so given how many legendary characters have risen through out these 200 years.

And right now, those companions of Qin Wentian from those years ago, were currently encountering a great crisis.

That year, when the two factions warred in the Evergreen Immortal Empire, they did say that as long as Qin Wentian died, all grudges would be wiped clean. However, everyone understood that suggestion was only brought up because both parties had reservations and didn't have the courage to start a true all-out battle. If not, the situation would end up in one where both the net is broken and the fishes died. It was unknown how many people would die.

After all, it wasn't so easy for hatred to be wiped clean just with words. During these years, the countless battles that has occurred have already proved this point. The influence of the war back then continued to affect the various peak powers of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms even today.

Ever since the Demon God Mountain descended on the boundlessly vast Desolate Mountain Range, an unknown number of powerful greater demons appeared, rising up rapidly. Right now, the demons here were already spread all around the immortal realms and they had already encroached on the territories of humans, seeking to invade them.

At this moment, at a certain area in the Desolate Mountain Range, the wind and sand stirred as the land was shrouded in darkness. Terrifying demonic qi permeated the atmosphere, as the demons in the surroundings all retreated backwards as they stared with fear at that particular area. Over there, two extremely terrifying demons could be seen. Both were heaven devouring beasts and they were attempting to devour everything in their scope of influence. One was an extremely old heaven devouring beast with nine heads, the other one was a young heaven devouring beast that was brimming with blood vitality. His golden skin gleamed resplendently, there was no doubt that when it grows up in the future, it would be a king among heaven devouring beasts.

However, their opponents were even more terrifying. Jia Yemo of the Phoeroc Race had personally acted to hunt them down. His gleaming golden body and wing span blotted out the sun completely. Right now, this king of the Phoeroc Race was in its true form. Other than him, another gigantic demon beast that was of the Sun Gold Race was here as well. The giant demon beast manifested a sun spear that was over ten thousand feet long, the heat it emitted seemed capable of refining everything in this world, simply fearsome to the extreme.

"ROAR~" A heaven-shaking roar rang out from the young heaven devouring beast. Runic lights flared around his maw as he activated his innate ability of devouring, clashing head-on with his opponents. The old heaven devouring beast by his side had already suffered a terrible injury, he had a sun spear pierced through his body and was pinned to the ground. Fresh blood continued to flow from his wound, dying the nearby ground red. The resplendent sun spear emitted terrifying heat, glowing in destructive brilliance.

"Go, don't care about me!" That old heaven devouring beast roared. With a piercing sound, yet another resplendent sun spear pierced through him, nailing him to the ground completely, stopping his attempt at getting up.

"ROAR!" The young heaven devouring beast howled in madness. His large eyes shimmered with golden tears, he tried many times wanting to break out of the siege and bring the old heaven devouring beast away, but all his attempts ended in failure. Without a choice, he unleashed his ultimate technique. The area around his body shined with runic light, they transformed spatial energy which enveloped him before he disappeared from sight.

"Crafty vile creature!" Jia Yemo howled. He transformed into a beam of light and rapidly vanished. The killing intent in his eyes was extremely terrifying to behold.

"Kill him and bring his corpse back!" That terrifying sun gold beast commanded. After that, he also rushed forth with great speed and continued pursuing. They had long tolerated this young heaven devouring beast enough, he kept devouring many demons of the various races and causing trouble everywhere and was also extremely sly. Now, they had finally caught him, they must kill him for sure.

After they left, many demon emperors came here. They stared at the old heaven devouring beast who was on the verge of death. No matter what, this particular heaven devouring beast was considered someone famous in their Desolate Mountain Range. What a pity...

Numerous terrifying attacks landed unceasingly on the old heaven devouring beast's body, completely destroying the aged heaven devouring beast's life.

Far away, the golden heaven devouring beast transformed into a golden-winged roc and sped through the air. Its large eyes were filled with tears. He inclined his head and stared at the sky and couldn't help but to recall the carefree days where he spent his time relaxed around that someone.

Right now, that memory seemed extremely far away. Even their mutual connection had been completely cut due to that war in the Evergreen Immortal Empire so many years ago.

Did he really die just like that?

...

In the southern region that was extremely far away from the Desolate Mountains, the Southern Phoenix Immortal City was no longer as peaceful and prosperous as those years ago. Right now, many enemy troops had arrived, the immortal city seemed to be on the verge of collapse.

There were three ancient clans in the south and they had always shared the authority and control of the southern regions. The three clans are respectively known as the Ying Clan, the Southern Phoenix Clan and the Jiang Clan.

Each of them governed an area and had maintained peace in the southern regions for countless years. However, after that war in the Evergreen Immortal Empire, things started to change as the state of balance wavered. At the end, a war had erupted.

The Ying Clan challenged and provoked the Southern Phoenix Clan multiple times while the Southern Phoenix Clan fought back. The conflict between these two ancient clans occurred frequently and unceasingly. Things gradually got more serious as large-scale battles started and lasted for over a hundred years. The waves of their battles naturally affected the entire southern regions. Many other powers were forced to choose a side to support.

Although the Jiang Clan didn't participate in this war, their attitude was very subtle, they were faintly leaning towards supporting the Ying Clan. Hence, through these years, the Ying Clan gradually obtained an advantage and caused the disparity between their strengths to increase. Right now, the Ying Clan alone led their army to war, attacking the Southern Phoenix Clan. In fact, their army had already surrounded the Southern Phoenix Immortal City, trapping the Southern Phoenix Clan within.

The Southern Phoenix Clan has summoned all their members, who were outside, to come back. Right now, in the Southern Phoenix Clan, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch stood there calmly, exuding boundless elegance, magnificence and calmness. She was prepared to enter the war that would decide her clan's fate.

However, at this moment, from the inheritance grounds of the Southern Phoenix Clan, a terrifying pressure could be felt emitting from there. That place, was the place where the phoenix ancestor was located!

Chapter 1675: Azure Mystic, I'm Back!

The various immortal emperors of the Southern Phoenix Clan were here, standing below the Southern Phoenix Matriarch. Many of them were imposing characters and were extremely beautiful.

The bloodline of the Southern Phoenix Clan was simply too outstanding. All the maidens in their clan were blessed with absolute beauty. Nanfeng Yunxi and Nanfeng Shengge were the most outstanding ones among the batch. Right now, the holy successor of this generation Nanfeng Yunxi, already had extraordinary strength. Not long ago, she had just broken through to the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm while Nanfeng Shengge broke through to the initial-stage of the immortal emperor realm. Ever since the huge transformation that occurred in the immortal realms, the cultivation speeds of everyone seemed to have increased rapidly. The changes in situation resulted in pressure that acted upon everyone from the peak powers in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

However, right now, Nanfeng Yunxi's expression was cold and solemn. The flawless and pure countenance of Nanfeng Shengge was no longer as perfect as in the past, there was a streak of grimness in her expression. Their gazes turned to the inheritance grounds. The aura from there made everyone understand that this incoming war, might be the war that determined their lives and deaths.

Everyone was quietly waiting, they didn't know when the Ying Clan would launch their attacks. The Ying Clan was now still mobilizing their forces, wanting to destroy the Southern Phoenix Clan in one fell swoop, they were even prepared to seal off the entire Southern Phoenix Immortal City. After all, this was the only solution. If not, if too many members of the Southern Phoenix Clan managed to escape, things would prove extremely troublesome for them in the future.

Naturally, there was still a teleportation array inside the Southern Phoenix Clan which led to the Evergreen Immortal Empire. However, the shockwaves of this war affected the entire immortal realms, the Ying Clan naturally wouldn't act alone. During these years, the Evergreen Immortal Empire had maintained their alliance with the Southern Phoenix Clan. The Ying Clan naturally would be on their guard against reinforcements from the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Unfortunately for the Southern Phoenix Clan, the Evergreen Immortal Empire themselves were in a situation so dire that they even found it hard to protect themselves.

Right now, the Evergreen Immortal Empire was a far cry from its glorious past. It was an empire on the verge of collapse.

In fact, even the Evergreen Immortal Emperor was on the verge of losing his life. Currently, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, who was already at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm, was experiencing the greatest danger ever to befall him in his entire life.

At the imperial palace of the empire, the walls surrounding it were all ruined and diapliated. Inside the Evergreen Emperor Palace, on the cultivation platform, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor sat there cross-legged. The ancient Evergreen Tree shimmered behind him, nourishing his body. Right now, his lifeforce kept withering and there was death energy radiating from him. His aura was extremely weak and the color of his face had turned dark.

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor had recently received a grievous injury. His attackers were none other than Old Devil Duo Tian, the Violet Emperor and the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor. Under a stroke of miraculous fate, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor actually also broke through to the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm. He then began to launch attacks at the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and almost killed him with the assistance provided by Duo Tian and the Violet Emperor. Luckily, the White Emperor and Qing`er rushed here just in time and managed to save him. But even so, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor was seriously injured. Now… he no longer had the strength to fight anymore.

Right now in front of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, the White Emperor was here. His aura was incomparably impressive, mystical and ethereal. Matriarch Ji had a solemn look on her face as her killing intent towered up into the sky. There was another person with a flawless countenance. Her skin was as fair as snow, her demeanor extremely cold. She stood there, resembling a statue of ice and she was none other than the White-Hair Killing Goddess, Evergreen Qing'er. If Qin Wentian saw her current demeanor, he most probably would find it tough to believe that this was his Qing'er.

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor slowly opened his eyes as a greyish light flickered within, exuding an aura of death. He stared at the many people before him but his gaze finally landed on the white-haired Qing'er. He then gently spoke, "Qing'er, can you promise Father a thing?"

Qing`er shook her head. She knew what her father wanted to say. She also knew that it was impossible for her to agree to this matter.

"Silly child, all humans would surely have to face death at the end. However, father hopes you can live on and combine forces with your Uncle White and your Master as the three of you slaughter a path out. As long as you guys remain alive, there would always be hope." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor's voice grew soft, he had already seen past the fact that he might die here. He knew that in this battle today, it was almost impossible for him to escape this calamity.

"I'll exist only if our empire exists." Qing`er's voice was as glacial as ever, her state of heart wasn't stirred at all by the gentleness in her father's voice. It was like her heart was as hard as granite. It was impossible for her to abandon the Evergreen Immortal Empire and abandon her father.

"Qing`er…!" The Evergreen Immortal Emperor called out.

"Father, I'm sorry." Qing`er spoke with resolve. She turned her gaze to a direction where there was a beauty whose looks were capable of toppling empires.

"Qingcheng, if there's an opportunity, I'll send you away from here." Qing`er softly spoke. Mo Qingcheng smiled and shook her head, "If you are here, I will be here with you as well."

"You have to wait for him." Evergreen Qing`er stared at Mo Qingcheng.

Mo Qingcheng's body trembled slightly. She naturally knew who Qing`er was referring to. Her beautiful gaze froze as she mumbled, "It has been so many years and there's no news at all. Would we be able to live long enough to wait for him to return?"

"He will definitely come back." Qing'er determinedly spoke. However, Mo Qingcheng continued to shake her head. A beautiful smile appeared on her face, "During these years, it has been elder sister Qing'er taking care of me. If we somehow can wait for his return, we will do so together. If he cannot make it back in time. That means that that's our fate."

When the White Emperor heard their conversation. He glanced up at the heavens and mumbled, "The stars of the astral river are shifting, the universe is rotating. Your lives are not fated to end here. He will return, and he should already be near."

When the Evergreen Immortal Emperor heard the White Emperor's words, he shook his head and laughed, "Even if he is returning here, would he make it in time?"

Other than the few of them, none of the others in the surroundings understood their conversation. During the war that year in the past, everyone had witnessed Qin Wentian being killed. Qin Wentian had died for sure, but why are these people so sure that Qin Wentian was still alive?

Maybe, because they cared too much, they'd rather choose to believe that Qin Wentian wasn't dead?

"Evergreen, it's time for you to die. Just come out and accept it." Outside the imperial palace, a unfamiliar voice rang out, echoing through the air. Qing`er's gaze turned cold, she stared at that direction, her icy gaze seemingly capable of penetrating through space as her vision locked onto the person who spoke. Her white hair fluttered without wind as her killing intent surged forth.

"Evergreen Qing'er, although your hair has turned white, it actually adds flavor to your beauty, causing my heart to tremble in anticipation. After the Evergreen Immortal Empire is destroyed, you, Mo Qingcheng and Glaze, shall be subdued by me and serve as my playthings forever. HAHAHA!" The person outside insulted, his words clearly intent on further enraging Qing'er.

The grand protective formation of the Evergreen Immortal Empire was activated and right now, all of them were hiding in it. This formation wasn't easy to break and the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor and the others had already gone off to seek more experts to be their reinforcements. Their plan was to break through with force and abduct the three beauties.

Although the words spoken by this immortal emperor were a psychological attack, he might truly mean to do this. The White-Hair Killing Goddess, Evergreen Qing`er, was an exceptional beauty. Her white hair even increased her charm somewhat. If he could subdue her and make her serve him, it would simply be an unimaginable joy. It was said that even the Old Devil Duo Tian had the same thoughts as well.

Furthermore, with regards to Mo Qingcheng and Princess Glaze, which of the two of them also weren't supreme beauties?

Qing`er's face was ice cold. She stretched out her jade-like hands as emperor light flashed. Terrifying law fluctuations radiated from her. As her fingers pierced forth, a spatial passageway opened up before her. That immortal emperor seemed to have sensed something. His countenance changed as he rapidly retreated.

But at this moment, a golden lotus appeared from the void, directly developing him directly. That immortal emperor didn't have time to react as the spatial storm in the lotus tore him to pieces. Only his screams of misery rang out. However, even the sounds of his screams completely vanished after just a few moments.

The other people in the surroundings had terror in their expressions. A bright beam of light than sliced over, severing the lotus apart but everything was already too late. That poor immortal emperor no longer existed.

The person who unleashed the sword strike was the Paragon Sword Emperor. His eyes were like sharp swords as he stared at that white-haired figure through the spatial passageway.

The title of the White-Hair Killing God was well deserved indeed. That immortal emperor who spoke earlier was just at the initial level. He even dared to antagonize Qing`er? He was simply courting death.

The Skymist Immortal Emperor and the Taihua Immortal Emperor also arrived at the Paragon Sword Emperor's side. The three powers under their control, were the same as the Evergreen Immortal Empire, all of them were in the eastern regions. During the war that year, the White Emperor snuck into each of their nests while they were fighting against the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Right now, the states of the Skymist immortal Empire, the Taihua Immortal Dynasty and the Paragon Sword Sect all weren't any better than the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Other than some peak characters, the vast majority of their forces had died. Their battle against the Evergreen Immortal Empire had never ceased from back then.

This time around, Old Devil Duo Tian worked together with the Violet Emperor and Eastern Sage to heavily injure the Evergreen Immortal Emperor. As for them, they were supposed to ally with the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire to completely crush the remnant forces of the Evergreen Immortal Empire and their allies. On the other side, after the Evergreen Immortal Emperor was injured, the Violet Emperor, Eastern Sage and some others had already gone on ahead to deal with Jun Mengchen and his companions.

The operation this time around was a collective effort, they were moving against the Evergreen Immortal Empire and the Southern Phoenix Clan simultaneously, wanting to finish them all in a single stroke.

But at this moment, a resplendent beam of light shot down from the sky. A terrifying immortal army appeared and the person in the lead was none other than the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor. He stood arrogantly in the air with a supreme divine weapon behind his back. A moment later, the divine weapon erupted forth with a startling light.

"BREAK!" The Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor didn't waste words. The divine weapon behind him exuded an ancient will which manifested countless divine weapons that frenziedly launched attacks at the golden-colored protective grand formation.

Only to see Qing`er stepping forward, moving above the tattered walls as her white hair fluttered in the wind. An intense killing intent could be seen gleaming in her eyes.

She inclined her head and stared up at the skies. The silhouette of a magnificent figure appeared in her mind. At this moment, the coldness in her eyes suddenly vanished, replaced by a smile of warmth and beauty.

If she died in this battle, their fate of this lifetime would end. For all the regrets in this life, let them all be made up for in the next, if there truly is such a thing as reincarnation.

"If there's a next lifetime, I'm still willing to be your wife..." Qing`er whispered softly as she retracted her gaze. When she cast her glance at the direction of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor, her gaze once again became incomparably cold.

...

In the eastern regions, in a city within the Evergreen Immortal Empire, bright beams of light suddenly cascaded down from the sky. At this instant, countless people glanced upwards. Rumbling sounds echoed as the great earth trembled, causing clouds of dust to rise up.

Everyone turned their gazes over only to see a group of experts suddenly appearing there. Each of them had extraordinary demeanors and unfathomably powerful auras.

A random immortal emperor passed by. His immortal sense extended out in curiosity and when he felt the cultivation bases of these people, a look of terror flashed on his face. After that, he trembled as disbelief flickered in his eyes.

They were actually all immortal emperors. How can this be possible…?

Amidst the commotion, a white-robed figure slowly floated up in the air. His immortal sense gushed forth and he instantly knew his current location. He drew in a deep breath as the light in his eyes shone with an incomparable resplendent brightness.

Azure Mystic, I'm back!

Chapter 1676: The next lifetime is too far away, I only seek to cherish our present

"Is this place the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms?" Amidst the clouds of dust, more and more figures appeared. All of them had fearsome auras, the terrifying might they radiated instantly enveloped this entire city.

"Truly, it's an immortal realm that's in decline. After being sealed, the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms actually became so backwards."

"Hahaha, we have finally arrived at this sealed land, the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms." More and more voices rang out in the air. Countless people below trembled, staring at the experts descending from the heavens. These experts didn't seem to be from this world and seemed to originate from the other immortal realms.

It was rumored that there are a total of thirty-three heavens in this universe, making it a total of thirty-three immortal realms. However, only a rare few here knew about the matters of the other immortal realms. To the vast majority of people, the existences of the other thirty-two immortal realms were nothing but a legend.

Right now, did this group of powerful experts really come from other worlds?

In that case, about the earlier rumors which stated that a group of experts had come to their Azure Mystic Immortal Realms from the other worlds were real too?

Their hearts pounded violently as a thought flashed through their minds. Seems like the skies of Azure Mystic were going change soon.

Qin Wentian was among this group of people. His eyes shone with a terrifying light. A few moments later, some of the experts grouped up and stood behind him obediently.

"Go to the Evergreen Immortal Empire to find me." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. After that, terrifying spatial fluctuations rocked the area. Qin Wentian took a step out and directly entered the void through the manifestation of a spatial gate. Right now, he had his heart set on returning home. He was rushing over towards the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire with the quickest speed he could muster, only leaving behind a line of instructions, telling his subordinates to go to the Evergreen Immortal Empire to seek him. In any case, this place was considered very close to the location of the Evergreen Imperial Palace. They wouldn't need too long to arrive there.

"He knows that this place is the Evergreen Immortal Empire?" The people below felt their hearts trembling as they stared blankly at the place that figure was in.

The ones that came here with Qin Wentian were all his subordinates, with monarch-level and governor-level characters among them. All of them had extraordinary statuses. Since Qin Wentian gave them an address, things were easy to settle then. They just had to find people to directly lead them there. After this was done, all of them began to hasten towards the Evergreen Immortal Empire's imperial palace in an imposing manner.

As for the other experts who arrived, each of them shot off in different directions. One could only wonder at how great the magnitude of this incoming storm would be when its force fully hits the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

...

Inside the Evergreen Immortal Empire, the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor was like a heavenly god with a supreme divine weapon behind him. That weapon radiated beams of weaponized light, manifesting numerous weapons that attacked the grand protective formation, causing the formation to tremble violently as cracks appeared.

Inside the emperor palace, the aura of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor was extremely weak now. He inclined his head and stared at the White Emperor and Matriarch Ji, "You two must bring Qing`er away."

"She won't leave." The White Emperor shook his head. The White-Hair Killing Goddess today was no longer the weak princess of the Evergreen Immortal Empire back then. How would she comply with their orders that went against all she stood for?

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor also understood this in his heart. However, he was still reluctant to see his daughter dying before him. Now, he could only close his eyes and silently sigh. Was everything a mistake?

"Qin Wentian, if something happens to Qing`er, you would have let me down." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor stared at the sky, feeling an intense unwillingness in his heart.

"RUMBLE~" An earth-shaking explosion rang out. The cracks on the protective grand formation widened, on the verge of collapse. Matriarch Ji turned and stepped out, moving towards Qing'er's location. She then fought side by side with Qing'er.

The immortal emperors of Matriarch Ji's sect also rushed over, their bodies shining with emperor light. This battle today, would it be the last battle they would ever fight?

The White Emperor continued to stand in his original location, protecting the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and many others in the imperial palace. His white-robes fluttered as he stared up at the sky. Would he really not be able to make it here in time? Had he calculated wrongly?

A thunderous boom rang out, breaking apart everyone's thoughts. The protectie formation was destroyed as the imperial palace crumbled into ruins. Other than the emperor palace, the other buildings inside the imperial palace were now completely destroyed.

"Evergreen Qing`er, Matriarch Ji, White Emperor, Evergreen. Ultimately, you guys will still not be able to escape death today." The voice of the Skymist Immortal Emperor was cold to the extreme. When he thought about the destruction of his immortal empire in the past, the hatred in his heart immediately surged forth. A towering killing intent radiated from him. He finally could have his revenge today.

"Do you guys know regret?" The Paragon Sword Emperor icily spoke as his sword intent flowed around him.

"Evergreen Qing'er, if we directly kill you just like that, things would be too advantageous for you. You killed too many of the royalty of my Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, I'll use the most cruel method I can to punish you." The voice of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor was cold to the extreme. Through these years, there were many experts of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire that died in Evergreen Qing'er's hands. Naturally, there were also many experts from the Evergreen Immortal Empire that died in their hands.

Qing`er stepped forward, moving to stand above a giant rock within the ruins. Her killing intent surged up into the skies as her white hair fluttered. The spatial law energy fluctuations which radiated forth bloomed into numerous golden lotuses that shot towards her opponent.

"Hmph." The Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor coldly snorted. His divine weapon flared with a multi-colored light. Under the assault of the manifestation of countless weapons, the golden lotuses were all penetrated through as they withered away.

Qing`er's body slowly floated up in the air, preparing to fight in close combat. Her white hair fluttered with the wind. She stared at the sky and closed her eyes as she sighed, "Without you, where is the joy in living, what is the sorrow in death? Let us turn old together in our next lives if there's one."

As she spoke, she opened her eyes. At this moment, she was ready to die. Her eyes gleamed with a fierce glint, the White-Hair Killing Goddess has returned.

"The next lifetime is too far away, I only wish to cherish our present..."

At this moment, from the void, an ethereal voice drifted over, like the voice of a divinity.

At this moment, the killing intent radiating from Qing`er suddenly wavered. She stared toward the distance only to see a beam of light descending from the sky. A spatial gate opened and a white-robed figure stepped out from within, seemingly having come from beyond the heavens.

Qing`er's body trembled. When she saw the figure who appeared, the White-Hair Killing Goddess no longer had the slightest bit of killing intent. At this instant, she shred all pretenses as she stared, trembling at that figure robed in white.

Two rows of tears flowed from the corners of her eyes. Her hair was still as white as ever, but there was an incomparable gentleness in her gaze now.

So it turned out that the White-Hair Killing Goddess could shed tears too. Her beautiful eyes now flashed with a most radiant smile. At this instant, the white-haired maiden standing above the ruins was so beautiful that it caused one's heart to ache as they watched her.

The next lifetime is too far away, I only seek to cherish our present!

He, has returned!

The people of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, the Skymist Immortal Emperor, the Paragon Sword Emperor and many other experts all froze in disbelief as they stared at the white-robed figure fixedly like they were looking at a ghost.

How is this possible?

During that war in the past, everyone there personally saw Qin Wentian being killed. Since then, the immortal realms entered a chaotic period that lasted close to two hundred years and the name Qin Wentian had long disappeared. However, he actually appeared here today? They didn't dare to believe that this would be real. But there was no doubt that Qin Wentian had truly appeared. Not only that, he didn't have eyes for them at all. He only had eyes for the white-hair maiden that was so beautiful at this moment that looking at her would cause one's heart to ache.

Matriarch Ji and her disciples all stared dumbfoundedly at the figure who appeared, not daring to believe their eyes too. They all initially felt that the conversation between Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er were words of people who had already gone crazy. But they didn't expect that Qin Wentian would actually be still alive and in addition, he has returned here.

Within the emperor palace, the eyes of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, that initially shone with weakness, now gleamed with a bright luster. After that, a relaxed smile appeared on his face. He had ultimately returned.

He glanced at the White Emperor, "You are correct once again."

The White Emperor revealed a smile but he didn't say anything else.

Mo Qingcheng's eyes flashed with astonishment as she looked at the person who appeared. After that, tears also began to flow uncontrollably down her face. She knelt on the ground, sobbing as she buried her head in her hands. The sound of her crying actually caused the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and White Emperor, who were at the side, to feel pain in their hearts. It has truly been hard on this lass, she has been suppressing her emotions through these many years, all her worry, her sorrow, her faint hope, finally could be completely vented now.

She soon inclined her head once more because she wanted to see clearly the figure who just appeared. It has been too long, far too long since she last saw him. She wiped the tear stains on her face away, and saw Qin Wentian flying towards Qing`er, hugging her in his embrace as they slowly descended down the air. At this instant, Mo Qingcheng's beautiful eyes didn't contain any jealousy or envy, there was only pure joy and happiness.

She then stood up and flew over with her quickest speed towards that figure. At this moment, she was akin to the most beautiful fairy in the world. Her steps were light and speedy, her smile was flawless.

Qin Wentian had one of his arms around Qing'er, hugging her extremely tightly. Qing'er's beautiful eyes stared at him in a dumbstruck manner. A flood of emotions could be seen in her eyes. It felt as though only the two of them were currently remaining in this world.

"Qing'er." Qin Wentian's dream-like voice called out, causing Qing'er's soul to shudder. After that, Qin Wentian leaned in to kiss her lips. How tender was that?

At this instant, she let go of all her aloofness and reservedness. She was embracing the person she loved tightly as well, allowing herself to feel the warmth of his body.

The two of them spun about in the air, slowly descending through it. How beautiful was this scene? Mo Qingcheng was flying over with her quickest speed, but at this moment, a powerful light radiating from a divine weapon suddenly blasted out, manifesting numerous weapons that shot straight for Mo Qingcheng.

"Careful!" Someone called out, only to see Qin Wentian and Qing`er's silhouette vanishing completely in an instant. In the next moment, Qin Wentian had already appeared before Mo Qingcheng, standing in front of her protectively. A layer of light enveloped them all and when the incomparably sharp divine weapons rained down, they were actually unable to breach the layer of light. This screen of light seemed to be even more formidable when compared to the grand protective formation of the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

Their lips parted. Qin Wentian's other hand gently hugged Mo Qingcheng. It felt like Mo Qingcheng knew what he wanted to do, and an expression of shyness couldn't help but to appear on her face, causing the hearts and souls of everyone to stir. Qin Wentian pulled her in closer and proceeded to kiss her. Mo Qingcheng's hands balled up as she pound them on Qin Wentian's chest, losing control of her emotions. Once again, her tears flowed uncontrollably, causing her flawlessly beautiful face to be wet.

"Qing`er, Qingcheng, I'm sorry..." Qin Wentian's hands gently touched the two maiden's faces, wiping their tears away. Endless guilt surfaced in his heart. Today, if he came late by a single step, the consequences would be unimaginably dire.

The two of them gently leaned against him in his embrace, feeling the warmth of his body. They knew that they were not dreaming, he truly is back, he had really returned to them.

In the air, the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperors and the others stared at that figure in white as their countenances grew incredibly ugly. And at this moment, waves of terrifying auras suddenly radiated forth as they saw a group of experts riding on their divine weapons as they flew towards here. This group of people that appeared all had cultivation bases at the immortal emperor level. When they saw the two maidens in Qin Wentian's embrace, only then did they suddenly understand the purpose of their trip here. So it turns out that their palace lord was someone from the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. He killed his way up to the upper world and obtained the position of a world palace lord. Truly awe-inspiring indeed.

Numerous figures on the Evergreen Immortal Empire's side also rushed over. Matriarch Ji and the others stared warily and the people who just arrived. Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng glanced over as well, yet Qin Wentian merely quietly held their hands as he stared calmly at the approaching figures. He then spoke softly, "They are my wives."

The eyes of Xu Li and the others gleamed with sharpness when they heard that. Even for Ye Qianyu, Qin Wentian had never introduced her in this manner before. Xu Li and the others instantly understood that the positions these two absolute beauties held in Qin Wentian's heart, was definitely above that of Ye Qianyu. Most probably, these two were going to be the true palace mistresses of the Lifire World Palace.

Instantly, some of the more intelligent ones knelt upon a single knee. Upon seeing this scene, the others hurriedly knelt as well as they all called out in a loud voice, "Your subordinates pays our respects to the two madams!"

Chapter 1677: Return

These people all had immortal emperor-level cultivations. Among them, there were monarchs and governors. The others were all vice governors and attendants of his Lifire Palace. Usually when they saw Qin Wentian, they only needed to bow to show their respect. They didn't need to kneel.

However, the new palace lord Qin Wentian was famous for using tyrannical iron-blooded methods. He slayed the previous palace lord and now, he could decide the fate of anyone in the Lifire Palace with a single sentence. Also, right now when they saw Qin Wentian's attitude, how could they still fail to understand the importance these two beauties had in Qin Wentian's heart. Since Qin Wentian brought them all the way here, they definitely had to use this opportunity and perform well, obtaining the trust of this new palace lord.

These immortal emperors were all lined up in a straight row neatly. There were even quite a few peak-stage immortal emperors among them. All of them knelt with a single knee and bowed to the two maidens.

Who were these two maidens?

Given how Qin Wentian had introduced them, there was naturally no doubt that the 'madams' they were referring too, were none other than Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng.

In the dead silence of the air, the gazes of everyone all turned to the row of kneeling immortal emperors as great waves of terror rocked their hearts.

He has returned, and he was truly alive. Not only that, he even brought a group of immortal emperors back with him.

"Surround them." Qin Wentian didn't even bother to glance at the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor and the others in the air. At the moment he returned to Azure Mystic, the fates of these people were already decided.

"Yes, Palace Lord." His subordinates bowed their heads. After that, their silhouettes flashed, instantly locking down on this entire space.

The Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor and the others stood in the air. To battle now was foolish, but to retreat now also seemed impossible. Their expressions were all incomparably unsightly. When they felt how strong the auras of these immortal emperors surrounding them were, all of them didn't know what to do.

Qin Wentian cast a glance at the ruined areas of the Evergreen Immortal Empire as he shook his head. The once glorious imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire was damaged to such an extent today. It was tough to imagine what sort of great battles occurred here, and to think that the Evergreen Immortal Emperor was actually injured.

When he thought of everything Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng had to endure through all these years, he felt an indescribable emotion in his heart. He could only tightly hold onto their hands and gently spoke, "It's alright, everything is fine now. With me here, everything has ended."

"Mhm." Qing`er nodded. Her silvery white hair was still the same but that supreme goddess of killing had already vanished. At this moment, she was like a gentle little woman who was tightly holding onto Qin Wentian's hand. It felt like she wanted to stick as closely to him as possible. Mo Qingcheng smiled sweetly, both her hands were hugging around Qin Wentian's arm. Those dark and beautiful eyes of hers stared unblinkingly at Qin Wentian, as though she didn't get to see enough of him.

Staring at his beloved wives before him, the smile in Qin Wentian's eyes gradually turned into one of relaxment, gentleness, and became radiant. He finally made it back. The scenario he was most afraid of didn't occur, but that scene earlier had truly scared him. Qing`er actually became the White-Hair Goddess of Killing and was fighting against two powerful immortal emperors. Her gaze was so cold, like she had became another person entirely. It was completely impossible for him to imagine what she had gone through all these years.

"Senior Matriarch Ji." Qin Wentian saw Matriarch Ji and her disciples walking over as he smiled at them and greeted. Although his cultivation base had long surpassed Matriarch Ji's, he still respectfully referred to her as senior. This was none other than Qing'er's master and she had chosen to stand by Qing'er even at the very last moment, fighting side-by-side together.

"I still thought that you…" Matriarch Ji also smiled. At the instant she saw those immortal emperors kneeling to Qin Wentian, she already knew that everything here was concluded. The once unexcelled youth of this world, the supreme genius who slayed three immortal emperors when he was still at the immortal king realm...He has truly returned, and did so in such a resplendent manner. He was like the lofty sovereign of all things, even immortal emperors had to kneel to pay their respect. In that case, one could very well imagine how strong Qin Wentian was now.

Right now, Matriarch Ji basically couldn't see through Qin Wentian.

"Did you think that I was already dead?" Qin Wentian smiled. Matriarch Ji and her disciples all laughed. When they saw the smile in their junior apprentice sister Qing`er's eyes, all of them felt a sense of release and happiness.

The next lifetime was too far away, I only seek to cherish our present.

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor was also smiling.

Qin Wentian came back in such a dazzling manner, kissing the daughter he doted on the most, while a group of immortal emperors knelt to him.

A legend was ultimately still a legend. But this legend seemed to have become much stronger compared to the past. Most probably, the skies here could no longer contain him.

"Wentian will deeply remember the gratitude of Senior and all the fairies for taking care of Qing`er." Qin Wentian sincerely spoke. Although Matriarch Ji and her disciples didn't want anything in return, it was impossible for him not to repay this kindness. Because, the person they were giving their lives to protect, was not only the princess of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, and was not only their junior apprentice sister or disciple but was also the wife of him, Qin Wentian, as well.

Qin Wentian held the hands of Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng as he walked forward, entering the emperor palace. The weakened Evergreen Immortal Emperor was smiling at him, his eyes finally regaining some luster. Finally, he had returned.

"Earlier, I was still saying that you would have let me down if something happened to Qing`er. Luckily, I was wrong." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor laughed. Everything was in time after all, life could be this wonderful some times. During times of extreme despair, a ray of light that represented hope, had appeared.

"Great Emperor." Qin Wentian greeted. After that, an incomparably pure burst of life energy enveloped the Evergreen Immortal Emperor's body. The jade-green colored life energy caused by the corrosion effect of the injury the Evergreen Immortal Emperor had suffered to be gradually wiped out. After that, the life energy seeped into his body and coursed through it, circulating around, greatly boosting the Evergreen Immortal Emperor's life force.

"Life-attribute laws?" The Evergreen Immortal Emperor felt his heart trembling. In the past, Qin Wentian didn't cultivate the life laws. Could it be that he has broken through?

This should be impossible, right? It has not even been a full two hundred years, could he really have broken through to that level above immortal emperors? Back then when he was hunted down by so many major powers, his cultivation base was merely at the peak-stage of the immortal king realm, he wasn't even an immortal emperor yet.

"Oh, I remember now. It must be his avatar." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor silently mused. He felt that Qin Wentian's true self has already died. The person Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng have been waiting for, was none other than Qin Wentian's avatar.

How would he know that the Qin Wentian before his eyes, was none other than Qin Wentian's true self?

Very swiftly, the injury which the Evergreen Immortal Emperor had received, began to recover. His grievous injury actually made a complete recovery, this was simply unfathomable, yet Qin Wentian managed to do so.

"Great Emperor, right now, your cultivation base is already at the peak-stage and you even have the ancient evergreen tree. Who could still injure you?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Old Devil Duo Tian, the Violet Emperor and Eastern Sage, you know them all." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor laughed as he spoke. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. How familiar these names sounded. Back then on the Demon God Mountain, the Old Devil Duo Tian had tried to kill him, if it wasn't for the Southern Phoenix Matriarch acting to save him, he would have already died. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor had already completely submitted to Old Devil Duo Tian.

As for the Violet Emperor and Eastern Sage, Qin Wentian couldn't be more familiar with them. The karma connecting them was just too deep.

"How should we deal with them?" The Evergreen Immortal Emperor glanced at the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperors and the others. Right now, these people were surrounded by Qin Wentian's subordinates which consisted of many peak-stage immortal emperors. Such a force was more than sufficient to kill the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor and his allies, yet Qin Wentian didn't give the order despite a long time having passed, only telling his subordinates to surround them.

"Wait for them to call for reinforcements." Qin Wentian calmly replied. His confident voice caused the Evergreen Immortal Emperor's heart to tremble. Waiting for them to call for reinforcements? Qin Wentian was planning to capture all in one swoop? What confidence was this?

The Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperors and the others all had strands of immortal sense projection outside. Upon seeing that the people surrounding them didn't act, their hearts were filled with turmoil. They didn't dare to act as it was clear that they were the ones in the weaker position. Since those trapping them here wanted to delay, it was also the best for them.

It's just that the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor and the others had no way to tolerate Qin Wentian's attitude. Ever since Qin Wentian appeared, he had not even spared a glance at them.

One has to know that they were the leaders of the peak powers here in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. The ruler of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, the Skymist Immortal Emperor, the Paragon Sword Emperor and the Taihua Dynasty Ruler. However Qin Wentian, who had became someone with the title of palace lord, didn't even look at them at all. What level of contempt was this?

"Oh yes, the situation at the Southern Phoenix Clan should be extremely dire now as well since they were forced to fight in the war. We should hurry there to take a look." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor spoke.

"What's going on?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Both the Southern Phoenix Clan and the Evergreen Immortal Empire were attacked at the same time?

"The Ying Clan had warred with the Southern Phoenix Clan for already over a hundred years. Right now, their troops have occupied the Southern Phoenix Immortal City and today shall be the date of the decisive battle." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor spoke. "The teleportation array leading to the Southern Phoenix Clan is still here. We can immediately head over."

"Right." Qin Wentian nodded. He held onto Qing'er and Qingcheng's hands as he directly walked towards the direction of the teleportation array. "Just me going with Qing'er and Qingcheng is enough."

The eyes of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor gleamed sharply. Qin Wentian wanted to head there alone with Qing`er and Qingcheng?

"Just listen to him." The White Emperor spoke. Evergreen nodded. Since Qin Wentian dared to bring Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng along with him, one could very well imagine how confident he was.

After that, Qin Wentian and his wives entered the teleportation array leading to the Southern Phoenix Clan. Bright light flashed as their three figures directly vanished. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor himself also felt like going over. He wanted to see which level the current Qin Wentian has reached exactly.

As for the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor and the others, they still didn't dare to move. They were now trapped here. The emperors from the Lifire Palace didn't do anything to them without Qin Wentian's order, merely surrounding them for now.

...

Just like what the Evergreen Immortal Emperor had said. The date of the decisive battle was today and the Southern Phoenix Clan was now in dire straits. The flames of war have enveloped the entire Southern Phoenix Clan completely.

At this moment, in the airspace above the Southern Phoenix Clan, the scene there was apocalyptic. Fresh blood splattered as screams of misery rent the air. A true dragon and a phoenix could be seen soaring through the skies, frenziedly battling against each other. The force of their blows were terrifying to the extreme.

The ancestral phoenix and Southern Phoenix Matriarch were doing their utmost, but in the entire perspective of the battlefield, the Southern Phoenix Clan was the one being suppressed. More and more holy maidens died, and the eyes of many maidens were filled with tears. When had their Southern Phoenix Clan been in such dire straits before? All of their kin were dying unceasingly on the battlefield.

The fierce battles made it so that no one noticed the teleportation array from the Evergreen Immortal Empire lighting up.

Right now, Nanfeng Yunxi was already a mid-stage immortal emperor. She was currently fighting against two other immortal emperors and as she saw one of her sisters being killed not far away from her, tears flowed uncontrollably down her face. At her moment of distraction, the manifestation of a fearsome dragon claw shot over, her body was even restricted by the other immortal emperor, making it so that she couldn't move at all. At this distance, she could clearly see the malevolent smiles on the faces of her opponents.

However, in an instant, a beam of terrible light descended abruptly, brimming with a mighty sword intent. Slashing sounds rang out, the two immortal emperors fighting against her suddenly screamed as their bodies were torn to shreds.

Nanfeng Yunxi froze. Soon after that, a figure entered her vision. This figure was clad in white, so clean that there wasn't a single speck of dust on him. His long hair fluttered in the wind and at this moment, Nanfeng Yunxi felt a sense of surrealism, as though she was dreaming.

Could it be that she was imagining things because she was about to die?

Chapter 1678: Imminent Destruction of the Ying Clan

Nanfeng Yunxi naturally wasn't imagining things. Qin Wentian had arrived. The moment he arrived, he already saw this shocking battle underway. With a sweep of his immortal sense, he immediately discovered that Nanfeng Yunxi was in danger and instantly decided to save her.

"Yunxi, it's me." Qin Wentian spoke lightly. Nanfeng Yunxi's entire body trembled violently as her eyes kept widening, revealing a dazzling light, staring fixedly at this man before her.

His white robes portrayed his magnificence, his black hair fluttered in the wind. Even his demeanor was way more outstanding compared to the past and he was even more handsome now. Beside him, Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng were quietly standing there. This must be reality.

"You…" Nanfeng Yunxi's ruby red lips trembled slightly as though she wanted to say something, yet she couldn't form a coherent sentence. He was alive? He was actually still alive? Was this true? Doubts kept flashing through Nanfeng Yunxi's mind.

At this moment, Qin Wentian inclined his head and glanced at the other directions before he coldly shouted, "Ceasefire!"

His voice was like thunder from the skies, causing the hearts of many to shudder. Those in combat involuntarily paused but the battles continued right away after a few moments. The chaotic battlefield was instantly interrupted by that thunder-like roar, it felt like just a single roar had the power to shake everyone's heart.

Nanfeng Shengge below inclined her head and stared at the person who spoke. Her eyes of stunning beauty stiffened. Was this white-robed figure real or a figment of her imagination?

Qin Wentian had no reactions as he stared at everyone. All of a sudden, a bright radiance radiated from him. This incomparably resplendent light illuminated this entire area, stretching unceasingly towards different directions. In fact, it could even twist about as it moved after splitting into countless streams. To her shock, Nanfeng Yunxi discovered that these streams of light continued to shine only on the bodies of the Ying Clan's experts. When the light landed on them, those Ying Clan's experts instantly froze as their bodies disintegrated into motes of light before they vanished completely.

This light, was like the radiance from the gods. Those who it shined upon all screamed in pain and misery before they vanished from this world. This peculiar scene was over a hundred times more threatening compared to the thunderous roar earlier. In just an instant, the chaotic battlefield halted once again as everyone stopped their battles. All of them were staring at a single direction - the direction of the source of that terrifying light.

Under the illumination of the blinding light, they saw a divinity-like figure clad in white. Qin Wentian stood there, floating in the air, bathing in the boundless radiance. He was truly like a god of light, capable of controlling all light in the world.

"Qin Wentian!"

"Did I see wrongly?" Many of the Southern Phoenix Clan felt their hearts trembling with shock, not daring to believe their eyes. Even the gaze of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch froze as she stared fixedly at that figure exuding boundless magnificence.

Strange, things were too strange.

A genius whose death was seen clearly by everyone a hundred plus years ago. He actually revived and came back from death, once again appearing in their vision. Also, not only was he still alive, he was even stronger than before, so strong that everyone in the Southern Phoenix Clan was shocked. So strong that everyone in the Ying Clan felt despair.

At that instant earlier, many of the Ying Clan's experts were either dead or heavily injured. The power of the burning light was simply too strong.

"Who are you?" The leader of the Ying Clan turned his gaze towards Qin Wentian. Those years in the past, he was there to spectate that war and he personally saw Qin Wentian being killed. How could Qin Wentian possibly have returned? Who exactly is this man in white before him?

The Ying Clan didn't participate in the war in the Evergreen Immortal Empire that year, but they had a conflict with him since the beginning. And today, the Evergreen Immortal Empire were allies with the Southern Phoenix Clan. When the Evergreen Immortal Empire was attacked, the Southern Phoenix Clan was also under attack as well. In that case, there was no need to doubt the Ying Clan had entered an alliance with those other attackers too and came to an agreement long ago. Hence, the Ying Clan were enemies.

"It has been so many years. Has the people of this layer of immortal realms completely forgotten about me?" Qin Wentian softly spoke. The wind breezed by as his robes and hair fluttered.

"I, Qin Wentian."

In this vast space, there was only silence. He, Qin Wentian.

However, how can he be Qin Wentian? Countless people has saw Qin Wentian's death back then. With so many peak characters at that war those years ago, there were so many major powers who wanted to ally and kill him. How could they be careless, not ensuring that he was truly dead? It was a fact that Qin Wentian's body had shattered and his soul dispersed. If not, his enemies wouldn't have let the matter drop.

But who was this man standing before them? Also, the two beauties standing beside him were both clearly Qin Wentian's wives.

"Senior Phoenix Matriarch." Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at the Southern Phoenix Matriarch. She was as imposing as ever, her beauty flawless.

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch stared at Qin Wentian. She was also filled with disbelief, but the truth was the truth. This figure before her eyes...if he wasn't Qin Wentian, who else could he be?

A smile appeared on her beautiful countenance, as well as a hint of exhaustion. When she saw Qin Wentian's dominance, she knew that by calling her 'senior,' it was only respect from him. If not, just by comparing strength, that burst of light earlier could have easily slain her as well if she was his enemy.

Qin Wentian has returned, becoming a dragon among men. The winds and clouds changed and from now on, the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms would welcome a magnificent era with an ancient emperor being born.

Would this entire immortal realm be united?

Nanfeng Yunxi smiled, but as she smiled, a teardrop suddenly flowed down her face. He was truly alive, and he has really returned.

"Oi, you really didn't die?" From below, a gentle voice rang out. Qin Wentian turned his gaze over towards a maiden as beautiful as a portrait as he laughed, "Shengge, when can you play a tune on your zither for me?"

Nanfeng Shengge's eyes were slightly red. She gently smiled, "Sure. Anytime. As long as you are willing to listen to it."

"Well, we have to settle this urgent matter before our eyes first then." Qin Wentian stared at his old friends. Nanfeng Yunxi, Nanfeng Shengge as well as the Southern Phoenix Matriarch. His emotions became much happier and he even involuntarily joked with Nanfeng Shengge.

"You've been to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?" At this moment, the Ying Clan Leader suddenly asked, his words causing Qin Wentian's eyes to flash, gleaming with sharpness as he turned to the Ying Clan Leader.

"How do you know about the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?" Qin Wentian calmly asked. His question has undoubtedly answered the Ying Clan Leader's question. He had indeed returned from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The people of the Southern Phoenix Clan felt their hearts shaking. No wonder Qin Wentian had disappeared for so many years. So it turned out that he has gone to other immortal realms.

"My Ying Clan's inheritance originates from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Our purpose this time is naturally to destroy the Southern Phoenix Clan and right now, experts from the Ying Clan of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have almost arrived within my Ying Clan." The Ying Clan Leader spoke, threatening Qin Wentian. His Ying Clan also had empyrean-level characters coming?

Qin Wentian glanced at the Southern Phoenix Matriarch only to see her furrowing her brows as she spoke, "No wonder the Ying Clan suddenly forced their troops into the Southern Phoenix City and stationed them there. Wentian, I've recently heard news that people from other immortal realms might have arrived in our Azure Mystic Immortal Realms."

Qin Wentian nodded lightly, he wasn't surprised by this at all. In the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, he already knew when he heard the discussions of everyone there that the ban on the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms had been relaxed. A storm would definitely occur.

He glanced at the many corpses lying on the battlefield. The vast majority of the corpses were the maidens of the Southern Phoenix Clan. They were clearly the disadvantaged side in this battle and had many casualties. If he didn't come here in time, the Southern Phoenix Clan might have been destroyed today.

"I have a debt of gratitude to Senior Phoenix Matriarch. Leaving aside all other things, since the Ying Clan has acted to exterminate the Southern Phoenix Clan completely today, there's no way the two clans would ever be able to live under the same skies again. Since that's the case, let the Ying Clan be destroyed then." Qin Wentian's voice rang out. He then stepped out as the incomparably resplendent radiance gushed forth from him once again. Beams of light then manifested, the terrifying glare shining upon an immortal emperor. That immortal emperor from the Ying Clan only had time to scream. An instant later, his body was disintegrated completely.

The other experts from the Ying Clan all had looks of terror on their faces. The Ying Clan Leader roared, "LEAVE NOW!"

But as the light radiated forth, who could flee? Under the stunned gazes of the Southern Phoenix Clan's experts, beams of light blasted into the experts of the Ying Clan as they died one after another, not a single person had the strength to resist. Upon looking at this scene where powerful emperors vanished one after another, even a character like the Southern Phoenix Matriarch felt herself trembling involuntarily.

What power was this? Qin Wentian, who had returned, was actually this strong. It was highly possible that he has already transcended the immortal emperor realm.

Was this the cultivation level spoken in the legends of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms? The ancient emperor level…

The Ying Clan Leader fled very fast but no matter how fast he was, he couldn't possibly be faster than light. When the light arrived, he struggled madly but the radiance completely burned through his body, turning him into dust.

That true dragon that was in the air, howled in madness. It struggled within the radiance but it was useless. Gradually, bit by bit, the gigantic body of the dragon vanished from the glare of the radiance.

All of these seemed to have verified Qin Wentian's earlier words.

The Ying Clan shall be destroyed!

A single sentence decided the life and death of the immensely powerful ancient Ying Clan, a hegemon of the southern regions of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng quietly watched. They were exceptionally quiet. To them, no matter how shocking Qin Wentian's strength was, it was no longer shocking. He himself was basically a miracle. In addition, what they cared about also wasn't how strong he was. As long as he was alive and present, everything would be wonderful.

The people of the Southern Phoenix CLan no longer had words to describe the shock in their hearts. Even the description 'tidal waves of shock rocking their hearts,' was insufficient to describe their current emotions.

It has been close to two hundred years and the immortal realms had changed completely. Countless geniuses rose up, each of them extremely talented individuals, heading to the City of Ancient Emperors to gain enlightenment from the dao elements. But what were these geniuses when compared to Qin Wentian? They weren't even worthy of a mention.

Looking at the young man in white, a ridiculous notion suddenly appeared in their minds. This young man that was deeply connected by fate with their Southern Phoenix Clan, was he actually the prophesized ancient emperor of this generation?

Upon thinking of this, their hearts pounded madly. They were witnessing a true living legend.

As expected, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch truly had good judgement. In the past, if it wasn't for her making the effort to befriend Qin Wentian, Qin Wentian might not have appeared today to save the Southern Phoenix Clan from their crisis. Although Qin Wentian had a good relationship with Nanfeng Yunxi, Nanfeng Yunxi couldn't represent the entire Southern Phoenix Clan after all. It was only because of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch's attitude back then, participating in that war in the past, fighting for him numerous times which led to their salvation today.

And it was also because of that that there was today - the destruction of the Ying Clan!

Chapter 1679: New Hegemon of the Eastern Regions

The Ying Clan was one of the three great ancient clans of the southern regions. They established a Ying Empire and was immensely powerful. However, Qin Wentian crushed all of them with the might of himself alone. Upon radiating that light, all the Ying Clan's experts died one after another, none could escape. What power was this? He was like a God that could control the lives of the myriad of living things.

Although the Southern Phoenix Clan had a feeling of renewed life after a calamity, when they saw the corpses of many of their kin and comrades on the ground, their expressions turned incomparably heavy once more. This caused the Southern Phoenix Matriarch to sigh silently in her heart.

"Wentian, you have saved the Southern Phoenix Clan this time." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch walked towards Qin Wentian as she spoke. In the past, to her, Qin Wentian was just a junior with outstanding talent. But now, Qin Wentian had already surpassed her.

"Phoenix Matriarch, there's no need to be so polite with me." Qin Wentian smiled.

"You should have heard the words of the Ying Clan Leader earlier. If the Ying Clan from the Supreme Ancient Realms really did send reinforcements…" The Southern Phoenix Matriarch felt extremely worried. The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was the legendary upper world. She didn't know what sorts of experts would descend from there.

"To think that the Ying Clan actually originated from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Since the Ying Clan decided to wipe the Southern Phoenix Clan out today, only one side would have been able to survive. Even if I didn't destroy the Ying Clan, when their experts descend, would they spare me if they are stronger than me?" Qin Wentian smiled. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch instantly understood Qin Wentian's meaning. That's right, both sides wanted to exterminate each other completely, and wouldn't stop until one side was obliterated. If Qin Wentian show mercy today, and the reinforcements for the Ying Clan who came in the future were stronger than him, would they show mercy and not destroy the Southern Phoenix Clan and kill Qin Wentian? And if the experts they sent were weaker than Qin Wentian, was there a need for her to fear them?

"Phoenix Matriarch, you can set your heart at ease. There's a ban on entering the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Although the ban is now relaxed, those who could enter here definitely wouldn't have cultivation bases higher than me." Qin Wentian soothed. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch laughed and nodded when she heard that. "Wentian, given your current cultivation base now, it's not suitable to refer to me as the Southern Phoenix Matriarch. You can directly refer to me by my name, Nanfeng Yaoyue."

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch, the Evergreen Great Emperor, all of them had impressive titles. For example, if Qin Wentian currently encountered an immortal emperor, did he still need to respectfully refer to them with their titles? How could any immortal emperor be worthy enough for that? Although Qin Wentian didn't mind and continued to refer to the Southern Phoenix Matriarch by her title, it didn't mean that the Southern Phoenix Matriarch could ignore Qin Wentian's current strength. It was only because they had a close relationship before that she continued to call him Wentian. If they were not familiar, she could only refer to him as Senior despite the fact that he was much younger than her.

Many people from the Southern Phoenix Clan had strange expressions on their faces. The vast majority of them didn't know of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch's real name. Now, they finally learned of it, to think that she would have such a gentle name.

"Since phoenix matriarch has spoken, I will call you directly by your name then." Qin Wentian carefreely laughed. He might have a debt of gratitude to repay to the Southern Phoenix Matriarch but she was ultimately an elder after all. Right now, it was most suitable for them to interact as friends.

"Yaoyue, these are some messaging crystals. This is yours, I've already imprinted my strand of immortal sense into it. If you want to look for me, you can send a strand of your immortal sense in and communicate with me. Also, you need to leave behind a strand of immortal sense in my messaging crystal as well. It would be easier for us to communicate directly in the future." Qin Wentian spoke. As he spoke, everyone understood that these crystals were definitely treasures for conversing in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. This method was much better compared to them leaving strands of protective immortal sense on their junior's body.

The phoenix matriarch nodded, she directly sent a strand of her immortal sense into Qin Wentian's crystal and kept the others he took out. With a wave of his hand, two messaging crystals appeared again and floated towards Nanfeng Yunxi and Nanfeng Shengge. He smiled, "This is something I'm giving you two privately. There's no need to get them from the Southern Phoenix Matriarch. My immortal sense is within them, you two can also leave your immortal sense inside my messaging crystal."

Nanfeng Yunxi and Nanfeng Shengge smiled and nodded. Right now, QinWentian's identity was completely different, he could directly refer to the Southern Phoenix Matriarch by her name. But so what of it? They were still his good friends. With the messaging crystals, they could find Qin Wentian for a leisurely chat at anytime.

Many people turned their envious gazes on to the two maidens. This was what connection is. What sort of character was Qin Wentian now? He was an existence at the ancient emperor level, he naturally wouldn't leave his immortal sense inside all the messaging crystals he gave the Southern Phoenix Matriarch. Those who could communicate directly with him were only those he deemed friends - the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, Nanfeng Yunxi and Nanfeng Shengge.

Everyone then turned their gazes to Qing'er and Mo Qingcheng who stood beside Qin Wentian. That year when Qin Wentian died, the hair of this princess of the Evergreen Immortal Empire turned white in an instant. She then became the White-Hair Killing Goddess after that. Mo Qingcheng's expression turned ashen as her heart died, she became something resembling a zombie. It was rumored that she only recovered gradually after many years of comforting by Princess Qing'er. During these years, the two of them have experienced too many things and endured too much. Right now, the dark clouds have finally passed and the sun has appeared.

"Temporarily seal the news of the matter here. Do not spread it out or the allies of our enemies won't jump into my trap." Qin Wentian spoke. All the Ying Clan's members here on the battlefield today were insta-killed by him, they didn't have time to send any news back. As long as the Southern Phoenix Clan members didn't leak the news here, no one would know that this deed was done by Qin Wentian. He still had debts of revenge unaccounted for from those years ago. It was best to seal all the information about the matter today here temporarily or his enemies would all be so scared that they would go into hiding.

"Did you guys hear it? If anyone dares to reveal any information about the matter here today, their cultivation bases will be crippled. In addition, go and clean up the battlefield and issue hunting orders. Kill every Ying Clan member that's still living in the immortal realms." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch imposingly commanded. The expressions of everyone turned heavy. Qin Wentian had saved their clan, since he didn't want any news to be leaked, they would naturally follow his orders. They also knew that Qin Wentian wanted revenge for the war those years ago in the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

More than half of the major powers in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms had participated, all of them wanting his death. Although they didn't know how Qin Wentian survived that, but this debt, including the sufferings Evergreen Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng had to endure through all these years… there was no doubt that this debt had to be accounted for.

"I have not finished settling the matters in the Evergreen Immortal Empire yet. Yaoyue, I'll return first." Qin Wentian spoke.

"All the strongest experts of the Ying Clan have already been killed. The following matters are easy to handle. Let me go back with you." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch spoke. Nanfeng Yunxi, Nanfeng Shengge and several other maidens decided to follow her as well. After that, all of them entered the teleportation array and instantly returned back to the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

Upon seeing Qin Wentian returning so quickly and even bringing the Southern Phoenix Matriarch with him, the eyes of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, the White Emperor and the others all gleamed sharply. The troubles the Southern Phoenix Clan was facing were all resolved so easily?

"Evergreen, you recovered from your injuries?" The Southern Phoenix Matriarch asked.

"Mhm, they are almost fully recovered, all thanks to that little brat." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor laughed, he still referred to Qin Wentian as 'little brat,' which caused the gaze of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch to flicker. This Evergreen must truly be very satisfied. There was no choice though, after all, who told him to be the father-in-law of Qin Wentian? There was naturally no problems for him to refer to Qin Wentian as 'little brat.'

"Seems like you are in a very good mood." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch smiled. She then glanced at the situation here. The subordinates of Qin Wentian had surrounded the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor and his allies. None of them dared to make any moves recklessly.

"These immortal emperors are…?" The phoenix matriarch glanced at Qin Wentian.

"They are subordinates Qin Wentian brought back with him when he returned. We are now waiting for the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor and his allies to call for reinforcements." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor directly replied for Qin Wentian. The heart of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch trembled with shock. Qin Wentian had such a large group of immortal emperors as his subordinates. Seems like the sky over the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms was truly about to change.

When the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperors and his allies saw the Southern Phoenix Matriarch and the members of the Southern Phoenix Clan here, their faces all grew extremely ugly to behold. What was going on with the Ying Clan? Could it be that they hadn't yet launched the decisive final blow to destroy the Southern Phoenix Clan?

"The Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire is located in the central regions. If we wait for them to send reinforcements, it might require some time." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch spoke.

"These people are on the verge of death. If they want to live, they would definitely tell their reinforcements to spare no expense and rush here with their greatest speed via the teleportation arrays. I believe that they would be able to do it." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. The phoenix matriarch nodded, that's true.

Qin Wentian wasn't in a hurry. He took out many messaging crystals. There were naturally no need to mention about Qing`er and Qingcheng. He had long given them one. Now, he passed these crystals to the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and the others and after a round of testing, all of them felt that this messaging crystal was extremely convenient to use.

"How are the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord, Bai Wuya and my junior apprentice brother Jun Mengchen? Qing`er, do you know the whereabouts of Little Rascal?" Qin Wentian asked. These people whom he mentioned were those he had missed a lot.

He had a debt of gratitude to Senior Bai Wuya and Jun Mengchen has always been like a real younger brother to him.

Qing`er furrowed her brows as a cold intent flashed past her face. The eyes of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and Southern Phoenix Matriarch gleamed with sharpness. After that, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor spoke, "Let me explain it. During these years while you left, the entire immortal realms were in chaos. You have also seen the state my Evergreen Immortal Empire was in. The various powers of the eastern regions all lost their splendor and glory of the psat. The Skymist Immortal Empire, the Paragon Sword Sect and the Taihua Immortal Dynasty were all disbanded. The Sky Demon Palace collapsed, only the Beast God Sect that's located in an extremely cold location is still left standing. Can you guess who currently is the strongest power in the eastern regions?"

"I have no idea." Qin Wentian shook his head.

"The Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor spoke, his words causing Qin Wentian's eyes to gleam with sharpness.

"The Heavenly Talisman Realm?" Qin Wentian instantly thought of the Heavenly Talisman Realm. He naturally understood that the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was none other than a front for the Heavenly Talisman Realm. Was the Heavenly Talisman Realm finally planning on coming out from behind the scenes? Even Qin Wentian, who was once a disciple of the Heavenly Talisman Realm, had no idea how many members they had. But there was no doubt that the Heavenly Talisman Realm here in Azure Mystic would surely be extremely powerful.

He didn't interrupt. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor continued, "Initially, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was pressured and forced by Eastern Sage to disband. However, they suddenly revived and appeared again, revealing their trump cards. They actually had an army of immortal emperors hiding in reserve and even more immortal kings. They then started to display their strength, wanting to rule the eastern regions, claiming hegemony here, wanting all the various powers to submit. They started first by wiping out the Violet Emperor's violet mountain. The Violet Emperor had no choice and could only join Eastern Sage, throwing his lot in with Old Devil Duo Tian. After that, when the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect wanted the Sky Demon Palace to submit, they refused and what awaited them was a complete annihilation. If it wasn't for the fact that the Skymist Immortal Empire, the Paragon Sword Sect and the Taihua Immortal Dynasty had long disbanded, they would most probably face the same choice - either to submit or be destroyed. The Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect actually rose up in such chaotic times within such a short period, becoming the strongest peak power in the entire eastern regions.

"Many people could see how ambitious the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect is. However, chaos reigned supreme in the current immortal realms and the wars are unceasing. The Ying Clan and the the Southern Phoenix Clan have always been in opposition, even my Evergreen Immortal Empire had already been embroiled in the conflict right from the beginning. All of us have too much to handle, who would still dare to antagonize the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect at this moment? There was once a demon race who wanted to ally with the other demonic races to wipe the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect out. After the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect learned of it, they directly exterminated that demonic race. Right now in the immortal realms, only a scarce few have enough power to contend directly against the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. In such chaotic times, the other major powers could only choose to ally with each other for the sake of survival."

"The Heavenly Talisman Realm is clearly wanting to use the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect to become the hegemon of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Dominating the eastern regions is merely their first step." Qin Wentian silently mused. This time around, if it wasn't for the fact that the ban had been relaxed, the Heavenly Talisman Realm's plan might have truly succeeded. But now, since so many experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have descended here, it was hard to say, things weren't so clear now.

"Jun Mengchen's personality is too hot headed and direct. That person was named a traitor, he has already left the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect." The next sentence of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor instantly caused Qin Wentian's heart to tense with nervousness!

Chapter 1680: Storm of Blood

Qin Wentian had extremely deep karma with the Heavenly Talisman Realm. Ever since senior Bai Wuya inducted him into the Heavenly Talisman Realm, he was considered a disciple there, taking the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord as his master. He did have a sense of belonging to the Heavenly Talisman Realm and was very respectful to many apprentice brothers from there. An example was, Bai Wuya, the senior that inducted Jun Mengchen, the Saberlord of Death, Tuoba Saintsky and the others who fought side by side with him those years ago.

The Heavenly Talisman Realm has always treated him as a core disciple to be nurtured, he could definitely sense this. All this lasted until the time where more than half of the peak powers in the immortal realms wanted his death. At that time, other than Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya from the Heavenly Talisman Realm, no one else appeared. He understood that at that point of time, the Heavenly Talisman Realm probably felt that the time wasn't right yet. In order to hunt him down, over half of the peak powers joined in alliance. If the Heavenly Talisman Realm acted then, they would have exposed their identities before they were ready and would definitely encounter strong resistance.

And after his death, the immortal realms entered a period of chaos. The opportunity the Heavenly Talisman Realm was waiting for finally arrived. They used the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect as a front, wanting to dominate the world. The ambition of the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord could clearly be seen. Everything that happened in the past was just preparation for what would happen next. His final goal must be to unify Azure Mystic, becoming the hegemonic lord of these immortal realms.

The disciples of the Heavenly Talisman Realm are countless and given how chaotic the world is now, as well as the Heavenly Talisman Realm's ambitions, many would surely answer the call and fight for the Heavenly Talisman Realm. Most probably, many people were just staying low profile and waiting for a chance to burst forth with brilliance. Who would be willing to remain nameless forever? Since the world was so chaotic now, it was only natural many disciples would answer the call for war.

But why would Jun Mengchen become a traitor?

How would the Heavenly Talisman Realm deal with traitors?

His gaze was filled with nervousness as he stared at the Evergreen Immortal Emperor. He has always treated Jun Mengchen like a real brother.

"Jun Mengchen has once come to my emperor palace before. Right now, he is also extremely famous in the immortal realms and has the title of Dominance Immortal Emperor. His cultivation base is equal to Qing`er's, his combat prowess is extremely strong. There's an extremely strong power behind the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and Jun Mengchen is one of their disciples. Back then when you were in danger and was surrounded by the many enemies, that power chose to stand by and watch you die. Jun Mengchen has always been felt resentment over this. I believe that he must have gone to beg that power for help but he didn't succeed. Other than that, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect also chose to break off the alliance when my Evergreen

Immortal Empire was in danger. They said that only if my Evergreen Immortal Empire was willing to submit to them would they be willing to send us reinforcements.

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor continued, "Jun Mengchen was extremely unhappy about this and fell out with the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. Because of this incident, he was even pursued by his ex-sect and right now, his movements are a mystery. From my deduction, if it wasn't because the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect hopes for my Evergreen Immortal Empire to clash with our enemies as both sides weaken, they would have already sent out troops to force us into submission, not allowing us to exist."

As Qin Wentian listened, he felt increasingly complicated in his heart. He has left for so many years and truly, even the seas have turned into mulberry fields. Everything has changed.

"How about the Emperor Lord and Bai Wuya?" Qin Wentian continued to ask, pressed by his concern for them.

"Right now on the surface, the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord is still the leader of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect but in reality, he no longer has any authority. I'm not very sure about Bai Wuya's current situation." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor shook his head.

"Also, Little Rascal and Purgatory have never returned after that war earlier. However, I heard some news that Little Rascal would frequently appear in the Desolate Mountain Range and had devoured many experts from the Phoeroc Race, Void Beast Race, White Tiger Race and many others from the various demonic races. Jia Yemo of the Phoeroc Race had long issued a sure-kill order against him. The demon emperor of the Sun Gold Race and White Tiger Race both also wants his life." Qing`er added from the side. To summarize, it means that Little Rascal had created trouble and it was a major one. Most probably, it should be because of his death.

"What about the Myriad Devil Islands? Any news from there? The Judiciary Priestess of the Judiciary Devil Hall, do you all know anything? Also, back then Qi Yu and his clan members who became my followers, what has become of them now?" Qin Wentian continued to ask.

"Qi Yu and the others should be still cultivating silently, they didn't participate in any of the battles after chaos rocked the world. As for the Judiciary Priestess of the Judicary Devil Hall, she is now known as the Blood Empress, the Grand Priestess of Blood." Qing`er continued. In the past, given her personality, she wouldn't be inclined to be concerned with outside news. But now, she was very well informed about the current events in the outside world. During these years, her transformation had been exceedingly great because there were many things that needed to be depended on her.

"Blood Empress, the Grand Priestess of Blood…" Qin Wentian felt his heart trembling. That little lass Bai Qing...what has she experienced during these years exactly?

"What's the general current situation in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms?" Qin Wentian continued asking.

"Many supreme geniuses have appeared, capable of taking charge of an area. The geniuses of your generation, those peak characters of the City of Ancient Emperors, all had started on their path of rising up. Many major powers were exterminated in the immortal realms, vanishing like dust and clouds, becoming history. The various peak powers of the north fought extremely brutal wars against the demon races. Their empires are located closest to the Desolate Mountain Range and they would often encounter beast tides that wanted to overrun them."

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor continued, "As for the central regions, things are the most chaotic and complicated there. Many powers were being assimilated by stronger ones and it's the same for the demon races like the White Tiger Race that resides in the west. Those weaker demon races all submitted to the more powerful greater demons. In the western regions, only a few greater demon races remain, they have completely absorbed the other weaker races under them. As for the situation in the north, you should already have a clearer understanding of that. For the south, the Jiang Clan still remains mysterious and low-profile, their foundations are so deep that they cause people to feel fear. They possess many mysterious techniques and secret arts, and seem to be waiting for an opportunity. And with regards to the eastern regions...you've already seen everything here."

"Other than these, there are also some remnant powers that decided to form an alliance. An example is the Violet Emperor and Eastern Sage. They actually chose to join Old Devil Duo Tian, causing Duo Tian's faction's strength to become immensely powerful. My injury was caused by them and I narrowly escaped death. If you didn't return in time this time around, the Evergreen Immortal Empire would have been vanquished today, completely disappearing from the immortal realms, becoming history."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with coldness. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor's words about the general situation of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms could be summarized with a single word - chaotic. This entire immortal realm was in complete chaos. And right now, in addition to the empyreans from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms descending here, there would only be chaos upon chaos.

To think that the hegemon of the eastern regions would actually be the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect that was controlled by the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

They continued to chat and discuss about many things. From away from here, glimmers of bright lights finally could be seen as the reinforcements that the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor called for finally arrived. Those who came were all immortal emperors and all of them were from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire. The Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire was still a peak power in the central regions, their strength was very terrifying as they had many immortal emperors. This time around, they didn't even need to send out their full force to destroy the Evergreen Immortal Empire initially. But sadly, they didn't have a choice and had to come here now no matter what.

Qin Wentian even saw someone familiar - Huang Shatian. Now, Huang Shatian naturally was already an immortal emperor expert. Huang Shatian's talent was originally already extremely outstanding and had succeeded in gaining insights in a dao element, how could he fall behind others? He, who was at the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm, had an extraordinary demeanor different from others.

The reinforcements glanced at the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor and many other immortal emperors that were surrounded as they couldn't help but to frown. After that, they saw the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Matriarch Ji and the Southern Phoenix Matriarch all being present as their expressions involuntarily grew unsightly.

Even if they came here to give aid, it was clear that their strengths weren't enough to fight against these three peak-stage immortal emperors. As for the Skymist Immortal Emperor and Paragon Sword Emperor who were among those being surrounded, they already had no more forces under them who survived. They had no reinforcements to call for.

Huang Shatian also saw Qin Wentian. His expression became extremely fascinating to behold, fixedly staring at him. The Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor's words were actually real. Qin Wentian didn't die and he had brought an army of immortal emperors with him when he returned.

"Where are the people of the Senluo Immortal Empire?" The Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor coldly asked. Their empire had entered an alliance with the Senluo Immortal Empire.

"They didn't show up." A subordinate replied with an ugly look on his face. He could feel the danger here, and when comparing the strength of both sides, their side was clearly the weaker one. They were in an extremely disadvantageous situation.

Qin Wentian glanced over as he slowly began to move closer too. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch and the Evergreen Immortal Emperor both followed behind him. Qing`er and Qingcheng were beside him, and Matriarch Ji and her disciples followed after as well. All these people were actually content to allow Qin Wentian to lead them.

"After waiting for so long, only the people from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire are here to court death?" Qin Wentian emotionlessly spoke. After all, the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor himself was here, could the others of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire not come?

"Qin Wentian, if you start a battle now, both sides would have no benefits." The Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor coldly spoke. They also had plenty of immortal emperors on their side.

"Kill them all without mercy." Qin Wentian calmly stated, he couldn't be bothered to waste words with them. In an instant, the monarchs, governors and his other subordinates all radiated emperor light as they launched their attacks. Qin Wentian took a step out, moving across space, directly appearing before the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor. With a single glance, the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor felt the universe twisting as he fell inside a law domain.

The divine weapon behind him radiated a resplendent brilliance. However, Qin Wentian simply walked towards him step by step with no fear at all. "If it wasn't for me wanting to lure your other allies out, things wouldn't need to be so troublesome. The Ying Clan was destroyed not long ago. Now, the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire shall be exterminated as well.

"The Ying Clan was already destroyed?" The Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor felt his heart pounding violently. Qin Wentian only went there for such a short period of time, the Ying Clan was already destroyed?

"What is your current cultivation realm?" Inside the phantasm domain, the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor stared at Qin Wentian as he asked.

"Above the emperor realm." Qin Wentian replied. With a single glance, the sword might from the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor reversed their flows and directly pierced into the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor's eyes. Even the burst of light from his emperor-ranked divine weapon reversed its trajectory and blasted into the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor. He could only scream in pain and agony as his eyes became blinded, his body trembling from fear.

Above the emperor realm, an existence equivalent to ancient emperors…

Today, the Ying Clan was destroyed and the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire was exterminated, their names would soon be removed from the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

That year, the young man so many major powers gathered in the Evergreen Immortal Empire to kill, was actually still alive and had returned now. Did their decision back then cause their entire empire to be exterminated today?

As long as Qin Wentian acted, there would be no suspense in the battle. Even though Qin Wentian suppressed his cultivation base and used only the strength of a peak-stage immortal emperor, he could still dominate everyone here. Hence, he, in addition to his subordinates, quickly ensured that the reinforcements that just arrived died in droves left and right.

The Skymist Immortal Emperor, the Paragon Sword Emperor and the Taihua Immortal Lord were all terrorized. They started to flee but how could they escape? The return of Qin Wentian made it so that the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms was destined to be cleansed by blood.

Very soon, numerous corpses laid on the ground in the ruins of the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Who would have thought that these people were all legendary characters of a peak power that could summon the rain and call for the wind? Even Huang Shatian had died. This heaven chosen that once competed with Qin Wentian, had died just like that, fell by the hands of a monarch even before he could cross blows with Qin Wentian.

A legendary figure rising up would always be fated to step upon numerous corpses. Naturally, the people who died were not only those in the same generation as him, there were also those older ones in the elder generations which he had already surpassed.

The Ying Clan was destroyed, the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire exterminated. All these seemed to be merely the beginning. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor didn't act from the beginning to the end. But when he saw the scene before his eyes, he understood that this immortal realm, alongside with Qin Wentian's return, would be cleansed by a storm of blood!

Chapter 1681: Commotion in Azure Mystic

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor didn't know that he hasn't seen the full extent of Qin Wentian's true strength yet. He held back when he killed the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor and the others. If he displayed a strength that was too powerful, there would most probably be many people who would choose to turtle and hide away. This was why Qin Wentian had only displayed a strength that a peak-stage immortal emperor was capable of. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch and the others knew of Qin Wentian's intentions, they didn't say anything. Back then, there were simply too many major powers who wanted to hunt Qin Wentian down. These people who just died were merely the tip of the iceberg.

After the Ying Clan was annihilated, the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, the Skymist Immortal Emperor, the Paragon Sword Emperor, the Taihua Immortal Lord and the others joined forces to destroy the Evergreen Immortal Empire but they were all completely exterminated. Such a piece of shocking news naturally couldn't be hidden for long. Very swiftly, it circulated to the various peak powers of the immortal realms.

How had the Southern Phoenix Clan and the Evergreen Immortal Empire accomplished that? The news that was circulated out stated that back then in the past, when over half of the peak powers of the immortal realms gathered to hunt Qin Wentian, that supreme genius down, he actually didn't die and had returned here alive. He also brought a group of immortal emperors that acted as his troops, dominating everything. His current cultivation base was at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm and he had transcendent combat prowess, effortlessly crushing even a character like the Nine-Emperors Immortal Emperor.

It was precisely because of Qin Wentian's return that the Ying Clan was annihilated and the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire's immortal emperors all died, alongside with the Skymist Immortal Emperor, the Paragon Sword Emperor and the Taihua Immortal Lord. These people were all leaders of their respective powers. Since they died, their subordinates, if there were any remaining, would naturally be dispersed as well because all their leaders had already been killed by Qin Wentian.

Countless people were shocked by this news. Qin Wentian had returned and became a killing god, seeking revenge.

No one suspected the authenticity of this matter. It was impossible to mask the fact that Qin Wentian has returned. He must have had a miraculous encounter and survived, possibly being sent to the other immortal realms before coming back here when he grew strong enough. Since he could already kill immortal emperors when he was at the immortal king realm, now that he was at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm, who in this world would be able to obstruct him?

After that, the Evergreen Immortal Empire and the Southern Phoenix Clan took the initiative to send out more news. If those major powers who participated in the war earlier all took the initiative to head to the Evergreen Immortal Empire and commit suicide, Qin Wentian was willing not to implicate their clans in his revenge.

There were also voices saying that those years ago, the death of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's son and the Violet Emperor's nephew were all orchestrated by Qin Wentian. He wanted these two old dogs to take the initiative to head to the Evergreen Immortal Empire to die and he can let them die straightforwardly if they did so. As for Old Devil Duo Tian, he protected Eastern Sage and had once launched a sneak attack at Qin Wentian at the Demon God Mountain. Old Devil Duo Tian was to obediently crawl his way over to the Evergreen Immortal Empire and cripple his own cultivation. If he did that, Qin Wentian was willing to spare his dog life.

A single stone caused a thousand-story wave. A storm was rising in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

Countless people found it hard to sleep, their hearts were filled with trepidation and an intense sense of terror.

Qin Wentian returned in such a domineering manner, helping the Southern Phoenix Clan to annihilate the ancient Ying Clan and aiding the Evergreen Immortal Empire to exterminate the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, as well as the Skymist Immortal Emperor and the others. He even brought an army of immortal emperors back. Who would be able to block him from taking revenge?

That supreme unrivaled genius, he has returned. He used such an iron-blooded method to announce his return, telling the two peak-stage immortal emperors, Eastern Sage and the Violet Emperor to go to the Evergreen Immortal Empire to commit suicide. He also wanted the participants from the major powers those years ago to do the same.

There was only a single thing worthy of everyone's focus right now in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. That focal point was none other than Qin Wentian.

There were those youngsters below the age of two hundred that didn't know who Qin Wentian was. Hence, their elders all started to tell them about the legendary genius from those years ago. For a period of time, countless experts of the younger generation all looked up with respect to Qin Wentian, treating him like a symbol of faith, taking him as their target to surpass. In their eyes, Qin Wentian would even dare to tell the sun and moon to swap themselves, he could do anything.

In the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, it was unknown how many people couldn't eat or rest in peace after they heard the news.

In a mysterious mountain range of the immortal realms, a black-colored mist permeated the area. In the depths of this mountain range, an ancient looking palace could be seen. At this moment, a few figures soared through the air, directly landing in the palace's courtyard.

"Ridiculous, that old fox is so crafty. To think that we actually failed to kill him." The Violet Emperor icily spoke. This time, he, Old Devil Duo Tian and Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor acted together. They were three peak-stage immortal emperors and had joined forces to deal with a single man, yet they still failed to kill their target. Although they heavily injured their target, their target still managed to escape after all.

And the person they were targeting, was none other than their old opponent, Emperor Yu.

During these years, Emperor Yu was like a specter that kept haunting them. Eastern Sage had almost died quite a few times in Emperor Yu's hands. This old fellow even pursued them to their headquarters and killed many people before vanishing without a trace. To them, Emperor Yu was nothing but trouble.

At this moment, a black-robed figure rushed in with great speed. He immediately bowed when he saw the three peak-stage emperors. "Master, Violet Emperor, Senior Eastern Sage."

"What is it that made you so panicky." Old Devil Duo Tian asked.

"Master, have you heard the news about the Evergreen Immortal Empire and the Southern Phoenix Clan?" That black-robed man asked.

"I initially wanted to go along with Nine-Emperors, Skymist and the rest to destroy the Evergreen Immortal Empire but was obstructed by that old thief Emperor Yu. I've been trying to hunt Yu down during these few days. Why? Don't tell me that the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire and Ying Clan had failed to take down their targets?" Old Devil Duo Tian asked.

"Earlier, I was worried that Master had something important to handle outside and hence, I didn't dare to disturb. But now that Master is back, this disciple immediately rushed here because I have an important matter to report to Master. The Ying Clan and the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire have been completely destroyed along with their allies, including the Skymist Immortal Emperor, the Taihua Immortal Lord, the Paragon Sword Emperor…" The black-robed man continued.

"What?" A terrifying aura gushed forth from Old Devil Duo Tian. The eyes of the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor and the Violet Emperor gleamed with a fearsome glow as they stared at him.

"What's going on?" Old Devil Duo Tian was as expected of a peak-level character, he instantly calmed down and asked.

"Qin Wentian has returned." That black-robed man bowed.

"What did you say?" A cold intent radiated from the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor. "Qin Wentian?"

"Insolence. Qin Wentian was killed a hundred plus years ago. Are you telling me that he came back from hell?" The Violet Emperor also coldly spoke.

"Qin Wentian didn't die. He has truly returned and even brought an army of immortal emperors back, helping the Southern Phoenix Clan to destroy the Ying Clan, and helping the Evergreen Immortal Empire to vanquished their foes. And…" The black-robed man hesitated, staring at the three of them.

"And what? Speak." Old Devil Duo Tian spoke.

"This disciple doesn't dare to." The black-robed expert lowered his head.

"Just speak, I'll pardon you." Old Devil Duo Tian radiated an intense imposingness. That disciple trembled with trepidation, "And, Qin Wentian insulted senior Violet Emperor and Eastern Sage, saying that the deaths of Dongsheng Ting and Violet Emperor's nephew in the past were orchestrated by him. He wants the two seniors to go to the Evergreen Immortal Empire to commit suicide and Master, if you go there and cripple your own cultivation base, he would spare your dog li…"

Upon feeling the immense pressure the three peak-stage emperors were radiating, the black-robed man no longer dared to continued speaking. Old Devil Duo Tian turned and glanced at the Violet Emperor and Eastern Sage. "That brat you guys wanted to kill truly has an extremely tough life. He actually didn't die?"

"Impossible. Back then, everyone was present. He was truly killed, it is impossible for him to have survived." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor still didn't believe it. However, he understood that this disciple wouldn't dare to lie to them, let alone lying to his master Old Devil Duo Tian.

...

In the saint hall of the Sacred Sun Sect, many experts were paying their respects to their clan leader. However, the expression of the Sacred Sun Sect Leader now was extremely unsightly to behold. Back then, the Sacred Sun Sect had also joined in to kill Qin Wentian. And now, to think that Qin Wentian was actually still alive. This definitely wasn't good news to them. What was even more terrifying was that Qin Wentian was not only incomparably strong himself, he even had an army of immortal emperors serving under him.

"Continue to monitor the situation in the Evergreen Immortal Empire and the Southern Phoenix Clan. Also, communicate with the other major powers who participated in the war against Qin Wentian back then to discuss a strategy." The Sacred Sun Sect Leader gave the order, wanting ally with those other major powers once again. From this, it could be seen how highly he regarded this matter. He couldn't not regard it highly because the Ying Clan and the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire were both destroyed. Not unless he had a death wish.

The elder of the Phoeroc Race, Ye Jiamo, was extremely enraged after he learned of this news. That heaven-devouring beast they were hunting was not dead yet and now, he even learned about the news of Qin Wentian being alive. Since Qin Wentian was still alive, he will simply make sure he dies one more time. Jia Yemo instantly contacted the Sun Gold Race, the Heavenhold Race, the void beast race and the White Tiger Race. Right now, these demonic races were all peak powers each governing an area. If they joined forces, their strength would naturally be extremely terrifying.

The Jiang Clan learned of the news the earliest. Because, they were also located in the southern regions, the same as the Southern Phoenix Clan and the Ying Clan. They would naturally pay attention to the battle of the other two peak powers. Hence, when the Ying Clan was destroyed, the Jiang Clan instantly felt that something was strange and they launched an investigation. After that, they almost instantly learned about the news that Qin Wentian has returned.

Right now in the great hall of the Jiang Clan, a group of immortal emperors stood together. An elder of the Jiang Clan glanced at them and asked, "What do you all think?"

"It's good that Qin Wentian is still alive, we can let them fight and injure each other. In any case, our Jiang Clan won't be participating in the crazy battles." Jiang Zihua laughed, his deep eyes seemed capable of seeing through everything.

"Elder brother is right. Our Jiang Clan only needs to watch and act at the last moment, unifying the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. It would be best if we can somehow make Qin Wentian and the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect clash." Jiang Ziyu also agreed. Right now, Jiang Ziyu was already an initial-stage immortal emperor.

"Mhm, let's watch and see for now." The elder of the Jiang Clan nodded.

....

As for the other buddha-aligned power, the Askheart Temple, the monks there usually wouldn't be bothered about external things. But now, someone was asking a Reverend who was seated inside a buddha hall this question, "Abbot, back then Qin Wentian was clearly killed. How did he come back alive again? Could it be because of reincarnation? But even if he reincarnated, it shouldn't be so fast, right?"

The Reverend still had his eyes closed, as though he wasn't surprised by this question at all. He calmly replied, "Sir Qin has fate with the buddha-path and the karma between has yet to conclude, he naturally wouldn't die. Long ago, I've already said that the karma they planted then, would definitely have to be sowed some day. And now, retribution is coming for them."

...

Right now inside the Senluo Great Hall of the Senluo Immortal Empire, the scene was different. The Senluo Immortal Emperor was as imposing as ever but right now, he was actually standing beside the throne. The throne wasn't empty, someone else was currently sitting on it. The people below all knelt and paid their respects as they bowed, "We respectfully welcome the arrival of the esteemed envoy."

"Mhm, the expert on the throne was extremely terrifying. His eyes swept through everyone, causing their hearts to be filled with trepidation. Even immortal emperors didn't dare to incline their heads."

"You guys have developed here for so many years but the Senluo Immortal Empire only has this much strength in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms? This seat is seriously too disappointed. I heard that just a group of immortal emperors have already made all of you so afraid that you don't even dare to fight. With such cowardice, how can our clan rule over Azure Mystic?" That envoy coldly spoke, his tone tinged with a heavy arrogance but no one present dared to refute it.

"Esteemed envoy, the combat prowess of that person is extremely high. In the past, he could already kill immortal emperors when he was just at the immortal king realm." Someone below spoke.

"No matter how strong he is, he is ultimately an immortal emperor. For immortal emperors, they are like ants before this seat. Go and send someone and spread the word, tell him to scram over the Senluo Immortal Empire to beg for my mercy, Qin Wentian has to submit." That envoy spoke, like he was talking about an extremely ordinary matter!

Chapter 1682: There’s an open path to heaven but you didn’t want to walk it

The reconstruction of the Evergreen Immortal Empire was carried out. Qin Wentian didn't actively head out, choosing to stay in the Evergreen Immortal Empire as he waited.

Right now, he has already circulated the news about his return through the immortal realms. The various major powers must be communicating in secret and once there are any movements, everyone would know immediately. He was waiting for his enemies to group up once again, coming here together in force to hunt him down just like they did in the past. Only then would he be able to account for the debt once and for all.

Qin Wentian wasn't in a hurry at all. Since he returned to Azure Mystic, he naturally would want to clear each and every debt of revenge the major powers owned him.

At the same time, he has also sent people out to make discreet enquiries about the news of Jun Mengchen and Little Rascal.

However, at this moment, the news from the Senluo Immortal Empire circulated over, telling Qin Wentian to scram there and submit. This caused Qin Wentian to feel bewildered, had the Senluo Immortal Empire gone crazy? The Ying Clan and Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire was destroyed, yet they actually dared to tell him such a thing?

Or to better put it, the Senluo Immortal Empire was extremely confident in themselves. Could they have also originated from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?

Qin Wentian knew that there are also other empyreans from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms who came here together with him. There were even some characters from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that received the news before them and were here earlier than them. Now that they were in Azure Mystic, yet they didn't do any major things to gain attention. Qin Wentian didn't believe that they are here just for sightseeing, they must be biding their time for something.

Now, the experts of the immortal realms were all paying attention. The Senluo Immortal Empre told Qin Wentian to scram over to their empire and submit. How would Qin Wentian respond?

Qin Wentian's response was only a single sentence - the Senluo Immortal Empire will be the next empire that's destroyed.

This caused the hearts of many people to tremble. Their messages...one was more tyrannical than the other.

Today, a few guests arrived in the Evergreen Immortal Empire. They weren't the people Qin Wentian pointed out in his original message. These people came from the hegemonic sect of the eastern regions, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

In the imperial palace, Qin Wentian, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and the others were all present. They stared at the three guests who arrived. These three were people Qin Wentian had never met before, but their cultivation bases were extremely strong. One was a peak-stage immortal emperor while the two others were at the mid-stage. The peak-stage emperor was in the lead, he wore a platinum robe that shone resplendently as he exuded a feeling of imposingness.

"Junior Brother Qin." When the three of them saw Qin Wentian, the man in the lead directly called out. Right now, there was no need to hide anything. Since the Heavenly Talisman Realm has already shown their strength, using the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect to enter Azure Mystic, they naturally didn't fear that their identities would be exposed. When the man in the lead called Qin Wentian as 'junior brother,' the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and the others didn't feel any surprise, they had long guessed at this. Jun Mengchen had always been Qin Wentian's junior apprentice brother and everyone knew that Jun Mengchen came from this hidden power. There was no need to doubt that Qin Wentian did as well.

"Please be seated." Qin Wentian spoke. The peak-stage immortal emperor in the lead waved his hand, "We will be leaving after I say a few words. Junior brother Qin, it's fortunate that you didn't die and even managed to return in such an imposing manner. I'm truly happy for you. Now that our sect has already moved out in the open, you should return to the sect with me together. We are now the hegemon of the eastern regions and if we combine our strength with junior brother Qin and your subordinates, we would undoubtedly be like a tiger given wings. It would be effortless to dominate the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms and quell all the chaos."

"Get Bai Wuya and Jun Mengchen to speak to me." Qin Wentian calmly spoke, his words causing the eyes of the peak-stage emperor to narrow. That emperor then smiled, "Jun Mengchen has betrayed our sect. If junior brother Qin sees him, don't forget to act and kill this traitor. Bai Wuya is currently in closed-door seclusion, it's inconvenient for him to come here."

"Why did Jun Mengchen become a traitor?" Qin Wentian asked.

"How would I know why? The sect was extremely good to him, the kindness the sect has shown to him was as heavy as a mountain. He had cultivated in the sect and obtained many benefits before. To think that he actually turned traitor at the end, simply incorrigible." That expert coldly snorted.

"I'll know everything for sure once I've seen him. The three of you, you can return now." Qin Wentian directly issued the expulsion order. The three of them frowned, as they coldly replied, "Qin Wentian, what do you mean by this? Are you not planning to return to the sect? Are you going to walk the footsteps of Jun Mengchen?"

Qin Wentian also frowned, his eyes gleamed with cold light as his expression turned icy, "Can I ask, what's the main edict of the sect? When I joined, it was told to me that the sect would never force its disciples to do anything against their will?"

"The circumstances now are different now. This era is extremely chaotic. Since we have shown ourselves, we naturally should unite and fight together with our sect to conquer Azure Mystic." Another one of them spoke.

"I see how things are. Now that I've returned with an army of immortal emperors, the sect finally remembers me and wants to unite to fight together. Back then when I was weak, when the major powers of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms banded together to hunt me down, where was the sect then? Did they fight together with me?" Qin Wentian's voice turned glacial. During that year, the Heavenly Talisman Realm did not fight for him but he didn't feel too much resentment about that. He understood the sect's edict well enough when he joined. He didn't need to do anything against his will, and the sect would not act to save him if he was in trouble.

However, things had already passed, the Heavenly Talisman Realm was true to their word and didn't send anyone to fight for him. But now that he has become stronger, they wanted to unite with him so as to fight together? How ridiculous was this? In addition, the Heavenly Talisman Realm has fully taken over the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, they even wanted to force the Evergreen Immortal Empire to submit and hunt Jun Mengchen down. Since this is the case, he can be considered to have severed his relationship with the Heavenly Talisman Realm completely. From now on, the Heavenly Talisman Realm was the Heavenly Talisman Realm. He, Qin Wentian, was his own man. They would have nothing more to do with each other.

"In that case, you are bent on following the path Jun Mengchen took?" That peak-stage immortal emperor icily spoke.

"Can you guys sense the imprint of the Heavenly Talisman Realm on me?" Qin Wentian suddenly asked. Since the other party spoke like that, there was no longer a need to continue talking.

The three of them frowned. This was also something they felt strange about. Between disciples of the Heavenly Talisman Realm, they should be able to sense each other's identity. However, Qin Wentian's body didn't seem to have the Heavenly Talisman Imprint.

"Did you ask someone to destroy the imprint?" That expert coldly spoke.

"Back then during the war in the Evergreen Immortal Empire, I, Qin Wentian, have already died once and the imprint vanished upon my death. The Qin Wentian today is no longer the Qin Wentian of the past. The three of you, please return." Qin Wentian calmly spoke, he had already made things very clear with his words. He had already died once and was no longer the Qin Wentian back then. His connection with the Heavenly Talisman Realm was severed.

The three immortal emperors all had unsightly expressions as they stared at Qin Wentian. The peak-stage emperor in the lead coldly spoke, "Since you are no longer a disciple of our sect. Don't blame us for not showing mercy if anything happens in the future. Farewell."

After that, the three of them flicked their sleeves and left. They were openly threatening Qin Wentian.

But how would Qin Wentian be bothered by that? He did owe the Heavenly Talisman Realm and had a sense of belonging to it. But now, the Heavenly Talisman Realm actually wanted the Evergreen Immortal Empire to submit to them and even had the thoughts of destroying the Evergreen Immortal Empire? Not only that, they also forced Jun Mengchen to rebel and was hunting him down now? Since that's the case, let the death he suffered back then act as the catalyst of severing all connection between him and them.

After the people of the Heavenly Talisman Realm left, more guests arrived at the Evergreen Immortal Empire. This time around, it was actually someone from the powerful nine-tailed demon fox race. In addition, it was none other than the fox goddess whose beauty was unrivaled. She had personally came here, escorting another person back.

"Big brother Qin!" A sexy maiden, yet her aura was still filled with a hint of innocence, stood beside the fox goddess. This was actually none other than Purgatory. When she saw Qin Wentian, her silhouette instantly flashed as she rushed into his embrace.

Her life was given by Qin Wentian. In this world, no one else would surpass Qin Wentian in her heart. That year when Qin Wentian had died, she was filled with complete despair. Who would have thought that she would be able to see Qin Wentian standing before her again. She was naturally incomparably happy.

"Purgatory." Qin Wentian hugged her and patted her on the shoulders. He then turned his gaze to the fox goddess standing in the air. This was someone once defeated by him those years ago when in the City of Ancient Emperors.

"Many thanks." Qin Wentian smiled.

The fox goddess had a cold look on her face. She shot a glance at Qin Wentian, "Someone begged a favor from me. Now that I've sent her here. I shall bid my farewell then."

After that, the fox goddess directly turned and flew off, not stopping for an instant.

Purgatory came out of Qin Wentian's embrace and there were tears in her eyes. She sobbed, "That old monster has died."

"Old monster?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed.

"It's that old monster that has been taking care of Little Rascal. He and Little Rascal were being hunted by Jia Yemo of the Phoeroc Race and the king of the Sun Gold Demonic Race and he was eventually killed. However, Little Rascal managed to escape." Purgatory sobbed as she explained. Back then after Qin Wentian's death, that old nine-headed heaven devouring beast was the one taking care of her and Little Rascal through so many years.

The old heaven devouring beast had a good relationship with the nine-tailed fox race, he decided to leave Purgatory with them. And after the news of Qin Wentian being alive was circulated, he asked the fox goddess for help to send her here.

Qin Wentian's heart trembled, filled with melancholy as he thought of the old heaven devouring beast. Although he wasn't really familiar with that old demon, he still felt hurt in his heart when he learned of his death.

"What about Little Rascal? Where is he now? I'll go look for him." Qin Wentian spoke.

Purgatory shook her head, "I only know that he's being hunted and has escaped into the depths of the desolate mountain range. He should be injured but I have no idea where is he currently. But his ability to hide is very strong, he shouldn't be in any trouble."

Little Rascal was capable of transforming himself into a myriad of forms and was extremely shrewd.

"Phoeroc Race, Sun Gold Race." An immense killing intent gushed forth from Qin Wentian.

"RUMBLE~" At this moment, the space trembled as a terrifying screen of light appeared in the air. A burst of fearsome energy completely sealed this entire space as a destructive beam of light shot towards the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

A few figures rose up in the air, these were all Qin Wentian's subordinates. Emperor light radiated from them as they blocked that beam of light.

"Qin Wentian, to think that you actually didn't die." A cold voice rang out from the void. Qin Wentian slowly soared into the air. He saw that space was actually severed here, somebody had launched an attack towards the Evergreen Immortal Emperor through the void.

This must be the Heaven Seizing Bowl, the treasure of Old Devil Duo Tian. Back then at the Demon God Mountain, he had used this to attack Qin Wentian before.

Through the broken layers of space, he saw a black palace. Over there, a few familiar faces could be seen. Old Devil Duo Tian, the Violet Emperor and the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor. Their eyes were cold, filled with killing intent as they stared at Qin Wentian.

"There's an open path to heaven but you all refuse to walk. There's no gate that allowed entry to hell yet you guys want to barge in." Qin Wentian's expression was like ice. Eastern Sage and the Violet Emperor have finally appeared, not only that, they even took the initiative to send themselves here.

His palm extended forward. In an instant, a terrifying giant spatial pam imprint shot through the layers of space, entering the void, targeting the source of the beam of light. Old Devil Duo Tian's eyes flashed as he coldly asked, "What's going on? Why does he under the laws of space?"

The Heaven Seizing Bowl continued to flare with power as it unceasingly launched light beams, destroying Qin Wentian's palm imprint. However, Qin Wentian had already moved forward. A spatial gate opened up before the Heaven Seizing Bowl, redirecting its attacks elsewhere. Qin Wentian then entered yet another spatial gate, crossing the void, instantly disappearing from his original location.

At the next moment, Qin Wentian directly appeared at Old Devil Duo Tian's headquarters. He stood in the air and stared down imperiously at Old Devil Duo Tian, Eastern Sage and the Violet Emperor.

Chapter 1683: Eastern Sage and Violet Emperor's Doomsday

At that towering mountain range, Old Devil Duo Tian, Eastern Sage and the Violet Emperor could be seen standing in the airspace above the black palace. When they saw Qin Wentian traversing the void, the expression of Old Devil Duo Tian became extremely ugly to behold.

He used the Heaven Seizing Bowl to launch a long-distance attack because he wanted to probe how strong Qin Wentian was exactly. The Heaven Seizing Bowl was an extremely powerful emperor-ranked level treasure, capable of ignoring space when attacking. As long as the user had a location locked in his mind, the Evergreen Immortal Empire, it would work even though he had no idea where Qin Wentian was exactly.

Naturally, Old Devil Duo Tian wouldn't be foolish enough to hope that his Heaven Seizing Bowl was strong enough to kill Qin Wentian. He only wanted to see Qin Wentian's strength before making a plan to deal with him. After all, Qin Wentian was someone they had to face no matter what.

However, he clearly didn't expect Qin Wentian to be able to traverse through the void. Qin Wentian's attainments in the laws of space seemed even stronger than him. With just a single move, Old Devil Duo Tian instantly knew how terrifying Qin Wentian was.

The Violet Emperor and the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor also didn't understand. They were very clear on what laws Qin Wentian possessed, he undoubtedly didn't have a spatial-law attributed astral soul before but creating a spatial gate was undoubtedly something only someone who had mastery over the spatial laws could do. Not only that, he could even traverse through the void, instantly arriving before them. They clearly didn't understand what was going on.

But soon after, the eyes of the Violet Emperor and the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor began to flicker with the flames of hatred. When enemies meet, they would naturally be enraged. The grudges of the Violet Emperor and the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor with Qin Wentian were simply too deep. This was especially so for the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor. Ever since Qin Wentian walked out of his particle world, the grudge between them had already been set in stone. It was only a matter of time that they wouldn't be able to live under the same heavens.

It was the same for the Violet Emperor - he felt hatred because his son was killed, and everything that happened since then only served to further deepen the grudge between him and Qin Wentian.

These two immortal emperors were characters who controlled an entire area. Didn't they force the powerless Qin Wentian back then to extremely dire straits?

As for Old Devil Duo Tian, he assisted Eastern Sage and attempted to kill him, making numerous plans to deal with him. Neither would rest while the other survived.

"Qin Wentian, since you dare to show up here, I really want to see who will be the one who enters hell." The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor coldly spoke. Although he could sense Qin Wentian's strength, this place was after all still Old Devil Duo Tian's headquarters and Qin Wentian's subordinates wouldn't be able to come here in time. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor and the others weren't here as well. Qin Wentian was facing off against the three of them, who are all peak-stage emperors, as well as the other subordinates of Old Devil Duo Tian.

Qin Wentian glanced at Eastern Sage, his eyes were filled with contempt as he calmly spoke, "Old dog Eastern Sage. It has been so many years since we last met but to think that you are still so stupid."

"You…!" The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor roared in anger and blasted out with his fist. Millions of fist shadows filled the air, the power of his strikes rained down, blasting towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian stared at the fist shadows and stood arrogantly in his location. A bright light radiated from him, creating a protective screen of light, allowing the fist attacks to blast into it as they will. Thunderous rumbling sounds echoed out but Eastern Sage's attacks had no way to break through the screen of light. Eventually, all the fist shadows faded away.

"Old dog, are you scratching my itch for me?" Qin Wentian stared at Eastern Sage whose expression grew even uglier. Old Devil Duo Tian was more cautious in nature and was extremely crafty and cruel. When he saw this scene, he was already making plans to flee in his heart. Although Eastern Sage's power cannot be considered top-tier among peak emperors, he was after all, still a peak-stage immortal emperor. Any of his casual attacks could cause the terrains to shift but Qin Wentian simply stood there unmoving, taking his attacks at will. Old Devil Duo Tian knew that even if the three of them combined forces, they most probably wouldn't be able to do anything to Qin Wentian.

More and more experts that were the Old Devil Duo Tian's subordinates flew over, their auras gushing forth.

Qin Wentian glanced at them. Other than Old Devil Duo Tian, who was famed for his cruelty, the vast majority of his subordinates were vile individuals too. Those who had committed heinous crimes and were hunted down by others, would often choose to join Old Devil Duo Tian. Back then, after his Eastern Sage Immortal Sect was destroyed, Eastern Sage had no choice but to submit to Old Devil Duo Tian for the sake of obtaining revenge. The Violet Emperor was hunted by Emperor Yu for many years and had no choice as well. In the end, he was forced to follow in Eastern Sage's footsteps and also joined Old Devil Duo Tian.

These experts flying over were all ruthless and cruel characters. Since that was the case, Qin Wentian no longer felt any burden in his heart at the prospect of wiping them out.

"BOOM!" Qin Wentian's will activated. In an instant, boundless radiance and countless sharp swords enveloped this entire mountain range.

The scene now was like that of an apocalypse.

Old Devil Duo Tian, the Violet Emperor and Eastern Sage all inclined their heads as fear could be seen on their faces. The light and sword might surrounding this space seemed as though they wanted to wipe and cleanse this world of all filth and vermins, purifying all sins. This scene was simply too terrifying. Qin Wentian stretched his hands out, his will seemed to represent heaven's will. At the very least, everything in this locked-down area was under his control.

"This…" Old Devil Duo Tian's expression changed. His hand that was holding on to the Heaven Seizing Bowl started to tremble. He had done whatever he wanted for so many years. Was he going to die alongside with the two bastards who implicated him in this, the Violet Emperor and Eastern Sage today?

Those who were here were all filled with shock and terror when they saw this. Many of them even knelt down, "Senior, all of us are only taking orders from Old Devil Duo Tian and we were extremely unwilling but we had no choice. Please forgive us and show mercy."

The pressure in the area was like heavenly might, boring down on all of these people.

The Violet Emperor and Eastern Sage also felt their hearts pounding rapidly. They trembled as they stared at Qin Wentian. They were finally afraid, truly afraid. At this moment, where was that weak junior whom they could kill anytime? The Qin Wentian now could crush them with ease.

"Let all the filth here be cleansed." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. The radiance and sword might flooded the area, causing expressions of despair to appear on the faces of these subordinates. They didn't even have any strength to resist. Regardless of their cultivation bases, be it immortal king or immortal emperor, none of them could escape this world-destructing might. The buildings here also collapsed under the pressure. With the deaths of so many immortal kings and immortal emperors, this place would become a treasured land for cultivation a thousand years later. One might even be able to comprehend the method of breaking through to the empyrean realm from here.

With just a single thought, devastation wrecked everything. Only Old Devil Duo Tian, the Violet Emperor and Eastern Sage remained alive. At this moment, they no longer had any hope at all. They knew what their fates would be, terror surged up in their hearts.

"Qin Wentian, I have no grudge with you. I was only assisting Eastern Sage to act against you. I'm willing to kill him for you now." Old Devil Duo Tian suddenly spoke to beg for mercy. He understood what the situation was. Qin Wentian's cultivation base had already reached unimaginable heights. It was that legendary realm which he sought after but had no way to break through to it.

Seeing that Qin Wentian had no response, Old Devil Duo Tian spoke again, "In the future, I'm willing to be your follower, listening to your every command."

Qin Wentian merely icily stared at him. "No grudge between us? Back then on the Demon God Mountain, I was merely an immortal king yet you used the Heaven Seizing Bowl in an attempt to kill me. If it wasn't for the Southern Phoenix Matriarch acting, I would have already died. Would I have a chance to stand here today? As for being a follower of mine, sad to say, I have no lack of followers."

As the sound of his voice faded, an incomparably resplendent light shone upon Old Devil Duo Tian. He roared and retreated with explosive speed, doing his best to struggle as the light shined upon him. However, he began to vanish bit by bit, finally disappearing completely. The monster, Old Devil Duo Tian, whose name shook the immortal realms, simply died like that. He was the one that took the initiative to antagonize Qin Wentian, causing Qin Wentian to trace his location and appearing here today, leading to his death. If this matter spread out, he would definitely become a laughing stock under the heavens.

The majestic black palace was razed to the ground, crumbling into dust. The radiance was too brilliant and the pressure of the sword might was immense. Both the Violet Emperor and Eastern Sage only felt despair as they stared at the figure before them in fear.

Back then, this weak junior has already stepped into that legendary cultivation realm today? How many years has it been then? Where did he manage to obtain control over the laws of light?

"I'M UNWILLING!" Eastern Sage howled, he was like a beast that had gone mad. His facial expression contorted, "Back then, I should have spared no expense to kill you. If I did so, how would today have happened?"

The Violet Emperor felt the same as well. He knew that he had no more chance of survival. Qin Wentian didn't even spare Old Devil Duo Tian's subordinates, how would he spare them then?

Back then, he and Eastern Sage truly did have opportunities to kill Qin Wentian if they went all out. But at that time, Qin Wentian was simply too weak, an existence akin to an insect. They didn't want to lose face. They were after all immortal emperors who controlled a large area. If they personally went to hunt down an immortal-foundation junior, wouldn't they incur the ridicule of others? But after that, when they discovered Qin Wentian's fearsome talent, they no longer had an opportunity to do so.

The Qin Wentian today was already strong enough to crush them effortlessly.

"You should truly regret, but not because you didn't kill me. You should regret the fact that you placed so much importance on your son Dongsheng Ting, allowing him to humiliate and insult me despite the Evergreen Immortal Emperor's request. If such a thing didn't happen, I might have already become a member of your Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. When thinking this way, I should be the one thanking you. If it wasn't for all of that, I wouldn't have my achievements today." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. The Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor's heart trembled. What Qin Wentian has said was the truth. Back then, he did have the opportunity to become Qin Wentian's master.

If that was the case, given Qin Wentian's talent and current achievements, wouldn't he, Eastern Sage, be extremely glorious in the immortal realms? Would the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect still be destroyed?

Upon thinking about this, he felt even more miserable like there were knives stabbing into his heart.

"Violet Emperor, between us, there originally shouldn't even have been a grudge. Zi Daoyang's death was caused by Mo Xie, but the proud and tyrannical you actually sought to implicate me for your son's death. That year, both of you were lofty figures standing at the peak and viewed me as a weak insect, something you guys can push around and do whatever you want to. Did you two ever think that today might come? The winds and clouds changed, the oceans have turned into mulberry fields. Let the deaths of the two of you today conclude everything between us."

As Qin Wentian's voice faded, a bright light flashed, enveloping Eastern Sage and the Violet Emperor. In their last moments, their expressions kept changing but eventually, both of them no longer struggled and calmly awaited the judgement of death.

The winds and clouds changed after a hundred plus years. They who were lofty characters in the past, why would they bother with what a weakling was thinking about?

In addition, how many weaklings were there? But who among those minor characters could be compared to Qin Wentian?

One could only say that fate was playing tricks on both of them.

As the light faded, the Violet Emperor and Eastern Sage have already vanished.

Very soon, news circulated around the immortal realms. Old Devil Duo Tian, Eastern Sage and the Violet Emperor all died, killed by Qin Wentian alone. Not only that, the subordinates of Old Devil Duo Tian were also completely wiped out as well. From now on, the names of the three of them no longer existed in the immortal realms.

Peak-stage emperors were all considered legends in this immortal realm. All of a sudden, three individuals were removed from that esteemed position.

Chapter 1684: Ruthless

The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms trembled once again because of the death of Old Devil Duo Tian, the Violet Emperor and the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor.

Right now, many people were wondering how strong was Qin Wentian exactly.

Back then, there were so many immortal emperors that gathered at the Evergreen Immortal Empire for that war. At that time, he was at the immortal king realm but he still managed to kill three immortal emperors. Using this as a reference, since Qin Wentian's cultivation base was at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm now, there should be no one in the immortal emperor realm that was a match for him. Killing Qin Wentian would be as tough as ascending to the heavens. Unless, another war broke out and over half of the peak powers here joined together again.

Just as everyone was still deeply immersed in the death of Old Devil Duo Tian and the others, at this moment at the Desolate Mountain Range, above a towering ancient mountain, an incomparably large castle could be seen. The buildings in the castle were far larger compared to human buildings. Because, this was the residence of the greater demons of the Phoeroc Race.

At this moment, a white-robed figure could be seen floating in the air above the castle. He turned his gaze downwards as his robes fluttered in the wind.

"Swish~" The terrifying sound of wind being slashed apart rang out as numerous sonic booms occurred. At the next moment, several gigantic silhouettes of greater demons appeared in the air, staring coldly at that figure in white. These demons belonged to various races, the majority of them were flying creatures, some who were a phoeroc, or others with the phoeroc bloodline.

It was naturally impossible for the Phoeroc Race to all be phoerocs. Those variation-type greater demons are extremely rare and only royal-blooded pheorocs could be kings here. They controlled many other demonic beasts that had their bloodline. For demonics that didn't have their bloodlines, these demons were usually used as servants and slaves.

Qin Wentian didn't look at these demons. His immortal sense continued to extend forward, bypassing the layers of obstruction and directly bore down upon a majestic demon cave.

"Jia Yemo, scram the hell out." Qin Wentian's voice directly transmitted to the greater demon in the cave. That supreme greater demon opened his eyes, his gaze gleaming with a bright light as he slowly stood up. Spreading his wings, his body vanished in an instant.

Jia Yemo was a king of the Phoeroc Race, his talent was extremely terrifying, and he had powerful innate abilities. With a single flap of his wings, he moved so fast as though he was teleporting. Qin Wentian only sensed a bolt of lightning that was sharper even than swords slicing towards him. It was too fast, so fast that ordinary peak-stage immortal emperors wouldn't even be able to react. This was an innate talent of the Phoeroc Race - extreme speed.

However, Jia Yemo's opponent was Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian stomped his feet, causing the space here to tremble. The surrounding mountains directly crumbled from the force of his stomp. After that, the surrounding demons only saw Qin Wentian blocking Jia Yemo's attack. A giant palm manifested before him, negating the force of Jia Yemo's attack before blasting Jia Yemo back.

Jia Yemo's speed was too fast. He spun in circles in the air, creating many after-images. With a shrill howl, Qin Wentian was surrounded by phoenix flames in an instant. This Jia Yemo then flapped his wings again, causing lightning to blast out. A terrifying claw powered by destructive might slammed forth. Under his claw, Qin Wentian seemed so tiny and inconsequential. That claw shimmered with power from his innate demon technique, it caused several avian beasts to materialize, all of them intent on ripping Qin Wentian to shreds.

The other demons all spiralled around in the air, circulating around Qin Wentian as they watched their king fighting with Qin Wentian. Although Qin Wentian's fame was exceedingly great, Jia Yemo was their royal king. How powerful would a phoeroc king be? They didn't believe that at the same cultivation level, Qin Wentian would be able to defeat their king.

At this moment, Qin Wentian stretched out his hand and stabbed forth with a finger. A strand of sword intent transformed into a sky roc that destroyed all the avian beasts. He followed up with another palm strike, causing the world to rumble, trembling fiercely. Qin Wentian's body was actually rapidly expanding. His palm naturally enlarged as well and his body now was akin to that of a divinity as he directly grabbed hold of Jia Yemo's claw.

Jia Yemo howled. His wings closed, slashing towards Qin Wentian. This pair of wings slashed out thousands of divine weapons and Jia Yemo was even capable of breathing out phoenix fire that could burn everything.

But at this moment, countless vines appeared around Qin Wentian as he transformed into a tree. The countless vines regenerated constantly, stretching towards Jia Yemo's body, wanting to trap him within. The divine weapons that were slashing over were blocked by a golden buddha dharma body. After that, Jia Yemo's wings were bound as he struggled madly.

Jia Yemo's strength was extremely powerful. However, no matter how crazily he struggled, Qin Wentian didn't move the slightest at all, easily grabbing hold of Jia Yemo's gigantic body.

Resplendent swords of light manifested as Qin Wentian directly stabbed them into Jia Yemo's body. Jia Yemo screamed in pain and struggled even more violently. Below, numerous terrifying greater demons madly rushed over only to see Qin Wentian shooting further up into the skies as he brought Jia Yemo with him. After that, he rode upon Jia Yemo's back and started to tear large tuffs of his feathers away, causing blood to flow from those wounds as Jia Yemo continued to scream in pain and anger.

Jia Yemo struggled frenziedly, speeding through the air wanting to shake Qin Wentian off. Qin Wentian continued to pluck his feathers, causing his pitiful screams to echo in the air. The experts of the Phoeroc Race rushed out and circled this space but they didn't have an opportunity to act against Qin Wentian, who was straddled on Jia Yemo's back.

At this moment, Qin Wentian's hands were like sharp blades that were even more fearsome that the swords of light he manifested. He directly stabbed his hands into Jia Yemo's head, breaking through muscular resistance and pluck out a strand of tendon.

A terrible scream of such shrillness echoed out, causing the heavens and earth to tremble. The intensity of this scream caused those experts of the Phoeroc Race to almost go mad as they closed in, looking for an opportunity to help Jia Yemo.

Qin Wentian sat arrogantly on Jia Yemo's back. Right now, the entire body of Jia Yemo was bleeding, cutting a pathetic figure. He was on the verge of death. At this moment, a spatial gate appeared before Qin Wentian.

"Within a month's time, spread the news of my return to Little Rascal. If he doesn't return to me within one month, I shall pluck the remaining feathers from Jia Yemo to form a weapon, use his bones to make soup, remove his tendons to form a zither." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. After that, he dragged the pitiful Jia Yemo with him as they entered the spatial gate, vanishing from everyone's vision.

Countless demons let out roars as the entire scene dissolved into chaos. However, none of them know what they should do now. Qin Wentian domineeringly appeared at their base and could defeat Jia Yemo so easily. Who among them was able to deal with Qin Wentian?

Jia Yemo was a royal king of the Phoeroc Race, the strongest existence there. But because he acted against Qin Wentian's demonic beast companion, he was actually forced to such a pathetic state now.

Naturally, Jia Yemo wasn't lonely. Because, after dealing with him, Qin Wentian directly arrived at the Sun Gold Demonic Race's base. The arrogance of the sun gold demons towered up into the sky, bathing in the divine fire of the sun. This was especially so for their king, he was even more terrifying, akin to a sun god. However, not long after, the sun gold king suffered the same fate as Jia Yemo, he was dragged away like a dead dog by Qin Wentian to the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

Only now did the death of Old Devil Duo Tian, Eastern Sage and the Violet Emperor start to really circulate out to the immortal realms. In fact, there were still many locations that has yet to receive the news. And now, there was one more heaven-shaking news that the kings of both the Phoeroc and Sun Gold Demon Races were captured by Qin Wentian.

This news was soon circulated out along with the death of Old Devil Duo Tian and the rest. The people of the immortal realms were completely stunned that they became speechless. The shock in their hearts took a long time to fade away.

Too violent, too tyrannical.

That was the king of phoerocs, the king of the sun gold demonic beasts. They were all hegemons among demonic beasts and could claim supremacy in the Desolate Mountain Range with heaven-defying combat prowess. They were considered characters at the very peak in the City of Ancient Emperors, an existence where no one would dare to offend.

However, before their clansmen, they were utterly crushed by Qin Wentian, with their feathers and tendons plucked, so pitiful that they could only scream in agony.

Many people started to spread the news about that two battles. The people of the immortal realms sighed after they heard that. It was already clear to them that at the immortal emperor realm, Qin Wentian was invincible. No one would be able to win against him. Even the supreme demons who could claim supremacy in the immortal realms and City of Ancient Emperors couldn't' stand up to him.

They finally understood why the powerful Ying Clan and the terrifying Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire had been wiped out.

It was because, the Qin Wentian now, already had the strength to propel him above everyone.

This time around, the Sun Gold Demon Race and Phoeroc Race were greatly humiliated, but they didn't dare to kill their way into the Evergreen Immortal Empire. After witnessing Qin Wentian's battle with their kings, they could sense how ruthless Qin Wentian was. They felt deep terror towards Qin Wentian and they began to follow his orders, spreading news of his return throughout the desolate mountain range. They could only hope that Qin Wentian's demonic beast companion received this news and return to him in time. If not, that baleful god might go mad and their kings would suffer even more.

The kings of these two powerful demon races were now on the verge of death because of a single sentence from purgatory. The word 'pitiful' was insufficient to describe their current states.

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor and the others stared at the two demon kings lying there helplessly, they then cast another glance at Qin Wentian while they sighed silently in their hearts. What a monster… other than this, what else could they see?

Purgatory's beautiful eyes flickered with a terrifying fire as she stared at these two demon kings. The old heaven devouring beast was killed by them, Little Rascal being forced to flee was because of them as well. Now, her big brother Qin is back, she could finally vent the breath of resentment stuck in her chest.

"Purgatory, if I tell these two races to send news, will Little Rascal hear it?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Mhm, these two demonic races have extremely high prestige in the Desolate Mountain Range. If they send out the news, there's no doubt that the news would be able to circulate throughout the Desolate Mountain Range. Little Rascal should be able to hear it." Purgatory nodded heavily. She thought back to the old heaven devouring beast as her eyes turned somewhat red.

Qin Wentian gently patted Purgatory on her head. He pinched her face softly, "Everything is in the past, don't think about it anymore."

"Mhm." Purgatory snuggled herself against Qin Wentian. She would only act like this before Qin Wentian because her life was born from his. She felt an intense reliance on him. During this period of time when Qin Wentian had disappeared, it was the old heaven devouring beast that had been taking care of her. This was why she would feel so sad now.

"Also, help me to release the news. A month later I, Qin Wentian, will invite the various heroes of the immortal realms to compete here, settling all the grudges I have in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms." Qin Wentian spoke. The eyes of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Matriarch Ji and the others flashed. Qin Wentian wanted to summon all the major powers here?

Would this time be the same as in the past? Where over half of the peak powers in the immortal realms joined forces to hunt him down.

Chapter 1685: Entering the Myriad Devil Islands Once Again

The news Qin Wentian sent out soon circulated around the immortal realms. Right now, Qin Wentian and the Evergreen Immortal Empire became the focal point of the immortal realms. Countless powers were observing their each and every action.

Now, Qin Wentian has already announced to the world, gathering the experts of each power in the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

Hence, from this day onwards, the originally already desolate royal city of the Evergreen Immortal Empire became lively again as heroes of the world rushed there, wanting to spectate the incoming unprecedented majestic battle.

Back then, more than half of the peak powers in the immortal realms gathered in the Evergreen Immortal Empire to kill Qin Wentian. That war shook the heavens, there never has been a case where so many peak powers joined forces in a war before. But now that the Evergreen Immortal Empire sent out such news, many people were speculating that Qin Wentian's enemies would probably form an even stronger coalition to move against him.

The various peak powers of the immortal realms started to communicate or form mutual alliances before they answered Qin Wentian's invitation, all of them preparing for the gathering at the Evergreen Immortal Empire one month later. Many major powers met in secret to discuss how to kill Qin Wentian. Since Qin Wentian has taken the initiative to gather the heroes of the world, they wanted to kill him on that day. They didn't believe Qin Wentian would still be able to escape this calamity.

Nobody dared to take the initiative to look for trouble with Qin Wentian at the Evergreen Immortal Empire. After all, with so many prior examples before them, the destruction of the Ying Clan, the death of the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, the Skymist Immortal Empire and the others, him killing Eastern Sage and the Violet Emperor. Even Old Devil Duo Tian, who launched a long-distance attack, had been killed. Not only that, the kings of the Phoeroc and Gold Sun Demonic Race were abducted away in full view of their subordinates, their fates extremely miserable.

Qin Wentian was simply a baleful god. Who would dare to antagonize him easily? Unless that person felt that he had too long a life.

After that, more and more people arrived at the Evergreen Immortal Empire. After the Battle Saint Tribe learned of Qin Wentian's return, all of them thought of ways to come to the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire to pay respects to him. All of them felt pride. Right now, their saint lord truly stood at the peak of this immortal realm. Even the war back then couldn't kill him.

There were three among the Battle Saint Tribe who broke through to the immortal emperor realm, possessing startling combat prowess. After that, Qin Wentian brought the three of them and returned to the true location of the Battle Saint Tribe, heading to the third world there. When he returned, a total of twenty-four more immortal emperors accompanied him. The army in the Evergreen Immortal Empire was now even more terrifying. They faintly appeared to be able to contend against the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect for hegemony of the eastern regions.

Right now, the Evergreen Immortal Empire's imperial palace has the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, White Emperor, Qing`er, Matriarch Ji and her sect members, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch and her clan members, the subordinates of his Lifire Palace and the immortal emperors of the Battle Saint Tribe. How terrifying was this lineup?

The moment Qin Wentian returned, he immediately gathered these experts together.

And after some more time, Emperor Yu has also returned. After he learned that Qin Wentian slayed Old Devil Duo Tian, the Violet Emperor and Eastern Sage, he felt great shock in his heart. Now that he came to the Evergreen Immortal Empire, he even saw some of his old friends from the Battle Saint Tribe and was naturally extremely happy. Hence, he also decided to follow Qin Wentian.

Today, inside the imperial palace, Qin Wentian and the experts of the Battle Saint Tribe were together alone in a great hall as they discussed matters.

"Wentian, when I met you back then, you were only at the initial-stage of the immortal-foundation realm. Who would have thought that you have already rose up into the sky in a short few hundred years." Emperor Yu sighed, feeling emotional in his heart as he stared at that white-robed figure.

"Saint Lord is truly an extraordinary character." Qi Da nodded. He still remembered back then when he followed Qin Wentian. At that time, Qin Wentian's cultivation base only enabled him to enter the first world of the Battle Saint Tribe. But look at now, there were many ancestor-characters from the Battle Saint Tribe's third world seated around him.

"Emperor Yu has taken good care of me for so many years if not I would never have been able to survive till today." Qin Wentian spoke with gratitude.

"You are the saint lord of this generation. Protecting you is what I should do." Emperor Yu smiled.

"I received news of Emperor Yi in the upper world." Qin Wentian suddenly spoke, his words causing the eyes of Emperor Yu to flash. Back then, he was a follower of Emperor Yi. Or to put it in another word, Emperor Yu was the saint lord he had pledged to follow.

"How's the previous generation saint lord?" Emperor Yu hurriedly asked.

"Very well. His cultivation base is truly above immortal emperors, even surpassing empyreans and has entered the world overlord realm. Although I didn't have the chance to meet with Senior Yi, I saw two other members of the Battle Saint Tribe that are his followers. Their cultivation bases are equal to mine, they are also world palace lords of the Lifelong Realm." Qin Wentian smiled. The eyes of Emperor Yu gleamed sharply as he cast a deep glance at Qin Wentian. The information in this sentence was plenty. This meant that Qin Wentian was also a world palace lord in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and it is highly possible that he was already at the empyrean realm.

"Wentian, after the matter of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms is concluded, I plan to follow you back to the upper world to take a look at my old brothers and pay my respects to the saint lord." Emperor Yu spoke.

"Mhm, sure." Qin Wentian nodded. After chatting for awhile more, everyone felt respect from the bottom of their hearts towards the saint lord of this generation, Qin Wentian. Now, it wasn't simply because of Qin Wentian's identity as the saint lord. It was also because of his strength.

...

At the area where the immortal realms were connected to the Myriad Devil Islands, a giant spatial teleportation array suddenly appeared there, and there were even a group of immortal emperors protecting it, causing many who came out from the Myriad Devil Islands to feel trepidation. Right now, the immortal realms were in chaos. Could it be that there was someone planning to invade their Myriad Devil Islands?

But at this moment, the spatial array suddenly shone with a blinding light. After that, three figures appeared inside the array.

The man in the center was dressed in white, exuding boundless magnificence. As for the two others beside him, both of them were absolute beauties. One was a white-haired goddess, the other had beauty enough to topple kingdoms.

"We pay our respects to Palace Lord and Madams." The surrounding guards bowed. Qin Wentian inclined his head slightly, he held Qing`er and Qingcheng's hands as he directly entered the devil gate leading to the Myriad Devil Islands. It was naturally none other than Qin Wentian who commanded people to build this teleportation array. In that was case, if something urgent happens, he could rush back to the Evergreen Immortal Empire with the greatest speed. Although he had already announced to the world about the gathering in the Evergreen Immortal Empire a month later, there were still many people who descended here from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. He still had to take some precautions against unexpected situations.

"Is this the Myriad Devil Islands? How majestic." Qingcheng stared at the floating islands here as surprise flashed through her eyes.

"Mhm, these countless floating islands make up the entirety of the Myriad Devil Islands." Qin Wentian nodded. They soared through the air and when they passed by one of the devil islands, Qin Wentian's eyes suddenly flickered with a bright light.

"In the past, I once cultivated here before." Qin Wentian pointed to a certain location on this island. This place was the Blackstone Devil Island, the one in power here was the Blackstone Devil Sect. In the past, he had stayed inside the Blackstone Devil Sect for a period of time and was even a devil general.

"Do you have any beauties here that are your old acquaintances?" Mo Qingcheng flashed a teasing smile at Qin Wentian. Ever since Qin Wentian's return, Mo Qingcheng's personality became much more joyful and optimistic, as though she had returned to the times of their youth. During these few days, life was indeed blissful. Qin Wentian really hoped that such a lifestyle could be maintained indefinitely, he brought them wherever he went to.

"Of course. I have quite a few admirers here." Qin Wentian tweaked Mo Qingcheng's nose, causing her to roll her eyes as she spoke in a low voice, "You are plucking flowers everywhere."

"Are you jealous? Haha." Qin Wentian was in a very good mood. "Let's go, I'll bring you all to take a look at my young beauty."

As he spoke, he hugged the two of them as his silhouette flashed, directly appearing at the Blackstone Devil Sect of the devil island.

The Blackstone Devil King was still the governor of this island. Lu Xuejia and Juyu were still devil generals today and had great authority. Their strength was powerful but they still had not broken through to the devil king realm. Although the transformation to the immortal realms was great, and countless geniuses had encountered bouts of good fortune, that was in general talking about those peak characters and supreme geniuses. Ordinary characters still led their ordinary lives.

Inside the princess residence of this devil sect, the third princess Yan Yuruo was currently resting. However, she suddenly frowned and stared at the air. After that, she saw three figures descending from the air, and stood upon the airspace of the Blackstone Devil Sect. When she stared at the figure in white clearly, her gaze suddenly froze.

Yan Yuruo stared unblinkingly at Qin Wentian. She naturally also saw the two absolute beauties beside him. She was as alluring and charming as before, but her gaze now was filled with a hint of anger as she glared at Qin Wentian, "Heartless rat, you still have the face to return?"

"Eh…" Qin Wentian had a face filled with black lines. He stared at Yan Yuruo, "Third princess, don't talk nonsense..."

"What do you mean by talking nonsense? Back then, you played with my emotions and even...bullied me before leaving. You are a bastard!" As Yan Yuruo spoke, a look of resentment appeared on her expression, it felt like she was going to burst into tears at any moment. Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er both smiled at Qin Wentian, only to see Qin Wentian had a stupefied look on his face. This devil princess, must she really tease him like this?

Upon seeing Qin Wentian's expression, Yan Yuruo suddenly laughed, exuding boundless charm. Where was that look of resentment before?

"I'm just joking with you. These two fairies truly have transcendent beauty. No wonder this bastard didn't fall for me. However, I'm confident in my looks as well, I wonder if both fairies are willing to accept me as his concubine?" Yan Yuruo suddenly giggled, diffusing the atmosphere. However, another look of resentment appeared in her eyes as she stared at Qin Wentian, "I'm already prepared to be your concubine. Are you willing to take me or not?"

After that, she pouted and had a look of being bullied on her face. Qin Wentian stared at Yan Yuruo's performance and could feel Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng's hands pinching his waist. He speechlessly replied, "Yan Yuruo, you best remember this."

As the sound of his voice faded, he brought Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er as he fled in a panic.

"I only want you to remember me…" The devil princess, Yan Yuruo, mumbled with a sad smile as she stared at the vanishing Qin Wentian. A sense of melancholy filled her heart as true sorrow could be seen in her expression.

The Blackstone Devil King just rushed over and immediately saw Qin Wentian leaving. Lu Xuejia and Juyu also saw Qin Wentian, however, they only saw him for a moment before his figure vanished completely. There was also a faint sadness in their hearts. For some people, it was destined that they would only have a chance to meet once and would disappear from each other's lives after that.

…..

Next, at the Fallen Devil Island of the Fallen Devil Region, the Celestial Devil Lodge carried on with its business the same as usual. There would frequently be young geniuses gathering here, but Fairy Xin Yu of the Celestial Devil Lodge was no longer accompanying people. She kept staying by the lodge lord's side.

"Lodge lord, there's someone begging for an audience outside, saying that they want to meet with Xin Yu." Someone came to report. The lodge lord had a strange look on her face, there were actually still people looking for Xin Yu?

Right now, in the Celestial Devil Lodge, it was extremely rare for Xin Yu to show herself. Many have already forgotten about her existence.

"Go and take a look." The lodge lord spoke to Xin Yu.

"Mhm." Xin Yu nodded. After that, she came to a pavilion and stared ahead, only to see a white-robed figure standing in the distance, looking at her. He had a transcendent aura and exuded boundless magnificence. There are even two absolute beauties beside him.

"Xin Yu." A voice drifted over, causing her body to tremble lightly. Her footsteps halted, "Sir Qin, what are you doing here?"

"I just wanted to see if an old friend is safe and sound." Qin Wentian replied softly. Xin Yu started, after a moment she smiled sweetly at Qin Wentian as she asked, "Fairies, you two must be Sir Qin's wives, right? You two are truly as beautiful as celestial maidens, causing other women to feel ashamed of their own inferiority."

Chapter 1686: To Inherit

Qin Wentian stared at the smile in Xin Yu's eyes as he spoke, "Mhm, these are my wives, Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er."

"Sir Qin's emotions for your wives is truly as deep as the ocean. Now that I've seen how beautiful the two fairies are, I can only say that they are a perfect match for Sir Qin, truly celestial companions. Xin Yu wishes that Sir Qin and the two fairies can remain in love throughout this lifetime." Xin Yu smiled. After that, she dipped into a bow, "Xin Yu still has some matters that I need to settle. I'll take my leave first. Sir, please feel free to enjoy the services of our lodge."

After speaking, she turned and left the area. Staring at her back, Qin Wentian didn't say anything. He only sighed softly before bringing Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng away.

Xin Yu returned to the lodge lord's room. After hearing someone report that Qin Wentian has already left, her beautiful eyes reddened. She initially thought that they would never be able to meet again in this life. Who would have thought that he would make a trip here specially to see her.

His wives are both truly as beautiful as fairies. No wonder he said that his heart already belonged to someone else those years ago.

"You long for him in your heart, yet why do you act like this and chase him away?" The lodge lord saw everything. She sighed as she stared at Xin Yu.

Yet, she saw Xin Yu smiling at her as she replied, "Lodge lord, do you remember what Xin Yu has said to you before?"

"Mhm, although many years have passed, my impression of him is as deep as ever. After all back then in the past, he was a character whose name could shake the entire devil island. Even the Fallen Devil Emperor was forced to lower his head by Qin Wentian." The lodge lord spoke lightly. Back then, Qin Wentian suffered humiliation at the banquet held here on the Fallen Devil Island. Not long after, he returned stronger than ever, even bringing with him an army from the Vast Sky Devil Emperor. Who didn't know of him then? Who didn't tremble beneath his might?

But even so, Xin Yu's evaluation of Qin Wentian was something that the lodge lord didn't dare to agree to blindly.

"One day, he would definitely sit on the throne of the highest peaks, ruling everyone down below. At that time, the people of the world would all envy and admire the women beside him, but I know that I am not qualified to be one of those women."

Xin Yu's evaluation of Qin Wentian was too high, hence, the lodge lord remembered clearly what she has said.

"Today after I met his wives, I further feel that my evaluation before was right. Only his wives are qualified to enjoy such glory and honor." Xin Yu spoke. Although she was smiling, her eyes were extremely red. The lodge lord sighed. Xin Yu still felt inferior, she felt that her status wasn't able to match up to Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian was also sighing in his heart. He summarized the events that happened to him on the devil island to Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er. After knowing what Xin Yu had sacrificed when Qin Wentian was in danger, both of them also sighed helplessly. What a pitiful woman.

"The kindness she showed you those years ago. If there's a chance to, you have to repay her." Qing`er spoke in a light voice. Xin Yu was willing to sacrifice her cultivation just to help Qin Wentian, allowing him to escape that calamity and even cause his cultivation base to increase. Yet she herself was living such a miserable life as a maid beside the lodge lord of the Celestial Devil Lodge.

"Mhm, why don't you bring her along so she can take care of you? In any case, you would like her as long as she is a beauty, right?" Mo Qingcheng giggled as she stared at Qin Wentian, but she did mean it. She and Qin Wentian would separate more than they were together. In truth, she really felt extremely touched by Xin Yu.

Qin Wentian was sweating, his face was filled with black lines as he hurried towards the emperor palace of the Fallen Devil Emperor. He wanted to use the teleportation array there to head to the Devil Mountain.

...

The Devil Mountain was as majestic as ever. This was the holy ground of the Myriad Devil Islands. Despite the chaos in the immortal realms, the atmosphere of this place was as tranquil and calm as ever, no waves from the outside world would be able to affect here. It was just that the internal-factions of the devil mountain often competed with each other. The conflict between the Judiciary Devil Hall and Darkness Devil Hall was exceedingly deep.

Today, a magnificent figure in white brought two beauties with him as he ascended the mountain silently.

When Qin Wentian arrived at the mountain peak, many experts from the six great devil halls actually gathered here, as though they knew of his arrival and were waiting for him.

Actually, the moment Qin Wentian stepped through the Devil Gate, the Devil Mountain already knew that Qin Wentian has entered the Myriad Devil Islands. Also, given Qin Wentian's current reputation in the immortal realms, he only had a single purpose for coming to the Myriad Devil Islands - the Devil Mountain.

Hence, the various devil halls were already waiting for him.

Given how chaotic the immortal realms are now, how could the Myriad Devil Islands not pay attention to the situation there? It was impossible for the Myriad Devil Islands not to know of the shocking incidents of these few days which shook the entire immortal realms. Who was Qin Wentian? He was once someone who created a huge commotion here. In fact, back then during the war at the Evergreen Immortal Empire, the Judiciary Devil Hall, Apostle Devil Hall and Myriad Ancient Devil Hall even personally entered the immortal realms to fight on his behalf.

Qin Wentian stared at the various devil experts who were waiting for him. Those at the forefront were all devil emperors. From this, one could see how highly they regarded Qin Wentian.

Right now, Qin Wentian's fame was simply too resounding. He traversed the void and slayed Old Devil Duo Tian, destroying his headquarters. He entered the desolate mountain range alone and captured the two kings of the most powerful greater demon races, plucking their feathers and tendons. No matter where he went to, that location would definitely tremble. Even if that location is the Myriad Devil Islands.

In the direction of the Judiciary Devil Hall, a tall figure in blood-red robes stepped out. She had a blood-colored crown on her head, she removed her mask to reveal a beautiful face. The incomparably cold and emotionless Blood Empress was actually crying at this moment. Her eyes were red as she stared at the figure in white.

Qin Wentian stared at Bai Qing. No matter what her identity was, no matter how great the change to her temperament, to him, she was still that innocent and adorable little sister he had. Little Lass Qing.

"Little Qing, don't you recognize me?" Qin Wentian saw the dumbstruck look on Bai Qing's face as she stared at him and couldn't help but laugh.

Bai Qing felt as though she was in a dream when she heard Qin Wentian's voice. After that, she directly rushed towards him with a speed so great that ordinary characters would definitely be sent flying if she knocked into them.

However, Qin Wentian had a doting smile on his face as he hugged her into his embrace, gently stroking her hair.

"Wentian gege." Bai Qing's red eyes were filled with tears. Back then when she saw Qin Wentian getting killed in the Evergreen Immortal Empire, who could understand the despair in her heart? Now that she saw Qin Wentian standing before her, Bai Qing felt as though she was dreaming. If this truly was a dream, she would rather not awaken forever.

Everyone stared at Bai Qing, their hearts feeling some shock. The Judiciary Grand Priestess of Blood was extremely famous in the Myriad Devil Islands. But right now, she was like a little girl rushing into the embrace of the white-robed young man. This scene naturally caused many to be stunned, they simply had no way to imagine such a thing would happen. This was especially so for those who weren't familiar with Qin Wentian. They were overwhelmed by shock.

"How outrageous! As the grand priestess of the Judiciary Hall, how can you ignore your status. You are embarrassing all of us." A cold voice drifted over, breaking the warmth in the atmosphere. Bai Qing came out from Qin Wentian's embrace and swept her gaze at the person from the Darkness Devil Hall who spoke. A blood-colored light flashed through her eyes, terrifying to the extreme.

Just when she wanted to move forward, Qin Wentian pulled at her hand. She turned and faced him, "Wentian gege."

"Let me handle it." Qin Wentian laughed.

"Mhm." Bai Qing nodded.

"Oi, your life is truly tough. To think that you didn't die despite that attack in the war of the past." Another voice rang out in laughter. Qin Wentian stared at the figure who walked out from the direction of the Myriad Ancient Devil Hall. This stinky monk Bujie actually looked more handsome now, but Qin Wentian couldn't help but to recall Bujie's lecherous nature back then. He also laughed, "Seems like you are living quite a comfortable life here on the Myriad Devil Islands, you actually didn't return to the buddha path. Most probably, there won't be any more monks scolding you for peeking at beauties while they are bathing. That's the reason why you stayed here, right?"

"Nonsense. How is this emperor such a lecherous fellow." Bujie's face was filled with black lines. This Qin Wentian exposed him in front of everyone. No matter what, he was at the very least a devil emperor of the Myriad Ancient Devil Hall now, Qin Wentian's words were simply not giving him face. At this moment, quite a few beautiful female devil emperors turned to glance at Bujie, their eyes flickering with coldness, causing Bujie to shiver.

"Qin Wentian, this is the devil mountain, the holy ground of us all. It isn't a place where you can speak nonsense. Stop flaunting your false superiority here." An expert from the Darkness Devil Hall coldly stared at Qin Wentian, his eyes gleaming with unkind intent. Qin Wentian's return to the devil mountain gave them a sense of unease.

"Mhm, the holy ground of devils. Let's speak of other matters later, let's handle official business first." Qin Wentian cast a glance in the direction of the Darkness Devil Hall as he spoke, "Back then, I entered the Saint Devil Hall and obtained the inheritance of the Myriad Devil Sovereign. But because my cultivation was too weak then, I didn't say anything. Now that I've returned, I'm prepared to take responsibility for inheriting the Myriad Devil Sovereign's inheritance and accept the position as this generation's Myriad Devil Sovereign."

He came to the Devil Mountain precisely to inherit the throne of devils. After stepping into the empyrean realm, he finally understood the meaning of the Myriad Devil Islands' inheritance. That inheritance gave him the power to control all devils. What was this? Wasn't that an ability of the empyrean realm? One gave rise to law's will, enabling him to control the devil law perfectly. The inheritance of the Myriad Devil Sovereign was precisely a path leading to the empyrean realm. It was something like a dao element, as well as the inheritance to the throne of all devils here on the Myriad Devil Island.

Qin Wentian's single sentence caused the entire devil mountain to descend into silence. Even Bujie couldn't help but shiver coldly as his body shrank back. This fellow, what an audacious man. The moment he came to the Devil Mountain he announced that he wanted to take over the throne of devils. Wasn't he a little too courageous?

Bujie has always admired Qin Wentian's ferociousness. But today, Qin Wentian was even more ferocious than he had imagined.

An old man of the Apostle Devil Hall smiled at Qin Wentian. Beside him, that apostle which once invited Qin Wentian to the Devil Mountain could be seen as well. His eyes gleamed with a bright light as he stared at Qin Wentian. This fellow truly knows no restraint.

"Why is the Judiciary Devil Hall still watching?" A devil lord of the Darkness Devil Hall icily spoke. During such a time, he naturally wanted the judiciary devil hall to act, directly taking Qin Wentian's life.

"How can you prove it?" At this moment, another voice rang out. The lord of the Judiciary Devil Hall personally walked over as he asked.

"Mhm?" The eyes of the other devil cultivators here flashed. The hall lord of the Judiciary Devil Hall stepped out. What does this mean?

"Hmph." A cold snort rang out. A figure cloaked in darkness stepped out. This man was another devil lord from the Darkness Devil Hall. He spoke, "I want to see why exactly the famous Qin Wentian dares to speak such words in our Myriad Devil Islands."

As he spoke, a terrifying darkness clone appeared, launching attacks brimming with heaven-shaking might at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian took a step forward, a towering devil might suddenly gushed forth from him. He glanced at the darkness clone and with just a glance, the darkness clone froze, becoming completely unable to move.

"Showing disrespect to the Myriad Devil Sovereign. You should die." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. That darkness clone was finally able to move. However, both its palms actually launched out an attack at the devil lord who summoned it. That devil lord's expression drastically changed. Boundless devil might radiated forth as he destroyed the attacks aimed at him but a moment later, the devil might radiating from him seemed not to be under his control. With an explosive boom, the darkness clone directly closed in and finished the devil lord off. A moment later, the darkness clone dispersed as well.

Chapter 1687: Lord of All Devils

My will is the law's will. The inheritance of the Myriad Devil Sovereign was a path that could be cultivated to the empyrean realm.

Qin Wentian has already comprehended the source origin of devil laws, and that in addition to the Myriad Devil Sovereign's inherited power, he could simply deal with all the devil experts here on the island effortlessly. These people dared to use devil-path techniques before him? That was simply courting death.

The people of the Myriad Devil Islands felt their hearts shaking when they saw a powerful devil lord couldn't even last a single strike against Qin Wentian and was even killed by his own power. This man, who could cause the entire immortal realms to tremble, was truly extremely terrifying.

"Little Qing. You, Qing`er and Qingcheng step back for now." Qin Wentian spoke. After that, the three of them retreated. Bai Qing naturally trusted her Wentian gege. She has never doubted his talent and ability. Since Wentian gege wanted to become the Myriad Devil Sovereign of this generation, she would naturally support him fully.

"Those who don't believe can attack together. I'll show you guys what it means to be the Myriad Devil Sovereign." Qin Wentian spoke. His palms extended out, and in an instant, the entire Devil Mountain trembled as a rumbling sound could be heard. A fearsome devil might permeated the area. On the Devil Mountain, countless people inclined their heads and stared at the mountain's peak. Over there, they could see devil clouds churning wildly, brimming with power.

In this instant, boundless devil light radiated from all the supreme devil halls. It was like the devil energy in the devil halls was controlled by Qin Wentian and came flooding out.

The sky turned dark. The boundless devil might congregated together to form a terrifying gigantic devil throne that was in the air, causing the hearts of those who saw it to tremble.

Only to see Qin Wentian's figure slowly floating up as he sat down in the devil throne in the air. After that, a burst of devil might gushed forth from him. His body expanded in size and was like a true devil sovereign peering down at all things from the sky.

"Rise." He coldly spoke. In an instant, from the depths of the Imperial Dragon Devil Hall, numerous draconic roars sounded out. After that, the crowd only saw scores of black dragons rising up into the air, answering the summons of Qin Wentian as they flew in spirals around him, demonstrating their loyalty.

The experts of the Imperial Dragon Devil Hall instantly froze as their bodies trembled in disbelief.

"Get over here." Qin Wentian turned his eyes towards the direction of the Sky Devil Hall. Over there, numerous beams of light erupted, shooting up into the skies as they formed sky devil sabers as they converged into an ultimate devil saber. This was an extremely terrifying sky devil treasure saber. Qin Wentian stretched out his hand and grabbed it with his palms.

The devil might from Qin Wentian grew more and more imposing.

The devil cultivators on the mountain trembled even more fiercely. Qin Wentian's gaze then turned towards the direction of the Darkness Devil Hall. Over there, swishing sounds rang out as a palace directly crumbled apart. An incomparably fearsome darkness devil cape flew out from there, directly shooting towards Qin Wentian who was on the devil throne and fastened itself around his back.

"Devil Sovereign's Cape!" The people of the Darkness Devil Hall shook in fear as all of them stared unblinkingly at Qin Wentian.

However, everything wasn't at its end yet. Qin Wentian glanced in the direction of the Myriad Devil Hall. Over there, a terrifying ancient devil will surged out. After that, it released a wave of terrifying devil might that shot up into the skies, manifesting numerous ancient devil lords. They all grouped around Qin Wentian protectively, acting as his guards.

Qin Wentian turned his gaze towards the Judiciary Devil Hall. Terrifying bolts of red lightning shot over and revolved around him, as though granting him the power to judge everything. There was also a blood-red scepter floating in the air before him.

At the end, Qin Wentian glanced towards the Apostle Devil Hall. Over there, a beam of light shot up the sky. A crown could be seen flying over and landed on Qin Wentian's head.

At this instant, Qin Wentian completely became this generation's Myriad Devil Sovereign, the absolute ruler through eternity, the lord of all devils.

The devil cultivators below all stared up in awe at the sky, all of them so shocked that their souls have already flew off, their bodies were still trembling.

"The true lord finally descends." Some people prostrated themselves on the ground as their voices quavered.

"Who would have thought that such a day would come, I finally get to see the glory of the Devil Sovereign." Some of the older people here directly knelt down and bowed their heads towards Qin Wentian. After that, the millions of smaller devil halls located below the mountain's peak all knelt as well. More and more people gradually submitted and not long after, countless devil cultivators were all paying their respects to Qin Wentian.

The inheritance of the Myriad Devil Sovereign was the best proof.

Even the experts of the six supreme devil halls were speechless from shock. At this moment, an old man from the Apostle Devil Hall walked forward and bowed to Qin Wentian, "The Apostle Devil Hall has protected the crown of the Devil Sovereign for countless years. Now that the successor of the Myriad Devil Sovereign as appeared, our mission is at its end."

The Apostle Devil Hall submitted, willing to take Qin Wentian as their lord.

The Judiciary Devil Hall Lord also walked over. He bowed and spoke, "I pay my respects to the Devil Sovereign."

The Myriad Ancient Devil Hall Lord appeared and was incomparably respectful as he bowed to Qin Wentian.

The Darkness Devil Hall, Sky Devil Hall and Imperial Dragon Devil Hall knew that the ending was already fixed when they saw this. They had to submit even if they didn't want to. Let alone the fact that who among them could contend against Qin Wentian's strength?

Who would have thought that he actually managed to truly obtain the Myriad Devil Sovereign's inheritance in the past, leading to this ending today.

"Is there anyone who is still not satisfied or is unwilling to accept me as the Devil Sovereign? You can stand out and leave the Devil Mountain voluntarily. I will grant you guys your freedom." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. At this moment, he was the true Devil Sovereign, he could peer down imperiously at all devil cultivators under the heavens.

Nobody spoke. Right now, who else would dare to act like they didn't accept him as the Devil Sovereign?

"Since there's no one standing out, I'll not pursue any grudges we might have between us in the past. But from now on, if there's anyone else who dares to disobey my orders, the Judiciary Devil Hall is to administer punishment on my behalf, kill all who disobey without mercy. Qin wentian coldly added, exuding an incomparable majesticness. Right now, he was already a world palace lord and had towering authority. He naturally would have the natural disposition of a leader.

"We obey the Devil Sovereign's order." The Judiciary Devil Hall Lord bowed as he spoke.

Qin Wentian swept his eyes over to everyone, causing the minds of the devil cultivators to shudder as he spoke, "Gather all the devil emperors of the various devil regions. Make preparations to head to the immortal realms. I'm preparing to unify Azure Mystic."

The people in the Myriad Devil Islands all felt their hearts trembling when they heard that. All of them stared at the Myriad Devil Sovereign with awe in their eyes. Qin Wentian not only plans to become the Myriad Devil

Sovereign, he also desires to unite the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, becoming the hegemon lord of both the immortal realms, the Demonic Desolate Mountain Range, as well as the Myriad Devil Islands.

"Yes." The various supreme devil hall lords nodded respectively. They were all thinking that it seems that Qin Wentian has already broken through to that legendary realm. If not, he wouldn't have the ambition to unite the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

"You all can rise." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Our thanks to the Devil Sovereign." On the Devil Mountain, the numerous figures here stood up, their eyes fixed on the unparalleled figure in the air.

The vast devil might dissipated. Qin Wentian kept the devil treasures and caused the devil throne to fade away with a wave of his hand. He continued to float in the air, "Everyone, return to what you were doing. Await my further summons."

The various devil experts bowed before they retreated. The shock in their hearts took a long time to fade away.

Bai Qing walked over and hugged Qin Wentian's arm as she giggled, "Wentian gege. In that case, do I need to bow in the future when I see you?"

Staring at the smile on Little Qing's face, Qin Wentian laughed and pinched her cheeks. "You are the little sister of the Devil Sovereign. There's naturally no need to bow."

"Hehe." Bai Qing smiled happily. She then looked at Qing'er and Mo Qingcheng, "Elder sis Qing'er, elder sis Qingcheng."

The two of them smiled and nodded to Bai Qing, only to see her pulling their hands as she spoke, "Let me bring the two of you to tour the Myriad Devil Islands. We should ignore him."

"Alright." Mo Qingcheng laughed as she stared at Qin Wentian. Qing`er also chose to follow Bai Qing. Qin Wentian shrugged and revealed a helpless expression, it seems like he was destined to be bullied by these three women.

Qin Wentian didn't stay for too long at the Devil Mountain. Compared to the Myriad Devil Islands, the Evergreen Immortal Empire was then the true center of the chaos. Right now, every major power in this immortal realm had their eyes fixed there. He had to be stationed there at the Evergreen Immortal Empire to prevent any accidents from happening.

Qin Wentian didn't know that after he departed, there were some devil cultivators who descended the Devil Mountain and went to the Fallen Devil Region.

The Celestial Devil Lodge suddenly had many powerful devil cultivators visiting here today. The lord of the Fallen Devil Island, the Fallen Devil Emperor himself personally led these powerful cultivators here. The lodge lord led some maidens up to welcome them, her heart was filled with shock and bewilderment as she didn't know what these people were here for. For someone that could make the Fallen Devil Emperor lead the way, how high must the status of this group be?

The person in the lead was a female with an extraordinary aura. She spoke, "Is Lady Xin Yu here?"

"Xin Yu again?" The lodge lord felt puzzled in her heart. "I'll get someone to call her over."

"No need, just bring me to pay my respects to Lady Xin Yu." That female spoke. The lodge lord felt waves of shock in her heart. This female used the terms 'pay my respect.'

"Right." The lodge lord of the Celestial Devil Lodge nodded. After that, she brought the female inside the Celestial Devil Lodge and found Xin Yu.

Xin Yu turned her gaze to the lodge lord only to hear that female stating, "Lady Xin Yu, I came from the Devil Mountain."

The lodge lord felt her heart trembling violently. Came from the Devil Mountain?

Xin Yu naturally knew of the Devil Mountain, it was the holy ground for devil cultivators on the Myriad Devil Islands.

"The Devil Sovereign has commanded me to come here and receive you. Is Lady Xin Yu willing to head to the Devil Mountain?" That female asked. In truth, this wasn't something commanded by Qin Wentian. Earlier, Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er told Bai Qing about her and after that, Bai Qing sent out the command for this group of people to come here to fetch her. Qin Wentian didn't know anything about this.

"Why?" Xin Yu didn't understand.

"This is the Devil Sovereign's idea." That female replied. The lodge lord and Xin Yu's hearts trembled once again. They didn't dare to imagine why the Devil Sovereign would pay attention to Xin Yu.

"I don't understand." Xin Yu shook her head.

"The Devil Sovereign's name is Qin Wentian." That female spoke. Xin Yu's entire person was like as though she got struck by lightning. For a moment, even her thoughts stopped.

"I'm not going." Xin Yu turned and directly ran out, her tears flowing from her face. He has truly sat on the throne in the sky, peering down at all other existences. She said before that she wasn't worthy enough to be by his side.

"Xin Yu." The lodge lord chased after her. The female from the Devil Mountain froze before she sighed and brought her subordinates away.

This similar scene also happened in the Blackstone Devil Sect. When the third princess Yan Yuruo heard that someone from the Devil Mountain came for her, great waves of emotions shook her heart. The Devil Sovereign sent someone here to pick her up? Wanting her to head to the Devil Mountain for cultivation?

When she heard the Devil Sovereign's name, her beautiful gaze instantly froze. After that, she giggled and accepted it. Since she was able to go up to the Devil Mountain, why should she refuse? Let alone the fact that that fellow was now the Myriad Devil Sovereign. Everything simply felt like a dream!

Chapter 1688: Universal Attention

Xin Yu was different from Yan Yuruo. To Xin Yu, she and Qin Wentian had once been intimate before but that was under the circumstances when Qin Wentian was injured. At that time, Qin Wentian was unconscious. Even though he came here to see her, and even sent people to fetch her to the Devil Mountain, this was something that stemmed from his guilt, and nothing else.

Also, she also felt inferior. Right now, Qin Wentian truly sat upon the throne in the sky, he was the lord of all devils. What qualifications did she have, how could she be one of the women that stood by his side? Why didn't she just silently wish him well as she faded away into obscurity?

Yan Yuruo was different. She was treated like a devilish female by Qin Wentian and her personality was more casual and carefree. Although she did feel something for Qin Wentian, she understood that they were ultimately people of different levels. She might long for him in her heart but she has taken the feeling away and buried it deeply. Naturally, she didn't mind teasing Qin Wentian occasionally if she ran into him. Although he was already the Myriad Devil Sovereign, it wasn't as though she didn't tease him in the past. In fact, she had even hugged him before.

Wanting to fetch her to the Devil Mountain for cultivation? Qin Wentian might show up there some times and the Devil Mountain was such a good location to cultivate. Why should she reject it?

Hence, both Yan Yuruo and Xin Yu made different choices.

Qin Wentian didn't know about any of this. He had already returned to the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

The immortal realms suddenly had a period of peace. Many peak characters in the City of Ancient Emperors have exited there and returned to their respective clans or sects. They naturally learned about the news of Qin Wentian's return as well.

Right now, this was like the calm before the storm. Everyone was quietly waiting for the storm to erupt.

The location of the brewing storm was the same as almost two hundred years ago, the location where the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire was at.

However, would the ending be the same?

With regards to this point, many people weren't clear. Everyone had different opinions.

Right now, there were two alliances among the peak powers in the north. The first was the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, Hundred Refinements Sect and the Jadestage Palace. They were extremely powerful and defended the ordinary humans from the invasion of demonic beasts. The other alliance was made up of reclusive characters akin to Matriarch Ji. They and their disciples joined together and decided to form a sect. The strength of their alliance didn't lose out to the first alliance formed by the three great peak powers of the north.

This second alliance named themselves as the Chaotic Sky Sect, this name just so coincided with the current chaotic era. They couldn't help but to form an alliance to avoid being absorbed or destroyed. Right now, the situation in the immortal realms was like this. Even for peak powers, they didn't have absolute confidence to stand stably if they had no alliance. Through these years, many peak powers had declined and was destroyed, disappearing from the central stage of the immortal realms. The clearest examples were from the eastern regions. Almost all of the peak powers then had fallen.

At this moment at the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. An immortal emperor came here to pay a visit. This immortal emperor said that he was from the Evergreen Immortal Empire and came here on Qin Wentian's orders.

Right now, what sort of character was Qin Wentian? This matter was naturally instantly reported to the Darknorth Immortal Emperor and he personally came to see this visitor.

The person who came was none other than Xu Li. He has followed Qin Wentian for many years, ever since the first day Qin Wentian became the northern governor of Lifire City until today. He had also witnessed Qin Wentian's growth and can be considered one of Qin Wentian's trusted aides. His loyalty to Qin Wentian even exceeded his loyalty to Ye Qianyu.

The Darknorth Immortal Emperor brought along Beiming Nongyue as they received Xu Li. Right now, Beiming Nongyue's beauty was even more outstanding than the past. She has married Li Yufeng. Their relationship was founded on the basis of love and had cemented the alliance between the Darknorth Dynasty and the Hundred Refinements Sect.

"Xu Li pays my respects to the Darknorth Immortal Emperor." Xu Li clasped his hands and spoke. Given his status, there originally wasn't a need for him to be so polite to the ruler of an empire in the lower worlds. However, this was something Qin Wentian wanted him to do.

The Darknorth Immortal Emperor felt puzzled when he saw how courteous Xu Li was. He then asked, "May I know what's the reason of your visit here?"

"Palace Lord bade me to transmit some information to you. Beiming Youhuang is safe. He initially wished to come here personally for a visit but right now, he needed to be prepared during these troubled times. After the commotion is settled, he will definitely personally pay a visit to your Darknorth Immortal Empire and allow your majesty to communicate with Beiming Youhuang. Right now, does your majesty have any words you wish to convey to me? Palace Lord can directly pass your words to Beiming Youhuang." Xu Li didn't beat around the bush and directly spoke.

Given Qin Wentian's relationship with Beiming Youhuang. He should truly have personally paid a visit here. However, right now things were extremely chaotic. Qin Wentian didn't dare to recklessly move away from the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Before he headed to the Myriad Devil Islands, he even directly got his subordinates to build a teleportation array. Hence, this was why he told Xu Li to come here. No matter what, he still had to let the Darknorth Immortal Emperor know that they were on the same side. If not, the Darknorth Immortal Empire might be instigated and join his enemy's camp. This wasn't something Qin Wentian wanted to see.

"Where is my elder sister?" Beiming Nongyue's beautiful eyes sparkled like gems as she asked first, before the Darknorth Immortal Emperor could say anything.

"In the Lifelong Realm of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. As to her exact location, Palace Lord Qin isn't clear about that." Xu Li replied.

"Qin Wentian can really converse with my elder sister despite them being in different immortal realms?" Beiming Nongyue asked again.

"There's something called messaging crystals in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. With this, no matter how far apart two people are, they can communicate via immortal sense as long as they had once input a strand of their immortal sense in their crystals." Xu Li nodded.

The Darknorth Immortal Emperor nodded, "Thanks for making the effort to come here."

"Don't worry about it. I shall take my leave now then." Xu Li clasped his hands. After that, he turned and left, not planning to stay a moment longer.

"Nongyue, do you think this is real?" The Darknorth Immortal Emperor asked after Xu Li departed.

"Father, Qin Wentian wouldn't lie to us." Beiming Nongyue directly spoke. She had a pretty good relationship with Qin Wentian. Although there was some conflict between Beiming Youhuang and Qin Wentian back then, since Qin Wentian sent someone to bring word to them, this should be real.

"Back then, did that lass Youhuang really run off with Qin Wentian?" A puzzled expression could be seen on the Darknorth Immortal Emperor's face. Why didn't his daughter inform him of anything when she left?

Beiming Nongyue also felt puzzled. She blinked before she suddenly laughed, "Since elder sister is fine, we can set our hearts at ease. I'm preparing to head to the Evergreen Immortal Empire with Yufeng."

The Darknorth Immortal Emperor glanced at Beiming Nongyue before he smiled and nodded, "You and Qin Wentian are friends, it's also appropriate for you to go there."

After several days, Li Yufeng and Beiming Nongyue silently arrived at the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Upon seeing his old friends coming to visit, Qin Wentian naturally happily received them. Back then, he was already extremely fond of Li Yufeng and Beiming Nongyue's characters. Now that he heard that they were married, he was naturally extremely happy.

Li Yufeng and Beiming Nongyue actually didn't know how to describe the feelings in their hearts when they saw Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was from the same generation as them and from a certain view point, their starting points were both higher than him. But now, the disparity between them was like the difference between the heavens and earth. Although Qin Wentian still treated them as friends, him, Qing`er and Qingcheng leisurely chatted with them, they still couldn't help but to feel extreme admiration for him and a sense of helplessness when they saw he had so many immortal emperor-level subordinates.

The Qin Wentian in the past was a supreme genius. He was surrounded and hunted down but he actually didn't die.

Now that he has returned, Qin Wentian can no longer be called a genius. He is truly someone who stands at the very pinnacle of the immortal realms. When they came here, they even saw an extremely terrifying phoeroc and golden sun demon beast. These two were the kings of the two demonic races, but Qin Wentian directly killed his way into their bases and captured them. How imposing was this? He had no equals in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

Even for a supreme genius like Li Yufeng, he had no airs before Qin Wentian and could only sigh at his own inferiority.

After the banquet, through Qin Wentian's passing of messages, Beiming Youhuang and Beiming Nongyue finally managed to communicate. After that, Qin Wentian gave Beiming Nongyue and Li Yufeng some cultivation resources, saying that this was instructed by Youhuang, a gift from the elder sister to the younger one. Beiming Nongyue naturally didn't feel good to reject.

He also gave them some messaging crystals as well. After that, the two of them kept a low-profile and departed.

After all, Qin Wentian simply had too many enemies in the immortal realms. Before the curtains were drawn, Qin Wentian didn't wish to implicate his friends.

Now, the agreed date announced by Qin Wentian has almost arrived. The originally desolate location of the Evergreen Immortal Empire's royal capital, was now filled with an unknown amount of experts who came from various locations. They were all prepared to witness the grand unfolding of events that would occur soon. It has almost been two hundred years since something like this occurred. They naturally didn't want to miss it.

Naturally, those who are weak didn't dare to come. If not, the aftershocks from the battle might just kill them. The weakest among the spectators who came were at the immortal-foundation realm.

The vast royal capital has never been so lively even during its prosperous period. All the inns and restaurants were full. There were countless people discussing about the major events of the immortal realms and what would happen next.

"Qin Wentian has returned and invited all heroes of the world to gather. Seems like he is extremely confident and is out for revenge."

"That's right. Back then in the past, Qin Wentian was already a supreme genius. He could kill immortal emperors when he was only at the immortal king realm. Right now, since he is at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm, who could contend for supremacy against him? Old Devil Duo Tian and the others wanted to test his strength and ended up paying with their lives. How powerful are the demonic kings from the Phoeroc and Gold Sun Demonic Race? Yet they were captured so easily and was tormented to such pitiful straits. From my point of view, Qin Wentian most probably wants the throne of our immortal realms, he seeks to become an ancient emperor."

"Nonsense." Another person coldly spoke. "Qin Wentian's arrogance knows no bounds, he actually dares to invite all the major powers to gather at the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Even with the help of the Southern Phoenix Clan and Matriarch Ji, how can he be strong enough to unify the immortal realms? Don't forget that there are many peak powers that have enmity towards Qin Wentian."

"That's right, if Qin Wentian wants to unify the immortal realms, there's no doubt that all the other peak powers have to submit."

Many people silently agreed. Many of such voices appeared in the Evergreen Immortal Empire saying that Qin Wentian wanted to proclaim himself hegemon of the entire immortal realms. Evidently, someone purposely revealed this information to make the other major powers ally themselves to deal with Qin Wentian. After all, right now in the Evergreen Immortal Empire's royal capital, there were many juniors of the various major powers of the immortal realms. They have all arrived.

Also, one couldn't help but say that the speculations of these people weren't wrong at all.

In any case, all these were discussions held in the dark but it was true that there were many people who didn't feel that Qin Wentian had enough strength to dominate the entire immortal realms. Although the strength he had displayed was immense, but don't forget that there was still a power named the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect in the immortal realms. There are also rumors saying that the Senluo Immortal Empire had an ancient emperor character who told Qin Wentian to submit himself to them.

All sorts of voices could be heard. The announced date has finally arrived.

Today, everyone in the immortal realms were paying attention to this!

Chapter 1689: All gathered

The Evergreen Immortal Empire, at the location of the royal capital… There was a blanket of sinister clouds in the sky today, adding to the tension in the atmosphere.

The imperial palace had been reconstructed and stood in the center of the royal capital, seemingly independent of the world. It was unknown how many experts there were currently in the capital, with a single glance, countless people would fill one's vision. No matter if it was on the ground or in the air, immortal experts were everywhere.

Today was fated not to be an ordinary day. Today, the immortal realms would surely tremble and the situation of the immortal realms would be redefined.

Somebody claimed that Qin Wentian would use his strength to suppress all the powers and become the hegemon of this world, unifying Azure Mystic and bring back the gloriousness of the eras of ancient emperors.

But there were also sayings that this was a bait set by the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

There were also people saying that the Senluo Immortal Empire clearly knew how strong Qin Wentian was, yet they still told Qin Wentian to scram there and submit. What confidence was this? It was said that when Qin Wentian invited heroes of the world to gather in the Evergreen Immortal Empire, there was no chaos at all in the Senluo Immortal Empire. Everything was in order, they didn't seem to fear Qin Wentian at all.

All these, were information that the majority of people knew.

There was also other news that was spread among a minority of the people. The news was that there were experts from the upper world who descended here to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Qin Wentian also came from there. As for those experts from the upper world, all of them were incomparably powerful. In fact, many peak powers here in Azure Mystic were just a minor branches that originated from there.

Some claimed that after Qin Wentian and the Southern Phoenix Clan destroyed the Ancient Ying Clan, supreme experts from the Ying Clan of the upper world were now here and were preparing to take revenge, razing the Evergreen Immortal Empire to the ground, causing this reconstructed majestic place to disappear into history.

There were even arrogant voices stating that now that the major powers of the immortal realms would gather, it wasn't because they feared Qin Wentian, and it also wasn't simply to deal with Qin Wentian. The purpose of some of these powers were to dominate the entire immortal realms because they had ancient emperors among them. Since all major powers would be gathered in a single location, wasn't this an extremely suitable time as well as place?

Such an opportunity was something Qin Wentian created for them. They naturally knew how to grab hold of it.

Inside one of the buildings of the imperial palace, Qin Wentian stood with his hands behind his back. His white robes fluttered in the wind as his eyes shone like stars in the night sky.

The White-Hair Killing Goddess, Evergreen Qing`er, now had gentleness on her face as she quietly stood beside him. Not far away, Mo Qingcheng sat there together with the two siblings Zhi Yan and Zhi Ran. All of them quietly stared at Qin Wentian's figure.

"Wentian, all the major powers from the various directions are already heading here." At this moment, Princess Changping came by and spoke.

"Understood, Aunt." Qin Wentian smiled, directly referring to her as his aunt too. Princess Changping smiled and nodded. This young man in white exuded magnificence that would last through the generations. Even that war back then failed to claim his life. Let alone now that he is much stronger than before.

Not far away, numerous figures slowly moved over, all of them respectively standing at Qin Wentian's side. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Matriarch Ji, Emperor Yu, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch and the immortal emperors from the Battle Saint Tribe. All of them had solemn expressions and were prepared for the upcoming battle.

And right now, all these peak-level characters in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms were all willing to let Qin Wentian take the lead.

But even so, they could still feel pressure that was as heavy as a mountain. This upcoming battle was destined not to be an easy one.

"Seniors, there's no need to be so worried or nervous. After this battle, no one else would dare to invade the Evergreen Immortal Empire." Qin Wentian laughed, his voice contained an unshakable self-confidence, almost to the point of arrogance.

"Mhm." Everyone nodded, not saying anything more, only silently standing around Qin Wentian. This junior before them had unknowingly become their strongest support. Simply standing there, he was the backbone of everyone.

White robes in boundless magnificence, what can the world do to me?

All of a sudden, a disturbance could be heard from afar. After that, someone exclaimed in shock, "The Senluo Immortal Empire has arrived!"

This voice soon circulated around as countless gazes turned over. From a certain direction, a group of experts could be seen making their way over in an imposing manner, with a chariot in front of them. All the experts were at at the immortal king and immortal emperor realms, presenting an extremely fearsome sight.

There was only a single chariot but because it was too gigantic, eight true dragons were needed to pull it along. What a magnificent scene this was? Everyone stared in shock, despite the chariot being extremely large, there was only a single person sitting on it. Also, that person was not the Senluo Immortal Emperor. The incomparably lofty Senluo Immortal Emperor was actually walking at the side of the chariot.

In that case, how great was the status of the person sitting on the chariot?

When Qin Wentian saw this scene, his expression was as calm as ever. Although he already knew the answer, he was still extremely calm.

After the identity of the man walking beside the chariot was revealed, the crowd instantly went into an uproar as many trembled in shock. What a shocking piece of news this was, could this be the reason why the Senluo Immortal Empire sent out news for Qin Wentian to scram over there to submit himself?

"How tough your life is, to think that you didn't die that year. But this time, you will find it hard to escape even if given wings." The Senluo Immortal Emperor coldly spoke. The supreme crown prince of the Senluo Immortal Empire was killed by none other than Qin Wentian. How would the Senluo Immortal Emperor forget this? He initially thought that he had his revenge because Qin Wentian had died. But never in his wildest dreams did he imagine that not only did Qin Wentian not die, he actually came back almost two hundred years later for revenge.

"Your life won't be as tough as mine. So, you will surely die today." Qin Wentian stared at the Senluo Immortal Empire as he calmly spoke, as though the fate of the Senluo Immortal Emperor was already set. These words caused the hearts of many to tremble.

Where did Qin Wentian's confidence come from?

More and more figures appeared, all of them from different camps. These people were from three different powers and the might they exuded was terrifying to the extreme, capable of causing the heavens and earth to collapse. This was especially so for one of these powers. The group of people from that power seemed to be perpetually immersed in sunlight, their bodies shimmering with sun flames. Everywhere they passed by, the temperature of the surroundings would surge up as the air sizzled. They were none other than experts from the Sacred Sun Sect. Even their sect leader personally came today.

Although the other two powers didn't intentionally release their auras, there was also a formless pressure from them that caused the crowd to feel stifled. They were the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire and Thunder God Hall, all three of them arrived together.

These people who came seemed to all be from the major powers in the central regions.

"Brother Qin, it's been many years since we last met but your bearing is as imposing as ever. I'm impressed." A congratulatory voice drifted over. After that, a group of experts appeared here. They didn't have many people but all of them were elites belonging to the Jiang Clan of the southern regions.

The person who spoke was none other than Jiang Zihua. Back then, he was also a supreme genius in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

Qin Wentian swept a glance at Jiang Zihua. He didn't say anything. He didn't like this pair of brothers, Jiang Zihua and Jiang Ziyu. Right now, he could no longer be bothered to feign civility.

"Snowdrift Sage Hall, Nibblesky Sacred Cult and the Askheart Temple have arrived." There were more and more major powers arriving.

Qin Wentian glanced towards the location of the Askheart Temple. He bowed to the monk in the lead, "Qin Wentian pays my respects to Reverend."

This monk was none other than the esteemed reverend from the Askheart Temple that had fought on Qin Wentian's behalf in the war back then. The monk pressed his palms together and replied, "Sir Qin, there's no need to be so polite."

"The powers from the north are here." At this moment, another alliance formed from three powers came over. One of these powers were made up of all females with many outstanding beauties among them. These maidens were from the Jadestage Immortal Palace of the northern region. The palace mistress of the Jadestage Immortal Palace sat in a sedan with a veil covering her face, giving her an ethereal aura. She was truly a rarely seen supreme beauty in the world.

Many other holy maidens stood around her, all of them extremely beautiful, causing the crowd to stare in admiration. As expected of the Jadestage Immortal Palace.

For the other two powers, they were the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty and the Hundred Refinements Sect. Li Yufeng and Beiming Nongyue were here as well. They nodded slightly to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian glanced at them before he turned his gaze to the Darknorth Immortal Emperor as he nodded back.

In the air, the clouds churned as another terrifying aura descended from the sky. After that a huge group of extremely powerful experts appeared. Many of these experts were mid-stage immortal emperors and the strength of their group wasn't any weaker compared to the alliance formed by the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, Hundred Refinements Sect and the Jadestage Immortal Palace.

"They are the Chaotic Sky Sect, we are still unsure if they are friend or foe." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor introduced to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian nodded lightly. He saw a familiar face among the Chaotic Sky Sect's members. It was none other than the arrogant Pei Qing who tried to pursue Beiming Youhuang in the past.

Also, Pei Qing's status wasn't low. He stood in the front row of experts, with an old man beside him. Back then, Pei Qing also had an extraordinary status in the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. He was the disciple of a powerful emperor. Most probably, this old man beside him was none other than his master.

Pei Qing naturally also saw Qin Wentian. He was as expected of a talented genius worthy of the reputation of holding the title of the youngest immortal emperor in the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty before Beiming Youhuang. During these years, he tempered himself in the City of Ancient Emperors and recently broke through to the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm and became extremely famous. However, he clearly didn't expect Qin Wentian to still be alive and caused the entire immortal realms to shake with his return.

Other than these major powers, many unaffiliated immortal emperors also came. After all, this grand event today would decide the future of the immortal realms.

Xu Qingyao also came here with her parents. After she saw Qin Wentian, a surge of emotions appeared in Xu Qingyao's heart.

At this moment, waves of demonic qi permeated the air. Numerous greater demons soared through the sky, blotting out the sun.

"The Phoeroc Race, Sun Gold Demon Beast Race, Void Beast Race…" Everyone glanced up. The killing intent from the Phoeroc and the Sun Gold Demon Beast Races was extremely apparent. Their kings were just below them, on the verge of dying.

After that, the Evil God Race, Heavenhold Race, Nether Race, Baize, Dragon Race, Nine-tailed Demon Fox Race, Kirin, Devil Ape, Taotie, Qiongqi, White Tiger and Taowu. All these terrifying greater demons came one after another, causing the sky to change color. This burst of demonic qi was too rampant, causing the hearts of many people to shudder.

During these years, the demonic races ran rampant through the immortal realms and claimed half of the immortal realms as their territories. In fact, even a war between humanity and demons broke out once and it was only after that did the demons become more low-profile. One has to know that when all the demonic races joined forces, even the immortal realms had to tremble as the sky and earth were turned topsy-turvy.

Qin Wentian glanced at the greater demons in the air as his eyes gleamed with coldness.

"Qin Wentian, today is the date of your death." A strange and ice-cold voice rang out from the void. Nobody knew where this voice came from.

Chapter 1690: The Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect Today

Qin Wentian stared at the air as he coldly spoke, "Which vile creature dares to speak before this king?"

The aura in the void churned wildly but no demonic beast replied. A moment later, numerous demon beasts descended from the skies, each from different factions. These demonic races were the strongest among their kind, exuding an overwhelming pressure. Naturally, there were also some demons who caused the crowd to stare at them in admiration. An example was the Nine-tailed Demon Fox Race. They were all in human-form and were exceedingly beautiful. This was especially so for the fox goddess, her beautiful aura and bearing was so intense that no other demons could match.

"Phoeroc Race, Sun Gold Beast Race. Seems like you guys treated my words like thin air." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. Even now, Little Rascal had yet to appear.

The greater demons of the Phoeroc and Sun Gold Beast Races walked out. Their fearsome auras gushed forth, enveloping the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire. The vast imperial palace now felt extremely tiny and inconsequential. Before so many peak powers that were gathered here, the imperial palace seemed so weak that it couldn't stand up to a burst of wind, seemingly about to crumble at any moment.

"Release the king of my race!" A peak-stage demon emperor from the Phoeroc Race icily spoke. His wings blotted out the sun, resembling a dark and gloomy cloud that cast a shadow over everything. His eyes shone with golden flames, terrifying to the extreme.

Qin Wentian's gaze was glacial. He spoke, "Since this is the case, do it."

"Yes, Palace Lord." As the sound of Qin Wentian's voice faded, the silhouettes of a group of immortal emperors flashed. They arrived before two demonic beasts with weak auras that were lying on the ground. Their divine weapons gleamed with light as they directly attacked the two demon kings, slashing their feathers, plucking their tendons, breaking their wings. In an instant, the two supreme kings of the two powerful races screamed in misery. They were already heavily injured and were on the verge of death. How could they stand against such hellish attacks now?

In the air, the demonic beasts from the Phoeroc Race and Sun Gold Beast Race all went mad from their anger. They swooped down from the air, directly attacking. But at this moment, within the Evergreen Immortal Empire, a troop of immortal emperors soared up into the air, radiating with fearsome might as they clashed against the experts from the two demonic races. They continued to fight intensely in the skies, amidst the howls and roars of rage from the demons.

"Why are you all not acting yet?" The experts of the two races stared at the other demons. However, other than those demonic races that had hatred with Qin Wentian, many of the other demonic races only planned to spectate for now, they had no intentions of acting. There was also intense competition between the demonic races. Both the Phoeroc Race and the Sun Gold Beast Race were demon races whose strength was at the peak. Usually, all of them were extremely arrogant and tyrannical. It was naturally the best for the other demonic races if the strength of these two races was weakened.

Also, given that all the major powers in the immortal realms were gathered here today, it wasn't just the demon races. If they rushed out and engaged in battle with Qin Wentian, wouldn't that be extremely advantageous for the other humans of the immortal realms? These greater demons were all extremely shrewd. How would they act easily?

The two kings of these two supreme demon races were now abused so badly in front of the public. Such a scene caused the hearts of everyone to tremble. Countless gazes turned to that figure in white. How imposing and domineering he was after his return? It seemed that he could control the heavens, even daring to tell the sun and moon to change according to his will.

The screams of agony continued. The two demon kings were being tortured and this scene caused trepidation to appear in the hearts of many major powers here today. Today, they definitely couldn't make a move recklessly. The situation of the immortal realms was changing. Most probably this location, where the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire was in, would be covered by blood.

"Start a fire. As supreme demon kings, they are definitely highly nutritious food." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Those experts under him proficient in fire laws instantly started a fire and started roasting the two demon kings. The flames from the fire were extremely terrifying, these flames were produced by peak-stage immortal emperors, there were naturally no problems to roast two peak-stage greater demons that were on the verge of death.

When they saw this, the demons from the two races went completely crazy, sparing no expense as they went all out. However, they were firmly suppressed by the two new kings of their races. These kings knew that they had to be calm now. They knew that there were undoubtedly many people who hoped for them to act as guinea pigs and be the first to probe Qin Wentian and the Evergreen Immortal Empire's strength. If they went all out to fight now, their fate would only to become cannon fodder.

Qin Wentian could already kill his way into their bases and do what he wanted to. From this, it could be seen that his strength was extremely terrifying.

"ROAR!" There were experts from the White Tiger Race that let out low roars, their eyes flickering with flames. Back then in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, many white tigers ended up as food for Qin Wentian and his companions. They naturally would not forget such a humiliation despite the fact that Qin Wentian was roasting the meat of the two supreme demon kings from the Phoeroc and Sun Gold Demon Beast Races.

The fragrance of cooked meat permeated the surroundings, causing many to lick their lips. Qin Wentian gave the order to feast and the immortal emperors under him naturally weren't polite and started eating. The meat was from two supreme peak-stage greater demon kings. It was naturally far more valuable and nutritious compared to spiritual pills. How would they be polite about eating such good stuff?

But at this moment, another imposing group of experts arrived. This group of experts was extremely terrifying, they also had an army of immortal emperors that had shocking strength. Those standing in the front were all peak-stage emperors, radiating an extremely tyrannical aura.

Qin Wentian turned his gaze over. After that, his gaze landed on a person among that group. It was actually the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord.

This supreme group was actually none other than the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord naturally also saw Qin Wentian as well. He sighed in his heart, he didn't expect that Qin Wentian actually didn't die. After all, he was someone who had watched as Qin Wentian matured right from the beginning but now, Qin Wentian seemed as though he was going to oppose the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. This was something he truly didn't want to see. However, what could he do?

"Wentian." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord called out.

"Emperor Lord. With regards to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect now, who is in charge?" Qin Wentian asked. The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord sighed bitterly in his heart, he then glanced at a few people at the front and Qin Wentian instantly understood. Right now, although the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord was still in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect now was no longer the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect of the past. It has been completely taken over by the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

"Qin Wentian, why are you still not returning to your sect yet?" One of the experts standing in the front spoke. Qin Wentian's gaze flashed. He naturally understood what the words 'your sect' meant.

"Over a hundred years ago, I, Qin Wentian, have already died once. At that point of time, all my connection with the sect have already been severed. From now on, both of us will have nothing to do with each other." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. The deeds of the Heavenly Talisman Realm made him chose to do this. However, he didn't really wish to make an enemy out of the Heavenly Talisman Realm. After all, he was once a disciple there and had obtained considerable help from the sect before. If he really had a choice, he would definitely not choose to war against the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

"Ridiculous. Do you think you can enter and leave the sect whenever you want to? Don't forget the rules of our sect." The other party coldly laughed. He then continued, "Bring the traitors out."

As the sound of his voice faded, someone took out an spatial-type treasure. The treasure transformed into a prison with terrifying chains binding three figures within. When Qin Wentian saw these three figures, his expression instantly turned extremely ugly to behold as a fearsome cold intent radiated from his body that gradually transformed into killing intent.

"Senior brother!" A voice called out. Qin Wentian stared at the person who spoke. This man had a head full of dishevelled hair and was robed in tattered clothes. Blood stains could be seen all over his body. It was extremely difficult to realize that this was none other than the supreme genius Jun Mengchen.

"Great Emperor Dominance!" Someone exclaimed in shock. Emperor Dominance betrayed the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and fled, to think that he was actually captured. The Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect is truly extremely scary.

"Mengchen." Qin Wentian stepped out, his body brimming with a towering killing intent.

In the prison, not only Jun Mengchen was locked up. He was acquainted with the two other figures as well. One was the White-Robe Immortal King Bai Wuya who had inducted him into the sect. His entire person now seemed extremely aged and miserable. And for the third figure, it was none other than that old man who once had an extraordinary demeanor, the person who inducted Jun Mengchen into the sect.

"Wentian, don't act recklessly." As Qin Wentian moved forward, he heard Bai Wuya transmitting his voice silently to him. Bai Wuya inclined his head, the light in his eyes was no longer bright as before. Bai Wuya continued, "There are existences above the immortal emperor realm from the Heavenly Talisman Realm in the upper world here. This was the reason why Jun Mengchen was captured."

Qin Wentian's footsteps slowed, yet the killing intent he was exuding didn't reduce at all. His aura became even colder.

As expected, the Heavenly Talisman Realm in the upper world was interfering in this. This was also something he had expected. Given that the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms were in a chaotic period, they initially wanted to use the Heavenly Talisman Realm in the lower world to directly unify Azure Mystic. However, the Heavenly Talisman Realm didn't expect the ban to be relaxed, causing empyreans to descend into Azure Mystic which would undoubtedly affect their plan. But since they have been preparing to become the overlord of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms for so many years, they naturally couldn't give up. Hence, the Heavenly Talisman Realm from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms sent some empyreans down. This was also something very normal, everything was within Qin Wentian's expectations.

"Mengchen, Senior Bai, I've caused you all to suffered." Qin Wentian felt guilt. Jun Mengchen turned traitor to the Heavenly Talisman Realm because of him, and it was probably the same for Bai Wuya too. If not, even if Bai Wuya wasn't happy with the way the Heavenly Talisman Realm was doing things, he could still choose to keep a low-profile and wouldn't be one of the prisoners now.

Among the experts of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, there were also some whom Qin Wentian was familiar with. Those were the people who had participated back then during the war between the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect. An example was Tuoba Saintsky. When these people that were acquainted with Qin Wentian saw the current situation, all of them could only sigh in their hearts. However, they had no choice. They could only follow the sect's orders and unify the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

"Senior brother…" Jun Mengchen clenched his fists tightly as his eyes turned bloodshot. His senior brother actually didn't die, he should be happy originally but in this situation today, he was worried that Qin Wentian would face another calamity. He also knew that there were existences above the emperor realm that appeared in their Heavenly Talisman Realm, instantly pushing the strength of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect to another level all together with their arrival. They captured him, and captured the senior brother who inducted him, and lastly, they captured Bai Wuya. Before this, Bai Wuya was only under soft imprisonment. But now, he was directly jailed inside the spatial prison with them.

Among the disciples of the Heavenly Talisman Realm, there was also one of Qin Wentian's old friends, Zi Qingxuan. Her beautiful eyes flickered with a faint sorrow as she clenched her fists tightly. In the past, she, Qin Wentian and Jun Mengchen, fought side by side for many years together. Their relationship was extremely good but today, Jun Mengchen was a prisoner and the sect even wanted to deal with Qin Wentian. She was helpless to change anything.

"Don't worry. Everything will be fine." Qin Wentian smiled as he spoke to Jun Mengchen. After that, his gaze gleamed coldly as he stared at the experts of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

"Qin Wentian, if you are willing to kneel and apologize and choose to return to the sect and swear not to betray us again, the sect can forgive all of you for your past mistakes." That expert from the Heavenly Talisman Realm stared at Qin Wentian as he spoke.

Yet, Qin Wentian was coldly smiling at him. He gazed at that expert as though he was looking at a dead man.

He then returned to the location of where the Evergreen Alliance's people were. He didn't cast another glance at Jun Mengchen and the others but swept his eyes towards the various major powers of the immortal realms instead. "Everyone has arrived, right?"

Chapter 1691: Experts from the Upper World

As Qin Wentian's voice faded, the immortal emperors behind him all had solemn expressions. The various peak powers of the immortal realms were all gathered here at the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire today.

When had the immortal realms ever had such a magnificent and grand occasion?

At the very least, these people here today had never seen it before. Countless gazes and countless immortal senses were focused here. What capabilities did Qin Wentian have to contend against the other powers of the immortal realms.

"Qin Wentian, although you didn't die in the war back then, there's no doubt that that your soul shall be scattered today." A cold and sinister voice rang out. The Senluo Immortal Emperor radiated an intense killing intent.

Qin Wentian didn't even stare at him. He only calmly continued, "The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms transformed so much, with dao elements everywhere in the City of Ancient Emperors. Also, there are many experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that have descended here as well and I'm sure some of them are among us in the crowd now. The reason why I summoned all the major powers here is because it's about time for us to crown someone that can unify the immortal realms. In the eras of ancient emperors, they did the same thing. And now, the time is right again."

Qin Wentian's voice was like booming thunder, clearly circulating everywhere, causing the hearts of countless people to tremble.

Today, the time was right for the era of ancient emperors to return?

"Haha, Qin Wentian, you actually dare to dream so futilely about unifying the immortal realms? Do you speak with confidence just because of these immortal emperors behind you?" Pei Qing laughed uproariously. His eyes flashed with coldness as he stared at Qin Wentian. With regards to Qin Wentian, he felt some jealousy. Back then, Qin Wentian was just a junior to him. But now, Qin Wentian has already exceeded him.

"Your words fit our intent as well. As expected of a disciple from our sect. It's about time for Azure Mystic to be unified." In the direction of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, the few people in the lead coldly spoke. Clearly, they also wanted to use this opportunity where every major power was gathered to unify the world and become the hegemon of Azure Mystic.

"Agreed. The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms is simply too chaotic now." From the chariot beside the Senluo Immortal Emperor, a calm voice rang out, agreeing with Qin Wentian's words. Clearly, the person inside had the same ambition as well.

"Let's discuss about unifying the Azure Mystic later. Killing Qin Wentian first is more important." Another person icily spoke. This person was the sect leader of the Sacred Sun Sect, and he was impatient to take Qin Wentian's life. He knew that Qin Wentian had to be killed no matter what or his Sacred Sun Sect would most probably end up like the Ying Clan and Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire.

"Kill Qin Wentian first!" The demons of the White Tiger Race also roared. All of them wanted Qin Wentian to die. As to unifying Azure Mystic, they themselves could also feel how unusual the immortal realms had become. Most probably, existences above the emperor realm had appeared and there wasn't only just one of them. If there truly were existences of that level wanting to unify Azure Mystic, who are they to say no? Death would be the only thing waiting for those who refused to accept the new circumstances.

However, they wanted to kill Qin Wentian no matter what. Because if somehow Qin Wentian became the one that took the throne, all his enemies would have to die.

"Since this is the case, it's really about time to account for the debts all those years ago." Qin Wentian spoke. He stared at the experts in the air and calmly continued, "Back then, those powers that participated in the war to kill me includes the Senluo Immortal Empire, Sacred Sun Sect, Phoeroc Race, Heavenhold Demon Race, Void Beast Race and the White Tiger Race. I'll be settling the grudges with them one by one and has nothing to do with the other peak powers. But naturally, if any of you neutral parties wish to interfere and treat me as an enemy, I'm happy to play along with you guys."

"Qin Wentian, your actions are too brazen and have broken the taboo of our demonic races. All of us at the Desolate Mountain Range will kill you on sight." The new demon king of the Phoeroc Race icily spoke.

"You gathered the major powers of the immortal realms here and you intend to contend against them just with the support of the Evergreen Immortal Empire, Southern Phoenix Clan, Matriarch Ji, Emperor Yu and your subordinates? And now, you want to deal with your enemies first before you deal with the rest of us?" Pei Qing coldly laughed. Right now, Qin Wentian's group was already terrifying enough. Pei Qing didn't want to give him any chance at all.

"Pei Qing, I've yet to mention you yet you are in such a hurry to die?" Qin Wentian turned and faced Pei Qing. With just a glance, Pei Qing only felt himself sinking into a phantasm space completely. There was no one in his surroundings and in that space, only he stood there, facing against Qin Wentian alone.

"Illusion-type domain? You really dare to act?" Pei Qing's expressions changed as he called out, wanting to seek help. Right now when facing against Qin Wentian alone, he truly didn't have any confidence.

"Back then in the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, weren't you extremely arrogant before me? Since you want to court death, let me help you." Qin Wentian icily spoke. At this instant, Pei Qing only felt his entire body becoming cold. His aura erupted forth but a formless pressure soon bore down on him. A terrifying palm imprint descended from the sky, directly grabbing him. He was basically helpless and couldn't resist.

"Impudent!" Pei Qing's master stepped out, exuding a terrifying aura. The experts of the Chaotic Sky Sect all radiated cold intents as they spoke, "Qin Wentian, how dare you act so insolently."

"Qin Wentian, my Chaotic Sky Sect is also one of the strongest powers in the immortal realms today. I want to see exactly how strong the alliance you formed is. Is it really capable of contending against so many peak powers of the immortal realms." Pei Qing icily spoke as he stared at Qin Wentian.

"Chaotic Sky Sect?" A look of disdain flickered in Qin Wentian's eyes. "If they want to take revenge for you, I'll welcome them."

As the sound of his voice faded, his palm moved. Pei Qing only felt a sense of breathlessness as his entire body felt to be on the verge of crumbling. He screamed in agony, "YOU DARE?!"

"BOOM!" With a thunderous explosion, Pei Qing's body directly exploded, transformed into dust. This scene completely stunned everyone. Countless experts from the Chaotic Sky Sect glared with hatred at Qin Wentian. Pei Qing's master's eyes flashed with an intense killing intent but also a hint of fear. Right now Pei Qing was extremely powerful, yet he couldn't even withstand a single strike from Qin Wentian and was killed from a distance like that.

When they thought about Qin Wentian's startling battle achievements once more, their hearts suddenly chilled and they didn't dare to act recklessly.

"Since you all want death so much, I'll grant it to you." Qin Wentian spoke. "Destroy the Sacred Sun Sect."

"Yes, Palace Lord. A group of experts soared into the air. How terrifying was an army of immortal emperors? The experts of the Sacred Sun Sect all roared, "You guys really dare to act?"

Those manor powers named by Qin Wentian earlier all bristled and unleashed their auras. There were even demons from the Sun Gold Demon Beast Race preparing to act. The new king of their race stared at the various demons around him and spoke, "Qin Wentian's deed of humiliating the previous king of my race is already a clear warning to all of you. Don't you guys want to kill him?"

Many of the demons silently sighed, Qin Wentian was too domineering. Although the various demon races didn't like it when Qin Wentian humiliated their brethren so badly, they were still filled with fear and trepidation for him. If Qin Wentian was weak, they naturally wouldn't mind rushing over to finish him off. But Qin Wentian was clearly extremely powerful. They had no choice but to treat this cautiously.

In the direction of the Sacred Sun Sect, the sect leader stood in the center and emitted terrifying sun flames. It was as though they were in a formation that augmented the strength of their skills. A terrifying giant sphere that was a true sun actually appeared, it spun about and shot out beams of sunlight towards the immortal emperors who were rushing at them. Every beam of sunlight contained immense might. The sect leader of the Sacred Sun Sect had an emperor crown on his head. That crown was an extremely powerful divine weapon and the sun was manifested by it.

However, given the fact that Qin Wentian's subordinates were from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and some were even monarch characters, how could they not have powerful divine weapons? Resplendent beams of light flashed as a terrifying frost corroded the power of the sunlight. A mist filled the area, protecting them as they rushed the members of the Sacred Sun Sect.

At the same time, many experts also rushed towards the Phoeroc Race, Sun Gold Beast Race, Void Beast Race and the White Tiger Race. The sounds of clashing filled the air as battles instantly erupted. The skies changed color as the commotion shook this space.

As for the other experts, they all choose to spectate, not interfering in this clash. Only now did everyone here realize that the situation of the past wouldn't repeat today. Because, although the major powers were gathered here, not everyone would truly join forces to kill Qin Wentian in such a situation. Why was this so?

Only because, things have changed.

During the past, the various major powers had the absolute advantage. But today, the Ying Clan, Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire, Old Man Duo Tian and the others were already killed. Who else would dare to join in recklessly?

Could it be that only Qin Wentian had the ability to threaten the other powers of Azure Mystic? What about the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect? Even if they killed Qin Wentian, wouldn't that simply be making things easier for the other powers that had the ability to threaten the entire immortal realms? Hence, many people were waiting. They knew that the real battle has yet to begin. And for that battle, only a vast minority of people that were gather here could participate.

Qin Wentian didn't participate in the battle. The army of immortal emperors from the Lifire Palace, the Southern Phoenix Clan, the Evergreen Immortal Empire, Matriarch Ji, Emperor Yu and the immortal emperors from the Battle Saint Tribe were already extremely powerful. They were more than enough to deal with several peak powers at the same time.

His gaze then turned to the dragon chariot of the Senluo Immortal Empire.

A swishing sound could be heard, the dragon chariot crumbled apart as an imposing and tyrannical figure appeared. That figure opened his eyes as a beam of resplendent light shot out. An incomparably majestic might bore down from the heavens, enveloping this boundlessly vast region.

The sky changed color, hell on earth suddenly seemed to have appeared. The surroundings were turned into his hellish domain and just the aura from it caused the immortal emperors here to tremble. Countless people turned their gazes towards the direction of the Senluo Immortal Empire and stared at that expert while great waves of shock shook their hearts. Although they were all just guessing earlier, when they saw an existence of this level really appearing before their eyes, they still felt their hearts trembling.

At this moment, the experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire all knelt on one knee and had incomparably respectful expressions on their faces. Even the immortal emperors from their empire were kneeling. This scene was truly shocking indeed.

The Senluo Immortal Empire turned and stared at Qin Wentian as he icily spoke, "The esteemed envoy from the Senluo Immortal Palace in the upper world has descended. You actually still dare to dream about destroying my Senluo Immortal Empire? I said it before, today shall be the date of your death."

"Experts from the upper world have descended…" Everyone silently mused. If experts from the upper world really descended here, there should be characters with cultivations above the emperor realm, right?

How regretful for Qin Wentian. Was he really destined not to be able to escape death today?

"I've given you the chance to submit to me. Since you want to die, this seat will grant you your wish." That empyrean-level character from the Senluo Immortal Empire spoke. A beam of hellish light shot towards Qin Wentian, brimming with apocalyptic might. Countless gazes turned to Qin Wentian as many people's expressions changed.

This was especially so for Qin Wentian's kin and close friends, many of their countenances turned pale. Would this supreme character, who was someone so close to them, really going to die here today?

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Matriarch Ji and the others all watched on with worry, as fear could be seen in their gazes. This scene was too terrifying, that beam of hellish light directly slammed into Qin Wentian, engulfing him completely.

Chapter 1692: Empyrean-level Battle

"Ancient emperor…" The hearts of countless people trembled when they saw the destructive beam of hellish light shooting forth. Even immortal emperors were trembling. The experts from the Phoeroc Race, Sun Gold Demon Beast Race and the Sacred Sun Sect all had malevolent smiles on their faces. So what if Qin Wentian had returned? He still wouldn't be able to escape death. After he died, they will definitely make the people of the Evergreen Immortal Empire and their alliance regret ever living in this world.

The vast majority of experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire prostrated themselves, their eyes were filled with reverence. As expected of their esteemed envoy from the upper world. How could Qin Wentian survive?

At this instant, the gazes of countless people were riveted on the location Qin Wentian was at. But all of a sudden, Qin Wentian's body began to emit an incomparably resplendent light. He seemed to be basking inside, resembling a divinity of light. When the hellish light struck Qin Wentian, the light from him flared, easily eating away at the hellish energy, causing the hellish beam of light to disintegrate.

The radiance from Qin Wentian grew stronger and stronger, so blinding that they couldn't open their eyes. Countless people lifted their palms to shield their eyes. The radiance illuminated everything in the surroundings and finally, the hellish domain was actually forcibly wiped away, turning into dust.

Qin Wentian continued standing there. He, in his white robes, exuded boundless magnificence through the generations. His black hair fluttered in the wind and from the start until now, he has never even moved at all. At this moment, the expressions of many people turned ashen. They seemed to have finally understood something.

Silence bore down on everyone. In this boundlessly vast space, the countless experts here finally understood at this instant. They understood an extremely shocking truth.

The Qin Wentian that returned, wasn't simply at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm. He was already an existence surpassing the immortal emperor realm.

What did this mean exactly? This meant that he was an existence at the ancient emperor realm! He wasn't someone from the upper world, and was from their very own Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. From a junior, he slowly climbed up, surpassing countless geniuses as well as experts of the senior generation and had broken through to that legendary realm before he returned.

As to why many people didn't dare to think about this before, was because all of them felt that the amount of time passed was just too short. From the time Qin Wentian was hunted down until now, it hasn't even been two hundred years. Who would believe that he could step into the legendary realm above immortal emperors in just two hundred years when he was only an immortal king back then? This was simply a fantasy, it cannot be true. Yet, things were exactly what they thought it was impossible to be.

The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms has finally produced its very own ancient emperor again, Qin Wentian.

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Matriarch Ji and the others all smiled, the worries in their hearts faded away, only leaving behind shock. So it turns out that Qin Wentian was far stronger than they had imagined.

The experts from the Heavenly Talisman Realm narrowed their eyes as they stared at Qin Wentian. They didn't expect that Qin Wentian had actually broken through to that realm. He had truly hidden himself extremely deeply.

The grey eyes of Jun Mengchen, Bai Wuya and that old man now shone with sharpness. To Jun Mengchen, that senior brother of his who had always created miracles, was back again. Qin Wentian was undoubtedly a living legend.

To Bai Wuya, he felt proud of himself because of Qin Wentian's accomplishment. This was a young talent he had discovered and now, his aura was already incomparably dazzling, walking at the forefront of this era.

The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord felt thousands of emotions in his heart. What was magnificence? Qin Wentian was basically the epitome of it. He had dominated this entire era, no one could be compared to him.

That envoy from the Senluo Immortal Empire froze. He stared at Qin Wentian and spoke, "No wonder you dared to act so brazenly. So you have actually also stepped into the empyrean realm."

"The matters of Azure Mystic will be handled by Azure Mystic itself. I don't care who you are. If you scram now, I can treat it like nothing has happened earlier. Do what you have to do, but don't interfere in the matters of my Azure Mystic Immortal Realms." Qin Wentian stared at that envoy as he spoke tyrannically.

"HAHAHA!" That person laughed uproariously. "What big words. Don't tell me you want to represent Azure Mystic? Don't forget that the ban is now relaxed, there will be countless experts from our world descending here. You wish to represent this immortal realm?"

"Also, I heard that you had already died once almost two hundred years ago. Seems like you must have encountered a bout of good fortune and obtained a blessing through calamity to achieve your accomplishments today. I believe you must have just recently entered the empyrean realm and as for me, I've already entered the empyrean realm for thousands of years. You want me to scram? Just with you alone, are you qualified enough?" That envoy laughed maniacally. The hell domain appeared once more. His words caused the gazes of many people to flash, after all, there was some logic to it. Since the ban on this immortal realms had been relaxed, there would definitely be floods of experts entering here in the future. Although Qin Wentian's cultivation speed was quick, he had most probably just entered the ancient emperor realm not too long ago. How would he contend against the others?

Right now, the situation was still uncertain.

"Using amount of time to speak about strength and power before me? How ridiculous can you be. I'll ask you for the last time, will you scram or not?" Just as everyone was gauging who was the stronger one among the two, Qin Wentian spoke again, as tyrannical as ever. However, no one dared to rebut him. After all, speaking about amount of time in relation to strength and power before Qin Wentian was truly pointless. How many years did he even cultivated for? And from the immortal king realm to now, how many years did he use?

"What a brazen fellow, not knowing the immensity of the heavens and earth." Rage flashed across the features of that envoy. He glanced at Qin Wentian. In an instant, the hell domain appeared around Qin Wentian, trapping him within. After that, countless devils formed of magna flames appeared, rushing towards him.

For empyreans, their law's will was like heavenly might. With a single thought, they could control their laws however they wished to. How powerful was that.

In the sky above, boundless hell energy gathered and shot down, wanting to bury Qin Wentian in the ground. However, terrifying spatial energy soon appeared around Qin Wentian, materializing void blades that slashed out, tearing the entire space apart. Qin Wentian stepped out, directly moving out from the domain area, exuding an incomparable carefreeness.

"I don't know the immensity of the heavens and earth?" Qin Wentian coldly laughed. Boundless spatial lights filled the air, slicing through space, instantly enveloping the Senluo Envoy.

"Slash!" With an intention, the void blades slashed down madly. The Senluo Envoy froze. A layer of terrifying magma rocks covered his body, seemingly indestructible. Countless thunderous explosions rang out, the magma rocks glowed a brilliant red but a few moments later, the magma rocks started to crumble apart.

The Senluo Envoy stretched his hands out and in an instant, the law energies here all completely erupted, forming gigantic diamonds with the property of magma, resembling floating islands.

"DIE!" As he waved, the floating islands slammed down with the force of meteors, smashing towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's body was like a stream of flowing light, vanishing from sight. With a thunderous boom, the floating islands slammed together but Qin Wentian had disappeared. In the next moment, Qin Wentian directly appeared in front of the envoy. Incomparably resplendent light and sharp swords frenziedly slashed out, resembling the unending tides of the great ocean. The Senluo Envoy hurriedly retreated. The space in which the two of them was fighting in, transformed into a vacuum. Nobody dared to get near it. The eight true dragons pulling the chariots were reduced to dust, filling the skies with a rain of blood due to them unfortunately being hit by some of the aftershocks.

"Courting death!" The Senluo Envoy roared. The entire space was shaking, like it was about to be torn asunder. His fist gleamed with a terrifying radiance and directly punched out. An incomparably fearsome attacking technique exploded forth, concentrating the essence of his hell domain within his fist. Given how close the distance between them was, there was no way for Qin Wentian to dodge at all.

For empyreans using innate techniques, they would incorporate their law's will into their attacks, making them shockingly powerful.

Naturally, Qin Wentian didn't even intend to dodge. An ancient dharma body born of the buddha laws manifested before Qin Wentian. Countless buddha arms formed, radiating an aura of the buddhas returning in victory as he unleashed his radiant divinity fist attacks, covering everything with a burst of radiance. Everywhere his attacks passed, things were turned into ashes. The expression of the Senluo Envoy changed. How could this brat comprehend so many source origins and even had such a powerful innate technique?

The envoy howled loudly, gathering the entirety of his strength and attacked madly. However, the countless number of arms sealed this entire space, acting like vines, seeking to bind him. After a few exchanges, the envoy was completely helpless and was captured easily.

Qin Wentian walked over step by step, the light from him shining brilliantly, making him appearing incredibly holy.

"Given your puny level of strength, you even dared to want me to kneel and submit?" Qin Wentian stared at the Senluo Envoy, causing the Senluo Envoy's expression to drastically change. He hurriedly spoke, "I'm someone from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. I swear that I won't interfere in the matters of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms again. Please spare me!"

The people from the Senluo Empire were dumbstruck. After that, their shock all turned into a deep terror. Even the Senluo Immortal Emperor started to panic. Their esteemed envoy was actually defeated? What did this mean? This meant that their Senluo Immortal Empire had to prepare to face a calamity that would wipe them out completely.

"I told you to scram yet you mocked me for not knowing the immensity of the heavens and earth. What about now?" Qin Wentian glanced at the Senluo Envoy. Swords of light flew over, piercing into him, causing that envoy to scream in pain as his body was destroyed bit by bit. Under the stunned gazes of the crowd, he finally faded into the air, transformed into dust.

Silence was everywhere, the hearts of everyone were pounding violently. An ancient emperor just died like that. This...they felt their minds turning numb. After Qin Wentian returned to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, have things really gone crazy to such an extent? The opponent was an ancient emperor, a character that hasn't appeared in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms for countless years yet he was killed just like that, destroyed by this supreme and magnificent genius Qin Wentian.

How terrifying was Qin Wentian exactly? Nobody would dare to believe that Qin Wentian was still an immortal king a hundred plus years ago. This was simply unfathomable.

Was Qin Wentian strong? He was naturally strong. His astral souls have already determined his absolute advantage when he fought against those on the same level as him. It was true that he had just recently entered the empyrean realm, but he had comprehended the source origins of all his laws. This was something many empyreans wouldn't be able to do even after thousands or ten thousands of years. Back then, right after he broke through to the empyrean realm, the Lifire Empyrean then even used the Lifire Grand Formation to fight him but the Lifire Empyrean failed to gain any advantage at all. At that point of time, the Lifire Empyrean had already been in the empyrean realm for over ten thousand years.

At this moment, the people from Senluo Immortal Empire, the Sacred Sun Sect and many of the demon races which he had a grudge with, all felt terror deep in their hearts. Qin Wentian was simply way too powerful. What would their fates be?

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Matriarch Ji and the others sighed in admiration in their hearts. They also didn't expect that Qin Wentian was actually at such a high level where they could only incline their heads and stare at him.

"From today onwards, who in this world wouldn't know him?" The Southern Phoenix Matriarch, Nanfeng Yaoyue, glanced at the young man in white as she sighed. In the past, Qin Wentian was only a talented junior. How would she dare to imagine that Qin Wentian would have such accomplishments today?!

Chapter 1693: The Return of the Heaven Devouring Beast

Two hundred years ago, a change occurred to the immortal realms. Dao elements began appearing in the City of Ancient Emperors as countless geniuses vied for them.

Why would they do so?

It was naturally because they wanted to become an ancient emperor and fought for the throne in the sky, becoming unrivalled in the immortal realms. In the recorded history of Azure Mystic, many of those existences who had stepped into that realm had once unified the immortal realms. No one dared to disobey them. Although there were only a few records, nobody dared to suspect their unparalleled achievements of becoming the hegemon of the vast immortal realms.

From this, one could very well imagine what sort of existence ancient emperors were here. They were the supreme who stood at the true peak, and were qualified to be the hegemon, controlling the entire world.

And today, an ancient emperor-level character was killed by Qin Wentian in public in the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire. What did this mean? How could Nanfeng Yaoyue not understand?

After today, Qin Wentian's name would circulated across Azure Mystic. Nobody would fail to know of Qin Wentian from now on.

Many people from the Southern Phoenix Clan sighed in their hearts, incomparably stunned. Nanfeng Yunxi and Nanfeng Shengge suddenly felt as though Qin Wentian seemed so near, yet so far from them.

If they weren't his friends, most probably, they wouldn't even have the qualifications to stand together with him. This character who could even kill ancient emperors...even peak-stage immortal emperors had to kneel to him.

Among the vast crowds of people, Qin Wentian saw many familiar faces. Li Yufeng, Beiming Nongyue, the Darknorth Immortal Emperor and many others. All of them were incomparably shocked.

Although Xu Qingyao only interacted with Qin Wentian in the City of Ancient Emperors, the impression Qin Wentian had given her was just too deep. Also, that battle earlier made her unable to forget his magnificent silhouette even more.

Chu Qingyi's eyes were slightly red, feeling incomparably complicated in her heart. Has he already reached this step? In that case, she could only congratulate him. In her beautiful eyes, tears could be seen. He was the one she silently fell in love with. His name shook the world, nobody didn't know of him.

"Senior brother Qin!" Jun Mengchen clenched his fists tightly. In the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, those who were acquainted with Qin Wentian all felt countless emotions in their hearts. Even an ancient emperor died in his hands.

"Senluo Immortal Emperor. Is today going to be my death date?" Qin Wentian stared at the Senluo Immortal Emperor. At this moment, the Senluo Immortal Emperor's expression was like dead ashes. The experts of the Senluo Empire all had fear and terror on their faces. Even the esteemed envoy from the upper world died in Qin Wentian's hands, how would they possibly be Qin Wentian's opponent? Given Qin Wentian's current cultivation realm, he most probably only needed a single thought to kill them.

"Qin Wentian, you killed someone from my Senluo Immortal Empire that's from the upper world. In the future, you will also find it hard to escape death." The Senluo Immortal Emperor's expressions turned wretched as he howled. He knew that he would die for sure today.

"You won't be able to see it." Qin Wentian calmly replied.

"I'm willing to lead my entire empire and submit to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect." At this moment, the Senluo Immortal Emperor transmitted his voice secretly to those experts standing at the front of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. Currently, only this power had the capabilities to save his life. Naturally, he still spoke with Qin Wentian on the surface, "Qin Wentian, how did you do it? How did you reach this realm given such a short amount of time?"

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Before his death, the Senluo Immortal Emperor was actually concerned about this?

Staring at his shifty gaze, Qin Wentian instantly understood. He didn't waste any more time. Resplendent beams of light directly blasted into the Senluo Immortal Emperor's body as he willed.

"Stop!" At this moment, an expert from the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect roared. Qin Wentian didn't care about him. When he heard this, it further confirmed his guess. The Senluo Immortal Emperor must have sought help from the Heavenly Talisman Realm. The beams of light flared brighter, the Senluo Immortal Emperor screamed in pain before he vanished like smoke, turning into dust.

Not only for the Senluo Immortal Emperor, the radiance from Qin Wentian enveloped all the experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire. He then spoke, "Back then, the Senluo Immortal Emperor led the Senluo Immortal Empire, allying with many other powers to hunt me down. Since I've returned, let the Senluo Immortal Empire's name become history then."

As the sound of his voice faded, the experts from the Senluo Immortal Empire all let out screams of pain as one died after the other, vanishing into the light.

Although he had already reached that level. However, what he was doing now was for the sake of his revenge. What could anyone else say?

Back then, more than half of the peak powers gathered to kill him. At that time, Qin Wentian was only at the immortal king realm and emperors wanted to hunt him. Now that he has returned, no one could say that it was against the rules despite the fact that he was killing immortal emperors while at the ancient emperor realm. Many had personally witnessed how the immortal emperors wanted to hunt him down. Everything he did now was just paying them back in their coin.

"Another peak power of the immortal realms is destroyed." Many people sighed silently. The Senluo Immortal Empire was one of the three great empires in the central regions. But now, two out of the three empires there were already destroyed. The Senluo Immortal Empire and the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire were completely eradicated, their names becoming history.

If it was in the past, the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire would surely feel happy. But now, they weren't as joyful as they should be. Because, they understood that even if the Nine-Emperors Immortal Empire and Senluo Immortal Empire was destroyed, their Shooting Sun Immortal Empire wouldn't be able to achieve anything much too. With Qin Wentian here, all their hopes of climbing further were crushed. This was a man that could even kill ancient emperors. Even if someone among them also broke through to the ancient emperor ream, they wouldn't be able to defeat Qin Wentian.

This immortal realm would belong to Qin Wentian or someone who could defeat him. Their Shooting Sun Immortal Empire was only qualified to be a spectator.

There is a beautiful princess in the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire and is also now an immortal emperor. Back then, she was teased once by the monk Bujie in the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and as she was hunting Bujie down, she met Qin Wentian. Now that she saw Qin Wentian again, she felt as though she was in a dream. Everything felt so surreal. All those scenes in the sacred academy back then appeared again, flashing through her mind.

At that time, who would have thought that the handsome young man with Bujie would have such accomplishments today?

All the experts from the Heavenly Talisman Realm also had ugly expressions. Qin Wentian actually ignored them.

Qin Wentian naturally wanted to ignore them. At the moment one of them spoke, Qin Wentian immediately knew that the Senluo Immortal Emperor had asked them for help before his death. How could he still show mercy? He had vowed that he would hunt down those powers who participated in the war against him those years ago and destroy them all. Nothing could interfere in this.

"As expected of a disciple from our sect. Now that your wings have hardened and entered the empyrean realm, you feel that you can already ignore the sect's edicts." The experts from the Heavenly Talisman Realm coldly spoke.

"Back then when I was in the sect, when so many major powers grouped up and wanted to kill me, where was the sect? Now, I depend on myself to take revenge, could it be that you guys are planning to obstruct me?" Qin Wentian mockingly spoke. The experts from the Heavenly Talisman Realm coldly snorted but they had no way to refute Qin Wentian's words. They truly had no right to stop him.

"Kill them all." Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared at the battle in the air that was halted as he coldly commanded. The demons of the Phoeroc Race, Void Beast Race, White Tiger Race and the others all had terror on their faces. They explosively retreated, preparing to flee. After discovering that Qin Wentian had entered that legendary realm, they understood that it was impossible for them to win against Qin Wentian.

Right now, fleeing was their only option.

Qin Wentian coldly laughed. Astral light surrounded his body as a gigantic ancient tree appeared behind him. Countless vines instantly stretched forth rapidly, causing swishing sounds to ring out. The greater demons were all easily caught by the vines. They howled in rage and expanded in form trying to break free. The Heavenhold Demon Race excelled in feats of strength but the tree vines were simply too powerful, locking them in place securely. The Phoeroc Race went all out, launching attacks in a frenzy and the Sun Gold Demon Beast Race used sun flames wanting to burn their way though. Despite so, the tree vines seemed invulnerable to all attacks, they grew thicker and thicker, completely binding them all.

"Flee?" When emperors faced against an ancient emperor-level existence, did they even have the chance to escape?

Screams and howls rent the air. The other demons from the other races stared in shock but no one moved to help. Although they hated Qin Wentian's method, but who would dare to act in the face of an ancient emperor's fury?

Now, all of these demons couldn't help but to breathe a sigh of relief. Luckily, they didn't join in with the others to hunt down Qin Wentian back then or they wouldn't be able to survive today.

"Yiya!" At this moment, a raging wind gusted by as a golden demonic beast soared through the air with lightning speed. This beast was in the form of a roc, he descended through the air, directly flying towards Qin Wentian.

"Little Rascal!" From below, Purgatory exclaimed! That golden roc suddenly changed its form, becoming a snow-colored little puppy that rushed into Qin Wentian's embrace.

"Boohoo, you finally returned." Little Rascal sobbed. He initially thought that Qin Wentian had died. It was only until he heard the news circulated by the Phoeroc Race and Sun Gold Demon Beast Race did he know that Qin Wentian was still alive. He and Qin Wentian used to be linked telepathically and could sense each other's presence. But after that war back then, that link had completely disappeared. He really didn't think that Qin Wentian was still alive.

"Little Rascal, I've returned!" Qin Wentian stroked Little Rascal on his head as he spoke gently.

"That old monster is dead." Little Rascal mumbled with a low voice that was filled with sorrow.

"I know, I've already slain the two vile creatures responsible, roasted them and ate them. It's good that you've return. There are still many greater demons here, you can handle them." Qin Wentian spoke. Little Rascal raised his head and stared at those bounded greater demons that were howling madly. His body directly soared into the sky as he took on his true form, that of a golden giant heaven devouring beast, exuding a sense of majesticness, as well as a terrifying balefulness.

With a flash, he directly appeared in front of a greater demon from the Sun Gold Demon Beast Race. His golden claws pressed against the demon's head as a terrifying golden light flashed. His target screamed as his body was devoured bit by bit. The heaven devouring beast could even devour the sun, the moon and the constellations of a world. There was nothing they cannot devour.

Very quickly, that greater demon from the Sun Gold Demon Beast Race was completely swallowed. Little Rascal's figure flashed about with great speed, devouring each of those greater demons trapped in the tree vines one by one, turning them into his nutrients.

"How brutal." The expressions of many greater demons changed. The humans here also felt their hearts trembling. Qin Wentian was expressionless as he watched Little Rascal venting his emotions.

The cruel demon world was one where the weak would be eaten by the strong. If Little Rascal didn't devour them, they would devour Little Rascal.

Staring at that heaven devouring beast that was frenziedly devouring, as well as that magnificent figure in white, many people sighed silently in their hearts. None of them ever wanted to antagonize this baleful god Qin Wentian ever again.

Chapter 1694: All the Empyreans

In the vast space, trapped by the tree vines, there were many demon emperors. However, all of them were turned into the heaven devouring beast's nutrients. This was a simply shocking sight.

Many demons felt their hearts trembling. The heaven devouring beast was as expected of a unique beast, it was actually able to contain the essence and energy of so many powerful greater demons and there didn't seemed to be any change to its body.

Finally, after the heaven devouring beast finished its devouring, he transformed back into that snowy-white puppy. His stomach rumbled as he slowly made his way towards Qin Wentian and laid down lazily. After that, he closed his eyes, and golden light could be seen gleaming from its body.

Qin Wentian had a look of astonishment on his face. Was this falling asleep after feasting on a good meal?

"Purgatory, help me take care of Little Rascal." Qin Wentian passed Little Rascal over to Purgatory. His gaze turned to the skies as he continued, "Since you all have already arrived, why don't you show yourselves. Is there any meaning to hiding away?"

Many people felt their hearts pounding. There were still experts hidden? Among the crowd, the vast majority were all peak-stage demon emperors but they didn't sense anything. Didn't that mean that these experts all had higher cultivation bases than them?

A moment later, three figures descended through the air, moving towards the location where the Jiang Clan gathered. Their gazes were terrifying as though they could see through everything and everyone.

The Jiang Clan of the southern regions had always been mysterious. They appeared low-profile and didn't seek to gain power, yet they give others an incredibly dangerous feeling. Right now, three empyreans appeared within their midst. The gazes of everyone naturally turned over, feeling great waves of emotions rocking their hearts.

These three were all existences at the ancient emperor level?

If it was true, wouldn't things be too terrifying?

"Three empyreans, how impressive of the Jiang Clan." Qin Wentian spoke. His words undoubtedly verified the speculations of the crowd. Many people felt their hearts pounding fiercely.

"The Jiang Clan originates from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The Jiang Clan here is just a side branch of ours." One of them spoke. Qin Wentian silently mused that the waters of the Azure Mystic Immortal

Realms were truly deep indeed. The Heavenly Talisman Realm, Jiang Clan, Ying Clan and some of the others all actually had inheritances from the upper world. Now after the ban was relaxed, there were so many experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms coming here. He also didn't know the reason why.

Evidently, the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms wasn't as simple as it looked to be on the surface. If not, there wouldn't be any reason for empyreans to come here. Azure Mystic didn't have any means at all and the average strength of cultivators were much weaker when compared. Why would the empyreans want to come here?

If it was purely for the sake of recruiting disciples, there should be more than enough people in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to choose from. There was no need for them to expend the effort and travel all the way here to do so.

In the air, more experts descended but they didn't head to any other major powers. They only smiled, "We are just passing by here to watch the show."

From different directions, over ten empyreans appeared, seemingly out from the void. Upon seeing this scene, the experts from Azure Mystic all felt their hearts trembling wildly. There were actually so many empyreans hidden in the dark?

Are these all ancient emperor characters?

They simply didn't dare to imagine that there were actually so many legendary characters actually gathering in their Azure Mystic Immortal Realms today. This made them feel extremely unbearable. They weren't able to accept this in such a short time.

However, Qin Wentian already knew that there were many experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms coming here. And now that such a major thing was happening in Azure Mystic, it would naturally attract their attention. It was impossible to hide this from their immortal senses.

"Since everyone came from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and are all empyreans, you guys naturally are our Azure Mystic's guests." Qin Wentian calmly spoke, he also wouldn't offend all these empyreans for nothing.

"Those from the Heavenly Talisman Realm, just come out. There's no need to hide any longer." Qin Wentian glanced in the direction of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. After all, he knew that it was possible for the Heavenly Talisman Realm here to open a spatial tunnel to connect the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms to the dimension they were in. Although he didn't specially sense the surroundings, he knew that the empyreans from the Heavenly Talisman Realm must have also arrived and were hiding in that separate dimension.

"The Heavenly Talisman Realm?" Many people turned their gazes to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. After that, an empyrean laughed, "I didn't expect that they are from the Heavenly Talisman Realm. To think that they would have such a peak power under their control in Azure Mystic. They must have been preparing for many years."

From the void, light flashed as several figures walked out, all of them empyreans. Their auras were extremely terrifying and they were clad in golden robes, exuding an imposing majesticness. They were none other than experts from the Heavenly Talisman Realm in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Countless gazes stared at these empyreans that appeared from the void. At this moment, they only felt a sense of surrealism.

Today, they initially thought that it would be a battle with all the peak powers of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms participating in this. However, at this moment, many discovered to their horror that even the vast majority of peak powers didn't have the qualifications to participate in this.

In addition, Qin Wentian evidently already knew that such a scene would occur. Qin Wentian, who was now at the ancient emperor level, no longer placed the peak powers of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms in his eyes. He summoned the peak powers of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms to gather and obtaining his revenge was merely his first step. Earlier, he had hidden his true cultivation, not revealing his ancient emperor-level strength because he wanted all his enemies to send themselves to the death by appearing before him.

Only now did the people of Azure Mystic realize that Qin Wentian was no longer on the same level as them. He who has returned, was an ancient emperor, a lofty existence they could only look up to.

"The devil cultivators of the Myriad Devil Islands have actually arrived here at Evergreen's royal capital. What do you all want?" At this moment, an empyrean of the Jiang Clan spoke, his words causing the eyes of everyone to flash. The devil cultivators of the Myriad Devil Islands also arrived?

Although the volume of his voice wasn't loud, it traveled easily through the air. Everyone in the royal capital heard it. All of them then waited quietly and not long after, a fearsome devil might could be felt permeating the area, causing those weaker cultivators to feel stifled.

The devil experts of the six supreme devil halls, and all devil emperors controlling the devil regions had arrived, forming a fearsome army of devils, powerful enough to rival the alliances of the immortal realms.

Right now in Azure Mystic, the immortals, the devils and the demons each had a separate area where they held supreme. Before the Demon God Mountain appeared, the Myriad Devil Islands were already separated from the rest of the immortal realms by the devil gate, both in opposition. The entirety of the strength the Myriad Devil Islands possessed was capable of contending against the alliances in the immortal realms. From this, one could imagine how powerful they were. Right now, the six supreme devil halls have led their experts over and surrounded everyone.

"Does the Myriad Devil Islands also want to unify the immortal realms and become the hegemon? However, where is the Myriad Devil Sovereign?" The people of Jiang Clan laughed. No matter how powerful the devil army of the Myriad Devil Sovereign was, if there wasn't an empyrean backing them, they were simply not worthy of a mention. Before empyreans, immortal emperors were like ants. Everyone was very clear about this point when they saw Qin Wentian act earlier.

Only to see the devil cultivators all turned their gazes to the figure in white standing in the air as they bowed together and roared, "We pay our respects to the Devil Sovereign!"

"We pay our respects to the Devil Sovereign." In the direction of the devil army, everyone bowed as they greeted. This caused countless people's expressions to flicker as they stared at the person the devil army was bowing to. Over there, in the airspace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire, the white-robed Qin Wentian was precisely the one standing there.

At this moment, the hearts of many involuntarily trembled again.

"Dispense with the greetings." Devil might radiated from Qin Wentian, creating a fearsome pressure. With a wave of his hand, the devil experts all inclined their heads. At this moment, the hearts of countless people violently trembled.

So it turned out that Qin Wentian was the Myriad Devil Sovereign.

They initially thought that Qin Wentian had returned from the upper world and wanted to lend the aid of major powers friendly to him for his revenge. He gathered the Evergreen Immortal Empire, Southern Phoenix Clan, Matriarch Ji and the others to help him. However, never in their wildest dreams did they expect that Qin Wentian had actually become the Myriad Devil Sovereign. The countless devil experts from the Myriad Devil Islands all treated him as their lord.

If those empyreans from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms didn't show up, just given the strength of Qin Wentian's forces, it was already enough for him to conquer and unify the immortal realms. Even the currently powerful Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect couldn't be compared to him. After all, the millions of devils on the Myriad Devil Islands would obey him. Just this group alone was sufficient to contend against the entire immortal realms.

"Brother Qin has actually already controlled the Myriad Devil Islands. Now that the devil experts have gathered here, are you preparing to take control by force, forcing the other powers and the various demonic races to submit to you?" Jiang Zihua asked.

"Who is your Brother Qin?" As Jiang Zihua's voice rang out, Qin Wentian shot a stare over as he coldly spoke, "Are you even worthy?"

Jiang Zihua froze, his countenance turning unsightly. Qin Wentian's words were simply smacking his face, not polite at all. But, who would dare to say that what Qin Wentian has said was wrong?

Right now, Qin Wentian was someone who could even kill ancient emperors. He Jiang Zihua, no matter how high his talent is, was merely an immortal emperor. In any case, was his talent higher than Qin Wentian? Since Qin Wentian said he wasn't worthy, he naturally wouldn't even have the qualifications to refute it.

Jiang Zihua coldly snorted. So what if Qin Wentian was an empyrean? Being humiliated publicly like this caused Jiang Zihua's expression to turn extremely ugly. He coldly spoke, "You are truly different. Now, you already start to look down on your peers of your generation?"

Qin Wentian's eyes stared at Jiang Zihua, his terrifying gaze penetrated through everything. At this moment, Jiang Zihua only felt himself entering a strange world, it was like everything in his mind was seen through by Qin Wentian.

"Back then in the City of Ancient Emperors, are you the one who exposed me when I took on the identity as the Saber-Sword Immortal King?" Qin Wentian's voice thundered through Jiang Zihua's mind, causing his eyes to narrow. His expression changed, "Are you provoking me?"

"Hmph." Qin Wentian coldly snorted, rumbling Jiang Zihua's mind. Earlier, every micro-change to Jiang Zihua's expression was seen clearly by Qin Wentian. His eyes of truth were able to see past all lies and illusions. Seems like what he speculated was correct. The person who exposed his identity was Jiang Zihua.

The Jiang Clan had secret arts that enabled them to intercept immortal sense transmissions of others. When he was the Saber-Sword Immortal King, his identity was exposed and revealed. Back then after thinking about it for a long time, he already suspected it was Jiang Zihua who did so.

"I'm taking his life." Qin Wentian didn't stare at Jiang Zihua, he was looking at the three empyreans of the Jiang Clan instead. There was truly no need for him to look at Jiang Zihua. Given his current status and cultivation base, it would take a thought from him to finish Jiang Zihua off. If it wasn't for the fact that the Jiang Clan had empyreans here, he would have already done so.

"How brazen." An elder from the Jiang Clan icily spoke. "Don't go too far."

"Qin Wentian, on what grounds are you doing this?" Jiang Zihua coldly stared at Qin Wentian. What sort of character was he? He was one of the most supreme geniuses of the Jiang Clan and had a high chance of becoming the future clan leader. However, he was humiliated like this here.

"On the grounds that you attempted to harm my life when we were back in the City of Ancient Emperors." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Who can prove that the one who revealed your identity was me?" Jiang Zihua icily spoke.

"There's no need for proof. You know you are him, and I'm sure I'm right. That is already enough." Qin Wentian tyrannically replied!

Chapter 1695: Tripartite Power

I'm sure I'm right. That was already enough.

How domineering and tyrannical were Qin Wentian's words? He completely disregarded everything else, there was no need for proof or anyone to admit their guilt. Since he was sure he is right, that was already enough.

Qin Wentian would say this because there was basically no proof to be found. But he knew that it was definitely Jiang Zihua.

The people of the Jiang Clan had always kept low profiles and were exceedingly mysterious but right from the start, he already felt extremely wary towards them. Back then at the start, Jiang Zihua's younger brother Jiang Ziyu was acquainted with him at the Southern Phoenix Clan's inheritance ground and invited him multiple times to head to the Jiang Clan. At that time, he felt that the Jiang Clan already had some dubious motives. And now, three empyreans from the upper world's Jiang Clan descended here. From this, one could tell how deeply they have hidden their true strength.

"You want to kill someone of my Jiang Clan just because you are sure you are right? Do you think we will agree?" An empyrean from the Jiang Clan coldly spoke. So what if Qin Wentian killed an empyrean earlier? That was merely an ordinary empyrean. As for them, they were three extremely powerful experts that were sent here to this lower world. Also, given their strength in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, they truly didn't have a mere Azure Mystic in their eyes at all. Although this Qin Wentian was also an empyrean, they couldn't give a damn about him if this place was the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

This was because there was a ban to enter this place. They believed that this must be the reason why Qin Wentian dared to act so brazenly towards them here.

"Even if you all don't agree, I have to kill him. The grudge that has to be resolved, has to be resolved no matter what." Qin Wentian continued.

"You have more people under you. In that case, if we go on an all-out slaughter, things will be easier for us than for you." A Jiang Clan's empyrean threatened coldly.

"I've remembered your words." Qin Wentian stared at the person who spoke. He didn't continue speaking to them. Next, he turned to the direction of the Heavenly Talisman Realm, "I already know where the Heavenly Talisman Realm is located in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Now that I've died once, any connection of fate and karma between me and the Heavenly Talisman Realm is already severed. But even so, I've received the gratitude of the Heavenly Talisman Realm before in the past and hence, I'm not willing to enter a war against the Heavenly Talisman Realm. I really hope that the Heavenly Talisman Realm can release Jun Mengchen and the other prisoners."

Qin Wentian's words were sincere. Although the actions of the Heavenly Talisman Realm today couldn't be said to be wrong as after all, their original intent was clearly to unify and claim hegemony over the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, because of some uncontrollable factors and reasons, it was destined that he would walk on a path that was a different direction from the Heavenly Talisman Realm. Since this was the case, let all connection between them be severed then. As long as the Heavenly Talisman Realm was willing to spare Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya, he could allow all every grudge that had happened after his death to be wiped clean. If they encountered each other again in the war for supremacy over the control of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, they would contend against each other fairly, using their own methods.

But if the Heavenly Talisman Realm wasn't willing to release the prisoners. In that case, for the sake of Jun Mengchen, for the sake of his senior brother Bai Wuya, the Heavenly Talisman Realm wouldn't simply be an opponent that was vying for control over the entire immortal realms against him. They would truly, irrevocably, be his enemy.

"How can we easily release traitors? However, since they are members of our sect, if you and they are willing to submit again, the Heavenly Talisman Realm is naturally more than happy enough to receive you all within our ranks and forget all past grudges." An empyrean from the Heavenly Talisman Realm calmly spoke. How can it be so simple, wanting them to release the prisoners?

No matter what, the Heavenly Talisman Realm was considered a realm unto itself in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. These people were all disciples of the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord, how can they betray the sect just like that? What did they take the Realmlord as?

Or maybe, they don't even know what sort of existence a Realmlord was.

Now that the rules of Azure Mystic have changed and the ban was relaxed, it had completely disrupted their original plans. Unifying Azure Mystic was not as important as the past, but then again, it was still useful if they could unify this world. In any case, given how much effort they had put in through the years, they naturally didn't want all those efforts to go to waste.

"This is...they still chose to reject it." Qin Wentian sighed in his heart. He turned his gaze to Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya. The wind blew as his white robes fluttered. He stood there, nobody knew what he was thinking about,

"Is the Heavenly Talisman Realm sure that you want to do this?" Qin Wentian asked again.

"The words of empyreans are as heavy as nine gigantic cauldrons." How could the four empyreans of the Heavenly Talisman Realm choose to compromise? Qin Wentian didn't have the qualifications to make them compromise.

"Alright, since this is the case, Mengchen, Senior Bai. You guys wait for me a little more. I will definitely save you in the future." Qin Wentian stared at Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya.

"Senior brother, I'll wait for you." Jun Mengchen smiled brightly. Although he was imprisoned, seeing that Qin Wentian was alive and this powerful, made him extremely happy. He was truly happy. He believed in his senior brother Qin's words. Since Qin Wentian said he would save them, he would surely do so.

"Right." Bai Wuya nodded, only saying a single word.

Qin Wentian no longer glanced at the experts from the Heavenly Talisman Realm. He glanced at all the major powers gathered here, "I, Qin Wentian, summoned everyone here today for a specific reason. Firstly, it was for revenge, and secondly, it's to unite Azure Mystic. From our history, ancient emperors had united the immortal realms many times and left behind records of glorious eras. Today, I'm planning to follow in their footsteps and desire for Azure Mystic to be unified, ending the current chaotic situation, concluding all mutual grudges between the respective powers."

"In this chaotic world where geniuses contend against each other for supremacy, along with the appearances of dao elements in Azure Mystic, how can it be so easy to unify the world?" Someone spoke.

"It's precisely so for that reason that unifying the immortal realms is necessary. The Azure Mystic Immortal Realm's rules have changed and it's time to set up new rules. Now, it should be a great period of cultivation with many heroes born in our Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Why is there a need to kill each other just to gain the inheritances of dao elements? Things now are different from the past, empyreans from the upper world will continue streaming into here. Even if one of you steps into the ancient emperor realm, can you be sure that you will be invincible and can defeat all invaders? Only with me present can I claim to be so. What's the point of slaughtering each other for the inheritances of the dao elements? If your dao is correct, you would naturally be able to break through and find a way to head to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms."

Qin Wentian continued, "There are countless experts in our vast Azure Mystic. However, other than those from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, is there anyone in Azure Mystic that is stronger than me? I seek to unify Azure Mystic but this isn't because of my own selfish ambitions. You guys are useless to me, I don't need more subordinates. As for the glory of the act, I look with even more disdain upon it. In the upper world, I can also be considered hegemon of an area, a world palace lord with millions reporting under me. My authority and status isn't any less than what I would have if I unify Azure Mystic. Hence, my reason for doing so isn't for personal benefits, I only want Azure Mystic to be stronger. For those powers willing to submit to me, they will receive my protection but they also need to obey my orders. All of you can consider it well."

The experts from the various major powers felt their hearts trembling when they heard this. In the history of Azure Mystic, it was true that many ancient emperors had once united the world but they eventually left for other places. Truly, status and authority held nothing for characters of that level. Right now, Qin Wentian has already gained control of the Myriad Devil Islands, Evergreen Immortal Empire, and the Southern Phoenix Clan, Matriarch Ji and many others were clearly willing to follow him. Under his banner, already more than half of the major powers in the immortal realms have submitted to him. If the others submitted, they would be able to join this powerful alliance. If they refused to submit, they wouldn't be able to receive his protection and in this chaotic situation, the strength of their forces would constantly weaken.

This was especially so if Qin Wentian's subordinates pressured them in the future. They would have no one backing them at all. Hence, they needed to seriously consider this.

"My Heavenly Talisman Realm has established the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect here in Azure Mystic and we also desire to unify the world. For those who are willing to submit to us, they will all be protected by the Heavenly Talisman Realm." An empyrean of the Heavenly Talisman Realm spoke as he continued, "The Heavenly Talisman Realm is a major power in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and we have branched out to Azure Mystic for countless years, even opening up another separate dimension. In addition, there will only be more empyreans from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms coming here in the future. Everyone, you best make your choices wisely."

"Who is willing to follow our Jiang Clan?" An empyrean from the Jiang Clan spoke. Many of the other neutral empyreans had looks of interest on their faces. Right now, three peak powers were wresting control over the this immortal realm. How interesting. How would the major powers of this world choose?

No matter how they chose, they would definitely offend the two other powers. Could they endure such fury?

"My Askheart Temple won't participate in this dispute for control over Azure Mystic." The reverend from the Askheart Temple pressed his palms together.

"Reverend, given the current situation now, can the Askheart Temple survive independently? If you do not choose, you are only waiting to be destroyed." The Jiang Clan's empyrean calmly spoke.

"Reverend's state of heart is extraordinary. The Askheart Temple is a sacred ground and if Reverend isn't willing to participate in the dispute of control, I will not force you all. I, Qin, am willing to protect the Askheart Temple from all chaos and if someone dares to disrupt the quiet and peace of Askheart Temple, that would be equivalent to making a enemy out of me." Qin Wentian spoke, his words causing that empyrean from the Jiang Clan to glance over. Weren't his words a challenge to him?

The words spoken by the two of them clearly showed the difference in their demeanors.

"This old man represents the Askheart Temple to thank Sir Qin." The esteemed reverend pressed his palms together and bowed.

"Reverend is too polite." Qin Wentian bowed back. Back then, the Askheart Temple fought on behalf of him. Doing this now was what he ought to do.

"Given how chaotic the immortal realms are now, I also don't hope for corpses of my subordinates to die needlessly. I'm willing to follow the general trend. My Darknorth Immortal Empire is willing to follow the footsteps of the Evergreen Immortal Empire." After contemplating, the Darknorth Immortal Emperor spoke. Qin Wentian and his daughter Youhuang had a connection and he was also a good friend of Nongyue. Hence, if he really had to make a choice, he would naturally choose to stand with Qin Wentian.

"Thank you for making this choice, Uncle." Qin Wentian spoke to the Darknorth Immortal Emperor, referring to him as 'Uncle,' treating him as a senior. This caused many people to have strange looks in their eyes. The Darknorth Immortal Emperor felt more at ease after he heard that.

"Since the Darknorth Immortal Emperor is willing to submit, our Hundred Refinements Sect and Jadestage Immortal Palace are naturally willing as well since we are one alliance." The Hundred Refinements Sect Leader expressed his stance. The Jadestage Immortal Palace Mistress also nodded to Qin Wentian.

"Mhm," Qin Wentian nodded to the two of them. For the northern regions, he had already obtain 50% of the powers there.

"Our Chaotic Sky Sect is willing to submit to the Jiang Clan." The experts of the Chaotic Sky Sect expressed. The empyreans of the Jiang Clan smiled, "An intelligent choice."

After that, the various powers expressed their attitudes. The Shooting Sun Immortal Empire of the central regions was willing to submit to Qin Wentian.

The Thundergod Hall, Snowdrift Sage Hall, Skynibble Sacred Cult all chose to submit to the Jiang Clan. As for some of the major powers in the west as well as the Beast God Sect, they chose to submit to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. Just like what the Jiang Clan's empyrean has said, in such chaotic times there would be even more empyreans from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms appearing here, if one doesn't submit to a greater power and wish to survive independently, they are only waiting to be destroyed.

"The demon races of the Desolate Mountain Range are willing to retreat back there and not enter the immortal realms again." One of the more powerful greater demons, a Baize, spoke. Back then when the Demon God Mountain appeared, the demonic races from the Desolate Mountain Range entered the immortal realms in a full-force invasion. Right now, they were forced by the circumstances. Many of their powerful demonic races were killed, causing their total strength to wane but they were also unwilling to submit to humans. Hence, they could only make the choice of retreating.

Return to the Desolate Mountain Range?

Many people coldly laughed. The current state of the immortal realms was already like this. How could they retreat just because they wanted to retreat? But even so, the major powers didn't say anything. The consequences of this choice by the demonic races will reveal themselves in the future.

Today, countless experts from the various major powers gathered in the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Qin Wentian domineeringly took revenge and killed many emperors, even destroying an empyrean yet the final conclusion was that three truly supreme powers was established at the end, forming a tripartite of balance.

Chapter 1696: Heaven Empyrean

Qin Wentian stood in the air and stared at all the experts here. It was impossible for anyone to unify the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms today since the empyreans of both the Jiang Clan and Heavenly Talisman Realm stood out. In such a situation, clearly it was impossible for him to start a battle. If not, regardless of his victory or defeat, there would be casualties among his friends and family.

"Since everyone has chosen who to side with, let the matter here today come to an end. You guys can leave now." Qin Wentian waved his hand, incomparably carefree. All those enemies that participated in the war back then were all destroyed by him. Next, unifying Azure Mystic was the only thing remaining. Also, he has yet to save Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya.

The experts of the Heavenly Talisman Realm glanced at Qin Wentian. Was Qin Wentian issuing an expulsion order?

"Qin Wentian, are you really determined not to return to the sect?" The empyreans of the Heavenly Talisman Realm felt somewhat reluctant. If Qin Wentian rejoin them, what threat could the Jiang Clan pose? They could directly steamroll their opponents and unify Azure Mystic, there was no need to waste any more time or effort.

"If Jun Mengchen and the others even suffer the slightest bit of injury, I will make the entire Heavenly Talisman Realm here be buried together with them." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. The four empyreans of the Heavenly Talisman Realm ruthlessly glared at him, their eyes flickering with killing intent as though they wanted nothing more than to finish Qin Wentian off right here and now.

"Qin Wentian, you will regret it." An empyrean from the Heavenly Talisman Realm replied. After that, they waved their hands and led the experts of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect away.

"Farewell." The Jiang Clan also led those who submitted to them away.

The air trembled, the experts from the Myriad Devil Islands that were surrounding them all opened up pathways for them to leave. The people who gathered in the royal capital felt some frustration and disappointment as though they had lost something. The things that happened today toppled their understanding of everything. Even ancient emperors could die. Also, with so many ancient emperors appearing, this was simply a shocking sight. Sadly, the battle to unify Azure Mystic still wasn't fought in the end.

But no matter what, the things that happened here today in the Evergreen Immortal Empire were already enough to enter the annals of history. There were very few records about ancient emperors but today, all of them witnessed how Qin Wentian personally killed an ancient emperor and had seen the magnificence of this living legend. A thousand years from now, this would surely become a legendary story of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, leaving its mark in history.

In this time period of close to two hundred years, the previous war and this event were all historical matters.

With some melancholy, many people left. There were also some who decided to stay behind in the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Since the world was now split into three parts, Qin Wentian evidently would use the Evergreen Immortal Empire as his base of power. Maybe, this royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire might become an unprecedented majestic city in the future.

The major powers who submitted to Qin Wentian didn't leave and they were still filled with trepidation. This was especially so for the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire. Right now given the states of affairs in the immortal realms, peak-stage immortal emperors were no longer important. Only empyreans had the qualifications to decide the situation.

Today, Qin Wentian displayed overwhelming strength, killing a character at the ancient emperor level and had more than 50% of the powers in the immortal realms under his control. However, why were there still so many powers that chose to submit to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and the Jiang Clan?

Because, Qin Wentian was only a single empyrean while the other parties had more more than one empyrean. Hence, this affected the choices of many major powers.

Those neutral empyreans who came here to watch the show also left. The greater demon races who had invaded the immortal realms also started to retreat, preparing to return to the Desolate Mountain Range, deciding to concentrate fully on their cultivation. After the Demon God Mountain appeared, the Desolate Mountain Range was transformed, they initially thought they could rule the world but they didn't expect the rules of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms to change and so many empyreans appeared. Now, they had become the prey of others. The Phoeroc Race, Sun Gold Demon Beast Race and many other greater demons were completely annihilated.

After many people went off from the Evergreen's royal capital, there were still some experts remaining. The Darknorth Immortal Emperor and Beiming Nongyue, the sect leader of the Hundred Refinements Sect and Li Yufeng, the palace mistress of the Jadestage Immortal Palace, the ruler of the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire as well as their princes and princesses. All of them stood before Qin Wentian, yet they didn't know how should they address him.

Right now, given Qin Wentian's strength and cultivation base, it wasn't too much to refer to him as 'senior.' But after all, it would still sound strange as Qin Wentian was simply too young.

"Everyone, you guys can just call me "Wentian." Qin Wentian didn't really mind such things.

"That wouldn't be appropriate." The ruler of the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire spoke. "No matter what, you can now already be considered to have control over half of the major powers here in the immortal realms. It would be better if you have a title. The devil cultivators can call you the Myriad Devil Sovereign, but what about the rest of us?"

These words had the intent of expressing his good will. After all, it really wasn't too appropriate to refer to Qin Wentian directly by his name.

"Ordinary emperor titles are insufficient to express the dignity of your current station. Qin Wentian, since there's the word tian (heaven) in your name, why don't we refer to you as the Heaven Empyrean?" The palace mistress of the Jadestage Immortal Palace softly spoke in a melodious voice. As the sound of her voice faded, many people had approval in their eyes. This was truly a good title.

Right now, Qin Wentian's cultivation base has already exceeded the emperor realm, it wasn't suitable to refer to him with the word 'emperor' in his title. Also, this name Heaven Empyrean could not only express his cultivation realm, it was also a salutation of respect. Heaven Empyrean, the one ruling the heavens, seeking to control the world.

"Good name." The ruler of the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire nodded.

"Not bad indeed. Let's go with this then. Since we desire to unify the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, you naturally need to have a title." The Darknorth Immortal Emperor also agreed. Qin Wentian nodded his head lightly, the words of these people weren't wrong. He needed to have a title since he wanted to unify the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. The title 'Heaven Empyrean' was pretty suitable.

"We pay our respects to the Heaven Empyrean." The Hundred Refinements Sect Leader bowed and called out.

"We pay our respects to the Heaven Empyrean." The other experts followed his lead and expressed their respect. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch and the others smiled and also flew over as they bowed and greeted, "We pay our respects to the Heaven Empyrean."

"Everyone, there's no need to be so polite." Qin Wentian stretched out his hand and continued, "Since everyone is willing to advance and retreat with me, I'm prepared to use the Evergreen Immortal Empire as our headquarters. I want teleportation arrays leading to each of your bases to be constructed here so we can better communicate and reinforce each other if need be to deal with any unexpected changes to the situation in Azure Mystic."

"Right." Everyone nodded.

"However, I have a suggestion. I hope the various powers can relocate to the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire, forming a closely-connected network." As Qin Wentian spoke, the expressions of the various experts here changed. Qin Wentian knew what they were thinking about, he continued to explain, "By doing this, it isn't for the Evergreen Immortal Empire to claim supremacy and gain control of the forces under all of you. Now, given how chaotic the immortal realms are, since all of you put your trust in me, I'll naturally take responsibility and protect you all. In truth, I feel that even if we construct teleportation arrays, things wouldn't be that useful as empyreans can instantly destroy them. You won't have enough time to activate them. If something really did happen, it would be hard for the others to send reinforcements in time."

"The territories controlled by the Evergreen Immortal Empire are vast. We can construct many buildings like the imperial palace here, and the control of them would be spread out among all of you. I was planning to station them in the various directions to better cope with unexpected situations. Right now, the spatial tunnel connecting the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and Azure Mystic Immortal Realms is already opened and there would be many empyreans from the upper world descending. Hence, I'm not sure when this matter of unification would conclude exactly. But there's no doubt once the unification is concluded, I will also return to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. At that time, all of you can go with me if you want to, or choose to stay behind if you wish so. I won't force any of you to follow me. At that time, if you all wish to relocate back to your original locations, you can do so as well."

Qin Wentian slowly spoke, everyone nodded their heads. Qin Wentian's words were logical and it proved that he didn't have selfish motives. After Qin Wentian left here, the unified Azure Mystic Immortal Realms wouldn't be like a piece of unbreakable iron. Without an empyrean here to maintain order, the alliances formed would disintegrate sooner or later.

Also, to many of them, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms held great attractiveness. Many of them have been stuck in the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm for many years and had no way to break through. But this was also because of the limitations imposed upon them by the environment here.

"Everyone, feel free to make your choices. I won't force you guys and since I've already promised all of you my protection, I will naturally do my best. However, if someone fails to follow my orders, don't blame me then." Qin Wentian spoke.

"We all understand the intent of the Heaven Empyrean. Since this is the case, my Darknorth Immortal Empire is willing to relocate." The Darknorth Immortal Emperor spoke. Given how vast the immortal realms are, it was impossible to control everyone fully. Was the Lifire World Palace powerful in the Lifelong Realm of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? Of course it was, but it was also impossible to make sure everyone follow orders willingly. But naturally, as long as one gains control the strength of the upper-most level, it was equivalent to gaining control over everything else.

"In that case, our Hundred Refinements Immortal Sect is willing to relocate as well." Everyone in the Hundred Refinements Immortal Sect expressed. Qin Wentian smiled and nodded. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor and Nanfeng Yaoyue and the rest laughed. They knew that a supreme power had just been born in the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

"You all can leave and do whatever is necessary then." Qin Wentian waved his hand. He descended through the air. The curtains of the commotion caused by the gathering of all the major powers in the Evergreen Immortal Empire finally closed.

But the entire immortal realms were trembling as countless people discussed about this matter. The supreme genius Qin Wentian returned and had became an ancient emperor, standing above all the immortal emperors.

The titles of Myriad Devil Sovereign and Heaven Empyrean spread all over the world.

Those who had personally witnessed the battle became valuable guests no matter where they went and naturally spread the story of what they saw. Those who didn't witness the grand event also started to boast, embellishing the stories they heard, speaking as though they were really there.

Countless experts gathered at the Evergreen Immortal Empire's royal capital and refused to leave. They heard that the Heaven Empyrean wanted to unify the world and transform the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire into the headquarters of a super alliance, becoming a supreme mega city. They naturally didn't want to miss out on such an opportunity. Now, every inch of land here was contested by countless people who wanted to buy them.

The royal capital expanded. The Evergreen Immortal Empire, Southern Phoenix Clan and the other powers all hired craftsmen and builders, creating immortal palaces and ancient halls that were located in different directions of the royal capital. The Southern Phoenix Clan, Darknorth Immortal Empire, Hundred Refinements Sect, Jadestage Immortal Palace and the other powers started to aid in the expansion effort, creating plenty of new buildings. For a period of time, the atmosphere of the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire became extremely lively.

...

In one of the many cities in the eastern regions, the inns were filled with people and everyone was discussing about the recent events in the Evergreen Immortal Empire. At this moment, two figures covered in dust walked into a certain inn and sat down as they began to order some wine and dishes.

These two were a man and a woman but they didn't seem to match up well at all. The man was rather chubby and had an immortal-foundation cultivation base while the woman was extremely beautiful with an air of innocence.

"It has been tough on you during these days. I, fatty, have let you down, I shouldn't have allowed you to suffer with me." Fatty sighed as he stared at the beautiful woman in front of him. That woman rolled her eyes at him, "I've already followed you for so many years, why are you speaking about such nonsense? Compared to the past, we can now already hold our own in the immortal realms. Things are already very good."

"Mhm, little wife come here. Try to eat more alright. In the future after this fatty becomes wealthy, I'll roast some nutritious greater demons from the desolate region for you to eat." The fatty laughed.

"Haha, fatty your words are so braggy. Do you think you are the Heaven Empyrean?" Someone at the side laughed.

"Yeah, how magnificent is the Heaven Empyrean? He even roasted the demon kings from the Phoeroc Race and Sun Gold Demon Beast Race to eat. After that, he captured so many other greater demons for his demonic beast companion to devour. He is truly an unrivalled character."

"The Heaven Empyrean again." The eyes of the fatty flashed. This time, they took the risk and returned here and discovered many people talking about this so-called Heaven Empyrean. From the sounds of it, the Heaven Empyrean should be an incredible existence, a supreme character in the immortal realms.

"Yeah. It's rumored that he came from a particle world. Back then in the past, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor refused to accept him as a disciple and he entered the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect to cultivate instead. Who would have imagined that he would have such accomplishments today? Eastern Sage must have been truly blind."

"What did you all say?" The fatty jumped up from his chair. Upon seeing everyone turning to stare at him, he swallowed a mouthful of saliva and asked, "Who is the Heaven Empyrean?"

"The Heaven Empyrean naturally is the Heaven Empyrean. He naturally still has another identity, he is the lord of all devils, the Myriad Devil Sovereign and is now the number one expert in our world." That person spoke.

"I'm asking about his name." The fatty roared.

"Oh, the Heavenly Empyrean, Qin Wentian." After contemplating for a moment, that person replied, revealing an expression of reverence on his face when he said the name. Everyone in the surroundings also had looks of respect on their faces.

Fatty narrowed his eyes and was dumbfounded for a few seconds. After that, he leapt up in the air excitedly, "The wonderful life waiting for this fatty is finally about to arrive!"

Chapter 1697: Insta-killing an Empyrean

Qin Wentian naturally didn't know that a certain fatty was jumping up and down happily in a city in the eastern regions after hearing his name. He also didn't know that the hearts of many who knew of him were shaking due to great shock. These people who were acquainted with him were either friends or brothers that had shared life-and-death experiences, or beautiful maidens that secretly admired him, there were also some who had grudges with him. All of them without fail, continuously heard about Qin Wentian's name.

The Heaven Empyrean's name circulated through the immortal realms. Just like what the Southern Phoenix Matriarch Nanfeng Yaoyue has said, no one in the world didn't know of him.

The royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire became more majestic. Countless experts were extremely busy but Qin Wentian felt very carefree. Right now, Mo Qingcheng, Qing`er, Little Rascal, Purgatory and the others were all around him and he could set some worries in his heart at ease. Naturally, he didn't forget about Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya.

On the other side, Qin Wentian was also worried about the general situation in the immortal realms. According to his scouts, he learned that many more experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms appeared in various locations. They all seemed to be searching for something and was keeping low-profiles. In addition, there were people who saw empyreans flying through the horizons, travelling extremely far away to unknown lands beyond the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

Although Qin Wentian had no idea what these experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are searching for, he knew that there clearly must be some secrets hidden within Azure Mystic. Back then countless years ago, the Heavenly Talisman Realm and the Jiang Clan already sent out a branch here to develop in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Their main purposes should be to search for this unknown thing as well. And now, since the ban was relaxed, many experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms personally came down to the lower world to search themselves.

In the blink of an eye, several months passed. The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms was still jointly ruled by the tripartite powers but none of the three supreme powers made any moves to invade each other. Most probably, all of them felt some mutual trepidation in their hearts.

During these days, other than accompanying his family and friends, he would also occasionally guide the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Southern Phoenix Matriarch and the others on their cultivations. Right now, strength and insights are already at an extremely high level. Not only that, he even brought many treasures from the upper world to aid in the cultivation efforts of everyone here. He hoped that more empyreans would appear in his alliance, there were too many people stuck at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm for too many years. They were only a single step away from reaching the empyrean realm and the difference between the two realms was just a spark of insight.

However, Qin Wentian failed to cause anyone under him to break through to the empyrean level but there was an empyrean who came to the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire looking for him.

When Qin Wentian saw the person who appeared, he was instantly stunned. This was especially so after he sensed the fluctuations of the person's cultivation base. A great amount of shock stirred in his heart.

This, should be then the real person from the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms that became an ancient emperor. Qin Wentian didn't expect it to be him. Seems like his cultivation speed wasn't any inferior to Qin Wentian himself who was aided by a series of fortunate events.

"You annihilated the Sun Gold Demon Beast Race?" The person who just arrived was also clad in white. He had a lanky figure and exuded a transcendent aura.

"Seems like I've acted too fast and affected your quest for revenge." Qin Wentian apologetically replied. So it turned out that the person who came here was none other than Hua Taixu.

Qin Wentian knew that back then in the City of Ancient Emperors, the Myriad Manifestations Immortal King died in the hands of demons from the Sun Gold Demon Beast Race. Hua Taixu naturally wanted revenge. In another words, even if Qin Wentian didn't act, the Sun Gold Demon Beast Race would also have became history.

"The ending is still the same." Hua Taixu's calm voice had no fluctuations. He recently broke through and only came out after he stabilized his foundation. After coming out, he learned that Qin Wentian was named as the Heaven Empyrean and he had already annihilated the Sun Gold Demon Beast Race.

"The spatial tunnel from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms has appeared, it's about time to go back. In any case, I heard that the Heavenly Talisman Realm has captured Jun Mengchen. When are you heading there? I can go there with you." Hua Taixu's voice didn't contain too much emotion but he was actually willing to fight side by side with Qin Wentian. Back then in the City of Ancient Emperors, Qin Wentian, him, Jun Mengchen, Nanfeng Yunxi and the others has also once fought together before and experienced many things.

"Right. I'll head there once the time is right. Why don't you rest and cultivate in the imperial palace for now?" Qin Wentian spoke.

"That's alright. You should have messaging crystals with you, right? Give me one of them, when the time comes for you to act, just inform me and I'll come by accordingly." Hua Taixu's words caused Qin Wentian's eyes to gleam with sharpness. Hua Taixu seemed to be very familiar with the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. However, he didn't ask anything more, he directly took out a messaging crystal and imprinted his immortal sense into it and passed it to Hua Taixu.

After Hua Taixu also left his immortal sense in his crystal, he directly departed, as though he had never appeared at all. Qin Wentian glanced at his vanished silhouette as a look of contemplation flashed in his eyes. At this moment, several figures appeared around Qin Wentian. Little Rascal and Nanfeng Yunxi came over and their eyes were also gleaming with a bright light. After all, they once fought together with Hua Taixu when they were in the City of Ancient Emperors.

And the conversation Hua Taixu had with Qin Wentian earlier caused them to feel that Hua Taixu has already reached Qin Wentian's level.

"He has broken through the emperor realm." Qin Wentian softly spoke. Nanfeng Yunxi's beautiful eyes gleamed sharply, Little Rascal had a look of shock on his face. After that, Little Rascal sighed dispiritedly, "Ai, seems like this genius has slacked too much."

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed, he felt that Hua Taixu was somewhat different from before.

Time continued to flow by, after the tripartite balance of power was formed, things seemed to have calmed down on the surface. In the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire, there were now many majestic imperial palaces. It was rumored that during the time of construction, there were many grandmasters laying powerful formations on the buildings as well. It was just that nobody knew if these rumors were true or false.

...

Today, the spatial tunnel leading to the Heavenly Talisman Realm was opened forcibly from the outside. Two handsome figures dressed in white stepped together into the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

These two exuded magnificence through the generations and had transcendent auras. They were none other than Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu. They didn't head to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect but directly barged into the Heavenly Talisman Realm in the lower world instead.

The spatial gate flashed, Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu directly stepped through it. Their immortal senses swept out and discovered many experts but they weren't in a hurry to act. After all, many people here were characters at the immortal emperor realm and below and when these people discovered Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu, all of them had shocked looks on their faces. After all, in the past, no one could possibly invade the Heavenly Talisman Realm because they had no way to enter. However, Qin Wentian could.

"Invasion, Qin Wentian is invading…" Very swiftly, the experts of the Heavenly Talisman Realm circulated this news out. However, since Qin Wentian has openly showed himself, he naturally couldn't be bothered about news leaking out. Swishing sounds rang out, tree vines shot over with the speed of lightning, directly rushing towards an immortal emperor. The expression of that immortal emperor drastically changed as he frenziedly tried to flee but how could he make it in time? The thick vine directly bound him. After that, Qin Wentian brought his captive along as he made his way into the depths of the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

On their journey in, he discovered more immortal emperors. The tree vines multiplied and shot out in all directions as an ancient tree manifested behind Qin Wentian. Not too long after, over ten immortal emperors were caught by him. All of them struggled madly but how could they be strong enough to break free?

"BOOM!" A heaven-shaking might gushed over, instantly enveloping Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu. The entire sky changed color as the world turned to ice. Frost descended everywhere, those immortal emperors felt themselves being frozen, the vines were also losing all hints of vitality. Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu were frozen as well.

A figure walked over, exuding immense power. Cracking sounds rang out, Hua Taixu and Qin Wentian broke free of being frozen.

"Qin Wentian, you actually dare to act so brazenly." An empyrean from the Heavenly Talisman Realm roared. This was an empyrean that was guarding the Heavenly Talisman Realm in the lower world, he was extremely powerful.

The two of them ignored him. At the next instant, Hua Taixu's eyes turned into vortexes, there were no longer pupils, but the vortexes seemed like a separate space, a different world. A strong suction force directly absorbed the Heavenly Talisman Realm's empyrean into it. In the next moment, that empyrean only felt his will being overridden and his body was out of his control. He was actually traversing through the cycle of countless samsara as numerous scenes flashed through his mind.

And at this moment, a fearsome sense of danger arose in his heart. That empyrean howled in anger but his consciousness remained trapped inside the world of endless samsara, unable to extricate himself. Destructive energies crackled around his body, but he had no way to control his fear. He started trembling and in the next moment, felt a burst of pain. This pain lasted only for a short time because his body had completely disintegrated in a few moments due to the destructive attacks. Since he had already died, his consciousness was naturally snuffed out as well.

Within the span of a second, an empyrean was insta-killed.

Those emperors, that were caught, all had despair on their faces. Their hearts felt like dead ashes, this powerful empyrean guarding their Heavenly Talisman Realm was killed in a single strike by the two invaders? Who could block these two then?

Even that expert at the empyrean level had no opportunity to inform others for help, vanishing in an instant after the joint-attack. One has to know that the empyrean guarding here was at the so-called ancient emperor realm. But he got insta-killed so easily?

Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu continued, not bothered at all by the terrifying levels of destruction when the two of them joined forces. In truth, having such an effect was also considered normal. Hua Taixu was proficient in the energy of samsara and reincarnation. After he comprehended the source origins of his laws, his eyes became the ignition point for his source origins. With a single gaze, his eye technique would automatically activate, trapping his target into endless samsara. There was no way for his target to struggle free so easily.

When the target got trapped, Qin Wentian used his fastest speed to unleash his powerful attacks. How could he fail to kill a defenceless target? This was simply a perfect partnership.

"Where is Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya? If you guys refuse to speak, just die." Qin Wentian spoke. Many of the immortal emperors he captured felt their hearts trembling. Someone then replied, "They are in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect..."

Qin Wentian continued to fly through the air with Hua Taixu beside him. The amount of immortal emperors they captured grew more and more. As long as Qin Wentian wanted it, just a single thought from him could cause these immortal emperors to disintegrate into ashes. However, Qin Wentian didn't kill them. Unless it was absolutely essential, he still wasn't willing to start a massacre in the Heavenly Talisman Realm!

He believed that the Heavenly Talisman Realm changed because of some edicts from the upper world. And no matter what, this place, was ultimately once his home.

At this moment, inside the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, in a floating palace, the three remaining empyreans grouped together. Their expressions were extremely unsightly to behold. They just received news that Qin Wentian had invaded the Heavenly Talisman Realm here in the lower world!

Chapter 1698: Short-term Glory

In the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, the auras from the three empyreans were extremely frightening. Qin Wentian, he actually dared to invade the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

"Go!" The eyes of those three radiated killing intent as their law origins manifested around them. After that, one of them opened up the spatial pathway leading to the Heavenly Talisman Realm but before they could step into it, a spatial gate opened near them as ancient tree vines shot over, wrapped around tens of immortal emperors, appearing before them. Behind the vines, Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu stepped out.

Numerous figures soared into the air, the people of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect felt their hearts trembling when they saw this. Qin Wentian actually killed his way here. Not only him alone, the other person beside him was Hua Taixu, the supreme genius with the title of the Samsara Great Emperor, Hua Taixu.

"Traitor, how dare you!" The three empyreans coldly stared at Qin Wentian, their voices were like frost.

"I truly didn't wish to do this but since you guys want to force me, I can only take action." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Hua Taixu didn't reply. His gaze was extremely terrifying, his pupils replaced with samsara vortexes. In an instant, the three empyreans felt themselves being pulled in and trapped in those vortexes, unable to extricate themselves.

"Careful!" Their expressions changed as their consciousnesses were trapped. In their minds, the scenes flashing past were out of their control but their reactions were extremely quick. One of the empyreans started to glow with boundless runic light. A golden screen of light suddenly manifested, intersecting with the runic light, forming a shield of law's origin before them, Qin Wentian's palm slammed into the golden screen of light, shattering it but it bought enough time for the three empyreans to struggle free as they respectively flew towards different directions, separating themselves.

"Kill the one in the center." Hua Taixu silently transmitted his voice to Qin Wentian. His samsara eyes locked on to the empyrean in the center. It was the empyrean that had manifested the law's origin shield. Boundless light radiated from that person but he discovered that he was drawn into a world of endless samsara by Hua Taixu's eyes.

"Bang!" Hua Taixu stabbed out with his spear. The law origin shield spun about and was knocked away and Qin Wentian directly seized the opportunity and appeared before this man. Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu's teamwork was perfect, so quick that the others couldn't react.

The two other empyreans at the side were also extraordinary characters. One of them grabbed out in the air and Qin Wentian immediately felt a heavy pressure pressing down on him, making him unable to move. That terrifying pressure continued to bore down on him while the other empyrean wielded a long spear that crackled with the power of lightning and thunder. The skies instantly turned dark as rumbling noises filled the air. The spear in his hands shot out towards Qin Wentian, leaving behind a trail of violet light that was compressed to the extreme. If this spear pierced Qin Wentian, the thunderous energies within would cause Qin Wentian's body to explode.

Everyone involved in the battle were empyreans, no one was a weakling. The cooperation between the two was also extremely perfect. There was no need to intentionally do anything to compensate for the other, everything flowed together perfectly.

Hua Taixu was still engaging with the empyrean in the center, making sure that the empyrean had no way to escape his world of samsara formed by his eye technique.

Qin Wentian was unable to move due to the effect of the gravity laws and an empyrean-powered spear was launched his way with shocking might. With an intention of will, his demon sword appeared before him, emitting a long and sharp screech as it transformed into a great roc. The source origin of the laws of sword was channelled into it by Qin Wentian. The great roc spread its wings, blocking the area before Qin Wentian and as its wings closed in, it enveloped the space before it directly within.

"KACHA!" The powerful energies in the spar caused the roc's wings to explode. Remnants of thunder and lightning energy interweaved, like divine lightning from the nine heavens that desired to destroy everything. From this scene, one could very well imagine what would happen if the spear hit Qin Wentian. But at this instant, the remnants of explosive energies were blocked by the demon sword, negating a huge amount of it.

Everything happened too quickly, in the time a spark took to fly off a flint. A buddha dharma body projection appeared in front of Qin Wentian, its multitude of arms extended forth, unleashing attacks, completely wiping out the remnant energies and also causing countless gigantic palm imprints to converge into one as it slammed towards the empyrean in the center that was trapped by the world of samsara. The experts of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect watched with shock as the gigantic palm imprint blasted into the body of that empyrean. A thunderous boom echoed as the entire space here trembled.

That empyrean, died instantly.

At this moment, the hearts of countless people shuddered. From Hua Taixu and Qin Wentian coming here to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect after they invaded the Heavenly Talisman Realm, the battle erupted in an instant. The attacks launched were all too swift and in a few moments, one of the empyreans was already killed by Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu. Also, this was a scenario where three empyreans were fighting against two.

They couldn't help but to think about the fourth empyrean that remained behind in the Heavenly Talisman Realm to guard there. He must have also already been killed, right? Under the joint-efforts of three empyreans against two, one of the three empyreans was actually killed. In that case, given the fact that the empyrean in the Heavenly Talisman Realm was acting alone against the two of them, how could he not die?

Because Qin Wentian had once killed an empyrean in the Evergreen Immortal Empire, he became known as the number one expert of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. He was truly terrifying indeed.

However, even the Samsara Emperor Hua Taixu had also stepped into the legendary level and was actually so powerful. This caused everyone in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect to be filled with shock.

The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord had also arrived. When he saw Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu killing their way over, his eyes gleamed with sharpness. Ultimately, the thin balance had ruptured. Actually, he didn't wish to see this. Back then when the Heavenly Talisman Realm used Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya to threaten Qin Wentian, he already knew that Qin Wentian would make a move against the Heavenly Talisman Realm for sure. Given Qin Wentian's personality, how could he endure this? Even if his opponent is the Heavenly Talisman Realm, he would still go all out because the other party had already touched his bottom line.

In truth, the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord could understand Qin Wentian's current emotions. Actually, he didn't want to start a war with the Evergreen Immortal Empire but he had no choice but to do so. He simply understood this young man whom he watched grow up too well.

Hua Taixu turned his eyes towards the empyrean that was proficient in the gravity laws. He was also under great pressure and found it hard to move. However, his eye techniques were capable of causing someone to be trapped with just a single glance. The two of them were currently in a confrontation in the air.

After Qin Wentian killed one of the empyreans, he faced off against the empyrean that was proficient in lightning laws. Brandishing the demon sword in his hand, the sword itself was like a great roc, spreading its wings, wanting to soar up high in the skies. When Qin Wentian infused his energy from the source origin of laws into it, the demon sword desired to break through the dome of the heavens, filling the air with countless roc shadows, each brimming with a fearsome sword intent as they clashed with the crackling lightning bolts.

"Qin Wentian, you are too rebellious. The Heavenly Talisman Realm will punish all traitors for sure." The empyrean felt a little trepidation in his heart as there were already quite a few empyreans that died to Qin Wentian. He couldn't help but to feel fear.

"Why must you force me?" Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with killing intent. Since he had already acted, there was no way for him not to go all out. If not, the threat an empyrean represented was just too great. He might be able to handle empyreans but what about the Evergreen Immortal Empire? What about the Southern Phoenix Clan? What if this empyrean targets Qing`er and Qingcheng for revenge?

He was naturally clear that since he decided to act, he had to be ruthless enough to completely eliminate all threats, removing all future sources of trouble. At such a critical moment, his heart mustn't grow soft. He also understood that although he did care about this ex-sect of his, resulting in the fact that other than killing empyreans, he didn't kill anyone else, things would be different if the situation was reversed. His sect took him as a traitor and they also wanted to conquer the immortal realms. If they had a chance to act, they would surely kill him for sure. After they dominated the world, those who allied themselves with him would surely be hunted down.

Hence, there was basically no need to choose at all.

The demon sword hummed shrilly, another powerful gigantic great roc manifested, gleaming with radiance from his laws of light and boundless sword intent from his laws of sword, rushing towards his opponent. Qin Wentian slowly stepped forth, with every step he took, the amount of might he radiated increased.

"BOOM!" A powerful gravity bore down on Qin Wentian, disrupting him, making it tough for him to continue to move forward. Spatial light flashed, his body vanished completely and at the same instant, Hua Taixu's samsara eyes erupted forth with a terrifying light, causing the expression of the empyrean that was using the source origin of gravity laws to contort. Qin Wentian wanted to kill him.

With a piercing sound, sword light flared. The great roc arced through the skies, as fresh blood splashed through the air. That empyrean's body was lacerated into pieces before turning into nothingness by the immense sword intent of the great roc.

The empyrean proficient in lightning laws, that faced against Qin Wentian earlier, felt his countenance pale. He rapidly retreated, releasing his source origin of laws, wanting to open up the pathway to the Heavenly Talisman Realm to escape. Out of the three empyreans here, two were already killed. He knew that if he didn't flee, there would be no suspense to the situation, he would die for sure.

How could Qin Wentian allow him to leave? Swishing sounds rang out as countless vines appeared. He stepped through a spatial gate along with his vines, and the vines directly wrapped around his opponent. However, his opponent's body suddenly erupted with a fearsome destructive thunderous light, causing the vines to disintegrate.

The radiance and sword intent of Qin Wentian interweaved together as they flowed forwards, targeting his opponent. That empyrean's body was protected by his law origin but the layer of protection disintegrated together with the radiance when they came into contact. At this moment, a sharp whistling sound echoed out as the demon sword shot through the skies. In a situation where it was impossible for the empyrean to defend, the demon sword directly opened up a hole and tunnelled through his body. An empyrean with no heart to battle and only wanted to flee...right at the start, his combat prowess already dwindled drastically. Also, he had his back facing Qin Wentian. How could he still survive?

His corpse continued to descend through the air. In this instant, the gazes of everyone in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect turned to that corpse falling through the air as their hearts trembled violently.

The three powerful empyreans were all killed, not even one remained. Most probably, the empyrean that remained in the Heavenly Talisman Realm to guard it had also died as well. Initially, the supposed strongest supreme power, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect who had four empyreans, actually collapsed in an instant, becoming history in this chaotic world, leaving behind only a period of short-term glory.

What they didn't expect was that the person who ended this period of glory for them, was none other than an ex-disciple from their very own sect, the supreme genius that was heavily nurtured by the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, Qin Wentian.

In the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, there were many people that were acquainted with Qin Wentian. The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord, Taishan Immortal King, Saberlord of Death, Zi Qingxuan and the others...all of them were staring at Qin Wentian now, their hearts numbed from shock. However, a moment later, they also felt a sense of relief. It has finally ended, they no longer needed to bear this burden in their hearts and do things that they weren't willing to do!

Chapter 1699: Equal Fame

Qin Wentian glanced at the crowd. After that, he stepped forth, moving through space and directly appeared at the entrance of an ancient cave in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. His sword intent slashed out, destroying the formation protecting it, revealing a prison with Jun Mengchen, Bai Wuya and the old man.

Sword light flashed, a sharp sound echoed out as the prison broke apart. Qin Wentian landed on the ground.

"Senior brother Qin!" Jun Mengchen's eyes gleamed resplendently. They already knew that Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu were here to rescue them. Upon seeing the two of them joining forces to kill the three empyreans, Jun Mengchen and the two others felt immense shock. It was simply too difficult to imagine that Qin Wentian was already this powerful. Also, Hua Taixu was similarly as awesome as well. Before this, Jun Mengchen believed that he was already very strong. But if he compared himself to his senior brother and Hua Taixu, he was still a little too weak.

Bai Wuya laughed and stared at Qin Wentian. These hundreds of years were like oceans turning into mulberry fields. He had cultivated for many years and believed that he had witnessed many storms before. However, on Qin Wentian, he saw a miracle that caused his heart to be unable to remain calm.

He was the one who watched as Qin Wentian grew up. Back then when he was a spectator for the test Eastern Sage held in Qin Wentian's particle world, he had already paid attention to Qin Wentian. From there, he inducted Qin Wentian into the Heavenly Talisman Realm. At that time, how weak was Qin Wentian? He was merely at the Celestial Phenomenon Realm and was just a junior with potential and talent. He really took good care of Qin Wentian but who would have thought that right now, Qin Wentian became someone he could only look up to. Qin Wentian joined forces to wipe out three empyreans from the Heavenly Talisman Realm, this was simply unimaginable.

These two people were both participants at the test Eastern Sage organized in their particle world.

If Eastern Sage could see the battle today, one could only wonder what emotions he would feel in his heart. Two such supreme characters but he had missed out on them both, choosing to select the descendent of an immortal king as his disciple instead. His judgement was truly bad.

What sort of characters were ancient emperors, it was tough for even one to appear even if multiple tens of thousands of years have passed. Eastern Sage met two of them before they bloomed and even had the chance to take them as disciples. As long as he said a single sentence, they would take him as their master. Sadly, he missed out on such an opportunity.

"Mengchen, senior brother!" Qin Wentian smiled when he looked at the two of them. "I made you guys wait for me for such a long time. It has been tough on all of you."

"What are you talking about?" The old man who inducted Jun Mengchen walked over and spoke. "Back then when we decided to walk on this path, we originally already believed that we wouldn't have an opportunity to be freed. Who would have thought that this world would soon belong to the two of you. Bai Wuya, the junior apprentice brother you inducted is much stronger than mine. Jun Mengchen, you better work hard."

Jun Mengchen shook his head and laughed, "I naturally can't be compared to senior brother. But I'm not weak okay?"

"Oh? What if you compare yourself to him?" Bai Wuya asked, turning his glance to Hua Taixu. Jun Mengchen felt black lines all over his face. "How would I know that I would be acquainted with these two monsters?"

Jun Mengchen felt somewhat depressed. It's true that he had outstanding talent and had never suffered such setbacks before.

Staring at Jun Mengchen's expression, everyone laughed. The atmosphere was now exceptionally relaxed. Now that Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya were saved, the matter of the Heavenly Talisman Realm was settled. As for the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, Qin Wentian didn't have any plans to make a move against it. After all, this place was also once his home. The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord had shown him kindness many times before, he couldn't be so cold and ruthless.

Turning his gaze over, Qin Wentian stared at the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. Right now, the changes to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect were exceedingly great when compared to the past. Some things remained the same but the people here have changed. The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord walked over, moving in front of Qin Wentian as he spoke, "Wentian, I've let Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya down."

Qin Wentian looked at the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord, but before he could say anything, Bai Wuya already replied, "Emperor Lord, this has nothing to do with you. You didn't have any authority to choose at all or you would join us in the prison. Other than that, there's no meaning to it at all."

Bai Wuya was clear on matters of grudges and gratitude. The empyreans from the Heavenly Talisman Realm in the upper world descended. These people were all ancient emperors. Although the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord was the leader of the sect, he basically didn't have any authority to make any decisions at all. Everything was decided by the Heavenly Talisman Realm. Back then, the Heavenly Talisman Realm came into contact with the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord and aided him in establishing the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, defeating the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor. Most probably, ever since then, they were already prepared to move out, making the preparations to unify Azure Mystic. Sadly, they didn't expect the rules to change. After the ban was relaxed, many things that were out of their control happened.

"That's right. Emperor Lord, this matter has nothing to do with you nor the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect. Both my senior apprentice brothers made their choices and endured the consequences with me, how could we still implicate others? Senior brother Qin, let this matter come to an end here." Jun Mengchen tried to persuade Qin Wentian. He was worried that Qin Wentian might vent his anger on the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

"Mhm, don't worry I can fully understand." Qin Wentian nodded to the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord. "Emperor Lord, do you have any plans in the future?"

"Me?" The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord glanced at the sect he established, feeling extremely complicated in his heart. Although the empyreans were killed by Qin Wentian, there were undoubtedly more empyreans from the upper world that would be coming down. Who didn't want status and fame? Many people desired to unify Azure Mystic under their name and all of them were core characters of the Heavenly Talisman Realm that were stronger than him. Even if a few empyreans were killed, he still wouldn't be the one in control of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

The current Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was already different from the past. It was now fully controlled by the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

"I'm prepared to roam the world and will be focusing on my cultivation. I might head to the City of Ancient Emperors and see if there's a chance to improve my cultivation base." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord smiled, prepared to give everything here up. Back then, he only returned because he had a grudge with the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor. He wanted to prove himself. Now, everything has already concluded. He wanted to truly focus on seeking the martial path.

"Mhm," Qin Wentian nodded. He then glanced at the Taishan Immortal King, Tuoba Saintsky and the others, and Zi Qingxuan. He smiled at her and nodded, transmitting his voice to her, "Qingxuan, if you are willing to, you are welcome to come to the Evergreen Immortal Empire to cultivate."

Each to their own, Qin Wentian wouldn't decide the path others wanted to walk. After this matter was concluded, he will naturally bring Jun Mengchen and Bai Wuya away. But for the others, they can choose to walk their own path. In any case, they were all friends in the past, he naturally wouldn't vent his anger on so many of his old friends in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect just because of the orders sent down by the Heavenly Talisman Realm.

"Emperor Lord, this is a messaging crystal. In the future if you need anything, you can use it to contact me directly." Qin Wentian and the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord exchanged strands of immortal senses, leaving an imprint behind in each other's crystals. No matter what choice the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord chooses, Qin Wentian wouldn't forget the gratitude he had towards him. If the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord encountered any difficulty or danger, he would help out for sure. Naturally, this was also warning the people from the Heavenly Talisman Realm not to do anything against the Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord. He was sure that since he had expressed his attitude, nobody would dare to try anything funny.

"Mhm, I'm waiting for you to become the overlord of Azure Mystic." The Thousand Transformations Emperor Lord laughed. This young man has soared up to the sky and was now at the peak of this world, becoming an ancient emperor character, leaving his name behind in history.

"I will." Qin Wentian smiled. "I'm leaving first."

After speaking, he brought Jun Mengchen and the others together with him, directly using the spatial path leading to the Heavenly Talisman Realm as it would hasten their journey.

Not too long after, they returned back to the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Upon seeing the reconstructed majestic imperial palace, Jun Mengchen felt many emotions coursing through his heart. It felt like it had been a lifetime ago since he last saw this.

"Qin Wentian, Jun Mengchen, I will bid my farewell here." Hua Taixu turned to them and spoke. Qin Wentian started, "You are leaving so soon?"

"Mhm, the matters of Azure Mystic have concluded. I will head to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and I believe that we will still have opportunities to meet in the future." Hua Taixu glanced at Qin Wentian as he spoke.

"You are always like this." Qin Wentian laughed. "Alright, see you then. Let's meet again in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms."

"I'll wait for you at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." A rarely-seen smile appeared on Hua Taixu's face. After that, he turned around and departed, incomparably carefreely. That calm tone of his contained an immense towering self-confidence. If it was others saying this, maybe Qin Wentian would feel that that person was too arrogant. However, when Hua Taixu said this, it actually gave off a feeling that it should be so by rights.

"The peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?" Qin Wentian stared at the vanished silhouette of Hua Taixu as he smiled, "Let's hope to meet again at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms then."

"That fellow is growing more and more mysterious." Jun Mengchen mumbled. He naturally was filled with gratitude towards Hua Taixu. That fellow didn't like to express himself and adhered to very strong principles when doing things, but nobody knew what he was thinking in his heart and nobody knew what he was going to do. But even so, the friendship between them couldn't be denied, he was willing to fight alongside with Qin Wentian, heading to the Heavenly Talisman Realm and Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect with no hesitation at all. After the prisoners were rescued, he directly departed, not saying much more.

"Yea." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Senior brother, right now how's the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. I really want to go there and take a look." Jun Mengchen excitedly spoke.

"Very strong. Right now, I'm located in the Lifelong Realm of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. There are a total of nine world palaces in the Lifelong Realm and I'm one of the world palace lords. Just the strength of my world palace there alone isn't something the powers of Azure Mystic can contend against. You can very well imagine how strong it is. Right now, the ban on Azure Mystic has been relaxed but luckily, only empyrean-level characters can enter, world overlords are still banned. If not, I really don't know what the consequences would be." Qin Wentian slowly explained. Jun Mengchen had a look of intense anticipation on his face.

"Seems like there's no more meaning to stay in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. I'm prepared to go with you, senior brother, to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Why do you still want to remain here? Things are extremely boring now." Jun Mengchen was as blunt as ever, speaking his mind out.

"No matter what, Azure Mystic is ultimately our home. There are too much implications. I hope that before I leave, I can unify Azure Mystic, providing deterrence for those from the upper world and give Azure Mystic an era of peace." Qin Wentian slowly spoke. "As for the matters that would happen after I leave, no matter which path Azure Mystic takes, even if I want to interfere in them, I wouldn't be able to do so."

Just like what he has said back then, he wanted to unify the Azure Mystic not because of the status it would give him. At his current level, the fame of being the overlord of Azure Mystic no longer held any significant meaning.

...

The news of what happened in the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect soon circulated around the world. After all, this incident concerns ancient emperor characters as well as the number one expert of the world, the Heaven Empyrean. How could it not cause a huge commotion?

The four ancient emperors of the Heavenly Talisman Realm were slaughtered within a day. The Heaven Empyrean and the Samsara Empyrean joined forces and invaded the Heavenly Talisman Realm before they rushed towards the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, killing all the empyreans and rescuing Bai Wuya and Jun Mengchen. For a period of time, the entire world was trembling from the commotion. Other than the number one expert, the Heaven Empyrean, Hua Taixu's name also circulated around the world.

The Samsara Empyrean, once known as the Samsara Emperor, rose to fame with shocking speed. Everyone in the world knew of him, he became someone of equal fame with the Heaven Empyrean!

Chapter 1700: Fighting the Jiang Clan

The empyreans of the Heaven Talisman Realm were all killed. The Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect controlled by the Heaven Talisman Realm was instantly demoted back into a major power instead of a supreme power. They had no more empyreans left. Since this was so, it was impossible for them to unify Azure Mystic any longer. Those powers that had submitted to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect earlier all started to regret.

After their four empyreans were killed, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect was knocked off their divine pedestal and even before the tripartite balance was formed for long, it already disintegrated. Right now, only two supreme powers remained to contend for supremacy of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms but many discussions sounded out saying the Heaven Empyrean, Qin Wentian, would be the eventual hegemon.

The vast majority of people felt that it wouldn't be too long before the Heaven Empyrean dominated the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. He would destroy the Jiang Clan and became the only supreme power remaining.

After several days, news circulated out that the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect had collapsed. A supreme power with four empyreans was knocked off their divine pedestal and became history. They themselves also understood that without any empyreans, let alone contending against Qin Wentian, even if Qin Wentian didn't participate, they also wouldn't be able to win against the forces under Qin Wentian.

After the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect collapsed, all its experts also dispersed. Those powers that submitted to the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect all came to the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire, wanting to submit to Qin Wentian. However, Qin Wentian rejected all of them.

Although he wanted to give an era of peace to Azure Mystic, he wasn't any saint that was extremely kind. When he contended against the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and Jiang Clan, all three sides were equal. Since these powers had chosen then to join the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, where was the logic that he would accept them once the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect collapsed? But naturally, he also wouldn't be cruel enough to kill these people but in any case, it was destined in the future that these powers would never be able to stand at the peak of Azure Mystic. If he became the ultimate hegemon of Azure Mystic, the control of Azure Mystic in the future would naturally be left in the hands of those powers who first chose to submit to him.

After the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, only the Jiang Clan remained. Back then in the Evergreen Immortal Empire, Qin Wentian said that he wanted to kill Jiang Zihua but the empyreans of the Jiang Clan rejected it. Now that the empyreans of the Heavenly Talisman Realm were destroyed and the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect had collapsed, would Qin Wentian spare the Jiang Clan?

Everyone in the immortal realms were waiting for the battle to decide the overlord of Azure Mystic to erupt.

Today, Qin Wentian sent his men to the Jiang Clan to transmit a message, telling the Jiang Clan to hand over Jiang Zihua and that the Jiang Clan must never interfere in matters of Azure Mystic again.

The Jiang Clan naturally rejected. They cursed at Qin Wentian's arrogance and hence, the relationship between both parties became one of increased mutual hostility and combat seemed likely to erupt at any moment. If the Heaven Empyrean Qin Wentian and the Samsara Empyrean killed their way into the Jiang Clan, would the three empyreans of the Jiang Clan be able to stop them?

Today, the three empyreans of the Jiang Clan sent Qin Wentian a challenge letter. The challenge letter arrived at the Evergreen Immortal Empire's imperial palace and Qin Wentian directly accepted it, moving out straight after he read it, heading alone to the location of the arranged battle.

At the boundaries where the eastern and southern regions meet, there was a huge stretch of ocean there with many islands situated within the stretch.

At this moment, two empyreans of the Jiang Clan were sitting on one of the islands. They had their eyes closed but light from their laws faintly revolved around them as formless law ripples radiated forth, permeating the vast ocean. Finally, one of them opened his eyes, "He has arrived. However, Qin Wentian is alone, I didn't see Hua Taixu."

"Could he be hiding in the darkness?" Someone replied. After that, he took out a messaging crystal and selected a strand of immortal sense, transmitting the message.

"If he is, how can he hide his presence from us?" That person confidently spoke. The two of them nodded and an instant later, Qin Wentian could be seen soaring through the air, arriving at the air space above them.

"Why are there only two of you?" Qin Wentian stood in the air and stared at the two empyreans of the Jiang Clan. The one of the left replied, "Qin Wentian, your actions in Azure Mystic are too arrogant. Even if you are the number one expert of Azure Mystic, you won't be able to escape the fate of dying young."

"The Heavenly Talisman Realm has already collapsed due to me. Where does your confidence come from?" Qin Wentian asked.

"The Heavenly Talisman Realmlord is merely the lord of a realm in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. How can he be compared to us, the Ancient Jiang Clan that had inheritances from countless years ago? In the lower world, you can still flaunt your might, but if this place was the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, my Jiang Clan can crush you just like crushing an ant. Qin Wentian, let me give you a final warning. Don't try to be an ant trying to shake a tree. For some people, you won't be able to afford antagonizing them." The empyrean from the Jiang Clan spoke.

"I don't know about the matters in Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. But in this place, the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, I'm sure I can afford to antagonize your Jiang Clan." Qin Wentian spoke as a terrifying aura permeated the area. He couldn't be bothered to waste time talking. Since the Jiang Clan challenged him, let's fight then.

The eyes of the two empyreans from the Jiang Clan flashed golden and emitted sharpness. Golden buddhic light covered them, becoming an armor, exuding imposingness.

"Disable!" One of them roared. This was a buddha-path secret art known as the Immobile Art. Qin Wentian only felt terrifying surges of buddha laws source origin converging into an ancient rune that imprinted itself into his body. In the next moment, he felt his body turning stiff as his mobility was disabled.

The other empyrean stepped out, directly soaring through the air, arriving before Qin Wentian. His palm blasted forth, manifesting countless numbers of indestructible weapons that could slice apart the void. When they slashed at Qin Wentian, they directly cut into his flesh, entering his body.

The reason why the two of them were so confident was also because they had great strength. Upon joining forces, ordinary empyreans would surely be defeated and killed by a single strike from them.

However, how could Qin Wentian be an ordinary empyrean? When the attacks cut into his flesh, another body came out from his original body. There were now two Qin Wentians in the air. It was like the molting of a cicada and in the next instant, the first body was destroyed while Qin Wentian flew higher up in the air with a surprised look on his face. The empyreans of the Jiang Clan were truly extraordinary. Luckily, the Qin Wentian now was extremely experienced and had cultivated many different methods.

In the air, terrifying spatial storms appeared while countless spatial gates manifested. The airspace above the ocean was incomparably resplendent with flashes of light.

One of the empyreans of the Jiang Clan folded incantation gestures. The Immobile Art Rune was powered by the Great Dao and emitted buddhic chants, imprinting itself into the countless spatial gates in the air, forcing them closed.

As for the other empyrean, he transformed into a golden ancient buddha, manifesting a dharma body. Buddhic light gleamed resplendently and lightning crackled around him. Each of his attacks contained the power of lightning and thunder as he joined his ally in crushing all the remaining spatial gates. After that, he directly lunged towards Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's silhouette kept flickering as he stepped in and out of the spatial gates he created. The mysterious Jiang Clan was proficient in buddha laws. Many in Azure Mystic guessed that they must have plenty of buddha-path inheritances and back then those years ago, Jiang Zihua even defeated Bujie's master before. Although the states of their hearts didn't mirror that of the buddha, there was no need to doubt their combat prowess, all of the Jiang Clan's members were extremely powerful.

"Qin Wentian, you won't be able to escape us." The empyrean that used the Immobile Art coldly spoke. At this moment, he also manifested a dharma body and the buddic energy both of them emitted caused numerous ancient buddhas to manifest in the air as they descended from the heavens. At this moment, this entire space was filled with the ancient buddhas. The pressure they exuded caused terrifying rumbling sounds as the ocean below churned wildly, it seemed that the Jiang Clan's empyreans wanted to seal away everything here with their buddha arts.

Qin Wentian's flickering silhouette continued retreating. After that, explosive rumblings rang out as the ancient buddhas rushed at him. The Jiang Clan's empyrean also continued to use his Immobile Art, wanting to disable Qin Wentian's movements. Such power was too terrifying, capable of shaking the heavens. The unaffiliated cultivators cultivating on this stretch of ocean were all startled away by the sounds of this battle. When they saw the numerous buddhas filling the air, all of them felt a sense of disbelief as they continued to watch in a dumbfounded manner.

Such endless uninterrupted attacks made Qin Wentian felt extremely troublesome. After evading another wave of attacks, a giant palm imprint imbued with the immobile rune actually blasted his way, generating fearsome wind force from the power of that strike. It seemed that the Jiang Clan's empyrean had predicted where he was going to appear next and had attacked that position in advance.

Clearly, just defending alone wasn't a good strategy.

At this moment, Qin Wentian's body turned a shade of inky-black. Devil clouds suddenly covered the sky as a fearsome ancient supreme devil lord appeared before him.

When the palm imprint closed in, Qin Wentian's dark eyes gleamed with devil light. Immense amounts of devil might flooded the area, directly corroding the buddhic light.

"RETURN!" He coldly roared, the supreme devil lord expanded in size and stood tall, peering down with arrogance at everything under the heavens, as it slowly fused with Qin Wentian. Its head reached the sky, its foot stepped into the ocean, it was like this devil lord was the hegemon of this world and could control the heavens and earth. With a single roar from Qin Wentian, that Immobile Art Rune actually transformed into a devil rune after being coated with the immense devil might permeating the area. The palm imprint instantly turned around and blasted towards the two Jiang Clan's empyreans instead.

The inheritance of the Myriad Devil Island emphasized the laws of control. Back then at the immortal king realm, Qin Wentian could already defeat experts at the same realm using devil-path attacks on them. He could reverse their attacks and crush them effortlessly. All devil cultivators weren't able to last a single strike before him.

Right now, he had already entered the empyrean realm and had comprehended the source origins of devil laws. Only now could he truly unleash the full power of the inheritance.

The essence of the Myriad Devil Sovereign's inheritance was the essence of control. All devils had to submit, the laws of heaven and earth are all for me to use.

Even the ancient buddhas summoned by the two Jiang Clan's empyreans began to corrode under the devil might. The inky-black light covered the golden buddhic light as the two intrinsic opposite-aligned powers clashed madly. But ultimately, the ancient buddhas were converted into ancient devil lords. From this, one could tell how tyrannical the Myriad Devil Sovereign's inheritance is, it could truly ignore the laws of the world and use them according to the user's will. If this inheritance was cultivated to the peak, how terrifying would it be? Wouldn't it reach a state where as long as the user wants devil to exist, there wouldn't be any buddhas in the world?

...

And just as Qin Wentian was fighting against the two Jiang Clan's empyreans, in the location of the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire, two terrifying auras appeared. At this moment, two figures could be seen in the air. One of them was the third empyrean from the Jiang Clan and for the other figure, no one had seen him before but his aura was extremely fearsome. This man was an empyrean from the Ying Clan in the upper world and was here for revenge. A crazy killing intent could be seen flickering in his eyes!

Qin Wentian had destroyed the Ying Clan in the lower world. Since this is the case, he wanted Qin Wentian to suffer as he did. A debt of blood must be repaid by blood. He will annihilate the Evergreen Immortal Empire!

Chapter 1701: The Jiang Clan is Finished

Two extremely powerful auras bore down on the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire causing countless people to be shocked. They inclined their heads and stared at the two figures in the air. The expressions of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and the others drastically changed. They hurriedly took out their messaging crystals and sent their immortal sense into it, contacting Qin Wentian.

Malevolent smiles appeared on the faces of the two empyreans in the air when they saw this. Transmitting a message? Would Qin Wentian be able to make it back in time?

"Brother Ying, since Qin Wentian destroyed the branch of your Ying Clan here, I won't vie against you. Feel free to kill these ants." The Jiang Clan's empyrean laughed. The Ying Clan's empyrean nodded. He had received orders to come to Azure Mystic Immortal Realms but before he could arrive, the entire Ying Clan's branch in the lower world was already annihilated. What a great humiliation was this? After that, he learned that Qin Wentian killed an empyrean and became the number one expert under the heavens and hence, he decided to bide his time first. That day, among the neutral empyreans that gathered in the Evergreen Immortal Empire to watch the show, he was there too but he didn't reveal his identity.

All the way up until now, only after the Jiang Clan challenged Qin Wentian, did he decide to reveal himself and came here together with the third empyrean of the Jiang Clan.

"Since this is the case, I won't be polite then." The voice of the Ying Clan's empyrean was filled with a sinister killing intent. The gaze he used as he peered downwards, was like a god looking down at puny mortals.

"Go ahead. In any case, the beauties in the imperial palace are as many as the clouds. Many of them are of the supreme-grade. Brother Ying, please be lenient when you attack." The Jiang Clan's empyrean laughed loudly. The Ying Clan's empyrean's immortal sense enveloped the entire imperial palace and naturally could see the truth of the Jiang Clan's empyrean's words. His heart stirred when he heard the hint of the Jiang Clan's empyrean. Using such a method of revenge was truly not bad.

All of a sudden, numerous roars shook the sky as demonic qi permeated the atmosphere. Terrifying demonic dragons manifested as they circled the skies. Each demonic dragon was a million feet in size, flying in spirals in the air, blotting out the sun. In an instant, the sky dimmed, the entire boundlessly vast royal capital was cast into darkness. Malevolent looks and sinister coldness could be seen in the eyes of these demonic dragons.

RUMBLE~ The skies trembled from the might unleashed by the demonic dragons. As long as the Ying Clan's empyrean gave the command, they would instantly descend and destroy the Evergreen Immortal Empire. The experts in the imperial palace all turned pale. Under the pressure from such power, all of them felt so tiny and inconsequential. They felt like a lone boat drifting in an apocalyptic storm and the boat would break apart, turning into nothingness at any moment.

"Wentian was tricked." Matriarch Ji had an unsightly look on her face. Qin Wentian went off, answering the challenge from the Jiang Clan. Since he was not here, who among them could fight against these two ancient emperors? Although they had an army of immortal emperors, immortal emperors were ultimately of different levels from ancient emperors. The advantages in terms of numbers were completely useless.

"Master, he would surely have something in reserve." Qing`er's white hair fluttered as she calmly watched the scene in the air. She just trusted in Qin Wentian that much.

She naturally trust Qin Wentian. After Qin Wentian returned, he accompanied them every day, going everywhere with them. Even when he headed to the Myriad Devil Islands, he brought them along as well. For such emotions, others might not understand but she and Mo Qingcheng could both understand it very well. Since Qin Wentian left her and Qingcheng in the imperial palace when he went off to answer the challenge from the Jiang Clan, it was impossible that he would leave this place defenseless. There was no other reason behind her strong confidence, it was just her emotions.

Just as the sound of Qing`er's voice faded, the emperor palace that was at the center of the imperial palace suddenly lit up. Resplendent runes flashed, mysterious imprints could be seen everywhere, flowing towards every part of the imperial palace as a tyrannical aura gushed forth. A few moments later, the entire imperial palace seemed to be covered by an ancient diagram that existed in the void.

"Mhm?" Both the empyreans from the Ying Clan and Jiang Clan both had looks of bewilderment on their faces. After that, they exclaimed in shock, "A grand formation!"

During the reconstruction of the Evergreen Immortal Empire's royal capital, a grand formation was actually inscribed as well. The source origin of laws could be felt emanating from it. It was extremely powerful

Their immortal senses searched for the source. After that, their eyes landed on an ordinary-looking figure dressed in black that had a mask on. They didn't know when this figure had appeared. His aura had been completely hidden from them but was now radiating forth gradually. He was clearly the one controlling the grand formation.

"An empyrean!" The expressions of the Jiang Clan and Ying Clan's empyreans both changed. In addition, this wasn't the Samsara Empyrean Hua Taixu in the legends but was another person instead. This meant that other than Qin Wentian and Hua Taixu, there was still one more empyrean hidden in the Evergreen Immortal Empire. This made them feel a sense of unease.

The Ying Clan's empyrean pointed his finger downwards. In an instant, dragon roars filled the air, causing the earth to tremble as they rushed downwards.

Below, that black-robed figure slowly soared into the air. The terrifying formation had already been activated and was channeling its power into him. A moment later, numerous ancient sealing gates appeared and when the dragons slammed into the sealing gates, they actually felt themselves being absorbed into the dimensions within the gates. Their giant bodies turned tiny before they vanished completely.

This entire space seemed to be sealed. If one stood high up enough in the air, they would be able to tell that this entire stretch of sky seemed to be a gigantic gate of sealing emitting boundless sealing might that gushed towards the two enemy empyreans.

"I've been waiting for you guys for a long time." A voice rang out from the black-robed figure. Qin Wentian naturally knew that there would surely be empyreans from the Ying Clan in the upper world coming here to Azure Mystic. Since that was the case, how could he not take precautions against that? Just like what Qing'er speculated, it was impossible for him to leave Qing'er and Mo Qingcheng here unprotected while he answered the Jiang Clan's challenge. Since they were finally reunited after so many troubles, there was no way he would allow them to fall into danger again. Even if things were extremely dire, he wouldn't hesitate to stand before them to block everything even if he had to die to protect them.

The Ying Clan and Jiang Clan's empyreans sent out their immortal sense and enveloped the area. They felt that something was wrong. This entire space seemed to be already locked inside a sealing dimension. In this space, numerous sealing gates shot towards them, radiating a powerful sealing light.

Both of them unleashed their terrifying auras and prepared to blast the sealing gates flying towards them into pieces. However, the black-robed figure had the augmentation of the grand formation, the number of sealing gates he could create was almost endless. The sealing light that was emitted also seemed boundless, already sealing away the other law energies here. The two of them felt that their control over the source origins of their laws was gradually weakening as their faces turned incredibly unsightly. After that, the Jiang Clan's empyrean decided to rush downwards, he wanted to capture some hostages.

But just when his attacks landed on the sealing gates, the power behind of his attacks was completely sealed away. There was no way for him to destroy the gates at all.

"This…" Matriarch Ji, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and the others didn't expect that Qin Wentian would still have this move in reserve. Back then when Qin Wentian sought out craftsmen to reconstruct the imperial palace, they actually had no idea that he was also inscribing such a powerful formation. The two empyreans now found it extremely troublesome, both of them understood that things would be even more disadvantageous for them if the situation dragged on.

"How's the situation there now? Qin Wentian is too powerful, we are both in danger." At this moment, a voice rang out in the Jiang Clan's empyrean's mind. These words were transmitted by the two empyreans currently locked in combat with Qin Wentian. The third Jiang Clan's empyrean instantly paled. Both battles were actually extremely dangerous for them? His silhouette continued to flash as he evaded, while he took out his messaging crystal and activated it to reply. This could be done because the figure in black didn't pressure him with more attacks, or he definitely wouldn't have the time to take out his messaging crystal at all.

At this moment, at the other battlefield, the entire ocean below them was churning wildly as water reversed their flow and went against gravity, flowing upwards instead. Devil might permeated this entire region, and unexcelled supreme devil lords manifested one after another, wanting to annihilate everything. Qin Wentian was the Myriad Devil Sovereign, he used his body that was in devil-form to unleash many mystical devil-path innate techniques.

A loud explosion occurred. Qin Wentian directly vanished from his location and his gigantic devil body directly appeared in the airspace above one of the Jiang Clan's empyreans. A cracking sound rang out as the dharma body protection of the Jiang Clan's empyrean collapsed. Numerous devil arms shot downwards as the Jiang Clan's empyrean frenziedly folded incantation gestures, using the source origin of his laws to form millions of immobile runes. However, the devil might in the area corroded everything. The runes even turned on their creator and immobilized him instead. That Jiang Clan's empyrean couldn't move at all and Qin Wentian effortlessly grabbed hold of him.

"How's the result after you checked with the third Jiang Clan's empyrean?" Qin Wentian's black eyes that were akin to a supreme devil lord stared at the empyrean as he asked. That Jiang Clan's empyrean's expression turned extremely ugly to behold. He felt his heart trembling as he asked, "Why is there another empyrean there?"

Also, their immortal senses when scanning initially actually failed to discover that empyrean.

"Do you know about the laws of sealing?" Qin Wentian spoke. Di Tian naturally had used his sealing laws to seal away his presence as well as the presence of the grand formation. Since this was the case, it wasn't strange that no one had discovered it.

"I'm willing to hand Jiang Zihua over to you." The Jiang Clan's empyrean spoke.

"If you had compromised earlier, I would have believed in your sincerity. But since the battle has already started, there's no longer a need to negotiate about conditions. Goodbye." Qin Wentian spoke, his eyes glowed terrifyingly as a devil saber flashed past. The other remaining empyrean couldn't bear to look as his comrade was slashed apart. His body directly vanished, as though he just used some great teleportation technique as he attempted to leave. The remaining empyrean knew that they were miserably defeated. When Qin Wentian insta-killed the empyrean from Senluo back then, Qin Wentian actually held himself back and didn't reveal his true strength.

"RUMBLE~" The devil body also vanished, directly pursuing the remaining Jiang Clan's empyrean. A gigantic devil palm blotted out the sun and directly smashed downwards. There was simply no way for the empyrean to escape at all. With a thunderous boom, that empyrean was slammed into the ocean by the palm. After that, Qin Wentian continued exerting force, pushing the palm downwards, smashing the empyrean against the seabed. The ocean churned wildly as that attack created gigantic tsunamis, pushing all the water in its way apart. The remaining Jiang Clan's empyrean had no way to escape at all.

From afar, those spectators felt their legs go soft. They stared at the battle in a daze, this battle at the ancient emperor level was actually so overwhelmingly powerful. If Qin Wentian willed it, even the entire stretch of ocean would disappear.

After killing his opponent, a terrifying devil light gleamed in his eyes. Over there at Di Tian's side, it was about time to wrap things up as well. His figure flashed as he soared towards the distance. In the air, devil might crackled wildly, the pressure boring down on everything. As he passed by, the countless experts there were all trembling, some even wanted to prostrate themselves on the ground in worship.

Was this the strength of the Devil Sovereign, the Heaven Empyrean? Who under the heavens could contend against him?

"Wait, is he heading to the southern regions instead and not returning to the eastern regions?" Someone felt his heart shuddering.

"Is he planning to go to the Jiang Clan?"

At this instant, those spectators who saw Qin Wentian flying away all understood that the Jiang Clan was finished!

Chapter 1702: Universal Attention

After the two empyreans of the Jiang Clan were killed, the other battlefield in the Evergreen Immortal Empire had also concluded. Di Tian's sealing arts had completely sealed the power of the empyreans from the Ying and Jiang Clan, and after that, both of them were swallowed into the gigantic gate of sealing.

The energy of the formation gradually dissipated, and the experts in the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire stared in shock at Di Tian. At this moment, the army brought here by Qin Wentian from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms all bowed to Di Tian as they greeted, "Your subordinates pay our respects to vice palace lord."

"Vice palace lord." The eyes of many people in the Evergreen Immortal Empire flashed. These people referred to Qin Wentian as 'palace lord,' so was this black-robed figure their vice palace lord?

Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng's beautiful eyes flashed with a bright light. The eyes of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor also gleamed with sharpness as though he thought of something.

Only to see Di Tian waving his hand to them in response. After that, his silhouette flashed as he vanished. His departure made many people in the Evergreen Immortal Empire feel that he was extremely mysterious. As for the experts of the Lifire Palace, all of them sighed in their hearts. They didn't expect that vice palace lord, Di Tian, would come here. He should have been invited by the palace lord, right? To think that the vice palace lord attached so much importance to the palace lord's order. The palace lord actually asked Di Tian to inscribe a grand formation here.

Naturally, they could tell from this that the relationship between Qin Wentian and Di Tian was a very good one, unlike the speculations of many others saying that each of them were harbouring their own plots. When they thought of this, they felt a chill in their hearts. Seems like back then when the Lifire Empyrean was killed, it should be a plot orchestrated by the two of them. How terrifying was this. The previous Lifire Palace Lord was played to his death by the two of them.

After Qin Wentian killed the Jiang Clan's empyreans, he directly flew towards the Jiang Clan. When he arrived there, the majestic Jiang Clan was already empty, only some minor characters remained. The elders of the Jiang Clan, Jiang Zihua and Jiang Ziyu as well as the other elites have all vanished. Clearly, they were already prepared.

"What crafty fellows." Qin Wentian silently mused. His immortal sense enveloped the city the Jiang Clan was located but he still failed to sense the presence of these elites from the Jiang Clan. Since the other party wanted to evade, it probably wouldn't be so easy to find them.

Stepping out, Qin Wentian's figure directly departed. He didn't start a massacre here to kill these minor characters as there would be no meaning to it. However, the core members of the Jiang Clan must die. When the time comes for him to be ruthless, he naturally wouldn't be soft-hearted and show mercy. Jiang Zihua was an extremely sinister character and had very high talent. Leaving him alive would only be a future source of trouble. He might not be afraid, but he didn't wish for those around him to come to any harm.

Hence, the first command Qin Wentian gave after he returned to the Evergreen Immortal Empire was offer great rewards and sent out an arrest order to capture the core members of the Jiang Clan.

The news soon circulated out. After the Heaven Empyrean and Samsara Empyrean joined forces to destroy the Heavenly Talisman Realm, the Heaven Empyrean went alone to accept the challenge from the Jiang Clan's empyreans and finished them off. At the same time, the third empyrean and another empyrean from the Ying Clan tried to sneak attack the Evergreen Immortal Empire but a mysterious empyrean was already here and borrowed power from a grand formation to annihilate them. The Evergreen Immortal Empire was now protected by a terrifying grand protective formation. This was undoubtedly a strong deterrence to many forces.

The Heavenly Talisman Realm had collapsed, the empyreans of the Jiang Clan were annihilated while the core members had all fled. The Jiang Clan still existed in name but was already finished in reality.

The tripartite balance of power in Azure Mystic didn't last for long before the balance crumbled. From now on, there was only a single hegemon in Azure Mystic - the Heaven Empyrean Qin Wentian.

In only such a short time after Qin Wentian returned, he dominated the entire world, becoming the Myriad Devil Sovereign of the Myriad Devil Islands, the Heaven Empyrean of the immortal realms and gained absolute authority. A single sentence from him now could mobilize the entire world.

Everyone in the immortal realms understood that with the defeat of the Jiang Clan, the chaos in the immortal realms would come to an end as a brand new era unfolds.

Before the Heaven Empyrean left Azure Mystic, the unification of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms was undoubtedly a foregone conclusion. No one would be able to stop it.

After that, the Heaven Empyrean sent out orders telling the Nibblesky Sacred Cult, Thunder God Hall, Snowdrift Sage Hall to bring a copy of all their ancient cultivation text and manuals to the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire. When this order was sent out, the entire immortal realms trembled.

To any sect, all ancient cultivation arts were supposed to be secrets only passed down to their core disciples. However, Qin Wentian wanted these powers to make a copy of their ancient cultivation arts and send them to the Evergreen Immortal Empire? This meant that from now onwards, these arts no longer belonged to the sect alone. As long as the Heaven Empyrean wants it, he can easily find another batch of people to replace them.

If this was in ordinary times, it would be a great taboo and was tantamount to declaring a war.

But now, even if Qin Wentian declared a war, would these powers dare to fight against him?

Even if he gave such an order, would these powers dare not to obey?

This, was the price they had to pay for the choice they made that day. For those who lost, they ultimately had to endure the consequences. Back then, if they chose to submit to Qin Wentian, they would have already stood at the peak with the other powers who had chosen correctly.

The Heaven Empyrean sent out his orders, telling all the various major powers to hand over all their cultivation arts to the Evergreen Immortal Empire's royal capital on the same day. Also, during this very day, the Heaven Empyrean announced that a grand banquet would be held throughout the entire royal capital. He wanted to restructure the major powers of this world and everyone understood that this was re-assigning territories, truly allowing those who submitted to him to gain control of more areas.

Everyone in the immortal realms was discussing about this matter. In fact, there were many people who defined today as the Heaven Empyrean's date of ascension.

However, more news soon circulated out. The reason behind the holding of the banquet was soon revealed. Heaven Empyrean wanted to gather everyone was not because of re-assigning territories but rather, it was for the sake of a beauty.

A hundred plus years ago, the Heaven Empyrean was hunted down by a group of major powers due to hatred and jealousy. Although he knew he would die in that circumstances if he showed up, he still chose to head to the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

During that day, he proposed to Evergreen Qing`er, the princess of the Evergreen Immortal Empire who became the White-Hair Killing Goddess later on.

Now, the Heaven Empyrean has already united the world. Many people were guessing that he wanted to make things up to Evergreen Qing`er, holding a grand wedding in the Evergreen Immortal Empire that woulds shake the entire Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, allowing everyone in the world to participate.

One couldn't help but to say that the people of the immortal realms were all extremely intelligent. Very swiftly, the news was verified. The imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire sent out news that the Heaven Empyrean would wed the princess, Evergreen Qing`er, on the day of the banquet.

The moment this news circulated, the entire immortal realms tremored.

Someone even laughed, saying that the Heaven Empyrean dominated the world just to organize this wedding with Evergreen Qing`er. Everything he did was just to obtain a smile from her.

Although such sayings were a little far-fetched, many people still believed it. This was especially so for many females. Their envy for Qing`er reached the extreme. For her sake, the Heaven Empyrean contended against everyone else and won the world for her. What a romantic story this was!

For a period of time, Evergreen Qing`er became the object of jealousy and envy for all the other maidens in the entire immortal realms.

The wedding of the Heaven Empyrean, what commotion would it cause?

In addition, the Heaven Empyrean rode on the momentum of unifying the immortal realms to organize this wedding. From this, one could very well imagine what intense echoes there were. The entire immortal realms was in a commotion. Countless experts, regardless of immortal emperors, immortal kings, immortal-foundation or celestial phenomenon, all of them did all they could to travel to the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire in the east to spectate. This would be a grand wedding that was unrivalled by all others, a wedding capable of shaking the immortal realms.

Right now, in a small city in the eastern regions, there was a small courtyard. Today, the owner of the courtyard wore a pristine white robe with no dust on it at all and he had a bright smile on his face.

A beautiful maiden stepped out and help him tidy his clothes. She smiled, "Are our savings enough to reach the Evergreen Immortal Empire?'

"Back then, junior brother Qin has left some treasures for us. This time, even if we all have to become bankrupt, we must rush to the Evergreen Immortal Empire on that day!" Lin Shuai laughed, his eyes shining brightly. "Junior brother Qin is about to get married!"

The female laughed, staring at her husband with a gentle look in her eyes. After learning that his junior apprentice brother was the Heaven Empyrean, her husband initially didn't wish to bask in the glory. He continued to depend on himself to walk his own path. However, when he heard that the Heaven Empyrean was about to get married, her husband suddenly changed his his mind and decided to spare no expense to rush there to attend the wedding. Her husband was always like that. He had a strong character but was extremely sentimental.

"Back then if it wasn't for junior apprentice brother Qin, we wouldn't have today. Now that his wedding is here, we naturally must participate." The female smiled gently, thinking back to everything that has happened back then. At that time, her husband's junior apprentice brother was still a disciple of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect.

At another location in the immortal realms, a pair of husband and wife was also making their way there, doing their best as they rushed towards the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Their thoughts were the same as Lin Shuai. They didn't mind spending all their fortune to use teleportation arrays to hasten their journey, wanting to rush there to offer their congratulations.

"Ouyang, why is the Heaven Empyrean's marriage making you so happy?" Beside the couple, somebody asked.

"Haha, I'm naturally happy." The man that was named Ouyang laughed, there was a radiant smile on his face. Jiang Ting beside him held his hand as they exchanged mutual glances with a smile, each of them understanding what the other was thinking. Their good brother not only became the Heaven Empyrean and conquered the immortal realms, he was even going to hold a grand wedding for Qing`er. How could they not be happy?

"Is there really a need to be so happy? We are merely going there to bask in the liveliness of the atmosphere. This time around, all the major characters of the immortal realms are heading over there. Even if you are excited, you don't need to be so excited, right?"

"Because, the Heaven Empyrean is my best brother!" Ouyang Kuangsheng started laughing uproariously. The people around him all started...after a moment, loud sounds of laughter all rang out, far more exaggerating than Ouyang Kuangsheng's earlier laughter. All of them thought that this Ouyang must most likely be 80% mad.

The Heaven Empyrean was his best brother?

"HAHAHA…" The laughter continued. Ouyang Kuangsheng and Jiang Ting didn't mind it. Both of them continued to smile. There was no need to say anything more.

In another location, at a pavilion, a maiden stared blankly at the skies. This maiden was exceedingly beautiful, like a celestial maiden. She was dressed in robes of pure white.

Behind her, a figure silently arrived. He stared at her who had a blank look on her face as he asked, "Xian`er, are you okay?"

"Nothing much, I suddenly thought of some people and some things in the past." The beautiful maiden smiled, as she continued staring at the sky while a figure appeared in her mind.

"Xian`er, don't think too much about matters of the past. No matter what happened to you before, I'm willing to protect you forever from now on till the future." The man behind her gently spoke. The beautiful maiden turned and smiled at him, "Oh, is that so?"

"Naturally." The other party nodded.

"I wish to go to a place." The maiden softly spoke.

"Where?" The man asked.

"The Evergreen Immortal Empire." The maiden replied.

The eyes of the man flashed with light, after that he smiled. "The grand wedding of the Heaven Empyrean...Evergreen Qing'er invokes the envy of all other maidens under the heavens. Xian'er, you wish to go there too? Since that's the case, when shall we move out?"

"Right now." The extremely beautiful maiden smiled!

Chapter 1703: Returning Home

Azure Mystic was unified, the Heaven Empyrean's wedding was organized. The attention of the entire Azure Mystic Immortal Realms was focused on the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

Right now, the royal capital had a new name.

This was also the intention of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor. After all, right now the royal capital no longer only had experts from the Evergreen Immortal Empire, experts from the Myriad Devil Islands, Darknorth Immortal Dynasty and the various powers were all here. If this place continued to use the name 'royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire,' it would be inappropriate as it would give the feeling that the other powers are submitting to the Evergreen Immortal Empire. In addition, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor was Qin Wentian's father-in-law, there was naturally a need to avoid such gossips or the various major powers who had submitted to Qin Wentian might feel extremely uncomfortable.

Hence, the Evergreen Immortal Empire took the initiative to propose a name change. Many people didn't object. Now, Qin Wentian has the title of the Heaven Empyrean and became the number one expert in Azure Mystic. He has decided to make the royal capital his headquarters and asked the various major powers to relocate here. Hence, this royal capital now became the core of the entire Azure Mystic Immortal Realms and was paid attention to by everyone. It was true that a change of name was needed.

Hence, Qin Wentian also agreed. The royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire was given a new name - Heaven Empyrean City!

The reconstruction of the royal capital to expand. The nearby cities were all absorbed into it during the reconstruction. Right now, endless waves of experts were all heading to the Heaven Empyrean City to attend the Heaven Empyrean's wedding. They didn't dare to imagine how grand an occasion that would be. All major characters of the immortal realms would definitely be there.

For the wedding, there were naturally many people helping Qin Wentian to prepare. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch Nanfeng Yaoyue, Matriarch Ji, the experts of the Lifire Palace were all extremely busy. If it was before, they simply would never have imagined that they would actually help some others to prepare for a wedding. Such things to them could simply be settled by asking their servants to do so but things were different now. After all, this was the wedding of Qin Wentian and Qing`er. The entire Azure Mystic Immortal Realms were paying attention to the wedding.

During this period of time before the wedding, Di Tian had released the seal of his particle world. Back then, he was forced to ask the old man to seal this particle world away. Now that Eastern Sage has already died and he had unified Azure Mystic, how could he not invite his foster father here to his wedding? In addition, both Qin Wentian and Mo Qingcheng had not met their families for several hundred years, they naturally missed them a lot.

Right now, in the Chu Country of the Grand Xia Empire, the Qin Manor was the number one power. Back then after Qin Wentian left this place, Di Tian sealed the cultivation bases of those from the immortal realms who came to the particle world and made them stay behind to teach the people of this world cultivation. He also left many treasures in the Qin Manor and given that back then Qin Wentian was already the number one expert of this particle world, how could the Qin Manor's development be weak? Through these many years, the Qin Manor has already transformed completely and become a top-tier power in this particle world.

Naturally, the person in charge of the Qin Manor was no longer Qin Chuan. He had already retired and passed control to his younger brother Qin He.

At this moment, Qin Wentian and Mo Qingcheng descended from the air, arriving outside of the Qin Manor. Qing'er didn't come with them. This time around, Qing'er was the bride and naturally had to prepare herself. Qin Wentian decided to come back to his particle world. Other than fetching his family, he also wanted to bring Qingcheng's family along. In the future, as to whether they chose to follow him or to stay behind in the particle world, Qin Wentian wouldn't force them, he would allow his elders to make their own choices.

Everyone had their own life to lead. He wouldn't impose his thinking on others.

Staring the manor that was much more majestic than before, a radiant smile appeared on Qin Wentian's face. Back then, he thought that after he sealed this entire particle world, it would be a long time before he could return. He didn't expect to be able to return home so quickly.

No matter where he went, no matter how far he traveled, this place would always be the home where he grew up in.

The guards of the Qin Manor stared at the two figures, their demeanors were simply too outstanding. Even though Qin Wentian and Mo Qingcheng retracted their auras, everyone could still feel how extraordinary they are. Maybe, they didn't feel too much about Qin Wentian's demeanor, but given how beautiful Mo Qingcheng was, no matter who it was, they would definitely cast a few more glances at her.

"How beautiful. The number one beauty of Chu cannot even be compared to her, clearly much more inferior." The guards of the Qin Manor silently mused.

At this moment, a group of figures walked out from the Qin Manor. This man had a proud look on his face and was clad in luxurious robes. His cultivation base was at the Heavenly Dipper Realm and many people followed behind him. All these people that were his guards.

This man was a descendant of the Qin Clan, Qin Yang.

The instant Qin Yang saw Mo Qingcheng, he found it hard to shift his gaze away. Too beautiful, he was a descendent of the Qin Clan and also had outstanding talent. His status in Chu was extremely high and he had even wooed the number one beauty of Chu before. However, when compared to this maiden before his eyes, the number one beauty of Chu seemed too ordinary.

"My name is Qin Yang, can I ask for maiden's name?" Qin Yang laughed as he looked at Mo Qingcheng. As for Qin Wentian, he was completely disregarded.

Qin Wentian smiled, given Mo Qingcheng's current demeanor and looks, it was tough for ordinary people to resist being awed when they saw her. He smiled and held onto her hand as he looked at Qin Yang. Qin Yang could be considered a good seedling having reached the Heavenly Dipper Realm at such a young age.

Qin Yang narrowed his eyes when he saw Qin Wentian's actions. He then asked, "I wonder why have you two come to our Qin Clan?"

"We came here to pay our respects to Old Master Qin, Qin Chuan." Qin Wentian smiled.

"Impudent!" Qin Yang suddenly coldly snorted, glaring at Qin Wentian. "Is the esteemed name of Old Master Qin something you can call? Men, come and take him down!"

As the sound of his voice faded, a group of guards rushed forward and surrounded Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was completely stunned. The good mood he was in when he returned home was now completely spoiled. He stared at Qin Yang and asked, "Who is Qin He to you?"

"Capture him." Qin Yang waved his hand. His gaze then turned to Mo Qingcheng and smiled, "Miss, if you need anything, I can help you."

Mo Qingcheng's expression instantly turned cold. She stared at Qin Yang. Back then, those iron-blooded males of the Qin Clan have now produced a 'silkpants young master' in this generation?

A formless might radiated from Qin Wentian. In an instant, all the guards stiffened. Qin Yang's expression also changed. He stared at Qin Wentian only to see Qin Wentian walking forward as he asked again, "Who is Qin He to you?"

"You dared to act so insolently in the Qin Manor?" Qin Yang could sense the strength of Qin Wentian's aura. This man was much stronger than him.

Qin Wentian didn't waste words with him. His immortal sense directly enveloped the Qin Manor. In the depths of the Qin Manor, Qin Chuan was currently lying on a chair in the courtyard and basking in the sunlight while Qin Yao was beside him.

"You this little lass, there are so many elite people in Grand Xia wanting to pursue you but you don't want to marry any of them. How long do you want me, this old man, to wait?" Qin Chuan's eyes were filled with an affectionate and doting look as he shook his head and smiled.

"Father, isn't it good that daughter wants to be by your side to accompany you?" Qin Yao spoke.

"Hmph, it must be that little fellow Wentian's fault. His talent is just too outstanding and because of that, you find it hard to look up to any other man." Qin Chuan pretended to be enraged.

"Mhm, it's all that little fellow's fault. In the future if we meet with him again, I'm going to punch him!" Qin Yao laughed.

"Right, you must definitely give him a harsh beating." Qin Chuan smiled and nodded as a look of longing could be seen in his eyes. He then murmured to himself, "I wonder how is he doing now…"

"Father, elder sister. I'm here to be beaten up by the two of you." A voice suddenly drifted over. Qin Chuan and Qin Yao froze, their hearts pounding rapidly. Qin Chuan suddenly jumped up as he called, "Wentian?"

"Father, your son is unfilial. So many years have passed since I last came back to see you." A voice rang out. After that, two figures appeared before Qin Chuan and when they saw the two of them, Qin Chuan and Qin Yao's body trembled even fiercer. After that, Qin Chuan started laughing, his eyes turned slightly red as his trembling body moved forward, his hands resting on Qin Wentian's shoulder. Even his hands were trembling, after that, he used some strength and patted Qin Wentian's shoulder as he smiled, "Good, good. All is well that you have returned…"

"Father." Qin Wentian hugged Qin Chuan. Qin Chuan embraced his foster son and patted his back. After some time, the pair of father and son separated and Qin Wentian turned to Qin Yao. Qin Yao's eyes misted over and was completely red. Tears were already flowing from her face and she was currently wiping them away. Qin Wentian called out tenderly, "Elder sister."

"Mhm." Qin Yao nodded heavily, she involuntarily thought of many things during their childhood. Back then, she always bullied Qin Wentian, telling him to give her a piggyback. Who would have thought that hundreds of years have passed in the blink of an eye.

Qin Wentian walked over and hugged her fiercely. Qin Yao's tears could no longer be controlled, they started to flow again.

"Father-in-law." Qingcheng bowed to Qin Chuan.

"Qingcheng, good. Very good." Qin Chuan nodded. After that, some figures rushed over. It was his uncles Qin He, Qin Ye, his cousins Qin Shang, Qin Zhi, as well as their descendants. All of them came here and very soon, this courtyard was filled with people. Sounds of light whisperings could be heard. Everyone stared at the two magnificent figures in the courtyard, they already knew who these two were. The totem of faith of their Qin Clan, Qin Wentian, has returned.

"Uncle." A voice drifted over. Qin Wentian turned his head over and saw a beautiful maiden walking towards him. An expression of shyness was on her face as she blushed while staring at him.

"You are… Xin`er?" Qin Wentian smiled.

"Mhm." Qin Xin nodded her head.

"Haha, little doll, you've grown up so quickly." Qin Wentian pulled her into a hug. Back then when he left his particle world, this daughter of his elder cousin Qin Shang, was only eight years of age. Now, she was an elegant and graceful maiden with a cultivation base at the Heavenly Dipper Realm.

Qin Xin blushed, however she also felt warmth in her heart. Although back then she was only eight years old, she didn't forget her uncle's glory.

"Wentian." Qin He walked out as he called. Right now, there was a sense of authority radiating from him.

"Second uncle!" Qin Wentian smiled and greeted.

"Qin Yang, scram out here and kneel down!" Qin He suddenly roared. A few moments later, Qin Yang's body shook with trepidation as he walked out from the crowd. He was so frightened that his legs had gone soft. That man was actually Qin Wentian, the legendary character of this world, the totem of faith of their Qin Manor, the divinity of the Chu Country!

"Qin Yang was muddled." Qin Yang knelt on the ground.

"We have doted on you too much and had usually let you do what you want. To think that your audaciousness has actually reached such a level and your actions are getting more and more impudent. If the expert you encountered today wasn't your uncle but some other supreme cultivator instead, wouldn't our Qin Manor have faced a calamity? Men, drag him out and break one of his legs." Qin He coldly commanded.

"What's going on?" Qin Chuan asked. Qin He then told him everything that happened, causing Qin Chuan's expression to turn glacial.

"Break both his legs." Qin Chuan coldly commanded. What sort of character was Mo Qingcheng? She was Wentian's wife, this unfilial descendant actually dared to offend her.

"Father, second uncle, forget about it." Qin Wentian bitterly smiled. It was rare for him to come home, he didn't want to make things too ugly.

"Wentian, a 'silkpants' degenerate appeared in our Qin Manor and this is an extremely embarrassing thing. And now, this scum has even tried to bare his fangs at you? How can we forgive him? Drag him out and break both his legs." Qin He coldly waved his hand. Qin Wentian no longer stopped him, he could cure broken legs but if the descendants of the Qin Clan were like this, things definitely weren't good. Let this matter be a wake up call for the other descendants of the Qin Clan then.

Chapter 1704: Residual effects

Qin Yang was dragged away. His father was Qin Qi, a son of Qin Shang and his mother was someone from the royal Chu Clan. When they heard their son was going to be a crippled, their expressions both turned extremely ugly. But since Qin Chuan and Qin He both have spoken, they naturally knew that it would be useless even if they begged for mercy. Their gazes towards Qin Wentian couldn't help but to turn slightly colder.

Qin Wentian naturally felt it. Right now, the Qin Clan was much larger than before and had became a true aristocrat clan. However, the relationship in the clan didn't seem as tight-knitted as before. It was also inevitable for a large clan to produce a few silkpants. Let this incident be a warning to the younger generations.

But of course, other than the parents of Qin Yang, the eyes if many others were still filled with warmth when they looked at Qin Wentian. This was especially so for those of the older generations. Qin Wentian has left for 200 years and the younger ones have all only heard stories about him and never seen him personally. They didn't understand how Qin Wentian had a transcendent status here but for those of the older generations, they knew everything clearly and understood what a legend he was.

"Everyone, you all have leave to go. Why are all of you crowding around here?" Qin Chuan waved his hands in dismissal. These people were disrupting their gathering with Wentian.

Many people still stared at Qin Wentian, the wild heat in their gazes was evident and were filled with reluctance to be dismissed so early. Some of the younger ones wanted to go closer but they didn't dare to. Eventually, they could only leave with their elders leaving only those more important characters here. The atmosphere of the courtyard turned quiet again but the entire Qin Manor was in an uproar.

The legendary character of their Qin Manor, Qin Wentian, has returned. The people of the Qin Clan had all memorized the legends about him and today, they finally saw the real person. However, that bastard Qin Yang actually offended this legendary character of their Qin Clan. No wonder the clan lord and Old Master Qin was so angry.

"Father, it's normal to meet with the clan members." Qin Wentian stated.

"Our family has too many people now, you won't like them as they are too lively. In any case, Qingcheng is here as." Qin Chuan waved his hands and continued, "Qingcheng, it's my fault. My disciple in teaching the younger generations has been lacking and that led to Qin Yang daring to offend you."

"Father, it's fine." Mo Qingcheng shook her head, that incident earlier couldn't be considered a major thing, it was just a minor issue. But she also understood that Qin Wentian and Qin Chuan wanted to stop this 'silkpants behavior' in the younger generations hence she didn't say anything when Qin Yang was punished. It was better to let that young man suffer a little and as for his broken legs, they naturally could be cured given the Qin Clan's resources.

"Father, don't be so polite with Qingcheng." Qin Wentian held onto Mo Qingcheng's hand as he laughed.

"Right, right. You guys have been married for so many years, why am I acting so polite for?" Qin Chuan also laughed. He then continued, "Oh ya, did Qingcheng return to the Mo Residence yet? Your grandpa and parents would often come and find me for a chat. They miss you alot."

Back then when Qin Wentian warred against the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, he sent all his family and friends back to the particle world, only sending some people here to fetch them back to the immortal realms after that. At that time, Qin Chuan and those from the Mo Clan didn't choose to go to the immortal realms. After all, this place was still their roots.

"We have not, we came by to pay our respects to father-in-law first." Mo Qingcheng smiled.

"This old man is still very healthy, hahaha. Wentian, you should hurry up and bring Qingcheng to the Mo Residence and see her parents." Qin Chuan waved his hands, Qin Wentian knew that Qin Chuan was saying this for him and Qingcheng and he felt warmth in his heart. "Father, how can I go off so fast after I've returned. We are already here, there's no hurry."

"What are you saying, you know that you should come and see me, but could it be Qingcheng doesn't want to see her parents?" Qin Chuan glared at Qin Wentian. He waved his hands and shooed, "Go, go, go."

"Okay, okay, we will leave now and be back soon." Qin Wentian bitterly smiled and shook his head. "Father. My return this time is to prepare to fetch you to the immortal realms. Me and Qing`er are about to be married."

"You and Qing`er?" Qin Chuan started. After that, a happy smile appeared on his face as he nodded heavily. "Right, foster father will definitely be there."

"Mhm. Father, second uncle, I'll leave first, we will be back very soon." Qin Wentian laughed.

After he spoke, a spatial gate appeared. Qin Wentian led Mo Qingcheng into it as both of them vanished. He didn't reject Qin Chuan's good intentions. After all, to him, the distance from the Qin Manor to the Mo Residence was something that could be traversed with a single spatial gate. There was really no need to be overly polite.

When Qin Chuan and Qin Yao saw Qin Wentian directly entering the spatial gate that appeared all of a sudden, they were both speechless for a long time.

"This brat, how strong is he now exactly?" Qin Chuan's voice trembled as he asked Qin Yao.

Qin Yao's eyes were still red, she was clearly smiling but her tears were still flowing. She choked on some of her words, "Father, you are asking me but how do I know the answer? Most probably, it's already at a level unfathomable to us."

Although the Mo Clan wasn't as majestic and glorious as the Qin Clan, they were considered extremely developed too. With Qin Wentian and Mo Qingcheng's relations, as well as the fact that the Mo Clan had chosen to stay behind in this particle world back then, Qin Wentian and Mo Qingcheng had left plenty of treasures for them. Qin Wentian even helped Mo Feng and Mo Yu changed their body's constitution in order to allow them to cultivate better. Currently, that little fellow Mo Feng was already the Mo Clan's clan leader.

Qin Wentian and Mo Qingcheng arrived outside the Mo Residence. He held onto Mo Qingcheng's hand as they walked towards the entrance.

Only to see that right now, Mo Feng of the Mo Residence was gathering the experts of the Mo Clan, as though he was preparing to head out to do something. But the moment this group stepped out of the Mo Residence, they encountered Qin Wentian and Mo Qingcheng who just arrived.

Mo Feng was instantly stunned. The other members of the Mo Clan stared at Mo Qingcheng in a dumbfounded manner, silently musing what a beautiful maiden she was.

A moment later, an expression of wild joy appeared on Mo Feng's face. He kept the divine weapon in his hand and instantly rushed towards Qin Wentian and Mo Qingcheng. Upon seeing that they were both smiling at him, Mo Feng's eyes turned red as he called out, "Brother-in-law, elder sis Qingcheng!"

"Good fellow, you are already so powerful." Qin Wentian laughed. Right now, Mo Feng's cultivation base was already at the Celestial Phenomenon Realm.

Mo Feng had a shaky smile that lacked confidence on his face as he shook his head. He knew that this little cultivation of his was truly insignificant before his brother-in-law.

"Brother-in-law, if you are willing to teach me cultivation, I will definitely not only be at this level." Mo Feng laughed. Mo Qingcheng rolled her eyes at him, "You are intelligent enough to know that, but how would your brother-in-law have so much time to teach you?"

"Ah!" A shrill scream rang out. A moment later, a beautiful maiden rushed towards Qin Wentian and Mo Qingcheng, her face was bright red with joy and she was none other than Mo Yu.

"Lass Mo Yu, what are you screaming for?" Qin Wentian laughed as he looked at Mo Yu whose face was burning hot.

"Mo Feng, I'm not dreaming, right?" Mo Yu rubbed her eyes and asked.

"Haha." Qin Wentian laughed and tousled her hair. These two little fellows were no longer in their teens. Their cultivation bases were extraordinary as well yet they were still acting like children before him.

Unknowingly, all the younger members of the Mo Clan had arrived. The usually solemn-looking clan leader Mo Feng as well as the cold-face goddess Mo Yu, were actually acting like children before these two guests? Who were these two exactly?

Brother-in-law, elder sister?

They were all contemplating this matter. After that, their hearts pounded violently as they thought of a legendary character of their Mo Clan that once had the title of the number one beauty in Chu. After that, she joined the Pill Emperor Hall and eventually married Qin Wentian. Could this couple be them? Have they finally returned?

When they thought of this, the faces of the later generations of the Mo Clan all turned bright red. Their eyes were filled with emotions as they looked at Qin Wentian and Mo Qingcheng.

"Brother-in-law, you have really returned!" Mo Yu's beautiful face was still flushed red from her excitement.

"Mhm, we are finally back." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Mo Feng, how are you all doing recently?" Mo Qingcheng asked.

Mo Feng's smile turned sluggish before he spoke, "Elder sis, let's talk about this later. Let's go home first."

"Little brats, open up a path for us." Mo Feng grinned as he spoke. The crowd opened up a path and an extremely young and beautiful girl walked over as she called out, "Aunt, Uncle."

Qin Wentian and Mo Qingcheng looked at Mo Feng only to hear him explaining, "This is my daughter, Shiyao."

"Wow, I've already became an aunt." Mo Qingcheng stared at Qin Wentian as she laughed. Her gaze was filled with doting love as she stared at Shiyao. She then spoke, "Shiyao, what present do you want?"

"Aunt, there's no need for any present." Mo Shiyao shook her head.

"Silly lass." Mo Qingcheng smiled. A holy light radiated from Qin Wentian and entered Shiyao's body. The vibrant energy of his life laws made Mo Shiyao feel extremely comfortable. Her eyes flashed with a look of puzzlement, she shyly glanced at Qin Wentian before she lowered her head.

Inside the Mo Residence, as the news about their return spread, the people inside the residence all came out to receive them. Mo Qingcheng's grandfather and her parents were all extremely happy.

Qin Wentian stood there, watching Mo Qingcheng and her parents in an embrace as a warm smile appeared on his face.

"Wentian." Old man Mo glanced at him.

"Grandfather-in-law, have you been well?" Qin Wentian smiled. Those conflicts they had in the past had long dissipated into the wind.

"Mhm, I'm fine. It's just that it has been many years since I last saw both of you and would miss you both frequently. We would also frequently visit your foster father." Old Man Mo laughed.

"Mhm, my foster father has told me about this. If grandfather-in-law finds it boring here, you can move to the immortal realms in the future. Life there would surely be much more fascinating than life here in the particle world."

"Haha, I'm just a bag of old bones, I'm not sure if I can stand all the excitement." Old Man Mo laughed. He then continued, "Men, hurry and organize a banquet. Mo Feng, send some people to the Qin Manor and invite Old Master Qin and the others. Let's enjoy a meal at our Mo Residence."

"Right." Mo Feng nodded.

"Mo Feng, hold on." Qin Wentian called out. He walked to Mo Shiyao's side and asked, "Why is Shiyao injured? What's going on?"

Earlier, that beam of life energy he sent into her body was precisely to cure her of her injuries. Given his cultivation realm, how could he fail to tell that Mo Shiyao was injured?

"Brother-in-law…" Mo Feng felt that it was a little hard to speak.

"Mo Yu, tell us." Qin Wentian turned to Mo Yu. "In this particle world, there are actually people who dare to touch the people of my Mo Residence?"

When the experts of the Mo Clan heard Qin Wentian's words, they all felt their hearts trembling. How tyrannical. As expected of a legendary character.

"Brother-in-law, in that war at our particle world back then, you sealed many immortals and told them to stay here to guide the people of our world in cultivation. As long as people of our world are willing to take them as our teachers, they cannot reject and had to impart teachings. This resulted in some extremely powerful characters being born in our Chu Country. Right now, there's a disciple of an immortal sect. But he is a vile beast, he actually…" Mo Yu's expression changed due to her anger.

"He played with Shiyao's feelings." Mo Yu coldly spoke.

"Enough. Wentian isn't an outsider, just tell him clearly. That bastard intentionally got close to Shiyao and after a period of interaction, Shyao agreed to be together with him. That bastard wanted to take things a step further but Shiyao didn't agree." Old Man Mo icily spoke.

"Hence, that bastard found several other women and did the deed with them, he even intentionally caused Shiyao to watch, humiliating her and insulting her. Shiyao was naturally unhappy, she spoke out and wanted to break off the relationship but was injured by that bastard." Mo Yu's expression was incredibly ugly to behold.

"Brother-in-law, I want to kill that bastard." Mo Feng coldly spoke. Qin Wentian finally understood why Mo Feng was preparing to bring a group of people out earlier.

"Since he became the disciple of an immortal that got sealed, doesn't he know what is my relationship with Qingcheng? He dared to do this?" Qin Wentian's tone also turned frosty. Mo Yu then replied, "It's precisely…"

"Mo Yu." Mo Feng interrupted her words. Mo Yu glared at him, "Don't stop me. Brother-in-law, it's very possible that that immortal felt resentment towards you and commanded his disciple to do this. He wanted revenge and if it wasn't for the fact that his cultivation base was sealed, he might already have personally acted."

Chapter 1705: A Single Sentence Becoming Heavenly Law

Qin Wentian's expression completely froze. Back then in the war between the Eastern Sage Immortal Sect and the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor had lost. He sent his men to attack this particle world, wanting to use this method to draw him over. At that time, he used his avatar Di Tian and killed the immortal king under Eastern Sage there and then. After that, for the neutral immortals, he sealed immortal kings and a group of immortal-foundation experts, telling them to stay in Chu to guide the people of Chu in cultivation.

Who would have thought that there would be such ill-effects from that action back then? There are immortals who depended on the disciples they recruited to deal with his family members. Seems like after being sealed for several hundred years, they could no longer endure it and their resentment was extremely great.

Mo Qingcheng walked towards Shiyao and hugged her. "Shiyao, did he harm you badly?"

"No, aunt. I was only insulted and injured slightly." Mo Shiyao's eyes turned red as she shook her head.

"Unforgivable." Qin Wentian coldly spoke.

"Brother-in-law, I've lost face for you." Mo Feng lowered his head.

Qin Wentian waved his hand to reassured Mo Feng. After that, his immortal sense gushed forth, instantly surrounding the Chu Country. He found all the immortals he sealed, their figures appearing in his perception and he could see everything they were doing. Right now, in a palace, many people were gathered there. There was one of the immortal kings that was sealed and many other immortals there. Other than them, there were also a bunch of juniors at the Celestial Phenomenon and Heavenly Dipper Realm. In this particle world, this could already be considered an extremely powerful force.

"Master, the Mo Clan should be preparing to deal with us. We have waited for so long and we will definitely make them unable to leave should they dare to come here. We will avenge the humiliation Master has suffered." A peak-stage Celestial Phenomenon Ascendant spoke. His master was none other than that sealed immortal king. Also, with an immortal king guiding him, it was no wonder that his cultivation was so high.

"Mhm." That immortal king closed his eyes, yet there was a cold and sharp expression on his face.

"I'm still a little worried. It's said that that fellow controlled the strongest major power here in the particle world. Although the Medicine Sovereign Valley has chosen to become a reclusive sect, but it once belonged to him. Would he leave something in reserve there that could be used to deal with all of us?" An immortal-foundation expert spoke.

"What are you afraid of? Those powerful people have already left. In addition, Qin Wentian offended many major characters in the immortal realms and since he hasn't returned here for so many years, don't you guys understand what's going on?" Someone spoke.

"You mean that he has died?"

"It's a very normal thing for experts in the immortal realms to die, this is especially true for people who shine too brightly. He didn't even return home to this particle world for a visit to his family, there's an 80% chance that he has already died. We were all controlling the urge not to act against the Mo Clan, wanting to torture them slowly, starting from the juniors of the Mo Clan. But this time around, since cordiality has already been shredded, we might as well act more directly." An immortal coldly spoke. They naturally were all filled with resentment as they have been sealed for hundreds of years.

"That's right. Master, can you please give Mo Shiyao to me? This woman actually dared to reject my request. I'm going to play her to her death." Another ascendant that looked extremely handsome spoke. But now, his face had a sinister expression on it.

"Fine. Since even Mo Shiyao's master has no objections, how could master not agree to your request?" That immortal king opened his eyes and smiled at another immortal-foundation expert. This immortal-foundation expert was none other than Mo Shiyao's master. Mo Shiyao had decided to follow him for cultivation and not only her, many people in Chu had also done the same, including many of those from the Mo Residence.

"Many thanks Master for granting me my wish. Sadly, Qin Wentian won't be able to see this scene. If not, even if he dies, he would definitely regret the actions he took in the past." Ling Teng laughed. When he thought of Mo Shiyao's beauty, he felt lust in his heart. He gave her face but she actually refused him.

That immortal king and immortal-foundation expert had cold looks on their faces. One of them spoke, "Not only must we make him regret this, after the Mo Clan is destroyed, we will move against the Qin Manor. I want Qin Wentian to live a life of regrets even if he didn't die."

"Is that so?"

A voice suddenly rang out. As the sound of the voice faded, the wind whistled and the experts here all froze. Ling Teng coldly shouted, "Who's there?"

A terrifying swishing sound rang out as a thunderous rumble shook the area. The palace they were in suddenly crumbled apart, causing fear and shock to appear of the experts inside. An extremely fearsome spatial energy lacerated everything. After that, the space there was in chaos, continuously changing. Behind them, a terrifying spatial vortex manifested. After that, it seemed that something had connected. A spatial tunnel appeared, connecting the spatial vortex that appeared here to another space. At the other end of the tunnel, they saw a group of figures standing there.

That place, was the Mo Residence.

The man in the lead had his hands behind his back. His cold eyes pierced through space, landing on them and after they saw clearly who this man was, all the immortals here turned pale, so frightened that they began trembling. They had no way to control the fear and panic rising in their hearts.

Qin Wentian has returned!

Also, he was much stronger than before. He could directly connect two different spaces, opening up a spatial gate, ignoring distance completely. What cultivation realm was this?

That immortal king had a shocked look on his face. His heart turned numb, such an act, not even immortal emperors could do this. He was instantly filled with endless regrets. Qin Wentian had already reached such a level. Also, now that he returned, it should be to release them from their seals. But now…

When he thought of this, all the immortals here naturally also thought of it. Their faces all turned as pale as paper.

Right now, the people of the Mo Residence felt incomparably shocked. With a wave of a hand, Qin Wentian instantly opened up a spatial tunnel, ignoring distance and connecting them to the space here, allowing them to see what was happening. Ling Teng was none other than the man who had humiliated and insulted Mo Shiyao.

"Shiyao, is that him?" A thread of spatial energy shot out, directly binding Ling Teng. In an instant, Ling Teng was bound by a million invisible spatial threads, he couldn't move at all.

"Mhm." Mo Shiyao's eyes turned red as she nodded.

"Shiyao, this is merely an insect, he isn't worthy of you. You don't have to feel sad because of his death. As long as you are willing to, you can find a better one anytime. In the future, you will become an immortal." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Right now, he had the confidence to utter such words. Immortals were lofty figures to particle worlds like this. But to him who was now an empyrean, as long as he was willing to, it wouldn't be too difficult for him to nurture an immortal.

His casual words caused the hearts of everyone here to tremble. The people of Mo Residence had a look of boundless reverence as they looked at him. Was this the legendary son-in-law of their Mo Clan? An immortal was nothing to him. As long as Shiyao wants to, he will be able to raise her into an immortal.

"Uncle." Mo Shiyao's tears flowed as she leaned against Mo Qingcheng. Mo Qingcheng patted her on the shoulder, "Silly girl…"

"Shiyao, I was wrong. Let me live, I truly love you!" Ling Teng begged in agony. Right now, he felt boundless regret. Back then, he had already managed to pursue Mo Shiyao and they were in a relationship. Also, given that Mo Shiyao had such a powerful uncle, why had he decided to help his master whose cultivation base was sealed, to act against the Mo Clan? Had he gone mad? If he was truly together with Mo Shiyao, what accomplishments would he have in the future?

"You don't even know shame." Qin Wentian casually waved his hands. In the next instant, Ling Teng's body directly vanished. Everyone only saw beams of light as Ling Teng vanished into thin air.

"I initially planned to release all of you from the seals during my return this time. Yet you guys simply want to court death." Qin Wentian icily spoke. When the immortals heard his words, a chill appeared in their hearts. If Qin Wentian returned a few days later, unimaginable consequences might have happened. If that was the case, Qin Wentian would definitely be filled with regrets.

The expressions of the immortals all changed, their countenances as pale as paper. After that, they only saw Qin Wentian lifting his hand as a giant palm imprint manifested, instantly smashing down towards them.

Inclining their heads and staring at the giant palm, all the immortals were trembling, their faces painted with terror.

"BOOOM!"

After a thunderous explosion, the area the palm struck was transformed into flat grounds. The spatial tunnel closed and everything returned to normal. Qin Wentian continued standing there but the gazes of those of the Mo Clan used to look at him, had completely changed.

Was this what a legend was like? A true living legend!

"Back then, these people came to our particle world to make trouble. I sealed their cultivation bases and made them guide people of Chu on cultivation yet I have incurred their resentment. Seems like I better warn the others." Qin Wentian spoke. After that, a strand of terrifying immortal sense gushed forth, instantly enveloping the Chu Country, the Grand Xia Empire, and eventually, this entire particle world.

This immortal sense was like heavenly might, and in the next instant, countless people felt terror in their hearts. They inclined their heads and looked into the horizons. After that, the clouds in the sky changed as a supreme projection appeared there. In the next moment, everyone in the world could see a handsome young man robed in white, resembling a divinity, standing proudly in the air.

In Grand Xia, countless people stared up. When they saw Qin Wentian, many of them bowed and greeted, "Emperor!"

In the region controlled by the Royal Sacred sect, the hearts of everyone pounded madly. That man in the air was Qin Wentian.

For many of those who had seen Qin Wentian before, as well as others who were familiar with him, their hearts felt great shock. He had returned and he was now akin to a heavenly god, directly standing in the air, allowing everyone in this world to look at him.

"I, am Qin Wentian." A voice rang out from the white-robed figure in the air. He then continued, "Back then, immortals came to our particle world to make trouble and I sealed all of their cultivations. Initially, I wanted to release their seals during my return this time but I soon discovered a group of them were scheming against me, wanting to deal with my family members. Their crimes are unforgivable and all of them have been annihilated. I've decided now that for those immortals who have been sealed by me, all of you will remain in this world and continue to guide the people here in cultivation. I will only release you all from your seals during the next time I come here. You guys don't need to hope for Eastern Sage to save you, he is already been killed by me. Other than this, if someone of this world breaks through to the immortal-foundation realm and dare to create trouble here, I'll hunt you down for sure."

This voice was like booming thunder, spreading through the world. Countless people felt their hearts shaking, there were even some prostrating themselves in worship.

Was this the legend of their particle world? The number one expert Qin Wentian. He has returned and was even stronger than before. Back then, the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor who came here to recruit a disciple, radiating boundless majesticness when his immortal palace descended and was greeted with respect by the entire world, was actually already killed by Qin Wentian?

In the Qin Manor, Qin Yang whose legs were broken initially had a great resentment towards Qin Wentian. But now when he saw the figure in the air, he was completely dumbstruck and only felt incredibly ashamed of himself in his heart. This uncle of his, how glorious was that? A single sentence from him became heavenly law, no one in this world would dare to go against him. But he actually dared to do something so disgraceful. Back then, Qin Wentian had even pleaded for mercy for him. If he wasn't a descendent of the Qin Clan, given Qin Wentian's status and power, it wouldn't be enough even if he died a hundred times over.

Qin Yang's parents initially also hated Qin Wentian. But now, both of them were speechless.

"Father, mother. Would uncle loathe me in the future? Would he refuse to bring me with him to the immortal realms for cultivation?" Qin Yang only felt endless regrets. What accomplishments would he be able to achieve if he followed his uncle as he cultivated?

Chapter 1706: Grand Wedding (1)

After Qin Wentian said what he needed to say, the projection in the air vanished. Those from the Mo Clan stared at Qin Wentian, their hearts were filled with incomparable shock and complex emotions that they didn't know how to express. The son-in-law of their Mo Clan was actually a character like a heavenly god.

After that, Qin Wentian directly returned to the Qin Manor, bringing Qin Chuan and the others back to the Mo Clan to enjoy a banquet. The two families shared a joyous and harmonious relationship. And after the banquet, Qin Wentian went out again, fetching all his old friends that were still in this particle world here, inviting them to participate in his wedding. He hoped that on his wedding date with Qing`er, all his close friends and families would be there.

In the particle world, this group of people then proceeded forth, heading towards the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. When they finally arrived at the imperial palace of Heaven Empyrean City, those of the junior generations were looking around dazzled, their faces filled with awe.

Qin Wentian directly brought them to the imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire. After arriving, Qin Chuan asked, "Wentian, where is this place?"

"The imperial palace of the Evergreen Immortal Empire. It's Qing`er's home." Qin Wentian smiled.

"I see." Qin Chuan surveyed the majesticness of the surroundings as he continued, "Wentian, foster father cannot give you anything. All you have was built up by you and you alone.

"Father, what are you saying." Qin Wentian speechlessly smiled. He knew what Qin Chuan was thinking. Most probably he felt awkward for Qin Wentian that although Qing'er was marrying him, the location had to be held at Qing'er's place instead of the groom's place. Actually, he was thinking too much.

"Brother-in-law, Princess Qing`er is the princess here? In that case, isn't your father-in-law the emperor? Doesn't that mean that his cultivation base is extremely powerful?" Mo Feng asked. Qin Wentian rolled his eyes, "Naturally, naturally."

At this moment, a figure flew over and bowed when he saw Qin Wentian. "Palace lord."

"What's the matter?" Qin Wentian glanced at him.

"Someone claims to be a friend of palace lord and wants to pay his respects." That person replied.

"Alright, I'll go take a look." Qin Wentian nodded. "Father, I'll get some men to arrange residences for you all to rest."

"Mhm, go on ahead and do what you need to do." Qin Chuan and the others nodded.

Qin Wentian left some orders for his Lifire Palace's subordinates and left soon after that. There were experts from the Lifire Palace who then brought Qin Chuan and the rest to a new palace they recently constructed.

"Senior, can I ask you something?" Mo Feng walked towards one of the Lifire Palace's experts and asked in a somewhat sneaky manner.

"Yes?" The Lifire Palace's expert smiled and nodded.

"What level is a palace lord at? How powerful is that?" Mo Feng curiously asked. The people in the surroundings rolled their eyes. Mo Feng's father instantly berated, "Mo Feng, stop your nonsensical questions."

However, even so, many people stared intently at that expert, wanting to hear his words. Many of them were also curious. Qin Wentian was the number one expert in their particle world but they didn't know how he measured up in the immortal realms. But since Qin Wentian said that he had even killed the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor, he should be extremely strong.

The Lifire Palace's expert had a face filled with black lines. He speechlessly stared at Mo Feng, "Didn't palace lord tell you?"

"No...I feel too embarrassed to ask brother-in-law." Mo Feng shook his head.

"I don't dare to speak behind Palace Lord's back. In any case, the wedding will be held three days later. At that time, you will naturally understand what level palace lord is at." That expert smiled. Mo Feng felt a little disappointed but he still nodded his head, "Alright."

The him now was truly extremely curious.

"Sister, why don't you tell me?" Mo Feng turned his eyes go Mo Qingcheng again yet only to see Mo Qingcheng glaring at him. Mo Feng could only give a weak smile in response.

Over there at Qin Wentian's side, he came to the reception area in the imperial palace and when he saw the two figures here waiting for him, a radiant smile immediately appeared on his face. He walked forward and pulled the man into his embrace. He patted him on the back and laughed, "Ouyang, long time no see."

"Indeed, it has been a long time." Ouyang Kuangsheng felt emotional now that he saw Qin Wentian again. He stared at the transcendent figure before him, "How strange life is. I, Ouyang Kuangsheng, have always been arrogant but I didn't expect that you would have become the overlord of the immortal realms a few hundred years since our last meeting. Do you know that on our journey here, when I told the others that the Heaven Empyrean is my brother, they laughed and looked at me like I'm an idiot."

"Wait for the day of my wedding. When those people see you again, they would naturally become the idiots." Qin Wentian laughed.

"Haha, that's right. I'm really filled with anticipation about what the expressions of those fellows would be like." Ouyang Kuangsheng nodded. "My brother now has become the Heavenly Empyrean, I'm going take advantage of that and gain some glory through you."

"What are you talking about, you are my brother, the glory I achieved is naturally yours as well." Qin Wentian rolled his eyes. After that, he glanced towards Jiang Ting at the side and spoke, "Ouyang, after becoming an immortal Jiang Ting has grown more and more beautiful. You are such a lucky fellow."

"You still dare to say this to me?" Ouyang Kuangsheng pointed his finger at Qin Wentian. "Back then in the past in our particle world, you already married Qingcheng. In the lower world, it's not too much of an exaggeration to say that Mo Qingcheng is the number one beauty there. But now, you are here marrying the princess of the Evergreen Immortal Empire into your harem. This is truly making plenty of people envious."

"In that case, you are filled with envy then?" Jiang Ting who was at the side, frowned

"No. How would I dare to, I will only marry one wife." Ouyang Kuangsheng trembled a little before he attempted a smile when he saw the look in Jiang Ting's eyes. Staring at the good relationship between these two companions he had known since his youth, Qin Wentian also laughed happily.

"Let's go and chat in the palace. There are still three more days, the news of my wedding should have been circulated around the world. I wonder if those fellows would be able to rush here in time." Qin Wentian spoke.

"If they can, they would definitely come." Ouyang Kuangsheng nodded.

"Let's hope so." Qin Wentian nodded. The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms were far vaster compared to their particle world. In his particle world, a sweep of his immortal sense could already cover the whole world and gather all the friends he needed to gather. But in this vast immortal realms, he was not able to do so. Hence, he could only depend on his friends themselves to come.

Just like what Ouyang Kuangsheng has said, right now, many of Qin Wentian's old friends were on the way here and in fact, there were already some that have arrived in Heaven Empyrean City.

Naturally, not only for them, right now, everyone in the immortal realms were rushing towards Heavenly Empyrean City. For a period of time, the Heaven Empyrean was simply packed to the brim, all the inns and restaurants were completely full and couldn't accept any more customers. Many people didn't have lodgings for the night but since Heaven Empyrean City had already become a city that operates throughout the day and night, countless people sat around and were discussing about the grand wedding of Qin Wentian and Qing`er.

The disciples of the various peak powers have already arrived long ago. For those second-tier powers, they also arrived here respectively. Immortal kings and immortal emperors could be seen everywhere, let alone immortal-foundation experts. All of them were waiting for the grand event, there never has been a wedding that caused such a huge commotion before. The Heaven Empyrean unified the world and wanted to wed Evergreen Qing`er. How can this not be a major event that shook the world?

Finally, the day of the wedding arrived.

Today, the attention of the world was focused at the royal capital of the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Bright colors decorated everywhere, a carpet of brilliant red was laid out from the emperor palace, extending out for a few hundred miles. There were guards on both sides of the carpets and these were the armies formed from the various peak powers. Resplendent flashes of light could be seen in the air, and even in the air, guards could be seen standing in straight rows to maintain order. They were responsible also to split those who came to attend the wedding into smaller groups. Only those from the peak powers and Qin Wentian's family and friends could enter here.

The experts in the air were like celestial troops, exuding an incomparable imposingness. It was unknown how many people are currently gathered in Heavenly Empyrean City, there was no end to them at all. Many people had looks of excitement on their faces. Today, was the grand wedding date for the Heaven Empyrean.

The Heaven Empyrean Qin Wentian was the legend of the immortal realms. Once, the various major powers were jealous of his talents and over half of them joined forces to hunt him down in the Evergreen Immortal Empire. However, he actually didn't die and after his return almost two hundred years later, he only used a short period of time to unify the world, controlling the Myriad Devil Islands, becoming the Myriad Devil Sovereign, killing many ancient emperors and obtained his revenge against those powers who acted to hunt him down back then. All of these stories naturally entered the annals of history of the immortal realms. After that, he joined forces with the Samsara Empyrean Hua Taixu to finish off the four empyreans of the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, he buried the three empyreans of the Jiang Clan and one empyrean from the Ying Clan. His actions caused the tripartite balance of power to collapse as the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and Jiang Clan chose to disband. From then on, he unified the world and became the overlord of Azure Mystic.

The Heaven Empyrean was a true living legend which they were so fortunate to see because they were living in this era. Also, the Heaven Empyrean instantly proposed a wedding to marry the woman he loved after he unified the world. Emotions were running high, these people naturally would also want to be a part of it. Countless years later, this segment of history would become a dazzling legend spread by countless people who were lucky enough to be the spectators. Even they themselves felt glory.

The eyes of the crowd all glanced towards the imperial palace. Over there, a majestic and gigantic ceremonial stage was built, with a stairway leading up to it. Right now on the stairway, many peak-stage immortal emperors stood there. On the majestic stage, only the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, Darknorth Immortal Emperor and those who had submitted to Qin Wentian, as well as Qin Wentian and Qing`er's families and friends had the qualifications to be on it.

At this moment, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and the others all had smiles on their faces, all feeling extremely happy. Qin Chuan was feeling somewhat unused to such a grand scene. Although he was the lord of the Qin Manor, he had never been a part of such a grand occasion before. Beside him was Qing`er's father, the emperor of this immortal empire. He was naturally clear of what an immortal emperor is. He had witnessed how powerful the Eastern Sage Immortal Emperor was once before.

"Old Master Qin." At this moment, a beautiful maiden walked over. Qin Chuan glanced towards this maiden only to see a perfect countenance exuding grace and nobility looking at him. Clearly, this maiden had an extraordinary status.

"Old Master Qin, please proceed up to the stage and seat together with the Evergreen Immortal Emperor. The newly weds will pay their respects to the two of you." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch smiled.

"Right." Qin Chuan nodded.

"Fairy, are you really someone of the mortal world?" Mo Feng who was standing at the side was staring in a dumbstruck manner at the Southern Phoenix Matriarch. Such a transcendent aura and beauty made him feel as though she was unreal. However, he had no intention of profaning her, he was just startled with admiration.

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch glanced at Mo Feng and smiled, "What do you think?"

"I feel like I'm in a dream." Mo Feng smiled.

"This dream has just merely begun." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch laughed before she left. Mo Yu giggled as she looked at Mo Feng, "Are you not afraid that I'll tell sister-in-law about this when I get back?"

"Hmph!" Mo Shiyao, who was also at the side, snorted lightly. But she also felt like she was in a dream.

"Mo Yu, what sort of character is brother-in-law exactly? There are so many transcendent beauties coming here to show their support for him." Mo Feng glanced at the surroundings. There were simply too many beautiful maidens. The maidens of the Jadestage Immortal Palace were all extremely beautiful, their palace mistress was naturally so as well. In addition, Nanfeng Yunxi and the other maidens of the Southern Phoenix Clan were also extremely pretty.

These were merely the females. There were many male guests who also had extraordinary auras, Mo Feng simply didn't dare to believe it. Judging by the auras he felt, many of these people should be true immortal kings and immortal emperors!

"How would I know?" Mo Yu mumbled, also feeling curious in her heart.

Chapter 1707: Grand Wedding (2)

This atmosphere here was extremely lively. Not only Qin Chuan and the others were seated down, Mo Qingcheng and Qin Wentian's foster father Ye Qingyun and Ye Lingshuang were both present as well.

Other than this, Qing`er's old master Fairy Qingmei had rushed here as well, including Qin Wentian's teacher Mustang, as well as some old friends from the Emperor Star Academy in his particle world. Mo Qingcheng's maternal grandfather, Qin Wentian's sexy senior apprentice sister Luo Huan, good friends Ouyang Kuangsheng, Jiang Ting, Fatty Fan Le, Xuan Xin, Chu Mang, Bailu Yi and the others had all managed to make it. These old friends had never gathered together like this before. They could do so now because before Qin Wentian left the particle world, he specially made a trip to bring all his old friends along with him together. At the same time because of the commotion caused from this news, his other friends that were tempering themselves in the immortal realms also did their best to rush here.

"Wentian said that he needed you guys to go up there later to cheer for him." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch glanced over as she smiled. Many people spectating from afar all sighed in admiration. To think that Qin Wentian would have so many family and friends with such low cultivations. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch was the one personally welcoming them. In the entire immortal realms, most probably there was no group with prestige high enough to make the Southern Phoenix Matriarch do this. Qin Wentian was the only one.

There weren't even many immortal-foundation experts among them. If most of these people knew the identity of the person in-charge of welcoming them, it was unknown what they would think.

"How beautiful, my boss is too awesome." Fan Le's eyes grew extremely round, staring at the Southern Phoenix Matriarch and the beauties in the surroundings. There were simply too many beauties and all of them were exceptional in terms of looks. Behind the Southern Phoenix Matriarch was Nanfeng Yunxi, Nanfeng Shengge and Nanfeng Guhong. There was no need to say anything more about their beauty.

"Ah, I'm wrong!" Fatty suddenly screamed in pain. Xuan Xin had her hands on his waist and was pinching it forcefully, causing Fan Le's tears to almost flow out.

"Are you still going to look at them or not?" Xuan Xin inclined her head and stared at Fan Le.

"Nope, nope, nope, nope. My wife is the most beautiful." Fatty directly submitted, causing everyone by the side who heard this to laugh. Naturally, Xuan Xin was also extremely beautiful or Fan Le wouldn't have acted so fast and married her.

"Fatty, isn't your senior apprentice sister beautiful?" Luo Huan walked over and giggled. Fatty took a glance at Luo Huan whose aura was still as outstanding and sexy as before. Although he felt some stirring in his heart, he couldn't help but to tremble when he remembered how had this senior apprentice sister tortured him back then. He hurriedly replied, "Senior sister is as beautiful as my wife."

"Yo, this fatty really knows how to speak." Luo Huan giggled.

"Ouyang, have you ever imagined that there would be a day where the Southern Phoenix Matriarch personally received us?" Fatty mumbled, changing the topic.

"Nope, I don't dare to." Ouyang Kuangsheng laughed as he shook his head. He was speaking the truth. In the past, he truly didn't dare to imagine such a thing. What status did the Southern Phoenix Matriarch have? Usually, she was a lofty figure far above their reach, the mistress of the Southern Phoenix Clan. Let alone personally receiving them, given their current cultivation bases, they wouldn't even be able to meet with her if it wasn't for today.

In the past when they went to the Southern Phoenix Clan, they couldn't even enter it, let alone meeting the Southern Phoenix Matriarch.

"This is what's called, 'the affairs of the world are strange and wondrous.' On my way here, I made many friends and when I said that Wentian was my boss, none of them believed me. Later when I go up the stage, I want to see how their eyes would fall out." Fan Le gave a shameless laugh. Luo Huan smiled and looked at him, "Damn fatty, you probably intentionally made these friends so you can boast later, right?"

Fan Le smiled, "Senior sister is so intelligent. My plans were all seen through by you."

"Just you and your little plans? That's only natural." Luo Huan spoke with disdain.

The eyes of people of the Qin Manor and Mo Residence flickered brightly when they heard Fan Le's words. Mo Feng and Mo Yu involuntarily made their way over to Fan Le as they asked, "Brother, who is the Southern Phoenix Matriarch that you are talking about?"

"You don't know?" Fan Le stared at Mo Feng and laughed, "She is the most beautiful maiden in the Southern Phoenix Clan, a goddess-level character, one of the most dazzling beauties in the immortal realms."

"Eh…" Mo Feng was dumbfounded. Both the Qin Manor and Mo Residence came from a particle world, they didn't know many things. They weren't like people from the immortal realms who were already familiar with the legend of Qin Wentian. When they came here, no one brought any of these legendary stories up to them. Qin Wentian naturally also wouldn't boast of his own achievements before them.

"Really?" Mo Feng weakly asked.

"Of course. Other than the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, there are many other powerful characters here as well. Look over there, that group of beautiful celestial maidens. You see them?" Fan Le started show off.

"Mhm, we see them." Mo Feng and Mo Yu nodded.

"Those are the celestial maidens from the Jadestage Immortal Palace. The one in the center is their palace mistress, you simply won't believe how beautiful she can be if she lifts her veil. She is truly the embodiment of the word 'perfect' and is also an unparalleled character in the immortal realms."

"Also, over there. That group is from the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire, their crown prince and princess have both arrived. Do you see that group there? They are from the Darknorth Immortal Empire, that stern-looking middle-aged man with an air of imposingness is the Darknorth Immortal Emperor, the ruler of the Darknorth Immortal Empire. Also, look at those devil cultivators, they are all lofty characters from the Myriad Devil Islands and all of them have came here today…" Fan Le started to introduce the characters one by one. Mo Feng and Mo Yu were both already stunned, they even forgot to blink.

Is this true? They are not dreaming, right? According to Fan Le, all these people were characters that stood at the peak of the immortal realms. All of them came here to attend their brother-in-law's wedding?

When did it all seem so surreal?

"Also, look at those people. You see them? Over there, that's right. Those who are outside…" Fan Le pointed to faraway. Mo Feng and Mo Yu turned their gazes over and saw quite a few extraordinary characters with imposing auras. These were clearly major characters of the immortal realms too but they didn't even have the qualifications to enter and could only watch from outside.

"Do you know who they are?" Fan Le started to keep his listeners in suspense and purposely asked.

"No idea." Mo Feng shook his head.

"Hehe, let me tell you then. These people are all from the peak powers of the immortal realms. The Thunder God Hall, Snowdrift Sage Hall, Nibblesky Sacred Cult, etc. Also, those standing at the front are the respective sect leaders of each power, all of them are major characters that could cause the immortal realms to tremble, able to destroy a city with a wave of their hands, toppling mountains or oceans if they wished it. Are they powerful or not?" Fan Le spoke smugly. Naturally, it wasn't that he was exaggerating their abilities, these peak powers could truly do that.

Those who knew about this all laughed when they heard that but nobody stopped Fan Le. Such major characters didn't even have the qualifications to enter but they were all seated within this core area. Naturally, there would be some glory in their hearts. It's just that none of them were as passionate as this fatty Fan Le.

"Powerful." Mo Feng replied in a dumbstruck manner.

"Do you feel glorious?" Fan Le shamelessly smiled. "So what even if they are powerful? Aren't they all standing outside? Now, you look at us again, we are the ones who can sit here."

Fan Le crossed his arms before his chest and started laughing uproariously. Mo Feng and Mo Yu were both confused, the people of the Qin Manor and Mo Residence also felt confused. They were thinking whether if this fatty was boasting to them by over exaggerating the abilities of these people standing outside. Why did his words feel so unreal? If things were really as he said, what status did Qin Wentian have exactly to make lofty characters like this stand outside, not permitting them to enter?

Could it be because Qing`er's father, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor was extremely powerful? They weren't very clear about that but they felt that it was still possible. After all, the ruler of an immortal empire naturally had great authority.

"Where's elder sis?" Mo Yu suddenly asked. She wanted to verify the facts of what they heard with Mo Qingcheng.

"Brother-in-law brought us here but naturally, it isn't just for us to attend his wedding." Mo Feng had a meaningful smile on his face. Mo Yu blinked, after a moment, she also laughed. She hoped that she would also be able to witness the glory of their elder sister. Only then would this magnificent scene be truly perfect.

At the side, Mo Qingcheng's master the Medicine Sovereign had also been invited. A smile appeared on his face when he heard their conversation.

"Junior apprentice brother Qin is truly an unrivalled character in the world." Lin Shuai, who was also by the side, sighed in admiration. Right now, everyone in the immortal realms knew who Qin Wentian was.

"Mhm." Ye Lingshuang smiled and nodded. For some reason, she felt a wave of emotions stirring her heart and suddenly felt like crying. She didn't know how to express her feelings in her heart.

Behind Qin Chuan, Qin Yao who was standing there was already crying. She believed Fan Le's words. Although this fatty always loved to boast, he wouldn't really lie. In addition, according to everything she has seen so far, it seemed to be real.

Right now, her younger brother. The younger brother that had grew up with her and played together with her in their childhood, was now already standing stably at the very peak of the immortal realms. For his wedding, people of the entire world rushed here to attend it. Was this really only because of Qing`er's father? She didn't believe it. If that was the case, how would them who was from the particle world have any status at all? Also, a matriarch-level character was personally in-charge of welcoming them. What preferential treatment was this?

If the reason was really because of Qing`er's father, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch at most would only be one of the valuable guests. She wouldn't do all this.

At this very moment, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch walked up the stage. She had a dazzling smile on her face, exuding boundless magnificence. Today, she who was the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, was delegated a supporting role to play. She was the host of this grand wedding.

"The Southern Phoenix Matriarch is the host." The endless crowd all felt immense shock in their hearts when they saw this. Was this the grand wedding of the Heaven Empyrean? The Southern Phoenix Matriarch was even willing to be the host. No other couples would have such a privilege.

"Play the music." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch softly spoke. In an instant, as the sound of her voice faded, a loud and clear music resonated through the world. After that, rainbow light flashed as numerous Blue Luans appeared. The voices of these creatures were the most beautiful music in the world, mired in melody.

"The joint cries of Luans and Phoenixes." Countless people stared at the scene, all of them stunned. Was there any other music suitable for the grand wedding of the Heaven Empyrean?

And at this moment, the rainbow light in the air flared even brighter. The dome of the heavens seemed to break apart as a saint beast, Kirin, soared through the air, causing the color of the sky to change. Divine dragons danced about, there were even divine turtles that appeared. For a period of time, countless auspicious saint creatures filled the air. All of them turned their heads towards the sky, as though waiting for something. Amidst the radiance, Qin Wentian stood on the back of a great roc as he flew through the skies. That great roc was naturally something Little Rascal transformed into.

This scene was extremely resplendent, causing the world to lose its color. He appeared in the most perfect manner, descending through the air to the Evergreen Immortal Empire, preparing to wed his wife. He said before that he would give Qing`er a supremely grand wedding whose magnificence would last through the ages!

At this instant, it was unknown how many young females fell. They were all enraptured as they stared at that magnificent figure!

The Heaven Empyrean Qin Wentian, he was the groom today!

Chapter 1708: Grand Wedding (3)

For the grand wedding of the Heaven Empyrean, true dragons descend, a kirin appeared, divine turtles showed up, luans and phoenixes joined their songs together…

This scene, was truly a magnificent sight.

"Even the various demon races are making an effort for the Heaven Empyrean's wedding." Everyone understood in their hearts. Although these demon emperors from the desolate mountain regions refused to submit to any humans and decided to retreat back to their Desolate Mountain Range, the general situation in the immortal realms is already set. The Heaven Empyrean unified the world and during the date of his grand wedding, it was impossible for the demon races not to appear to offer their congratulations. In fact, they did so willingly and with sincerity. All of them were worried that Qin Wentian would point his sword to the Desolate Mountain Range and sweep through it with invincibility.

With the previous examples such as the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect controlled by the Heavenly Talisman Realm as well as the Jiang Clan, if Qin Wentian truly wished to conquer the Desolate Mountain Range, it would surely be a calamity for demonkind. Hence, today they came here to express their submissive attitude. Although it wasn't clearly stated, but if the Heaven Empyrean really gave them a command, they would definitely do their best to achieve it. Right now, any words from the Heaven Empyrean were treated like the heavenly laws.

Right now, the powers of the immortal realms, Myriad Devil Islands, the Ten Thousand Desolate Demon Mountain Range all officially gathered here. They were waiting for the Heaven Empyrean's command after his grand wedding.

The Heaven Empyrean, who stood on the back of the golden-winged roc, projected an awe-inspiring aura as he used the momentum of unifying the world to wed the princess of the Evergreen Immortal Empire.

The Southern Phoenix Matriarch stared at those who sat below the stage and nodded. After that, all of those who were seated respectively came up to the ceremonial stage. Fatty Fan Le held his head up high and walked proudly up. Ouyang Kuangsheng drew in a deep breath. He, who used to say that he was afraid of nothing in this world, was incredibly nervous at this moment.

Qin Wentian's appearance was just too magnificent, all of them were deeply stunned by it. This, was the reflection of Qin Wentian's current identity and status.

Qin Chuan's face was red, his eyes were moist. When he saw Qin Wentian spiralling in the air with the saint beasts, his steps felt extremely heavy as he walked forward. Beside him, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor patted him on the shoulder and nodded with a smile to Qin Chuan. Qin Chuan also smiled back and nodded heavily as he continued walking up the ceremonial stage.

Mustang, Luo Huan and the others from the Emperor Star Academy all had smiles on their faces.

Ye Qingyun, Ye Lingshuan, Lin Shuai and the others from the Battle Sword Sect felt extremely emotional as they watched.

The Medicine Sovereign, people from the Mo Residence, all had hearts filled with anticipation. They wondered if Qingcheng would appear in this incomparably gorgeous and magnificent scene today.

Qin Yao's tears were already out of control and were flowing down. At the moment Qin Wentian appeared, she already started crying. Tear stains covered her face, all of them walked together up the stage and stood there while gazing in Qin Wentian's direction.

"Present the gifts." The Southern Phoenix matriarch spoke. After that, the Thunder God Hall, Chaotic Sky Sect, Snowdrift Sage Hall, Nibblesky Sacred Cult and the other powers who submitted to the Jiang Clan and the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect then, all walked out. Each of these powers were the rulers of a vast region and those who walked out now were all the sect, clan or cult leaders. They each had an incomparably valuable gift box in their hands that was filled with treasures. They slowly walked towards the ceremonial stage. At this moment, they felt incomparably heavy in their hearts but they knew they had no choice but to do this.

What they were about to present, was the ultimate treasures of their sect, peak-level cultivation arts and techniques, treasured tomes and manuals were all in the boxes. All these now would become the betrothal gift Qin Wentian presented to the Evergreen Immortal Empire. Since the Heaven Empyrean had commanded them earlier, now that they delivered all these over, it was natural that they meant to give it to him alone. Now, Qin Wentian was intending to present it to the Evergreen Immortal Emperor but who among them would dare to object?

The winner becomes the king while the losers would be vilified. After that war, the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms formed a tripartite balance of power. Qin Wentian, the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect, and the Jiang Clan. These three supreme powers naturally meant three different camps. The major powers of the world submitted to the supreme power of their choices but in the end, Qin Wentian was the ultimate victor and succeeded in unifying the world. They had chosen then to stand in opposition to him and even if he wanted to wipe them out, no one else would have said anything.

When Qin Wentian had successfully killed off the empyreans of the opposing camps, all these powers who submitted wrongly all felt terror in their hearts. After that, the Heaven Empyrean's command reached them. Although they felt somewhat humiliated, they knew that as long as they followed his orders, this would mean that they wouldn't be destroyed. As to whether was this a joyful or worrisome occasion, they themselves were incapable of stating clearly.

They walked to the bottom of the stairway leading up to the ceremonial stage. Over there, the immortal emperor maidens of the Jadestage Fairy Palace received the gifts and carried them up, passing it to the Evergreen Immortal Emperor's subordinates. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor had a wide smile on his face. All this was as it should be. Back then when Qin Wentian was weak, he didn't obstruct Qin Wentian and Qing`er being together. The two of them experienced many trials of life and death and now, Qin Wentian finally unified the world and was going to wed his daughter. He would naturally accept these 'betrothal gifts' with no complaints.

Everyone only felt envy and was wishing them well. They understood that what the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and Evergreen Immortal Empire would receive, wouldn't merely be this. Qin Wentian would give them much much more. Many people from the peak powers all hated the fact that there wasn't a woman within their ranks that could make Qin Wentian fall for them.

Among the people of the Snowdrift Sage Hall, Chu Qingyi stood within. She felt a sense of melancholy in her heart. Tears flowed down her face as she watched. The people beside her glanced at her as they sighed in their hearts. They hated the fact that they didn't listen to her advice those years ago - to forge a good relationship with Qin Wentian.

Xu Qingyao also stood among the crowd. Her parents smiled at her and jested, "In the past, those years ago, why didn't you make the Heaven Empyrean fall in love with you?"

Xu Qingyao rolled her eyes and glared at her parents but she felt a sense of disappointment in her heart. The experiences they had in the City of Ancient Emperors...She does indeed have a very favorable impression of the Saber-Sword Immortal King. He was simply too outstanding and no one could be compared to him. However, the him today was far more resplendent and dazzling when compared to the him in the City of Ancient Emperors. He had ascended to the peak and is going to wed the woman he loves.

Lin Xian`er was at the forefront of the crowd, she came here very early. Now, as she stared at the figure in the air, tears unceasingly flowed down her face. She thought back to many matters in the past. In the particle world, he had once protected her. At that time, she already felt that from that moment onwards, it was most probably impossible for her to fall in love with any other man.

"Xian`er!" The handsome young man who came together with her called out, feeling some pain in his heart. "I'm sorry, I won't be able to give you a wedding as grand as this."

He thought that Lin Xian'er recalled past memories after seeing this magnificent scene and was filled with envy for Evergreen Qing'er. Most probably, any woman would feel their hearts being stirred by such a scene. He couldn't help but admit that he wasn't able to give this to Lin Xian`er. In this world, other than Qin Wentian, no one else could do it.

"I'm sorry, I cannot agree to being together with you." Lin Xian`er suddenly spoke, her words causing the heart of the young man to tremble. He fixed his gaze on her, "Why?"

"Because, I have no way to lie to my own heart." Lin Xian`er stared up at the figure in white in the air. How good would it be if she hadn't encountered him in the past. If they had never met, her heart would still be open to other men.

"Just because you saw this magnificent scene today?" The young man's heart was filled with endless disappointment. So it turns out that she was a materialistic and vain woman? But he also naturally understood that given Lin Xian`er's beauty, she did have the qualifications to act like this and if she truly was such a person, she definitely would have a chance to marry extraordinary characters.

"After interacting for so long, why do you feel that my personality is that?" Lin Xian`er shook her head, her tears continued to flow.

"What is the reason then?" The young man asked again.

Lin Xian`er turned over and stared at the young man. She suddenly smiled, and she did so in an extremely beautiful manner. She pointed to Qin Wentian in the air and spoke, "What if I told you that I was already acquainted with him when he was still in our particle world. Would you believe it? What if I told you that I was once captured by an immortal king but he stood unhesitating before me, willing to use his life to exchange for mine. Would you believe it? You ask me for the reason why, and I can tell you the answer now. Because...after I fell in love with him, my heart no longer has the space for any other man."

When the young man saw the beautiful smile on Lin Xian'er's face, he stood there dumbly, feeling an intense pain in his heart. Was such a reason enough? It was naturally enough. Could it be that he believed that he was more outstanding than the Heaven Empyrean? He finally understood why Lin Xian'er wanted to come here. Because, the person she loved deeply was none other than the Heaven Empyrean. How could her heart still contain any others? This naturally included him as well.

Turning, he walked towards the crowd. His back view was extremely lonely and desolate, while Lin Xian`er sobbed even more badly, causing people in the surroundings to feel their hearts breaking. Such a beautiful maiden, why was she crying like this? Who did she fall in love with, who could resist her? However, fate was cruel. She fell in love with the Heaven Empyrean and in this entire world, there was only a single Heaven Empyrean.

At this moment, in the airspace above the ceremonial stage, auspicious seven-colored clouds appeared. The songs of phoenixes and luans drifted over as a true gigantic and flawless phoenix appeared in the air. Around the phoenix, many mythical birds soared. Qing`er was dressed in a luxurious-looking gown as she stood on the back of the phoenix. Her gown was the most beautiful in the world and there was also a phoenix crown on her head, causing her to resemble a goddess. She was immersed in the seven-colored light as she slowly descended onto the stage.

Her beautiful eyes had a smile in them, it was like the smile filled with the most bliss in the world. Today, there was simply too many beauties here but none of them could darken her glow. She was the main character, exuding a sense of pure holiness, like that of a flawless goddess.

Below, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Fairy Qingmei and the others all looked up at her, their eyes turning red. Fairy Qingmei's tears also started to flow.

Mo Qingcheng stood behind her, holding her resplendent gown up for her. Qing`er smiled at Qin Wentian. And at this moment, she slowly turned and walked towards Mo Qingcheng, holding hands with her.

"Sister Qing'er." Mo Qingcheng started. Today was Qing'er's wedding, and it was agreed that she would only be playing a supporting role in helping her.

"Qingcheng." Qing`er gently smiled. She held onto Mo Qingcheng's hand as they both advanced forward. The two of them stood together on the back of the true phoenix. Although today was the date of her wedding, how could she enjoy this magnificent scene alone? This ought to be something that belonged to them both. Now, the two of them long treated each other like true sisters. In fact, they were even closer than sisters.

Tears flowed from the corner of Mo Qingcheng's eyes. She cast a glare in Qin Wentian's direction and was so beautiful that those who saw her felt stifled.

Seeing these two supreme beauties, everyone in the immortal realms felt countless emotions in their hearts. Only the Heaven Empyrean was worthy of these two.

Qin Wentian's heart was also filled with tender emotions. The golden-winged roc, which Little Rascal transformed into, gave a shrill cry as he flew forward. The other saint beasts flew around them with the kirin leading the way. Qin Wentian stepped upon an auspicious cloud and walked step by step towards Qing`er and Qingcheng. After that, he arrived and stood in the center of them as he smiled warmly. For such a beautiful moment now, the silence from the crowd is far superior compared to the applause from millions.

Qin Wentian held their hands and glanced at everyone in the world. He vowed in his heart that in this life, he would definitely do his best to protect the women he loved.

At this instant, the gazes of countless people all landed on the three of them. The Heaven Empyrean announced his love for them to the world and the experts from the Lifire Palace couldn't help but to recall the scene where Qin Wentian ascended to the Palace Lord's position. Clearly, what he could give Ye Qianyu wouldn't be as much as what he could give these two. These two were the true palace mistresses of the Lifire World Palace.

"Congratulations to the Heaven Empyrean." At this moment, the experts from the Lifire Palace who were guarding on the two sides all pointed their divine weapons up at the sky, causing bright beams of light to rise up, wanting to shatter the dome of the heavens.

"Congratulations to the Devil Sovereign." From the direction of the Myriad Devil Islands, countless devil cultivators bowed. There were even some who knelt on the ground to show their respect. There was reverence in their hearts. Right now, the Devil Sovereign wasn't simply the Myriad Devil Sovereign, he was also the overlord of this world.

"Congratulations to the Heaven Empyrean." From the surroundings, experts from the various peak powers bowed and presented their gifts, all of them paying their respects. At this instant, no matter what thoughts they had towards Qin Wentian in the past, there was only reverence and respect in their hearts right now. Conquering the immortal realms, slaying ancient emperors, unrivalled under the heavens. The accomplishments of the Heaven Empyrean Qin Wentian caused everyone to sigh in admiration regardless of his friends or foes.

At this instant, those experts who came by to spectate seemed to be influenced by the fiery passion. All of them bowed and called out, "Congratulations to the Heaven Empyrean!"

"Congratulations to the Heaven Empyrean!"

"Congratulations to the Heaven Empyrean!"

"Congratulations to the Heaven Empyrean!"

Their voices converged and drifted to afar, circulating throughout Heaven Empyrean City and out to the rest of the world. The volume was so loud that even the earth trembled. With a single gaze, the countless people currently in Heaven Empyrean City were all bowing to offer their congratulations!

Chapter 1709: Grand Wedding (4)

The echoes of congratulations in the air lingered on, only fading away after long moments. It caused the blood of everyone to surge, and everyone was involuntarily influenced by the atmosphere. In this instant, only endless respect, reverence and congratulations existed in their hearts.

It was only there were only these three magnificent figures remaining in the world. The Heaven Empyrean Qin Wentian, Evergreen Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng.

Mo Residence, for those of the Mo Clan, all of them felt huge waves of emotions rocking their hearts. Hot blood rose in their veins as they witnessed the magnificent scene of everyone in the world worshipping Qin Wentian. What a grand event this was? They felt a trembling from the depths of their souls. They knew that they would never be able to forget this memory in this lifetime.

Upon looking at the white-robed figure in the air, Qin Chuan felt his tears flowing down his face. The aged-looking him could no longer control his tears. This foster son of his, whom he had raised to adulthood, had reached the very peak of their particle world. At this moment, how could he still fail to understand that even in the immortal realms, Qin Wentian similarly had climbed to the peak, becoming an unparalleled character. Everyone in the world bowed to him, regardless of immortals, immortal kings or immortal emperors, all of them were paying respects to him. At this instant, how could there still be anyone who couldn't tell how high Qin Wentian's status was? Was the status of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor really enough to make so many experts rush here? Everything was because of Qin Wentian, the Heaven Empyrean Qin Wentian.

Qin Yao cried as she stared at this magnificent scene. Other than her tears of emotions, there was nothing else.

Luo Huan, Ye Lingshuang were both crying too. Even Ye Qingyun couldn't hold back his tears. There was also Fairy Qingmei and the people from the Mo Residence. There were simply too many people who were crying. All these were tears of joy, tears of happiness.

Let alone them, even people like Fan Le, who was acquainted with Qin Wentian for the longest, also involuntarily felt his eyes turned red when he felt such an atmosphere. Fan Le wiped his eyes and mumbled, "On this joyous day, is there really a need to cheat my emotions? I didn't see anything that touched me particularly but why am I crying? Xuan Xin, why do you think I'm crying?"

"How would I know?" Xuan Xin sobbed as she spoke. Fan Le hugged her gently when he saw the tears streaming down Xuan Xin's face. She had heard that Qin Wentian was hunted by over half of the major powers in the immortal realms in the past and had died then. Because of that, Qing`er's hair turned white overnight and Mo Qingcheng's heart became dead like the ashes. Now, there's finally a happy ending that awaits them?

Stories about the legendary Qin Wentian would undoubtedly still spread even after countless years later. No one would forget this romantic and heaven-defying legendary tale.

"Mo Yu, why are you crying? Brother-in-law is so awesome, shouldn't you feel happy instead?" Only now did Mo Feng finally understand what sort of status Qin Wentian had in the immortal realms. The Heaven Empyrean was unrivaled here.

"Don't talk about me, aren't you the same as well?" Mo Yu glared at Mo Feng.

"Nonsense? I'm clearly smiling." Mo Feng laughed, he wiped away the hot tears on his face. He was crying because of happiness, no one would have expected that this magnificent scene would have such tear-inducing effects. Qin Wentian, Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng's friends and family couldn't control their emotions and all of them involuntarily shed tears.

In the direction of the Myriad Devil Island's experts, the incomparably revered judiciary priestess's veil was already wet from her tears. Bai Qing inclined her head and stared at the figure in white. She then mumbled in a voice that would cause one's heart to be broken by sadness, "Wentian gege."

After that, she actually squatted on the ground and started crying. The people around her were all incomparably shocked. The esteemed Blood Empress was actually crying like a little girl. If this was in usual times, it was simply hard to believe.

No one could understand Bai Qing's current feelings. Although Qin Wentian was now respected by everyone in the world, who else here was acquainted with him earlier other than the members of the Qin Manor? They were childhood friends, they played together and Wentian gege had also guided her on cultivation. All this lasted until one day where everything changed. Their lives then underwent an earth-shaking transformation.

And now, when she saw her Wentian gege holding the hands of Qing`er and Qingcheng and receiving respect from everyone in the world, nobody here would be more emotional than her. She knew that she shouldn't be crying on this day of joy, but right now, what she truly wanted with all her heart was to let all her emotions out by crying. She didn't want to think too much.

Bai Wuya, Jun Mengchen and the others stared fixedly at this shocking scene. Bai Wuya felt a silent pride in his heart, Jun Mengchen had his fists clenched tightly and felt incomparably glorious as he silently mumbled, "Senior brother!"

It was only after a long time had passed did everything gradually calm down. In this boundlessly vast space, not a sound could be heard. This was simply a miracle. Everyone in the vast Heaven Empyrean City was silent. Even though many people basically weren't able to see the magnificent scene due to issue of distance, everyone had heard the congratulatory voices that spread through Heaven Empyrean City earlier. They were similarly affected by the atmosphere and had offered their congratulations as well. When the voices of congratulations stopped, everyone fell silent together and all of them were staring in the direction of the Evergreen Immortal Empire's imperial palace.

Qin Wentian held onto Qing`er's and Mo Qingcheng's hands, staring at the crowd as he spoke. "Today is the date of my wedding. In Heaven Empyrean City, for all inns and restaurants, serve up the all delicacies and wine you have to the guests, the expenses will all be borne by me. Today, I will also toss out a hundred interspatial rings with high-grade emperor weapons inside. They will belong to whoever manages to grab them. No one else is to seize the rings from their owners. In addition, I'll place many emperor-ranked world stones in Heaven Empyrean City and everyone can try to comprehend the energy fluctuations from them. However, no one is allowed to seize and monopolize the stones, everyone has to share them equally."

Qin Wentian's voice thundered through Heaven Empyrean City, causing the hearts of many people to tremble.

This, was the Heaven Empyrean's impressive gesture. A hundred high-grade emperor-ranked weapons as well as emperor-ranked world stones would be placed around the city for them to comprehend, this was simply unbelievable. Everyone would have a chance to share in the grandness of the wedding, and might even be able to obtain some good fortune.

As Qin Wentian's voice faded, beams of light suddenly radiated from him, arcing through space, shooting towards many locations in Heavenly Empyrean City. Within the beams of light, there were interspatial rings and emperor-ranked stones. At this moment, the people of the entire city only had eyes for these. Some of the beams of light fell right on to the ground, causing many people to rush over, wanting to snatch it. Those who managed to obtain the rings all had looks of wild joy on their faces. Nobody would dare to seize the rings. Everyone could sense the Heaven Empyrean's immortal sense enveloping the entire Heaven Empyrean City. Who would dare to defy his orders?

A few moments later, different-colored lights lit up Heaven Empyrean City. Emperor-ranked stones of various kinds of attributes began to illuminate their surroundings. From the sky, astral light cascaded down onto the stones, being absorbed by them. The entire Heaven Empyrean City seemed to transform into a city of starry space and was bathing in the boundless starlight. It was impossible to describe how beautiful this sight was.

Before Qin Wentian, the people from the various peak powers were still present, none of them tried to grab the rings. For those who submitted to Qin Wentian, they weren't in a hurry at all. Since the Heaven Empyrean could gift all these to the people of the world, how would he forget about them?

As for those powers that didn't submit to Qin Wentian, they only felt endless regret in their hearts. A wrong choice caused them to lose everything.

The atmosphere of the entire city became extremely lively. Qin Wentian smiled as he watched everything. He held the hands of Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng and turned as he walked towards the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and Qin Chuan. After that, the three of them bowed to pay their respects.

He wouldn't bow to the heavens or earth. He would only bow to his elders and his parents.

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Qin Chuan and the others all hurriedly stood up, helping the three of them to stand up as well. Although they were extremely close, they knew what status Qin Wentian had. He was someone the entire world was worshipping and even had the title of Heaven Empyrean. How heavy would a bow be from him?

However, Qin Wentian didn't try to stand, he continued to bow. This was something he ought to do.

"Wentian, from now onwards, my daughter will be completely handed over to you. Take good care of Qing'er." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor patted Qin Wentian on his shoulder. Right now, Qin Wentian was already much stronger than him and was naturally more suitable than him to protect Qing'er. Today, they were officially wedded and from now onwards, no matter where Qin Wentian went, Qing'er would surely follow. He, who is Qing'er's father, wouldn't say anything more to dissuade her. From now on, they would share life and death together.

"Father!" Qin Wentian called out, no longer referring to the Evergreen Immortal Emperor as 'Great Emperor.'

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor started but he soon began to laugh as his eyes misted over. He nodded, "Excellent, excellent…"

Qin Wentian turned his gazes onto these familiar silhouettes before him. All of them were his family or close friends and today, all of them have gathered here to attend his wedding. He truly felt extremely happy.

"Wentian, congratulations." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch walked over, offering her congratulations.

"Yaoyue, thank you for all your preparations." Qin Wentian smiled. Many of the wedding matters were arranged and handled by the Southern Phoenix Matriarch. In fact, even the appearances of the saint beasts were also coordinated by her.

"Why are you still so polite with me?" Nanfeng Yaoyue smiled. A single smile from her could charm an entire world. Now, she no longer treated herself as Qin Wentian's elder and hence, she acted much more naturally before Qin Wentian.

"Mhm, I'll take the chance to set the situation in the immortal realms today." Qin Wentian laughed. He turned about again and stared at the people of the world. A moment later, the gazes of countless people turned to him. Each and every one of his movements were being paid attention to by countless people.

"There's still a single matter I have yet to announce to the world. Now that the Azure Mystic has been unified, we must not neglect the fact that there are many outsiders from the upper world here as well. I know some of them have arrived here today, but I hope that all guests from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms will just care about their own businesses and do not attempt to create trouble in Azure Mystic. If not, I will take this as a declaration of war against me. As the overlord of Azure Mystic, I will naturally protect it."

Qin Wentian spoke as everyone quietly listened.

"Other than this, since the general situation in the immortal realms is already fixed. Let me announce that Heaven Empyrean City will become the main capital of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. The Myriad Devil Islands will be the same as before, governed and controlled by the supreme devil halls on the Devil Mountain. As for the Desolate Mountain Range, I won't interfere in matters there. The various demons can still enter the immortal realms but they need to abide by rules and they are not allowed to run rampant and wreck havoc or I will annihilate their entire race. As for the immortal realms, the eastern regions will be governed by the Evergreen Immortal Empire, the southern regions will be governed by Matriarch Ji and her sect members, the western regions will be governed by the Southern Phoenix Clan and the northern regions will be jointly governed by the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, Jadestage Immortal Palace and the Hundred Refinements Sect. As for the central regions, it will be governed by the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire and Askheart Temple. These powers I've named will be the main first-tier powers, the legitimate powers of Azure Mystic. All of the other major powers have to follow their orders depending on the regions you are located in."

As the sound of Qin Wentian's voice faded, countless people were shocked. They understood that Qin Wentian's words had determined the structure of the future immortal realms. Those powers that were named as the legitimate first-tier powers would aid him in governing the world. From this, one could very well imagine how fast these powers would develop, they would soon welcome an era of glory in their history!

Chapter 1710: Origin of the Great Nirvana Immortal Art

The grand wedding of the Heaven Empyrean was paid attention to by the rest of the world.

Today, it was a universal celebration. The atmosphere in Heaven Empyrean City was extremely lively. The hundred people that obtained the high-grade emperor-ranked weapons were all incomparably excited, and as for those who didn't manage to obtain one, they were all meditating on the energy fluctuations of the emperor-ranked stones around the city as it was able to aid them in their comprehension of various law-related insights with regards to their cultivation.

Also, the general situation of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms was officially set today. The various major powers were named to be in charged of the various regions and their bases were in Heaven Empyrean City, with Heaven Empyrean City becoming the true core of the entire Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

This piece of news swiftly circulated through the various corners of the immortal realms. Even countless years later, the grand wedding of the Heaven Empyrean was still discussed enthusiastically. As for those who had personally seen this legendary figure before, everytime a discussion was brought up, they would be incomparably excited, their eyes blazing with a fanatical expression.

Today was one of the most perfect days in Qin Wentian's life. All his friends and family were by his side. And during the night, he shared the bed with the two women he loved most. However, he didn't have any thoughts when he did so. He merely hugged Qing`er and Qingcheng tightly, enjoying this hard-to-come-by moment. He discovered that after both of them fell asleep, traces of tears could still be seen from the corners of their eyes.

As for the Qin Manor, Mo Residence and Qin Wentian's good friends, they couldn't sleep at all today. The magnificent scenes of the wedding kept replaying in their minds, as well as the scene of respect shown by every one in the immortal realms. That scene deeply etched itself into the depths of their souls, branding it into their minds.

It was only after several days later that the crowd gradually started to calm down. But even so, the atmosphere in Heaven Empyrean City was as lively as ever. Not only did the number of people not decrease, it even increased. This was because for those who didn't make it in time to attend the wedding, all of them still rushed here after they heard news about the emperor-ranked stones placed around Heaven Empyrean City. This made it so that Qin Wentian's subordinates couldn't help but to give orders to control the inflow of people into Heaven Empyrean City. If this continues on, no matter how vast the streets of Heaven Empyrean City were, it would be so packed that it was impossible to walk in there.

During these days, Qin Wentian didn't do anything, he didn't cultivate and spent all his time accompanying his friends and family. His elder sister Qin Yao and Ye Lingshuang often hang out together. His senior apprentice sister Luo Huan still kept teasing him, just like how she did in the past, causing Qin Wentian to feel rare moments of joy and relaxation, as though he had returned to the past. Fatty Fan Le was as shameless as ever, he kept looking at beauties in the city and everytime Xuan Xin caught him, he would beg for mercy. Xuan Xin forgave him every single time.

The two little fellows Mo Feng and Mo Yu kept sticking close to Qin Wentian, wanting him to teach them cultivation. But at their current levels, why would they need Qin Wentian to personally guide them?

Lin Xian`er was also invited into the Heaven Empyrean Palace specially constructed for Qin Wentian. However, she soon left after speaking awhile with Qin Wentian. She didn't cry any longer, she only had a sincere smile as she congratulated him.

Qin Chuan and Mo Qingcheng's father both had smiles on their faces, they were so happy that they seemed to have a perpetual grin on their faces everyday.

However, Qin Wentian also encountered something troublesome. Qin Chuan and the rest of the elders wanted to play with grandchildren and bugged him and his wives to hurry it up. Qin Wentian instantly sweated cold sweat. The path of cultivation was long and difficult, how would he dare to easily make the decision to have children? He kept finding excuses to avoid the matter, causing his senior sister Luo Huan and the elders to laugh at him, making it so that he had a headache.

Everything was so wonderful and perfect. Some times, Qin Wentian even wondered that if he could spend the rest of his life like this with his friends and family, how beautiful would that be?

Sadly, he understood that as long as he couldn't reach the peak of the martial path, all happiness would only be temporarily. Living in a strength-oriented world, people are often helpless due to the circumstances. If he didn't have the strength he had today, how could he unify Azure Mystic and enjoy the moments of peace now? Those years ago, he had died once and he clearly understood this logic. If he didn't continue walking forward and climbed higher, there would only be danger waiting for him up ahead.

Also, right now, he still had a matter he had yet to accomplish. This matter was hidden in his heart, he had yet to take revenge for his parents.

...……

Today, in the Heaven Empyrean Palace, Qin Wentian summoned the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Matriarch Ji, Southern Phoenix Matriarch, Darknorth Immortal Emperor and the others in a great hall. These people were now all the controllers of this immortal realms.

"For the upcoming period of time, everyone can select the core characters of your clans and sects to come to the Heaven Empyrean Palace. Now, my cultivation base is the highest here and I can provide some guidance to them. Also, I have a few treasures with me that can aid everyone in your comprehension. Naturally, for those core characters you select, you have to be able to trust them absolutely. Each of you have contributed so that Azure Mystic could have such a situation today. I don't hope for any of your descendents or juniors to spoil this era of peace in the future." Qin Wentian spoke.

Those present all nodded respectively. When some of them submitted earlier, they still felt conflicted in their hearts as after all, it wouldn't sound good to their reputation on the surface as they were still the hegemons of their respective areas and they had to listen to the commands of a junior. But now, they discovered that it was actually nothing much. The authority they have now far exceeded what they used to have in the past. They became the official first-tier powers in Azure Mystic and now that this immortal realm was unified, Qin Wentian also didn't request them to do anything. Even before this when dealing with the Thousand Transformations Immortal Sect and the Jiang Clan, Qin Wentian settled everything alone. These powers who submitted to him didn't even do anything at all. One could say that they were extremely lucky, able to enjoy such fortune today without even lifting a single finger.

And now, Qin Wentian even wanted to aid them in their cultivation. The Shooting Sun Immortal Empire, Darknorth Immortal Dynasty and the other powers all silently mused that they did indeed make the correct choice back then.

"Also, there's one more matter. Right now, more and more experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are descending to Azure Mystic. I feel some unease in my heart. After all, I would have to leave Azure Mystic sooner or later and at that time, the immortal realms would have to depend on all of you. Naturally, if there are any of you who are keen to go to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, you can come together with me. I'll leave the choice to you." Qin Wentian continued. He treated everyone the same, he wouldn't make the decision for them. They had to pick the path they wanted to travel on themselves.

"In any case, this isn't urgent. You guys can take the time and consider first. If any of you wish to leave here, before leaving, you have to make all arrangements and hand over things properly first." Qin Wentian spoke. Many of those present felt a stirring in their hearts. In this place, their cultivation bases have already reached the limit of what they could reach. Also, upon seeing the power of empyreans, how could they not be envious of it, how would they not want to break through too?

Qin Wentian became so powerful after his return from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. How could they not want to become stronger as well?

The powerful Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was the highest out of all the thirty-three heavens. The experts there are as common as clouds, immortal emperors could be seen everywhere. In here, it was rare for Azure Mystic to see the birth of an ancient emperor even if tens of thousands of years have passed. But there are numerous empyreans that existed in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Everyone, is there still anything you all want to report or consult me on?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Sir Qin, this humble monk wishes to speak alone with you." The esteemed reverend of the Askheart Temple spoke. Qin Wentian felt somewhat taken aback, he then nodded, "Sure, I'll listen respectfully to Reverend's instructions."

The others bid farewell and departed, leaving only Qin Wentian, the reverend from Askheart Temple and the Evergreen Immortal Emperor behind.

"Evergreen, do you want to say it, or do you want me to say it?" The reverend asked.

"This matter is not so glorious, let me speak of it." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor smiled. "Wentian, I'm sure the Great Nirvana Immortal Art needs no further introduction to you, right?"

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with sharpness. He stared in bewilderment at the eminent reverend of the Askheart Temple and the Evergreen Immortal Emperor. They actually wanted to speak to him for this matter.

"This Great Nirvana Immortal Art originally belongs to the Askheart Temple, the method I used to obtain it wasn't glorious. Luckily, esteemed reverend didn't pursue it." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor spoke.

"The Great Nirvana Immortal Art actually came from the Askheart Temple." Qin Wentian was silently shocked. Great nirvana, to be reborn, creating an avatar. It was true that the Evergreen Immortal Empire wasn't powerful enough to produce such a secret art.

"In truth, this art's history is an exceedingly long one. There are ancient records in our temple stating that during the primordial era, there was a buddhist sect in Ancient Azure Mystic and that was the origin of the Great Nirvana Immortal Art. Cultivators of the buddhist path can depend on this art to create avatars to experience the alternative ways of life this world has to offer in order to aid them in their comprehension of the buddha dao. If not, if one only silently meditates in the temple, it's almost impossible for their efforts to come to fruition. Although, I feel sad to speak of this." The esteemed reverend pressed his palms together as he spoke.

Qin Wentian pondered a little and instantly understood. Many monks in the Askheart Temple all chose to meditate silently in the temple and didn't enter the world. However, they had avatars to roam the world, experiencing everything the world had to offer. Some of them loved and hated, some even have sons and daughters, many doing things that went against the teachings of the buddha path just to aid them in further comprehension. This was why the reverend said that he was sad to speak of this.

Qin Wentian glanced at the reverend. Seems like even this reverend himself also had an avatar. This was truly interesting.

"Naturally this is a secret art that's forbidden to be taught to outsiders. In fact, not many know of this and only a rare few in the Askheart Temple have the qualifications to cultivate this special art, all of them are monks of extremely high standing. However, there were also scum in our temple. There was once a disciple of my senior brother who had extremely high talent in cultivating the buddha-path but his personality was more inclined to evil. All of us persuaded him to leave the temple yet he found a chance and snuck into the hidden scriptures library and stole this particular secret art. In addition, he originated from a major power and this incident created quite a huge commotion back then, with many people perishing due to being dragged into the storm. After Evergreen received this news, he secretly interfered and participated in seizing the treasure and succeeded in doing so. All of this was eventually uncovered by my temple."

The reverend slowly continued while the Evergreen Immortal Emperor had a bitter smile on his face. He knew he shouldn't have done so.

"In that case, why did the Great Nirvana Immortal Art still fall into my hands?" Qin Wentian asked.

"What you have isn't the original scripture, it's a copy. As to the reason why…" The reverend laughed and continued, "Do you remember what I said to you back then? Sir Qin, you are connected by fate with our Askheart Temple and the karma linking us was planted many years ago."

"Reverend, what do you mean?" Qin Wentian felt extremely puzzled. This secret art was something that was forbidden to be taught to outsiders. The Askheart Temple would never allow the Evergreen Immortal Emperor to cultivate it. But why was Qing`er able to pass this on to him?

"Sir Yuanfeng has fate with our temple. You are truly very similar to him." The reverend stood up with his palms pressed together as he bowed to Qin Wentian. After that, he turned and prepared to leave.

Qin Wentian's heart was filled endless shock when he heard that name. He looked at the back view of the Reverend and called out, "Reverend, please stay on a while more?"

"Sir Qin, if you have some free time, you can come and pay a visit to the Askheart Temple. Our temple has some ancient records regarding the secrets of Azure Mystic, it's inconvenient for me to speak of them here. Farewell." The reverend directly left after he spoke. Never in his wildest dreams did Qin Wentian ever imagine that there would be such a story behind this.

Chapter 1711: Sealing the City of Ancient Emperors

Even after the reverend had left, Qin Wentian wasn't able to calm himself down even after a long time. Who was Sir Yuanfeng?

It was naturally none other than his father, Qin Yuanfeng!

The Reverend of the Askheart Temple said that his father, Qin Yuanfeng, had fate with the Askheart Temple. In that case, there's no doubt that his father had once appeared before in Azure Mystic. Also, seeing how the Askheart Temple was willing not to pursue the fact that the Evergreen Immortal Empire seized the Great Nirvana Immortal Art and even allowed Qing`er to pass it to him, all the reasons behind this should be because of his father.

In the past, although Qin Wentian was once startled by how extraordinary the Great Nirvana Immortal Art was, he didn't link it to his father. The Askheart Temple had inheritances from the primordial era and even knew the secret of Ancient Azure Mystic. Seems like he would definitely need to pay a visit to the temple if there's a chance for him to do so.

Qin Wentian turned his gaze once again to the Evergreen Immortal Emperor as a look of puzzlement appeared on his face. Upon noticing Qin Wentian's gaze, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor smiled, "Qin Yuanfeng did appear in the immortal realms before. Although his appearance here was short-lived, his time spent here was a magnificent one. However, his existence was soon forgotten by others. I didn't expect that he was an acquaintance of the Askheart Temple. Qin Yuanfeng should be your biological father, right?"

"Mhm, so father-in-law has already guessed it." Qin Wentian nodded, he didn't intend to hide this from the Evergreen Immortal Emperor. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor's words didn't cause him to be surprised. He understood that his father Qin Yuanfeng came to this immortal realm to hide from his enemies. He had chosen this place because Azure Mystic had a restriction order on it, and this place wouldn't attract the attention of experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms because the news here would never circulate out. But even so, his father would definitely not create any huge commotions when he was living here. After all, although people from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms couldn't enter Azure Mystic, they still had informers here.

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor didn't say anything more, his understanding of Qin Yuanfeng was hazy at best and he didn't know any of the more detailed stuff. The one who arranged all of this was the White Emperor. Back then, the person who interacted with the Askheart Temple was also the White Emperor. The White Emperor seemed to be always correct, he has never been wrong before. It was like when he predicted Qin Wentian would change the fate of the Evergreen Immortal Empire, all his predictions had came true.

"Palace lord, this subordinate has a matter to report." At this moment, outside the Heaven Empyrean Palace, someone spoke. This person didn't dare to send out his immortal sense to probe inside the palace. Nobody would dare to do this. However, as long as he spoke out, Qin Wentian would naturally be able to hear it.

"Enter." Qin Wentian stated.

Xu Li walked in, there was a jadeslip in his hand as he spoke respectfully, "Palace lord, someone told me to pass this to you."

Qin Wentian waved his hand as the jadeslip flew over to him. His immortal sense entered it as sharpness gleamed in his eyes. After that, he turned his gaze towards the horizons as his eyes flickered coldly.

"What happened?" The Evergreen Immortal Emperor asked.

"Father-in-law, Hua Taixu sent a message over. He is going to leave Azure Mystic and told me to seal the City of Ancient Emperors." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Seal the City of Ancient Emperors?" The eyes of the Evergreen Immortal Emperor gleamed sharply. The City of Ancient Emperors was the place where ancient emperors were born before. Many experts of the immortal realms would go there to temper themselves. When Qin Wentian returned, he caused a commotion after the other by his world-shocking actions, and there were many people who exited the City of Ancient Emperors. But even so, there were still plenty of experts within the City of Ancient Emperors cultivating. It would be the same for the future as well.

"Mhm. Father-in-law, do you remember that there are dao elements in the City of Ancient Emperors? But for people who accepted the inheritance, they had to fight each other and be the last one remaining. Hua Taixu told me that the City of Ancient Emperors is actually a supreme treasure from the upper world that connects the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Even if the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms had a restriction order placed on it, some powers from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms can still use the City of Ancient Emperors as a connecting pathway to manifest their wills. This is extremely dangerous." Qin Wentian spoke.

He also understood that what Hua Taixu has said was right. The City of Ancient Emperors must be sealed or there would be endless future trouble. Qing`er had also accepted the inheritance of a dao element and the origins of these dao elements all came from the Upper World. Qin Wentian guessed that it was highly possible these dao elements originated from powers even stronger than the Lifelong Realm controlled by the Lifelong Realmlord.

"Since you feel that it needs to be done, just do what you need to do." The Evergreen Immortal Emperor naturally believed in Qin Wentian completely. Since he said that the City of Ancient Emperors has to be sealed. He must have his reasons to do so. In that case, the City of Ancient Emperors that had always been extremely important to the immortal realms would no longer exist from now on.

"For the following period of time, I'll provide guidance to the various immortal emperors from the peak powers and impart to them my experience. After that, I'll make a trip to the Askheart Temple." Qin Wentian spoke. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor nodded his head.

During the second day, the various powers brought their selected people here. The vast majority of these people were all immortal emperors. There were also some transcendent-level immortal kings and these people were the core members of the various major powers. Since they were chosen, it was clear that they are the future successors.

Qin Wentian began to speak about the Dao, and impart his experience in cultivation to them. He brought them to another location and took out empyrean-level stones for them to feel the energy fluctuations, aiding their comprehensions. It was difficult to impart the dao directly, one had to depend on themselves to comprehend it. But even so, his actions were of some use. As long as those contemplating the empyrean fluctuations were strong enough, they would definitely be able to gain insights. He gave them examples and showed them what empyreans could do, it was like a dao lecture in the sacred academy.

And simultaneously when Qin Wentian was giving the dao lecture. Di Tian arrived at the chaotic sea region outside the City of Ancient Emperors. Back then, he needed the blackdragon to open up a tunnel before he could enter the City of Ancient Emperors. But now, he was already at the empyrean level and was an extremely powerful one.

He directly headed into the storm raining over the ocean region, his immortal sense permeating the area and he saw a world before him. This world was clearly a supreme treasure that radiated boundless radiance. It was a world that has its own universe within.

"Who are you?" A swishing sound rang out as the waves of the oceanic region churned wildly. A black dragon directly appeared before Di Tian, it was none other than the powerful black dragon that guards the City of Ancient Emperors.

"The Heaven Empyrean gave a command to seal the City of Ancient Emperors." Di Tian spoke. The black dragon roared, causing the ocean waves to churn even more violently. "Impudent, does he know what sort of place the City of Ancient Emperors is?"

"It's most probably a supreme treasure from the upper world. Now that Azure Mystic is already unified under the Heaven Empyrean, the existence of the City of Ancient Emperors is no longer allowed." Di Tian's voice was cold. The expression of the black dragon was ugly to the extreme. Thunder and lightning radiated from him as an immensely powerful bolt of heavenly thunder blasted down from the sky.

"Your body is not real, you are just a physical manifestation of a spirit body." Di Tian calmly spoke. Countless sealing runes descended from the sky, all of them flying towards the black dragon. At the same time, a sealing screen of light appeared in the air, separating this entire space from its original dimension, blocking the heavenly thunder.

"Lock." Di Tian waved his hand. A moment later, countless chains manifested and bound the black dragon, imprisoning him. The sealing energy was channeled from the chains into his gigantic body. The black dragon roared in anger, "Do you know what you are doing?!"

"Shut up." A chain swiped over and directly smacked the dragon on his face, leaving behind a bloody scar. Such humiliation drove the black dragon mad. This ant from Azure Mystic actually dared to do such a thing to him.

Lashing sounds continued as the chains frenziedly whacked the black dragon. The black dragon howled in anger, "YOU WILL REGRET THIS!"

"The Heaven Empyrean bade me to pass this message to you. Very fortunately, your judgement back then was shit and didn't allow him to gain control of the inheritance of the City of Ancient Emperors. It was only because of that that he could have his achievements today. In order to repay you, you will be sealed together with the City of Ancient Emperors." Di Tian continued speaking. The terrifying chains wrapped themselves around the black dragon and directly destroyed it. This figure shouldn't be its real body, its true body should be hidden somewhere within the City of Ancient Emperors.

Stepping out, Di Tian continued through the storm and broke through the layers of restriction as he entered the City of Ancient Emperors. He then stated, "People in the City of Ancient Emperors hear my command. Everyone is to leave immediately. The Heaven Empyrean has ordered me to seal the City of Ancient Emperors. The time limit is one day, if any of you refuse to leave when the time limit is up, you shall all be sealed together with the City of Ancient Emperors."

At this instant, the experts in the City of Ancient Emperors all felt their hearts shaking. They were naturally familiar with the name of the Heaven Empyrean. Who doesn't know that the Heaven Empyrean has already unified the world? Even if some experts in the City of Ancient Emperors had been in it for a long time, they have also learned of it.

Because the name of the Heaven Empyrean has long spread to every part of the immortal realms. As long as one is a slightly more powerful expert, they would definitely know of this.

The Heaven Empyrean has ordered me to seal the City of Ancient Emperors. How tyrannical this was? Although the experts in the city didn't understand, all of them frenziedly rushed out and started to use the teleportation arrays to leave.

The teleportation arrays lit up as all the experts departed, feeling waves of shock in their hearts.

A day later, this vast ocean region was sealed away by a powerful sealing art, shutting the area here into a separate space that was completely locked. The powers from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms could cause dao elements to manifest in the City of Ancient Emperors because it was a supreme treasure that connected the two places. As long as the City of Ancient Emperors was sealed, the connection would naturally be broken.

There was naturally no need to doubt Di Tian's sealing abilities. A sealing screen of light appeared, covering everything. The entire ocean region was like a boundlessly large sealing diagram with countless sealing runes embedded into it. The sealing runes flared up, the light they radiated converged together and swallowed up the entire City of Ancient Emperors, sealing it completely. After that, Di Tian departed from the area.

From within the sealed space, a voice filled with rage, regret and humiliation echoed out. Once, he had already found this generation's guardian for the City of Ancient Emperors and was prepared to pass the inheritance to him. But because of the appearance of the dao elements, the era changed and the black dragon decided to reconsider his choice. But never in his wildest dreams would he imagine that when that person he had chosen before came here once again, that person already couldn't care less about the inheritance. In fact, right now, Qin Wentian even commanded someone to seal the City of Ancient Emperors away, he didn't even need to show up personally. What attitude was this? Right now, he was the overlord of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, why would he care about the status of being the successor to the City of Ancient Emperors?

The City of Ancient Emperors was sealed by the order of the Heaven Empyrean and this caused a huge wave of commotion where many people in the immortal realms discussed this matter. In fact, some people even speculated that it was because the Heaven Empyrean was worried that someone might break through to the ancient emperor realm and surpass him. But such voices were soon submerged by the spit of others. Would the Heaven Empyrean fear other empyreans? Don't forget that the empyreans of the Heaven Talisman Realm and the Jiang Clan were all killed by him.

He definitely must have another reason for sealing the City of Ancient Emperors. Right now, there were too many of Qin Wentian's supporters in the immortal realms. Qin Wentian was like a god to them, an incomparably supreme character that no one could doubt.

And indeed, there was soon news circulating out saying that currently, the Heaven Empyrean was in the Heaven Empyrean Palace guiding the immortal emperors of the various peak powers, imparting them the method to break through the immortal emperor realm. This caused countless people to be extremely envious.

The Heaven Empyrean was personally nurturing the peak powers, hoping the strength of Azure Mystic would be able to rise. Would he be jealous of the City of Ancient Emperors and seal it away? Clearly, it was impossible.

Just as everyone was speculating, right now in the northern regions of the immortal realms, near the forbidden grounds of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, many empyreans from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms just arrived.

And as for Qin Wentian, he has finally arrived at the Askheart Temple. The Askheart Temple was the only official first-tier power whose base wasn't relocated to Heaven Empyrean City.

Chapter 1712: World-ending Battle

The ancient Askheart Temple had experienced the passage of countless years, it exuded a quiet and peaceful aura.

Inside one of the treasured shrines, the reverend of the Askheart Temple sat on a praying mat with Qin Wentian in front of him. Beside him, a little novice buddhist monk was busying himself about, depositing jade slips and some tattered-looking ancient scrolls at the center between the reverend and Qin Wentian. These are all the valuable records kept by the Askheart Temple that had been handed down since ancient times.

"Master, they are all here." The little monk pressed his palms together and spoke to Reverend Tianxin.

"Good, Wuxin, you have leave to go for now." Reverend Tianxin spoke to the little monk. The little monk then nodded, he turned and bowed to Qin Wentian, "Sir Qin, Wuxin takes his leave."

"Many thanks." Qin Wentian smiled and nodded as the little monk left.

"Reverend, this disciple of yours is pretty good." Qin Wentian laughed.

"He is indeed extremely intelligent." Reverend Tianxin nodded. His gaze turned to the pile of ancient records before him, "These are all the records my temple has. Sir Qin, please peruse them."

"Many thanks Reverend." Qin Wentian bowed. After that, he started to read through the jade slips by sending his immortal sense into them. After finishing reading, a sharp expression could be seen on his face. He then continued to flip through the ancient scrolls. As his immortal sense extended into them, the information contained within was imprinted into his mind. Qin Wentian continued to flip through the scrolls as he read.

Qin Wentian took his time, the atmosphere of the shrine now was extremely quiet, without any sound at all. Reverend Tianxin also didn't disturb him and had his eyes closed in meditation.

After a long time, Qin Wentian finally finished reading. His eyes gleamed sharply, his heart was unable to return to calmness even after a long time.

Qin Wentian drew in a deep breath, trying to suppress the shock in his heart. He didn't expect that the ancient records of the Askheart Temple would actually be so shocking. It was very possible for these ancient records to be the only copy in the whole of Azure Mystic.

Who would have thought among the thirty-three heavens, their history was boundlessly long. The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms transformed after countless years and became the strongest immortal realms out of the thirty-three. However in the lower world, Azure Mystic also once had a period of supreme glory.

"The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms today...actually is not the Ancient Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, they are completely different." Qin Wentian mumbled to himself.

"Reverend, do you know where Ancient Azure Mystic is located?" Qin Wentian asked. Ancient Azure Mystic doesn't refer to the change in era, it wasn't the current Azure Mystic in ancient times. In fact, although the current Azure Mystic was extremely vast, it was very possible that it was only a remote corner of the Ancient Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

"I have no idea. However, the people from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms should be here for this matter. I wonder if those empyreans are able to find the entrance leading to Ancient Azure Mystic or not." Reverend Tianxin shook his head.

"Although Azure Mystic is vast, alongside with the Myriad Devil Islands and Desolate Ten Thousand Mountain Range, the three of territories joined together is still extremely inconsequential when compared to the vastness of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. In the past, I wouldn't think in this direction because I didn't know anything. Now that I've learned of it, I finally realized the Azure Mystic we are in now is no longer Ancient Azure Mystic. As for the world-ending battle recorded in the ancient scrolls, how terrifying was it exactly?" Qin Wentian sighed.

The ancient records of the Askheart Temple actually contained a startling secret, recording ancient history of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. It was recorded that the Askheart Temple had existed since the time of Ancient Azure Mystic but because of that world-ending battle, the multitude of living things perished and the entire immortal realm were razed to flat ground. If things truly happened based on what the records said, the words 'world-ending' was truly not an exaggeration at all. This was simply too terrifying. Out of the thirty-three heavens in this universe, one of them was actually completely destroyed. What level of a battle was that at?

After that, some of those who survived the war fled the battlefield. After they awoke from their delirious state, the vast majority of living things had already died. Those survivors could actually no longer find the past Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, it seemed that they were in a completely new world.

An ancestor-level character of the Askheart Temple used a single sentence to summarize this change perfectly. "After awakening from a dream, the heavens have changed."

The current Azure Mystic Immortal Realms most probably was something developed by the survivors of that devastating world-ending battle in ancient times. So much time has passed that it was basically no longer possible to verify things. The history of the Askheart Temple was so long that it caused one's heart to tremble. It had accompanied Azure Mystic from the past up until now.

Maybe, this was the reason why there was only very few disciples of the Askheart Temple that would head out to enter the world. Their attitudes were the same. They were strong but peaceful, they don't participate in any conflict but wouldn't allow people to bully them.

Not participating in any conflict was because they knew of the existence of Ancient Azure Mystic and the history of that world-ending battle. Since they knew about it, what did they have to compete for, for this meagre Azure Mystic? Naturally, this was because the abbot of the Askheart Temple had a transcendent state of heart. The other monks in the temple might not know of this history and there would undoubtedly be monks of different personalities. But as long as the abbots know of the history, the edicts of the Askheart Temple would never change.

Wouldn't allow people to bully them was naturally because of its history. It was one of the most ancient powers in the current Azure Mystic, the Askheart Temple naturally had their own pride. They wouldn't bully others but similarly, they wouldn't allow others to bully them.

Many powers in the immortal realms was very respectful towards the Askheart Temple. And this wasn't because the fact of the Askheart Temple's long history. If they knew about the long history, they would undoubtedly be even more respectful.

"Reverend, who do you think it was that sealed everyone in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms?" Qin Wentian asked again.

"How would I know? However, the world-ending battle in the ancient records most probably have a connection with that existence." Reverend Tianxin's tone was extremely calm. However, when he read this in the past, his heart was also filled with endless shock.

"I feel so as well." Qin Wentian nodded. In the records, it's said that Ancient Azure Mystic was unified before. That truly, boundlessly vast Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, was ruled over by a god-like character.

This god-like character was known as the Imperishable Heaven Lord.

The Imperishable Heaven Lord was the overlord of Ancient Azure Mystic. He naturally wasn't someone Qin Wentian, the Heaven Empyrean of today, could be compared to. The world he unified was Ancient Azure Mystic, a true part of the thirty-three heavens in the universe. How high was his status? How powerful was the heaven lords of each immortal realms?

If he wasn't powerful enough, how would the many powers in Ancient Azure Mystic be willing to follow his orders?

Now that Azure Mystic had a restriction order on it, Qin Wentian suspected that this might have something to do with the Imperishable Heaven Lord.

Also, the ancient records stated that it was very possible that the world-ending battle happened because of the Imperishable Heaven Lord.

The description in the ancient records about that world-ending battle was this: "For the world-ending battle in Ancient Azure Mystic, Heavenly Deities came from the other worlds, standing high up in the sky, looking down with disdain as they trampled Azure Mystic. When the Heavenly Deities came, countless people here directly prostrated in worship, their might was simply unobstructable, their power could shake the heavens. With a wave of their hands, the sun and moon vanished, the great earth trembled and cracked, the water of the oceans reversed their flow, the lava and magma in volcanoes erupted. Everywhere they passed was marked by endless destruction. They summoned world-destroying lightning, blasting everything into dust. All immortal and devils cried, all immortal kings and emperors turned into bones."

"At this moment, the Imperishable Heaven Lord descended from the sky. In his rage, he fought against all the heavenly deities alone, splitting the sky with a wave of his hand, causing the entire Ancient Azure Mystic to tremble with a single roar. The Imperishable Heaven Lord shifted the battlefield to the starry space but the heavenly deities all refused, directly engaging him in the airspace above the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. That battle was extremely devastating. Many heaven deities died but the Imperishable Heaven Lord was heavily injured. But even so, he still forced the heavenly deities to retreat. However, the multitude of lives on Azure Mystic had already been lost, there were countless deaths and casualties and what was even more terrifying is that there were even more heavenly deities with heavenly weapons here to reinforce their earlier brethren. With a command, the Imperishable Heaven Lord gathered the remaining generals and fought back. That battle could be said to be the dusk of gods. Blood flooded entire regions, the various experts of Ancient Azure Mystic died one after another, protecting their world. Upon seeing the utter destruction of his world, the Imperishable Heaven Lord's body transformed rivers and mountains as he invoked a taboo art, sacrificing his life to bury all the heaven deities. But by doing this, he similarly buried Azure Mystic.

This was the description of that world-ending battle that occurred in ancient times. Although the description wasn't long, it was truly shocking to the extreme. The ancestor of the Askheart Temple was one of the lucky few that had survived and had personally witnessed that battle, recording it down, sealing them in scrolls and jade slips, preserving them through the passage of countless years. In fact, these might be the only records of that world-ending battle left in Azure Mystic.

Heavenly Deities, what level of existence were they at? One could only wonder if the ancestor of the Askheart Temple who recorded this knew the answer to this question or not.

The heavenly deities who came from the other worlds brought with them troops and divine weapons, participating in that world-ending battle. It was very possible they were from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Most probably, they were from those extremely terrifying superpowers with deep foundations. The Imperishable Heaven Lord fought against them, even driving them back once before burying all of them. It was simply impossible to fathom how powerful the Imperishable Heaven Lord was exactly. He, the vaunted Heaven Empyrean, most probably would be nothing more than an ant in the face of the Imperishable Heaven Lord.

But in truth, Qin Wentian felt extremely puzzled. Since the Imperishable Heaven Lord most probably died together with the heavenly deities, who was it that was powerful enough to seal Azure Mystic? What sort of existence was it?

Could it be that the Imperishable Heaven Lord hasn't died? He was still alive?

If this is the case, it was truly too terrifying. Surviving from ancient times up until now? How powerful must he be now then. Naturally, this was merely a conjecture, no one would be able to verify it.

Undoubtedly, that person who sealed Azure Mystic must surely be extremely strong, supremely powerful or he wouldn't have the ability to do so.

"Sir Qin, a penny for your thoughts after you read the scrolls?" Reverend Tianxin asked Qin Wentian.

"Reverend, do you want to find the entrance to Ancient Azure Mystic too?" Qin Wentian asked.

"That should be what my ancestor wanted. It's only that right now, empyreans from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have entered our Azure Mystic. How similar this scene is? Luckily, the experts who descended now shouldn't be as powerful as those heavenly deities mentioned in the ancient records or we would all be in for a devastating calamity." Reverend Tianxin pressed his palms together.

"Indeed." Qin Wentian nodded his head.

"Also, now that Sir Qin is the overlord of the current Azure Mystic, your position now is akin to the Imperishable Heaven Lord of Ancient Azure Mystic. The multitude of lives still have to depend on you." Reverend Tianxin bowed to Qin Wentian.

"Reverend, there's no need to act like this." Qin Wentian stretched out his hand to help the reverend up. "Leaving aside the fact that another world-ending battle might not happen, even if it is going to happen, I won't allow it to end the world. As the Heaven Empyrean, I'll naturally do my best to protect Azure Mystic. Also, I'll only leave here after this matter is concluded."

"Since that is the case, many thanks." Reverend Tianxin respectfully stated. Qin Wentian sighed in his heart, Reverend Tianxin's state of heart was so vast that it could contain the world!

Chapter 1713: He Wants for Nothing

The Azure Mystic Immortal Realms were unified and peace returned to the world. However, there seemed to be currents in the dark surging wildly.

After Qin Wentian left the Askheart Temple, he still felt worry in his heart. He didn't know who was the one who sealed Azure Mystic. But now since the ban was relaxed, this meant that the person who sealed it might very well allow Ancient Azure Mystic to reappear again. If that was the case, news about it would definitely circulate to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and the powers there would definitely send their troops here.

How vast was the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, how many major powers there must be? Although Ancient Azure Mystic was just a legend and had never appeared since, just its existence already caused the Heavenly Talisman Realm to camp here for so many years to build up their foundation. If the Azure Ancient Mystic Immortal Realms truly appeared, given how strong the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms is, those empyreans would definitely spare no expense to rush here. If empyreans like him needed some time to traverse through the starry space to travel to the other immortal realms, what if the super powers there sent world overlords or existences with higher cultivation bases?

This point was almost definite. A world that was buried. A world that once had a world-ending battle which caused the death of many heavenly deities. How attractive would the secret it contained be?

Just the powerful treasures belonging to the heavenly deities alone was sufficient to make countless experts rush here to explore regardless of the danger. In any case, Qin Wentian understood that once the Ancient Azure Mystic's entrance appeared. This world would no longer be as peaceful as it was now.

During the following days, Qin Wentian was enjoying the hard-to-come-by moments of peace. His friends and family were all around him. Other than giving dao lectures to the experts from the various power and trying to deepen his own comprehension, he would accompany his friends and families. Naturally, he would spend most of the time accompanying Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng.

During these days, Fan Le felt extremely envious of Qin Wentian because Qin Wentian was always surrounded by a bevy of beauties. Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng were his wives, so Fan Le didn't really mind them. But Nanfeng Yunxi, Nanfeng Shengge, Ye Lingshuang, Luo Huan, Qin Yao, Bai Qing, Purgatory… Which of them weren't a beauty? Their bearings were all extraordinary, Nanfeng Yunxi's elegance, Nanfeng Shengge was as beautiful as a woman in a portrait, Luo Huan was sexy and gentle, Lou Bingyu was a cold beauty that was like frost, and Bai Qing naturally had an extraordinary aura as the blood judiciary priestess. Purgatory was sexy but had an innocence to her and there were even maidens from the Jadestage Immortal Palace taking the initiative to visit Qin Wentian. This made Fan Le moan in envy, it seems like all the beauties in this world were bent on crowding around Qin Wentian.

At this moment, in a courtyard inside the Heavenly Empyrean Palace, the sound of melodious laughter rang out as that place was crowded by the beautiful maidens. This made Fatty feel so jealous that he felt he could die.

"Wentian, now you are already happily married but your senior apprentice sister me is still single. How well did I treat you back then? Now that you are the Heaven Empyrean, what are you prepared to do for me?" With so many beauties around here, Qin Wentian felt a little headache, finding it difficult to manage things. This was especially so when interacting with his senior apprentice sister Luo Huan. Luo Huan always loved to joke and spoke bluntly, frequently teasing him.

"Senior sister, what can I do to help? Could it be you want me to introduce guys to you?" Qin Wentian bitterly smiled.

Luo Huan giggled and cast a charming gaze at Qin Wentian, "Why don't you consider accepting your senior sister me, into your harem as well?"

The beauties here all started when they heard Luo Huan's words as the laughter abruptly stopped. Many of the maidens here all stared at Qin Wentian. The atmosphere now felt extremely strange. It was like Luo Huan's words had represented the thoughts in their hearts.

Qin Wentian had a face filled with black lines. He stealthily shot a glance at Qing'er and Mo Qingcheng who were by the side only to see Mo Qingcheng smiling sweetly, "Senior apprentice sister, if you said it earlier, we would have made him marry you together with sister Qing'er a few days ago. Now if you enter the harem, it would be later than both me and sister Qing`er, that would be too unfair to senior apprentice sister."

"Ai, seems like I'm destined to live a lonely life until I'm old." Luo Huan sighed in mock resentment. Qin Yao laughed, "Don't bully my Wentian anymore. You are so outstanding, how would you be lonely until you are old? Hmph."

"Qin Yao you have to make things clear. Now, Wentian already belongs to Qing`er and Qingcheng. Please step to the side." Luo Huan joked. Her relationship with Qin Yao was always extremely good.

"So what? I'm still his elder sister. Qing`er, Qingcheng, am I right?" Qin Yao gently spoke.

"Of course." Mo Qingcheng gently smiled. Qing`er also smiled as she chatted with them. The atmosphere was truly very lively.

"With so many people here helping this brat, this little miss is so pitiful." Luo Huan sighed as though she was being bullied.

"There's still some hope. Now, Sir Qin is already the Heaven Empyrean. How many immortal kings and immortal emperors of our Azure Mystic Immortal Realms have countless concubines? Given Sir Qin's status, he naturally cannot lose out to them. Although he is already married and the position of his official wives are set, but the list of concubines is still empty. Why doesn't Sir Qin select a few of us? What do you think of the holy successor from our Southern Phoenix Clan?" The beautiful Nanfeng Shengge mischievously teased, her words causing Nanfeng Yunxi to blush as she glared at her. "What nonsense are you speaking?"

"Am I not correct?" Nanfeng Shengge smiled.

"Naturally." Nanfeng Yunxi spoke.

"Oh, I know. Our holy successor doesn't want to be a concubine." Nanfeng Shengge continued to teased. Qin Wentian smiled and looked at the two beauties. Nanfeng Yunxi cast a glance at Qin Wentian but there were hints of evasion in her beautiful eyes.

"Are you girls not intentionally setting Wentian up?" Qin Yao giggled, staring at Qing`er and Qingcheng who were both at the side. Qingcheng even acted in concert with the situation and went over to pinch Qin Wentian, causing all the maidens here to laugh.

Bai Qing stood at the back and observed everything. There was a smile on her face. The cold and cruel Blood Empress was like a young teenage girl now, revealing an innocent and radiant smile. She didn't say anything, only standing quietly at the back as she watched. As long as she could see her Wentian gege living a life of joy and bliss, it was already enough for her. She was happy to see him happy. How wonderful would it be if this could last forever?

Both sister Qing`er and Qingcheng were so beautiful and were deeply in love with Wentian gege. The three of them would definitely be very happy together.

"Little Qing, come over." Qin Wentian laughed and called out when he noticed Bai Qing standing at the back. Bai Qing started, staring dumbly at Qin Wentian before she walked over. "Wentian gege!"

Qin Wentian stretched out his hand to tousled her hair, there was a doting look in his eyes as he looked at her. This little lass was the same back then when they were both children. Her smile was as innocent as ever, able to cause people to forget all their troubles.

"In the future, will you cultivate on the Myriad Devil Islands or follow me to cultivate?" Qin Wentian gently asked.

"Can I follow Wentian gege?" Bai Qing inclined her head and smiled.

"Of course you can. As long as you are willing to." Qin Wentian gently tapped her on her head.

"In that case, I'll stick close to Wentian gege and follow you for cultivation." Bai Qing spoke in a daze as she smiled sentimentally.

"Alright. But you must know that if you follow me, things might be very dangerous. It won't be as safe as staying on the Myriad Devil Islands." Qin Wentian gently spoke.

"I'm not afraid." Bai Qing shook her head with resolution.

"Silly lass." Qin Wentian stared at Bai Qing. He thought back to moments of their childhood, how far has she walked from then until now? How much has she suffered? From an ordinary little girl to become the Blood Empress. All her sufferings went unseen by Qin Wentian but he could well imagine it.

After chatting for some time more, the beauties all respectively departed, returning to their own lodgings. In this place, only Qin Wentian, Qing`er and Qingcheng remained. Even Little Rascal was dragged away by Purgatory.

Mo Qingcheng smiled as she stared at Qin Wentian, causing Qin Wentian to shiver suddenly. When he looked at Mo Qingcheng's smile, he shivered uncontrollably and asked despite already knowing the answer, "Qingcheng, what's the matter?"

"How does it feel to have so many beauties hinting that they are willing to be your concubines?" Mo Qingcheng giggled. Earlier, although everyone was joking, how could Qing`er and Qingcheng not be able to see that as long as Qin Wentian nodded his head, almost half of the beauties gathered here earlier wouldn't mind. Most of the maidens here have feelings for Qin Wentian or how would they casually make such jokes? For Luo Huan, it might be brushed off as her personality. But both Nanfeng Yunxi and Nanfeng Shengge were holy maiden characters.

Qin Wentian's face was filled with black lines. Mo Qingcheng laughed out loud when she saw Qin Wentian's expression. She walked in front of him and tidied his clothes for him. Her eyes that were like constellations shining in the night sky were as gentle as water as she spoke, "Actually, many of them are good girls. In fact, me and sister Qing`er both understand that there would be many maidens falling in love with you. If you really have someone you like, the two of us won't blame you. Everything is fine as long as you are happy."

Qin Wentian lowered his head, staring at the gentle eyes of Mo Qingcheng. How beautiful and clear was her gaze, there wasn't a single hint of hypocrisy or impurity, only the purest love. He then cast a glance at Qing'er at the side only to see her nodding her head lightly in agreement. She didn't say anything. Qin Wentian felt boundless warmth in her heart. He hugged Mo Qingcheng and pulled Qing'er into his embrace too, allowing them to lean against his chest as he gently spoke, "Silly girls."

With such wives, what else does he need? He wants for nothing.

...

Time flowed by. After unifying the world, the aftereffects of the commotion from the grand wedding could still be felt but the chaos in the immortal realms had truly ceased. The various peak powers were now directly governed by Qin Wentian, how would there still be any large-scale wars in the immortal realms? The demons of the Desolate Mountain Range were honest as well, they didn't stir up trouble. Everything was peaceful.

Right now in Azure Mystic, there were some mysterious locations with many experts there. These experts were all terrifyingly powerful ones who came from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. They were here to probe for the secrets of Ancient Azure Mystic as they roamed this world.

And at this moment in the northern regions, at the forbidden grounds of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, deep within the Immortal Law Mountain Range, there were many figures probing the secrets of this forbidden ground.

They saw many strange and marvelous scenes in here. For example, there were zombies here that could attack and were extremely powerful. This was simply illogical but the stranger things seemed, the more excited they were. They continued moving into the depths of the mountain range and reached the ruins within. Depending on their strength, they continued heading deeper and deeper, passing many places of marvels.

Several months passed, some of these experts didn't even know which location they were in. They found it hard to imagine that Azure Mystic would actually have a place like this but since they were all already here, they could only continue heading deeper into the depths of this forbidden ground to probe.

And today, they arrived at a certain location. After they destroyed a few powerful zombies, they saw a gate before them!

Chapter 1714: Battlefield of the World-ending Battle

This gigantic gate looked extremely mysterious and strange, it shone with a weird light, as though it was a gate that came from hell, making the people here not dare to casually enter it. No one knew what was inside it.

The experts mutually glanced at each other, their hearts pounding madly, unable to regain their calmness.

"Should we enter?" Someone asked.

"Do we need to inform the Realmlord?" Another person replied. They couldn't predict what they would encounter if they entered. All of their expressions were incredibly solemn.

"Let's enter and take a look." One of the experts at the side spoke. He appeared extremely young, his eyes were sharp and he exuded a tyrannical aura. His silhouette flashed as he appeared directly before the gate and took a step into it. The others all followed after and in an instant, their figures vanished from this space.

When they appeared in the other space, everything in the surroundings became different. The sky here seemed to be perpetually coated in grey. There was a sun high up in the sky, but the sun didn't shine fiercely to illuminate the surroundings. It was an extremely dim-looking sun that was black in color.

The sun, darkness, the gloomy atmosphere permeated everywhere. This entire world had a sinister feeling to it and caused their hearts to sink. Despite their high cultivation bases at the empyrean realm. They still involuntarily felt a sense of suppression in their hearts when they saw this black sun and the desolate surroundings.

Beside the sun in the sky, there were a total of nine black spheres that was like dark stars. They revolved around the sun and radiated black rays of light. They also exuded a sensation of coldness, causing the experts who just entered to shiver. Despite their high cultivation bases, they actually felt a chill.

"The dusk of gods, is this the battlefield where the world-ending battle was fought?" One of them mumbled in a heavy voice. Who would have thought that the legend was real. The ancient battlefield of the dusk of gods actually still exists in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

"Where's the exit?" At this moment, a person turned his head back as his face instantly paled. He discovered that the gate had vanished. After they entered, they had no way to exit.

"Quickly inform the Realmlord." A person spoke. He then took out a messaging crystal. Since they have already found the legendary grounds, this place will definitely have plenty of good fortune. They also didn't need to worry that the others who might find this place would be too strong. Right now, what they were worried about was their own safety. No one knew what they would encounter in a place like this.

The experts then respectively took out their own crystals and sent a message. After that, they shared a mutual glance as their silhouettes flashed, moving forward together.

The terrain of this place, that was seemingly like a world on its own, was extremely weird. There were thousand upon thousand of holes in the ground. For the world-ending battle back then, it was rumored that the entire world was razed to level ground as the multitude of living things perished.

"What a strong death qi." One of the experts spoke. They increased their speed and flew forward. After that, their eyes involuntarily narrowed. They discovered that on the ground's surface, there was actually a human silhouette. That human silhouette was sitting down and seemed to be in a daze. His eyes were vacant as they stared into the horizons.

"A zombie?" When these experts saw this figure, they instantly knew that this was a zombie. However, the cultivation base of this zombie wasn't high and couldn't pose any threat to them.

Hence, they continued forward. On their way, they saw many zombies that had no life fluctuations at all but they were clearly existing. There were even zombies doing things, repeating them in a cycle. They even saw one of the zombie clutching a piece of clothing. Although that clothing was ancient, it wasn't tattered at all. It was a piece of clothing for females and that zombie was clutching it tightly, as though afraid of losing it.

The empyreans' gazes grew heavy. There were actually so many zombies in this battlefield of the world-ending battle. What does this mean?

Could it be that after these people died those years ago, somebody used a heaven-defying godly innate technique to allow them to continue to exist in another form in this world?

At this moment, they suddenly felt a cold stare looking over at them. The death qi here was concentrated on them and all of a sudden, when they stared in a certain location below, they saw a figure soaring into the air as that figure roared, "KILL!"

This voice contained a boundless killing intent. That figure's speed was extraordinarily fast, he was like a bolt of lightning that blasted towards one of the empyreans.

That empyrean instantly reacted, slicing his palm down below him. A moment later, a beam of sacred sword light that could destroy everything slashed down, directly tearing that zombie into two as that empyrean coldly snorted.

"KILL, KILL, KILL!" The icy voice rang out again, sounding incomparably bleak. But this time, there was two voices instead, as though two zombies were speaking yet their tones were the same. Two bolts of lightning blasted towards the empyrean in the air, it was none other than the zombie who had been split into two.

The expressions of the other empyreans drastically changed. Earlier, they just relaxed their vigilance and immediately saw this shocking scene. This was especially so for that empyrean who was attacked. His entire person transformed into a beam of sword light that shot forward. Only by doing so did he manage to evade that attack.

"BOOM!" He penetrated one of the half-zombies, but for the other half, it issued a punch with tyrannical might, slamming into that empyrean's body. With a cry of agony, that empyrean felt his body exploding as his blood splattered through the sky.

This scene was too terrifying. The other empyreans stood here, stunned. After that, they saw the two halves of the body roaring once again, "KILL, KILL, KILL!", madly rushing at them.

"We can't kill these monsters, let's retreat!" The experts hurriedly retreated with explosive speed, not daring to fight at all. Their opponents basically couldn't be killed. How could they fight with them?

Zombies were essentially dead people. That sword split the zombie into halves but it was actually ineffective. The zombie's two halves now simultaneously attacked, and those who saw this scene all felt their hearts trembling.

"KILL, KILL, KILL!" The icy voice seemed to penetrate time, ringing out loud in the sky. Many zombies inclined their heads, following the source of the voice. After that, all of them soared into the air and rushed at those empyreans. At this moment, the faces of the empyreans were completely pale. They felt as though the apocalypse has arrived.

How is this possible. Why was this world so terrifying?

Not too long after, more screams filled the air. Under the black sun, this battlefield that brought about the dusk of gods, became the burial ground of the other empyreans who had entered.

In addition, since they could reach this place, it meant that there were also other experts who could do so as well.

More and more news spread to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. For a period of time, many major powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms sent out their experts here. A huge commotion was created, empyreans from all locations in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms descended to the lower world in large batches.

Compared to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, Azure Mystic was still as peaceful as before. Since that battlefield was located in the forbidden grounds of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, there was naturally no one in Azure Mystic that could enter. They also had no way of knowing what happened inside.

Qin Wentian was still in Heaven Empyrean City. He was waiting for news. Now that so many experts were streaming into Azure Mystic, it was impossible for there to be no news at all. He truly hoped in his heart that Ancient Azure Mystic wouldn't appear. If not, this matter would surely be a very bad thing to the current Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

He suddenly thought of a thing. The people in the sealed Azure Mystic wouldn't know of the secret in the ancient records of the Askheart Temple. But what about the powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms had endless history and would definitely have records about the world-ending battle in Ancient Azure Mystic. Maybe, they had never given up in their hopes to search for it before.

And now in the Heaven Empyrean Palace, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch and Darknorth Immortal Emperor just came by to consult him on some questions about the empyrean realm. Qin Wentian suddenly felt a urge to head to the Immortal Law Mountain Range located in the forbidden grounds of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. Back then, it was none other than that old freak who sent him and Youhuang to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. But now, Qin Wentian didn't have any confidence that he would be able to find that old freak. That old freak was simply too mysterious.

"Palace Lord, this subordinate has something to report." At this moment, Xu Li stood outside the palace as he spoke out. Qin Wentian replied, "Speak."

"There's news saying that in the eastern regions, in the previous territory of the Taihua Immortal Dynasty, a batch of mysterious experts suddenly appeared. This subordinate suspects that they are from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." Xu Li spoke.

"Understood, you can go first. Continue to monitor the situation in the immortal realms and report to me immediately once you receive more news." Qin Wentian commanded.

"Yes, Palace Lord." Xu Li accepted the order and left.

Many days later, Xu Li made another report saying that even more experts arrived in the central regions.

And after some days passed, Xu Li came back to make another report saying that more mysterious experts arrived in the southern regions. But even so, they didn't create any commotion and kept a low-profile.

Large quantities of experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have arrived in Azure Mystic. What was going to happen would happen eventually.

Qin Wentian sent out his command, telling the various powers under him to spread his command to their subordinates. Everyone was to pay close attention to the direction these mysterious experts who just arrived were heading to. Qin Wentian wanted to know their final destination.

Naturally, it wasn't easy to track the movements of empyreans. But since the Heaven Empyrean had given the order, the experts of the powers in the immortal realms all became his informers, feeding news back to the Heaven

Empyrean Palace. It was soon discovered that tracks of the mysterious experts all seemed to be eventually heading north - to the previous location where the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty was located.

With this information, Qin Wentian told the Darknorth Immortal Emperor to pay close attention there. There was no doubt that the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty's influence in the north was exceedingly great and they soon discovered the final location these mysterious experts headed to.

The final location was actually the forbidden grounds of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, in the depths of the Immortal Law Mountain Range.

Inside the Heaven Empyrean Palace, Qin Wentian stood speechlessly there for a long time. The forbidden grounds of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty... This place was too familiar to him!

"Is this all a coincidence?" Qin Wentian silently mused!

Chapter 1715: Experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms Gathered

In the forbidden grounds of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, it has always been rare for people to enter, especially traveling all the way into its depths. Usually, people would avoid the place, Qin Wentian only entered by accident in the past.

However now, in the depths of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty's forbidden ground that couldn't be seen by people, large quantities of experts actually amassed there. All of them belonged to different camps, and not only were empyreans here, there were also many immortal emperors sent here from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to execute orders.

Empyreans, even to many powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, can be considered scarce. For example in the Lifelong Realm that was boundlessly vast, only the world palace lords of each world palace was at this level.

But naturally, in the perspective of the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there were simply too many empyreans as the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was just way too vast. There were countless world overlord-level major powers there, just like the number of sand particles on the banks of the Ganges River.

Right now, Qin Wentian came to one of the mountain peaks in the Immortal Law Mountain Range. He stood there at this place where he had once cultivated before, and cast his gaze into the horizons. Even though he was already an empyrean, his immortal sense was still not powerful enough yet and was restricted.

In the distance, a resplendent beam of light suddenly flashed as a group of experts appeared in the air. Their robes were luxurious and the person in the center looked extremely young. However, his eyes were golden and contained a terrifying penetrating force as though he was able to see through everything with a single glance.

He took out a divine weapon. This divine weapon was an incomparably large ancient bell and with a wave of his hand, the ancient bell flew forwards, entering into the fog formation inside the forbidden ground. In the next moment, a chime that resembled the sound of the Great Dao drifted over. The fog covering the area suddenly thinned and beams of golden light shot out by the ancient bell illuminated the surroundings. In the next instant, millions of runes filled the air, they shot out like lightning arcing through the skies, containing the power of the Great Dao in them.

The chimes continued ringing, as more and more beams of golden light appeared. After that, the ancient bell appeared before this group of experts again, it was now extremely enormous and had broken the restriction caused by the fog formation. It rose into the air and continued to radiate golden light that made the fog thin constantly. As time passed, the space in the forbidden ground became cleared of all fog, only the golden light illuminating everything still existed.

Their immortal senses were no longer restricted and their vision became clear. Many figures flew forward, this forbidden grounds wasn't as large as they had expected, they could see everything with a single glance.

Earlier, their senses were confused due to the bewildering fog formation.

Qin Wentian glanced at the experts gathered here. They stood before a gate, over there, looking into the gate, there seemed to another world inside.

"Battlefield of that world-ending battle." Qin Wentian mused silently, recalling the contents of the ancient records in the Askheart Temple. Ancient Azure Mystic, the battlefield for the world-ending battle, those heavenly deities were buried inside there by a godly heaven-defying secret art used by the Imperishable Heaven Lord. Now that the restriction order on Azure Mystic was relaxed, it seems that that existence must have the intentions to expose the world-ending battlefield to others. If not, given his power, how could mere empyreans be able to discover this place?

"Old freak, does this have something to do with you?" Qin Wentian silently mused. Back then, it was here in the forbidden grounds where he met that old freak. However, there wasn't a single trace of that old freak here now.

The ancient bell returned, it transformed into a smaller version one that could fit into the young man's palm. The other experts here all glanced in his direction and their eyes gleamed as they tried to guess the young man's identity. Only empyreans should be able to take out such a treasure.

"I pay my respects to Young Master Wang." An empyrean suddenly walked out. He seemed to have discovered the young man's identity and was bowing slightly to him. Both were empyreans but upon seeing the respectful attitude of this empyrean towards the young man, one could imagine how high the status of the young man was. In any place with humans, there would always be a rigid ranking structure for things like strength and backgrounds. This was also true for the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Young Master Wang?" Many people were still speculating, their eyes flickering with thoughts. After that, many empyreans narrowed their eyes as shock filled their hearts. They respectively stepped forward and greeted, "We pay our respects to Young Master Wang."

They didn't know what this Young Master Wang's full name was, but the fact that he came from that clan, was already sufficient.

"Young Master Wang destroyed the fog formation so easily, how impressive." Someone respectfully spoke.

Young Master Wang still stood in the air, projecting a cold and lofty aura. He who was controlling the divine giant bell also clearly felt proud about it.

"Just a mere bewildering formation." The voice of Young Master Wang was as arrogant as everyone thought it would be. His character was clear from how he spoke. Such pride was deep in his bones, and displayed itself from his demeanor. However, he naturally did have the qualifications to act like this. Even in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the power of his clan could be considered to be at a very high position.

However, although he was arrogant, he was very clear what his clan sent him here to do. This time, his clan placed their hopes on him, he had to have some harvest.

"Any news from those we sent in to probe?" Young Master Wang asked.

"Yes, we can already be sure that the gate will lead us to the legendary battlefield of the dusk of gods." A person replied. "In there, there are many zombies, they should be those who died in the battle during ancient times. Also, they are extremely powerful and cannot be killed unless they are directly crushed into smithereens. Many of those we sent in have already died. We received no further news from any of them."

"There's one more point." That person continued. "This gate is a one-way gate, it will vanish after people enters it. Up until now, no one has managed to find the exit."

"Continue to send in more people to probe then." Young Master Wang apathetically and calmly spoke.

"Many people refuse to enter anymore." That person softly spoke. Young Master Wang's eyes flashed and he instantly understood. Even for empyreans, there was a high chance of them dying if they entered. Most of the major powers used their immortal emperors to probe the way and those emperors who entered had all completely died. The remaining subordinates had no wish to send themselves to death. Although they were curious about the legendary battlefield, their life was still more important.

"There should be many immortal emperors in this immortal realms, right? Just grab them and send them in directly." Young Master Wang spoke, his tone was indifferent. It was like in his eyes, the lives of the immortal emperors in this immortal realms was completely insignificant.

"This…" The eyes of that person gleamed. At this moment, another person spoke up, "Senior, you might not know of this but there is already an overlord who unified this immortal realms. His title is the Heaven Empyrean and he prohibits people from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms from doing things that would disturb the peace of Azure Mystic. Before this, many powerful empyreans from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were all killed off by this Heaven Empyrean."

"The Heaven Empyrean? What a grand title." The eyes of the young man flickered with coldness. "This Azure Mystic that appeared after the world-ending battle, is no longer Ancient Azure Mystic. Also, given that it was sealed for so many years, this is only a place of weaklings. How dare that person proclaim his title to be the Heaven Empyrean? He's merely a frog in a well. Since he is the overlord of Azure Mystic, get him to send out the order to gather immortal emperors and make them enter to probe the space within."

"He won't give that order." At this moment, Qin Wentian spoke from a distance. The young man surnamed Wang glanced over, his golden eyes gleamed with a terrifying sharpness.

"Who are you." He asked.

"The frog in the well whom you are speaking about." Qin Wentian replied.

"Heaven Empyrean?" The young man surnamed Wang mockingly laughed. "Claiming to be Heaven Empyrean in this pathetic layer of immortal realms. Do you even know what sort of existence the Imperishable Heaven Lord who participated in that ancient world-ending battle back then was?"

Qin Wentian might be a person of the current Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, but he learned of the history back then through the ancient records. He sighed with respect in his heart, he was filled with reverence towards the Imperishable Heaven Lord and he really wanted to see how he fought against the heavenly deities alone and buried this entire world. The Imperishable Heaven Lord was the overlord of Ancient Azure Mystic. He refused to lower his head although it might mean his death.

"I have no idea. But since I'm the current overlord of Azure Mystic, I naturally have to protect this place. In the past, the Heaven Lord did so as well." Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

"In that case, let's see if your strength is comparable to the Imperishable Heaven Lord then." The young man waved his hand as the ancient bell he was holding flew out, instantly expanding. The might of the Great Dao radiated from it, akin to a flood of chaos energy that instantly enveloped the surroundings, causing waves of heavenly might to bore down on Qin Wentian. Countless bolts of destructive lightning formed from runes also locked Qin Wentian down, making sure that he could not escape.

Qin Wentian's body gleamed with the resplendent light of countless runes. He had a body of a fiendgod, with both the energy of buddha and devil. With his vajra holy will protecting him, his body was like an indestructible one. The bolts of lightning blasted over, creating thunderous rumbling noises. Qin Wentian's defense was actually broken from the vibrations that manifested from the impact. He retreated but the runes manifested from the ancient bell, that had the power of the Great Dao, directly slammed into him, flinging him far away. He groaned in pain as many wounds appeared on his body, which was seemingly on the verge of crumbling away.

A powerful undying energy and the light of vital energy instantly caused his body to be rejuvenated. He stared at the ancient bell that was far away as he felt shock in his heart. This ancient bell was definitely a supreme treasure, containing unblockable might. Although the Young Master Wang was powerful, he still couldn't control and unleash the full potential of the ancient bell or his body might have already been smashed from that exchange of blows earlier.

There were simply too many experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Now that the entrance to Ancient Azure Mystic has appeared, the experts from the many major powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms all gathered here. More and more characters have came, possessing supremely powerful treasures. Qin Wentian didn't know if this would become a disastrous calamity for the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

"Heaven Empyrean?" The young man mockingly spoke. But at this moment, an empyrean beside him transmitted his voice to remind him, "Young master, although the restriction order on Azure Mystic is now relaxed, that existence is after all still someone from Azure Mystic. He had sealed Azure Mystic for so many years because he wanted the people here to live in peace, he most probably wouldn't wish for too much destruction or too many people here to die. It's better for us not to offend that existence."

The eyes of the young man flashed. He was initially about to unleash a killing blow but he hesitated and nodded in agreement. Although he didn't know what sort of character that existence was, he still had trepidation and respect in his heart. Since that was the case, he decided to spare the immortal emperors of Azure Mystic this time around.

He made a gesture as that treasured bell returned to his palm. He glanced at everyone and spoke, "If there is no one willing to probe the way, let us wait here then. Let's wait for more experts from the other powers to arrive before we enter together."

Chapter 1716: Heavenly Deity Race

The young man's name was Wang Yi. His clan had terrifying influence in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and wasn't something the overlord of an immortal realms layer could be compared to. Ordinary world overlords even had to be polite to him. One could say that even though he was only at the empyrean realm, it was a given that he would step into the world overlord realm sooner or later. He had no need to be respectful to world overlords, he only needed to treat them as equals.

Hence, a mere overlord of Azure Mystic that was just an empyrean, he truly didn't place Qin Wentian in his eyes. If it wasn't for the people beside him giving him a reminder, he would have already killed Qin Wentian and made the immortal emperors of this world probe the path for them. To him, this was just an insignificant minor matter. In his clan, with just a command from him, it was able to make unknown amounts of immortal emperors do his bidding with their greatest efforts. It's just that he didn't bring too many people with him here for this trip.

Immortal emperors were weaklings. Why is there a need for so many immortal emperors in this world? They were of no use at all.

From a certain perspective, he truly didn't need to give face to Qin Wentian who was the overlord of Azure Mystic.

Qin Wentian's heart sank. It wasn't because of his injuries that he suffered from being forced back. It was because of the treasure used by this man as well as the significance behind all the empyreans' respect towards him. Most probably, this young man had a transcendent status and it is clear that Azure Mystic has already caught the attention of those super powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. How could the feeling in his heart not be heavy?

His gaze then turned towards that empyrean who tried to instigate things earlier as his eyes grew incomparably sharp. That empyrean was also staring in his direction coincidently. As their gazes matched, that empyrean only felt the world around him changing as his consciousness actually sank into a separate dimension, a dimension of phantasm. Inside there, he saw countless pairs of strange looking eyes. That must be an astral soul, the Phantasm Eye Astral Soul Art. Under its source origin of laws, everything in this world was a fantasy.

Puchi~ A light sound rang out. That empyrean screamed as he died an instant later. The people around him all retreated, their countenances pale as they stared in Qin Wentian's direction.

"I've never forbidden the experts from Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms from doing what they need to do. He intentionally wished to cause hostilities and should be killed." Qin Wentian didn't care about the identity of that empyrean. Naturally, he also didn't care about Wang Yi's attitude. This place was Azure Mystic, his will, was heaven's will.

So what even if Wang Yi had a supreme treasure with him?

"This Heaven Empyrean didn't act against Wang Yi but killed one of his subordinates instead and even intentionally tried to explain things? Could it be that he fears Wang Yi?" Someone silently mused. But when they thought about Wang Yi's identity and strength, all of them silently nodded. It should be the case.

But at this moment, Qin Wentian continued, "However, the people from Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms is not allowed to rampage through or interfere in matters of my Azure Mystic. No matter who you might be."

The words 'no matter who you might be,' naturally referred to that whatever your identity is, or what sort of character you are in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. This Wang Yi from the Wang Clan was naturally included in this. Qin Wentian, who was forced back by a single strike, didn't have any intentions to show any weakness and actually said such domineering words. This caused many people to reveal a puzzled expression on their faces.

Wasn't he worried that Wang Yi might directly act to kill him in a fit of rage?

Qin Wentian might be the Heaven Empyrean of Azure Mystic and killed many empyreans before. But no matter what, he was just the overlord of a mere Azure Mystic. Given the transcendent status of Wang Yi, as well as the fact that he had terrifyingly powerful treasures with him, it was very possible for him to kill this Heaven Empyrean of Azure Mystic.

Wang Yi cast a glance at Qin Wentian, his eyes were filled with disdain and mockery. He decided not to send all the immortal emperors of Azure Mystic into the entrance was because his heart was filled with trepidation towards that existence who sealed Azure Mystic. However, how would he care about Qin Wentian? Qin Wentian's words sounded like a self-mockery to him, ridiculous to the extreme. Hence, he would ignore it or it would be beneath his dignity.

Qin Wentian stood on the ancient peak, at the entrance of the forbidden ground. His white robes fluttered in the wind, as carefree as ever.

For the next few days, more and more experts arrived here. Many of them were empyreans and all came from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Other than this, there were several other experts with transcendent statuses who also arrived. They were the same as Wang Yi and had an extremely fearsome background. Many empyreans were incomparably respectful when they saw them, deferring to them in all things. All these people without exception radiated unique auras regardless of how old or young they were. Since their statuses were different, the aura they exuded was naturally different from commoners as well.

At the forbidden grounds of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, a single glance there could see experts of different camps gathered together. Qin Wentian, who was still standing on the ancient peak, felt a heavy weight pressing down his heart. Such a powerful force, they could decimate Azure Mystic with a wave of their hands. Right now, empyreans who were rarely seen in the Supreme Ancient Realms were actually gathered here in droves, not appearing anything special at all. Only Wang Yi and people with statuses like him would stand out.

Qin Wentian heard the discussion of the crowd. He understood that this new group of experts who just came claimed to be from the Heavenly Deity Race of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Heaven Deity!"

Qin Wentian felt his heart shaking. From the ancient records of the Askheart Temple, he understood that those characters who annihilated Ancient Azure Mystic were known as heavenly deities. They were like gods in the heavens, with unexcelled and incredibly lofty positions.

And now, this new batch of experts were known as experts from the Heavenly Deity Race? Could it be that their ancestors were those heavenly deities?

Or was the Heavenly Deity Race the name of a super power in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?

If either of this is the case, Qin Wentian also could understand why Wang Yi would have such a powerful supreme treasure with him. The descendants of the Heaven Deity Race were sufficient to shock the vast majority of people in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Undoubtedly, heavenly deities are considered one of those existences at the uppermost level. How could people from a superpower hold any regards to this lower world, the sealed Azure Mystic? How could these people not be lofty?

Since the Heavenly Deity Race sent this group of people here to deal with the matter of the forbidden ground, their strengths should be undoubtable. For some of these experts from the Heaven Deity Race, some of them had strange characteristics. For example, Wang Yi's eyes were golden in color, it was unknown what bloodline ability he has. There were also some who had natural wings behind their backs. This doesn't seem to be something manifested from a cultivation art or innate technique, they were naturally born with it. Also, their wings had incomparably resplendent and complex runes of the Great Dao, looking extremely majestic. There should be great power contained within those wings.

Qin Wentian guessed that this might have something to do with their bloodline which descended from the heavenly deities. What a powerful inheritance was that? If they could awaken the power of their blood, their strength would be nothing like those with bloodline powers in the lower world. Their bloodlines were true, supremely powerful ones.

"Let's enter." At this moment, an expert from the Heavenly Deity Race spoke. Right now, the number of people gathered here can already constitute a terrifying force. He no longer wished to wait. This person who spoke had a sturdy build and was middle-aged. His palms were larger than ordinary people.

"Let's go then." A person who had a pair of wings on his back spoke. His wings fluttered gently and the runes on it didn't lite up, but it gave people a terrifying feeling. It was as though once the runes lit up, an overwhelming amount of force would be unleashed.

"There will definitely be even more experts coming here in the future. Given the strength of our group now, if we cannot even gain any benefits when we venture in, it would be useless even if more experts joined us." A young man spoke. Although he was a male, he was incredibly handsome and gave off a bizarre sense of beauty that many females were inferior to. He was definitely what people would call a pretty boy.

"You are worried that your good fortune would be snatched by others, right?" A cold voice rang out. The person who spoke radiated a sense of sharpness. By casually standing there, he projected a lonely yet arrogant aura, as though it was lonely at the very peak with no one being able to be a match for him. The center of his brows had a vertical rune that appeared to be a strange line, brimming with an unusual feeling. It would squirm and wriggle occasionally. It seemed to be able to open up, revealing an eye.

The experts here then headed forward with the experts from the Heavenly Deity Race leading the way. In an instant, countless experts followed after them, preparing to enter the gate together. It seemed as though they were willing to be the followers of these experts from the Heavenly Deity Race.

For the various Heavenly Deity Races that came from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, all of them had terrifying influence and authority. And the experts here naturally would follow the orders of the Heavenly Deity Race from the particular region they came from. Right now, they already knew how dangerous Azure Ancient Mystic was. If they followed behind these people, things would undoubtedly be safer. If they encountered something which these heaven deity race's experts couldn't deal with, all of them would die.

The experts in the various directions all surged forward, entering the gate in the forbidden grounds. With the experts from the Heavenly Deity Race leading the way, countless people were more than willing to follow behind them. All of them stepped through the gate and was teleported to the ancient battleground.

To Qin Wentian, the place beyond the gate was also an unknown place to him. But he knew that these people would surely know about some secrets. That crazy old freak whom he met here before had been staying in the forbidden grounds for an unknown amount of time. It was impossible for him not to know of the secrets within. In addition, Qin Wentian suspected that if it wasn't because of the old freak's departure, no one would be able to find this gate in the forbidden grounds at all. Even for empyreans from the Heavenly Deity Race, they wouldn't be able to do so.

The experts all rushed in, and all of them finally entered. Qin Wentian stood for long moments on the ancient peak, quietly watching everything. Eventually, he stepped out and move towards that direction. He stepped through the gate and vanished from sight, reappearing in the other world beyond the gate.

This dusky sky and black-colored sun with nine black spheres shining with a mysterious light that revolved around it gave everyone here an overwhelming sense of pressure.

"Is this the battlefield of the dusk of gods in Ancient Azure Mystic?" Qin Wentian inclined his head and silently mused. Even the light from the sun was black. The atmosphere here was sinister and gloomy, as expected of the dreary atmosphere of a world after an apocalypse. How terrifying exactly was that world-ending battle? Everything in the world had been buried, even the sun turned black...

Chapter 1717: Powerful

The various experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms moved forward. They were also enveloped by the gloomy and sinister atmosphere, but their hearts were filled with feverish excitement and anticipation.

This place was truly the ancient battlefield recorded in their ancient scrolls. Especially so for the descendants of the heavenly deities, they had the clearest records about the world-ending battle in Ancient Azure Mystic. The things they knew far surpassed the others here. Many heaven-defying characters had died in the battle then and were buried here, including many heavenly deities from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

In that case, those tyrannically powerful weapons used by the heavenly deities were also buried here in the ancient battlefield as well. The corpse of an ancient heavenly deity by itself was a heaven-defying treasure, let alone countless experts who had origins as strong as the heavenly deities that were also buried here. What treasures would they be able to obtain from here? Just thinking about it caused all the experts here to be filled with excitement.

Everything was simply unfathomable. If they could obtain a godly inheritance or godly treasures from this ancient battlefield, that would truly be a bout of good fortune. Even if they couldn't use it, they would pass it back to their clans. There are simply too many experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Everyone naturally hoped that their clan or sect would be able to stand at the very peak. However, given how vast the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was, how many of those Ancient Godly Races and Clans were truly able to stand at the peak, staring down imperiously at all others?

The sound of space being broken rang out. The experts started to explore this desolate world of the ancient battleground. Everything was withered, there was no lifeforce at all and the gloomy atmosphere caused all of them to feel despair. There were zombies that appeared in their immortal senses when they scanned but these zombies were all extremely quiet, busy doing their own things. It seems that their actions had been repeated in the same cycle for millions of years. They had no way to think, they only had an undying obsession from when they arrived.

There were also powerful zombies who saw this large batch of experts appearing. Their vacant eyes glanced at the sky as a fearsome killing intent flared within. The zombies then soared up and began rushing towards the experts.

"KILL, KILL, KILL!" Things were the same as what those who came in earlier to probe the way experienced. All the zombies began to rush at them, they didn't fear death since they were already dead.

"Hmph." That expert with a vertical line in the center of his brows directly activated his third eye. The slit at the center of his brows opened up as a devastating beam of light blasted forth, cleaving everything apart. With a slicing sound, a zombie rushing towards him was split in twain. However, the zombie's movements didn't stop. His body that was split apart didn't feel pain and the two halves continued rushing forward. The scene of this caused countless experts here to tremble in fear. These zombies feared nothing? They were even more terrifying compared to empyreans. How do they kill something that's already dead?

That expert snorted coldly. The light from his third eye grew even brighter, directly enveloping the two halves of the zombie. Popping sounds echoed out as the zombie's two halves crumbled into dust before dissipating with the wind. There weren't any people that couldn't be killed, it was the same for zombies as well. As long as the person doing the killing was strong enough.

The other empyreans acted too. The empyrean with the naturally-born wings was extremely powerful. With a gentle flap of his wings, his body suddenly disappeared as a million phantoms of himself could be seen. With another flap, the force of a million wings slashed out, shredding the zombies into dust. He quietly floated in the air, standing calmly at his original location as though he hadn't made any moves.

"They can kill empyreans with a lift of their hands." Qin Wentian glanced at the two experts from the Heavenly Deity Race. He could tell that these zombies all had an empyrean-ranked cultivation and could be said to be undying. But even so, they were easily slaughtered by the two from the Heavenly Deity Race. Seems like ordinary empyreans wouldn't be able to last a single strike against them. They, who were from the Heavenly Deity Race, would naturally be superior to everyone else.

Very swiftly, the roars of "KILL, KILL, KILL!" went silent. Those empyreans killed all the zombies, grinding them into dust.

"Go!"

The group of them continued heading forward. On their journey, there were endless waves of zombies soaring up into the air, lunging at them but these zombies were easily destroyed by this 'army' from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Just those empyreans from the Heavenly Deity Race were enough to ensure that no zombies could block their path. At the very least, zombies at the empyrean realm weren't able to do so. They couldn't even serve as obstacles.

At this moment, the experts came to a desolate mountain range. A primordial feeling of utter devastation could be felt from within it. This mountain range was incomparably vast, it was unknown how deep the depths are. The experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms remained unmoved and directly entered. How would they feel fear now? They were prepared to travel together and seek out secrets from the world-ending battlefield as well as bouts of good fortune.

In one of the ruins situated inside the mountain range, a figure suddenly appeared, blocking their advance. Nobody could clearly see how this figure appeared. It felt like he was right here from the start. Not only that, their immortal senses failed to register the presence of this man when they used it to scan the area earlier.

After that, more and more figures appeared. These people all had tattered robes, and some of them had clear physical defects, broken limbs, or were only left with half a face. Their expressions were all terrifying and malevolent. What made the hearts of the experts tremble the most was that there was a female who had a countenance so beautiful that the flowers were shamed. From her head to her toe, a ghastly bloody wound could be seen, it was an extremely shocking sight. Nobody dared to stare at her for too long.

"Seems like this group of people are from an ancient power those years ago in Ancient Azure Mystic and had died here. They still retained their obsessions in life, their longing for their sect made them unable to depart. What deep emotions." An empyrean spoke in a low voice. However, how could these transcendent figures from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms allow anyone to block their way? No one was qualified enough to block them.

Wang Yi took out that terrifying bell and with a wave of his hand, that giant bell flew forward as it expanded in size. Devastating bolts of lightning blasted out from it, covering the entire sky. The sounds of bell chimes rang out, akin to the summoning of death. Several zombies instantly shattered from the attacks, their bodies crumbling into dust.

"Since you all are already dead, why must you hold on to your obsessions so deeply? You should all leave since your time is up." An extraordinary figure from the Heavenly Deity Race had a fearsome phenomenom behind him. Beams of light powered by the Great Dao shot forth, causing all the zombies that came into contact with the light to disintegrate. The empyreans from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms then continued on their way after finishing off the zombies here.

"Puchi…" At this moment, an incomparable beam of killing light suddenly appeared from the void. In an instant, several empyreans from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were killed before they had a chance to do anything. The other experts all stared in shock at those who died as their expressions drastically changed. There was an intense wariness in their eyes.

"Chi~chi~..." More and more beams of light shot out without warning. Another group of experts were slashed apart despite them being on guard. The other survivors all retreated with explosive speed but the swishing sounds rang out unceasingly as more and more experts were killed. The remaining experts glanced at the direction of the attack. The beams of light shimmered in and out of existence, travelling through the void. No one seemed to be able to block it.

"BOOM!"

A loud bell chime suddenly rang out in the air. Wang Yi descended on the ground, standing on the giant bell. However, after the bell landed, a deafening boom rang out as an immense force collided with it, knocking the giant bell back a vast distance away. After that, a figure appeared in the vision of everyone. This man only had half a face left and exuded a malevolent air. His back was facing everyone, and was also giving off a sense of loneliness.

Terror filled the hearts of everyone. They understood that the attacks were filled with power of the world overlord realm. In life, this zombie must have been a world overlord existence.

"Since you've already died, you should be on your way. Senior, why must you persist on?" Wang Yi spoke. However, as the sound of his voice faded, the zombie had already disappeared. Terrifying golden light shone from Wang Yi's eyes as a golden slaughter domain manifested around him. The ancient bell he stood on further amplified the might of the domain, the power he exuded seemed capable of crushing everything.

At this moment, everyone finally saw the beams of killing light earlier clearly. Inside the golden domain, the movements of the zombie was slowed and became extremely clear. The killing beams of light were the world overlord zombie itself. He silently traveled through the void, effortlessly killing the empyreans earlier.

"Reveal yourself!" Wang Yi shouted. The ancient bell shot out light of the Great Dao, expanding the domain. The golden light enveloped everything, locking down on this area. Even if one entered the void inside the area of the golden domain, they won't be able to evade the killing attacks from the ancient bell. Beams of light radiated forth from the bell, aiming for the zombie and thunderous sounds echoed unceasingly. Moments later, the ancient bells trembled violently, causing its chimes to fill the air. With an explosive bang, Wang Yi groaned in pain, seemingly unable to endure any longer. If this continued, although his ancient bell was immensely powerful, his body wouldn't be able to take it and would be injured from the impact of the clashes.

"Why are the rest of you still not acting yet?" Wang Yi roared. The ancient bell was forced back several paces as he coughed out blood. He knew that if he fumbled here, that figure would definitely kill him. Wang Yi's expression was ice cold. The golden light from his eyes enveloped the area as two beams of sword light manifested, transforming into heaven sundering swords, wanting to tear his opponent apart. However, the following impact only served to worsen his injuries. Now, even his golden eyes were bleeding.

At this moment, a white-robed expert from the Heavenly Deity Race took out a white feathered fan. He waved it towards the zombie as a fearsome netherfrost energy covered the area, wanting to seal everything with ice. The body of the zombie was instantly covered by layers of frost.

The Heavenly Deity Race's winged expert flapped his wings as he vanished from sight. In the next moment, he appeared in front of the zombie. Millions of phantoms appeared as a silver spear manifested in the hands of each phantom, stabbing forth repeatedly, tearing apart space. The body of the zombie was filled with countless holes, but he didn't seem to feel anything. He took a step forward and disappeared from sight. In the next moment, he was behind that winged expert as he launched an attack. That winged expert felt a great shock in his heart. His wings wrapped around him, radiating boundless light that covered him protectively. After that, a thunderous boom rang out as his body was flung through the air. Tears and holes could now be seen on the once magnificent wings of that expert.

The runes on the wings activated, sending out energy to heal the wings. The wings gradually recovered but the zombie had already vanished.

"These empyreans from the Heavenly Deity Races actually had enough power to kill world overlords based on their divine weapons or bloodlines." Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed. However, the world overlord zombie gave him a much weaker feeling when he compared it to the Lifelong Realmlord. It only seemed to be extremely powerful because it didn't fear death. In truth, it had already lost all its intelligence and wasn't able to unleash any intricate secret arts or innate techniques it had mastered in life!

Chapter 1718: Heavenheart Mandate

Blood seeped from the corners of Wang Yi's mouth. His eyes gleamed sharply, as expected of the battlefield of the dusk of gods. They encountered a world overlord zombie so quickly. If that zombie had intelligence, it probably wouldn't be so easy to deal with him.

The world overlord realm meant that one's comprehension of laws must reach a point where they can cause a world heart to materialize, manifesting their Heavenheart Mandate. Their strength was undoubtedly extremely terrifying.

Heavenheart Mandate can also be known as heaven's will. It truly represented the fact that those who comprehended a Heavenheart Mandate had surpassed the empyrean realm and the words 'my will is heaven will,' is the epitome of Heavenheart Mandates.

However, since they traversed across immortal realms and came from so far away, how could these experts not be prepared? How would they retreat in the face of danger? Their powerful immortal sense continued scanning ahead, probing the boundless desolation. Over here, there seemed to be no end to the landscape, it was boundlessly vast. But they also understood that for a true supremely strong power, its territories were simply boundless. For their Heaven Deity Race they were from, this was precisely the case.

Although the word used was a 'race,' the territories they controlled were so large that it was more like a world. After developing for millions of years, how strong would they be now? And how many members of their race would they have? The number would be unimaginable, their population and territories they controlled would surely be extremely huge.

In addition, given how vast this landscape is, they all understood that it was highly possible that they might encounter bouts of good fortune here.

Many empyreans didn't feel too calm in their hearts. Even for those who had been in this realm for many years, it still was hard for them to maintain their calm in this gloomy atmosphere. This was especially so after that world overlord zombie appeared, several of the empyreans were already dead.

The group of experts continued ahead cautiously, all of them were extremely terrifying but they felt incomparably tiny and inconsequential in this stretch of desolation. Under the black sun, they advanced forward, travelling through the wilderness. From the vantage point of the sun, they seemed incredibly tiny, just like small particles slowly moving forward. However, at the center of this stretch of desolation, there were also a number of tiny figures spread around the area, standing there silently. It seemed that they had been standing still for a countless number of years.

At this moment, those silent figures seemed to have sensed something. Their blank eyes suddenly gleamed with a sinister killing intent. After that, their bodies started to move towards a direction.

"Stop." Almost at the same time, those empyreans from the Heavenly Deity Race raised their hands and spoke. They felt a sense of unease, as though they just entered a location of ambush. The sense of unease kept growing stronger the more they proceeded forward.

At this moment, a silhouette flickered and appeared in their vision silently. This figure had wounds all over his body, there were holes everywhere and his eyes didn't have the luster of a living human. Clearly, this was also a zombie. Those who died during the world-ending battle back then in Ancient Azure Mystic, their souls didn't scatter despite their deaths. Could it be that the Imperishable Heaven Lord used some heaven-defying methods to transform them into zombies?

More and more zombies appeared in their vision, surrounding the empyreans who entered the ancient battlefield. Before these zombies acted, it was impossible to tell how strong they really were but the unease in the hearts of the empyreans had already reached a peak. At that time earlier, that world overlord zombie had also appeared before them silently.

What if all these zombies were world overlords? What terrible consequences would they face? They didn't dare to continue thinking about it.

Maybe, them wanting to seek out good fortune in the ancient battleground was nothing but a foolish dream with their empyrean cultivation bases.

"Puchi…" At this moment, the body of an empyrean was suddenly slashed into two. Even before that empyrean could react, his lower body was already split off. After that, boundless terror appeared on his face.

"NO!" A voice filled with misery howled. That empyrean was completely terrified. The others all started trembling when they saw the scene before them. In the next instant, even more empyreans were slashed apart silently and without warning. This entire space transformed into a world of slaughter, the empyreans inside were being torn apart.

"World overlord level...This must be the Skyrip Heavenheart Mandate, formed from the source origins of spatial laws and sword laws. It can directly rip holes in the sky, let alone the bodies of humans!" A person shouted. Evidently, there was a world overlord among the zombies who acted. He didn't say anything and directly attacked the invaders. This place was a place that they had to guard. Although they were no longer capable of thought, their obsessions from the past still remained. They would slaughter all invaders.

Heavenheart Mandate was equal to the will of the heavens, it had already exceeded the boundary of source origins and was a kind of transcendent energy, a brand new energy.

In the void, illusory flames appeared, directly shooting into the bodies of many empyreans. Many people let out screams from the burns and their bodies were instantly incinerated. Another zombie had acted, this zombie had also comprehended a Heavenheart Mandate when it was alive and was a world overlord character.

In the blink of an eye, screams of agony and pain filled the air as countless experts died one after the other. The countances of those experts from the Heavenly Deity Race all drastically changed.

"Young Master Wang, save me!" Someone begged, seeking help from the Heavenly Deity Race. If they didn't act, the other empyreans were like weeds waiting to be plucked out by the world overlord zombies, unable to withstand a single strike. The disparity in cultivation realms, how could they stand up to world overlords? So what even if they are empyreans?

Panic and terror permeated the atmosphere, all of this happened in the span of a few breaths of time and a third of the experts here had already died.

Before Wang Yi, the ancient bell radiated an incomparably resplendent light that enveloped him protectively, other energies weren't able to invade or corrode it. Wang Yi had his eyes closed, it was like he was in communication with the ancient bell. A moment later, a terrifying might gushed forth from the bell, followed by the bell chimes. With a thunderous boom, many people felt their souls shuddering. The ancient bell flew forward and its light directly enveloped one of the zombie world overlords.

"RUMBLE~" The ancient bell locked onto the zombie. That world overlord zombie took a step forward as the power of his Heavenheart Mandate erupted forth. Boundless tearing and ripping might slashed against the ancient bell, causing the bell chimes to intensify. However, the ancient bell didn't seem to be damaged at all. The light from it grew brighter and brighter, converging into a beam of light that sought to slaughter everything. The world overlord's movements were restricted, and at this moment, the power of a Heavenheart Mandate that didn't belong to Wang Yi erupted forth from the bell, directly tearing the zombie to shreds.

Not only was Wang Yi fighting, the other experts from the Heavenly Deity Race acted as well. They took out supreme divine weapons and unleashed unfathomable might. For a period of time, this stretch of desolation was filled with an aura of power so dreadful that many of the other surviving empyreans felt their hearts trembling.

Qin Wentian stood among the crowd. He naturally wouldn't be foolish enough to rush out alone at this moment as that would be courting death. These zombies wouldn't care who he was, or whether he was from Azure Mystic or the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. They only had a single thought in their minds, and that is to slaughter all invaders. Although his combat prowess was extraordinary, he wasn't confident enough to fight against world overlords. World overlords were existences on another level.

The higher one cultivated, the disparity between the cultivation realms would only grow greater and greater. The difference of a single step was equal to the distance between the heavens and earth. Everytime one took a step forward, that would be considered a huge improvement.

Let alone him, even those experts from the Heavenly Deity Race with their overlord-ranked divine weapons found it hard to contend against the world overlord zombies. Qin Wentian naturally saw it clearly, the power of those weapons were no longer something empyreans could control. It seemed that the weapons automatically activated, sending out waves of overlord-ranked might to deal with the zombies. Qin Wentian guessed that before these experts came here, the divine weapons they had were already modified by special techniques. There should be world overlords in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms controlling these weapons through a link, disregarding the vast distances through realms.

The foundations of the Heavenly Deity Race in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were simply too deep. No matter what sort of wondrous methods and techniques they had, it was nothing strange.

The ancient bell in Wang Yi's hand unleashed devastating levels of power, destroying everything, killing world overlord zombies or anything that dared to obstruct him.

Also, the white feathered fan waved about, sealing the area around it with frost. Those zombies that were frozen all shattered into pieces before they dissipated along with the wind. Clearly, this wasn't something source origins of empyreans could accomplish. The fan was also an overlord-ranked divine weapon, capable of unleashing the might of a Heavenheart Mandate.

As for that winged expert from the Heavenly Deity Race, a set of divine treasure in the form of wings appeared behind him, fusing together with his own wings. He also had a divine spear in his hands. With a flap of his wings, he appeared before a zombie and ran him through with the spear, tearing the zombie into pieces. Several zombies then died beneath the power of his wings and spear.

These experts from the Heavenly Deity Race truly went all out now.

A destructive great battle instantly erupted. Qin Wentian, who was in the crowd, evaded the zombies left and right. Around him, many empyreans died one after the other, but the number of zombies were dwindling as well. After some time, the zombies were completely annihilated, but only 50% of the empyreans had survived. This was a truly terrifying death rate.

"What sort of place is this exactly?" Wang Yi's expression grew extremely unsightly. Although they vanquished the enemies, he felt a heavy sense of defeat. He who had always been extremely confident actually needed to borrow external forces to fight so quickly after they entered this ancient battlefield for such a short time. He couldn't depend on his own strength to fight and this made him extremely uncomfortable. This stretch of desolation might be the territories of a super power in the past that had many world overlords. From this, one could very well imagine how terrifying this super power was.

Although there was a sense of defeat in his heart, there was also anticipation. They continued to head into the depths of the mountain range, and all the zombies they encountered on their way, were all killed by them.

After several more days, they finally came to a location. When they saw the scene before their eyes, tidal waves of shock rose in their hearts.

Far away, in their vision, a number of diapliated ancient palaces could be seen, the majesticness of the place had already faded and had now become a ruin. There were a few astral stone pillars that still gleamed with light, but the light from them was clearly much dimmer now. On one of the pillars, a figure with only half a body stood there. He was clad in luxurious robes, like an absolute ruler from the skies. However, the sight of his half-body and the terrifying aura he exuded, filled the hearts of all the empyreans with shock.

What was even more terrifying is that in the air above the figure with the half body, another person could be seen floating quietly in the air. Gigantic wings could be seen behind his back, the light he radiated illuminated the surroundings and his wingspan blotted out the sky. His wings gave off a feeling of being one with the Great Dao!

This man, seemed to be a true heavenly deity!

Chapter 1719: Heavenly Deity Borrowing a Body

Staring at the figure floating in the air, many empyreans involuntarily turned their gazes to the winged expert from the Heavenly Deity Race. Although their wings couldn't be compared, there were many points of similarity. Both were wings of the Great Dao and had countless runes imprinted on them.

Could they be from the same clan?

The winged expert was from the Heavenly Deity Race from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. His particular clan was known as the Winged God Clan. Their wings were naturally born and they had the bloodlines of heavenly deities, granting them ancient inheritances from the wing gods. The heavenly deity bloodline manifested in the form of their wings which runes of the Great Dao were imprinted on them.

At this moment, the winged expert from the Heavenly Deity Race trembled, an emotional look appeared on his face, causing the eyes of everyone else to gleam sharply. Could the heavenly deity in the air truly be someone from his clan?

That floating figure was actually a true heavenly deity that had fought in that world-ending battle in Ancient Azure Mystic.

"Bzz~" A gust of raging wind kicked up. The expert of the Winged God Race's silhouettes flashed, soaring up into the air. His eyes were fixed on that existence in the air as he called out, "Yu Feifan, a descendant of the Winged God Race, pays my respects to ancestor."

After speaking, he spread his wings wide, blotting out the skies to show his identity as someone from the Winged God Race.

"It has been so many years, have the people from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms finally found this place?" The floating figure spoke. He actually still had his intelligence and consciousness, and wasn't a zombie. This caused countless people to be filled with fear. The winged expert had an emotional look on his face, this was one of his ancestors, an existence at the heavenly deity level. To think that he was actually still alive.

"Come over here." That floating figure spoke to Yu Feifan, his tone containing an imperiousness in it that disregarded everything in the world. Although Yu Feifan was an empyrean, he felt no trace of disobedience in his heart. After all, the person speaking to him was a true heavenly deity!

Yu Feifan's silhouette flashed as he flew towards the heavenly deity in the air. A look of excitement could be seen on his face. Heavenly deity, he actually really encountered one of his ancestors here. Before he came, he naturally did have some hopes for it, but he didn't expect that it would really become a reality.

"Have you see it yet? Since the experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have descended here, the sealed Azure Mystic's ancient battlefield would be open to all again. Everything here will reappear to the masses. He isn't able to seal this world away, everything in Ancient Azure Mystic will be revealed and be brought away to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The secrets here will no longer belong to your Azure Mystic Immortal Realm. That person buried this world in order to protect Azure Mystic but so what of it? Didn't all his efforts eventually came to naught? The obsession you guys held in your hearts for so many years should just fade away into the void." The heavenly deity spoke, his ancient-sounding voice sounded as though it came from the primordial era.

Although the ancient records of some of the superpowers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms had detailed information about that world-ending battle, it was impossible for them to know everything. All the secrets were sealed together with this ancient battlefield and buried here. Only now did Ancient Azure Mystic reappear in this world.

"The things you heavenly deities from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms failed to do back then, will also not succeed now." The ruler with half a body below him spoke. It felt like it has been too long since he last spoke, his voice was extremely hoarse and filled with the vicissitudes of time but even so, an aura of absolute dominance could be felt from him.

"Hahaha…" That heavenly deity laughed. "Are you blind? Didn't you see these empyreans from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms here? I will borrow the body of my descendant and destroy everything, delivering all the tortured souls here from their sufferings."

As he spoke, a brilliant light landed on Yu Feifan from the Winged God Race. A terrifying will bore down on him, burrowing into the center of his brows. A holy light that radiated forth as Yu Feifan's demeanor and aura changed completely. The heavenly deity in the air disappeared, and seemed to be fusing with Yu Feifan.

"Not a living human." This scene caused everyone else to instantly understand. That heavenly deity was not a living creature. He had to borrow the strength of his descendant before he could fight, and the spirit projection of himself in the air had already faded, entering Yu Feifan's body.

"Those zombies, so what even if they are given a second life? Who can stop me?" A tyrannical voice rang out from Yu Feifan, it was as though Yu Feifan was no longer in control of himself. The control of his body had been given to his ancestor, an existence at the heavenly deity level.

"Is anyone among you from Azure Mystic?" At this moment, the powerful ruler with half a body spoke. His voice seemed to originate from the void, it wasn't issued through his mouth. Clearly, he was also different from the zombies, he had his intelligence and consciousness remaining.

The various empyreans stared at him but no one spoke. All of them were from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Qin Wentian was the only one from Azure Mystic.

Right now, Qin Wentian was hesitating. The will of these powerful characters could control others completely? He had no wish to be controlled by others. If he was controlled, would he still be him?

"He is the same as me, we have both already died but a strand of our wills didn't dissipate. Our bodies were already destroyed or a state of extreme decay, it's impossible for us to seize bodies unless the host willingly agrees to it. Only then, can we use the power of others to fight." The ruler with half a body continued to speak.

"Stop living in a fantasy, Ancient Azure Mystic is already destroyed. Since the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have already discovered this place, this means that everything will soon be concluded. I will completely annihilate Azure Mystic and let it disappear completely." The heavenly deity from the Winged God Race spoke, his tone incomparably tyrannical. He was adjusting himself to Yu Feifan's body. Yu Feifan's aura had now completely changed, and this caused the other experts from the Heavenly Deity Race to be filled with envy. This was a heavenly deity ancestor, they also wished to meet with the ancestors of their respective clans and offer their bodies for their usage. By doing so, they would gain great comprehension of laws. The ruler with half a body had already spoke, it was impossible for them who only had a strand of their will left to forcibly seize their bodies.

"Seems like my time has reached the end. But even I die, Azure Mystic's hope will never be extinguished!" That ruler sighed, his voice filled with endless regrets.

"Senior, I'm someone from Azure Mystic." Only to see that at this moment, Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed as he walked out from the crowd, coming to the front of the ruler who only had half a body left. He initially was still hesitant but the words spoken by that winged expert had irritated him. Since those heavenly deities were buried here, they would definitely feel great hatred for Azure Mystic. If the other party exited this place successfully, it was very possible that the entirety of Azure Mystic might truly be annihilated. He had to stop this no matter what. Hence, he no longer hesitated.

"Mhm?" Yu Feifan glanced at Qin Wentian with a sharp expression. Right now, he was already completely controlled by the heavenly deity.

The ruler with half a body glanced at Qin Wentian as well as he asked, "In this place, you are the only one from Azure Mystic?"

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. "Azure Mystic has been sealed for countless years and it was only recently that the restriction order on it has been relaxed. After that, several experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms came by to search for the entrance to the ancient battlefield and they finally succeeded. Everyone else here is from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms."

"Then, what are you doing here?"

"I'm from Azure Mystic, but I went to cultivate in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. But because of great changes here, I decided to unify Azure Mystic after I came back. I'm now Azure Mystic's overlord and only knew about the world-ending battle from some ancient records recently. I came in because I wanted to find out the secrets of Ancient Azure Mystic." Qin Wentian replied. That ruler glanced at him. To think that this young man was the current overlord of Azure Mystic.

"Alright. I'll borrow your body for awhile, don't resist my will." That person spoke. Qin Wentian nodded and stepped forward.

After that, a powerful will entered Qin Wentian's mind and very soon after, Qin Wentian felt a mystical energy revolving within him. His own will was still present. Just like what the other party had said, it was impossible for them to seize the body forcibly.

"My will has integrated with yours. I need to sense the laws you are familiar with. Do your best to cooperate with me. The heavenly deity is controlling a descendent from the same clan, there will naturally be no problems with compatibility. But if we are defeated, you would be in danger." That expert directly communicated with Qin Wentian with a single thought.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian replied. Seems like he had to reveal his laws and powers to the ruler with the half body. But as an ancient that was already dead, the ruler with a half body most probably wouldn't leak such information to others. The ruler was a heavenly deity existence after all.

His will fused together with the ruler's will and he guided the ruler to be familiarized with his own powers. Very swiftly, Qin Wentian's aura was changing as well. His eyes gleamed with an incomparably terrifying light.

"Are you really someone from Azure Mystic? You do not originate from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?" After sensing Qin Wentian's powers, the ruler didn't seem to believe Qin Wentian's words.

Qin Wentian didn't say anything more, he directly sent some memories over for the ruler to view, including how he became the overlord of Azure Mystic and how he fought against the empyreans from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"For the following battle, the power I use might exceed the limitations your body can bear. Don't resist it or I would find it hard to control." The ruler continued speaking, Qin Wentian nodded his head. He also wanted to see how much power would erupt forth if a heavenly deity was controlling his body in a battle. Would it allow him to temporarily rise up in cultivation realms? Most probably it would be so, right?

At this moment, resplendent light shone as Yu Feifan's eyes opened. His wings spread out wide, as might from the Great Dao radiated forth. His eyes were tyrannical and sharp, he disappeared all of a sudden with a single flap of his wings and in the next instant, Qin Wentian only felt himself being enveloped by runes of the Great Dao that were blasting destructive energy at him. This caused him to feel a sense of helplessness, could empyreans really unleash such powers?

However in the next instant, the energy in his body automatically circulated. He wasn't controlling it. His figure vanished in the air completely from this heaven and earth, a true vanishment. This feeling felt extremely mystical, despite the boundless waves of destructive energy blasting at him, they were unable to reach him. It was like he was in a completely separate space.

"Is this a power only world overlords can control?" Qin Wentian silently mused. He was rapidly gaining insights, although he wasn't the one controlling his body, the experience would be retained in his mind and would prove to be of great benefit to his future cultivation, pointing out a direction for him.

With a single thought, the ruler created a temporary Heavenheart Mandate by fusing Qin Wentian's source origins. This Heavenheart Mandate didn't truly belong to Qin Wentian, but such might truly could shake the sky.

Because, the person controlling his body was a heavenly deity!

Chapter 1720: Finally, You are Here

Qin Wentian suddenly thought about the Heavenly Talisman Realm in Azure Mystic. The separate dimension they were in seemed to be similar to this. This, was a power only world overlords could use, the power of a Heavenheart Mandate.

Naturally, Qin Wentian understood this wasn't a power that was comprehended by him, he could only unleash such levels of might due to this supremely strong heavenly deity borrowing his body, This was temporary and not real, it wasn't a true Heavenheart Mandate. After all, he hasn't materialized his world heart yet. But even so, the might radiating forth from him was extremely terrifying.

However, the heavenly deity from the Winged God Race wasn't any ordinary character as well. He was also once a heavenly deity. His wings slashed out runes of the Great Dao, causing boundless slaughter energy to slash through space, tearing everything asunder. Even the void was cleaved apart, there was no way to block it.

But at this instant, Qin Wentian's body suddenly erupted forth with a brilliant glow. This wasn't purely from the laws of light. The light then transformed into a million streams. Each stream contained terrifying destructive powers and everywhere they passed by, everything was destroyed. The other empyreans hurriedly retreated with explosive speed. The shockwaves generated from a battle between heavenly gods were more than sufficient to claim their lives the moment they came into contact with it.

Yu Feifan spread his wings. A howl of anger shook heaven and earth as he unleashed a dao art capable of slaughtering everything. A ray of light converged before him, transformed into the sharpest weapon on earth as it slashed past the streams of light, aiming for Qin Wentian's body.

"Winged God Slash!" This was a supremely powerful innate technique of the winged god race, capable of lacerating everything, including the void. Large swaths of destruction marked the areas which it passed, everything turned into dust. It could destroy Qin Wentian's body in an instant.

"Bzz~" The area around Qin Wentian transformed into a transcendent sword domain, resembling a heaven annihilation sword formation, protecting his body at the center. Tens of millions of swords launched out, the boundless energy in the air transformed into his sword intent, revolving wildly around him. However, his opponent's attack continued forward. The sword intent in the area surged up in response, manifesting a shield of light containing the boundless might of the Great Dao. When the Winged God Slash blasted into it, the attack was stopped for a moment. When the attack continued pressing down with great momentum, Qin Wentian's figure had already vanished completely.

"Bzz~" His opponent turned into a beam of light and shot forth, so fast that Qin Wentian couldn't track his opponent's movements with his eyes. He only felt somewhat dizzy and extremely fatigued. It was very tough to adapt to using such strong powers in battle. He gradually felt his consciousness blurring, he only felt his body moving at incredible speed and some impact from the hurried clashes.

As for the spectators, they were all dumbfounded as they watched the battle. The two heavenly deities battled in the air, to the ground, into the void, and tearing holes through space, teleporting faraway. Rays of light unceasingly radiated, the empyreans found it hard to even see the actions of the two combatants clearly. They were simply too quick, so quick that it was almost unimaginable. Let alone their vision, even their immortal senses weren't able to track the movements. The winged heavenly deity was proficient in quick attacks, he also had boundless might. Yu Feifan continued launching attacks without ceasing. It seemed that he wouldn't stop until his opponent was killed.

"You don't have any law fusion techniques and your laws are not suitable for me. Our opponent is the complete opposite, that heavenly deity's compatibility with his descendant is almost perfect. Do you know of any unique techniques or methods? I need them." A voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. At this moment, Qin Wentian couldn't care too much any longer and sent many memories to the consciousness of the other party. Right now, he already believed that this heavenly deity was already dead, only a strand of his will existed. There was also no need to worry that the heavenly deity would leak anything and let alone the fact that his life might be in danger.

His opponent was a heavenly deity, a heavenly deity that had almost perfect compatibility with his descendant.

"BOOM!" A terrifying attack blasted into Qin Wentian, almost opening up a hole in it. A terrifying wound appeared, and Qin Wentian's vision dimmed. He felt extremely puzzled and an intense pain could be felt from the wound.

"What's going on?" He felt his body slowing down. He glanced at his body on the verge of collapse, not understanding what happened earlier. Why was he struck by that attack and almost killed?

"I understand now." However at this moment, an ancient-sounding sigh rang out in his mind.

"Careful!" Qin Wentian warned silently, he could see a beam of light shooting towards him. His opponent naturally wouldn't wait and directly rushed over. The giant wings blotted out the sky, transforming into a slaughter energy that could exterminate everything, cleaving down from the heavens, wanting to split Qin Wentian's body apart.

"Come." That ancient-sounding voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind again. After that, he felt his body enduring the destructive attack from his opponent but now, he had already become a gigantic ancient tree that towered up to the sky. The tree glowed with a holy light, the Winged God Slash threatened to split the tree into two but in this moment, a tyrannical attacking technique with both physical and soul-based aspects directly surged into the wings of his opponent at the moment of contact.

With a thunderous bang, his opponent was flung away. In the next instant, a terrible energy invaded Yu Feifan's body and began wrecking it from inside out. Yu Feifan's soul shrivelled as despair and terror appeared on his face.

"ARGHH!" A scream of pain echoed. Yu Feifan's body was riddled by wounds. His blood splashed through the air as he was directly killed.

Qin Wentian felt on the verge of losing consciousness, he was extremely dizzy as his heart pulsed rapidly. Success, he had managed to kill his opponent. His body was quickly recovering, returning to his normal state as though he was never injured at all. Such recovery strength made him silently sigh in admiration. He knew he wasn't able to do this.

"How can this be?" An ethereal voice rang out as the spiritual projection of the winged heavenly deity appeared once again. He borrowed the body of his descendant and although it cannot be said that that was a perfect fusion, there was no doubt that it was extremely compatible. He could unleash immense might and this wasn't something the ruler could match by borrowing Qin Wentian's body. But, he was actually defeated.

An empyrean from the Winged God Race wouldn't lose to Qin Wentian. In that case, did it mean that he, who was controlling Yu Feifan's body, had lost to the ruler controlling Qin Wentian's body?

"Are you really someone from Azure Mystic?" That heavenly deity stared at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's expression flickered, yet an aged voice rang out from him, "There's no injustice in your defeat."

The ruler understood the thoughts of the winged heavenly deity, he knew that his opponent was thinking about why was he defeated. Yet, he knew that his opponent's defeat was a rightful one. This wasn't his victory, it was just the difference between the two bodies they borrowed. Even if Yu Feifan is a descendant of a heavenly deity, his potential is far from comparable to Qin Wentian.

Also, the ancient prophecy would soon be fulfilled. There's truly no injustice in his opponent's defeat.

"Why is this so? Can it be that he is stronger than a descendant from my Winged God Race?" The winged heavenly deity spoke in an imposing voice filled with reluctance. Someone from Azure Mystic...so what if that person is the overlord of Azure Mystic? Ancient Azure Mystic was destroyed long ago and the Heavenly Deity Race from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would seize everything. If they succeeded, everything will turn into dust, those guardians here would turn into nothingness as well.

"You still don't understand. You will never understand." An aged voice rang out from Qin Wentian's mouth. "I once said before that Azure Mystic will forever be Azure Mystic. Those things that you guys failed to achieve back then, will similarly still fail in the future. The battle between us today is the verification of everything, and is also the start of a new beginning. History will not be changed."

"Hahaha, foolish. Back then, he buried this entire world but did he really think that that could stop the Heavenly Deity Race in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms from continuing with their plans? He made those who died return to life as zombies, what was he waiting for? Just like what you said, history won't be changed. Azure Mystic would eventually still be destroyed. This is something that's definite." The winged heavenly deity spoke arrogantly. He was buried here and his hatred for that person seeped deep into his bones. He also held great hatred for Azure Mystic.

He guessed that that person buried Azure Mystic and returned the dead to life because he wanted to use them as guardians to protect these ruins. However, could they really protect it? Right now, the experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have already found this place.

"Time will prove everything. The Imperishable Heaven Lord will still continue to protect this place. His body, his flesh and blood, has already fused into the land itself. He will protect it forever, undying and imperishable for all eternity." The aged voice from Qin Wentian sounded extremely solemn, filled with the most intense conviction and faith in the world. They fully believed in the Imperishable Heaven Lord, he was the heaven lord that led them in that ancient world-ending battle.

"However, you won't be able to see any of that happening. You will return to dust today." The aged voice echoed out again. After that, a formless energy attack blasted through the air, slamming into the spiritual projection formed by the strand of will. A thunderous explosion actually occurred. The other party howled in rage, "I'M UNWILLING!"

"BOOM!"

When the formless energy dissipated, the strand of will belonging to the winged heavenly deity was already destroyed. It completely vanished from the world, and would never exist again.

Despite the passage of countless years, he didn't fade away because he wanted to see the future of Ancient Azure Mystic and waited for a chance to return to life. But now, he had truly became a spectator of the new beginning. Sadly, he was mistaken, what awaited him wasn't the promise of a new life. It was destruction.

"Senior…" Right now, Qin Wentian felt extremely weak. His entire person was about to collapse from fatigue, this was simply too unbearable. His body unleashed power of a level far from what he could endure, far surpassing his limits. If it wasn't for the fact that his body was sturdy enough, he might have already died.

"Mhm." The other party replied. An illusory figure appeared, it was the ruler's strand of will and it now began to leave Qin Wentian's body. The ruler's face was marked by the vicissitudes of time, he had survived despite the passage of countless millennia. His gaze that was staring at Qin Wentian, was filled with warmth as though he was extremely happy, like he was looking upon a junior of his own clan.

"Finally, you are here." The words he spoke caused Qin Wentian to be stunned. He inclined his head and stared at the ruler as a bright light gleamed in his eyes.

Chapter 1721: The Heaven Lord’s Inheritances

The experts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms gathered together. They could no longer see the battle between Yu Feifan and Qin Wentian. The two of them were being controlled by heavenly deities and their battle spanned across the boundless space and had long vanished from their sight.

They had no way to predict who would be the winner of that battle. In the sky an extremely far distance away, resplendent light was illuminating the area but now, everything suddenly dimmed. The battle between the heavenly deities must have concluded. Although they were borrowing the bodies of empyreans to fight, given the strength of their will, the power they unleashed would naturally be far more shocking.

"Yu Feifan is an expert from the Winged God Race, since he met his ancestor here, they would definitely be the ones victorious." Another expert from the Heavenly Deity Race spoke with confidence. They naturally hoped Yu Feifan was the victor. From the conversations between the two heavenly deities earlier, they could tell that the heavenly deities from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have a very deep hatred with the heavenly deities of Ancient Azure Mystic. In fact, they even felt somewhat jealous of Yu Feifan's luck at being able to meet one of his ancestors.

Because, it would only serve to be of benefit to their future plans. In addition, they didn't want to think about the fact that a heavenly deity of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would lose when borrowing the body of his descendant to fight. After all, these empyreans were all a part of the Heavenly Deity Race.

"Let's go." A person spoke. They seemed to have forgotten the tragic experiences they faced earlier. Right now, there was only anticipation in their hearts. They also hoped they would be able to meet their ancestors here. It was true that some ancestor-level characters that were heavenly deities did participate in the world-ending battle here in Ancient Azure Mystic. These empyreans were sent here because they are one of the most proactive batches.

A person took out his messaging crystal and sent the news back to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. The news about the appearance of two heavenly deities circulated around rapidly. If Qin Wentian knew of this, he would definitely be even more worried. Most probably, the world of Azure Mystic would find it hard to be peaceful any longer.

At this moment, Qin Wentian was in a dazed state. He stared at the heavenly god in front of him. 'Finally, you are here?'

Although his talent was extraordinary, and it can be said with no exaggeration that his potential is at an extreme peak, but in front of a heavenly deity, an empyrean was simply too weak and inconsequential, nothing more but an insignificant being. A heavenly deity was here for millions of years just to wait for him? This sounded unbelievable. Also, it was clear that this person wasn't acquainted with him at all. What did he mean by that?

"Senior, what do you mean by that?" Qin Wentian asked.

"You are the Overlord of Azure Mystic currently?" The heavenly deity didn't reply him, asking him another question instead.

"Yes. Senior, you have seen my memories. Azure Mystic was in a period of great chaos and in order to restore peace, I decided to unify it. However, I won't stay behind in Azure Mystic. In the future, I'll head towards the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms for cultivation. If not, my cultivation base would reach a bottleneck, unable to advance further." Qin Wentian spoke truthfully.

"Mhm." That heavenly deity nodded. "Countless years ago, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms started a war against Azure Mystic. The various heavenly deities there all descended here, launching attacks, the fires of war sweeping across Azure Mystic as they sought to steal away all divine depositories here, wanting Azure Mystic to submit to them, completely accepting the rule of those from the Heavenly Deity Race. This was why the world-ending battle occured. The skies were torn asunder as Azure Mystic was razed to the flat ground. If it wasn't for the heaven-defying methods of the Heaven Lord. I'm afraid not even the current Azure Mystic as you know it would exist.

Waves of shock rose in Qin Wentian's heart. Although he only heard this, he could still sense how brutal the world-ending battle that unfolded on a magnificent scale was. It was simply unimaginable how terrifying that battle was. How tyrannical were those heavenly deities? They wanted to seize all the divine depositories of Azure Mystic, making Azure Mystic submit to them.

However, they themselves didn't realize what would happen. Azure Mystic actually resisted them and wasn't willing to submit.

"I'm telling you this not because I want you to view the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms with hatred. Life is like this, when one reaches a supremely lofty position, how would they stand for the disobedience of others? They naturally wish to dominate everything and become the king and seek to become even stronger by seizing the divine depositories. To those existences that already stand at the peak, they only wanted to transcend everything, no one was allowed to threaten their authority." That heaven deity continued. Qin Wentian nodded his head, maybe he didn't have any such feelings now, but for those who truly stood at the very peak, things were different for them. They were already so high up, how would they be willing to see others surpassing them, replacing their positions? Could it be that they are not worried about being destroyed after they were surpassed?

The thirty three immortal realms are boundlessly vast but only a rare few super powers stood at the top. All of them hoped to stand at the highest level and since they don't wish to be overtaken by those powers below them, it was naturally impossible for them to remain peaceful and not fight wars to plunder resources.

"Back then, the Imperishable Heaven Lord was given the title of Heaven Lord, he stood at the supreme peak of Ancient Azure Mystic. However, he had never developed a sect or clan belonging to himself and he also didn't govern this world. The title given to him was a symbol of faith and conviction of Azure Mystic. All sorts of powers appeared then, developing smoothly. That was an incomparably glorious era or we wouldn't have been able to resist the invasion of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. How could people of an era like that be willing to submit to others? Azure Mystic didn't want to be a slave. Things are the same since ancient times and things would remain the same in the future. Since you are the current overlord of Azure Mystic, you should protect Azure Mystic and ensure that it is not destroyed." The obsession of the heavenly deity was extremely deep. Despite the passage of countless years, he still wanted to protect Azure Mystic.

"Junior will do my best. But it's just that if I'm forced by the general circumstances, I would have no choice as well, it's really too difficult for me to retaliate with my strength alone if the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realm's forces gathered. Just those descendants of the Heavenly Deity Race alone would be extremely tough to handle, given the fact that they all have treasures that can transmit the will of their elders." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Ai…" That person sighed, "I didn't expect the Azure Mystic today to be so weak."

"What is the current situation out there? Why do I only see empyreans, are there no world overlords?"

"After the world-ending battle, Azure Mystic was sealed. There's a mysterious existence that forbids experts from the other worlds to enter here. But now, the restriction order was relaxed, those who are empyreans and below can enter, which led to everything that happened now." Qin Wentian replied. He then stared at the other party and asked, "Senior, since there's someone who can seal Azure Mystic and poses a threat to the Heavenly Deity Race of the upper world, could it be that the Imperishable Heaven Lord is not dead yet? He still exists in this world?"

"Impossible. The Heaven Lord had entered eternal sleep, accompanying Azure Mystic, his flesh and blood are already a part of this world." That heavenly deity shook his head, his eyes filled with sorrow. How magnificent was the Heaven Lord then? If he still existed, how could Azure Mystic have fallen so low?

"Then, who is that mysterious existence?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Didn't you meet him before?" The heavenly deity smiled at Qin Wentian, his words causing Qin Wentian to have a bewildered look on his face. He met that existence before?

"You received his inheritance but you didn't know about it?"

A dazzling light flashed in Qin Wentian's eyes as he stared at that heavenly deity. His heart trembled, could it be that person…?

That crazy old freak was actually the person guarding Azure Mystic?

He had always stayed in the forbidden grounds, so it turned out that he was guarding the entrance to Ancient Azure Mystic?

"You remember now?" The heavenly deity spoke. Qin Wentian nodded, "Senior, you are referring to the Undying Scripture?"

"Yes. In this world, who else can have the Undying Scripture? Undying and imperishable, that is the cultivation art of the Imperishable Heaven Lord." The heavenly deity sighed as he continued, "The ancient prophecy has become reality. The sun and moon alternated, the skies of Azure Mystic changed. From now on, you will be the one to receive and continue on the will of the Imperishable Heaven Lord, guarding Azure Mystic from destruction."

"Me?" Qin Wentian was speechless. The Undying Scripture actually originated from the Imperishable Heaven Lord? Why did that old freak pass him the cultivation art of the Imperishable Heaven Lord so easily just like that? Wasn't that a little too casual?

"Did you not cultivate the Death Scripture before?" The other party asked.

Qin Wentian shook his head, "That old man passed the Death Scripture to a friend of mine. She cultivated the Death Scripture and is now in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms."

The eyes of that heavenly deity flickered with bewilderment as he continued, "In that case, summon her over. The zombies in the ancient battlefield will listen to all her commands and fight the invaders for you all. There's no need for you to fight alone anymore."

Qin Wentian started. The Death Scripture actually had such a miraculous effect?

When he thought of the methods of Beiming Youhuang those years ago, Qin Wentian suddenly understood. He frowned slightly, "Senior, her cultivation is slightly low, only at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm. Would things be too dangerous for her?"

"Since you are here, how can she not come? Seeing how worried you are, are you in love with her?" That heavenly deity laughed.

Black lines filled Qin Wentian's face. The heavenly deity studied his expression for a moment before he laughed, "Just summon her here, I will help her to break through the immortal emperor realm. There should be many places here in the ancient battlefield suitable for her cultivation."

Qin Wentian muttered to himself irresolutely before he nodded, "Alright."

After that, he took out his messaging crystal and sent a strand of his immortal sense in. "Youhuang, there are great changes in Azure Mystic. Did you receive any news?"

After he spoke, Qin Wentian stared at the heavenly deity before him only to see the heavenly deity smiling at him.

"Mhm, in the various regions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, news of this nature was being circulated, all of them talking about the world-ending battle between the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. The Lifelong Realmlord is now hesitating, he is wondering if he should summon the world palace lords and send them to Azure Mystic." At this moment, Beiming Youhuang's voice rang out in his mind. Qin Wentian could understand why the Lifelong Realmlord was hesitating. Given the situation now, the ruler of a realm wasn't considered a major character. If he sent his empyreans here, they might very well become nothing but cannon fodder.

"The changes to Azure Mystic has a connection with you and me. Someone wishes for you to come back." Qin Wentian spoke. Beiming Youhuang fell silent, after a few moments, she asked, "A connection with you and me?"

"Yes. The entrance leading to the ancient battlefield is in the forbidden grounds of your Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. The crazy old freak who taught us back then actually has a link to the Imperishable Heaven Lord and passed onto us his inheritances. Right now, there are many zombies in this ancient battlefield, I encountered the surviving strand of an ancient heavenly deity here and he told me that if you come here, these zombies would all be controlled by you, fighting for us." Qin Wentian explained. He then continued, "However, it's best that you consider things clearly before you decide to come or not."

Beiming Youhuang pondered, but a moment later, she replied, "I will do my best to come back."

"Mhm, alright." Qin Wentian nodded and kept his messaging crystal. The heavenly deity before him looked at him and asked, "Since you are titled the Heaven Empyrean of the current Azure Mystic, you should have many loyal immortal emperor subordinates, right? Bring them all here. I will do what I can to help them achieve a breakthrough. In the future, they can fight together with you!"

Chapter 1722: Youhuang's Return

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed sharply when he heard the words of the heavenly deity. The heavenly deity wanted him to summon all the immortal emperors under his command here?

Indeed, his subordinates and good friends are all people of Azure Mystic. If their strength increased, it was true that they would have the ability to better protect Azure Mystic in the future.

His immortal sense entered his messaging crystal as he sent out a command, telling everyone to gather in the imperial palace of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty's past location.

Upon receiving his command, the immortal emperors of the various peak powers all moved out. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Qing`er, Southern Phoenix Matriarch, Darknorth Immortal Emperor, Jadestage Palace Mistress, Battle Saint Tribe, the experts of the Myriad Devil Islands all set out, using teleportation arrays and arrived in the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty's past location with the greatest speed. Right now, everywhere in Azure Mystic was connected by teleportation arrays, and the Heaven Empyrean Palace was the hub of them all. Now that Azure Mystic was united, the Heaven Empyrean Palace naturally wanted to be the point of connection between the various locations.

Hence, with just a command, everyone else could gather at a location at the shortest time possible.

After Qin Wentian was titled as the Heaven Empyrean, this was the first time he sent out a command. Everyone proceeded forward with no hesitation, rushing towards the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty's imperial palace.

After he sent out the command, Qin Wentian stared at the heavenly deity and spoke, "Senior, I've already sent out the command. Very soon, everyone will gather outside the forbidden ground. It's just that in order to avoid any unexpected situations, I need to be there and escort them in here. If not, as long as there's an empyrean from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, that person would be able to control them easily.

"Mhm, that's only natural." The ancient heavenly deity nodded.

"What about the other experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that are already in Ancient Azure Mystic?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Don't worry about them. The ancient battlefield exists in Ancient Azure Mystic. Although good fortune can be found everywhere, they can only receive a very small part of it. This world is boundless vast, even if there are bouts of good fortune, it isn't so easily sought out. Let alone the fact that if they really encountered a bout of good fortune, they would already have started a fight against each other." The heavenly deity calmly spoke. Qin Wentian nodded in agreement. If there really was a heaven-defying bout of good fortune like a divine depository being discovered, those empyreans from the Heavenly Deity Race would definitely fight against the others to claim it. Who would be willing to give up such a fortune? All of them would only want to take it for themselves.

"I'll go out with you, let me borrow your body again. I will inscribe a formation to send us out." The heavenly deity spoke. Qin wentian nodded. After that, the heaven deity's will turned into a beam of light and entered the center of Qin Wentian's brow, fusing with Qin Wentian's consciousness. In this ancient battlefield, only the entrance existed. Qin Wentian himself didn't know how to exit it.

The heavenly deity borrowed Qin Wentian's body and was inscribing a formation using his legs. Resplendent light flashed, astral runes covered the surface of the ground, drawing in astral energy. In an instant, the nine black spheres around the black sun shone resplendently, shining upon the formation that was just inscribed. The dark stars seemed to be connected together as a black beam of light cascaded down onto the formation. Qin Wentian stepped forward, the formation activated as he vanished from his location.

When Qin Wentian appeared again, it was at the entrance gate leading to Ancient Azure Mystic. Over here, many experts were gathered and when they saw Qin Wentian's appearance, their eyes flashed with a strange light.

"I pay my respects to the Heaven Empyrean." A person bowed, recognizing Qin Wentian. This man was someone from the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. There were also empyreans whose eyes gleamed with sharpness as they asked, "Sir, why did you appear from?"

Qin Wentian's sudden appearance was extremely strange, suddenly manifesting at the entrance with a flood of light. It felt like he came out from within the ancient battlefield.

Qin Wentian calmly glanced at the empyrean who spoke. He ignored the question and with a flash of silhouette, he directly stepped into the void and vanished from sight. This caused the empyrean to have a look of pondering on his face.

Not long after, Qin wentian arrived at the imperial palace of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. When he came here, many have already arrived. The Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Qing`er and the others were all here, including Little Rascal, Purgatory, and Jun Mengchen.

"Senior brother, what is going on exactly?" Jun Mengchen curiously asked. Beside him, the old man who inducted him into the Heavenly Talisman Realm and Bai Wuya were both present as well.

"Mengchen, great changes are occuring in Azure Mystic. A major incident has happened. When everyone is here, I will let everyone know about this incident." Qin Wentian spoke. After he exited the ancient battlefield, the will of that ancient heavenly deity seemed to have fallen asleep, it no longer had any influence on him.

"Right." Jun Mengchen nodded, but he felt an unbearable itch of curiosity in his heart. Before this, Qin Wentian already commanded the powers of Azure Mystic to pay attention to the movements of those mysterious experts who came here from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, including empyrean-level characters. But even so, they still didn't know and didn't understand what has happened.

Now that Qin Wentian was summoning them, he most probably already had a clear idea what was happening.

Matriarch Ji, Emperor Yu and the others came by. The various experts on the Myriad Devil Islands came here as well. Bai Qing walked over to Qin Wentian and called out in a low voice, "Wentian gege."

"Little Qing, you are here." Qin Wentian tousled the hair on her head.

"Mhm, I want to share the burden with Wentian gege." Bai Qing replied.

"Good." Qin Wentian laughed. This little lass was already an impressive immortal emperor, yet he always felt that she was just like a little girl before him.

When all the experts gathered here, Qin Wentian spoke, "Recently, Azure Mystic hasn't been peaceful and I'm sure everyone has heard about it. Before this, I told all the powers to pay attention to the mysterious visitors from the upper world and now, everything is finally clear. Not long ago, I learned of some secrets of Azure Mystic. It turns out that this world of ours isn't Ancient Azure Mystic, it's just a small part of that world. Once, the territories of our world were countless times more vast compared to now, and the strength level of experts were also much stronger. Above ancient emperors, there are world overlords, above world overlords, there were even heavenly deities in our world."

The eyes of everyone gleamed with sharpness. World overlords, heavenly deities, they had never heard of such existences before. All of them were extremely serious now as they listened.

"Ancient Azure Mystic had heavenly deity-ranked powers and they stood at the peak of our world. However, some of the deity-ranked powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms wanted to seize Azure Mystic for their own to plunder the divine depositories here, wanting us all to submit. The ancients of our world refused to do so and hence, the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms sent large batches of heavenly deities over and a world-ending battle began. In the end, Azure Mystic was levelled to flat ground by the war, the supreme character of Ancient Azure Mystic was named the Imperishable Heaven Lord, he defended our world against the invaders and he used a heavenly-defying technique to bury the whole of Ancient Azure Mystic. Right now, I discovered that the entrance to Ancient Azure Mystic is nowhere other than in the forbidden grounds of the Darknorth Immortal Empire. The entrance gate has appeared again and the empyreans from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realm came here for precisely this purpose."

Qin Wentian summarized what he knew into a few simple sentences. The hearts of everyone trembled with waves after they heard this.

Ancient Azure Mystic, divine depository, heavenly deity, world-ending battle… All these seemed so far away from them, was history going to repeat itself now?

The world they existed in actually wasn't the true Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

"Inside the ancient battlefield, I encountered a heavenly deity from Ancient Azure Mystic. He is already dead but a strand of his will still survived. He hopes that I can take over the mission of the Imperishable Heaven Lord to protect Azure Mystic. If the experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms all gathered here, I'm afraid we won't be able to protect this world, our fates would be to be enslaved by those supreme powers. Hence, I agreed to the heavenly deity's request. Everyone here today are my close friends or my elders, are you all willing to accompany me in this?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Senior brother, I'll naturally follow you." Jun Mengchen spoke. Qing`er and the Evergreen Immortal Emperor didn't say anything, there was no need for them to. Bai Qing silently stood at Qin Wentian's side, her intent was clear without needing for her to say anything.

"Heaven Empyrean, you are the overlord of Azure Mystic, we will naturally follow you." The ruler of the Shooting Sun Immortal Empire spoke. Out of everyone in the crowd, his relationship with Qin Wentian was considered the mildest. Since this was the time to express his stance, he naturally would do so.

"If we choose to walk this path, there might be danger to our life. Facing those empyreans of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are simply too risky, even I myself do not have the absolute confidence to win against all of them. Although I'm the Heaven Empyrean, I have never treated you guys as my subordinates. I will respect your choices and will not force any of you. But if you guys really decide to follow me, just know that there's no longer a way for you to turn back." Qin Wentian seriously spoke. Everyone naturally trusted in Qin Wentian's moral standing. Since he put it so clearly, everyone knew that if they weren't willing to follow him, Qin Wentian wouldn't say anything in protest.

Danger always coexisted with good fortune. Many of them had cultivated for countless years yet they were stuck at the immortal emperor realm and personally watched as a junior like Qin Wentian surpassed them. Now, since Ancient Azure Mystic has appeared, wasn't it also considered a stroke of fortune for them? They definitely had to go with Qin Wentian into there for a look.

Everyone here with no exceptions all chose to follow Qin Wentian. They understood that from this moment onwards, they have completely chosen to stand together with him, they couldn't disobey or betray him.

"Good. For the next period of time, everyone just rest for now in the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. I still need to wait for one more person to arrive." Qin Wentian spoke. On his way here, he had already received Beiming Youhuang's message. The Lifelong Realmlord eventually still gave in to greed and sent four world palace lords over to Ancient Mystic. Since Beiming Youhuang was someone from the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, she took the initiative to volunteer herself for this mission. The Lifelong Realmlord agreed to it, hence she would be arriving here not too long after.

Many people felt somewhat curious. Who exactly was Qin Wentian waiting for?

"Everyone, there's no need to keep guessing. Most probably, many of you have already heard of the name of the person I'm waiting for before. The Darknorth Immortal Emperor should be incomparably familiar with it. She is none other than your daughter, Beiming Youhuang." Qin Wentian spoke.

A bright light flashed in the Darknorth Immortal Emperor's eyes. Was Youhuang going to return?

Seems like the relationship between Qin Wentian and his daughter was much better than he had expected. He felt some joy in his heart. With this layer of connection from his daughter Youhuang, Qin Wentian would surely take good care of him. The beautiful palace mistress of the Jadestage Immortal Palace and some others could only stare at the Darknorth Immortal Emperor enviously.

Seems like the relationship between Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang wasn't simple at all. Could it be that the Darknorth Immortal Emperor was also Qin Wentian's father-in-law?

Naturally, they only dared to think about this in their hearts. None of them dared to say it out.

More and more experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms came to Azure Mystic, as they entered the gate continuously. Until one day, a total of four world palace lords from the Lifelong Realm brought many immortal emperors with them as they arrived here. Beiming Youhuang was among them and she guided these people to move towards the direction of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty!

Chapter 1723: Internal Conflict?

Although the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty has relocated to Heaven Empyrean City, the imperial palace they built in the past still remained and the Darknorth Immortal Emperor had stationed one of his sons here.

Beiming Youhuang returned to the old imperial palace of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty. When she saw all these familiar sights, she suddenly felt that it was a lifetime ago since she was here. Back then, she and Qin Wentian were sent to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms by the crazy old freak. In the blink if an eye, several hundred years passed. To her, this period of time was too long and that, in addition to her experiences in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, she felt a sensation of 'blue seas transforming into mulberry fields.'

Turning their gazes forward, she could see Qin Wentian leading a group of people to receive them. Her father, the Darknorth Immortal Emperor was here together with her younger sister Beiming Nongyue. She naturally saw the smile in Qin Wentian's eyes and also discovered a white-hair lady beside him. This white-hair lady was none other than the princess of the Evergreen Immortal Empire whose hair turned white in an instant due to Qin Wentian's 'death.' Qin Wentian has also told Beiming Youhuang that he and Qing`er were now married. Beiming Youhuang sent her congratulations.

Qin Wentian similarly also saw that four world palace lords of the Lifelong Realm were together with Beiming Youhuang. Now, a total of five world palace lords were in Azure Mystic, over half of the Lifelong Realm's forces were here. Other than this, the other four world overlords also brought large numbers of immortal emperors here as well. Clearly, the Lifelong Realmlord knew of the situation in the lower world and decided to send a sizable amount of people. At the very least, such a force could be considered very powerful in the Lifelong Realm. But in the perspective of the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, it was really nothing much.

The Lifelong Realmlord also wanted to obtain some good fortune but sadly, he himself didn't dare to defy the restriction order. Most probably, many world overlords in the upper world were worried as well.

The four palace lords are: The Skyair Palace Lord, Xuanyuan Palace Lord, Dragonsaddle Palace Lord and Kanwater Palace Lord.

It's very normal for the Skyair Palace Lord to come as he was the personal disciple of the Lifelong Realmlord, and it can be said that he can represent the Lifelong Realmlord to a certain degree and was here in the capacity of the leader to observe the situation here. But even so, if there truly was good fortune here, how could there be any trust worth speaking of? Let alone a subordinate, even a personal disciple might betray you for it. But even so, the Realmlord still had to send someone he trusted the most over here.

As for the strongest Desolate Heaven Palace Lord, he didn't come here. Most probably, the Realmlord was worried that he would be too strong. His personal disciple the Skyair Palace Lord might not be able to control the other party.

And other than the Skyair Palace Lord, the Xuanyuan and Dragonsaddle Palace Lords were considered one of the more loyal subordinates to the Lifelong Realmlord. Back then, the two Palace Lords had fought together with the Lifelong Realmlord to establish his empire.

"Youhuang!" The Darknorth Immortal Emperor stepped forward, staring at his daughter.

"Father." Beiming Youhuang called out.

"Mhm." The Darknorth Immortal Emperor smiled and nodded. "Right now, your cultivation base is already the same as father's. Hahaha."

"This is what the phrase, 'A tiger father wouldn't have a dog daughter' means." Beiming Nongyue stepped up and laughed. "Elder sis, seems like you are doing very well for yourself in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Beiming Youhuang merely smiled, she didn't say too much. Was she really doing well in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?

It was like right from the beginning to the end, the circumstances had forced them upon her, her actions were all not of her own volition. There were simply too many experts in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. An immortal emperor was like a sand particle on the beach, they were simply too inconsequential. Things were especially difficult when they first arrived in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Just a small city lord almost caused them to end up on a path of eternal damnation. Luckily, Qin Wentian grew extremely fast and became an empyrean. Now, as a world palace lord in a realm, it can be considered that he could at the very least already stand on his feet in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Congratulations, junior brother." Beiming Youhuang smiled and called out. She didn't refer to Qin Wentian by name and called him 'junior brother' instead because there were four other palace lords behind her. In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, everyone believed that their relationship was one of apprentice siblings, even the Lifelong Realmlord believed it was so. If the Lifelong Realmlord discovered that they weren't apprentice siblings, what would he think?

Qin Wentian had already reminded everyone on his side about this. He also didn't want the Lifelong Realmlord to find out. However, his considerations were different from Beiming Youhuang. Right now, the Lifelong Realmlord felt that they were the disciples of World Overlord Yi. Such an identity had advantages as well as disadvantages to it. But if their words were found false now, things would be extremely troublesome.

"It's truly regretful that you didn't come back earlier." Qin Wentian was naturally referring to his wedding.

"Haha, indeed. Youhuang, the grand wedding of the Heaven Empyrean was truly an extremely magnificent scene. Everyone in Azure Mystic came by to attend it." The Darknorth Immortal Emperor laughed. Beiming Youhuang's eyes flashed, she glanced at Qin Wentian and asked in a low voice, "Heaven Empyrean?"

"Elder sis, don't you know. Right now, this fellow is already the overlord of Azure Mystic and his title is the Heaven Empyrean. Everyone in our world worships him." Beiming Nongyue laughed as she spoke. Qin Wentian bitterly smiled. The title 'Heaven Empyrean' sounded tyrannical but this title was nothing much at all in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Only the Imperishable Heaven Lord had a title awe-inspiring enough to be a deterrence to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Only absolute strength was everything.

"Alright. Lifire Palace Lord, tell us about the situation in there." At this moment, the Skyair Empyrean stepped forward. They came here because of the world-ending battle and not to hear the conversation of these people in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Since he directly referred to Qin Wentian as the Lifire Palace Lord, it was clear that he purposely didn't want to be too close to Qin Wentian.

In the past, they once saw Qin Wentian's performance at the Lifelong Banquet when he was an immortal emperor. At that time, he represented the Lifire Palace and defeated experts of the other world palaces but now, he was already on the same level as them. It was only natural that prideful beings like them would feel a little uncomfortable.

"There isn't much info. I only know that the entrance to the ancient battlefield is now opened but I completely have no idea about the situation inside. Awhile later, I will be leading my subordinates in to enter." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Let's go then." The Skyair Palace Lord spoke.

Qin Wentian glanced at him. He naturally could sense the arrogance from this personal disciple of the Lifelong Realmlord. He simply smiled and nodded, "Sure, let's move out then."

"Let's go." He glanced at Beiming Youhuang as she nodded at him. After that, the group of them moved together, rushing into the forbidden ground.

After some time, they arrived at the entrance gate leading to the ancient battlefield. There were still many experts from the other parts of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that continued to enter. Qin Wentian and his subordinates didn't hesitate and entered it. They then arrived in the ancient battlefield with the black sun and gloomy atmosphere.

The eyes of the other four palace lords gleamed sharply when they saw the black sun and nine gigantic black spheres revolving around it. They were speechless for a long time before they sent the news back to the Lifelong Realmlord. Now, their hearts were filled with a sense of strong wariness.

They have finally arrived at the ancient battlefield where the world-ending battle was fought.

"You really know nothing about the situation in here?" The Skyair Palace Lord turned to Qin Wentian, his eyes gleaming with sharpness as though he wanted to see through Qin Wentian's words, whether he was lying to them or not.

"I only know that there are already many experts who entered here, including several people from the Heavenly Deity Race." Qin Wentian replied. He coldly laughed in his heart, this Skyair Palace Lord...he had no idea what was in store for him and how dangerous things are here. Leaving aside the danger, it was already tremendously difficult to find the exit. He only managed to exit because the strand of will from the heavenly deity who borrowed his body inscribed a formation that led him out. No one who came here from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms knew how to do that. Unless they found another exit, they would be stuck in here.

Even the experts from the Heavenly Deity Race had to go all out in here just to survive. There was no need to mention about these four world palace lords. Although he didn't take joy in their calamity, he wouldn't sympathize with them. These people came here out of their own choices. Back then when he first entered this ancient battlefield, he also knew nothing about here. And for the battle between the two heavenly deities, if the one who won was Yu Feifan instead, he would already have become a dead man.

"Palace Lord Qin, since none of us know anything, why don't we join forces to explore this place?" The Xuanyuan Palace Lord bluntly spoke, he didn't really mind forming a close relationship to Qin Wentian. Some of the juniors of his clan had very good relations with the vice palace lord of the Lifire Palace, Di Tian. Be it Qin Wentian or Di Tian, both were people with very high potentials. He naturally didn't feel it was a problem forming a closer relationship with them.

"It's fine. I wish to explore this ancient battlefield alone. You guys can go on ahead." Qin Wentian spoke. If he agreed to travel with these people, it would be extremely inconvenient for his plans.

The Xuanyuan Palace Lord's eyes flashed. But he soon smiled and nodded, "Sure."

"Since the Lifire Palace Lord wishes to explore this place alone, let him do so then. The rest of us will stick together." The Skyair Palace Lord spoke, he had received orders from his master and his attitude towards Qin Wentian was considered extremely indulgent, allowing Qin Wentian to do what he wanted. After all, his master the Lifelong Realmlord, had told him that Qin Wentian was World Overlord Yi's disciple.

"Youhuang, let's go." The Skyair Palace Lord turned to Beiming Youhuang but she didn't move after he spoke.

Beiming Youhuang's beautiful eyes flashed as she softly said, "I will follow my father."

She naturally wouldn't say that she would follow Qin Wentian. There was nothing they could refute in her sentence as it was only natural that she would follow her father.

"This is simple, tell your father to travel with us." The Skyair Palace Lord spoke.

This caused Qin Wentian to frown. Why did he feel that this Skyair Palace Lord seemed to want to ensure that Beiming Youhuang remained by his side.

"The Darknorth Immortal Emperor is someone from my Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, he will naturally follow me. Since my senior apprentice sister wishes to follow her father, it's the same thing if she follows me as well." Qin Wentian spoke. There were no problems with his words because he didn't know what Beiming Youhuang promised the Lifelong Realmlord. However, the Skyair Palace Lord already knew about the matter between Beiming Youhuang and his master. Also, before they were sent to the lower world, the Lifelong Realmlord and specially spoken to the Skyair Palace Lord about it.

As a woman of his master, her status would soon be announced at the Lifelong Banquet. How can she stick so closely with Qin Wentian? Even if they were apprentice siblings, they should understand this and avoid interacting too closely.

"No." The Skyair Palace Lord decisively rejected. "This is my master's will. I will protect Beiming Youhuang, my heart won't be at ease if she follows you."

Qin Wentian's frown deepened. He stared at the Skyair Palace Lord, "What's the problem with my senior apprentice sister following her father and me? What do you mean when you say that your heart won't be at ease?"

"You wish to disobey orders?" The Skyair Palace Lord couldn't continue to waste words when he saw Qin Wentian rebutting him multiple times. A sharpness gleamed in his eyes as his aura radiated forth, enveloping Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was merely someone who killed the previous Lifire Palace Lord and he had done so only with the help of Di Tian. How dare he speak to him like this. Seems like the battle with the Lifire Empyrean had caused Qin Wentian to be blindly confident about himself.

Seeing that the Skyair Empyrean said that this is the Lifelong Realmlord's will and how he unleashed his aura, Qin Wentian's expression also turned cold. He calmly spoke, "Why would the Realmlord feel uneasy about me? I will consult him myself."

These were clearly fighting words. Although it can't be said that he was defying orders, he also didn't compromise and do things according to the Skyair Palace Lord's plan. At this moment, the atmosphere became incredibly tense.

The Xuanyuan Palace Lord and the two other empyreans were all stunned when they saw this. They had just entered the ancient battlefield and there already was internal conflict?

They didn't really understand the situation. Why are the attitudes of both the Skyair Palace Lord and this new Lifire Palace Lord so firm and resolute like there's no leeway for negotiation at all.

Chapter 1724: Bloody scar

The Skyair Palace Lord didn't expect Qin Wentian would dare to act so domineering before him. A newly appointed palace lord actually ignored his status as the Skyair Palace Lord? Don't forget that he is the personal disciple of Lifelong Realmlord, the Realmlord's trust in him far exceeded the other world palace lords.

"If you want to consult my master, I will naturally personally make the report. Who are you to consult him? Why do you want to cause a disturbance? There is no room for negotiation for this matter. My attitude is my master's will, you have to follow my orders." The Skyair Palace Lord's tone became tyrannical when he saw Qin Wentian's insolent attitude. He didn't care if Qin Wentian wanted to explore this place alone. However, how dare he act so brazen before this. Since that was the case, he could only ensure that his response was even more tyrannical.

"Both of you are the subordinates of Realmlord, why must things come to this? Why don't we just travel together and consider this matter resolved?" The Xuanyuan Palace Lord smiled. He was also an imposing character and he laughed trying to break the tensed atmosphere. He glanced at Qin Wentian. As long as Qin Wentian nod his head, this conflict would be able to be resolved temporarily. There was no need for this state of mutual hostility.

However, the Xuanyuan Palace Lord had judged Qin Wentian wrongly. Even ignoring the fact that he had something he needed to do, even if it was in usual times, he would not have compromised either.

"I don't have the mood to travel together with him." Qin Wentian decisively rejected. A tone was a tone, since the Skyair Palace Lord already spoke to him in this way, there was no longer a need for Qin Wentian to feign civility with him. He bluntly rejected, causing the Xuanyuan Palace Lord to start as he stared at Qin Wentian with astonishment.

This Qin Wentian simply didn't give him any face. He had personally stepped out to be a mediator to ease the tensed atmosphere, yet Qin Wentian still bluntly rejected.

Although all the world palace lords are of the same rank, there were still differences in reality. Qin Wentian, who was the Lifire Palace Lord, belonged to the last tier together with Gengmetal and Kanwater. The Desolate Heaven Palace, Skyair Palace and Xuanyuan Palace were the three world palaces at the top tier. He, the Xuanyuan Palace Lord already took the initiative to be the peacekeeper, this meant that there are two top-tier world palace lords expressing their attitudes but Qin Wentian actually didn't care for it at all and continued to make trouble.

"How arrogant." The Kanwater Palace Lord interjected, wanting to see the world in chaos. His tone was extremely cold.

"Everyone, you guys have heard it. It isn't that I don't want to give him face but he is publicly defying the Realmlord's order. What do you all feel about it?" The Skyair Palace Lord's voice was glacial. The immortal emperors behind him all had sharp expressions on their faces. Was their palace lord planning to act against Qin Wentian?

"Palace Lord Qin, don't make things difficult for everyone." The Dragonsaddle Palace Lord also spoke out at this moment, he naturally stood on the side of the Skyair Palace Lord. Regardless of identity or status, this newly appointed Lifire Palace Lord clearly couldn't compare to the Skyair Palace Lord. He naturally understood which side he should stand on at this moment. In addition, the Skyair Palace Lord was here representing the will of the Lifelong Realmlord. Even if he wasn't, the Lifelong Realmlord most probably would also be on his personal disciple's side.

Hence, no matter who was right or wrong, there was no need to consider at all. Qin Wentian was definitely in the wrong, because the person he was opposing was the personal disciple of the Lifelong Realmlord.

"Let us go." Qin Wentian spoke to Beiming Youhuang who was behind him. There was no room for any negotiation for this matter. Even if the four empyreans pressured him, it was impossible for him to give way. Also, it was clear that the Skyair Palace Lord would never agree no matter what. In that case, there was no need to waste time bickering here, he directly prepared to leave.

"I want to see how you can go." The Skyair Palace Lord icily spoke. "Beiming Youhuang, you should know what to do."

Beiming Youhuang felt a little conflicted now. Qin Wentian had no idea what she promised the Lifelong Realmlord. If because of this matter, the Lifelong Realmlord suddenly had malicious thoughts towards Qin Wentian, things would really be bad. That was a situation she didn't want to see. However, Qin Wentian sent a message to her and told her to come back to the lower world, saying that there was an extremely important matter that has a connection to the both of them. Hence, she was hesitating now.

It can be considered that the people behind Qin Wentian finally understood. So, Qin Wentian and these four other world palace lords were subordinates of a world overlord but they didn't really like him. This was especially so for the Skyair Palace Lord, his gaze when he looked at Qin Wentian was extremely cold, and filled with contempt.

However, as immortal emperors, they didn't even have the qualifications to interfere in this even if they wanted to. They could only hand this matter to Qin Wentian for him to handle himself or things would be even more chaotic. They knew they couldn't afford to offend any of the four empyreans before them.

"I really loathe your tone." Qin Wentian turned and stared at the Skyair Palace Lord as his tone turned cold.

The sharpness in the Skyair Palace Lord's eyes intensified. His stare was like a sharp sword piercing straight into Qin Wentian's eyes. "What do you want to do then?"

"You guys, step back." Qin Wentian spoke to the people behind him. A moment later, the crowd all retreated. Beiming Youhuang stared at Qin Wentian in worry but she also retreated faraway with the crowd.

When the Skyair Palace Lord saw that Qin Wentian actually wanted to act against him, his gaze was no longer filled with coldness, but with killing intent instead. He waved one of his hands as his subordinates behind him retreated. Only the five palace lords of the Lifelong Realm remained in this space.

"Youhuang is my senior apprentice sister. That, in addition to the fact that her father would follow me as well, us traveling together actually was obstructed." Qin Wentian coldly laughed. "No matter what, I'll be bringing her away. If you guys want to stop me, I can only seek your guidance."

"Arrogant." The Xuanyuan Palace Lord berated. "I initially thought that you would be an impressive character given your outstanding talent. I didn't expect you to be so arrogant." The Xuanyuan Palace Lord stared at Qin Wentian as he spoke. Qin Wentian wanted to seek their 'guidance'?

The Kanwater Palace Lord was the weakest among them but since everyone was on the Skyair Palace Lord's side, he felt no fear. Qin Wentian wanted to challenge all of them? Even if Qin Wentian fought the Dragonsaddle Palace Lord one on one, the Dragonsaddle Palace Lord wasn't someone Qin Wentian would be able to defeat. Yet Qin Wentian actually wanted to fight them all? This was simply foolish arrogance.

"Everyone has seen this, right?" The Skyair Palace Lord glanced at his colleagues. "Since this is the case, I'll accept the request for guidance from the Lifire Palace Lord."

Qin Wentian directly soared into the air. The Skyair Palace Lord transformed into a beam of sword light and directly appeared before Qin Wentian. All around him, fearsome waves of sword might revolved. The sword light he radiated was actually akin to a supreme sword formation. The aura gushing forth from it was so terrifying that the spectators felt their hearts trembled.

"Have you finished your preparations?" The Skyair Palace Lord asked.

"Just make your move." Qin Wentian's white robes fluttered. At his current cultivation realm, a single thought of him would become a law. There was no need for any preparations.

As the sound of his voice faded, the body of the Skyair Palace Lord transformed into after-images. A resplendent ray of light shot out, the spectators below didn't even see him move but discovered that he had already vanished. In the next instant, Qin Wentian's surroundings suddenly manifested a supremely powerful sword domain. A supreme sword might from the void transformed into sword energy from the Great Dao and surrounded him. In an instant, sword scars covered the area around Qin Wentian, locking him within the small space. As long as he came into contact with any of the sword scars, he would definitely die.

In an instant, the hearts of everyone suddenly pounded rapidly as they watched the battle up in the air nervously. Some of them were so worried that they even stopped breathing. With just the slightest contact with any of the sword scars in the air, the power of the Great Dao would surge forth with unstoppable momentum, destroying everything. This was like an unblockable killing technique.

Manifesting laws with a single thought, if one wasn't an empyrean, there was no way they could unleash this strike.

The three other palace lords stood at the side as they watched, coldly smiling in their hearts when they saw this scene. The Skyair Sword Arts of the Skyair Palace Lord had boundless power, any other world palace lords would find this extremely troublesome to deal with if they fought against the Skyair Palace Lord. Even for the Xuanyuan Palace Lord, he had to expend great efforts to defend against this sword art. Qin Wentian, this newly appointed Lifire Palace Lord, was truly too arrogant.

Qin Wentian calmly watched as he chanted a buddhic chant. Instantly, buddhic air illuminated the space around him as his void dharam body appeared. Millions of ancient words from buddhist scriptures manifested in the air, transformed into a buddic lightscreen that covered him. When the sword scars flew over, they did manage to tear apart the lightscreen but the remaining power in the sword scars were already insufficient to threaten Qin Wentian.

But at this moment, a sword scar directly shot forth with explosive speed, aiming for the center of his brows, wanting to destroy him.

"Puchi…" A beam of light directly stabbed into Qin Wentian as torrential amounts of sword might erupted forth, flooding the entire area, wanting to lacerate even the void. However, inside the void, there seemed to be a pair of extremely cold eyes.

"Illusion." The Skyair Palace Lord instantly understood as he directly shook free of the illusion. The sword scar generated from the Great Dao appeared again, causing a tornado that had the power to rip apart everything. The sword scars criss-crossed in the air and blasted towards Qin Wentian once more.

However, the Skyair Palace Lord suddenly felt a sense of crisis in his heart. He only felt a towering sword intent brushing past his throat and in the next moment, he felt an intense chill in his bones. A bloody scar was left behind on his throat and the Skyair Palace Lord couldn't even react.

Qin Wentian naturally didn't die from the sword scars attack. He retreated after accomplishing his objective, the sword formed from sword intent in his hand which he used in his attack earlier had vanished. He coldly stared at the Skyair Palace Lord, he was the one who left behind the bloody scar. Earlier, if he so willed it, the Skyair Palace Lord would have already died with his head beheaded. Even now, the Skyair Palace Lord was trembling, feeling a chill in his heart.

However, how is this possible? How did Qin Wentian manage to do it?

He gingerly touched his throat, only to see his blood staining his fingers. His countenance instantly turned pale.

The other three palace lords were also stunned when they saw this, they simply had no way to believe what their eyes saw. How can this be? Clearly, they also didn't wish to believe that Qin Wentian could be so powerful.

Given how strong the Skyair Palace Lord is, even if he was under an illusion, he wouldn't be killed so easily.

"If I wanted to kill you, you would already be dead." Qin Wentian's voice thundered out at this moment, filled with coldness. His voice was really cold, so cold that the Skyair Palace Lord shivered!

Chapter 1725: True Meaning of Undying

The Skyair Palace Lord understood what Qin Wentian said was true. The bloody scar on his throat was still there. Earlier, he had narrowly escaped death.

Was Qin Wentian really brazen and arrogant? Or did he have the strength to back it up?

Who was the arrogant one? As the personal disciple of the Realmlord, the Skyair Palace Lord was one of the three strongest world palace lords under the Lifelong Realmlord. Yet he actually couldn't even withstand a single strike from Qin Wentian.

Not only was the Skyair Palace Lord speechless, the three other empyreans who were the palace lords of the Xuanyuan Palace, Dragonsaddle Palace and Kanwater Palace were all speechless as they stared at the bloody scar on the Skyair Palace Lord's throat.

The expression of the Xuanyuan Palace Lord grew extremely unsightly. Earlier, he was still mocking Qin Wentian but now, his face was smacked directly. Qin Wentian used his strength to tell them that true strength wasn't something that could be measured by how long one has cultivated for or by how famous one was. Back then when he just stepped into the empyrean realm, he already could kill the Lifire Palace Lord. Now, he could similarly defeat them and could even kill them.

However, Qin Wentian didn't kill his opponent. After all, the Skyair Palace Lord was the personal disciple of the Lifelong Realmlord and was representing the Realmlord in coming to the lower world. If Qin Wentian killed him, this meant that he would never be able to return to the Lifelong Realm. Ye Qianyu and the others were still there in the Lifire Palace. Hence, it was impossible to kill the Skyair Palace Lord today but his earlier attack was already sufficient to cause the Skyair Palace Lord to be unable to forget it for the rest of his life.

"Anyone else still has any objections?" Qin Wentian swept his glance to the other palace lords. At this moment, when his voice entered their ears, they no longer felt he was arrogant. Instead, they felt that he was imposing and was extremely confident in himself. Such majesty would involuntarily radiate forth, the mark of a truly powerful expert. If one didn't have enough strength, then his words and actions would be arrogance. But if he was powerful enough, he was imposing and his words and actions showed his confidence.

At this instant, the four palace lords all went silent. If they spoke and Qin Wentian asked them to 'provide guidance,' how should they react? Should they also fight with him and end up with a bloody scar on their throats? None of them felt that they were stronger than the Skyair Palace Lord.

"What illusionary secret art did you use?" The Skyair Palace Lord asked, reluctance was plain in his voice. Although he had lost, he wanted to lose with understanding. He had clearly broken free of Qin Wentian's first illusion but why did the second scene of a bloody wound on his throat and the smell of blood appear? That couldn't be false, it had to be real.

Qin Wentian coldly stared at him. Qin Wentian had comprehended the source origin of the phantasm laws and could manifest laws with just a single thought. The illusionary techniques he used was just something he unleashed by just thinking about it. For a powerful illusionary art, not only could he mislead his opponent's vision, he naturally could also mislead his opponent's sense of smell, sense of touch and even his immortal senses. In addition, this illusionary technique he used was something he obtained from the memories inside the tiny astral-being. After Azure Mystic was unified and during the time where he gave lectures to the immortal emperors from the various powers, he used his spare time to cultivate this technique and gradually grew proficient in it.

The name of this technique is 'Mirror's Flower, Water's Moon.' The reflection of the flower in the mirror, the reflection of the moon on water, these are illusory and ungraspable. There are a total of three levels to this technique. The Skyair Palace Lord was still not up to the mark, only managing to see through the first level. Although the second level was eventually revealed at the end, it was already too late. Even if he had seen through the second level in the midst of his battle with Qin Wentian, there was still the third level. This can fool all senses, mixing reality with illusion. It was precisely why this technique was so fearsome.

Relatively speaking, when someone saw through your illusionary technique, they would feel a moment of liberation and relaxation. At this time, the second level has already kicked in and when they finally broke through the second level, the third level was waiting for them. Such an illusionary technique was simply too tyrannical The Skyair Palace Lord has never fought against Qin Wentian before. Since he was the recipient of such an illusionary technique, he would naturally fall into it.

Qin Wentian naturally wouldn't tell the Skyair Palace Lord about this. The innate techniques and secret arts of cultivators are their trump cards during combat, how could he explain things to his enemy?

"Did Yi teach you that?" The Skyair Palace Lord transmitted his voice over to ask, his expression extremely unsightly. Yi was also a world overlord character, the same level of existence as his master the Lifelong Realmlord. He thought that Yi had taught Qin Wentian this tyrannical technique which was why he had lost. As for other aspects of combat, he didn't feel that he would be inferior to Qin Wentian. He wasn't willing to admit it.

"You can go complain to the Realmlord, saying that I want to bring my senior apprentice sister along but you obstructed me and was defeated by a single sword strike of mine. If you don't say things clearly and in the future if the Realmlord questions me, I will tell him honestly what happened." Qin Wentian ignored the other party's question and directly spoke. This caused the expression of the Skyair Palace Lord to turn even more unsightly. He was the disciple of the Lifelong Realmlord and Qin Wentian was Yi's disciple. A sword strike from Qin Wentian almost killed him, leaving a bloody scar on his throat. What would his master think?

He wouldn't simply be throwing his own face, he would also be throwing the face of the Lifelong Realmlord as well. Hence, it was best to hide this matter if they could hide it. If he lost face for his master, his master would surely be very disappointed in him and start to alienate him.

Qin Wentian's body flashed, vanishing form his location and reappearing by the side of his allies. He then spoke in a low voice, "Let's go."

Beiming Youhuang cast a deep glance at Qin Wentian, she didn't expect that Qin Wentian was already this powerful. She was very clear about the Skyair Palace Lord's strength, yet he was actually so easily defeated. Seeing the bloody scar on his throat, she knew that Qin Wentian could have killed him. If the Skyair Palace Lord wasn't the Lifelong Realmlord's disciple or if Qin Wentian wasn't someone from the Lifelong Realm, the Skyair Palace Lord would already be a dead man.

As for those from Azure Mystic, they have seen too many wondrous things from Qin Wentian that they were already numbed. In the process of unifying Azure Mystic, several empyreans died to Qin Wentian. In their eyes, Qin Wentian being able to defeat opponents on the same level was nothing special. After all, they knew nothing about who the Skyair Palace Lord was and what was his status.

After Qin Wentian's group left, the Skyair Palace Lord glanced at the three other palace lords and spoke. "For this matter, it's best that everyone temporarily not speak of this to my master. By not traveling with us, Beiming Youhuang has already defied the will of my master. At the time when the blame is assigned, we will definitely have to bear part of it."

The three other palace lords cursed silently in their heart. The Skyair Palace Lord was intentionally dragging them down under the water. He actually wanted to keep this under wraps. However, they could also understand the thoughts of the Skyair Palace Lord, and could only nod with a heavy expression. The Xuanyuan Palace Lord glanced at the direction Qin Wentian headed to as he sighed in his heart. In the Lifelong Realm, other than the Realmlord, most probably only the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord could suppress Qin Wentian.

Who would have thought that the Lifire Palace would rise up in such a short time after being taken over by a new palace lord. To them, this wasn't a good thing. Earlier, they had already caused the relationship between them and Qin Wentian to be strained. It is going to be extremely hard to repair the crack in the relationship.

But luckily, the Skyair Palace Lord would bear the brunt of this. He was the main person who had offended Qin Wentian and was even the personal disciple of the Lifelong Realmlord. They needn't worry about this too much.

Each of the palace lords then respectively warned their subordinates to keep this matter a secret. After that, they continued to advance into the depths of the ancient battlefield, searching for the secrets here as well as bouts of good fortune. If they really could gain something beneficial in this place, all of what just happened just then could be tossed to the back of their minds.

...

Qin Wentian and the others continued on their way. The powerful source origins of spatial laws radiated from him, enveloping his group as he brought them through spatial gates again and again, traveling a thousand miles with a single step. In his mind, the ancient will of the heavenly deity was providing directions to him.

"Senior, where should we go?" Qin Wentian soared through the air, leading his group as he asked the heavenly deity.

"To the center of Ancient Azure Mystic. Over there, there was once a flying city and was the most prosperous place in the world. That is also the center of the ancient battlefield. If you wish to seek good fortune, that place is the most suitable. There are definitely divine depositories buried there." The heavenly deity replied.

"How much longer?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Our speed is too slow. This world has transformed into endless stretches of desolation and there are no teleportation arrays. If you maintain this speed, you will need roughly about two to three years more of time." The heavenly deity replied.

Qin Wentian's heart trembled despite already steeling himself for the answer. He was still shocked regardless.

Now that he had entered the empyrean realm and was the Heaven Empyrean of Azure Mystic, he was told that his speed was too slow despite him traveling by spatial gates? He still needed two to three more years of time to reach their location, he was simply speechless when he heard that… But when he thought of what sort of character the heavenly deity was when he was still alive, Qin Wentian also understood. How much more powerful was a deity compared to an empyrean? There was simply no way to compare. It was like the sun in the sky being compared to a tiny ant crawling on the surface of the earth.

As for the time needed, it was very normal as well. Ancient Azure Mystic was a place that could cause the various experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to covet for it, how vast was that world then? Qin Wentian only needed to use the Lifelong Realm as a comparison target and he could instantly understand. Even for the Lifelong Realm, it was already boundlessly vast to him.

"Ai!" Qin Wentian sighed depressedly. Even making their way there needed two to three years of time. He was simply speechless.

"Why are you sighing? If there really are divine depositories there, others would spend thousands to over ten thousands of years searching and wouldn't find the time taken long at all. Everyone under the heavens seeks the Great Dao, for people with a high enough cultivation base, a bout of good fortune far surpass cultivating for a million of years. Two to three years of time is merely a drop of water in the oceans, insignificant." The ancient heavenly deity calmly spoke, it was like he knew what was Qin Wentian thinking about.

"A million years…" Qin Wentian bitterly smiled and shook his head. "Junior has only cultivated for a short time and has no way to imagine that amount of time."

"Mhm, your talent can be considered one of the very best out of the people I've met. Without the resources of super powers like the Heavenly Deity Race, you can already be considered extremely outstanding given your cultivation speed. However, you need to be able to endure loneliness. That existence who passed the Undying Scripture to you most probably didn't only want you to protect Azure Mystic. He placed his hopes on you, and probably wanted you to restore Ancient Azure Mystic."

"Restore Ancient Azure Mystic?" Qin Wentian started. "A world that has been buried, how do I restore it? How many years would that need?'

"Haha, since you have cultivated the Undying Scripture, as long as you don't die in unnatural causes, you would have unlimited time. What this world lacks most is time, but what it didn't lack most is also time. For an undying existence, as long as one's talent is good enough, he or she would sooner or later be able to climb up to the peak. Can it be that you still don't understand the true meaning of the Undying Scripture?" The ancient heavenly deity's voice turned solemn as he continued, "Undying is a state, it is able to subdue time, and allow one to climb up to the supreme peak."

Qin Wentian was stunned, he had never truly considered things from this angle. Was this why the Undying Scripture was so powerful? As long as he didn't die in battles or accidents, he would be able to climb to the absolute peak. Time was nothing to him.

This world has never lacked geniuses, including supreme characters. However, who would dare to say that they won't die? The vast majority of them would fall at different stages of cultivation. Or for others, they might have unrivalled levels of talent but they ultimately were still defeated by the strongest enemy of all - time. But for an undying existence, he wouldn't lose to time.

All Great Daos are simple. The stronger a Dao was, the more simple the logic in it is!

Chapter 1726: Return of the Undying

The heavenly deity was right. The most valuable thing in the world was time, but the thing the world was lacking least was also time. Time would never cease its flow.

In the blink of an eye, already two years plus have passed since Qin Wentian entered the ancient battlefield for the second time. During these two years, many things happened, especially so in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. There would be countless things occuring every day but all of that was just like a drop of water in the ocean, insignificant to the grand scheme of things. The only thing of importance was the news about the reappearance of Ancient Azure Mystic. Although the news was already out for two years, not only did the intensity of it not fade, it even grew fiercer.

Because, many powers here in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have already sent their forces into Ancient Azure Mystic. This led to endless circulation of the news in the upper world as everyone, even the bottom feeders of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms knew about this. Not only did the ancient battlefield appear, even remnants of wills from ancient heavenly deities still survived. Among one of the clans of the Heavenly Deity Race, the Winged God Race, one of their ancestors appeared and borrowed the body of a Winged God descendant.

However, only the people from the Winged God Race knew that the genius Yu Feifan who lent his body to a heavenly deity, had already fallen.

This news was an absolute secret, they sent out even more experts, rushing towards Azure Mystic. No matter what, they had to take the strand of will from their ancestor back to the Winged God Race. This was a death order, they were prepared to spare no expense to achieve this.

After all, as one of the ancestors of the Winged God Race, even if he died, even if just a strand of his will survived, he would know of many memories. To the Winged God Race, it can be considered a valuable divine depository.

With the discovery of the news that there might be ancient wills from heavenly deities surviving, this time around, the major powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms truly sent out formidable experts. The forces were no longer small-scaled ones, but truly an army formed from empyreans. Given how deep the foundations of the ancient Heavenly Deity Race are, the amount of time their inheritances had been passed down for, was incalculable. After developing for so many years, how large a scale were they now? For some of the heavenly deity clans, they even had billions of people and occupied vast amounts of territory and this was just the people of a single clan, including blood descendants, followers and servants.

Extremely powerful characters moved out, personally escorting the army of empyreans through the starry skies, sending them to Azure Mystic.

Hence, Azure Mystic became lively again, the news about the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms' experts coming here in droves was no longer a secret. Many people heard the news and many also saw these experts from the other immortal realms and they were all from the upper world. When they saw how powerful these upper world's visitors are, some ambitious people of Azure Mystic were filled with boundless yearning towards the upper world.

For the situation in the external world, Qin Wentian naturally knew about it. Di Tian was cultivating outside, guarding Heaven Empyrean City and the thoughts of both of them were linked, so was their comprehension of insights. Di Tian had no need to enter Ancient Azure Mystic, it was better for him to guard Heaven Empyrean City in secret. After all, Qin Wentian's original body brought many immortal emperors from the various powers into the ancient battlefield. The number of experts outside was now lacking and Di Tian had to stay behind.

Luckily, these people from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were here just for Ancient Azure Mystic, they had completely no interest towards this weak world that was the current Azure Mystic. Although there were some minor incidents occurring, such things were inevitable. The vast majority of experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms immediately rushed to the forbidden grounds of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty the moment they arrived.

However, after the passage of two years, Qin Wentian and his group were still making their way there. Naturally, they didn't rush there without pause, some times, they would stop to rest too.

For example, they were now at a desolate range. Qin Wentian stood on an ancient peak and was staring at a beautiful figure sitting cross-legged in the distance. This beautiful figure was none other than Beiming Youhuang. Around here, many zombies could be seen moving about, guarding this area. The eyes of these zombies were vacant but would occasionally glow with light. It was extremely bizzare.

"Hu…" After drawing in a deep breath, Beiming Youhuang opened her eyes and glanced in the direction of Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's figure flashed, he came to Beiming Youhuang's side and asked softly, "Are you alright?"

"I'm fine. But using such techniques truly requires a large amount of energy consumption. Given the strength of my soul currently, although I can control the zombies casually, I can only control them to a certain extent. If I want them to listen to my instructions or to fight in combat, it would be extremely strenuous, this is especially so if I wish to control empyrean-level zombies, the burden on my soul will be exceedingly heavy." Beiming Youhuang softly spoke.

Qin Wentian nodded. He could understand this. After all, Beiming Youhuang's cultivation base was only at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm. She, who had cultivated the Death Scripture, could easily control zombies who didn't have their will left. But if she wanted to control them to a greater degree, allowing them to unleash their combat prowess, the burden of doing so would be exceedingly great on her. Now, she could only control a few empyrean zombies. Once there were too many empyrean-level zombies under her control, her soul wouldn't be able to bear the burden.

And also, during the process of controlling them, she couldn't be distracted. This meant that she had no way to join the battlefield to fight at all. It was best that she could find a quiet place to reside as she controlled the zombies or she herself might be in danger. However, this can also be solved by having zombies guarding her surroundings. Despite so, it was important that it wouldn't be so easy for others to tell that she was the one controlling the zombies.

This was also the reason why Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang were here alone. Even for Beiming Youhuang's father, the Darknorth Immortal Emperor, they didn't tell him the truth.

The inheritance of the Imperishable Heaven Lord from Ancient Azure Mystic naturally had to be kept a secret. Once news of this leaked, he and Beiming Youhuang would become the targets of countless powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, maybe also including the Heavenly Deity Race. If that was the case, they wouldn't even know how they died.

"Try to control as many as you can, and as you slowly adapt to the burden, you would gradually be able to control more." Qin Wentian spoke. This wasn't his own words, it was the ancient heavenly deity's will's suggestion. He was merely passing on the message.

"Right." Youhuang nodded. "Senior has already reminded many times on our journey here. I've been controlling the zombies ever since we started the journey."

Qin Wentian silently laughed, "Alright, let us go back for now."

"Mhm." Beiming Youhuang nodded. Qin Wentian's spatial energy enveloped her body as the two of them instantly departed. A moment later, they joined their group again and when the Darknorth Immortal Emperor saw that the two of them were together, a meaningful smile appeared on his face. Sometimes, he was thinking what was the exact relationship between Qin Wentian and his daughter, Beiming Youhuang. The two of them had already broke off from the main group several times and went elsewhere together.

Many people also smiled as they glanced at the Darknorth Immortal Emperor, if Beiming Youhuang was really an item with Qin Wentian, the status of the Darknorth Immortal Emperor would become equal to the Evergreen Immortal Emperor. However, since both the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and Evergreen Qing`er were present, nobody would be foolish enough to voice such things out.

Qin Wentian didn't say anything. He walked towards Qing'er and held her hand. Others might not know but Qing'er understood this. Before her, he kept going out frequently together with Beiming Youhuang, if he still hid things from her, what would it count as? It would be too disrespectful towards Qing`er. There were no secrets between them.

Qing`er's expression didn't change. Her Master had also silently reminded her to be careful, and she was speechless, not knowing how to reply. If Qin Wentian really wished to marry more women, she wouldn't say anything let alone the fact that she knew of the real reason. Qin Wentian had told his wives what he and Beiming Youhuang had experienced during their stay in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Their group then continued on the journey and on their way there, they encountered trouble frequently. There were some zombies whose obsessions were too strong. Even though they were already dead, they still didn't forget their mission to protect this place. Luckily, Qin Wentian didn't tangle with them, also, with the ancient will of the heavenly deity and the presence of Beiming Youhuang, they weren't delayed by too much.

Finally, another half a year passed and they finally arrived at their destination - a flying city in the air.

This was the central core of Ancient Azure Mystic, the most prosperous area. One could very well imagine how majestic this city was in ancient times. But now, when Qin Wentian and his group arrived below the floating city, they only felt a bleak sense of desolation.

The floating city was true to its name, located between the sky and earth. It was at least ten thousand feet in height, and at the entrance of the city, there was a stairway leading upward. This stairway was damaged, but despite so, everyone could still imagine how glorious its appearance in the past was. But now, this stairway was broken in many parts and the city's gate had collapsed, leaving only crumbled fences and dilapidated walls. Dead silence filled the atmosphere, under the black sun, decay was everywhere, causing everyone to truly feel the atmosphere of this apocalyptic battlefield.

As they climbed up the stairs, ruins came into their vision. There were even more zombies here in this area and all of them were filled with their obsession from back when they were alive to guard this place. Sadly, they were helpless and couldn't do so.

Qin Wentian saw an extremely powerful zombie hugging a baby that was already dead. That zombie stood there unmoving, unwilling to place the baby down. When he was alive, he had failed to protect his child.

He saw another sturdy and muscular man wielding a terrifying divine weapon, guarding at the entrance of one of the ruins. That man was like a divinity standing there, yet his eyes were blank, completely without spirit. The thing he once protected was no longer there.

Every scene here created a rush of impact to those in Qin Wentian's group. They involuntarily felt sorrow. This was what war is, how cruel and cold-blooded. Not only that, this was a world-ending one, to those heavenly deities who stood at the top, what were the multitude of lives here?

At this moment, a figure rushed over. It was a giant with a height of 1,000 meters. However, this giant didn't have a head. Its head was already sliced off by someone. He exuded a terrifying aura and faced Qin Wentian's group. His voice originated from some unknown location, "Where are you guys from?"

A fearsome looking giant axe could be seen in his hands. In an instant, a tyrannical and stifling aura gushed forth enveloping everything. If he cleaved down with his axe, he could annihilate all existences before him.

"I brought them here." A voice from within Qin Wentian rang out.

"Who are you?" That giant asked.

"This body...it should be the body of the Futian Battle God when he was alive. Who would have thought that he was beheaded. Are you the will of Futian? Or are you the will of some other heavenly deities?" A human shadow flew out from the center of Qin Wentian's brow.

"Daybreak Heavenly Deity." The voice of the muscular expert contained a ripple. "To think that a strand of your will still survived and you are actually willing to leave the area where you died at. I'm none other than Futian. Where do these people come from? To think that you are actually willing to give up your obsession in protecting your own location to come here.

"Because, the Heaven Lord's prophecy is about to come true. This is the reason why I came." The Daybreak Heavenly Deity spoke.

Futian Battle God's gigantic body trembled. After that, a solemn voice seemingly from the primordial era rang out in the air from the Futian Battle God, "When the return of the undying is here, Ancient Azure Mystic shall reappear and bring peace to all the thirty-three heavens."

Chapter 1727: Divine Statue

Although the Futian Battle God no longer has he head, Qin Wentian could feel that he was looking right at him.

When he heard that ancient and solemn voice, his heart couldn't maintain his usual calmness. The return of the undying, was it referring to him?

The reappearance of Ancient Azure Mystic was what was happening now. As for bringing peace to all thirty-three heavens, how could it be so easy? That crazy old freak actually placed so much hope on his shoulders?

Also, could it be that this prophecy was left behind by the Imperishable Heaven Lord?

He wasn't clear about all of this, and he could only speculate.

"What is your name?" He asked Qin Wentian. The Skybreak Heavenly Deity came out from Qin Wentian's body. In that case, it was clear that the main character spoken of in the prophecy was referring to this young man before him.

"Qin Wentian."

"Skybreak, why did you say that the prophecy is coming true?" Futian Battle God asked Skybreak Heavenly Deity again.

"He has cultivated the Undying Scripture. Also, he is the overlord of the current Azure Mystic and was given the title of Heaven Empyrean by the people of this world after he unified it. All of this, isn't that confirming the prophecy?" The wills of the Skybreak Heavenly Deity and Futian Battle God conversed, no one could hear their conversation. However, everyone understood now that there was actually a great secret behind the reason why Qin Wentian brought them here. No wonder Qin Wentian was so cautious. Since they have chosen to enter here, it was like what they were thinking, there was no way for them to return. They had to continue down this path.

But, this was their choice, they were willing to do so. These two in front of them had the titles of heavenly deity and battle god...Such existences were something they could not imagine. They only knew that by making this choice, they would welcome a bout of good fortune that could change their entire lives.

"Who are these people then?" Futian Battle God stared at the others as he asked. The Futian Battle God glanced at the others. Clearly, he has already silently agreed with the Skybreak Heavenly Deity. Since Qin Wentian has cultivated the Undying Scripture and was also the overlord of the current Azure Mystic as well as the reappearance of Ancient Azure Mystic to the outside world, all of these undoubtedly pointed to the fact that the prophecy is coming true. Everything shall restart soon.

"They are people of Azure Mystic, my elders, my family and my friends. They are now working together with me to govern Azure Mystic. Senior Skybreak asked me to bring them here, hence I summoned them over." Qin Wentian replied.

"That's right, although my will has never left the area I was protecting, I chose to do so now. I believed that in this floating city, there are still many existences the same as you and me. Futian, your body died but your will still survived, I believed the wills of many other heavenly deities of our Ancient Azure Mystic aren't destroyed yet." Skybreak Heavenly Deity spoke. "I hope that the main character of the prophecy can inherit these wills, and pave the way for the prophecy to come true."

"Just like what you said, there are indeed similar existences to me and you in the floating city. They survived for countless years and endured boundless loneliness. Although they knew that they have already died, their wills are reluctant to depart. However, it isn't because they long for this world. Ashes to ashes, dust to dust, all their close ones have already died, every day their wills survived, it is like a form of torture to them. Skybreak, your will survived for so long because of your obsession for revenge, right? Despite the fact that the probability of achieving revenge is extremely miniscule." Futian Battle God sighed.

"Since the prophecy exists, even if there's only a trace of hope, I will still be willing to endure the loneliness of millions of years. And now, the ray of hope I'm waiting for has finally arrived." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity spoke. "Futian, are you not the same as me as well?"

"Yes. We are willing to wait because we knew the prophecy existed. Who would have thought that the Ancient Azure Mystic that has long been destroyed, would reappear again in this universe." His voice was incomparably solemn. He then stared at the group of people around Qin Wentian. "It's just that these people are simply too weak. Only those with high enough talent have the qualifications to inherit the will of heavenly deities."

"Talent, is always the answer?" The Skybreak Heavenly Deity then continued. "From the mind of Qin Wentian, I understood the situation of the current Azure Mystic. Right now in this world, even empyreans are rarely seen. This is simply unimaginable. Given how scarce the resources the current Azure Mystic has, as well as its sealed environment, it's already considered very good that they could become immortal emperors. Although they cannot be compared to the descendants of the Heavenly Deity Race who were born extraordinary, they are not too inferior. I believe that as long as they inherit the wills of heavenly deities, they would also become extraordinary characters." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity continued.

Waves of shock arose in the hearts of everyone. To inherit the will of heavenly deities?

They simply didn't dare to believe there would be such a day. Lofty heavenly deities were existences they had never heard of before but now, they were going to inherit their wills?

Naturally, upon inheriting the will of a heavenly deity, it would mean inheriting their unfulfilled missions too. If they gained something, they must naturally give something in return.

"Last question. Can I trust him?" The Futian Battle God was naturally referring to Qin Wentian.

"You don't need to trust him, you just need to trust the prophecy, and trust that existence. Since the ancient battlefield has already reappeared in the world, and he has arrived here before you, you should already know what this means." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity's voice was very calm. He didn't consider things like Qin Wentian's character and such. All of this wasn't something he needed to consider.

Just like what he said, since Qin Wentian managed to arrive before him, everything already had a conclusion. He didn't need to believe in Qin Wentian, he only needed to believe in the prophecy. That was already sufficient.

"Good." The Futian Battle God decisively agreed after he heard the Skybreak Heavenly Deity's words. He didn't say anything more. They were all clear of what meaning those words held. Indeed, they didn't need to bother about understanding Qin Wentian, they didn't even need to trust him. Since he managed to arrive before them, what they needed to do next was their mission, and to trust in the prophecy.

"Is that existence they are talking about that crazy old freak?" Qin Wentian silently mused. It should be him. It was none other than that old man who passed the Undying Scripture to him. Qin Wentian speculated that that person most probably should be the one who sealed Azure Mystic, guarding the ancient battlefield. This time, the restriction order on entering Azure Mystic was relaxed. Was this a coincidence or was everything already destined? Was the crazy old freak in the darkness watching everything?

"All of you, stand on my shoulders." The Futian Battle God spoke. His body was extremely gigantic and he could easily carry all of them. Qin Wentian didn't reject. With a flash of his silhouette, he directly stood on the Futian Battle God's broad shoulders. The empty spot where his head should be was no longer bleeding. There was just nothing there, save for his neck.

After everyone saw Qin Wentian's actions, all of them followed and moved up the body of the Futian Battle God. Qing`er stood beside Qin Wentian, her beautiful eyes didn't show much fluctuations in them. No matter what Qin Wentian encountered, she would always be by his side and walk the path before them together with him.

The path ahead might be filled with thistles and thorns, even if it's a path that led to eternal condemnation, she would feel no regrets in this life.

Everyone that stood on Futian Battle God's body all clearly understood at this instant that from this moment onwards, they were destined to head forward together with Qin Wentian, their fates inevitably linked. They would obtain power that they only dreamt of having before, but they would also inherit the responsibilities that came with it.

The eyes of everyone turned ahead. They didn't know how tough the path ahead would be to traverse, but all of their eyes were filled with determination.

The Futian Battle God took large strides forward, causing the earth to shake. His body was a thousand meters in height. He moved with great speed, traveling an unimaginably vast distance with every step.

This floating city used to be the main city of Ancient Azure Mystic, one could very well imagine how boundlessly vast it was. When the Futian Battle God sped forward, everyone felt as though they were teleporting through space. Although it appeared slow, traveling step by step, it was unknown how much distance they had already traversed.

Finally, the Futian Battle God came to an undamaged ancient palace. Everything here was magnificent in appearance and spectacular in sight. The palace was still in perfect condition.

"You guys rebuilt the divine residence?" The Skybreak Heavenly Deity spoke when he saw this. In front of him, there was a gigantic divine statue made of jade. However, Qin Wentian didn't sense an absolute imposing might from it. He sensed a sensation of holy elegance and beauty instead.

Because, the appearance of this divine statue was actually a maiden. A maiden of such breathtaking beauty that she didn't seem to be from the mortal world.

Qin Wentian seemed to have guessed at something as shock shook his heart.

"This, is the Imperishable Heaven Lord." As expected, at this moment when the Skybreak Heavenly Deity spoke, Qin Wentian's heart trembled even more fiercely.

"The Imperishable Heaven Lord was actually a maiden? And she was actually a woman of such beauty. He was in a daze as he stared at the statue before him. How hard was it for a woman to climb up all the way to the absolute peak of the martial dao? How terrifying was she?

Not only was Qin Wentian shocked, everyone here was as well. This was especially so for Beiming Youhuang, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, the palace mistress of the Jadestage Immortal Palace, Matriarch Ji and the other females. The Imperishable Heaven Lord was the same as them, a woman. The cultivation potential of women was slightly weaker than men, but she was still able to climb all the way to the absolute peak.

Qin Wentian came down from the body of the Futian Battle God and bowed to the divine statue. She can be considered half his master, although he could only see her statue and wouldn't be able to meet her in real life.

The others here all followed Qin Wentian's actions and came down from the Futian Battle God's body as they bowed to the divine statue. All experts deserved respect, this was especially so for those supremely powerful characters who died in the world-ending battle defending Ancient Azure Mystic back then. Even in the face of death, they weren't willing to submit to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. What spirit and courage!

The Futian Battle God took out his axe and waved it in the air. A beam of light shot up into the clouds, wanting to tear the sky asunder as a beam of axe light appeared in the sky.

Very swiftly, noises drifted over from afar as more and more zombies came to this area. Some of the zombies had golden eyes, some had white eyes, some were cleaved into two from the middle, some didn't have legs.

Although these zombies were already dead, a strand of their wills had survived. When they saw Qin Wentian and his group appearing here, all of them glanced towards the Futian Battle God as they asked, "Futian, where did they come from?"

"The seal on Azure Mystic is relaxed and experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms came here in large quantities. As for this group of people, they 'came' from the prophecy." Futian Battle God spoke. The various heavenly deities were all stunned by these words. The seal on Azure Mystic was relaxed? Doesn't this mean that Ancient Azure Mystic would reappear? Also, they 'came' from the prophecy?

"The return of the undying?" Someone asked.

"He is the one." The large finger of Futian Battle God pointed at Qin Wentian.

At this moment, countless gazes gleamed with sharpness. From the bodies of these zombies, many illusory spirit projections took on humanoid forms, projected by their wills. Although only their undying wills remained, everyone could tell that they were supreme characters at the absolute peak with just a look at them. They were like divinities, it was as though their wills alone were supreme and lofty existences.

"You have waited for countless millennia, and endured unspeakable loneliness for countless years. Today, everyone can search for a suitable junior to inherit your will." The Futian Battle God spoke.

Chapter 1728: Heavenly Deities Choosing Successors

Shocked expressions could be seen on the faces of people in Qin Wentian's group. They would be the ones inheriting the wills of the heavenly deities? Never in their wildest dreams would they have thought of this.

The lofty heavenly deities at the peak were all legendary existences. They didn't even know what tier of cultivation the Heavenly Deity Realm belonged to. And right now, they actually encountered such a heaven-defying bout of good fortune by following Qin Wentian.

"As expected of the Saint Lord." The experts of the Battle Saint Tribe all had gratitude in their hearts towards Qin Wentian. Seems like the saint lord of this generation might be even able to create history. Who could have thought that he would be the inheritor spoken of in the prophecy, the successor of this world. The Saint Lord of this generation wasn't just the saint lord of their Battle Saint Tribe, he had many other responsibilities on his shoulders as well. Also, upon seeing these wills of ancient heavenly deities before them, all of them seemed to be even more terrifying compared to their Battle Saint Tribe in their glorious past.

"Now that this buried world has reappeared, does that mean that the people from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms have arrived?" A heavenly deity asked.

"They came and are currently inside the ancient battlefield. But because they don't know the situation here, we managed to get here faster than them. I've already fought against a heavenly deity from the Winged God Race by borrowing Qin Wentian's body while that winged deity borrowed the body of one of his descendants." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity spoke. "In addition, more and more experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are descending here to enter the ancient battlefield. Even though Ancient Azure Mystic is boundlessly vast, their people would be everywhere. Given how many years Azure Mystic has been sealed, the people here are simply too weak. Those before all of you right now are the rulers of the current Azure Mystic, with Qin Wentian as the overlord, the Heaven Empyrean of Azure Mystic."

"Seems like we have no other choices." Somebody spoke. They were filled with doubt about this group of emperors from Azure Mystic standing before them, they didn't know if these people were qualified enough to inherit their wills or not. But since they were the rulers of the current Azure Mystic, the heavenly deities could only choose them.

"Ever since the beginning, there are dao elements from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms descending to the lower worlds to seek out outstanding geniuses to be their successors. It has been so for countless generations, and all of this was done to nurture the strongest experts. I wonder if there are still dao elements now. In any case, we would soon be picking our own inheritors to accept our inheritance. This is really very similar to the dao elements in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Although I'm worried about their level of talent, I know we still have to try."

"Alright. You guys release your astral souls and show me your strength. Let us see if any of you are suitable to inherit the wills of any of the heavenly deities here." The Futian Battle God spoke to everyone. Qin Wentian brought quite a lot of people here, yet there are not a lot of heavenly deities' will here. Next, the heavenly deities themselves would be the one choosing who they want their inheritor to be.

Everyone felt somewhat nervous, but their hearts also had anticipation. They released their astral souls and bloodline powers, doing their best to display their strength.

The Futian Battle God noticed an extremely imposing figure that resembled a war god. After some moments, he glanced at the Battle Saint Tribe and spoke, "You guys are all from the same tribe? You seem to all be from the Battle Saint Tribe of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms."

"Senior, you know of our tribe?" One of the experts in the Battle Saint Tribe had an emotional look on his face. They already knew that these wills belonged to the heavenly deities of Ancient Azure Mystic, yet the heavenly deities actually knew of their origin. This meant that this particular heavenly deity before them might have saw the glorious and majestic past of their tribe before.

"I know of it. The Battle Saint Tribe is an extremely ancient clan. They are known to battle against the heavens and are one of the truly powerful clans in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. What happened? Why are you guys in Azure Mystic?" Futian Battle God asked.

"Senior, my tribe no longer exist, we can only struggle at death's door and came to Azure Mystic to hide from danger." An aged expert from the Battle Saint Tribe spoke with sorrow. Although they had cultivated for many years and were on the level of old monsters, when they heard others speaking of the glorious past of their tribe, they were still overcome by emotions. So it turned out that the ancient records didn't lie to them, they were truly an ancient and powerful tribe in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms but had declined so much to their current states now.

"I see. In that case, I, Futian, am proficient in battle. One of you from the Battle Saint Tribe can inherit my will then." Futian Battle God spoke. After that, he selected one of them to inherit his will, while at the same time, he taught the others how to cultivate, sharing his experience with them.

The experts of the Battle Saint Tribe all had emotional looks on their faces, they initially wanted to speak but they suddenly seemed to have thought of something and glanced towards Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian understood what was in their hearts, he immediately stated, "Senior, it is not easy for the Battle Saint Tribe to survive generations through the generations. Right now, I'm the Saint Lord of their tribe for this current generation, due to being entrusted by the second generation Saint Lord. Now that they can inherit your will, this junior is filled with endless gratitude."

When they heard Qin Wentian's words, the people of the Battle Saint Tribe no longer existed and all of them stood up and bowed to the Futian Battle God, "Many thanks, senior."

After that, the eyes of another supremely powerful heavenly deity landed on Jun Mengchen. "Innate divine body, you have a divine body named the world god body and is similar to me back when I was still alive. Do you want to inherit my will."

That heavenly deity spoke and flew towards Jun Mengchen. The other heavenly deities all laughed when they saw how much of a hurry that heavenly deity was in. "We all know this young man is suitable to inherit your will, no one will snatch with you. Who would have thought that there are several good seedlings in this batch."

Jun Mengchen clenched his fist as an emotional look appeared in his eyes. "Junior is willing."

"Mhm, the potential of these seedlings are indeed higher than we imagined." A female heavenly deity smiled. She was clad in a fiery long robe, exuding boundless elegance. Her eyes shone with the red light of blood, giving her an almost demonic charm. She smiled at Bai Qing, "Little doll, I used to be the Blood Refining Empress. Are you willing to inherit my will?"

Bai Qing's eyes gleamed. She was also able to obtain the inheritance from one of the heavenly deities? She glanced at Qin Wentian, wanting to seek his opinion.

"This silly lass." Qin Wentian smiled at Bai Qing. He then spoke, "Thank you senior, this little doll is my younger sister. With the care and guidance of senior, this junior is truly touched and filled with gratitude."

"Mhm." The Blood Refining Empress calmly glanced at Qin Wentian, feeling a little unhappy. She wanted to accept Bai Qing as an inheritor yet she actually glanced to Qin Wentian for approval. What a loss of face.

"Little Qing, why are you not paying respects to your master yet?" Qin Wentian spoke.

Bai Qing was naturally extremely obedient to Qin Wentian. She stared at the Blood Refining Empress and bowed, "Disciple Bai Qing pays my respect to master."

"Are you willing to cultivate with me and become my disciple?" An old woman glanced at Qing`er.

Qing`er's beautiful eyes glanced over. Earlier, she has already felt the eyes of this old woman on her. To think that she would really be chosen. She then glanced at Matriarch Ji beside her as she replied, "Senior, this is my master Matriarch Ji who has been guiding me in cultivation. If I am to follow senior, I have to first obtain my master's approval."

"Mhm, excellent." The old woman nodded as a satisfied smile appeared on her face. Despite facing the temptation of becoming the disciple of a heavenly deity, Qing`er still didn't forget to seek the approval of her current master. Her temperament was truly rare, this old woman also didn't want to accept a disciple that would forget past kindnesses although she didn't really hope for anything.

"Qing`er, your current strength is not in anyway inferior to mine. Your talent is higher too. I've already nothing more to guide you on. Now, since there's a senior willing to accept you as her disciple, this is truly a glorious matter. Why are you still not paying respect to your new master?" Matriarch Ji was someone that was very understanding.

"Master." Qing`er's beautiful eyes glanced at Matriarch Ji. She could feel a faint disappointment from Matriarch Ji despite her words.

"Good disciples are always bound to surpass their masters in the end. Since the two of you have karma from a master-and-disciple relationship, you can follow me to cultivate as well." That old woman heavenly deity spoke to Matriarch Ji.

Matriarch Ji started, after that an emotional look appeared on her face, "Many thanks, senior."

"Qing'er thanks senior," Qing'er also smiled happily. It would be the best if this was the case.

"She is the Voidsky Divine Lady. Work hard in the future." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity spoke to Qing`er with a solemn look on his face. Clearly, this old woman had an extraordinary status back when she was alive and was also a peak character.

"Junior thanks Senior Divine Lady." Qin Wentian also bowed.

"Why are you thanking me?" The old woman glanced at Qin Wentian with a puzzled look on her face.

"Senior, Qing`er is my wife." Qin Wentian revealed an awkward smile. The old woman glanced at her, "You are really very fortunate."

Qin Wentian's expression grew even more awkward but he was happy in his heart.

"These devil cultivators should follow me." A terrifying devil-path heavenly deity spoke, radiating a terrifying might. Qin Wentian has been waiting for him to speak because his figure was too outstanding. It was clear that he was a cultivator of the devil-path with a single glance and this heavenly deity naturally hoped that the experts of the Myriad Devil Islands could obtain his inheritance. And now, he had indeed made his choice. The peak-stage devil emperors of the Myriad Devil Islands were all proficient in different things. It's normal that this devil-path heavenly deity wanted to accept them all to guide them.

The devil cultivators were naturally happy too. They paid their respect while sighing in admiration in their heart. By following Qin Wentian, the Devil Sovereign of this era, they would truly manage to gain different experiences.

"You are a heaven devouring beast?" A white-robed heavenly deity glanced at Little Rascal. His eyes were extremely terrifying, revolving like wheels, seemingly capable of devouring everything in existence.

"Senior, this little fellow is someone I encountered by chance. It's said that he should be a royal-blooded heaven devouring beast." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Indeed, his bloodline is a very pure-graded one from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. You can follow me." The magnificent figure in white spoke.

"Are you powerful?" Little Rascal's juvenile voice rang out. After that, the white-robed heavenly deity started before he started laughing uproariously. The other heavenly deities also laughed. They managed to endure for countless years, their wills refused to dissipate. Were they powerful or not?

"Wentian, what are they laughing at?" Little Rascal stared dumbly at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian was so angered that he rapped Little Rascal on his head, causing Little Rascal to reveal a look of grievance.

"Stop shamelessly acting cute." Qin Wentian was speechless. He glanced at all the heavenly deities and awkwardly spoke. "This fellow is still very young and isn't very sensible. Seniors, please don't take offense."

"I feel he is very interesting, and is worthy of my instruction." The white-robed heavenly deity had a look of interest on his face, causing Little Rascal to shiver. Why did he suddenly feel that there was a conspiracy somewhere?

"The people of your clan can inherit my will. I will teach you all cultivation, including that vermillion bird over there." A female heavenly deity glanced at the Southern Phoenix Matriarch and the ancient phoenix beside her. This female heavenly deity had a pair of phoenix wings behind her back, she was clearly extraordinary and a bloodline that was much higher in terms of grade. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch and her clan members were naturally extremely happy.

"Junior thanks senior." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch softly spoke, exuding grace and beauty. As expected of the matriarch of a powerful clan.

Purgatory started, she didn't expect that her true form would be seen through by a single glance so easily. She glanced at Qin Wentian beside her, causing all the heavenly deities here to be speechless. Seems like Qin Wentian's position in the hearts of these people were truly transcendent. What sort of characters they were? All of them were heavenly deities. And now when they wanted to take in disciples and find successors, these fellows actually didn't agree right away, their first reaction would be to instinctively look at Qin Wentian. The heavenly deities were simply at a loss for words.

Qin Wentian felt even more awkward when he sensed the gazes of all the heavenly deities on him. He also didn't know what to say to his friends and close ones. Why did all of them turn to look at him? Had they gone silly? They should know better than anyone else what a valuable opportunity this is!

Chapter 1729: Heavenly Deities Giving Lectures

Everyone respectively gained the approval of the heavenly deities but Qin Wentian discovered one point. These heavenly deities treated Jun Mengchen, Little Rascal and the close friends around him more warmly. As for the Darknorth Immortal Emperor, Evergreen Immortal Emperor and the others of the elder generation, they didn't seem to be able to attract the interest of the heavenly deities. Many could also see this point. These elders could only sigh in their hearts. In the vast rivers, the later tides would always push the earlier tides. The judgements of these heavenly deities were extremely accurate, clearly able to tell that their talents were lower compared to the juniors.

Naturally, although they weren't really paid attention to, these heavenly deities would also promise to guide them on cultivation. For example, the Futian Battle God chose an expert from the Battle Saint Tribe to inherit his will but he was also alright with guiding the other members of the Battle Saint Tribe in cultivation. There wasn't any conflict here, it seemed that he intentionally wanted to take care of everyone or maybe, he wanted to nurture more experts so there would be more hope for Azure Mystic. Ultimately, everyone either inherited the will of a heavenly deity or had their approval to follow them for cultivation. Everyone with the exception of Qin Wentian.

"What about you, why don't you release your astral souls?" A heavenly deity noticed Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was the last one and wasn't chosen because he was the lead character in the prophecy. The return of the undying was referring to him and these heavenly deities naturally also paid the most attention to him. It was just that they chose to settle everyone else before turning their attention to him.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded lightly, releasing his incomparably resplendent astral souls. For a period of time, light illuminated this entire space, it was extremely dazzling.

A devil god, a spatial gate, a supreme sword formation, a thousand-armed buddha, a pair of phantasm eyes, a divinity of light, an ancient tree of life...

His seven astral souls were all of the same luster and were extremely blinding. Also, they all came from the eighth heavenly layer with no exceptions. When he released his astral souls, this entire space fell into temporary silence. The eyes of all the heavenly deities turned to him, unable to remain calm in their hearts. Such powerful astral souls were rarely seen. Even for them who were heavenly deity characters, despite living for such a long time and having vast experiences, they had never seen such a fearsome group of astral souls. Qin Wentian's law attribute energy would far surpass those on the same level as him, his source origins would naturally also be more powerful as well. If he could comprehend a world heart and gain insights into heavenheart mandates, he would surely surpass all his peers and be invincible among world overlords as well.

If he ascended and became a heavenly deity, he would definitely be able to crush all deities beneath him.

"When the return of the undying is here, Ancient Azure Mystic shall reappear and bring peace to all the thirty-three heavens." Everyone involuntarily thought back to that ancient sounding voice that spoke the prophecy. This voice reverberated in their minds, seemingly capable of passing through time.

Was this the choice made by the Imperishable Heaven Lord? How did she manage to predict this?

"Everyone, who will guide him?" The Skybreak Heavenly Deity asked.

"Since he is the person selected by that existence, the main character of the prophecy, there's no need for us to guide him. Skybreak, since you are the one who brought him here, why doesn't your will just follow him for now. If we have time, we can all also share our insights with him." Futian Battle God spoke.

The eyes of all the deities flashed, in fact, everyone really wanted to guide Qin Wentian in their hearts. He was such a good seedling, who didn't want him to inherit their will? But because he was the person in the prophecy and was already considered the 'undying successor.' In that case, no one would be able to pass their will to him. By making the suggestion whereby all the heavenly deities would be sharing insights with him, the Futian Battle God was satisfying the hearts of everyone as well as taking care of the Skybreak Heavenly Deity.

"Qin Wentian, what is your opinion?" The Futian Battle God stared at Qin Wentian as he asked.

"I will follow the arrangements of all of you seniors." Qin Wentian replied.

"Alright then. Skybreak, you don't have any objections, right?" Futian Battle God asked.

"No problem." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity nodded. He naturally wouldn't have any objections. Since his will would be the one following Qin Wentian, he would naturally do his best to guide this 'undying successor.'

"Over here other than him, who had broken through to the empyrean realm and comprehended source origins, all the others are still stuck at the immortal emperor realm. Why don't you guys give them some dao lectures and allow them to enter some of the secret realms here to temper them in order to aid them in breaking through?" The Futian Battle God spoke. He then continued, "However, in order to avoid a shaky foundation, it's best that everyone doesn't interfere when they are in the process of comprehending their source origins. In the end, they still need to depend on themselves to gain the necessary insights. Only then would they truly understand the source origins of their laws. If we force things, there might be a negative effect instead. Everyone here is a heavenly deity and I believe you guys don't need me to talk about how to guide juniors. Just remember not be hasty and have short sighted vision, seeking instant benefits."

The other heavenly deities naturally understood. Actually, the Futian Battle God's words had another meaning to it. Other than warning the juniors, the last sentence of his words also told the heavenly deities not to be hasty.

"Right. Currently, the experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are already here but they would still need a period of time before they find this floating city. During these days, we will do our best to guide the juniors." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity spoke.

"Okay. Let's give a dao lecture to them before the divine statue of the Imperishable Heaven Lord. I hope that she would be able to see what we are doing and bless us in our quest to restore Azure Mystic." The Futian Battle God spoke as everyone else nodded. The illusory-looking spirit projections formed from the wills of the heavenly deities all sat down cross-legged. Qin Wentian and the others also sat down.

"Futian, you be the one to give the lecture." A heavenly deity suggested. Futian nodded his head. He glanced at Qin Wentian, "Have you told them your experiences about how to break through to the empyrean realm?"

"Yes." Qin Wentian nodded.

"All of you, close your eyes and sense your surroundings." The Futian Battle God spoke, the others all respectively closed their eyes.

"Enter a meditative state, sense the air around you, the gentle breeze, and everything else." The Futian Battle God slowly spoke as everyone followed his instructions, quietly sensing their surroundings. They naturally knew how to meditate, this was the first step everyone had to learn the moment they stepped upon the martial path. Only through meditation could one sense the astral energy of the nine heavenly layers and condense an astral soul.

It's just that now in this place, their perceptions were even stronger than before. They could sense everything in their surroundings extremely clearly. They then continued in this state for some days.

"Everything you guys are sensing now, are source origins of different laws." The Futian Battle God slowly continued. The hearts of everyone trembled, everything they sensed during these days were all actually source origins?

"Source origins are the true nature of laws. Forming laws with a single thought, my will is heaven's will. In fact, it just means that it's a perfect fusion of our energy with the energy from heaven and earth. Source origins exist everywhere and come in a myriad of forms. They can be gentle, they can be violent, but once you comprehended them, you can transform them to whatever you will them to be. The gentle wind could become sharp swords, the weak raindrops can penetrate through divine armors. Only by truly comprehending the source origins of your laws can you be considered to have reached a true connection with heavens and earth, entering the empyrean realm. By that time, you would have transcend the ordinary, your will would be the representative of heaven's will."

What sort of character was the Futian Battle God? His senses were naturally much stronger compared to Qin Wentian, his understand deeper and his lecture clearer. Just a simple few sentences caused everyone to feel a sense of being enlightened. For example for characters like the Southern Phoenix Matriarch who had been stuck at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm for many years, she felt that she was already very close to a break through.

Just like what these heavenly deities has said earlier, the reason why these people had a low cultivation base wasn't definitely because they had weak talents. It was simply because they basically didn't have any opportunities to come in contact with existences of higher cultivation realms and didn't have the slightest idea what the later cultivation bases were like, they didn't even know if a higher cultivation base existed. Since they had never even seen it before, how were they going to break through? Unless, there was a bout of good fortune aiding them.

After the Futian Battle God lectured, the other heavenly deities also started to do the same, sharing their own insights. All of their lectures were different. These lofty existences had never once so patiently explained dao lectures even to world overlords before, let alone a bunch of immortal emperors. To them, immortal emperors were simply too low level.

When all the heavenly deities finished their lectures, many emperors here were currently in a wondrous state. If you didn't manage to enter this state after a heavenly deity gave his lecture, what about two heavenly deities, three, four? There would surely be a heavenly deity that once had insights that could stir the hearts of these immortal emperors. It was tough even if they didn't want to have an epiphany. Such beneficial conditions like so many deities giving dao lectures, was something even those from the heavenly deity race didn't have.

A group of heavenly deities gathered together just to explain their insights to juniors. How could there be anywhere in the world better than this? This was undoubtedly an extremely beneficial condition to the juniors.

Upon seeing the immortal emperors entering the state of epiphany, all the heavenly deities smiled. At the very least, their comprehension wasn't too bad. After they awakened, the heavenly deities decided to send these emperors into some secret realms to temper themselves while showing examples of the insights they gained. They didn't believe that these emperors wouldn't be able to break through then? If they couldn't even enter the empyrean realm despite all of these factors, these heavenly deities wouldn't have the face to meet with anyone anymore. Their purpose was naturally to help the peak-stage emperors to break through by comprehending the source origins of their various laws. For those with weaker cultivation bases, they had to step into the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm first before attempting a break through to the empyrean realm.

Futian Battle God glanced at Qin Wentian again and asked, "With regards to the World Overlord Realm, how much information do you know?"

"Junior doesn't know much. I only know that in order to step into the World Overlord Realm, one must first comprehend a world heart and gain insight into a Heavenheart Mandate." Qin Wentian replied.

"What are world hearts? What are heavenheart mandates?" The Futian Battle God asked again.

"I heard that one must fuse their source origins to form a brand new energy and from there, gain insights into heavenheart mandates." Qin Wentian didn't really know much about the world overlord realm.

"That's merely the most basic of understandings. If this is the case, how would those people who only cultivated a single-type of law energy be able to breakthrough?" The Futian Battle God asked. Qin Wentian started, he had never thought of this before. Although those who cultivated only a single type of law energy was very rare, they do indeed exist. Could it be that they really weren't able to break through to the world overlord realm?

"Also what exactly are world hearts and heavenheart mandates? What connection do they have? So if one wants to break through to the world overlord realm, should they first comprehend a world heart or first comprehend a heavenheart mandate?" The Futian Battle God continued asking. Although Qin Wentian knew about the world overlord realm and had even felt the sensation of power of a heavenheart mandate, he discovered that he still didn't know many things.

If he couldn't even be sure of these questions, how can he even breakthrough to the world overlord realm?

"Actually, there's another saying for world hearts. They are considered the world domains of overlords. After becoming a world overlord, you would have a world heart and gain insights into heavenheart mandates. For example, if your laws have something to do with illusions, you can cause your surroundings to become a world belonging to you alone with just a single thought. This domain draws its energy from the power of your heart, you could create a world of illusion, and everyone inside there would live in that illusion, forever not knowing the truth. Unless, they have the same cultivation level as you do and can sense the heart of your world domain."

Futian continued to explain. Qin Wentian instantly thought about the Heavenly Talisman Realm, was this a realm formed by the world heart of an overlord-level expert?

"World hearts and heavenheart mandates complement each other. If humans were trees, world hearts would be their roots and heavenheart mandates would be their branches and leaves. A world heart is one's heart domain, while heavenheart mandates were insights into laws that could be directly applied in your attacks." Futian Battle God patiently spoke. He then continued, "In addition, there's no difference in priority for world hearts and heavenheart mandates, it's the same no matter which comes first. To the vast majority of overlords, their understanding is the same as what you said earlier. They would first fuse their source origins into a new type of energy, gaining insights into their heavenheart mandates before their world heart is born. But there are also unique existences whose understanding of laws sprang from their heart. They would first ascertain what kind of energy they want to cultivate. After that, they choose to form their world hearts first before gaining insights into the heavenheart mandates they wish to comprehend. For those who choose to form their world hearts first, these existences are extremely rare among world overlords because the requirement for one's comprehension ability must be exceedingly high!"

Chapter 1730: The World Overlord Realm

Qin Wentian paid close attention and listened to the words spoken by the Futian Battle God. So, there were two methods. The first one was to fuse source origins and gain insights into a heavenheart mandate. After that, they would manifest a world heart from there and smoothly stepped into the realm of world overlords.

From his instinct, the second path seemed to be more difficult. Before comprehending fused source origins, one has to be sure of the heavenheart mandates they want to comprehend. The difficulty of this was truly extremely high due to the degree of creativity involved. The first path was to comprehend passively, doing things in sequence step by step, using heavenheart mandates to temper their daos, succeeding in the forming of a world heart and breaking through to the world overlord realm. The second path was to actively seek comprehension by first manifesting a world heart. After their dao is formed, they reverse the flow and gain insights into heavenheart mandates second.

"Senior refers to world hearts as the roots while heavenheart mandates as the branches and leaves. However, shouldn't cultivation start from the root before the branches and leaves sprout? Why does a majority of world overlords choose the first method instead? This comparison doesn't seem too apt?" Qin Wentian asked. He believed that the Futian Battle God wouldn't have made such a mistake. There must be a deeper meaning to his words.

"Let's go back to the second method. The first question you must ask, is where does the tree roots come from?" The Futian Battle God smiled. "You are right, for a tree, the root is naturally the beginning. So, if you manage to establish the root first and manifest a world heart, it's only a matter of time that the branches and leaves would grow - gaining insights into heavenheart mandates. Let me ask you, if you took the initiative to manifest a world heart according to your idea, would the insights you gain be more powerful compared to the insights you passively gain from choosing the first method?"

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. But he soon shook his head. He only understood half, there were still many puzzling questions. The World Overlord Realm is just too wondrous, many people wouldn't be able to break through to it in their entire lives. How could it be so easy to comprehend? Even if there are heavenly deities giving him lectures, it was still far from sufficient.

"It's normal that you wouldn't know. Do you know that if you fuse two source origins - let's take your spatial source origins and sword source origins for example - if they managed to complete their fusion and gave birth to a heavenheart mandate, do you think the heavenheart mandate you gain insight into would be a fixed type?"

"Different people have different comprehensions, leading to how powerful or how weak their law energies might be. There shouldn't be a fixed type I guess, but the difference in power shouldn't be too great." Qin Wentian spoke.

"You are wrong. The difference could be exceedingly great because this brand new energy formed might contain the shadows of the two source origins you used in fusion, in reality, it is completely different. So, even if two people fused the same two exact source origins, the power of the heavenheart mandate they comprehended might be extremely different in terms of form and power."

The Futian Battle God continued, "However, for the fusion of two source origins, there are already a number of heavenheart mandates known. Many people would move step by step according to the experience of the ancients, trodding on paths that have been walked before. Hence, if they chose to do this, their path might be somewhat smoother but they would still fail to grasp the main points. On the other hand, for those who chose to manifest their world hearts first, they are creators that can topple everything the ancients had created. Their heavenheart mandates are unique, comprehended from their imaginations from the time when they were at the empyrean realm. But there's one point to note, for those who choose this path, the heavenheart mandates they comprehend might be unique but it mustn't be too weak or they might as well just follow the first path. Do you understand more clearly now if I explain like that?"

Qin Wentian contemplated for a moment before he nodded his head. The second path had a degree of creativity but the difficulty was much higher.

"And for those who choose to comprehend a single kind of source origins, they can depend on their comprehensions at the empyrean realm to manifest their world hearts and comprehend their heavenheart mandates from the world hearts they formed. However, only source origins of extraordinary laws can be used in this method. If they only choose to comprehend one ordinary law's source origins, they might not even succeed and might be stuck in the empyrean realm forever.

"This isn't merely the difference between comprehension of heavenheart mandates. Because, at the world overlord realm, the disparity in strength might be exceedingly great. For example, the source origins people comprehended are all different. An example is you, you are clearly stronger compared to countless people and can stand at the peak of your cultivation realm. There are others would choose to comprehend many types of heavenheart mandates and they are all people with extreme talent. Any of these people would far surpass world overlords the moment they broke through to the same realm. This led to the average level of strength for existences in the world overlord realm to be extremely unequal."

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with sharpness. He could understand this point. For existences at the world overlord realm, those who comprehended two source origins could already fuse them into a heavenheart mandate. As for himself, he has a total of seven source origins now. After he breaks through to the next level, he would gain an eighth astral soul, thereby gaining comprehension over an eighth source origin. If he fused them two by two, how many types of heavenheart mandates would he be able to gain insights into? This was simply unimaginable.

Hence, within the world overlord realm, it wasn't strange that there would be some that were much stronger compared to the others. The difference between them can be like the distance between the heavens and earth.

"With so many different source origins, I have to gain comprehension into many types of heavenheart mandates. If that's the case, wouldn't it be extremely difficult to enter the world overlord realm?" Qin Wentian mumbled.

"To the vast majority of people, that is indeed the case. Also, don't bite off more than what you can chew and think that heavenheart mandates are easy to comprehend. Usually, as long as people comprehend a single type of heavenheart mandate, they would already be able to enter the world overlord realm. And individuals like this can already be considered to have talent that is only one in billions. Regardless in Ancient Azure Mystic of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, world overlords are truly considered supreme experts and can be the hegemon of an area. How many stellar martial cultivators would die before one such existence is born?" The Futian Battle God spoke. Qin Wentian nodded his head, "It was indeed so. The Lifelong Realmlord controls an entire realm, governing boundless stretches of territories. He can already be considered a major character.

"Is it really that difficult to gain insights into a heavenheart mandate?" Qin Wentian sighed.

"It's truly difficult. After comprehending one and becoming a world overlord, people would need many years to stabilize their foundations before they can comprehend a second, followed by a third." The Futian Battle God nodded as he spoke.

"In that case, for the division of strength in the world overlord realm, does it have something to do with how many heavenheart mandates one comprehended?" Qin Wentian asked. There should be a division in the world overlord realm just like the immortal emperor realm, right?

"You are thinking too much." The Futian Battle God laughed. "How can things be so simple? At the world overlord realm, the difference in strength can be so great that it exceeds your imagination. But it's true that the vast majority of world overlords are the weakest one. The strength of world overlords has nothing to do with the number of heavenheart mandates you comprehend. For example, you are an expert who has four heavenheart mandates that were comprehended by fusing two of your source origins for each, you might still be weaker than your opponent. As long as your opponent has a single heavenheart mandate that was fused using three kinds of source origins, his control over his single heavenheart mandate would crush you despite you having four different heavenheart mandates, even to the extent of insta-killing you. This is because the the power of his single heavenheart mandate exceeds any of yours.

"We are only speaking of a heavenheart mandate fused by three source origins. There are even rare world overlords who have managed to fuse four source origins into a single heavenheart mandate. How can you contend against them?"

Qin Wentian listened seriously. Seems like the path ahead was still very long.

One has to comprehend a heavenheart mandate to become a world overlord, it was already extremely difficult to do so. And as for those world overlords who have many types of heavenheart mandates, it can be considered that they can stand stably in this realm but their strength was still far from sufficient...There were even stronger paths, fusing many different source origins into a single heavenehart mandate. He could understand now why the difference is strength would be extremely large despite both being in the world overlord realm.

"Are there still cases of fusing five source origins or six source origins into a single heavenheart mandate?" Qin Wentian mumbled. The Futian Battle God smiled, he stared at Qin Wentian and replied, "If you can reach this step, you should almost already be at the point where you are ready to break through to the heavenly deity realm."

"Heavenly deity!"

Qin Wentian's heart trembled, he glanced at the Futian Battle God and the other heavenly deities before him, unable to regain the calmness in his heart.

Before this, he still couldn't ascertain how strong the heavenly deity realm is. Now, after the lectures given by the Futian Battle God, he finally understood that these heavenly deities before him were all monsters. Even for the world overlord realm, it was as tough as ascending to the heavens if one wanted to enter it. However, these people have all done so before and even managed to break through to the next realm, verifying their daos and became heavenly deities.

"Almost?" Qin Wentian felt a little weird when he heard the Futian Battle God's reply.

"Yes. For different people, the conditions to verify their daos are different. It's still too early for us to speak of this. Don't aim too high, the road ahead is still very long. Try your best and see if you can enter the world overlord level within a hundred years first." Futian Battle God casually spoke. Qin Wentian bitterly smiled as he spoke in a low voice, "A hundred years? How long is that..."

"You are really…" The Futian Battle God speechlessly glared at Qin Wentian. Taking a hundred years to break through to the world overlord realm was considered long? Did Qin Wentian understand how terrifying fast this speed is? It was only because there are a group of heavenly deities here guiding him that he dared to say a hundred years. If not, even a thousand years of tens of thousands of years wouldn't be considered long at all.

"Do you know that world overlords are existences that are one in billions? This is such a terrifying number. I would already be very satisfied if you can comprehend a single heavenheart mandate within a hundred years." The Futian Battle God speechlessly spoke. Qin Wentian could only smile. He wondered if comprehending a heavenheart mandate was truly that difficult.

He naturally understood how rare world overlords are but now, he was in urgent need to increase his strength. Given the current situation in Azure Mystic, he naturally understood that an empyrean wasn't enough to threaten these outsiders.

"Let's not digress too far. I will continue to share some knowledge about the world overlord realm with you. For example, my knowledge on the different types of heavenheart mandates that I know, and what source origins they are made up of." The Futian Battle God pulled the topic back and continued his lecture. During his lecture, the other heavenly deities sat by the side and listened, not saying anything. Each heavenly deity had their own unique insights. The Futian Battle God was imparting Qin Wentian his very own insights using his own words.

After the Futian Battle God, the other heavenly deities respectively shared their insights and understanding towards the World Overlord Realm. They also shared their knowledge on the various types of heavenheart mandates. This dao lecture lasted for a very long time and Qin Wentian was completely immersed in the vast knowledge given to him by the heavenly deities. He would occasionally ask questions and he gained many benefits. It felt like a door was opened in his mind, the door leading to the World Overlord Realm.

He was filled with anticipation to the future, and to reaching the World Overlord Realm. This was especially so after the heavenly deities shared the various immensely powerful heavenheart mandates with him. He truly felt the desire to form his own heavenheart mandate, hoping they would be comparable to those people of the past.

All the immortal emperors were also immersed in their own comprehensions. This bout of good fortune held extraordinary meaning to them.

As for this ancient battlefield, more and more experts arrived. These were all troops sent from various powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, including super powers like the Heavenly Deity Race. Some of them found buried treasures in here, and as for the zombies that sought to block their paths, all of the zombies were destroyed mercilessly in their hands.

Today, among the immortal emperors whom Qin Wentian brought here, there was a person who achieved a breakthrough, entering the empyrean realm despite not entering a secret realm to train.

This first person to breakthrough was actually none other than the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, Nanfeng Yaoyue!

Author Note:

This type of chapter explaining the cultivation realms is extremely tedious to write. Please don't just glance at it and forget about it. If not, you wouldn't be able to understand what I'm writing about in the future!

Chapter 1731: World of Ten Thousand Laws

Qin Wentian and the others were fully immersed in the lectures and the days passed by very quickly. Today, the dao lectures ended. The heavenly deities were all prepared to bring the ones who inherited their wills to different secret realms for cultivation.

Since the wills of the heavenly deities had existed for so long in this floating city, they naturally knew where the secret realms and divine depositories were. Although many were already damaged, there were still some that remained.

"Skybreak." I wish to bring them to the secret realm set up by the Myriad Laws Heavenly Deity back then. What do you think?" The Futian Battle God sought the Skybreak Heavenly Deity's opinion. After all, they had an agreement and Skybreak's will would follow Qin Wentian.

But in reality, Qin Wentian was still guided by all of them, providing the best environment for him to cultivate. Before this when giving dao lectures, all the heavenly deities shared their experiences to clear his doubt. The Skybreak Heavenly Deity could also understand this. The reason why he brought Qin Wentian here was precisely because he hoped that the prophecy of bringing peace to the thirty-three heavens would come true.

Of course, he had a selfish motive. He wanted revenge. Now that Qin Wentian obtained the teachings of all the heavenly deities of Ancient Azure Mystic, the trajectory of his life was already set. Even if he didn't go and offend the Heavenly Deity Race, would those heavenly deities from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, that once invaded Ancient Azure Mystic, spare him? In the future, there would surely be a storm of blood.

By receiving such inheritances, there naturally would be the dangers and responsibilities associated with it. Qin Wentian and the others should be very clear of this. The largest threat they would face was undoubtedly from the Heavenly Deity Race. Their responsibilities were to protect and restore Ancient Azure Mystic to its former glory.

"In the past, I heard that the Myriad Laws Heavenly Deity had the deepest comprehension with regards to laws. He created the World of Ten Thousand Laws and in there, from weak to strong, almost all the heavenheart mandates ever manifested before could be found there, it truly contains everything. His teachings spread across the world and countless empyreans wanted to take him as their master. Myriad Laws had nurtured the most World Overlords out of all the heavenly deities, none could compared to him."

The Skybreak Deity continued, "And now, since Qin Wentian received such good fortune, things couldn't be better. Is the World of Ten Thousand Laws preserved?"

"Mhm. The World of Ten Thousand Laws is the heart's blood of the Myriad Laws heavenly Deity. Because the secret realm exists, Myriad Laws' teaching was able to spread throughout the world. Sadly, even a grand character like that ultimately wasn't able to resist the fate of being annihilated, not even a strand of his will remained. The only thing remaining was his World of Ten Thousand Laws." The Futian Battle God sighed. The Myriad Laws Heavenly Deity was one of the heavenly deities he admired the most in the past. If speaking about the number of world overlords nurtured, there was no doubt that the Myriad Laws Heavenly Deity was the number one in Ancient Azure Mystic.

"What a pity, if Myriad Laws was still alive, it would undoubtedly be extremely suitable for him to guide Qin Wentian." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity sighed.

"Alright, since this is the case, let us move out then. The members of the Battle Saint Tribe can follow me. After sending Qin Wentian into the World of Ten Thousand Laws, I'll bring you all to the other secret realms for training." The Futian Battle God spoke. All the heavenly deities were preparing to bring their inheritors and those they were guiding away. Qin Wentian stared at Qing`er, "Cultivate well."

"Youhuang, Little Qing, Little Rascal, Purgatory, Mengchen, everyone...you guys must work hard!" Qin Wentian glanced at all of them. "Also, father-in-law, Darknorth Immortal Emperor, senior brother Wuya, Yaoyue has already broken through, you guys have to work on it as well."

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor and the others laughed embarrassedly, glancing at Nanfeng Yaoyue. Nanfeng Yaoyue exuded a holy and elegant aura, her demeanor was like a goddess, much more outstanding than before. She smiled and spoke to Qin Wentian, "We all understand. But as for you, we are all waiting for you to break through to the world overlord realm. The Heaven Empyrean of Azure Mystic cannot be too weak."

"Right." Qin Wentian smiled. After that, they split from each other, brought by the different heavenly deities to different secret realms. The Futian Battle God let Qin Wentian and the other members of the Battle Saint Tribe climb up on his body before he gathered speed and ran in a certain direction with every step traversing a thousand miles.

Qin Wentian stood at the gigantic shoulders of the Futian Battle God. A smile appeared in his star-like eyes as he saw everyone moving off in different directions. All of them had their own martial paths to follow, this is the best ending. He hoped that everyone would be able to grow together and fight side by side with him.

...

The Myriad Laws Heavenly Deity has his own divine mountain. This divine mountain was extremely gigantic, with its peak touching the skies. Looking upwards from the ground, one could only see the peak of the mountain covered by a layer of clouds. However, Qin Wentian could see that this mountain had suffered intense destruction, marks of battles could be seen in the surroundings everywhere.

"This is the divine mountain the Myriad Laws Heavenly Deity used to cultivate on, but now, it's only a stretch of desolation. This place once used to be incomparably prosperous, there would always be empyreans who came by everyday at the foot of this mountain, seeking their daos. In fact, there were even many world overlords who stayed outside for tens of thousands of years, waiting for a chance to enter, hoping to move the Myriad Laws Heavenly Deity with their sincerity." The Futian Battle God sighed when he saw the devastated state of the mountain.

"Seems like the Myriad Laws Heavenly Deity was an extremely popular one." Qin Wentian mused in his heart. His heart was filled with respect despite the devastated surroundings. He landed on the ground and bowed towards the divine mountain. "Today, I'm fortunate enough to borrow senior's World of Ten Thousand Laws to cultivate. It's just that I sigh with regret because I'm not fated to be able to witness senior's glory."

"Haha, if you have the heart, after you restore Ancient Azure Mystic, you can spread the names of these ancient heavenly deities and tell everyone of the deeds they did, inscribing their moments in the history of Azure Mystic. Although there is no meaning in doing so, these grand characters of the past shouldn't have to remain nameless, buried within the passage of time." The Futian Battle God spoke.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Let's go." The Futian Battle God laughed and brought Qin Wentian and the others along as he continued moving forward. After ascending the divine mountain, they arrived before a Qiankun Palace. There seemed to be another universe within it. Runic light flared brilliantly, radiating the majesticness of the Great Dao.

At the end of the palace, there lies a path with countless circle-shaped rune flaring with light, opening and closing. There seemed to be an entrance at the very end of the path.

"This is none other than the world-famous World of Ten Thousand Laws of Ancient Azure Mystic. Countless empyreans and world overlords were willing to give everything they have just for a chance to enter here to cultivate. This place is extremely useful for you if you want to comprehend heavenheart mandates. Do your best." The Futian Battle God spoke.

"I will." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Go in then. Skybreak, please take care of him." The Futian Battle God spoke to the Skybreak Heavenly Deity's will.

The Skybreak Heavenly Deity nodded his head. His will then entered into Qin Wentian's mind. Qin Wentian walked forward, directly moving towards the runic light. In an instant, his figure vanished completely.

At the moment Qin Wentian stepped through the entrance, he felt time and space was skewed. After that, he landed on solid ground and shook his head to clear the dizziness.

"Where is this place?" Qin Wentian glanced at his surroundings only to see that everything completely changed. The gloomy black sun had already vanished. Now, there actually was warm sunny weather, like that of springtime. At this moment, Qin Wentian's eyes suddenly narrowed. He stared up at the sky, he could see an illusory stone monument there with two words inscribed on it - Shattered Void.

"Empyrean?" At this moment, a voice rang out. The illusory stone monument actually manifested a soul form and was staring imperiously at Qin Wentian.

"You are here to experience the World of Ten Thousand Laws? Seems like you will have to suffer quite a bit." The monument spirit laughed. Qin Wentian didn't understand, he then spoke, "Would senior provide me with guidance then?"

"Guidance?" The monument spirit laughed even louder. "Just enjoy it well."

As the sound of his voice faded, a terrifying might enveloped this space. In just an instant, Qin Wentian felt everything changing. The atmosphere was no longer like springtime, he could feel a heavy tension in the air.

Qin Wentian instantly summoned all his energy in defense. A giant buddha dharma body manifested, he was prepared to react to all changes.

The monument spirit coldly smiled, "Kill!"

As the sound of the word 'kill' faded, Qin Wentian felt an energy that could destroy space blasting over towards him. This energy wasn't manifested by an innate technique or a secret art. It was purely energy from one's cultivation base.

In the span of a single thought, all space would shatter. His dharma body instantly collapsed and his original body had to endure against that devastating attack. His expression drastically changed as a look of fear appeared. The undying energy circulated profusely as he poured all his strength into defending against that.

At this moment, Qin Wentian only felt that cracks appeared in the space all around him, there was no way for him to hide. It was the same no matter where he fled to, he could only endure such an attack, an attack produced by a mere thought from his opponent.

"ARGH!" A terrifying sensation of pain flooded him as cracks appeared on his body. Staring at his struggle, the monument spirit didn't show any mercy at all. He lifted his fist and directly punched out.

"BOOM…" Space crumbled apart. At this moment, Qin Wentian could no longer resist. As the punch shot out, although the distance between him and it was extremely faraway, the punch instantly slammed into his body.

Qin Wentian's expression contorted, turning pale. Such power was simply unblockable. His consciousness was telling him that his body was about to collapse, intense pain flooded his entire being. At this moment, he was even doubting the intentions of the Futian Battle God and the rest. What did they mean by sending him here? Were they planning to let this place torture him to his death?

In the next instant, even his consciousness was being extinguished by this power. He had no way to describe such a feeling. The best he could describe it was that this was death, the feeling of true death.

He was completely helpless, he wanted to struggle, he thought of many things and thought of many people. What would happen to Qing`er and Qingcheng? He hasn't found his parents yet, they were still waiting for him.

Would everything end just like that?

Just as Qin Wentian's consciousness on the brink of being completely wiped, he suddenly felt a bright light in his mind. His consciousness recovered, his injuries also recovered. When he opened his eyes, he was completely uninjured, but his body was covered by the sheen of cold sweat.

"An illusion?" Qin Wentian drew in a deep breath. That earlier feeling of death was truly too terrifying. It was the same as what he felt back then in the war at the Evergreen Immortal Empire. He believed that he was going to die.

He bitterly smiled and shook his head, this was too fearsome. The Futian Battle God and Skybreak Heavenly Deity actually didn't warn him about this.

"Was that an attack using the power of a heavenheart mandate? Shattered void, he was capable of shattering all space. If that truly was a world overlord, his world heart could envelop everything and with a single thought, everyone in his world domain would instantly be destroyed. Also, that attack earlier was from one of the weakest type of heavenheart mandates?"

Qin Wentian wasn't able to remain calm. Hearing the dao lectures by heavenly deity and personally witnessing things are completely different.

This World of Ten Thousand Laws was precisely a place where he can truly feel the sensation of heavenheart mandates attacking him with his own body!

Chapter 1732: Experience

Shattered Void, the space earlier was filled with the heavenheart mandate 'Shattered Void.' However, he still couldn't sense clearly what source origins that heavenheart mandate was a fusion of.

The scene before him was the same as before, there wasn't much change. Now in the air, there was another stone monument with two words inscribed on it. However, the words were no longer 'Shattered Void.'

'Void Transposition.'

Clearly, this was another type of heavenheart mandate. It was just that he wasn't able to tell what the true meaning of 'Void Transposition' was.

At this moment, a different figure appeared from the stone monument, it was also a monument spirit. The spirit glanced at Qin Wentian as a look of disdain appeared on its expression, as though it was truly capable of thought. It seemed to be filled with contempt for Qin Wentian's cultivation base.

Coming to the World of Ten Thousand Laws at the Empyrean Realm was simply asking to be abused. You want to come here to experience what are heavenheart mandates? Prepare to feel despair then.

Qin Wentian prepared his defense again. With his earlier experience, his defense now was even stronger. He wanted to truly fight against the power of a heavenheart mandate and sense the disparity between his current level of strength in comparison.

However, just as he was prepared, his opponent suddenly vanished, disappearing completely. Qin Wentian could sense no trace of the monument spirit at all.

The space was incomparably silent but Qin Wentian didn't dare to relax his vigilance. His immortal sense covered the surroundings and as long as there was a fluctuation, he would be able to sense it.

However, there was nothing at all. This space was completely silent. Did the monument spirit return back into the stone monument because of the contempt it felt for him?

He still maintained his defense and was prepared to act at anytime. He patiently waited but even after a long time, nothing happened. This made Qin Wentian smile bitterly. The energy he was circulating vanished as his defense slackened. He didn't really understand the current situation.

But at this very moment when he relaxed his vigilance, Qin Wentian suddenly felt an intense sense of crisis in his heart. This wasn't something his immortal sense warned him about, this sense of danger was purely from his instincts.

"BOOM!" His powerful defense sprang up again but it was already too late. A fist appeared from the void, ruthlessly smashing into his body with no warning. This attack was launched directly from the void. After that, the spirit appeared again and Qin Wentian once again felt that sensation of true death as his body crumbled apart. Before he fainted, he was thinking how could he ever relax his vigilance at any moment in the midst of a battle? That was simply courting death, he had learned an extremely valuable lesson.

"Hu…" When Qin Wentian regained his consciousness again, things were like before, he was covered in cold sweat. A bitter smile curled his lips as he experienced death again. How many times would he experience death in this World of Ten Thousand Laws? Each and every time was enough to cause the minds of those not strong enough in will to crumble apart. No one would want to or was able to experience this over and over again.

"Void Transposition, moving freely in the void." Qin Wentian seemed to understand the meaning of the two words now. It was another type of heavenheart mandate and was simply too terrifying. This already wasn't traveling through the void using spatial energy, or immortal sense would be able to track it. This Void Transposition heaven mandate was completely untraceable, the perfect tool for an assassin. It would definitely kill someone unprepared at the first hit.

If one managed to comprehend this particular heavenheart mandate, he basically wouldn't be afraid even if his opponents had more people than him. As long as he was slightly stronger compared to the rest, even if he had to face against a group of experts alone, he could still kill them one by one unless one of them had a heavenheart mandate that specifically countered Void Transposition.

Before this, Qin Wentian had listened to the lectures given by the heavenly deities and he naturally understood this logic. Don't assume that Shattered Void and Void Transposition were extremely powerful and seemed unbreakable, there exists countless even more powerful heavenheart mandates out there. As long as you dare to imagine it, it would definitely exist, and there are even some people with heaven-defying comprehension who trod on paths of their own, something the ancients had never explored before, as they created even more immensely powerful heavenheart mandates.

"What is next?" Qin Wentian inclined his head and stared in the sky. Although the sensation of death filled one's heart with despair, the anticipation in his heart was even more intense when he thought about contending against the power of those heavenheart mandates. This was something he would comprehend in the future, he wanted to see stronger heavenheart mandates and draw upon them for inspiration to create his own.

'Heaven Burial.'

Qin Wentian glanced up, a new stone monument was there and the two words inscribed upon it were 'Heaven Burial.' How terrifying is this? However, what would be the power of this particular heavenheart mandate? How would it be displayed?

Very swiftly, Qin Wentian understood. When the monument spirit manifested, he glanced at Qin Wentian and the disdain in this spirit's eyes was the same as the others before. He inclined his head and grabbed out towards the air. In an instant, a supreme might crushed down from the sky. Qin Wentian set up his defenses but in this instant, they all seemed to be useless because the other party wasn't aiming at breaking through his defense. With a wave of his hand, the weight of the sky bore down upon him, Heaven Burial.

Once again, before Qin Wentian could do anything, the sensation of death flooded his entire being. Although he 'revived' again, he had died for a three times. His body was completely covered by his sweat.

Heaven Burial, that supreme crushing might could directly bury the world. This kind of heavenheart mandate was tyrannical to the extreme, there was simply no way to counter it. During combat, for world overlords who gained comprehension of this heavenheart mandate, they just needed to wave their hands and countless people would be buried as endless stretches of space would be crushed, annihilating billions of lives. This was the threat of a supreme existence, they could peer down with disdain at mortals beneath them because with just a single thought, they could shift terrains and annihilate the multitude of lives.

After dying consecutively for three times, Qin Wentian really wanted to take a break to sooth the stifling tension in his heart. However, once he entered the World of Ten Thousand Laws, it seemed that the situation was no longer up to his control. This secret realm was a pure cultivation ground created by the Myriad Laws Heavenly Deity when he was alive. Countless experts came here to temper themselves and for those who didn't have enough strength, they would understand what the meaning of true despair is.

It was like what Qin Wentian was feeling now. He didn't have time to take a break as another monument spirit appeared right after the moment he revived.

The heavenheart mandate now was , 'Sky Prison.'

With a single glance at him, Qin Wentian was instantly trapped inside a prison with no sky or night. After that, the walls of the prison folded in and destroyed him.

Again and again, Qin Wentian experienced the power of these heavenheart mandates in the World of Ten Thousand Laws. The heavenheart mandates here were wide-ranging and profound, there were simply too many of them and the name of World of Ten Thousand Laws was truly apt.

Naturally, Qin Wentian felt that it was impossible for him to experience them all. It was too painful, his heart and mind were filled with agony as he experienced death again and again, his will being obliterated. No matter how strong someone was, they would eventually go mad. If one didn't personally experience this, they would never understand. Although Qin Wentian had endless anticipation and yearning in his heart, he felt his will crumbling apart. If it wasn't for his intense desire, he would long have given up.

However, he encountered many wondrous heavenheart mandates through this process. There were also some that seemed very familiar to the source origins he used, and he gained some inspiration when he saw them.

For example, there was a heavenheart mandate named, 'Sun Blaze.'

Clearly, this heavenheart mandate had to do with the laws energy of light and fire. Sun Blaze, the blazing fire energies could also be displayed as a source of light. Qin Wentian guessed that this heavenheart mandate was formed from the completed fusion of source origins of fire and light.

In addition, he was familiar with the effects of this heavenheart mandate. Take his light astral soul for example, it was an extremely powerful one and he used it to manifest radiance, shining on his opponents to disintegrate his enemies from the intense heat and glare. This heavenheart mandate was similar but even more terrifying, it was truly a brand new energy. When the light from this heavenheart mandate shone on him, his body began to break down into millions of millions of pores that were penetrated through by each ray of light.

The light seemed endless, he only knew that he was disintegrating and couldn't do anything to prevent it. From this, one could tell how powerful Qin Wentian's source origins of the light laws are. He was able to achieve a similar effect to Sun Blaze although this heavenheart mandate was much more powerful.

Naturally, this type of death was better. He directly died, there wasn't any time to feel pain at all. Other than this, he also experienced an extremely cruel heavenheart mandate, parts of his body slowly rotted away, decaying bit by bit. He only died after a long time. He definitely didn't want to experience such a death again.

After repeated experiences, Qin Wentian let out a low roar. He felt that he was soon unable to endure. It's just that in the World of Ten Thousand Laws, he didn't have a choice, he couldn't exit it voluntarily. Would he be forced to continue?

"Senior." Qin Wentian's consciousness directly communicated with the Skybreak Heavenly Deity.

"Can you still hold on?" The Skybreak Heavenly Deity asked.

"I cannot endure any longer." Qin Wentian only sought help from the Skybreak Heavenly Deity when it was absolutely essential. He was at his absolute limits and the one who could help him now, was only the Skybreak Heavenly Deity.

"Alright." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity acknowledged. In truth, Qin Wentian being able to persevere so long up until now, experiencing so many heavenheart mandates and dying again and again, already made him feel somewhat taken aback.

A strange feeling appeared in his heart, Qin Wentian felt his consciousness being pulled out of this dimension.

"Hu…" He drew in a deep breath, Qin Wentian felt a sensation of floating. He helplessly laid on the ground, completely devoid of strength. When he inclined his head, he didn't see another stone monument.

"What's going on?" Qin Wentian was shocked. He turned his gaze further ahead and discovered the entrance of the World of Ten Thousand Laws. He was lying on the ground right before the entrance. The entrance shone with resplendent runic light, akin to a super strong formation. A few moments later, the light from the entrance dimmed and lost its luster.

"Where you are lying at, is precisely the entrance to the World of Ten Thousand Laws. You have already entered earlier, and have just exited now." The Skybreak Deity spoke.

"I've already entered?" Qin Wentian didn't understand.

"Your consciousness went in but you didn't know about it. The World of Ten Thousand Laws exists in the void. How did you feel after you experienced the power of heavenheart mandates?" The projection of the Skybreak Heavenly Deity appeared.

"Too terrifying, I'm even a little afraid to enter the World of Ten Thousand Laws again. However, after experiencing all that in addition to the dao lectures given by all the seniors, my comprehension towards heavenheart mandates has deepened by a lot. I think that I finally know what truly the power from heavenheart mandates is."

"Mhm, only like this would you be able to gain insights. If you have no idea, how would you be able to comprehend?" The Skybreak Heavenly Deity nodded his head. "In the future if you wish to experience heavenheart mandates more, you can enter the World of Ten Thousand Laws any time."

A strange look appeared on Qin Wentian's face after he heard that. He felt a little frightened to enter it again. Although he knew that everything was false, it was simply too painful!

Chapter 1733: Arrival

The Skybreak Heavenly Deity smiled when he saw the strange expression on Qin Wentian's face. "After seeing so many heavenheart mandates, did you gain any inspiration? Have you thought about what kinds of heavenheart mandate you want to comprehend?"

"I'll let nature takes its course. When a perfect fusion of source origins occurs, the heavenheart mandate would naturally be manifested. With a deeper layer of understanding, I hope I will be able to complete the fusion smoothly." Qin Wentian spoke.

The Skybreak Heavenly Deity started when he heard Qin Wentian's words, his ethereal voice contained a hint of disappointment. He held Qin Wentian's talent in very high regards but was Qin Wentian really going to be like the majority of experts, allowing their source origins to fuse first, gaining a heavenheart mandate before he manifested a world heart?

Why he would ask this question was because in reality, he wanted Qin Wentian to answer that he would consider it well and seek a suitable world heart energy to gain insights into. He wanted Qin Wentian to form his world domain first before he gained insights in heavenheart mandates.

One must know that a World Overlord would only have a single world heart but there are countless kinds of heavenheart mandates. World hearts are the root, heavenheart mandates are the branches and leaves. The Skybreak Heavenly Deity had placed all his hopes on Qin Wentian, he naturally hoped that Qin Wentian would have extraordinary achievements and choose the path where he comprehend a world heart first.

Hence, he was somewhat disappointed after he heard Qin Wentian's words.

Naturally, he wouldn't say anything and wouldn't disrupt Qin Wentian's cultivation or stop him from his choice. He was only responsible to impart the dao. As for how Qin Wentian wanted to approach the giant gate leading to the World Overlord Realm, that would have to depend on himself. Only by depending on himself would he be able to gain the deepest insight, allowing his cultivation base to be extremely stable.

Retracting his disappointment deep in his heart, the Skybreak Heavenly Deity felt hope again. Maybe, given how strong Qin Wentian's astral souls are, he might be able to form some extremely powerful heavenheart mandates from fusing his source origins.

"There are still some undamaged secret realms in the ancient battlefield and places with divine depositories. I'll bring you to roam around." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity spoke. After that, they left the World of the Ten Thousand Laws.

...

Time flowed extremely quickly by, especially during cultivation. Unknowingly, several years have already passed. During these years, all the experts brought here by Qin Wentian had terrifying levels of improvements. Such improvement speed would undoubtedly cause a storm to rise if it was known to the people outside.

Many immortal emperors, other than those with weaker cultivation bases, have all actually stepped into the empyrean realm. For those initial-stage and mid-stage emperors, they were now at the peak-stage of the immortal emperor realm, only a step away from reaching the empyrean realm too.

This was simply a transformation. The strength of everyone was upgraded and it sounded somewhat like an exaggeration.

However, the people guiding them were all heavenly deities. There were countless lives in the world but how many would be fortunate enough to receive pointers and dao lectures from heavenly deities?

Even for characters of the Heavenly Deity Race, only the most talented of them all would have such a chance. Just a single clan of the Heavenly Deity Race would be extremely large with countless population. It was naturally impossible for everyone in the clan to receive guidance from their heavenly deity. Only those with supreme talents or direct descendants would have such an opportunity.

But all these people from Azure Mystic have precisely received such preferential treatment. They even entered the various secret realms to temper themselves, gaining further inheritances from divine depositories. All of them had transcended their past selves and grew even stronger.

In fact, the person who improved the least was actually Qin Wentian. During these several years, Qin Wentian had entered many secret realms and divine depositories as he continued to deepen his insights. His comprehension towards the World Overlord Realm naturally grew as well, but sadly, he was still unable to break through. He hasn't manage to manifest a heavenheart mandate yet.

The reason behind this was very simple. For immortal emperors to break through to the empyrean realm, they had to transform their law energy into the source origins of that particular law, perfecting their understanding of it. But for empyreans breaking through to the World Overlord Realm, they still had to learn how to fuse source origins as well as comprehend a world heart. The difficulty was way higher.

After some of the empyreans reached perfection in their source origins, they also entered the World of Ten Thousand Laws. When they exited, all of them were sighing at how terrifying that place was but they were the same as Qin Wentian. The World Overlord Realm still seemed to be so far from their reach.

Through these years, Qin Wentian entered the World of Ten Thousand Laws many times. Although each and every time was an agonizing experience, he didn't have any second thoughts and suppressed the fear of that sensation of true death. He managed to last longer and saw even more heavenheart mandates.

Today, inside the floating city, before the magnificent statue of the Imperishable Heaven Lord, Qin Wentian, Qing`er, Beiming Youhuang, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch and many others were here.

Qing`er, Beiming Youhuang and the Southern Phoenix Matriarch have all entered the empyrean realm. Their demeanors changed, becoming even more outstanding. They who were originally already extremely beautiful became even more so now. When they stood together, they caused the surroundings to lose all their colors.

"I actually feel somewhat jealous seeing how fast you guys broke through to the empyrean realm." Qin Wentian laughed. "Currently, I'm most probably the only one still stuck at my original realm."

"What you are trying to achieve is the World Overlord Realm, it would naturally be difficult. Although I'm also experiencing the strength of World Overlords, I still don't understand it. Even with heavenly deities guiding me, I still feel it's unfathomable." Nanfeng Yaoyue, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch, shook her head. Right now before Qin Wentian, she naturally no longer exuded the imposingness of the Southern Phoenix Matriarch. In her aura, there was only grace and elegance left. During these years, she has already slowly adapted and could now completely treat Qin Wentian as a friend.

Naturally, with regards to this outstanding junior who allowed her to climb to her current heights, other than friendship, she also felt gratitude. Who would have thought that her decision to form a friendship with Qin Wentian back then allowed her to break through to the legendary realm of Azure Mystic, the ancient emperor realm, today?

"It's truly not easy to enter the World Overlord Realm." Beiming Youhuang softly spoke.

"Let nature take its course. For matters like cultivation, it's useless even if we want to rush it. We would only serve to delay ourselves more if we act with haste." Qin Wentian casually smiled. He could feel that he was improving everyday. Breaking through to the World Overlord Realm was something that would happen sooner or later, he wasn't in a rush to accomplish that.

"Where are they now?" Qin Wentian asked Beming Youhuang. They gathered here today because Beiming Youhuang sent a news to Qin Wentian telling him that the experts of the Heavenly Deity Race have already reached a location not far away from the floating city. They would soon discover it.

Also, their objective was very clear, they were rushing towards this place. Clearly, somebody was guiding them.

Qin Wentian guessed that they might have found some surviving wills of ancient heavenly deities in the ancient battlefield. Since the wills of ancient heavenly deities could survive, why couldn't the wills of those heavenly deities from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms survive as well?

Even before their opponents arrived, Beiming Youhuang already knew about it. This was because right now, Beiming Youhuang already managed to control many zombies. These zombies have all became her eyes.

"They are about to enter the city." Beiming Youhuang spoke.

"Seems like they would soon reach this place after a period of time." Qin Wentian mumbled. "Youhuang just control the zombies in the shadows, try not to show yourself in the open. Inform me immediately once you have other news. Qing`er, Yaoyue, you all hide yourselves as well and do what you need to do. I will try to mingle in the crowd and will temporarily handle the things there. If I'm unable to do so, I'll look for you all again."

"Be careful, okay?" Qing`er was extremely worried. After all, their opponents are extremely powerful experts and the one leading them are people from the Heavenly Deity Race from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Don't worry. Although I didn't break through during these years, my improvements are not small. Also, don't forget that I still have Senior Skybreak's will with me." Qin Wentian smiled at Qing`er. He then turned to Beiming Youhuang, "Youhuang will be in the shadows. If I really encounter danger, she can send the zombies to aid me."

"Mhm." Qing`er nodded, and left this place. This news about them, people from Azure Mystic, managing to obtain the inheritances of heavenly deities was something that must never be divulged. If not, Azure Mystic might truly be finished. This matter was too serious, it was even more serious than them killing these experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

How large was the Heavenly Deity Race? Even if some of them died, as long as they weren't truly core characters, it would only attract the attention from some World Overlords of the Heavenly Deity Race. But if the news about people from Azure Mystic managing to obtain the inheritance of Ancient Azure Mystic, maybe even those heavenly deities who are still alive might come themselves.

At this moment, a bunch of people entered the floating city. These people were all from different camps and there were also several who were simply followers, coming here alone with no alignment. When they stared at this magnificent city that was marked by devastation and destruction, a strong anticipation filled their hearts. They heard from those of the Heavenly Deity Race that this floating city was the core of Ancient Azure Mystic. A city where the Imperishable Heaven Lord grew up in.

Once in the past, inside this city, some heavenly deities stayed here before.

From this, one could very well imagine how many treasures there would be if a divine depository was found here.

"Wang Yi, Yu Feifan has already obtained a heavenly deity's will. Would he have arrived here already?" Someone turned his gaze to Wang Yi from the Heavenly Deity Race.

"I have no idea. Back then, the Winged God Race's ancestor borrowed Yu Feifan's body and fought against someone from Azure Mystic. After that, both of them disappeared, I have no idea where they went to. But even so, what can they do even if they came here? How can the treasures within be occupied by a single person?" Wang Yi coldly spoke.

"A person from Azure Mystic? You guys actually didn't kill that person?" An expert coldly spoke. Wang Yi's eyes flashed. Back then, it was true that they should have directly killed Qin Wentian. They didn't expect an ant like him would actually obtain good fortune, receiving a heaven deity's will. He even dared to proclaim himself as the Heaven Empyrean of Azure Mystic. Right now, nobody knew if he was already killed by Yu Feifan or not.

They continued advancing, directly rushing towards the floating city in the sky. On their way there, they discovered that there were actually no zombies obstructing them. This was highly unusual.

"Did you guys realize that no zombies obstructed us during our journey here?" Someone brought up a suspicious point.

"Could it be that this was a sacred city back then and even the zombies still felt awe and trepidation in their hearts although they have already died?" Another expert had a strange expression on his face. The situation was indeed somewhat strange.

"Don't bother too much about that. There's definitely the wills of many ancient heavenly deities in the floating city." At this moment, an expert from the Heavenly Deity Race spoke. The expressions of everyone turned solemn as their attitudes became more serious. This was the central core city of Ancient Azure Mystic. Those surviving wills of the ancient heavenly deities should be here, right?

Chapter 1734: Tyrannical

Wang Yi had many experts around him. In fact, he already wasn't the leader. He spread the news about the will of ancient heavenly deity from the Winged God Race appearing back to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. His clan there decided to send even more experts to the lower world and among the new batch of experts sent, there were experts with statuses higher than him.

Wang Qi, one of the core members of his clan, was a direct descendent of a heavenly deity. Right now, Wang Qi possessed the highest authority among the experts from the Wang Clan sent here to Ancient Azure Mystic. However, Wang Yi didn't feel anything inappropriate. This is as it should be by right. In the clans among the Heavenly Deity Race, hierarchy was very important and clear. If he wanted a higher position, he had to grow stronger. But before that, he had to bury all his ambitious thoughts in his heart.

"There seem to be people here." At this moment, Wang Qi halted his steps. His immortal sense extended outwards rapidly, enveloping the entire area. After that, he suddenly sped directly towards a direction. All the experts here also released their immortal senses, after that, they seemed to discover the same thing as well as all of them sped in the same direction as Wang Qi.

They came to a dilapidated palace that has now transformed into a ruin. From within, a figure walked out. When they saw this figure, many of them started.

It was actually him. This man actually didn't die yet?

"You are still alive?" Wang Yi stared at Qin Wentian as he asked. He didn't expect that the person he would see here would actually be the so-called Heaven Empyrean of Azure Mystic.

After the aftershock waves from that battle ended, many people thought that Qin Wentian was already killed by Yu Feifan from the Winged God Race.

Qin Wentian frowned, he swept his gaze over to Wang Yi and counter-asked, "You are still alive?"

Wang Yi's golden eyes flashed with coldness, "Did the heavenly deity's will residing in your body guide you here?"

"He has a heavenly deity's will on him?" The eyes of everyone gleamed with sharpness. In an instant, countless eyes turned to Qin Wentian.

"Haha, an expert at the heavenly deity realm, do you think he would keep staying with me?" Qin Wentian laughed loudly. "After the battle that day, he left my body because of incompatibility issues. That comrade of yours then chased after him. Why? Isn't Yu Feifan here today?"

As he spoke, he swept his gaze over at the people in the surroundings as though trying to search for Yu Feifan.

It wasn't a good thing that people would know he had the will of a heavenly deity with him. After all, he would definitely return to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms in the future and hence, it was necessary for him to pretend a bit. It was best that everyone thought the will of that heavenly deity no longer has a connection with him.

Wang Yi and the others actually believed in Qin Wentian's words. Because his opponent was the will of an ancient heavenly deity from the Winged God Race that was borrowing the body of Yu Feifan, a descendant of the Winged God Race. Compatibility wise, Yu Feifan would naturally be much higher. It was a very logical thing that the will of the ancient heavenly deity would leave Qin Wentian after the battle was over.

"Then, why did you come to this place?" Wang Yi asked.

Qin Wentian impatiently glanced over and coldly replied, "Why are you trying to bother me with so much questions? Are you guys not here as well?"

"How dare you reply to me in this tone." Wang Yi stepped out as he tyrannically continued, "If you reply me with nonsense again, I will directly kill you."

Wang Qi who was beside Wang Yi, glanced at him. He already knew who Qin Wentian was, this man should be the current overlord of Azure Mystic that goes by the title of Heaven Empyrean. What an audacious title.

Qin Wentian's eyes narrowed as he stared at Wang Yi. He coldly spoke, "I want to see how exactly can you kill me."

"Not knowing the immensity of heavens and earth." Wang Yi stepped out. An ant-like character of Azure Mystic actually dared to talk back to him. He was simply courting death.

What sort of character was he? He was a descendant of the Heavenly Deity Race and had the bloodline of a heavenly deity in his veins. Although he merely belonged to a side branch of the main clan, he was still extremely powerful. How could an ant of Azure Mystic be comparable to him? The Heavenly Deity Race was a series of clans that stood at the very peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"BOOM!" The sound of a ringing bell could be heard. A small bell flew out from Wang Yi's hand and instantly enlarged, transforming into a gigantic bell. It was none other than that supreme treasure. With a tap of his hand, Wang Yi caused the ancient bell to fly towards Qin Wentian. A powerful wave of power enveloped the vast surroundings, directly locking onto the location Qin Wentian was at. After that, terrifying beams of energy blasted out, wanting to slaughter Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian didn't evade it. With a wave of his hand, a treasured hoop appeared. The treasured hoop instantly enlarged, unleashing resplendent runic light that transformed into a circular light screen. The energy beams from the ancient bell slammed into it, they were unable to injure Qin Wentian.

"Go!" The hoop flew out. It was like a beam of lightning that blasted towards the gigantic ancient bell.

"Careful, retract the bell!" Wang Qi spoke. Wang Yi's expression sank, although he wasn't willing to do so, he still decided to obey and retracted the bell. However, at this moment, the screen of light manifested from the hoop suddenly expanded and directly swallowed up the ancient bell. After that, the ancient hell completely vanished.

"DIE!" Qin Wentian coldly shouted. A terrifying killing might shot out from the treasured hoop, causing Wang Yi's expression to drastically change. His eyes shot out rays of golden light, manifesting strands of golden sword qi that could tear everything apart. However, the terrifying might from the treasured hoop actually cause the sword qi to disintegrate as it blasted into Wang Yi. Many bloody holes opened up in Wang Yi's body as his fresh blood flowed uninterrupted.

The treasured hoop hummed softly, flaring with a resplendent light. Qin Wentian floated in the air, he came before the hoop and stretched out his hand to grab it. The resplendent light radiating from the hoop instantly vanished.

"If I want to kill you, I can do so with ease. People like you who only know how to exhibit your might by hiding behind a powerful weapon, what qualifications do you have to act so arrogantly before this seat?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. Back then, Wang Yi used this treasure to injure him and he was merely now returning the favor back to Wang Yi. Comparing divine weapons? How would he care about that.

In fact, he even directly took Wang Yi's ancient bell away. Let that be considered the interest Wang Yi owned him then.

"Keep your divine weapon and fight with me." Wang Yi's eyes gleamed with a fearsome light, turning completely golden.

"Are you even qualified?" Qin Wentian mockingly spoke. He didn't have so much time to play with Wang Yi. Back then when Wang Yi held him in disdain and used the ancient bell's power to suppress him, didn't he also want Wang Yi to keep his treasure and fight with him? At that time, from Wang Yi's perspective, he was a lofty individual that could kill Qin Wentian with a single thought. Why would he waste time to fight with Qin Wentian by keeping his divine weapon away?

In that case, although Qin Wentian cannot kill him now, he decided to let Wang Yi properly taste the same feeling he felt.

"Return the divine weapon of my clan to me." Wang Qi coldly spoke. Although that was just an overlord-ranked weapon and couldn't be considered anything in their clan, it was impossible for him to allow others to seize it just like that. Also, he knew that an elder of Wang Yi had imbued his immortal sense inside that weapon, allowing that elder to control it remotely.

"Ridiculous, do you think it's possible?" Qin Wentian swept his glance at Wang Qi. He could sense that this man before him has a higher status than Wang Yi. Seems like the Heavenly Deity Race in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms has sent even more experts down to Azure Mystic. He had to drive all of them back or Azure Mystic would be unable to gain peace forever.

"Where did the divine weapon in your hands come from?" The other experts from the Heavenly Deity Race were actually paying attention to the treasured hoop used by Qin Wentian. How could the sealed Azure Mystic have such a divine weapon? There was only a single possibility for such a weapon to exist. It must be from one of the hidden divine depositories in this ancient battlefield.

"How unfortunate for you to come in together with this ant to the ancient battlefield. Is it very strange that I can obtain a divine weapon?" Qin Wentian calmly spoke. The ant in his words was naturally referring to Wang Yi. This caused Wang Yi's countenance to contort, he wanted nothing more than to directly fight against Qin Wentian and kill him with overwhelming might. How dare he speak so insolently. However, when Wang Yi saw the divine treasure in Qin Wentian's hand, he didn't dare to move recklessly. The divine hoop was extremely powerful, it should be a high-grade overlord-ranked weapon and would surely contain the power of a heavenheart mandate inside it.

"Where did you get this treasure from?" That person asked again.

Qin Wentian glanced at the expert who spoke. As expected of someone from the Heavenly Deity Race in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Each of them was more arrogant than the other.

"Idiot." Qin Wentian directly spat a word out. Since the other party wanted to act so arrogantly before him, he would face them with an even more arrogant and lofty attitude. He wanted to see what exactly these experts from the Heavenly Deity Race in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms could do to him.

Only now in this ancient battlefield did Qin Wentian have such confidence. This wasn't the home ground of these descendants from the Heavenly Deity Race. This place was Ancient Azure Mystic, it was his home ground.

When that expert from the Heavenly Deity Race heard Qin Wentian's reply, a terrifying aura radiated from him. Energy from his source origins instantly surrounded the space Qin Wentian was in, it was like he was already prepared to act against Qin Wentian. But at this moment, with a wave of his hand, the treasured hoop directly flew out. A brilliant light shot out from it, trapping that Heavenly Deity Race's expert inside.

"What do you want to do?" Qin Wentian stared at him and asked. Upon feeling the might of the treasured hoop, that Heavenly Deity Race's expert turned ashen as he stared at Qin Wentian.

"Do you know what you are doing?" That expert from the Heavenly Deity Race coldly asked.

"I'm asking you, what do you want to do?" Qin Wentian's voice turned tyrannical. A beam of light shot out from the hoop, piercing through the Heavenly Deity Race's expert, causing a bloody wound to open in his body.

That expert lowered his head, when he saw the bloody hole in his body, his expression contorted.

"HOW DARE YOU!" A divine weapon appeared in his hand as he struck out with it.

"Chi, chi, chi…" Bloody lines appeared on the face and body of that expert, the might generated from the divine hoop grew even stronger as the light grew more resplendent. It was as though Qin Wentian could slay him with just a single thought.

"There's a limit to my patience. I'm asking you for the last time, what do you want to do?" Qin Wentian asked for the third time. Boundless light gushed forth from the hoop as killing intent radiated from Qin Wentian. When all the experts in the surroundings saw this, they felt their hearts trembling. Wasn't this fellow a little too crazy? Why would he dare to act so audaciously? He actually didn't place the experts from the Heavenly Deity Race in his eyes?

Could it be that he didn't know what the consequences would be if he did this?

But regardless of the consequences, the question now was that would that expert from the Heavenly Deity Race choose to compromise under Qin Wentian's domineering actions? If he didn't compromise, would this madman before his eyes truly kill him?

If he, a descendant of the Heavenly Deity Race was killed by someone here from the lower world, that would truly be a great injustice!

Chapter 1735: Army of Zombies

The atmosphere was extremely tense. The others from the Heavenly Deity Race naturally wouldn't interfere. Qin Wentian's gaze was incomparably sharp, directly staring at the trapped expert. He asked the same question three times, his attitude was extremely dominant, wanting this person to submit to him.

The light from the treasured hoop was as brilliant as ever. It could generate beams of light that can easily pierce through the trapped expert. Under such a threat, even though descendants of the Heavenly Deity Race have always been arrogant, that trapped expert had no choice but to grit his teeth and bear it since his life was at stake, "I accidentally released my aura, I don't want to do anything."

When he spoke these words, he could feel his pride as being part of the Heavenly Deity Race slowly disintegrate from the impact. He had actually submitted to a person from the lower world in Azure Mystic. His expressions couldn't help but to contort.

"You accidentally released your aura? Why was your aura boring down on me?" Qin Wentian continued to question him, as domineering as ever.

"You…" That trapped expert wanted to speak but the light from the treasured hoop flared even more brilliantly. A sizzling sound rang out as fresh blood seeped out of the finger he extended outwards to point at Qin Wentian. A moment later, that entire finger was gone, burned by the terrible might of the treasure. An intense of crisis appeared in his heart as he hurriedly swallowed the words he wanted to say, feeling incredibly humiliated.

"I apologize, I truly had no intentions to cause offense." He gritted his teeth and spoke, apologizing in complete submission.

Upon seeing this scene, many people silently mused that even experts from the Heavenly Deity Race would also feel fear in their hearts. This was especially so for the many followers who came here following the lead of the experts from the Heavenly Deity Race. So what even if you are a part of the Heavenly Deity Race? Before someone truly powerful, you would also submit to the pressure and discard your pride.

"This place is the territory of Azure Mystic, you guys best don't forget your identity. This isn't your turf, in truth, if you all discard your status, you guys are really nothing much." Qin Wentian mockingly spoke, his words were directed to everyone here, including the Wang Yi who was extremely tyrannical before this. Wang Yi felt his face burning, he knew Qin Wentian was humiliating him.

The expressions of many experts from the Heavenly Deity Race turned sharp as they stared at Qin Wentian. There were also some who had smiles on their faces, thinking that things are getting interesting. They didn't expect this so-called overlord of Azure Mystic to be so interesting. In addition, he had even managed to obtain a powerful divine treasure that could threaten them, the experts from the Heavenly Deity Race.

"Sir, your words are not without logic. We came to Ancient Azure Mystic because of the divine depositories. Why don't we travel together? This floating city is the central core of Ancient Azure Mystic and there's definitely many treasures hidden within. If we join forces, our chances of success would be much greater." An expert spoke with a warm tone, causing people who heard it to easily feel good will towards him. However, Qin Wentian wouldn't believe in his words so easily.

Also, they were here for the divine depositories but things were different from him. As for all the secrets in the floating city, the wills of the ancient heavenly deities of Ancient Azure Mystic naturally knew about it. As long as the conditions are right, he would be able to take them all for his side. An example was the secret realm of the World of Ten Thousand Laws as well as the divine hoop in his hands. Joining forces? He didn't need that. What he needed was to get these people to scram back to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Only then would all the secrets here belong to him and his friends.

Naturally, Qin Wentian wouldn't reveal such information to them. He merely smiled at the other party, "Sir, your words are logical. It's just that I, Qin, humbly persuade you all not to proceed further. It isn't so easy to gain treasures from the divine depositories."

"Oh?" That expert smiled. "What do you mean?"

"Don't you feel that this floating city is a little strange? For example, where are those zombies?" Qin Wentian smiled.

"Now that you mention it, you are right. Is there something we don't know?" An expert from the Heavenly Deity Race asked.

"Truth to be told, I'm able to obtain this divine treasure due to an immense stroke of luck. Now, I only dare to move about in the outer perimeters. If I get close to the central area…" Qin Wentian shook his head. "After experiencing it once, I don't dare to near there again. If you guys trust me, just listen to my persuasion and give up on going there. If not, I estimate that there would only be a 10% chance of survival. I'm afraid if all of you went there, only a rare few would have the life to return."

"We have so many experts here yet you say we only have a 10% chance of survival? Are your words not a little too exaggerated?" An expert from the Heavenly Deity Race coldly snorted. How could the prideful them easily believe in Qin Wentian's words. They believed that Qin Wentian was intentionally acting like this, could it be that there's really a divine depository there?

Upon thinking of this, they glanced towards the treasured hoop in Qin Wentian's hands again as their eyes gleamed with the heat of greed. If there really is a divine depository there and if they were Qin Wentian, they would naturally also wish to swallow it whole for themselves. Even if they couldn't occupy it alone, they must protect it and not allow others to share the spoils. Because, they knew that Qin Wentian knew that if they were the ones who discovered the divine depository, it would be impossible for Qin Wentian to obtain any spoils no matter his strength.

"Haha, I'll only say this much. If you guys don't believe me, continue searching ahead for the divine depository then. If you all encounter danger, don't blame me for not warning you all. I could only manage to seize this divine hoop due to an extraordinary stroke of luck and had even narrowly lost my life then. You guys better consider things carefully, I better make myself scarce and move further from this place in case I'm implicated by your actions." After he spoke, Qin Wentian actually prepared to leave.

"Sir, hold on." The expert with the warm voice called out. Qin Wentian halted, "I've already said what I need to. Is there anything else the matter?"

"What is the exact source of danger? Can you tell us in more detail?" That expert was still filled with disbelief towards Qin Wentian's words. He didn't trust him completely, but he was also worried at the same time.

"I've already made things very clear. If you guys still want to persist on proceeding forward, why is there a need to ask me more questions? Those of different daos cannot mix together." After speaking, Qin Wentian directly flew away. Many people stared at his back as their eyes gleamed in contemplation.

"Everyone, what do you all think?" Wang Qi asked the crowd.

"We must naturally continue to advance forward. Even if there really is danger, we can simply join forces. Can it be that we can't even deal with the zombies?" A person confidently stated. For their group, there were also some experts who managed to obtain the wills of some ancient heavenly deities. That, in addition to the treasures they had, why would they need to fear the zombies?

"Alright everyone, let's go together then."

They were all from the upper world, and many were characters from the Heavenly Deity Race. They had participated in many dangerous tempering exercises before. This time, they specially came here for the ancient battlefield and now, the central core of Ancient Azure Mystic was before their eyes. How would they be frightened off by some words of Qin Wentian?

However, the wariness in their hearts increased. They decided to continue to advance forward and simply be more cautious.

They didn't know that after Qin Wentian left this place, he immediately took out his messaging crystal and sent a message to Beiming Youhuang. "Youhuang, you can prepare to act now."

Earlier, he had already discussed with Beiming Youhuang that one of them would be in the light while the other would be in the dark. The matters here would be jointly handled by him and Beiming Youhuang.

The various experts from the Heavenly Deity Race led the others as they continued moving forward. As they were moving, the countless zombies in the floating city started to gather at the central part of it.

Not only so, many zombies that were in the central area also started to move. All of them surged forward like the tides, moving in one direction.

And as the experts from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms advanced, there was finally someone who felt that something was wrong.

"What a heavy death qi, did any of you sense it?"

"Mhm, the death qi is getting stronger and stronger. I can sense waves of the death qi moving towards us." Another expert nodded his head. Their immortal senses extended outwards, covering the entire region. Not long after, they finally discovered the source of the death qi and their expressions all changed.

"What's the matter?" Someone asked.

"What that person told us earlier was real. The zombies in this floating city are extremely weird, they are actually trying to surround us. Could it be that they know our movements? Or maybe, there are people from Ancient Azure Mystic that are still alive in the floating city?"

"Could it be that there's someone controlling these zombies?"

A sense of unease arose in their hearts. The number of zombies gathered here was truly at a terrifying amount. Although they also had many experts, it was very tough to say which side would be victorious if they faced off against these zombies who had no fear of death.

"What should we do?" Someone asked.

"What else can we do? Make the preparations for battle." An expert from the Heavenly Deity Race spoke. A fearsome aura gushed forth from him, as he brandished his divine weapon. Since they were already here, there was no choice left. If there are zombies obstructing them, they shall slay all these zombies then.

All of the experts started to prepare their formations as they moved out in an imposing manner. They were incredibly strong. However, for those people who came here as followers just because the experts from the Heavenly Deity Race were leading, all had trepidation in their hearts. The experts from the Heavenly Deity Race possessed overwhelming combat prowess and was able to deal with the zombies but it was very difficult for them to do so. When they saw the vast amounts of zombies in the zombie army rushing at them, many of the human experts who came here all had unsightly expressions on their faces.

Not only that, there were even more zombies rushing here at every moment. The eyes of these zombies shone with a strange terrifying light, as though they still possessed of their will. They gave everyone an extremely bizarre feeling.

"KILL, KILL, KILL…" Instantly, the roars of killing thundered through the skies. Countless zombies began to rush towards the experts, many of them moving with terrifying speed. The experts from the Heavenly Deity Race didn't hide at the back. They led the charge, rallying their side with roars of valor. Several of them were like heavenly deities. Wang Qi's golden eyes shot out rays that enveloped his surroundings, tearing apart space. An ancient cauldron appeared in his hands and he sent it flying through the air, expanding unceasingly. Beams of destructive might shot in all directions as the gigantic cauldron revolved around frenziedly in the air, instantly killing many of the zombies.

There were other experts from the Heavenly Deity Race that manifested divinities of their respective laws behind their back. Every wave of their attacks would result in numerous zombies being killed.

Some of them possessed special bloodlines and were extremely powerful. Right now, all of them unleashed their powers together. For a period of time, the light radiating their surroundings grew extremely resplendent, like it was a world belonging to them alone.

However, the number of zombies in this zombie army was simply too many. Despite their slaughter, there were still zombies unceasingly rushing towards the humans and ripping them apart. Ordinary empyreans basically couldn't defend against such an onslaught whereby the attackers had no fear of death, let alone the many immortal emperor followers, all of them were nothing but cannon fodder. Screams of pain and agony filled the air, the entire scene dissolved into chaos, with many casualties on the side of those from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Many people instantly turned timid. When they saw the people around them getting shredded to pieces, with blood and severed flesh flying about, no matter how strong their wills were, their wills would definitely be shaken. Let alone the fact that these enemies were basically dead people, there was no meaning in killing them at all. Right from the start, this was a battle that they were destined to lose. They would all die here for the sake of being the cannon fodder for these experts from the Heavenly Deity Race!

Chapter 1736: Intimidation, Expulsion

The brutal battle continued, very swiftly, countless experts died here. For those who were still alive, all of them couldn't help but to think whether was it worth it to come here?

They came here for the sake of good fortune but right now, they couldn't even find the exit and could only grit their teeth and continue advancing forward, searching for the so-called divine depositories. There might be some supreme experts from the Heavenly Deity Race that might receive good fortune or find the ancient wills of a heavenly deity who died. However, the vast majority of them wouldn't be able to gain anything at all.

In the air, the experts from the Heavenly Deity Race continued their slaughter. Zombies were essentially dead people. Although they didn't fear death, they were ultimately beings who had died. How could they withstand the slaughter of these descendants from the Heavenly Deity Race?

"BOOM!" At this moment, the earth suddenly trembled, causing the hearts of everyone to pound wildly.

"BOOM, BOOM, BOOM!"

The fearsome rumble continued, the heart beats of everyone pounded along with the rhythm. In addition, the rumbling grew more and more intense and very swiftly, the faces of many people changed. From their immortal senses, they could see a terrifying scene.

The eyes of the experts from the Heavenly Deity Race all turned over there. They could see a giant figure rushing over here. This giant figure had no head, yet it still exuded a majestic aura, like a god of battle. This was none other than the body of the Futian Battle God. In truth, his body was already heavily damaged and he was beheaded. This is now just an empty shell.

But even so, how extraordinarily powerful the threat of the divine body of a battle god would be?

In addition, there was a figure standing on the shoulders of this headless body. This figure was clad in black armor and was extremely terrifying, resembling gods and devils. He had a terrifying divine weapon in his hand in the shape of a black-colored bow that emanated a towering devilish might. It felt like a single arrow from this bow could tear the heavens asunder.

"In this ancient battlefield, there's actually people who are still alive? Can this person be the same as us? Someone who came here from the outside?" A person stared at the figure in black armor as he mumbled. They didn't know that they had already met with this person. This figure was none other than Qin Wentian in another guise.

He first appeared using his original body, intentionally telling the people that things are very dangerous if they proceeded forward. After that, he used the transformation ability granted to him by his phantasm astral soul and transformed into another person with another powerful supreme divine weapon in his hand as he appeared before them again.

"Who are you?" An expert from the Heavenly Deity Race walked over, staring at Qin Wentian as he asked. Right now, these experts from the Heavenly Deity Race felt extremely shocked. If there are also outsiders other than them, could it be that the divine depositories have already been obtained by him?

"In the past, those from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms came here and destroyed my Ancient Azure Mystic. Today, who would have thought that you all still have the guts to come here. This seat will borrow a body and return here, upholding the mission I held in life, slaughtering everyone from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. A debt of blood can only be repaid by blood." An icy and solemn voice rang out from Qin Wentian's mouth, causing the expressions of all the experts here to change. This was an ancient figure. The wills of some ancients must have survived and they borrowed the bodies of outsiders to return to life. This figure before them must be one of these ancient figures.

They didn't suspect Qin Wentian's words as it was extremely logical. And their guess earlier wasn't really that realistic. Since they who were from the Heavenly Deity Race have not obtained any divine depositories yet, how could there be any others who managed to do so before them? Also, if there was someone who was alive all this while since ancient times, how could their cultivation bases only be at this level? It's clearly impossible.

There was only a single explanation. It was like what this figure in black armor has said, this was an ancient figure who borrowed a body to return to life.

"This is the body of the Futian Battle God. Are you him?" Someone stared at Futian Battle God's body before turning to the figure in black armor as he spoke. The will of an ancient heavenly deity from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms resided in him. The will was the one who told him that this was the body of the Futian Battle God. This person thought that the Futian Battle God's will was borrowing the body of this figure in black armor.

"Seems like you have a surviving will residing in your body." Qin Wentian swept his glance over. The figure in black armor that resembled gods and devils raised the bow in his hand and pulled on the bow string. In an instant, the heavens and earth howled in rage as raging winds gusted. A fearsome tempest of devil might manifested in the surroundings.

An ethereal arrow formed from the void, appearing on the bow, ready to be fired. After that, it directly locked onto that expert from the Heavenly Deity Race. That expert's countenance drastically changed, he hurriedly took out a round disk brimming with endless divine light, transforming into a powerful energy that acted as a shield before him.

"BOOM!" Boundless devil might erupted forth at this moment, the lightscreen manifested from the round disk shattered instantly as that expert was blasted backwards. His divine weapon blocked that mortal strike for him, allowing him to barely survive.

But in the next moment, he saw another three arrows appearing in the bow. The devil might in the area churned wildly as the air flow let out sonic booms. With a thunderous bang, that expert screamed as his body was directly blasted into pieces. Although he had the will of an ancient heavenly deity residing in him, he had no way to dodge something as fast as the fired arrows. Even if he could dodge, it was useless as well. This bow had the power to lock onto its targets.

But at this moment, the other experts from the Heavenly Deity Race acted. They naturally wouldn't sit here to wait for their death. For some of them who possessed the wills of ancient heavenly deities all began to unleash power comparable to world overlords, using the power of heavenheart mandates. Qin Wentian immediately evaded and flew into the Futian Battle God's neck. When all the violent attacks blasted into the Futian Battle God's body, they actually had no effect. Despite the body being an empty shell, the toughness of the body of a heavenly deity was truly monstrous.

Even the world-ending battle back then didn't completely destroy some of the bodies from heavenly deities, allowing them to last through the passage of time up till now. Also, that was the real body of the Futian Battle God. Even if it was unable to unleash power equivalent to his peak those years ago, it was impossible for his body to be damaged by world overlord-levels of power. The reason for this was very simple. Futian was a heavenly deity whose flesh was even tougher than overlord-ranked divine weapons.

All of a sudden, an opening appeared on Futian's chest. The divine bow from earlier actually appeared there and directly shot out arrows with explosive might.

One of the experts of the Heavenly Deity Race that was rushing over had his head tunneled through by an arrow as he exploded immediately. After that, the illusory will of the ancient heavenly deity residing in his body was slain by another arrow as well.

The hole in the Futian Battle God's neck was now tightly covered by both his hands, no one was able to attack Qin Wentian who was hiding inside the body.

"RUMBLE!" The Futian Battle God stepped out, rushing into the crowd. The divine bow continuously shot out arrows that no one was able to block. With every single arrow fired, countless experts would die from the impact. There were even some people who got trampled to their death by the Futian Battle God because they were too slow in moving out of the way. At this moment, the immortal emperors all seemed as tiny and inconsequential as ants.

Those experts of the Heavenly Deity Race hurriedly retreated with explosive speed, flying through the air. The gigantic body of the Futian Battle God stopped. His feet stomped the ground, causing an immense rumbling sound. At the moment of impact, bright runic light flashed, as the area here transformed into a gigantic formation that could connect with the constellations of darkness in the skies.

"This seat cannot be bothered to chase after mere insects. This is the teleportation array to get out. In the devastated lands of Ancient Azure Mystic, you guys don't need to dream about obtaining anything. Immediately scram now and after you get out, tell this to those who once killed people of my Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. Wait for me to kill my way to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." A thunderous and tyrannical voice issued from the belly of the Futian Battle God. After that, he moved backwards and roared, "Enter the formation and get the hell out of my sight."

After speaking, he actually directly turned his head and left the area. There were still many zombies in the surroundings, and naturally, there were also many who came from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. When these people saw the blood on the ground and the number of corpses, all of them felt their hearts turning to ice. The wild excitement they felt when they were sent here were had long dissipated. They hesitated, a few moments later, some of them decided to enter the array.

After that, more and more people joined them. This became the general trend as almost all of the followers chose to leave here decisively. Some of the experts from the Heavenly Deity Race had unsightly expressions on their faces. Should they leave just like this? They felt an intense reluctance to accept this in their hearts.

"Let's go." One of the experts from the Heavenly Deity Race took the initiative and turned around to leave the area. Even if they weren't able to obtain anything in this floating city, he wouldn't use the teleportation array to leave the ancient battlefield like this. There definitely must be divine depositories here. As for finding an exit, he believed he would find one sooner or later.

Next, more and more experts from the Heavenly Deity Race chose the same option as the first expert. Their wills grew even stronger. Despite the danger here, they believed they held enough cards to protect themselves.

The giant body of the Futian Battle God didn't stop anyone from leaving. Qin Wentian exited his body and watched on with a cold expression. This ancient battlefield was far too vast, if there were people who didn't want to leave, he didn't have any solutions as well. It was impossible for him to scour every inch of this land to deal with those from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. He believed that the display of might today had already frightened many people, causing them to feel a threat to their lives.

At the very least, the people of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms would not be allowed to enter this floating city.

Not long after, the vast majority of people chose to exit by the teleportation array. Only a minority choose to remain behind as they explored other areas, hoping to find good fortune. Qin Wentian understood that these descendants of heavenly deities were all extremely powerful. It was very tough to kill them, they should be able to gain some good fortune ultimately.

When everyone finally vanished from this area, the countless zombies started moving again, heading off to different locations. This floating city would be guarded by the zombies.

Qin Wentian changed back to his normal appearance. His gaze turned towards the horizons. Not long after, a beautiful figure appeared beside him. It was none other than Beiming Youhuang.

"How do you feel?" Qin Wentian turned to Beiming Youhuang and asked.

"Somewhat fatigued." Beiming Youhuang replied in a soft voice. "There are some extremely powerful zombies that I still can't control completely."

"If you really can completely control all these zombies, the entirety of Ancient Azure Mystic will become your territory. How would those people from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms still be able to survive?" Qin Wentian smiled. The Death Scripture must be an extremely terrifying secret art, allowing one to use one's soul power to kill people and control the dead.

"Mhm, it's just that we have to trouble Senior Futian Battle God. His body is actually used in such a manner by us." Beiming Youhuang glanced at the gigantic body of the Futian Battle God. Earlier, it was none other than her who was controlling Futian's body.

"If senior minds it, why would he have taken the initiative to do that?" Qin Wentian spoke in a light voice. There was really nothing to say about these ancient heavenly deities of Ancient Azure Mystic. Qin Wentian could feel how heavy the weight of responsibility on him was.

"Let's go, we should continue to cultivate. In the future if there are people who still dares to enter the floating city, we will simply smack them back. We have the guidance from the ancient wills of the senior heavenly deities and the greatest good fortune and most valuable divine depositories are in our hands. Those from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms won't be able to obtain too much of it." Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang then turned to leave. The body of the Futian Battle God also followed them.

And when all the earlier sounds of the commotion caused finally faded, this battlefield was only left with a desolate silence.

Also, for the years that followed, there were still many people who came here, but the vast majority of them were unable to pass this test of facing against the army of zombies. All of them were driven off and had to leave. The fervor of the news about the Ancient Azure Mystic's ancient battlefield slowly began to calm down in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Currently, more exits in the ancient battlefield were found. Also, even when unending waves of people are entering, many of the people in here were dying. There were also plenty who chose to retreat!

However, all of this seemed to no longer have a thing to do with Qin Wentian and the others who were silently cultivating. All of them were completely immersed in their own cultivation worlds!

Chapter 1737: Realmlord's Order

Time flowed by, the clouds and winds of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realm was changing but those ancient heavenly deity clans were still standing at the very peak. As for things in the ancient battlefield, many people from the Heavenly Deity Race obtained some benefits but there were also some who hasn't obtained a single thing.

This was already so for those from the Heavenly Deity Race, let alone those experts from mere overlord-ranked powers. After more people in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms knew of the situation in the lower world, many world overlord-ranked powers also started to give up.

During these years, there were once powers from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that acted against Heaven Empyrean City in Azure Mystic. These people were none other than those powers backing the empyreans killed by Qin Wentian when he first returned to unify the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. However, Di Tian has been on guard inside Heaven Empyrean City all this while. He shared a connection with Qin Wentian and whatever Qin Wentian had experienced, would also be considered his experience. Even if he wasn't in Ancient Azure Mystic, the amount of comprehension gained was the same.

And because of this, after quite a few failed attempts at invasion and the empyreans sent here to attack were all killed by Di Tian using the power of his formation, everyone was shocked. More and more experts decided to leave the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. With regards to the current Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, those supreme powers from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms had no interest in it. Even if there was an individual with extraordinary performance, they would at most only pay him a little bit of attention.

In the blink of an eye, another tens of years passed since Qin Wentian entered Ancient Azure Mystic. During this period of time, he read through some of the ancient scrolls within dao depositories and learned how to create a spatial formation that could be used to exit this place. He then went out and fetched Qingcheng back. After that, he built a teleportation array linking the entrance of Ancient Azure Mystic to Heaven Empyrean City. After fetching Mo Qingcheng, he destroyed the teleportation array so other empyreans weren't able to use it.

Although Qingcheng's cultivation base was much weaker than the rest, given Qin Wentian's face, all the heavenly deities were willing to guide her.

For those experts brought here with him from the Lifire Palace, Qin Wentian didn't bring them in here, not even Xu Li. The implications of this matter was far too great, he was only acquainted with Xu Li because of Ye Qianyu. Although Xu Li was loyal to him, Qin Wentian didn't dare to take the risk because he simply wasn't clear what other relationships Xu Li had with the people from the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. As for the people in Azure Mystic, it was not very possible for them to have a connection with the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. This place was their home, so they would all naturally stand in the same camp.

During these years, Ye Qianyu has also contacted him, asking him why he still didn't return back to the Lifelong Realm yet and was he planning to abandon her? She naturally spoke in a joking tone, which was usual for Ye Qianyu's personality. Qin Wentian told her that he had managed to obtain good fortune in Ancient Azure Mystic and is currently cultivating. He would tell her everything in detail once he got back. Hence, Ye Qianyu didn't ask any further as she knew how serious this matter was. She naturally knew about the things that happened in Azure Mystic, the Lifelong Realm had sent four palace lords there after all.

Today, in the western direction of the floating city, Qin Wentian was inside a torn and tattered looking ancient palace. According to the Skybreak Heavenly Deity, this particular palace was once a place of faith where many people gathered. It was an ancient location of a buddhist sect that had countless branch sects that filled many places around the Ancient Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

In fact, the Skybreak Heavenly Deity even told him that this buddhist sect actually had a very good relationship with the Imperishable Heaven Lord, the abbot and her were very good friends and would frequently gather to chat and play chess. From this, one could very well imagine how terrifying the abbot of this place was and what level of existence he was at to be able to qualify chatting and playing chess with the Imperishable Heaven Lord.

There were a total of 90,000 ancient scrolls kept here but after the world-ending battle, many of them had already been destroyed. Those remaining scrolls might be only a few but they still contained extremely profound knowledge. This was why the Skybreak Heavenly Deity brought Qin Wentian here to have a look.

For the process of comprehending a world heart, one could add in their own insights towards cultivation. It wasn't something as simple as the fusion of source origins. If that was the case, the heavenheart mandates fused from two similar source origins wouldn't have that great of a difference in power. The reason for the disparity in strength between world overlords was dependant on the depths of their own personal comprehension. Everyone was able to add their own comprehensions with regards to all aspects of their cultivation when they were comprehending a world heart. Such comprehensions include innate techniques, secret arts, as well as one insights about the heavenly daos.

Powerful innate techniques and secret arts were able to aid one in comprehending a powerful heavenheart mandate, or even comprehend their world hearts directly.

All of these were paths walked before by the ancients, their accumulated experiences.

At this moment, Qin Wentian was quietly seated before a dilapidated-looking buddha statue. He quietly flipped through ancient scrolls and the words recorded directly imprint themselves into his mind. For the dao records of the buddhist-path, the knowledge of cultivation was extremely deep and profound. Qin Wentian was immersed completely in them, imprinting everything he saw into his mind.

"Who would have thought that the Askheart Temple was merely a side-branch of this particular buddhist sect." Qin Wentian mumbled. He flipped through the ancient scrolls and discovered the origins of the Askheart Temple. The Askheart Temple had always remained neutral through the years, and this time around, he didn't have any opportunities to bring Reverend Tianxin here to the Ancient Azure Mystic for a look.

At this moment, before Qin Wentian, there was an ancient scroll with some words inscribed on it. 'Great Nirvana Immortal Art: Second Volume'.

Only after a long time, Qin Wentian finally placed the scroll, which was the latter part of the Great Nirvana Immortal Art, back to its original location. This divine depository belonged to this place and he didn't want to occupy the treasures here alone or move them away. If there was a chance to, he hoped that he could restore these locations where the divine depositories are stored to their former glory, allowing everyone else to know about them again.

"Senior, I wish to go to the World of Ten Thousand Laws again." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to the ancient will of the Skybreak Heavenly Deity.

"Sure." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity naturally approved of this. The World of the Ten Thousand Laws was the place Qin Wentian visited most of the time. Over there, not only could he gain insights, there was still another important function as well - he could try fighting against the different heavenheart mandates. Of course, the prerequisite was that he must have a certain level of strength.

Qin Wentian walked out of the ancient palace and was preparing to head towards the World of the Ten Thousand Laws but at this very moment, an imposing voice rang out in his mind.

"Qin Wentian, are you here?"

This voice sounded imposing without being angry, brimming with majesticness and prestige. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with a strange light, this should be the first time the Lifelong Realmlord was contacting him through the messaging crystals. Back then, the Lifelong Realmlord did tell him to leave behind a sense of immortal sense in his messaging crystals and the Realmlord also left a strand of his immortal sense in Qin Wentian's crystal as well. However, he had never used it before. After all, the relationship between the two of them was governed by many factors but in the end, the Lifelong Realmlord still chose to pass him the Lifire World Palace Lord's position and didn't do anything to him. Since that was the case, Qin Wentian also didn't plan to nurse past grudges in cases when the Realmlord told Ye Qianyu to dance for him.

"Realmlord, do you have orders for me?" Qin Wentian replied.

"Why have you still not returned to the Lifire Palace after so many years? The once in a hundred years banquet is about to begin. Could it be that you are preparing not to return to meet with me?" The Lifelong Realmlord's voice was filled with traces of coldness.

"This subordinate has important matters to handle, I humbly seek Realmlord's forgiveness." Qin Wentian maintained a polite attitude.

"Important matters? You led so many experts of the Lifire Palace into Azure Mystic for what purpose? Also, what's going on with the matter with Beiming Youhuang? I told her to go with the Skyair Palace Lord when they are in the lower world, why was she brought away by you?" The Lifelong Realmlord's voice was filled with a cold questioning tone, causing Qin Wentian's eyes to flash with sharpness. This matter was actually known to the Lifelong Realmlord. In that case, those other palace lords who had entered Ancient Azure Mystic actually didn't die here and had managed to return.

"Reporting to Realmlord, Youhuang is my senior apprentice sister. Not only that, her father was also traveling with me, it's only natural for her to follow us instead." Qin Wentian understood that since the Lifelong Realmlord has already received the news, it was evident that he already knew Beiming Youhuang was together with him in Ancient Azure Mystic.

"Is that so? I even heard that you fought with the Skyair Palace Lord and almost killed him. How glorious it must be for you, the Lifire Palace Lord. You actually dared to question and disobey the orders I gave?" The Lifelong Realmlord coldly snorted, as though he was planning to assign blame.

"This subordinate has already explained the reason why earlier. I beg for Realmlord's forgiveness." Qin Wentian still maintained his politeness.

"Did you receive any good fortune in Ancient Azure Mystic?" The Lifelong Realmlord suddenly asked.

"Not yet. Given how vast this place is, it's very difficult to gain any good fortune. However, I did meet with danger numerous times but even so I'm still trying to search for the secrets here." Qin Wentian replied.

"No need to waste your time. Come back immediately, return to the Lifire Palace. Bring Beiming Youhuang with you and report to me when you come for the Lifelong Banquet." The Lifelong Realmlord commanded.

"Realmlord, this Ancient Azure Mystic contains many terrifying secrets and many bouts of good fortune. This subordinate wishes to spend some more time in here." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Impudent." The Lifelong Realmlord suddenly snorted coldly, his voice thundering through Qin Wentian's mind, causing Qin Wentian's expression to change, becoming somewhat unhappy.

"You just need to obey my orders." The Lifelong Realmlord directly said, "There's no need for you to give me your reasons."

Qin Wentian stood where he was. As expected, the Lifelong Realmlord didn't speak again but Qin Wentian's expression was still incredibly unsightly.

The Lifelong Realmlord actually sent him a life-and-death order, commanding him to return.

The him right now originally could completely ignore the Lifelong Realmlord's order but Ye Qianyu and the others were still in the Lifire Palace. If he didn't return, the Lifelong Realmlord might not be able to do anything to him but he would surely vent his anger on the people in the Lifire Palace.

"What happened?" The Skybreak Heavenly Deity asked.

"I'm a subordinate of a world overlord in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. He commanded me to return." Qin Wentian spoke.

"What do you think? Are you not going to breakthrough to the world overlord realm first before returning?" The Skybreak Heavenly Deity asked.

"I'm still considering." Qin Wentian replied. The Skybreak Heavenly Deity didn't say anything more.

...

In the outside world, in the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty of the current Azure Mystic Immortal Realms, the Skyair Palace Lord, Xuanyuan Palace Lord and Dragonsaddle Palace Lord were all present here with their subordinates. However, the number of their subordinates were greatly reduced in number. In fact, even the Kanwater Palace Lord had disappeared. Those people would stay in Ancient Azure Mystic forever, trapped there for all eternity. It was only due to a stroke of luck that they managed to come out.

Right now, they were preparing to return to the Lifelong Realm but Beiming Youhuang had yet to exit. This caused the Skyair Palace Lord to be unable to fulfil his orders and he had no choice but to report this up in advance to his master.

And at this moment, the figure of the Skyair Palace Lord flashed, landing in the city, appearing before an immortal emperor. A powerful might radiated from him, the immortal emperor before him trembled and bowed with trepidation in his heart as he greeted, "Senior."

"I will ask you a few questions and I want you to honestly answer them." The Skyair Palace Lord spoke.

"Yes, senior." That immortal emperor nodded. Although he was an immortal emperor, this person before him was an ancient emperor character that he couldn't afford to antagonize. The situation in the current Azure Mystic was truly too terrifying.

"Do you know of Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang?"

"Naturally, Qin Wentian is known as the Heaven Empyrean of Azure Mystic, crowned as the overlord of this world. Beiming Youhuang was once the princess of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, the daughter of the Darknorth Immortal Emperor.

"How's their relationship as apprentice siblings?" The Skyair Palace Lord asked again.

"Apprentice siblings?" That immortal emperor started. "Are you referring to the Heaven Empyrean and Beiming Youhuang?"

"Mhm?" The Skyair Palace Lord furrowed his brows. That immortal emperor hurriedly replied, "Senior, but from what I know, they never had a relationship of being apprentice siblings ever before."

The gaze of the Skyair Palace Lord instantly froze as a terrifying light flashed in his eyes!

Chapter 1738: Knowing the truth

The Skyair Palace Lord's expression turned ice cold. "So my guess was right."

He wanted to know what is the exact relationship between Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang because he was worried that there was some unclear relations between the two of them. After all, it was usual for apprentice siblings to be close, and he assumed that was the reason why Qin Wentian domineeringly brought Beiming Youhuang away. But even so, he wanted to make sure.

However, reality was far worse than he had imagined. Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang actually weren't apprentice siblings. In that case, the Skyair Palace Lord could only imagine that there was only that kind of relationship between them and they even hid this from his master. If his master the Lifelong Realmlord announced that Beiming Youhuang was his woman in the Lifelong Banquet that would be held soon, wouldn't he be considered wearing the old broken shoes of Qin Wentian? His master would surely lose a great deal of face.

"What a slut, she actually dared to lie to Master, giving herself to Master to secure the future of her man Qin Wentian." The Skyair Palace Lord silently mused, his eyes flashing with killing intent. He immediately speculated about the vilest things with regards to the relationship between Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang because he hoped that this was true in his heart. In that case, his Master would definitely not spare this adulterous couple due to his rage.

"The two of them, are they a couple?" The Skyair Palace Lord stared at the immortal emperor in front of him as he coldly asked. Both the Xuanyuan Palace Lord and Dragonsaddle Palace Lord were here as well. It was better to make sure things were clear now or Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang might find some excuses for themselves when the time comes.

"I'm not very clear about that, but there are some rumors in Azure Mystic regarding the Heaven Empyrean. Back then, it was only because he was acquainted with Beiming Youhuang's sister, Beiming Nongyue, which led to him eventually being acquainted with Beiming Youhuang and the Darknorth Immortal Emperor. It was said that he attended a banquet in the Darknorth Immortal Palace then and had contended against Pei Qing, a character who was the supreme genius of the Darknorth Immortal Dynasty in the past. The rumors stated that at that time, Pei Qing had no one in his eyes and could dominate the Heaven Empyrean, the reason for Pei Qing's dislike was because he was wooing Beiming Youhuang and Beiming Youhuang and Qin Wentian had a relationship too close for his liking. In any case, Pei Qing eventually died and he became somewhat of a joke, a minor character in a part of the Heaven Empyrean's legendary story. I only know so much, I don't know if this information is able to allow Senior to obtain anything as there are still many things in the story I'm not too clear about."

That immortal emperor honestly replied. These were all legendary stories that circulated around Azure Mystic after Qin Wentian became the Heaven Empyrean. The grudge between Pei Qing and Qin Wentian became a story where a stronger senior bullied the younger one in the past but was eventually surpassed. Naturally, it became a story where everyone enthusiastically discussed.

Naturally, other than this, there were also stories about other 'flowers' around the Heaven Empyrean. It was said that other than his relationships being very good with his two wives, there were actually many other women around the Heaven Empyrean. These women all followed him willingly, not asking for any official status simply because Qin Wentian was too outstanding. In fact, there were some rumors that said that even the Southern Phoenix Matriarch herself had fallen in love with the Heaven Empyrean.

However, this was just a story embellished by others to satisfy the hunting of novelty in the hearts of the crowd. A majority of the people didn't believe it. The Heaven Empyrean was a supreme character and the Southern Phoenix Matriarch was one too. However, the relationship between them remained one of elder and junior, although it was true that Qin Wentian had a very good relationship with the holy successor of the Southern Phoenix Clan, Nanfeng Yunxi.

"You can go." The Skyair Palace Lord waved his hand. He had already found what he wanted to hear.

"Yes." That immortal emperor left. After that, the expression of the Skyair Palace Lord turned cold. He spoke to the Xuanyuan Palace Lord and Dragonsaddle Palace Lord, "You two have also heard it, right. Seems like Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang had always pretended to be apprentice siblings but in reality, they actually are an adulterous couple. They actually dared to lie to their superior and hide things from those below them. They must be killed for daring to have such thoughts."

The gazes of the two palace lords flashed with a strange light, feeling somewhat startled by the relationship between Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang. But even so, even if they were a couple, it should have nothing to do with the Skyair Palace Lord, right? Why would he need to intentionally question an immortal emperor here and why did he seem so angry?

Could it be that there's something the two of them didn't know?

"Let's return first. I will report this matter to my master now." The Skyair Palace Lord icily spoke. The group of them then flew off with great speed, leaving the area.

Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang who was still in Ancient Azure Mystic completely had no idea about this. They also didn't know that the Skyair Palace Lord had already imagined them to be extremely vile and despicable.

Qin Wentian was still considering to obey the Lifelord Realmlord's order or not. He initially wanted to continue cultivating here for a period of time as this was an extremely rare opportunity. It was unlikely for him to find such good cultivation conditions in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. This place has many secret realms and divine depositories, his comprehension of a single year far surpassed many years of comprehension outside in comparison. This would greatly aid him in his future path of cultivation, smoothing the way for him to reach the world overlord ream.

However, he couldn't help to consider the consequences if he didn't go back. Today, just when Beiming Youhuang was cultivating, a voice suddenly rang out in her mind, disrupting her.

"Youhuang." The voice of the Lifelong Realmlord rang out, causing a strange light to appear in Beiming Youhuang's eyes as she frowned slightly. Clearly, she wasn't really fond of the Lifelong Realmlord. This man had a lofty status but was actually extremely scheming and could be considered someone exceptionally sinister. Back then, he had a face full of smiles when he granted Ye Qianyu amnesty but he actually locked her in soft-imprisonment inside the Lifelong Sainthall, frequently asking her to dance for him to admire. Wasn't this a kind of humiliation to Ye Qianyu? He asked her to do that simply to satisfy some of the dark thoughts in his heart.

And right now, she already understood why the Lifelong Realmlord wanted her. The Lifelong Realmlord suspected that they were World Overlord Yi's disciples. In that case, it seems like if it wasn't for the Lifelong Realmlord having some trepidation in his heart towards World Overlord Yi and didn't want to make things too difficult for Qin Wentian, he might really have acted out his desires towards Ye Qianyu.

"Realmlord." Beiming Youhuang took out her messaging crystal and calmly replied.

"You've been out for so many years. I heard that you are now together with Qin Wentian, did you already completely forget about me?" The Lifelong Realmlord coldly asked, his tone filled with unhappiness.

"Youhuang doesn't dare to." Beiming Youhuang spoke.

"Hmph, I told my disciple to take care of you but you chose to leave with Qin Wentian, ignoring my kind intentions. What if you encountered danger? Don't forget that the date of the next Lifelong Banquet will soon arrive and at that time, I will announce the relationship between us." The Lifelong Realmlord spoke. Actually, he had already received the report from his disciple, the Skyair Palace Lord but he didn't divulge anything and intentionally acted like he still didn't know.

When she heard the Realmlord saying that he would announce their relationship, for some unknown reasons, she who had originally thought that she had accepted this, suddenly felt conflict in her heart. She didn't know what to do, but she truly loathed the fact of what she promised him back then.

Hence, she didn't reply instantaneously. Right now, she had no way to see the Lifelong Realmlord's expression, she didn't know that her silence had caused the Lifelong Realmlord's countenance to darken. So, everything his disciple had reported was real. Seems like she was truly leading a carefree life with her lover in the lower world, and who knows, she might have already been intimate with Qin Wentian before. Or maybe, Qin Wentian was now just beside her. When he thought of this, the Lifelong Realmlord's face became extremely sinister as the atmosphere around him became extremely tense.

"Youhuang, come back quickly, I've already arranged everything. Once you and Qin Wentian return, I'll get those people in the Lifire Palace to prepare for this. I'm preparing to first fetch Ye Qianyu over to the Lifelong Sainthall and make her the one in charge of preparing for our wedding. For now, I won't inform Qin Wentian about this, help me pass on the message to him." The Lifelong Realmlord calmly spoke. After that, he terminated the connection.

At this moment, a look of anger flashed in Beiming Youhuang's eyes. What did he mean by that.

Although Ye Qianyu wasn't married to Qin Wentian yet, the Lifelong Realmlord clearly knew that she was already Qin Wentian's woman. Yet now, the Lifelong Realmlord wanted to fetch her over to the Lifelong Sainthall for her to help with their wedding preparations? Was this true? Or was he going to use Ye Qianyu as a hostage to threaten her and Qin Wentian?

When she thought of this, Beiming Youhuang only felt that the Lifelong Realmlord was simply a sinister individual. Did she really want to be married to such a person? The conflict in her heart grew even stronger.

Other than this, she also felt a sense of unease.

What should she do now?

Should she inform Qin Wentian about this matter?

She had been hiding what she promised the Realmlord from Qin Wentian all this while. But now, the Lifelong Realmlord was actually planning to take Ye Qianyu was a hostage. No matter what, she had to inform Qin Wentian about Ye Qianyu's situation or there would be no difference between her and the Realmlord.

At this moment, Beiming Youhuang felt somewhat helpless. She didn't keep her messaging crystal. She sent a strand of her immortal sense in and said, "Are you here?"

"Youhuang, what's the matter?" Qin Wentian's voice drifted over. This caused Beiming Youhuang to understand that Qin Wentian definitely had no idea about Ye Qianyu's matter yet.

"Come and look for me. I will tell you personally, this is extremely important." Beiming Youhuang spoke. She couldn't hide this matter any longer.

After some time, Qin Wentian found Beiming Youhuang. After she saw Qin Wentian, her ruby lips trembled slightly, she didn't know how she should start.

"What happened?" Qin Wentian involuntarily asked when he saw Beiming Youhuang wanting to say something yet she was clearly hesitating. Beiming Youhuang's personality was somewhat colder, belonging to the type of an ice princess. If it wasn't something important, she definitely wouldn't have taken the initiative to contact him.

"Earlier, Realmlord contacted me." Beiming Youhuang spoke in a low voice.

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed, "Is it about the matter of returning to the Lifelong Realm? He has also contacted me earlier, telling me to return for the Lifelong Banquet."

When she heard his words, Beiming Youhuang's beautiful eyes stared at her, "And, what else?"

"What else?" Qin Wentian started, "He didn't really tell me much, it's just that his attitude was extremely tyrannical, commanding me to return directly."

Beiming Youhuang stared at him, while sighing in her heart. She then softly spoke, "For all this while, I've been hiding something from you."

"What is it?" Qin Wentian could sense the Beiming Youhuang seemed to be struggling.

"I once promised the Lifelong Realmlord to be his woman. This news will be announced in the next Lifelong Banquet." Beiming Youhuang's beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian's heart trembled as he was stunned for a moment. He stared at Beiming Youhuang, "Youhuang, is there something behind this that I need to know?"

After Beiming Youhuang saw Qin Wentian's startled look and the fact that he asked her if there was something hidden behind this, she felt a sense of consolation in her heart. She continued in a low voice. "That year after you killed the Lifire Palace Lord, the Lifelong Realmlord was considering who to give the new position to. He would allow you to take the position of the Lifire Palace Lord but at the same time, he also asked me if I was willing to be his woman."

Qin Wentian's heart pounded violently as an extremely cold light flickered in his eyes. Right now, his heart was in chaos. So it turned out that there was such a story behind him eventually becoming the Lifire Palace Lord?

In that case, doesn't this mean that he could become the Lifire Palace Lord only because of Beiming Youhuang's sacrifice? It was the same for Ye Qianyu's freedom too?

He once felt gratitude towards the Lifelong Realmlord and did his best as the Lifire Palace Lord. However, never in his wildest dreams would he have expected that there was such a shameless side to the Lifelong Realmlord!

After calming his emotions, Qin Wentian glanced at Beiming Youhuang who had her head lower. A feeling of warmth appeared in his heart, he then softly spoke, "Silly lass."

Back then even if he didn't become the Lifire Palace Lord, this position would have most probably went to Di Tian!

Chapter 1739: Moving Out

Beiming Youhuang started after she heard Qin Wentian's words. She inclined her head, her beautiful eyes looked at Qin Wentian strangely. But when she saw how clear his eyes were, she lowered her head again, and didn't know what to think in her heart.

"Is there still anything you are hiding from me?" Qin Wentian asked, his tone filled with a few hints of rebuke.

"There's still one more incident but I don't know if Ye Qianyu has told you about this. Back then in the Lifelong Sainthall, the Lifelong Realmlord was extremely unfriendly towards her and would often make Ye Qianyu dance alone for him to admire. Ye Qianyu felt extremely humiliated but she decided to endure it for you and eventually, both of you two were reunited." Beiming Youhuang spoke in a soft voice. Qin Wentian's expression turned colder and colder as he listened.

The Lifelong Realmlord was actually such a despicable character. Because the Lifelong Realmlord guessed that he was World Overlord Yi's disciple, he didn't dare to do anything to him directly, choosing to humiliate Ye Qianyu and Beiming Youhuang instead. He made Ye Qianyu dance for him and wanted Youhuang to marry him. How could Qin Wentian endure this?

"Not long ago, the Lifelong Realmlord messaged me telling me to rush back to prepare for the wedding. He would announce this at the Lifelong Banquet. Also, he says that he would move Ye Qianyu to the Lifelong Sainthall and make her the one responsible for the wedding preparations. However, I don't think it is that simple. I'm worried that if we don't return, he would use Ye Qianyu as a hostage to threaten you. He even intentionally wanted me to pass this message to you." Beiming Youhuang felt somewhat guilty as she continued, "This matter happened because of me, I've implicated Ye Qianyu."

"How can this be blamed on you?" Qin Wentian sighed. All of this happened because of the Lifelong Realmlord's doing. He will definitely pay a price for his actions.

"Seems like the Lifelong Realmlord basically doesn't want us to have any options to choose from. We have to return even if we don't want to return." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Mhm." Beiming Youhuang naturally knew of Qin Wentian's personality. She knew that he would surely choose to return to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. He has always been so. Now that the Lifelong Realmlord wanted to take Ye Qianyu hostage, no matter what the situation was, Qin Wentian would surely face this head-on directly, choosing to return the Lifelong Realm.

"If things don't work out, I'll just marry him." Beiming Youhuang spoke in a soft voice, but her tone was somewhat gloomy.

"What nonsense are you talking about." Qin Wentian berated, causing Beiming Youhuang to start, inclining her head to look at him. However, she saw that Qin Wentian had a very serious look on his face as he stared at her. He then continued, "Since we already know that he is someone so despicable, how can it be possible for me to allow you to be married to someone like this? If you really like him, I wouldn't obstruct you. But he…"

Qin Wentian spoke until here and didn't continue, but his eyes flared with killing intent. "Since he did all of these, the conclusion of everything is already destined."

Beiming Youhuang stared at Qin Wentian. She knew that Qin Wentian's killing intent had surfaced in his heart. No matter who it was that encountered this, once they know everything, their killing intents would also surface.

What sort of character was Qin Wentian? He naturally wouldn't allow something like that to happen to her. After all, she knew that the previous Lifire Palace Lord was killed by Qin Wentian because of grievances like this. And now, the Lifelong Realmlord seemed to have chosen the same path as the previous Lifire Palace Lord.

However this time around, the enemy Qin Wentian was going to be facing was much more powerful compared to the previous Lifire Palace Lord. The Lifelong Realmlord was a world overlord that controls numerous stretches of territories, he even had nine world palaces under him, each with their own territories as well. Not only so, there were also many empyreans under him.

If Qin Wentian really stood in opposition against the Lifelong Realmlord and chose to start a war, the amount of pressure on him could very well be imagined.

"But what should we do now?" Beiming Youhuang was ultimately still a female and her heart was softer and more gentle compared to males. This was an innate nature. Although there are some females who were also extremely tenacious, they did so by force of will, suppressing their innate natures. Usually, Beiming Youhuang was an extremely decisive woman who had her own ideas but she felt extremely confused today.

"What else can we do? Let's arrange everything and make preparations to return to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." Qin Wentian directly spoke. He had no choice, he had to go back there.

There were only a few more years before the next Lifelong Banquet would start. This is already considered an extremely short time period. The distance was extremely far and Qin Wentian still had to arrange for everything here to be well taken care of.

"Oh." Beiming Youhuang answered, as though she would follow whatever Qin Wentian has decided.

Although she was somewhat worried, her heart also felt relief as she decided not to marry the Lifelong Realmlord any longer. This decision was like unlocking a lock in her heart, causing her to feel extremely relaxed.

"Prepare to gather everyone. Right now, a majority of the people have already broken through to the empyrean realm. I wonder if they wish to stay here to continue cultivating or follow me to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." Qin Wentian mumbled in a low voice. He then continued, "Youhuang, I'll leave first, wait for my news."

"Mhm." Beiming Youhuang nodded, no longer saying anything more. Since they had already made the decision, they should prepare what they should do next then. Right now, so what even if they had to fight against the Lifelong Realmlord? Just like what Qin Wentian has said, through these years, a majority of them had already entered the empyrean realm. Also, there were many powerful divine treasures in the divine depositories. If all of them headed to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, at the very least, they should have a fighting chance even if they were against the Lifelong Realmlord and his subordinates.

Naturally, for the ultimate ending, there naturally still must be someone who can deal with the Lifelong Realmlord. Most probably, everyone could only depend on Qin Wentian for the answer.

His cultivation plan was disrupted. After Qin Wentian left Beiming Youhuang, the first thing he did was to send a message to Ye Qianyu. "Where are you?"

"Why? Do you miss me already?" A charming laughter rang out in his mind.

"Tell me where you are now. If you don't say, I will ask someone else." Qin Wentian seriously spoke, his tone extremely solemn. It wasn't that he wanted to treat Ye Qianyu like this but this woman would always not tell you the truth. Back then despite her suffering so much humiliation, she didn't even say anything to him. She simply continued leading her life with a smile as she didn't want to burden him. She was always such a woman, as tender and beautiful as flames, exuding incomparable charm.

"You should already know. I'm in the Lifelong Sainthall, the Realmlord asked me to come here to help him do something." Ye Qianyu softly spoke. Qin Wentian could imagine her current expression. It would surely be the look where she had committed a mistake yet she was still so charming that he couldn't bear to blame her.

"Did the Lifelong Realmlord do anything to you?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Right now, the entire Lifelong Realm knows that I'm your woman. What can he do to me? Don't worry, I'm fine. Didn't you just encounter some good fortune in the lower world? Just be at ease, there's no need to care about me." Ye Qianyu spoke, wanting to ease Qin Wentian's heart but how could Qin Wentian believe her words so easily? He knew that everything she has said was all for his own good. He merely replied a single sentence, "Wait for me."

Just a single sentence would surpass thousands of words. This caused Ye Qianyu, who was now in the Lifelong Sainthall, to reveal a dazzling smile. He was still so tyrannical yet so tender. No wonder she was so in love with him.

After this, Qin Wentian went to find Qing`er and Qingcheng. He then told them everything about the matter. The two of them naturally already knew of Ye Qianyu's existence, Qin Wentian had already told them about her the moment he came back. The two of them were the closest people to Qin Wentian and there were no secrets between them. In addition, Ye Qianyu's matter had to be told to them no matter what.

After knowing how much Ye Qianyu had sacrificed for Qin Wentian, they also wished to meet this charming lady told to them by Qin Wentian. They wanted to see how mesmerizing she could be.

Right now, when they heard of how much Beiming Youhuang sacrificed for him, Mo Qingcheng involuntarily had a strange look on her face. She smiled at Qin wentian, "I've long advised you to open a harem. For such outstanding women like them, they can naturally join if they want to. In any case, both me and sister Qing`er wouldn't object to it."

Qin Wentian had black lines on his face, he pulled Mo Qingcheng into his embrace and gently spoke, "What if those concubines in my harem bullies you?"

"I'm not afraid, sister Qing'er will stand on my side. In any case, we are the main wives." Mo Qingcheng laughed in an adorable manner, staring at Qin Wentian with her bright eyes. Although she felt slightly jealous, the sense of jealousy wasn't very strong. She long ago had already understood that with Qin Wentian's charm, how could there be a lack of beautiful women falling in love with him? In this Azure Mystic Immortal Realms alone, there was already so many beauties around him. Could it be that she and Qing'er couldn't tell what those beauties were thinking about?

Also, they have also told Qin Wentian before that as long as he was truly in love with others, they wouldn't object.

As for the faint sense of jealousy, it was because the one accompanying Qin Wentian in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was Ye Qianyu and Beiming Youhuang, it wasn't her. This caused her to feel somewhat disappointed.

"Silly girl." Qin Wentian gently kissed Mo Qingcheng on her forehead, causing Mo Qingcheng to blush slightly. She then glared at him before mischievously turning her glance to Qing'er at the side, "Elder sis Qing'er is still here."

"Haha, it's not that I don't not already having beauties at my left and right." Qin Wentian laughed loudly as he pulled Qing'er into his embrace as well. The pitiful Mo Qingcheng and Qing'er were completely speechless towards this shameless fellow and could only silently be bullied.

"Wentian, we will support you no matter what you do. However, for this time around when you head back to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, you cannot abandon us here." Mo Qingcheng's beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian as she seriously spoke. For all other matters, they could let Qin Wentian decide, including any other women which he liked. However, they had to be by his side, accompanying him through his experiences. This was the only thing they couldn't compromise.

Qin Wentian bitterly smiled. He actually did have such thoughts of leaving them behind here in safety. After all, he was going back to the Lifelong Realm to contend against the Lifelong Realmlord. But when he looked at Mo Qingcheng's beautiful eyes as well as Qing`er who was beside her, coldly looking at him, Qin Wentian knew that there was no room for discussion in this matter.

After hearing Qin Wentian's promise, Mo Qingcheng instantly smiled as she gently laid in his embrace.

Qin Wentian's heart was filled with emotions, how was he qualified to make so many outstanding women sacrificing so much for him.

...

After several days, at the location of the dao lectures, before the statue of the Imperishable Heaven Lord, everyone finally arrived. They were naturally gathered here by Qin Wentian, and all of them showed up.

Right now, there was no need to doubt Qin Wentian's position in their hearts. Regardless of his elders or his friends, all of them treated Qin Wentian as their central core. There was no need to speak about those from the Battle Saint Tribe and Myriad Devil Islands. All of them were Qin Wentian's subordinates.

"Have all of you come to a decision? Let me repeat myself again, if anyone is willing to stay here to cultivate, I would still respect your choice." Qin Wentian spoke. He had already communicated with everyone earlier but since they were gathered here today, all of them naturally were willing to accompany him back to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

No one said anything in response to him, all of them were willing to follow him. After cultivating for so many years, they actually also felt a yearning in their hearts to head to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to broaden their horizons. Right now, towards Qin Wentian, all of them didn't mind trusting him blindly. After all, Qin Wentian was a young man that could create miracles!

Chapter 1740: Return to the Lifire Palace

In Azure Mystic, inside Heaven Empyrean City, the various powers summoned all their subordinates over. The Darknorth Immortal Emperor gathered his heirs, the Southern Phoenix matriarch gathered the holy successors and holy maidens, and this was the same for the Hundred Refinements Sect and Jadestage Immortal Palace too. After that, arrangements were made, telling these people what they should do after the Darknorth Immortal Emperor and the rest left Azure Mystic.

Before this, when the Darknorth Immortal Emperor and the others entered Ancient Azure Mystic, they took some of the core immortal emperors of their forces with them. This was also the same for the Southern Phoenix Clan. Although everyone was willing to follow Qin Wentian to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, it was impossible for all of them to go or it would leave Azure Mystic undefended. Hence they decided that for all emperor-ranked experts in Ancient Azure Mystic to temporarily stay here for now. These people would be the ones taking over, becoming part of the ruling party of Azure Mystic.

All of this was too sudden. Those powers that were gathered here were all shocked. They didn't expect the leaders of the various powers who had vanished for tens of years, suddenly passed on their positions to their descendants. This event was sufficient to cause an earthquake-level commotion in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. The leadership of all the major powers was changing hands. Never has something like this happened before in Azure Mystic.

Even before Azure Mystic was completely calm, the handing over of rulership was naturally imperative. Protectors were needed as well. If not, the hard to establish discipline in Heaven Empyrean City might be broken and chaos would descend to Azure Mystic again. Also, Qin Wentian chose to temporarily let Di Tian stay behind to guard the peace. If there was a chance to, Di Tian could represent him to enter the floating city in Ancient Azure Mystic.

Not only were all the people from the various major powers shocked, even Xu Li and others from the Lifire Palace whom Qin Wentian brought to the lower world were shocked as well. They discovered that those who entered Ancient Azure Mystic with Qin Wentian had all undergone a transformation. The demeanors of many people were completely different and they had no way to sense what their cultivation bases were exactly. It was very possible that all of these people have already surpassed the immortal emperor realm.

This caused them to feel extremely envious. The monarchs and governors of the Lifire Palace here all had a different look in their eyes when they stared at Qin Wentian. Was this the ability and charm of their new Palace Lord? Sadly, they still weren't trusted aides of Qin Wentian yet or they might have been able to have a share of this good fortune.

Naturally they wouldn't have any unhappy thoughts as well. After all, they were the subordinates of the previous Lifire Palace Lord. After Qin Wentian took over, it was already very good that he didn't touch their positions. It was impossible for them to become his trusted aides so quickly. Even Xu Li, who was Ye Qianyu's ex subordinate, wasn't brought along by Qin Wentian. What opinions would they have then?

However, some of them silently vowed that they would definitely follow this Lifire Palace Lord and become his trusted aides. The brightness of their futures would depend on him.

After everything was arranged, Qin Wentian decided to set off. Today, many friends and family members gathered here to send them off on their journey.

His foster fathers Qin Chuan, Ye Qingyun, his sisters Qin Yao, Ye Lingshuang, his friends Fan Le, Luo Huan, Lin Shuai and the others. All these familiar faces were here together with him. Now, they no longer needed to return to the particle world. Everywhere in this immortal realms belonged to the Heaven Empyrean, Qin Wentian. They could have everything they wanted and wouldn't be forced to survive by the mercy of others. They can cultivate anywhere they want to, enjoy endless cultivation resources or simply choose to live a leisurely and carefree life.

Qin Wentian wanted them to stay in safety inside Heaven Empyrean City. If they missed home, there are immortal emperors here who could escorts them back to the particle world. He believed that none if the immortal emperors would reject this request. Right now, everyone wanted to form a good relationship with the Heaven Empyrean. As long as the friends and family members of the Heaven Empyrean wished for something, everyone would do their utmost to help them.

Everyone had also felt how imposing and majestic Qin Wentian was currently. As the saying goes, when one achieves the Dao, even the dogs and chickens belonging to him would rise to the heavens. All his friends and families can now do what they want to, living a life of no worries. If they wished to improve further, they could always depend on the boundless cultivation resources to cultivate.

"Qing`er." Fairy Qingmei stared at her disciple, feeling a strong reluctance. The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? To her, that place was truly too far away.

The people of the Mo Clan crowded around Mo Qingcheng, all of them were extremely worried about her, especially her parents. Her younger brother and sister turned to Qin Wentian, "Brother-in-law, will you stop teaching us cultivation now?"

"Brother-in-law has something important to do. Now, the Heaven Empyrean Palace already has so many immortal emperors, they are all qualified enough to teach you two cultivation. You can seek guidance from them. I might not be able to personally coach you any longer." Qin Wentian gently spoke.

"Smelly brat, we always gathered for so short a period of time before having to be separated for immensely long periods. Be more careful when you are outside." Luo Huan glared at Qin Wentian as she spoke.

"Understood, senior sister." Qin Wentian smiled bitterly.

"Take good care of Qingcheng and Qing`er. If you dare to bully them, you better be careful because I, your senior sister, will be coming right after you to teach you a lesson."

"How would I dare to? It would be great if they don't bully me." Qin Wentian smiled weakly. He then turned and bowed to Qin Chuan and Ye Qingyun, "This child is unfilial. In the future once I have a stable foothold in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, I will definitely fetch foster fathers over there together."

"Just be at ease and leave. We have lived for so many years, why would we need you to worry about us? You better be more cautious when you are out there, okay?" Qin Chuan smiled.

Qin Wentian nodded. This scene was very familiar. Back then when he first left his particle world, a similar scene to this has occurred before as well.

However this time around, there were many people following him together. His two wives, Qingcheng and Qing`er, and many elders such as the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Bai Wuya and the others. There were many friends with him too, Jun Mengchen, Nanfeng Yunxi, Purgatory, Little Rascal, and many other subordinates. This time around, he had many powerful forces with him. This was unlike previous time when he was alone.

"Let's move out." Qin Wentian spoke. After that, their entire group departed the area.

Right now, there already is a spatial teleportation array built connecting the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. By using that, they could traverse through the starry space. This teleportation array was built by several super powers and it naturally wasn't free of charge. To use it, one had to pay an astronomical amount of treasures. But even so, many people didn't hesitate and still paid the fee. There were experts from other powers aligned with the super powers stationed here. They acted as the middle men and although they weren't able to earn much, they didn't want to give up on this opportunity.

In the short term, the earnings might not amount to much but this teleportation array was definitely going to be here for a long time. As long as they were stationed here for a thousand years, ten thousand years, a million years...How terrifying would the benefits they gained be??

To those super powers, they naturally didn't lack in far-sight and vision. All of the super powers had extremely good judgement.

The restriction order on Azure Mystic was relaxed. To them, this was an opportunity, they naturally wanted to grab it.

This also made things more convenient for Qin Wentian. Right now, he didn't have the ability to create a spatial teleportation array linking the two realms, he could only use the array built by others. After paying out an astronomical amount of treasures, his group directly stepped into the array and teleported straight to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Although they had now arrived there, the distance to the Lifelong Realm was still extremely far away.

After spending a long period of time on their journey, Qin Wentian finally arrived back at the Lifire Palace with everyone.

In the Lifire Palace, Ye Qianyu was no longer present. The Evil Emperor had also followed her to the Lifelong Sainthall. After Qin Wentian returned, he directly commanded the various governors, monarchs, protectors and the others to gather before him for a discussion.

Everyone arrived at the Lifire Palace with their fastest speed.

In the Lifire Palace's great hall, Qin Wentian sat on the throne. The experts before him were as many as the clouds, all with transcendent auras. Other than him, there were two other beauties standing on the left and right of him. Their beauty was extraordinary, akin to goddesses.

"Your subordinates pay our respects to Palace Lord." All of the important personnel of the Lifire Palace bowed together. On their way here, Qin Wentian had already inform his friends and family members about his current situation in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. They weren't too surprised, other than feeling a little shocked at Qin Wentian's abilities. Qin Wentian came here alone to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, and he actually managed to established such a foundation, becoming the palace lord of an entire region. He had countless immortal emperors under him and if it wasn't to return Azure Mystic to a peaceful era, their previous respective major powers in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms wouldn't even be able to enter Qin Wentian's eyes.

"These two are my wives. Mo Qingcheng and Evergreen Qing`er." Qin Wentian solemnly introduced. From now onwards, all his subordinates knew about this.

"We pay our respect to the two madams." Everyone bowed again, extremely polite. Their gazes didn't dare to have any disrespect. All of them had heard about the news. Ye Qianyu was brought to the Lifelong Sainthall because the Lifelong Realmlord seemed to be very unhappy with Qin Wentian. No one knew what things would happen in the Lifelong Banquet this time around.

And currently, Qin Wentian would definitely feel extremely angry in his heart because of this. It was best not to antagonize him or the consequences would be unimaginably dire.

"How much longer before the Lifelong Banquet officially starts?" Qin Wentian then asked.

"Reporting to Palace Lord, the Lifelong Banquet will commence several months from now."

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. "For the matters of tax contributions, all of you make sure to handle that well. Also, there's one more thing I want to inform you guys of in advance. I'm sure everyone already know that Ye Qianyu was brought to the Lifelong Sainthall by the Realmlord, right?"

All his subordinates instantly stopped talking when they heard this. This matter had implications to the Realmlord and was quite sensitive. At this time, it was best not to talk too much. If not, if they accidentally said the wrong thing, no one would be able to save them. They weren't able to offend Qin Wentian or the Lifelong Realmlord.

"I'm afraid the Realmlord is very unhappy with me. This time around, my position as the Lifire Palace Lord might change hands and if the Realmlord really selects a new Lifire Palace Lord, I might choose to leave this place. In the future, all of you must work hard for the Realmlord. Naturally, if there are people willing to follow me, I won't let those who choose to follow me down." Qin Wentian spoke.

When they heard Qin Wentian's words, the eyes of all these important personnel of the Lifire Palace flickered unceasingly. They could tell that there were many deep layers of meaning to it.

At this moment, should they express their loyalty and still follow him?

But if they expressed their loyalty now, those who do so might have their identities leaked to the Realmlord. At that time, they would have no choice but to leave with Qin Wentian. It was still better not to talk casually at such a moment.

"Maybe the Realmlord has no such intentions. Palace Lord might be worrying too much?" A monarch stated.

"That's right, Palace Lord is trusted heavily by the Realmlord, why would he try to touch Palace Lord's position?"

Several people spoke out. Although they seemed like they were talking nonsense, it was a kind of expression of their attitudes too.

All of them said that nothing would happen and Qin Wentian would be fine. This clearly meant that if Qin Wentian was really in trouble, they naturally wouldn't follow him any longer!

"Mhm." Qin Wentian smiled and nodded his head, staring at everyone. His gaze actually caused many people to tremble. Those people who said those words earlier have undoubtedly already offended Qin Wentian!

Chapter 1741: Inquiries From All Locations

Qin Wentian stared at the crowd. He then waved his hands, "Everyone, you have leave to go. Make your preparations and come here again for my orders. After that, follow me to Lifelong City."

"Yes, Palace Lord." Everyone bowed and started to leave.

Naturally, Xu Li and the others who followed Qin Wentian to the lower world stayed behind. Mo Fei was here as well. Right now, Mo Fei was a protector of the Lifire Palace.

"Palace Lord, does the Lifelong Realmlord really intend to remove you from your position?" Mo Fei walked up and asked.

"If I tell you the matter is even more serious than that, what would you think?" Qin Wentian smiled and looked at Mo Fei.

Mo Fei didn't know that Qin Wentian and Di Tian were the same person. In the past, they put all their bets on Di Tian and had a very good relationship with him.

"Protector Mo, you can retreat first." Qin Wentian nodded his head lightly. He knew that Mo Fei would surely contact Di Tian.

After everyone left, Qin Wentian silently mused. For those people who directly left earlier, he can already change them all, replacing them with his own people. Di Tian would nurture another batch of experts and as for the many empyreans he brought with him, they would naturally have to follow him in the future.

"Over there at the Lifelong Saint Hall, they should receive the news that you are back soon." Xu Li stated.

"Since I've already come back, the Realmlord wouldn't have any more suspicions. Ye Qianyu would also naturally be safe. We shall wait for the Lifelong Banquet to commence." Qin Wentian mumbled. After that, the Lifelong Realmlord did message Beiming Youhuang, asking her why she didn't directly head back to the Lifelong Sainthall. Beiming Youhuang replied saying because her father was in the Lifire Palace, she wish that the Realmlord would allow her to stay a few days here at the Lifire Palace together with him.

In the Lifelong Sainthall, the expression of the Lifelong Realmlord was extremely unsightly after he received Beiming Youhuang's reply. Right now, only his personal disciple the Skyair Palace Lord was beside him.

"Master, she refused to come?" The Skyair Palace Lord asked after he saw the expression of the Lifelong Realmlord turning dark.

"She is truly a slut. Seems like you are right. The two of them definitely have some illicit things going on. If you hadn't discovered this, my reputation would surely have been tarnished." The Lifelong Realmlord coldly spoke. Since Beiming Youhuang was staying at the Lifire Palace with Qin Wentian, his thoughts would naturally drift towards those shameless deeds.

"I also heard that Qin Wentian even brought his wives here and had also summoned the important personnel of his Lifire Palace telling them that Master was unhappy with him and might remove him from the Lifire Palace Lord's position. He wanted to know who his subordinates would side with." The Skyair Palace Lord laughed.

Qin Wentian was still in the dark and didn't know anything. How could there be such a simple punishment, removing his position as the Lifire Palace Lord? Wasn't his thinking too simple? He actually still dared to bring his wives and close friends to the Lifire Palace. This was simply courting death.

"He wants followers?" The Lifelong Realmlord coldly laughed. Did he take those monarchs and governors as fools? If he was unhappy with the Lifire Palace Lord, who would still dare to express that they were willing to follow Qin Wentian? Are they tired of living?

He, the Lifelong Realmlord, was then the master of the Lifelong Realm.

"How ridiculous, doesn't he know his own limits?" The Skyair Palace Lord mockingly spoke. "However, this disciple heard that Qin Wentian truly knows how to enjoy life. Not only is Ye Qianyu so beautiful, both his wives are also supreme beauties. They, in addition to Beiming Youhuang, all have flawless countenances. This Qin Wentian really knows how to enjoy life."

The eyes of the Lifelong Realmlord flickered with coldness when he heard that. Every time he heard Beiming Youhuang's name, he would feel extremely unhappy. This was simply a humiliation to him. She promised to be his woman yet still had such an ambiguous relationship with Qin Wentian. Where do they want him to put his face at?

This place was the Lifelong Realm, yet his subordinates actually dared to humiliate him like this.

"Why? Do you have some designs on them?" The Lifelong Realmlord stared at his disciple and smiled. "If you like them, how about master bestows them to you?"

"Your disciple don't really have such hobbies. It's just that Beiming Youhuang with her defiled body actually dared to lie to master. We have to punish her severely for this offense. As for those other women, we can slowly arrange to deal with them at our pleasure." The Skyair Palace Lord sinisterly spoke. This pair of master and disciple were major characters of their respective regions yet they were here discussing such sordid things.

Just because the Lifelong Realmlord felt that he was humiliated and the Skyair Palace Lord naturally wished to take revenge, avenging his defeat to Qin Wentian in the ancient battlefield. He wasn't able to forget about that single sword strike which destroyed his pride.

"Let them enjoy themselves for a period of time first." The Lifelong Realmlord wasn't in a rush. He could head over to the Lifire Palace and capture Qin Wentian now, but that would be beneath his dignity and status to do so. Once news of this matter spread out, his reputation might suffer and this was something he wouldn't stand for. Hence, he decided to wait for Qin Wentian to deliver himself to him at the Lifelong Banquet.

As for Beiming Youhuang, did she really think he would still announce the marriage? Simply ridiculous.

Qin Wentian didn't know what the Lifelong Realmlord was thinking about. He only inquired about Ye Qianyu's condition. Right now, the Lifelong Realmlord has only placed her under house arrest in the Lifelong Sainthall, not allowing her to leave but he didn't do anything else to her.

Today, Jialan Yuntian of the Jialan Clan came to look for Qin Wentian. Right now, there were many people of the Jialan Clan who had important positions in the Lifire Palace. Jialan Qiuyue also seriously reminded the Jialan Clan that they must form a good relationship with Qin Wentian no matter what. Hence, when Jialan Yuntian learned that something may have happened between Qin Wentian and the Lifelong Realmlord, he personally paid a visit here together with Jialan Qiuyue.

Currently, Qin Wentian was clad in a simple white robe. Jialan Qiuyue glanced at that handsome figure as a look of complex emotions appeared in her eyes. She wouldn't be able to forget that moment when Di Tian removed his mask forever, her heart was filled with complete shock when she just learned of his true identity.

"Clan leader Jialan, what can I do for you?" Qin Wentian asked.

"I heard that previously, Palace Lord has summoned the various governors and monarchs and said that the Realmlord is very unhappy with you and might remove Palace Lord's position?" Jialan Yuntian asked.

"Such an incident did happen." Qin Wentian nodded.

According to logic, if Qin Wentian was removed, the next in line to take over the Lifire Palace Lord's position should be Di Tian. However, Jialan Qiuyue knew that things wouldn't be so simple like what Qin Wentian has told everyone. Hence, she urged Jialan Yuntian to come here and meet with Qin Wentian.

"Palace Lord do you have a strategy?" Jialan Yuntian asked.

"What can I do?" Qin Wentian laughed. Jialan Yuntian stared at his eyes, filled with disbelief.

Back then, Qin Wentian and Di Tian joined forces, playing the previous Lifire Palace Lord around in their palms and eventually killing him before Qin Wentian ascended to his current position. How would he admit defeat so easily, allowing the Realmlord to take away his current position without a fight?

Regardless of his instincts or the reminders of Jialan Qiuyue, Qin Wentian was definitely not somebody so simple.

"Palace Lord, do you have anything you need my Jialan Clan to help you with?" Jialan Yuntian directly spoke after being silent for awhile. This caused Qin Wentian to look straight at him.

This time, his opponent was the Lifelong Realmlord. The Jialan Clan actually dared to choose sides now?

Although the Jialan Clan always wanted to become the palace lord of one of the nine world palaces, this was still something that was within the scope of their strength. However, the Lifelong Realmlord was the supreme ruler of this endless stretch of territories. He was an unrivalled existence. This was also why Qin Wentian had no intentions of pulling more people to his side. It was basically impossible to get anyone to join him.

Because, his enemy was the Lifelong Realmlord, the master of the Lifelong Realm.

"If I really gave a command, would the Jialan Clan dare to obey it?" Qin Wentian casually laughed, causing Jialan Yuntian's heart to tremble. These words contained a hidden meaning within. It was as he had expected, this matter was definitely not so simple.

Maybe, what happened to the previous Lifire Palace Lord might very well happened again. A storm would arise but he still wasn't able to tell the ending despite it looking like everything was already destined.

Back then, didn't everyone also think that the Lifire Palace Lord would prevail for sure? But didn't Qin Wentian end up killing him instead? Who would have guessed at such an ending?

The person sitting now on the Lifire Throne was none other than Qin Wentian.

"I don't have enough authority to make a decision on this matter. I have to check with my father." Jialan Yuntian spoke.

"Since this is the case, there's no need for you, Jialan Clan Leader to say anything more." Qin Wentian smiled. He then turned to Jialan Qiuyue, "Miss Qiuyue, are you well?"

Jialan Qiuyue cast a deep glance at Qin Wentian, "And if I say that I'm not?"

"If you are free, you can come to the Lifire Palace for a walk anytime you wish to." Qin Wentian didn't directly reply to her words. Jialan Qiuyue fell in love with Di Tian but he wasn't able to accept her love. He also understood in his heart that his actions might have caused quite a number of girls to fall for him. But for some things, what should be severed, must be severed. Although doing so might make him seemed somewhat cruel and cold.

"Palace Lord." Jialan Yuntian suddenly spoke. "Our Jialan Clan is a major clan. If you wish for all of us to rush to our death, this is something that is clearly impossible. But if Palace Lord truly has the ability to change the sky, our Jialan Clan is willing to follow you."

Qin Wentian glanced at Jialan Yuntian. In truth, he was very clear that if the Lifelong Realmlord could dominate him completely, who would dare to stand by his side?

Jialan Yuntian was willing to follow him but the prerequisite was that he had to be strong enough to defeat the Lifelong Realmlord. In truth, such a declaration might as well not be said as this was common sense. It was like trying to decorate something that was already perfect.

After all, if he could really defeat the Lifelong Realmlord, who would dare to not follow him?

"I understand, you can leave first." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Jialan Yuntian bitterly smiled when he saw Qin Wentian's attitude. He then stood up and bid his farewell.

After that, he brought Jialan Qiuyue with him as they departed. Qin Wentian continued sitting there, pondering over this matter. But at this moment, a voice suddenly rang out in his mind, "Qin Wentian, I heard that you offended the Lifelong Realmlord?"

"Mhm."Qin Wentian immediately took out his messaging crystal to reply.

"Will things be troublesome?" The other party asked.

"There might be an open conflict." Qin Wentian replied, causing the other party to be shocked. The other party then replied, "Seems like you must have encountered good fortune in the lower world and have some degree of confidence. Do you want me to inform the saint lord?"

"Will Senior Yi be able to come?" Qin Wentian started as he asked. The person conversing with him was one of the Gemini Palace Lords.

"I don't dare to guarantee it." The other party replied.

"If Senior Yi can come, this junior will naturally be extremely grateful." Qin Wentian replied. "However, it's fine if he won't be able to make it. I will do my best. Oh, by the way, I brought many members of the Battle Saint Tribe with me when I returned to the Lifire Palace. This time around after we head to Lifelong City, I'll let them meet with all of you."

The other party was stunned after they heard that. After that, he laughed, "Who would have thought that we would still be able to meet with the descendants of our tribe. Qin Wentian, thank you!"

Chapter 1742: Surging Undercurrents

The once-per-hundred years Lifelong Banquet was still the most magnificent and largest-scale event in the Lifelong Realm.

Inside Lifelong City, experts were as common as clouds. Experts from the minor and major powers through the Lifelong Realm would all gather here once every hundred years. For people of some status, they naturally wanted to come and broaden their horizons.

It was rumored that in the banquet a hundred years ago, Qin Wentian and Di Tian shook the Lifelong Realm with their names, shooting up into the skies after a battle. They then obtained the Realmlord's recognition and after that, these two joined forces and killed the Lifire Palace Lord. The ending was Qin Wentian became the new Lifire Palace Lord while Di Tian became the vice palace lord.

And now, both Qin Wentian and Di Tian had already broken through to the empyrean realm, they naturally no longer needed to contend against the other immortal emperors. They would send their subordinates to do battle instead. Nobody knew which characters would rise up to fame this time.

After all, at the grand banquet, they would have a chance to meet extremely famous characters. The legendary Lifelong Realmlord, the nine world palace lords, the number one Desolate Heaven Palace Lord, etc. Everyone was filled with anticipation, the peak powers of the Lifelong Sainthall's territories and the territories governed by the nine world palace lords would attend this for sure.

Everyone was waiting to attend the glorious grand banquet but the vast majority of them didn't sense the undercurrents brewing in the dark. A storm would definitely occur but at the very least, the situation was still very calm now. Only a minority of powers had managed to sense it.

For example, the Xuanyuan Clan, Jialan Clan, etc, as well as the Skyair Palace Lord and Gemini Palace Lords.

Qin Wentian led everyone from the Lifire Palace and had just arrived in Lifelong City. The Lifelong Sainthall naturally received news of his arrival. The Lifelong Realmlord laughed coldly in his heart. As expected, Qin Wentian still had no idea what was going to happen and still voluntarily delivered himself here. He simply doesn't know what is death. Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang were in cahoots with each other and actually planned to trick him. This was simply a humiliation. He is going to make Qin Wentian lose all face at the Lifelong Banquet this time around.

Right now, Qin Wentian and his subordinates were temporarily staying in the Jialan Clan. Their arrival caused many people to pay a visit to the Jialan Clan because everyone still didn't know the current state of relationship between him and the Lifelong Realmlord. With regards to Qin Wentian, the new Lifire Palace Lord, everyone felt that his future was boundlessly bright and they naturally wanted to maintain a good relationship with him. But of course, there were some people who already received the news. Quite some time ago, the Lifelong Sainthall already sent someone to fetch Ye Qianyu over. Although this seemed like an insignificant thing, if one thought about Ye Qianyu's identity, they would soon understand there was another meaning to this.

Don't forget that back then, Ye Qianyu was once imprisoned in the Lifelong Sainthall. Hence, some powers felt that something was unusual and they decided not to head to the Jialan Clan to pay their respects to the Lifire Palace Lord, choosing to maintain a distance. If not, if the Realmlord was truly unhappy with Qin Wentian and knew that they had a close relationship with Qin Wentian, things would be extremely dire.

But at this moment, the Jialan Clan who had clearly deduced the truth, actually allowed Qin Wentian to stay in their clan's residence. This clearly showed that there was a profound meaning hidden in it.

Qin Wentian naturally understood this.

At this moment in the Jialan Clan, the core members of the clan, including Jialan Jiangshan and those present were seated in a great hall. Jialan Jiangshan tried two times to obtain the Lifire Palace Lord's position but both times ended up in failure. In truth, he did feel a heavy sense of defeat in his heart. That year when he saw Qin Wentian and Di Tian's strength, he could only sigh. The new replacing the old, he knew he was inferior.

After obtaining the news sent to him by Jialan Yuntian, he understood that another opportunity just presented itself before the Jialan Clan. It was just that the stakes this time was far larger. If he was the slightest bit careless, the entire Jialan Clan might end up being buried.

"Palace Lord Qin, let's not beat around the bush. I've already forbidden outsiders from entering here. Palace Lord Qin, since you already know that the Lifelong Realmlord would target you, why did you still come back? Are you preparing to contend against him?" Jialan Jiangshan straightforwardly asked.

"You should know why I killed the previous Lifire Palace Lord, right? Now, the Realmlord has brought Ye Qianyu to the Lifelong Sainthall. I have no choice but to come." Qin Wentian calmly replied, his words causing Jialan Jiangshan's heart to be filled with shock. That was right, this scenario was similar to back then. But in the past, Qin Wentian's opponent was the Lifire Palace Lord. This time around, the strength of his opponent was much stronger in comparison.

Because, his opponent was the Lifelong Realmlord.

"Does Palace Lord Qin have at least 50% confidence?" Jialan Jiangshan stared at Qin Wentian as he asked again.

"So what if I have, so what if I don't?" Qin Wentian replied.

"If Palace Lord Qin has 50% confidence, my Jialan Clan is willing to give our all, sacrificing everything to follow Palace Lord Qin. If Palace Lord Qin doesn't even have 50% confidence, my Jialan Clan will stand aside and observe everything neutrally, not participating in the Lifelong Banquet this time around." Jialan Jiangshan spoke. Because, if he attended the banquet and the Lifelong Realmlord gave an order to seize Qin Wentian, the entire Lifelong Realm all needed to obey his order. How would dare not to obey? It was impossible even if he wished to remain neutral.

50% confidence was the Jialan Clan's bottom line. If Qin Wentian had 50% confidence, he was willing to bet it all on him.

"Isn't the Jialan Clan afraid that I will make use of you all again?" Qin Wentian spoke, clearly admitting to the fact that he made use of the Jialan Clan back then. Naturally, all of that was in the past. The Jialan Clan actually also understood this as well.

"This is different from that year. Back then, Palace Lord Qin already had hatred with my Jialan Clan due to the Jialan Monarch. But now, the Jialan Monarch has already died and the hatred has dissipated. Just like how Jialan Qiuyue trusts in Palace Lord Qin, I'm also willing to believe Palace Lord Qin one more time." Jialan Jiangshan spoke.

"Even if I say that I have the confidence, what can the Jialan Clan do for me? You all have to understand that if I have the power to contend against the Lifelong Realmlord, I wouldn't lack an empyrean-ranked power like the Jialan Clan." Qin Wentian bluntly replied.

"Back then since I dared to contend for the Lifire Palace Lord's position against the previous Lifire Palace Lord, this means that I still have some connections in the Lifelong Sainthall. In Lifelong City, many powers are familiar with each other and I might be able to influence some of them to stand on your side. But of course, the prerequisite is that you must display enough strength, allowing everyone to know that you are capable enough to contend against the Lifelong Realmlord. Also, I bet you don't know this. The palace lord of the strongest world palace in the Lifelong Realm, the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord, his relationship with the Realmlord in actuality is an extremely bad one."

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. There actually was such a matter?

"Since this is the case, why does the Realmlord still permit him to exist?" Qin Wentian spoke. From his current understanding of the Lifelong Realmlord, he knew that the Lifelong Realmlord wasn't any magnanimous individual.

"This matter contains a secret, outsiders do not know of this and this would definitely be considered a scandal to the Realmlord if it was spread outside." Jialan Jiangshan spoke. "Has Palace Lord Qin heard about the rumors saying that the Realmlord wanted to accept the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord as his disciple?"

"I've heard about it before." Qin Wentian nodded his head.

"Haha, I believe Palace Lord Qin has heard about this but you wouldn't know of the true story behind it. In the past, during the time when the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord was already a subordinate of the Lifelong Realmlord, he got acquainted with an extremely beautiful maiden with outstanding talent named Fairy Biyue. It's said that her beauty was so great that the moon and flowers paled in comparison. Both of them were in love with each other however, the Lifelong Realmlord interfered in this, actually acting to seize that maiden, bringing her to the Lifelong Sainthall and even made her birth a child for him. He knows that the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord hated him very much, so he wanted to accept him as a disciple. But under such circumstances, how would the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord agree? It was because he disagreed that the Realmlord wanted to kill him. However, Fairy Biyue truly loved the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord. Why did she agreed to be together with the Lifelong Realmlord in the first place? It was precisely she didn't want the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord to come to any harm."

Jialan Jiangshan slowly continued, "The gist of the matter is as such. But I'm not too clear of the finer details. In any case, although the Desolate Heaven Palace is the number one strongest palace, the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord has always kept a low profile and only rarely acts in the open. No one could touch his position but the moment he becomes a threat to the Realmlord, the Realmlord would surely not spare him. I'm guessing that given the personality of the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord, he will definitely avenge this hatred. It's just that he doesn't have enough strength now and chose to lay low."

After Qin Wentian heard that, he felt even more angry in his heart. This was like the same situation with Beiming Youhuang. Who would have thought that the Lifelong Realmlord already was guilty of this longer ago, he is simply despicable to the extreme. Just because he is the Lifelong Realmlord, he did whatever he wanted, treating the world as his. He even wants to snatch the women of his subordinates. What a shameless person.

"What are your intentions by saying this?" Qin Wentian asked.

"I can try to persuade the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord. If you can display enough strength to stand against the Lifelong Realmlord, he would side with you. At that time, it would surely cause huge waves to rise in the Lifelong Banquet. Even for the Lifelong Realmlord's subordinates, they wouldn't dare to act recklessly once the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord is involved. At that time, the pressure on you wouldn't be that great as well." Jialan Jiangshan spoke. Qin Wentian nodded. This was logical. But of course, the prerequisite was that he had to have enough strength to contend against the Realmlord. He had to display his strength at the Lifelong Banquet.

At this moment, someone suddenly walked over in a rush. Jialan Jiangshan frowned, "Didn't I say that no one is to disturb us no matter the matter?"

That subordinate bowed, "Someone from the Xuanyuan Clan is here. That person says that he is here because he wishes to convey some words of the Xuanyuan Palace Lord and this is an extremely important matter. This is why I…"

"Xuanyuan Clan? What are they here for?" Jialan Jiangshan had a look of bewilderment on his face.

"They are here to look for me." Qin Wentian laughed. Seems like Di Tian's communication with the Xuanyuan Clan was effective. It was not too convenient for the Xuanyuan Palace Lord to come in person himself, hence he sent someone here to convey his words. One could only wonder what the message he wanted to convey was.

Jialan Jiangshan's eyes flashed, he cast a deep glance at Qin Wentian. Seems like Qin Wentian still had some cards in the dark.

"Let's meet that person then." Jialan Jiangshan stood up. He and Qin Wentian followed the subordinate and after some moments, they soon saw Xuanyuan Hao standing there. Back then when Di Tian first came here, Xuanyuan Hao was none other the one who wanted to seek a marriage proposal with Jialan Qiuyue.

"Palace Lord Qin." Xuanyuan Hao clasped his hands.

"After our meeting in Ancient Azure Mystic, I wonder what message does the Xuanyuan Palace Lord have for me?" Qin Wentian smiled and asked.

"Palace Lord asked me to pass on a message. The message is this 'During the Lifelong Banquet, I will observe the situation seriously.'" Xuanyuan Hao spoke. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Observe the situation seriously? Did this mean what he thought it meant?

"Just a single sentence?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Palace Lord just asked me to convey this single sentence over." Xuanyuan Hao bitterly smiled. In truth, he also had no idea what that meant.

"I understand." Qin Wentian calmly replied. Seems like the Xuanyuan Palace Lord was telling him that he would observe from the sidelines and wouldn't directly act to oppose him. Although he didn't promise that he would do anything for Qin Wentian, it was also an expression of good will of sorts. The Xuanyuan Palace Lord didn't wish to offend him.

Jialan Jiangshan's gaze flickered. Seems like there were surging undercurrents everywhere. Something major was probably going to happen at the Lifelong Banquet this time around!

Chapter 1743: Borrow Your Woman for a Dance

Outside the Lifelong Sainthall, a flight of stairs of ten thousand steps could be seen. On the top of the stairs, the statue of the Lifelong Realmlord was being worshipped by countless people and had stood here for tens of thousands of years, like a symbol of eternity.

As the grand banquet commenced, the ten gigantic platforms were erected once more. The nine world palace lords also had their thrones prepared for them, with the training grounds in the center where the various talented immortal emperors could display their skill.

At this moment, countless people were gathered below the platforms, they came here precisely because they wanted to observe this grand event of the Lifelong Realm.

"I wonder which of the world palace lords would be the most outstanding one this year." Someone glanced up at the nine thrones as that person commented.

"I heard that the Kanwater Palace Lord actually died while he went for a mission in the lower world. I wonder if there's anyone who has already taken over the Kanwater Palace Lord's position. There's a high possibility that someone would be selected as the new Kanwater Palace Lord this banquet."

"Seems like this is an opportunity to many of the major powers. Most probably, many empyreans wish to take over the Kanwater Palace Lord's position."

"In the previous grand banquet, two supreme characters appeared. Qin Wentian and Di Tian caused the Lifire Palace to enjoy glory that was long denied them, they were even more inspiring than the Desolate Heaven Palace then. Sadly, the previous Lifire Palace Lord wasn't able to enjoy for long before he was pulled down from his position and killed by the two supreme geniuses. For this banquet, Qin Wentian and Di Tian would be here with identities as the main palace lord and vice palace lord of the Lifire Palace. I wonder if the Lifire Palace's immortal emperors would be able to have a performance as outstanding as a hundred years ago."

Many people were discussing. The date of the grand banquet finally arrived. Outside Lifelong City, the entire space was bustling and extremely lively. It was unknown how many experts had gathered here.

"The Desolate Heaven Palace Lord has arrived. This time around, the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord is actually the first to arrive." Someone revealed a startled expression, staring at a direction where a group of imposing experts could be seen walking over. These experts were all from the Desolate Heaven Palace. The man in the lead was none other than the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord. Beside him, the leaders of the various peak powers in his territories had come together with him as well.

After the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord arrived, he directly flew up to one of the nine platforms and sat on the treasured throne there. The other experts then went to find their own seats on the platforms.

"The Xuanyuan Palace has arrived too." Many people stared in another direction. When the Xuanyuan Palace Lord arrived, he glanced at the imposing Desolate Heaven Palace Lord but he didn't call out a greeting and directly sat down on the throne prepared for him.

After that, the Dragonsaddle Palace, Scarlet Origin Palace, Gengmetal Palace and Gemini Palace all arrived respectively. When the experts of each world palace arrived, they would undoubtedly cause a commotion and spark discussion among the crowd.

"The Lifire Palace is here." At this moment, many figures appeared in the distance. Countless people stared in their direction, the focus of their gazes was on the white-robed young man in the lead. His simple clothing was unable to mask the light of glory exuding from him. His aura was extremely outstanding. Those who saw Qin Wentian a hundred years ago all silently mused that Qin Wentian has changed. His aura became even more transcendent. As the Lifire Palace Lord, he was also considered a major character of a region.

"So he is the Lifire Palace Lord?" Those who didn't come for the previous banquet silently mused as they surveyed Qin Wentian, their hearts filled with curiosity. Qin Wentian was definitely considered a legendary character. In the past when he participated in the banquet, he shone so brightly with a cultivation base that was merely at the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm. Tens of years later, he actually succeeded in replacing the previous Lifire Palace Lord and became the new one. This was simply a legend and his cultivation speed was truly terrifying to the extreme.

Although from the immortal emperor realm to comprehending source origins wasn't really that strict on the timing requirement as the main point was one's comprehension ability, it was still extremely difficult for most people. For some people, source origins of their respective laws might only take awhile to be comprehended. But for others, they might not be able to comprehend it even if they took forever.

Yet Qin Wentian managed to achieve this in a shockingly short period of time. He only used tens of years.

"The Skyair Palace Lord hasn't arrived. The Kanwater Palace Lord won't be able to come by in any case." Many people silently mused. At this moment, on the top of the stairway, in the direction of the Lifelong Sainthall, two extremely beautiful fairy-like maidens appeared. They were still the same as the two maidens who appeared in the grand banquet before. Their beauty was unrivalled and their cultivation bases were also extremely high. All the palace lords respectively stood up and bowed in greeting, "We pay our respects to the two fairies."

Jialan Qiuyue was among the people from the Lifire Palace, she sat quite close to Qin Wentian. When she saw this scene, her gaze involuntarily flicked to Qin Wentian.

A hundred years ago, Di Tian was beside her. When Di Tian saw this scene back then, he said a sentence that she would forever be unable to forget.

Di Tian said that his women must definitely become someone like the two of them, lofty and high up, receiving respect from the multitude of his subjects.

The Qin Wentian now didn't bow. He calmly stared at the two fairies, his eyes had no hints of respect at all. His woman Ye Qianyu was still imprisoned in the Lifelong Sainthall. You want him to pay respect to the Lifelong Realmlord's women now? It was impossible.

The beautiful eyes of the two fairies gleamed with a resplendent light as they stared in the direction of the nine world palace lords. When their eyes swept through Qin Wentian, their gazes involuntarily stopped there. They could see that Qin Wentian was different from the other palace lords, there was no respect in his eyes or manner at all. In fact, his eyes even contained a penetrating might to them, as though he was judging them. This caused them to feel extremely uncomfortable. In any case, even if one left aside their high cultivation bases, just the fact that they were the Realmlord's women was enough for their statuses to be higher than the palace lords. How dare a new palace lord like Qin Wentian look at them like that?

However, Qin Wentian acted like he had no idea and continued looking at them in the same manner. Although he felt the gazes of the two maidens on him, he still continued to stare at them. This caused coldness to flicker in the eyes of the two women as they silently noted this down. Although Qin Wentian's talent was outstanding, he actually dared to act so impudently after becoming a palace lord?

The two women stood at the side. After that, from afar, the figure of the Lifelong Realmlord could be seen walking over. As the personal disciple of the Lifelong Realmlord, the Skyair Palace Lord was walking together with him. This caused everyone to muse that as the personal disciple, the Skyair Palace Lord's status was definitely a trusted aide among trusted aides of the Lifelong Realmlord.

When the Lifelong Realmlord arrived, countless gazes turned to him as everyone held their breath in silence. Their eyes were filled with respect, staring at this lofty character.

This man, was none other than the master of the Lifelong Realm, a realm that spanned countless territories. He possessed boundless authority, this entire realm belonged to him.

To countless people, their hearts were only filled with worship and respect towards the Lifelong Realmlord.

Countless people bowed willingly, their respect was from the depths of their hearts. When Qin Wentian saw this, his heart trembled. Everyone in the world would always admire those standing at the peak. Only by possessing supreme strength would you have a supreme position, allowing you to look down on the world as the masses paid their respect to you. However, who would know what the Lifelong Realmlord's personality was like? Ordinary people would never be able to come in contact with him. They wouldn't have any direct connection with him either. To the people of the world. He was a character that lives only in the legends, an existence where no one could touch. He was the symbol of their faith, their god.

And today, what he wanted to do was to knock the Lifelong Realmlord who was the symbol of faith, this divinity of the Lifelong Realm, off his divine pestedal.

The Lifelong Realmlord waved his hands, listening to the greetings by everyone as well as the awe, respect and reverence in their eyes made him feel extremely satisfied. This was the feeling of power, this was also where the charm in absolute strength lies in.

Why did people of the world chase after strength?

Because, only if you are strong enough would you be able to obtain a supreme and lofty position, enjoying the worship and respect of those below you, controlling immense amount of authority, embracing the beauties in the world. This entire realm was his, as long as he wanted a woman, he could directly take her for himself.

The Lifelong Realmlord was a pragmatic individual. He enjoyed authority, status and loved to be worshiped by others. He was fond of the satisfaction of having such immense power.

However, when his gaze turned to the direction of the Lifire Palace, when he saw Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang who was seated beside Qin Wentian, the sense of satisfaction faded away, replaced instantly by humiliation. This was a black mark on his reputation. The lofty and supreme him was actually humiliated by the lies of his subordinates? This was something he could not accept.

In the Lifelong Realm, he was the emperor. Only he had the authority to humiliate others, no one else had the qualifications to do this to him.

"Sit." The Lifelong Realmlord calmly spoke, he no longer gazed in Qin Wentian's direction.

"Many thanks Realmlord." Everyone bowed before they sat down. The Skyair Palace Lord also left the Realmlord's side and went to the treasured thrones arranged for the respective palace lords.

"Another hundred years have passed. During these hundred years, I have to still thank everyone for helping me manage the territories of the nine world palaces." The Lifelong Realmlord laughed. "Let the banquet commence."

As the sound of his voice faded, the countless beautiful female servers of the Lifelong Sainthall stepped out and started to serve the dishes.

The scene was extremely harmonious and lively, things were as flourishing as those banquets in the past. There seemed to be no difference at all. Everyone naturally didn't realize that the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord seemed to be much calmer than before. The Xuanyuan Palace Lord also didn't say much, not even greeting the other palace lords.

"All of us has received kindness from Realmlord, it's only natural that we would do our best to manage the territories on behalf of Master." The Skyair Palace Lord was still the first one to speak as was before. Everyone responded in agreement, the Lifelong Realmlord smiled and nodded his head. "A hundred years ago, the dances by the Red Dust Immortal Palace were so beautiful that even empires would topple. I wonder if everyone still remembered the mesmerizing dancer those years ago?"

As the sound of his voice faded, those who knew of some things, felt their hearts shudder. Those who didn't know anything were bewildered as they glanced left and right. The mesmerizing dancer from a hundred years ago? Who was she?

People started to whisper to each other in discussion and soon after, many people recalled that the identity of the most outstanding dancer in the grand banquet a hundred years ago. It was rumored that it was precisely because of her that the previous Lifire Palace Lord died.

Ye Qianyu was now the new Lifire Palace Lord's woman. When Qin Wentian first became the Lifire Palace Lord, the Realmlord freed Ye Qianyu and bestowed her to him.

And now, Ye Qianyu could be said to be the Palace Mistress of the Lifire Palace.

However, in such an occasion, the Lifelong Realmlord wanted Ye Qianyu to become a dancer?

What was the underlying meaning of this?

The hearts of many people trembled. Some experts of the major powers revealed sharpness in their gazes. It was rumored that the Realmlord wasn't very happy with Qin Wentian. Seems like the rumors were true.

"Everyone, all of you are right. This beautiful dancer is none other than the woman the Lifire Palace Lord is in love with. Back then because he liked her, I bestowed her to him." The Lifelong Realmlord continued to smile. "Speaking of which, I also feel somewhat reluctant. Her dance is simply too mesmerizing, causing me to sink in admiration. Those years ago, I would often ask her to dance alone for me to watch, helping me to relieve my boredom. If it wasn't because Palace Lord Qin is in love with her, I would surely have been unwilling to give her over."

"This is Master's conferring a reward to Palace Lord Qin, Palace Lord Qin will naturally note this down with gratitude in his heart." The Skyair Palace Lord laughed. Many people had strange expressions on their faces. There was no doubt that this did sound like a kindness from the Lifelong Realmlord to Qin Wentian. But saying this information out in public now was like the Lifelong Realmlord completely didn't want to give Qin Wentian any face. It can be said that he was trampling on the Lifire Palace Lord's pride.

"Palace Lord Qin. Today, this seat is prepared to borrow Ye Qianyu, asking her to dance her mesmerizing dance for the enjoyment of all. It's okay with you, right?" The Lifelong Realmlord smiled as he asked!

Chapter 1744: Do you even know shame?

The Lifelong Realmlord smiled and glanced at Qin Wentian. It wasn't that he was really looking for Qin Wentian's opinion. He was naturally intentionally doing this because he wanted to humiliate Qin Wentian.

He then turned his gaze to everyone and continued to laugh, "Such a magnificent scene can only be found in this grand banquet. How does everyone feel about that?"

"The Realmlord's grace is boundless. It's truly a rare opportunity being able to witness Palace Lord Qin's lover as a dancer." The Dragonsaddle Palace Lord laughed.

"I do miss that dance a hundred years ago." The Skyair Palace Lord spoke. He naturally had to support his Master and he was waiting for today before he made a move against Qin Wentian because he wanted to publicly humiliate him.

After all, it was very hard to suppress the breath of resentment caused by the humiliation his master went through.

After that, many other powers also laughed and started discussing as though they were speaking of an ordinary dancer and not Qin Wentian's woman.

Many people glanced at the Lifire Palace Lord, wondering what his reaction would be. However, many of these people were disappointed. Qin Wentian had no reaction, merely calmly observing everything. However, how could they know that the killing intent in Qin Wentian's heart for the Lifelong Reamlord and Skyair Palace Lord had already risen to the peak.

He didn't say anything. Right now, Ye Qianyu was still in the Lifelong Sainthall. He wanted to see her first.

The Lifelong Realmlord gave a command to one of his subordinates, telling him to fetch Ye Qianyu over. Everyone continued to enjoy the banquet, the atmosphere was extremely lively.

"Palace Lord Qin, that dancer is truly charm incarnate. In the Lifire Palace, you must have definitely admired her dance frequently, right? How envious I'm of you." A person from the Sword Spirit Sect laughed and stared at Qin Wentian.

A hundred years ago, there was already conflict between Qin Wentian and the Sword Spirit Sect. He challenged Xiao Yu of the Sword Spirit Sect back then, using the Sword Spirit Sect as a stepping stone to gain fame. After that, because of the matter with Beauty Xiao, he offended the Sword Spirit Sect once again. No wonder the Sword Spirit Sect wanted to humiliate him given the current situation.

Qin Wentian calmly turned his gaze at the person of the Sword Spirit Sect who spoke. The calmness in his gaze was somewhat unnerving, causing everyone to feel a chill down their backs. But that expert laughed even louder when he saw Qin Wentian's gaze. He then continued, "If there's an opportunity, I also want to admire the dancer alone for myself."

Anger? Rage?

So what? Who cares about Qin Wentian's emotions. The rumors of the Realmlord being unhappy with Qin Wentian could now be verified. Most probably, Qin Wentian's ending wouldn't be too good. At this moment, it was time to whack the one who had fallen from grace. Who told Qin Wentian to be so arrogant back then, not wanting to give face to their Sword Spirit Sect?

Not long after, Ye Qianyu was brought here. She was as mesmerizing as ever, exuding boundless charm. Her long skirt fluttered in the wind, just a glance at her would cause the blood of every man to burn hotly, let alone her dancing that mesmerizing dance. Many people were filled with anticipation, wanting to watch it.

"Ye Qianyu, carry on." The Realmlord calmly spoke. Ye Qianyu's elegant figure slowly walked forth. Her beautiful eyes glanced in the direction of Qin Wentian. When she arrived at the center of the platform, the Skyair Palace Lord laughed loudly, "No wonder Palace Lord Qin would be so mesmerized by this dancer. The charm she exuded a hundred years ago is even more prevalent now, a truly excellent creature of the world. Palace Lord Qin must have enjoyed himself a lot, right? However, Palace Lord Qin, you must not forget the kindness Master has bestowed on you. This dancer is someone my Master gave to you as a reward. In the future, remember to bring her over more often to the Lifelong Sainthall so she can dance for my Master to admire."

"Before she starts dancing, I wish to ask her a few things." Qin Wentian suddenly spoke out. He then turned to Ye Qianyu, "Qianyu, come over first."

"Mhm," Ye Qianyu smiled. Her beautiful figure flashed, arriving beside Qin Wentian. This caused the Lifelong Realmlord and Skyair Palace Lord to furrowed their brows but they didn't stop her. They wanted to wait and see how Qin Wentian would disobey the Realmlord's order before they used it as an excuse to finish him.

"Qianyu, wait at the side for now." Qin Wentian nodded to her. Ye Qianyu smiled again and walked behind him as though nothing was going on. Previously, she has already received Qin Wentian's voice transmission. Today, her man was going to fall out with the Lifelong Realmlord. Although she didn't know how Qin Wentian was capable of this, but since he said he was going to do it, he would naturally have enough confidence in himself.

"Qin Wentian, what do you mean by this?" The Skyair Palace Lord shouted. "Master is still waiting for this dancer to show us her dance. Are you disobeying master's order?"

"Who the hell do you think you are? Are you even qualified to speak to me in this manner?" Qin Wentian turned his gaze to the Skyair Palace Lord. In an instant, those people who lifted their wine cups all froze, their hands suspended in the air because of this sudden outburst of domineering words.

Qin Wentian actually directly berated the Skyair Palace Lord in public, asking who the hell did he think he was?

Although he was now the new Lifire Palace Lord, the Skyair Palace Lord was after all one of the strongest three palace lords among the nine world palaces. In addition, he was also the personal disciple of the Lifelong Realmlord with status equivalent to the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord. Yet, Qin Wentian dared to act so brazenly?

In an instant, countless gazes focused on Qin Wentian. His words were like a bolt of thunder, heralding the arrival of the storm.

The Skyair Palace Lord started. After that, his expression turned extremely ugly. Qin Wentian actually wanted to humiliate him in public.

Very well, even if previously, they could find no excuses for them to deal with Qin Wentian today, Qin Wentian had already voluntarily leapt out to court death. Although he knew that his master would surely force Qin Wentian, he didn't expect Qin Wentian couldn't endure it just after awhile.

"Palace Lord Qin, do you know what you are doing?" The Skyair Palace Lord coldly asked.

"Back then in the lower world, you were also as arrogant and brazen towards this seat as you are now. Yet, what was the result? You were almost killed by a single sword strike by me, you can't even fend off one of my attacks and I had to show mercy. If you weren't the personal disciple of the Realmlord, I would have already killed you then. Do you think you could survive till now to speak to me like this? Trash, how dare you bark at this seat with your puny strength. As one of the world palace lords, do still want your face?"

Qin Wentian coldly spoke, directly revealing the truth of what happened then, mercilessly shaming and humiliating the Skyair Palace Lord.

This old matter wasn't anything worthy of boasting to Qin Wentian. He also couldn't be bothered to mention it. However, this Skyair Palace Lord truly didn't know what was shame. Since he was asking for it, he would let the Skyair Palace Lord understand what shame is.

As expected, as this sentence rang out, countless people felt incredibly shocked as they mumbled to each other. Numerous gazes turned from Qin Wentian to the Skyair Palace Lord.

Such a battle actually erupted between the two of them before? As the personal disciple of the Lifelong Realmlord, the Skyair Palace Lord couldn't even fend off a single one of Qin Wentian's sword strikes?

Even the Lifelong Realmlord was frowning as he stared at the Skyair Palace Lord. At that time, this wasn't what the Skyair Palace Lord told him.

Upon feeling the gazes of the Realmlord and countless people, the expression of the Skyair Palace Lord instantly turned ashen. After that, his countenance became malevolent, he stared at Qin Wentian and spoke, "Impudent, how dare you speak nonsense here to ruin my reputation!"

Denial?

Qin Wentian stared at him and coldly laughed, "Seems like you really did not mention this to the Realmlord. Since you said that this seat is talking nonsense, why don't I challenge you right now before the eyes of everyone and the Realmlord? If you can fend off a single one of my attacks, it shall be considered my loss. I will apologize to you in public. But if you cannot, my sword attack won't be like that of the past. There shall be no mercy shown. I will crush the shameless you underneath my might, I won't allow you to continue to sully the reputation of the Realmlord."

The Skyair Palace Lord's countenance contorted yet he didn't dare to accept the challenge. Clearly, he felt trepidation in his heart. Upon seeing this scene, how could everyone else still not understand? Qin Wentian's words were actually real.

"What a terrifying Lifire Palace Lord." Many people silently mused. A hundred years ago, Qin Wentian was still an immortal emperor, and fought on the platform against experts from the other world palaces. At that time, he was just an insignificant character to the Skyair Palace Lord. But now, after a mere hundred years, he actually reached a level where he dared to berate the Skyair Palace Lord in public. Also, he had once defeated the Skyair Palace Lord with a single strike. How terrifying was his strength?

The expressions of those from the Sword Spirit Sect also grew ugly. Qin Wentian had actually became so strong. If this person wasn't eliminated, it would be future trouble for them. Luckily, the Realmlord was preparing to act against Qin Wentian today.

As expected, the Lifelong Realmlord was extremely unhappy now. The Skyair Palace Lord was humiliated like this by Qin Wentian in public and he even lost in a single strike. Wasn't this throwing his face?

Was this Qin Wentian's retaliation?

"Qin Wentian, we can speak of this later. I've already said earlier to allow everyone to enjoy the dance performed by Ye Qianyu first." The Lifelong Realmlord changed the topic. All other debts could wait for now.

"Reporting to Realmlord, it's imperative that I must speak of this now. I have something to report to Realmlord." Qin Wentian spoke and continued, "This has something to do with me and Beiming Youhuang."

"Mhm?" The eyes of the Lifelong Realmlord gleamed sharply. "What is it?"

He wanted to hear what Qin Wentian has to say.

"Actually, although I and Youhuang aren't really apprentice siblings under a master but we were once taught by a mysterious senior together before. We can be considered half-apprentice siblings. That year when we first came to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, we encountered some troubles. At that time, my cultivation base was still low and in order to better roam the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, Beiming Youhuang pretended to be my senior apprentice sister. From then on, the two of us maintained this identity to the rest of the world." Qin Wentian slowly spoke.

The Lifelong Realmlord naturally already knew about this. A sharp smile curled his lips. Was Qin Wentian trying to confess voluntarily so he could ask for forgiveness?

Qin Wentian was observing the Lifelong Realmlord too. When he saw his expression, Qin Wentian understood that the Realmlord already knew about this. No wonder he would take Ye Qianyu as a hostage.

"And?" The Lifelong Realmlord coldly spoke.

"Although we are not really apprentice siblings, we encountered many life-and-death situations in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and our relationship is even closer than normal apprentice siblings. That year after I killed the previous Lifire Palace Lord, and when Realmlord was considering how to deal with this matter, you told Youhuang that you can consider allowing me to become the Lifire Palace Lord but you also brought out the suggestion of her becoming your concubine at the same time. Because of me, Beiming Youhuang actually chose to sacrifice herself and promised you. I also know that Realmlord would announce this in the banquet today hence I have to say everything now. I only want to tell Realmlord that the wedding between you and Youhuang is impossible. I won't allow her to sacrifice herself just to satiate your lust."

Qin Wentian slowly spoke.

"RIDICULOUS!" The Skyair Palace Lord roared in anger, "An adulterous couple actually daring to humiliate my master. It his her glory and his kindness to her that my master wants to take her as a concubine. Who could have thought that you two scums are in cahoots, repaying my master's kindness with enmity, even daring to tarnish his esteemed reputation. The two of you must be killed."

"Glory? Kindness?" Qin Wentian coldly laughed. "The Realmlord has already lived for so long yet he is still so despicable and lecherous. The two of you, a pair of master and disciple, are truly similar indeed. Do you all even know shame?"

Qin Wentian's words were like thunder from a clear sky!

Chapter 1745: To Stand Out

Qin Wentian's voice wasn't loud but each of his words were like thunder blasting into the hearts of everyone.

Today was the grand banquet only held once in a hundred years. Many people were able to see the Realmlord who was the symbol of their faith. This event held today, was the largest occasion in the entire Lifelong Realm.

However, during today where there's such a grand occasion, Qin Wentian who was a Palace Lord under the Lifelong Realmlord, had actually publicly insulted him by saying that despite living to such an age the Realmlord was still an extremely lecherous, despicable and completely shameless individual.

Insulting the Realmlord, no one dared to imagine that such a matter would occur. But right now, there was actually someone doing so, causing many to still be in a daze.

They came here to attend the banquet, they came here to see which supreme geniuses would appear this time around. Who would have thought that they would actually see a storm unfolding?

In the history of the Lifelong Realm, such a thing has never happened before. Let alone insulting the Realmlord in public, no one would even dare to do so. The Realmlord was a lofty existence, the master of the Lifelong Realm. Who would dare to show him disrespect?

Many people felt their hearts trembling, even the various palace lords didn't expect Qin Wentian to come on so ferociously. Qin Wentian's retaliation was so sharp and direct. Borrowing my woman for a dance? In that case, I shall insult you in public. You are a shameless and lecherous man.

Even the Sword Spirit Sect and the other peak powers were stunned. This fellow...was he courting death?

Countless gazes turned to the Lifelong Realmlord. They were speculating what the Lifelong Realmlord was currently thinking about now? Most probably, the killing intent in his heart should have towered up into the sky.

The Lifelong Realmlord continued to sit there, actually not saying anything. Even he himself was shocked by Qin Wentian's words. Who was he? He was the master of the Lifelong Realm. Never would he expect that Qin Wentian would dare to insult him in public. So what even if he used a thousand blades to pierce Qin Wentian now? His reputation was already damaged.

At this moment, he was pondering over how exactly he should handle Qin Wentian, Qin Wentian's women, and Qin Wentian's family. Many venomous methods of punishment instantly appeared in his mind. He wanted to make Qin Wentian regret ever living in this world.

The Skyair Palace Lord was enraged as well, the killing intent in his heart grew even stronger. Qin Wentian would die for sure today, no one would be able to save him. So what even if he really was World Overlord Yi's disciple? Daring to insult the Lifelong Realmlord, who was the same level as World Overlord Yi, even if the Lifelong Realmlord killed Qin Wentian, what could Yi say?

Qin Wentian would definitely die today. What they needed to do now was to cleanse the Realmlord's reputation. Everyone in the world was watching. The things that happened today would swiftly be circulated around the entire Lifelong Realm. If Qin Wentian's words were taken as the truth, the Lifelong Realmlord who is the symbol of faith, a supreme existence, would then have an inerasable black spot on his reputation forever.

"Realmlord, your subordinate begs for a chance to act for you. I'll capture the Lifire Palace Lord and I shall kill him on behalf of you." The Dragonsaddle Palace Lord spoke.

"My Sword Spirit Sect is willing to be the one acting on behalf of Realmlord as well." The sect leader of the Sword Spirit Sect stood up and personally spoke.

"This subordinate also seeks Realmlord's approval for me to kill Qin Wentian, I shall capture all his subordinates." The Scarlet Origin Palace Lord also expressed his stance. After that, the experts from many powers stood up as righteous indignation fills their heart. It felt as though the one Qin Wentian was insulting wasn't the Lifelong Realmlord but was them instead.

At this moment, they naturally had to stand out to express their attitude, displaying their loyalty.

A huge clamor instantly rang out. But in the midst of this commotion, those who were more observant would discover that both the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord and the Xuanyuan Palace Lord, who were major characters, actually didn't express their stance or say anything. Naturally, they had no need to say anything because they would definitely stand by the Realmlord's side. They were just waiting for the Realmlord to give the order, right?

Only to see that at this moment, the Lifelong Realmlord lifted his hand. In an instant, all the clamor turned to silence. From this, one could see how imposing the Lifelong Realmlord was.

"Beiming Youhuang." The Lifelong Realmlord suddenly spoke, staring at Beiming Youhuang. "You are the most clear about what happened back then. I did indeed hesitate whether or not to give Qin Wentian the Lifire Palace Lord's position. In my perspective, there are still others worthy of a consideration. And as for me, it's because I admired you that I wished for you to become my woman. I did ask you for your opinion did I not? You didn't reject me then. How could I as the Lifelong Realmlord force myself onto a woman?"

"Also Qin Wentian, despite you killing the previous Lifire Palace Lord, I didn't hold it against you and even gave you the Lifire Palace Lord's position, freeing Ye Qianyu allowing her to reunite with you. However, I had no idea about your relationship with Beiming Youhuang. You guys could have told me then, how would I be calculative about such things? Why do you want to try and tarnish my reputation now?"

"Master, this adulterous couple definitely has something going on and even dared to hide this from Master. Most probably their aim was to get the Lifire Palace Lord's position. And now, when Beiming Youhuang saw the date of Master making the announcement was getting nearer, she suddenly regretted it, deciding to repay your kindness with enmity and even tried to tarnish Master's reputation. Master, you must not easily spare such despicable people." The Skyair Palace Lord coordinated beautifully and spoke out, the two of them echoing each other. It was like Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang were the despicable ones who repaid kindness with enmity.

"Fascinating." Qin Wentian praised. "The relationship between I and Youhuang is one that's filled with innocence. I, Qin Wentian, am an upright and frank man, how would I not dare to admit the identity of my own woman? Ye Qianyu is precisely my woman. It was only for the sake of her that I entered the Lifire Palace. The Realmlord should very well be aware of this point. Also, when I became the new Lifire Palace Lord, I announced the fact that she is my woman to the entire world. It's impossible for the Realmlord to not know of this, right? However, Realmlord actually imprisoned my woman in the Lifelong Sainthall. What's the purpose of doing this? Is this showing 'kindness' to me? The Realmlord claims my woman as a dancer, wanting her to perform before everyone else. The crowd responded with many lewd remarks as they stared at my woman with ill-concealed lust. Is this also considered a part of the Realmlord's 'kindness'?"

"Lifelong Realmlord, just the incident earlier is already sufficient to let everyone in the world know what sort of person you are. The two fairies beside you are extremely outstanding in terms of beauty, why don't you get them to dance so everyone here can admire them. How about it?" Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

"You dare to be disrespectful to the two fairies?!" The Skyair Palace Lord angrily roared.

"I heard that the Lifelong Realmlord has a harem filled with beauties. So what even if two of them stepped out to perform a dance? Naturally, maybe these two were also forced to join his harem because of his threats. If this is the case, I, Qin, will apologize to the two fairies." Qin Wentian spoke. The Realmlord wanted to cleanse his reputation? Is it even possible?

The Lifelong Realmlord suddenly laughed. "This seat has lived for countless years. As the master of an entire realm, I've met countless beauties through the years. So what even if I have a harem full of beauties? There are countless women in the world who wish to become my woman. Do I even need to threaten them?"

"Today is the day of the grand banquet and it should initially be a very happy thing yet someone actually spoiled all the atmosphere. Is there anyone willing to help this seat to capture this rebellious man?" The Lifelong Realmlord calmly spoke.

"We are willing to aid Realmlord." At this moment, experts from many major powers all stood up, expressing their willing attitudes. The Lifelong Realmlord continued sitting there. For such matters, there was basically no need for him to act, it would be a loss to his status. Given his status, he only needed to give a single command. He wanted to see why Qin Wentian dared to do this. Who was it that given him such courage.

In an instant, countless experts stepped out, surrounding the platform the people of the Lifire Palace was on. At this moment, the expression of countless people on the Lifire Platform changed, including many monarch and governor-level characters. There were also many experts from the peak powers in the Lifire Territories. Although they came here with Qin Wentian, they weren't willing to stick together with him to face the Lifelong Realmlord's wrath.

This Qin Wentian was probably 80% crazy and was courting death. They didn't want to send themselves to death. Someone instantly spoke, "Although I'm a monarch of the Lifire Palace, I'm ultimately still Realmlord's subordinate and would never dare to do such a rebellious act. I beg Realmlord for forgiveness."

"Those who have nothing to do with this, just step out now. I won't pursue it." The Lifelong Realmlord calmly spoke. At this moment, he naturally wouldn't be stingy, he would rather show off his magnamious bearing.

In an instant, several monarchs stepped out. Those who went with Qin Wentian to the lower world all hesitated. They felt that Qin Wentian's actions today were a little too crazy. Do they still want to stick with him and continued walking down this path?

Although they once silently vowed to themselves saying that they would follow Qin Wentian from now on, but in the times of life and death and with the Lifelong Realmlord as the opponent, they naturally had to be cautious.

Very swiftly, more people stepped out and moved away. Qin Wentian didn't stop them. The number of experts on the platform for the Lifire Palace continuously dwindled in number. It was then strange if they didn't make their escape now. They didn't wish to die together with Qin Wentian.

"Qin Wentian, just give yourself up." The Sword Spirit Sect's leader personally acted, the sword intent from him felt incomparably sharp. Qin Wentian saw experts from all areas surrounding him. He then calmly glanced at the other platforms. Even at this moment, the Desolate Heaven Palace, Xuanyuan Palace and Jialan Clan didn't act.

Before Qin Wentian displayed enough strength to contend against the Lifelong Realmlord, they naturally wouldn't do anything. Even though they might support Qin Wentian in their hearts, they still needed Qin Wentian to be powerful enough or they would simply be sending themselves to death.

"You are truly foolish." Qin Wentian stared at the sect leader of the Sword Spirit Sect, his words causing the eyes of the sect leader to sharpen. His sword intent grew even stronger as ancient sword sages manifested around him, brimming with killing intent.

"Since I dare to come here today, my objective is clearly to contend against the Lifelong Realmlord. Why are you in such a rush to gain merit to flatter the Lifelong Realmlord? Could it be that you've never thought about the fact that what if I have the strength to contend against the Lifelong Realmlord? At that time, what ending would your Sword Spirit Sect face?" Qin Wentian's words caused the Sword Spirit Sect Leader's expression to change as unease appeared in his heart.

Could it be that Qin Wentian truly came here prepared? He had someone behind his back that could contend against the Lifelong Realmlord? He still didn't dare to think in the direction that Qin Wentian himself might already have enough strength to do so on his own.

"Just based on your words and agreeing with the Lifelong Realmlord earlier, speaking disrespectful words about my woman, the Sword Spirit Sect shall cease to exist today. Since you wish to stand out so much, I shall grant you your wish." As the sound of Qin Wentian's voice faded, the white robes he wore fluttered. A bright light flashed, a beam of light directly blasted into the body of the Spirit Sword Sect's sect leader.

"ARGHH!" A voice filled with incomparable agony rang out. The crowd watched on, stunned. The body of the Spirit Sword Sect Leader was instantly riddled with countless holes as he disintegrated before their eyes.

At this moment, the sect leader's face was filled with boundless fear and panic. He stared in shock at Qin Wentian as endless regrets appeared in his heart.

From today onwards, the Sword Spirit Sect shall cease to exist in this world!

"No…!" The Sword Spirit Sect Leader howled. After that, his body slowly turned illusory and a few moments later, he directly transformed into dust which dissipated along with the wind!

Chapter 1746: Rebellion of the Four Palaces

Qin Wentian merely took a small step forward, but in an instant, those experts surrounding him were all frightened into retreating. Their faces were filled with terror as great waves of emotions rose in their hearts.

The Sword Spirit Sect Leader was an extremely powerful empyrean. However, just a beam of light shot out by Qin Wentian caused him to disintegrate completely. He couldn't resist at all.

Only at this moment did many people suddenly realize that when Qin Wentian insulted the Lifelong Realmlord, that wasn't him courting death. It was possible that he might have broken through to that legendary realm.

For the nine world palace lords, the empyreans of many peak powers felt their hearts trembling. How can this be possible?

In a mere hundred years, could he really have managed to do that? This was completely unprecedented.

Below, countless experts among the crowd were all in a daze, stunned by shock. Was this new Lifire Palace Lord going to change the sky?

He exuded boundless magnificence. Once, he rose up in this Lifelong Banquet and today, at the Lifelong Banquet, he actually was going to challenge the Lifelong Realmlord from the underlying meaning of his words earlier!

"Heavenheart Mandate." At this moment, the Realmlord who was seated on his throne calmly spoke. He stared at Qin Wentian. He truly didn't expect this. Qin Wentian actually didn't come here just to send himself to death, he came here fully prepared. When Qin Wentian insulted him earlier, he initially thought that there was someone backing Qin Wentian up.

The Lifelong Realmlord was a world overlord existence, he clearly knew how difficult it was to enter this realm. The more he knew, the more he didn't dare to think about it. Qin Wentian actually climbed from mid-stage immortal emperor to the world overlord realm in a mere hundred years? What concept was this?

When the crowd heard the words 'Heavenheart Mandate,' all the empyreans felt their hearts tremble. They naturally understood what the two words meant. Heavenheart Mandates were the sign of World Overlords.

Had Qin Wentian already become a World Overlord?

The expression of the Skyair Palace Lord was so contorted that it could no longer be described as ugly. He naturally didn't expect, not even in his wildest dreams, that this was possible. Only now did he realize what Qin

Wentian meant when he said that he had no qualifications to talk to him. The Skyair Palace Lord now truly had no rights to speak equally with Qin Wentian.

The people of the Jialan Clan felt their hearts trembling. Jialan Jiangshan was shuddering as well, the young are fearsome indeed. He suddenly felt that he had truly aged. Once, he saw Qin Wentian and Di Tian entering the Empyrean Realm together and killing the previous Lifire Palace Lord. And today, he saw Qin Wentian killing the Sword Spirit Sect Leader in a single strike from his comprehensions of his Heavenheart Mandate.

Jialan Yuntian, Jialan Yunhai, Jialan Qiuyue and the rest were all completely speechless as they stared at this young man in white.

Was this his confidence?

The eyes of the Xuanyuan Palace turned sharp. That year in the ancient battlefield, he had already experienced for himself Qin Wentian's brilliance. But even so, this scene now was truly shocking. Seems like he must have encountered good fortune in the ancient battlefield and returned here prepared. Clearly, if Qin Wentian didn't die, his future accomplishments would surely far surpass the Lifelong Realmlord. If he had to choose someone to follow, he would rather choose Qin Wentian.

But even so, he was still hesitating. Should he stand out to declare his support? This naturally was a very good opportunity. If not, when the trend of the situation is clear, there would no longer be a meaning. This was definitely going to be a huge gamble. Qin Wentian transmitted a message to the Xuanyuan Clan, informing them to choose carefully. He decided to seriously observe and wouldn't make any reckless moves. However, the time to choose has now come.

Everyone had different thoughts in their mind. Nobody noticed the fear and regret in the heart of the experts from the Sword Spirit Sect. They had personally seen their sect leader being slayed. Right now, they could only hope that the Realmlord was able to kill Qin Wentian or their sect would truly be doomed.

"No wonder you dared to be so brazen. So it turned out that you do have some confidence. Are you trying to smear this seat's reputation so you can rally the others to rebel?" The Lifelong Realmlord calmly spoke. The him right now still didn't forget to try and cleanse his reputation.

"Lifelong Realmlord, your innate personality is a despicable man, why do you still refuse to admit it? Given someone of your disposition being able to sit so long on your throne, I wonder how many people have suffered grievances. Today, it's time for you to give your position up." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. However, his calm voice was like a thunderbolt.

Today, it's time for you to give your position up.

The Lifire Palace Lord Qin Wentian told the Lifelong Realmlord to step down, did he desire to replace him?

"What audacious words. Just because you've comprehended your Heavenheart Mandate and entered this realm, do you think you are strong enough to win against this seat? Just with the meager amount of subordinates you possess, are you intending to go against all the powers in my Lifelong Realm? Qin Wentian, your appetite is too big. Although your talent is high, you don't know how to keep a low profile, you shall be exterminated by the heavens." The Lifelong Realmlord was as expected of someone of his status. Even now, his emotions didn't fluctuate too much. He gave off a feeling that he was as heavy and stable as a mountain.

"It's really about time for you to retire." At this moment, a cold voice rang out. The eyes of the Lifelong Realmlord flashed with coldness, staring in a certain direction.

After everyone saw who it was that had spoken, all of them felt extremely astonished.

"The Desolate Heaven Palace Lord!" The spectators felt their hearts trembling. Today, they were here to attend the grand banquet. Who would have thought that a storm of such proportions would erupt.

The Desolate Heaven Palace Lord was the number one expert among the nine world palaces. Even he has chose to stand out now, speaking for Qin Wentian, saying that it's time for the Lifelong Realmlord to retire.

Out of the nine world palaces, two palace lords had rebelled. One was the legendary character Qin Wentian, his rise to fame was like the speed of a shooting star, unexcelled in the world. For the other person, it was actually the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord, the number one expert in the nine world palaces.

"Huang Zhan, how dare you." The Skyair Palace Lord coldly spoke. "My master gave you the position of a palace lord and even once wanted to take you as his disciple, treating you as one although you are not. You actually want to rebel now?"

"Treating me as a disciple?" The Desolate Heaven Palace Lord Huang Zhan coldly laughed. "I'm able to live till today because of the protection of a woman. Everyone if the realm thinks that I'm the strongest palace lord in the nine world palaces, but who among them would know that I'm nothing but a coward? I don't even dare to fight for the woman I love. Lifelong Realmlord, back then you seized the woman I loved and you have always been on your guard against me. Once I pose the slightest threat to you, I believe that my death date wouldn't be far off. Who would have thought that even after so many years have passed, you are still as shameless and despicable as ever, using the same methods to deal with others. Today, I'd rather be mocked by everyone in the world. Even if I died here today, I will reveal your true character. You are lowly and despicable, an extremely shameless individual."

The Desolate Heaven Palace Lord Huang Zhan had endured this for a long time. Finally, there was someone who stood out to oppose the Lifelong Realmlord. He didn't want to endure any longer, he clearly knew that if he said such a thing out loud, his own reputation would be tarnished and he would even be mocked by everyone in the world for not having the guts to fight for his woman. However, he could no longer be careless. Even if the Lifelong Realmlord was the one victorious today, the black mark on his reputation would circulate through the entire Lifelong Realm. Unless of course, he killed everyone who came here to attend the grand banquet today. This was something clearly impossible.

Give the number of people here to attend the grand banquet, if he did so, the Lifelong Realm's strength would wane greatly and might even collapse.

Discussions rang out among the crowd again. The Lifelong Realmlord has actually seized the woman the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord loved before? This was simply...

In that case, was everything Qin Wentian has said real? The Lifelong Realmlord was actually such a despicable person?

At this moment, many people felt their faith crumbling as their vision of the world was flipped upside-down.

That was right, those supreme existences only existed in the legends. Others could only stare up at and couldn't come in contact with them. However, these legendary existences were also human. As long as they were human, they would definitely feel greed and desire.

The Lifelong Realmlord's weakness was lust. Hence, he was willing to use any sorts of despicable methods to achieve his aim. He felt that the entire Lifelong Realm was his, as long as he liked a woman, he would want to acquire them. Even if that person was his subordinates' women.

If this was true, it meant that Qin Wentian was truly forced to rebel by the Lifelong Realmlord. Just like what Qin Wentian had said, the Lifelong Realmlord imprisoned Ye Qianyu in the Lifelong Sainthall and wanted to borrow Ye Qianyu to dance to the crowd. Qin Wentian had no choice but to rebel.

"Seems like you guys have planned this for a long time, allying in the dark and will spare no expense to destroy this seat's reputation. If you all want my position, come and openly snatch it away. Why do you need to take all these measures?" The Lifelong Realmlord calmly spoke, as though the words of Qin Wentian and the Desolate Heaven Palace were just them trying to damage his reputation. He naturally wouldn't admit to this.

"Realmlord, there's no need for you to deny it any longer. Those of the older generations all know about this incident. Although you are a lofty individual, it's true that you have a despicable character. Why don't you give your position up?" At this moment, Jialan Jiangshan spoke out. Only now did everyone realize that the Jialan Clan didn't sit on the platform reserved for Lifelong City, they sat on the platform reserved for the Lifire Palace.

"Who else is going to join forces with Qin Wentian, you might as well all step out now. This seat doesn't mind a few more dancing clowns." The Lifelong Realmlord still suppressed his anger at this moment. From this, one could tell how terrifying his endurance was.

"Speaking of this, I also remembered some of the things that happened in the past." The Gemini Palace Lord spoke out, staring at the Lifelong Realmlord. "Lifelong Realmlord, you should remember that back then, you had a very good relationship with my master, right? At that time, you were humble and polite, and extremely friendly to my master. You invited him to explore a secret realm. After experiencing many dangers together, you actually took the treasure alone and fled. My master saw your true colors and started to distance himself from you. You felt guilty, that's why you brought out the suggestion for the two of us to take the Gemini Palace Lords position. However, how can this be compared to the treasure you took for yourself? That is an overlord-ranked divine weapon!"

The palace lords all stood out one by one. Earlier, those who knew nothing finally understood now. So it turned out that the master of the Gemini Palace Lords was also a world overlord, an existence on the same level as the Lifelong Realmlord. They couldn't help but wonder if they heard of him before.

Seeing that the Desolate Heaven Palace and Gemini Palace both standing out, the Xuanyuan Palace Lord had a decision in his heart. The Desolate Heaven Palace Lord Huang Zhan was the strongest empyrean in the Lifelong Realm. The master of the Gemini Palace Lords was Yi. It was about time he made his decision. He knew that there was no way for him to remain neutral. If he didn't stand on Qin Wentian's side and if Qin Wentian was victorious in the end, their Xuanyuan Clan would be in dire straits. He had to make his choice now.

"This subordinate has followed Realmlord for many years. Our clan fought on behalf of you to help gain this empire. Although we have been following Realmlord's orders for so many years, I still have to stand out to say something now. The words all the palace lords have spoken are true. Realmlord, it's true that your cultivation base is high. It's also true that your personality is not too good. Why don't you take this chance to give up your position. You are no longer qualified to sit on the throne."

The Xuanyuan Palace Lord had chosen to stand on Qin Wentian's side.

Out of all the world palace lords, the Kanwater Palace Lord has already fallen. Only eight were left.

As for the remaining eight palace lords, there were a total of four who actually chose to rebel, wanting the Lifelong Realmlord to step down. These four are: The Desolate Heaven Palace, the Xuanyuan Palace, the Gemini Palace and the Lifire Palace!

The strength of these four palaces were only stronger compared to the other four, not weaker.

This once per hundred years grand banquet of the Lifelong Realm was truly going to be a shocking one!

Chapter 1747: Yi

The Desolate Heaven Palace is the number one palace out of the nine world palaces.

The Xuanyuan Palace is the earliest palace to follow the Realmlord. Them, including the Desolate Heaven Palace and the Skyair Palace were the strongest three out of all the world palace.

The Gemini Palace was also very powerful. Both their palace lords were not simple characters.

As for the Lifire Palace, it has already surpassed the Desolate Heaven Palace in truth because they had Qin Wentian. He alone was enough to stand above everyone.

Hence, the strength of these four world palaces had already far surpassed the Skyair Palace, Scarlet Origin Palace, Dragonsaddle Palace and Gengmetal Palace.

This meant that the number of subordinates who wanted to rebel was actually more and stronger compared to those who supported the Realmlord. Now that this shocking scene had occurred, everyone in the crowd was completely stunned. All of them stared up at the platforms from the ground.

At this moment, those who were waiting to see Qin Wentian make a fool out of himself, feeling that he was courting death, were now completely stupefied. Some felt that they weren't able to see the situation clearly. Why was this happening?

Before this, all of them thought Qin Wentian was here to send himself to death. But in the blink of an eye, there was actually so many people willing to support Qin Wentian. This caused those who mocked Ye Qianyu earlier to all be stunned and their hearts were filled with regret. If today, the Lifelong Realmlord was really replaced by Qin Wentian, they knew very well what their consequences would be. They silently cursed themselves for being stupid, following the crowd. The Lifelong Realmlord wouldn't look upon them highly for that and yet, they have offended Qin Wentian immensely.

Those monarchs and governors from the Lifire Palace who stepped out and went over to the other side because of a single sentence from the Lifelong Realmlord, were all completely stunned too. What situation was this? There were actually three other world palaces supporting Qin Wentian. This was simply too crazy.

This scene caused them to feel that it was somewhat similar to the scene which happened in the Lifire Palace back then. If the same incidents that occurred then repeated in the Lifelong Realm now, what would their ending be like?

When they thought of this, their hearts began to fill with terror and panic. They were praying that the Lifelong Realmlord was able to kill Qin Wentian. If not, their own situations would be extremely dire.

"Very good." The Lifelong Realmlord's expression grew heavy. Four world palace lords including a peak power, the Jialan Clan had actually chosen to rebel. Out of the four palaces, the Xuanyuan Palace Lord actually chose to rebel too, this was truly unexpected.

Such power can be considered extremely immense. Also, the various palace lords stood out to say that his character was extremely despicable. This made the Lifelong Realmlord understand that his reputation was tarnished completely. It was impossible to cleanse it no matter what he did.

"This seat has always treated all of you very well. What conditions did he promise you exactly to make you guys betray me? Since this is the case, I will grant you your wishes. For all who participates in the rebellion today, the assets of their clan and other businesses under them shall all be confiscated. All of them shall be heavily punished. Since they dare to betray this seat, they best be prepared to pay the price."

The Lifelong Realmlord coldly spoke. He stood up from his throne and in an instant, an extremely terrifying power enveloped this entire space. This was the power of a world heart, a heart's domain. Everyone instantly felt that they were shifted into a special dimension. It was as though they could personally feel the Lifelong Realmlord's anger. A terrifying fire burn in their hearts.

"It has been so long since we last met. Lifelong, you are still the same as ever, you are unable to control your expression once you are angered." At this moment, a voice suddenly drifted over. The expression of the Lifelong Realmlord stiffened as he stared into the horizons. At this moment, his eyes became extremely sharp as he spoke. "So, an old friend has arrived. I was wondering why they would have such courage to rebel. So it was you controlling everything from the shadows. Do you want to seize my Lifelong Realm?"

"I'm not as infatuated with power as you might be. You should be the most clear about this. I've also never interfered before in the matters today. It's just that I know about it. My disciples reported this incident to me, hence I rushed here to take a look." The voice originated from the void. Countless people stared into the distance, exactly who was it who had arrived? This person actually could speak to the Lifelong Realmlord on equal grounds.

From the void, a figure slowly materialized. This man was dressed in simple robes and looked middle-aged. His entire person exuded an imposing air.

"We pay our respects to master." The two palace lords of the Gemini Palace greeted. At this moment, quite a number of people already knew of this newcomer's identity.

Yi, an expert at the world overlord realm. He was the Lifelong Realmlord's friend those years ago.

"Ancient Emperor Yi." Qin Wentian silently mused as he stared at the figure in the air. Although Yi had the appearance of a middle-aged man, he was still extremely good-looking and projected a heroic aura. When he was younger, Yi must have definitely been extremely handsome.

"Junior Qin Wentian pays my respects to Senior Yi." Qin Wentian bowed low. His karma with Yi had began since a very long time ago. Right now, he finally met this legendary character, an ancient emperor existence back then, whose legends were being circulated around by people of the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms.

Yi cast a glance at Qin Wentian. His eyes that were like the starry skies, flashed with unmasked admiration. "Qin Wentian."

"Senior knows of me?" Qin Wentian spoke.

"Mhm, I already know of your story. The young are truly fearsome indeed, you are much more outstanding than me." Yi laughed. From a certain perspective, this young man before his eyes was considered half his successor. He obtained his inheritance and became the saint lord of this generation, mastering God's Hand.

"Senior praises me too much. Maybe senior doesn't understand junior that well but ever since I cultivated the secret art in the City of Ancient Emperors, the two of us were already bound by unbreakable karma. I would often hear the stories about senior and now, I've finally met senior." Qin Wentian smiled. This kind of feeling felt very wondrous. World Overlord Yi used to be a character that only existed in stories for him, but now, he had actually appeared before his eyes. Most probably, many people in Azure Mystic would feel the same if they saw Yi now.

"Are you very disappointed?" Yi laughed.

"Naturally not. It's my fortune to be able to witness Senior's glory." Qin Wentian sincerely spoke.

"Haha, right now you've already comprehended a heavenheart mandate and you will soon be at the same cultivation realm as me. There's no need to be so humble." Yi smiled at Qin Wentian. When the Lifelong Realmlord heard their conversation, he only knew now that Qin Wentian basically wasn't Yi's disciple. This was the first time the two of them met.

In that case, everything he thought of before was merely his own imagination.

"Yi, since you don't really know about the things here. What do you plan to do now that you have returned?" At this moment, the Lifelong Realmlord spoke, disrupting their conversation. If Yi wanted to deal with him, things would be extremely troublesome. Qin Wentian was an expert who had comprehended a heavenheart mandate. As long as Yi tangles with him, no one under him would be able to block Qin Wentian.

Countless people were stunned. The situation instantly changed. A world overlord expert had appeared and this world overlord had a very good relationship with Qin Wentian and was also the master of the Gemini Palace Lords.

If he interferes, who says that it was impossible to pull the Lifelong Realmlord down from his position today?

Yi glanced at the Lifelong Realmlord before turning back to Qin Wentian, "What are you planning to do?"

"Since senior has arrived, please help me to act as a witness." Qin Wentian spoke. "I originally am the Lifire Palace Lord under the Lifelong Realmlord. However, he went too overboard in bullying. For me to obtain this palace lord's position, he actually threatened my good friend Youhuang to be his concubine. And now, he even publicly humiliated my woman Ye Qianyu. This matter today is very easy to resolve. The Lifelong Realmlord just needs to apologize in public to Beiming Youhuang and get the two fairies by his side to dance for the admiration of the crowd. After that, he should step down from this position and leave the Lifelong Realm. If he is willing to do all this, I can let bygones be bygones."

Qin Wentian's words caused everyone to be stunned. How could the Lifelong Realmlord agree to such conditions?

The lips of the Lifelong Realmlord curled up in a mocking manner. He coldly spoke, "You instigated my subordinates to rebel. Today, even if Yi wants to protect you, I will kill you for sure."

"In that case, this means that the conflict is unable to be resolved" Yi spoke.

"Since this is the case, I can only ask the Lifelong Realmlord to provide me with some guidance. Senior, please help me control the situation to prevent the Lifelong Realmlord from taking desperate actions, killing the innocent. I will also not participate in the slaughter of the experts from the Lifelong Sainthall. The other battles shall be handed to our subordinates to handle. I'll challenge the Lifelong Realmlord alone." Qin Wentian formally issued a challenge just when many people thought that Qin Wentian's backer was Yi and he would join forces with Yi against the Lifelong Realmlord.

Qin Wentian wanted to challenge the Lifelong Realmlord alone.

Indeed, given experts on their level, if they really acted against those of lower cultivation realms, that would be a pure slaughter. However, Qin Wentian also wasn't afraid. Even if Yi didn't come here today, the family and harem of the Lifelong Realmlord were still in the Lifelong Sainthall. He had so many descendants here, how could the Lifelong Realmlord himself not be worried?

Unless, he killed Qin Wentian before this. If not, once Qin Wentian revealed enough strength to threaten him, how would the Lifelong Realmlord dare to act recklessly?

Naturally, since Yi has came. It would be for the best if he acted as a witness.

"You, challenge me?" The Lifelong Realmlord stared at Qin Wentian. "You should have obtained some good fortune in Ancient Azure Mystic, right? After entering this realm, you are so eager to test your strength? Since this is the case, I'll let you know the price of arrogance."

"Once, the previous Lifire Palace Lord acted in the same manner as you, filled with boundless arrogance. However now, he has already been dead for many years." Qin Wentian calmly replied.

"Haha, you actually compared this seat with the previous Lifire Palace Lord." The Lifelong Realmlord laughed loudly. His figure flashed, directly shooting up into the sky. In an instant, bright light radiated forth, illuminating the entire space. A gigantic ancient tree appeared, so large that it could blot out the sun, the moon, the sky and the stars completely.

The Lifelong Realmlord had the word 'Lifelong' in his title. His world heart, was the Lifelong world heart.

"Be careful. The Lifelong Realmlord has comprehended a total of two Heavenheart Mandates." Yi transmitted his voice to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian nodded slightly in response. His figure flashed like lightning, directly flying up into the air.

"Those below listen to my orders. Annihilate these rebels completely. After this battle, I'll heavily reward those who manage to achieve meritorious deeds. I can consider them for the positions of world palace lords for the five world palaces." The voice of the Lifelong Realmlord thundered through the air.

Four great world palaces rebelled, the Kanwater Palace Lord has fallen. There would soon be a vacancy of five palace lords.

A single sentence by the Lifelong Realmlord caused many major powers to feel their hearts stirring. An empyrean from the Sword Spirit Sect coldly roared, "My Sword Spirit Sect is willing to fight for Realmlord. Who is willing to fight together with my sect to exterminate these rebels?"

To the Sword Spirit Sect, they didn't have any choice. They had to support the Lifelong Realmlord!

Chapter 1748: Empyrean Army

There were four world palaces out of the nine rebelling but the other four world palaces with their palace lords were supporting the Lifelong Realmlord. There were many peak powers in Lifelong City and many empyreans had came to attend the grand banquet this time around. If they were all willing to stand on the Lifelong Realmlord's side, this would undoubtedly be an effortless victory. They could easily subdue Qin Wentian's subordinates and quell the chaos.

However, the problem was that the victory and defeat between Qin Wentian and the Lifelong Realmlord hasn't been determined yet. Who would dare to say the Lifelong Realmlord would win for sure?

If they stand out now to kill Qin Wentian's subordinates and the eventual victor was Qin Wentian, what would it bode for them? It would undoubtedly be a calamity.

Naturally, if the Lifelong Realmlord was victorious, they would naturally be able to receive more rewards.

If they could choose, many powers would rather sit on the fence, they had no inclinations to be swept up into this storm. But in truth, many powers were forced to take sides. For example for the four world palaces who rebelled, if they didn't battle and if the Lifelong Realmlord was the victor, all of them would surely be slaughtered and vice versa.

Those powers that didn't belong to the direct control of the Lifelong Sainthall would be better off as long as they didn't participate. Even if Qin Wentian won, he most probably wouldn't find trouble for them. But if the Lifelong Realmlord won, he would surely suppress them.

Hence, to many other powers, they were trapped in a dilemma.

In the Lifelong Sainthall, many people with extraordinary auras appeared. These were all the descendants of the Lifelong Realmlord. Now that such a major thing has occurred, they naturally had to come out.

Upon seeing these people appearing, more and more major powers stepped out. The experts they had at their disposal were as numerous as the clouds, with several empyreans. These powers all had no way to terminate their connection with the Lifelong Realmlord. Among them, many powers sent their outstanding female descendants to the Lifelong Sainthall and were the Lifelong Realmlord's concubines. There were also many who married the Realmlord's descendants, or married to major characters of the Lifelong Sainthall.

Hence, the number of people participating in the battle increased.

"Kill all rebels and show no mercy. All of you have received kindness from the Realmlord before. Right now, are you all only planning on saving your own hides?" A beautiful woman with a transcendent demeanor shouted.

She was actually exuding the aura of an empyrean, many people didn't recognize her but those peak powers all knew that this was the number one favored concubine of the Lifelong Realmlord. She was beautiful and extremely powerful and had a very high position in the Lifelong Realmlord's harem. She could even influence matters of the Lifelong Sainthall if she wanted to.

As the sound of her voice faded, many powers stepped out. Someone added, "That's right. The Lifire Palace instigated the rebellion. At this moment, we should fight for the Realmlord and quell the chaos, destroying these rebels!"

At this moment, another beautiful woman flew over. Her beautiful eyes gazed in the direction of the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord, she was so beautiful that flowers would pale in comparison.

"Biyue." Huang Zhan felt his heart ache when he saw the woman he loved appear. She was now already a concubine of the Lifelong Realmlord. His heart was filled with extreme conflict.

"Slut, scram the hell away." The beautiful woman earlier cursed when she saw Fairy Biyue. Fairy Biyue turned pale. When he saw this scene, Huang Zhan radiated an extremely violent aura as he coldly spoke, "Concubine Lu, how dare you."

"Why? Huang Zhan, you don't like my behavior? Could it be that the two of you still have feelings for each other? As expected, Biyue didn't obey the propriety of being a wife. After this battle, I shall discipline her properly." Concubine Lu icily spoke.

"I'll kill you." Huang Zhan's aura flooded out. He flew through the air, rushing at his opponent. However, the Skyair Palace Lord moved like lightning, blocking his attack. A sword materialized and slashed out at the void.

"Follow me to kill these rebels, we have to repay the Lifelong Realmlord for his kindness to us." An empyrean from the Sword Spirit Sect roared, drumming up morale, wanting to get more people to participate in the battle.

"FIGHT!" The Xuanyuan Palace Lord roared. Right now, they had no choice but to battle.

Jialan Jiangshan stared at the crowd of experts as he silently speculated. He didn't know if the choice he made today would be a blessing or a curse. Let's hope that the Jialan Clan won't be destroyed in his hands.

Stepping out, Jialan Jiangshan rushed towards the crowd and began to attack. His heart was already determined.

The experts on both sides clashed together. For a period of time, chaotic aftershocks devastated the area in the air. Those spectators below all watched with tumultuous feelings. They didn't expect such a thing would occur at the grand banquet today. Who would have thought that a world-shocking battle would erupt?

"Qin Wentian's side seems to be suffering a disadvantage. Although World Overlord Yi has appeared, he most probably won't participate in the battle. Also, given how deep the foundations of the Lifelong Realm is, their forces aren't something the Lifire Palace can deal with, although a total of four palaces had rebelled as well." The crowd silently mused. The ending of this battle might be decided by the winner of the battle between Qin Wentian and the Lifelong Realmlord. It would truly be too cruel if all of Qin Wentian's subordinates were killed.

At this moment, among the crowd, numerous figures suddenly flew up in the air, moving with lightning speed, incredibly swift.

Behind one figure, an entire projection of a world appeared behind him, containing a myriad of transformations. This person exuded an aura as though he could dominate the entire world. He shot straight towards the direction of the Sword Spirit Sect with the power of an explosive arrow blasting from a heavenly bow. In an instant, the world projection erupted forth with boundless source origin energy, creating a flow of chaos, imbuing him with enough power to split the skies.

The expression of the empyrean from the Sword Spirit Sect who tried to drum up the morale earlier drastically changed when he saw this expert. He only saw countless source origin powers blasting towards him, blotting out the sky. A pair of fists were like an entire world being hurled at him. Numerous sword sages formed from his sword intent, however, when the sword sages came in contact with the fists, all of them were blasted into smithereens. That world-destroying fist light directly slammed into his head, blasting it apart. Before his death, a final thought flashed in his mind. The Spirit Sword Sect was finished.

"Who is that?" Many people felt great shock in their hearts. That person was actually an extremely good-looking young man. However, a sense of imposing majesticness could be felt radiating from him, as though he was the lord of this world.

In another direction, a giant golden beast appeared. The body of this beast seemed to be constructed from gold and this beast was like the king of all bestial creatures. He wrenched open his maw and his howl filled the sky. A terrifying suction force was exerted on many experts. The people he targeted all couldn't control their bodies at all as they flew involuntarily towards that opened maw.

"No!" Someone screamed in shock. He was about to be devoured by the golden giant beast.

In another direction, many devil practitioners appeared. The devil might from there towered up into the sky. The person in the lead radiated the red light of judgement, executing the experts of the Sword Spirit Sect. There were also some who were shrouded in complete darkness. They directly appeared behind their targets and assassinated them with ease. There were also experts who could summon ancient devils to do their bidding, destroying their enemies.

Not only them, there were many more experts flying up into the air to participate in the battle. They had been hiding among the crowd only to appear at the decisive moment, doing so with explosive might.

They directly appeared in different battlefields, but several of them aimed for the Sword Spirit Sect. Because, Qin Wentian had personally said that the Sword Spirit Sect shall cease to exist today. Hence, right now, the Sword Spirit Sect was the one enduring the strongest attacks. Earlier, they were the ones who shouted the loudest but in the blink of an eye, they actually drew a calamity upon their own heads. The people of the Sword Spirit Sect felt boundless terror and despair, what sort of existence had they angered? Just because of a few humiliating words spoken about Ye Qianyu, their entire sect was going to be annihilated.

Many sect members felt intense hatred for the Spirit Sword Sect Leader at the moment before their death. They hated him for involving their sect into this storm. So what even if the Lifelong Realmlord was the victor later? They would all already be dead, they wouldn't be able to see it.

"Who are these people?" Countless people below were extremely shocked. Where did this army of empyreans came from?

Although empyreans were above the emperor realm, no one would be able to tell that a person was an empyrean just from a single glance. Although they had comprehended source origins, they haven't truly reached the level of a world overlord. If they wanted to hide their cultivation bases, even overlords wouldn't be able to sense it. Hence, no one discovered that an army of empyreans were actually hiding among the crowd.

Concubine Lu froze as her expression turned extremely ugly to behold. Those powers who stood out and declared support for the Lifelong Realmlord instantly felt regret. Qin Wentian's backup was much more terrifying than they had imagined. Although no one knew where these people came from, they clearly had a connection with Qin Wentian.

For those who still sat on the fence, they heaved a sigh of relief, deciding not to participate in this storm. No matter what the future holds, they would choose to remain neutral. The price for participation was too great.

Let alone those on the side of the Realmlord, even the Desolate Heaven Palace, Xuanyuan Palace, Gemini Palace and Jialan Clan were stunned by this. After that, they felt excitement in their hearts. So it turned out that Qin Wentian had long arranged everything. This caused their confidence in Qin Wentian to increase even more. This fellow was simply a miracle.

The Xuanyuan Palace Lord suddenly discovered that these people who were initially inconspicuous in the crowd, suddenly felt somewhat familiar to him. He had met them before, these were the people Qin Wentian brought with him to the ancient battlefield back when they were in the lower world. At that time, he didn't really care about them, hence he didn't notice them before this. It was only now that he discovered that there were actually many empyreans among them.

But, isn't Azure Mystic a place where there are no empyreans?

Could it be the world-ending battlefield?

Upon thinking up to here, the Xuanyuan Palace Lord's heart trembled. What good fortune did Qin Wentian acquired exactly?

Yi stood in the air, silently watching everything. His eyes were fixed on a figure. This person wielded a divine bow and was rapidly shooting out arrows. This man was none other than Emperor Yu, he was now an empyrean and was Yi's follower back then when Yi was still in Azure Mystic.

Beside Yu, Yi could sense many familiar auras. Evidently, these people were all from the Battle Saint Tribe. Qin Wentian truly had not let the Battle Saint Tribe down. The accomplishments of these people were even higher than those from the Battle Saint Tribe who followed him, the second-generation Saint Lord.

The Gemini Palace Lords also saw this. Smiles could be seen in their gazes, their fellow tribe members were actually also already empyreans. At this moment, they were filled with gratitude for Qin Wentian.

Before this, everyone thought that other than the battle between Qin Wentian and the Lifelong Realmlord, the subordinates of the Realmlord would surely crush Qin Wentian's side in battle. Who would have thought that the situation changed so quickly. Qin Wentian actually hid an army of empyreans and they were all now erupting forth with their power.

Today, for this once per hundred years grand banquet, could it be that the Lifelong Realm's skies would really be changed?!

Chapter 1749: Fighting Against Lifelong

For the Lifelong Grand Banquet, everyone came here to attend it. They did see many major characters but they didn't see everyone bowing to pay respect to the Lifelong Realmlord, they didn't see the competition between the various factions between the immortal emperors, and the competition between the nine world palaces.

They came here, and what was before them was only a scene of chaos. Qin Wentian instigated four world palaces to rebel, and he also had hidden an army of empyreans. He himself also comprehended a heavenheart mandate, but no one knew for sure if he had successfully completed his breakthrough to the world overlords realm. In any case, the strength Qin Wentian erupted forth with now was much stronger compared to the time when he fought with the previous Lifire Palace Lord. He crushed everything before him with ease, wanting to replace the Lifelong Realmlord.

Qin Wentian was originally already the Lifire Palace Lord of this generation. If he could defeat and kill the Lifelong Realmlord, there was no need to doubt that he would become the new Realmlord and ascend the throne, becoming a lofty and supreme existence.

In addition, he could even change the name of the Lifelong Realm. If he ascends to the throne, the entire era would change. He could rename this realm to anything he wanted.

The battle in the air continued. The might the empyrean army exuded was seemingly unblockable but the Lifelong Realmlord also had many empyreans reporting to him. Although they were surprised by the appearance of this empyrean army earlier, they would still have the ability to fight it after they recovered. Although it wasn't easy, the Lifelong Realm faction had already started to slowly block the advance of the Qin Wentian's faction's crazy attack.

The attack of the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord was extremely tyrannical. He was fighting against the Skyair Palace Lord who was the personal disciple of the Lifelong Realmlord and every attack he used was ruthless to the extreme, designed to kill. Fairy Biyue didn't know how to describe the emotions in her heart when she saw this. Even if Huang Zhan won and she obtained freedom, so what of it? Could everything return back to the past? It was impossible, she already bore a son for the Lifelong Realmlord. In that case, wouldn't Huang Zhan and her son become enemies?

Love, hatred, regret and passion. These were the most difficult things on earth to sever. Huang Zhan had laid low for so many years, only erupting forth today. This also required great courage.

In the air, ancient trees appeared around the Lifelong Realmlord, blotting out the sky. He was like a divinity of an ancient tree. Right now, calmness could no longer be seen in his eyes. There was only an unmasked cold killing intent. He stared at Qin Wentian, "These people should have been brought out of the ancient battlefield by you, right? No wonder you've comprehended a heavenheart mandate. What did you obtain in the ancient battlefield?"

"Good fortune can be found everywhere in the ancient battlefield. I've already told you before that there is an important matter I have to settle and it wasn't convenient for me to return, yet you had to do such despicable acts to force me. Back then in the past, the Lifire Palace Lord died because he imprisoned Ye Qianyu to threaten me. Why must you follow in his past footsteps?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke.

"Hahaha, how could this seat be ignorant of that? If it wasn't for the fact that you are Yi's disciple, how could I have given you the position? Back then, I already knew of your grudge with him. After you killed the Lifire Palace Lord, I initially wanted to kill you or expel you out of the Lifelong Realm but sadly, this seat believed that Beiming Youhuang was your senior sister and out of the kindness of my heart, this seat wanted to convert both of you into my own people. Who would have thought that you two are an adulterous couple and now, you even dared to say such words to me. If I knew this would happen then, how would I have shown mercy?" The Lifelong Realmlord coldly spoke.

"Lifelong Realmlord, you are always at a lofty position and have already grown used to your invincibility. You have never cared for the feelings of others. Let me repeat this one last time, between me and Beiming Youhuang, there's only innocence. Now that I'm standing before you, I, Qin Wentian am upright and can face the heavens, why must I lie about this fact to you? But even so, did you really think that making her as your concubine is showing her kindness? Who the hell do you think you are?" Qin Wentian mockingly spoke, "Someone despicable would naturally never admit that they are despicable. Today, you can already see that there are so many subordinates rebelling and deserting you. Could it be that I truly have such great rallying strength? All of them feel that I would win against you hence they chose to support me? The only reason is because you are a despicable person and would never truly be able to win the hearts of your subordinates, yet you still feel so self-satisfied in your own world."

"Shut up!" The Lifelong Realmlord coldly snorted. "Since you instigated the rebellion, you should already know the consequences of failure. Not only will you die, but Beiming Youhuang and Ye Qianyu will also pay a price for their actions. Also, this seat heard that you even brought two beautiful wives back with you and they are currently staying in the Lifire Palace? After your death, this seat shall admire them properly and help you take good care of them."

The Lifelong Realmlord clearly was already enraged and didn't bother to control his words. Such despicable words spoken by him had clearly revealed his true nature.

"What an ugly mouth." Qin Wentian spoke, his body radiated boundless light. Right now, it was useless to say anything more. Let the victor and the loser be determined with their battle.

"This seat will do what I've said." The Lifelong Realmlord coldly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, the ancient trees around him expanded to reach the sky. The shadows they casted could be seen all around, their vines forming a complex lock, trapping Qin Wentian in his surroundings, causing him to have no way to escape.

"KILL!" The Lifelong Realmlord coldly exclaimed. Those gigantic vines surged forth, their sharp-pointed ends were even sharper than swords. All of them rushed frenziedly at Qin Wentian, moving with incredible speed. World heart, heart's domain. In this domain, the heavenheart mandate of the Lifelong Realmlord completely surrounded Qin Wentian. There was no escape.

Around Qin Wentian, even beneath his feet, the ancient vines manifested, wanting to bind his body.

At this moment, boundless radiance suddenly radiated from Qin Wentian. In such a fight, what was the most important was how the experts controlled their heavenheart mandates, and how strong their heavenheart mandates were exactly. Boundless light covered Qin Wentian, illuminating the ground, disintegrating everything into nothingless from the glare.

The heavenheart mandate Qin Wentian comprehended was somewhat similar to the Sun Blaze Heavenheart Mandate he encountered in the World of Ten Thousand Laws. However, his wasn't formed from a fusion of fire and light source origins, it was formed from the source origins of light and sword, and had an addition of his own insights through his cultivation. He named his heavenheart mandate as 'Radiance Conflagration.'

This heavenheart mandate contains an extremely terrifying penetrating might. Although he didn't add the spatial source origins into the fusion, but given his insights into space, when he activated the Radiance Conflagration Heavenheart Mandate, everything around him would be disintegrated into the void. Even those sturdy ancient vines around him were of no exception. After that, the power of his Radiance Conflagration surge forward, disintegrating the vines, blasting towards the Lifelong Realmlord.

This was the first time he truly used a heavenheart mandate to fight against a world overlord. He also wanted to see what the disparity in strength between his heavenheart mandate and the Lifelong Realmlord's heavenheart mandate was.

The locked space was slowly opened up by the Radiance Conflagration Heavenheart Mandate. However, an instant after they were destroyed, the ancient vines were reborn again, this cycle of destruction and creation continued anew for several cycles.

This heavenheart mandate was known as the Lifelong Heavenheart Mandate. The Lifelong Realmlord depended on this to manifest his world heart. He hoped that he would have a long life and would be able to be reborn even after his death. Not only does this heavenheart mandate have fearsome attacking prowess, it also had a shocking recovery rate. It was very similar to the source origins of wood, granting the Lifelong Realmlord huge amounts of vitality.

However, the Lifelong Realmlord didn't feel proud of himself. At the first exchange of blows, he could already tell that Qin Wentian's heavenheart mandate was very powerful, extremely powerful. It could actually directly destroy the power of his heavenheart mandate. Also, he sensed that Qin Wentian seemed as though he has yet to manifest his world heart. He could only use his heavenheart mandate in his attacks.

"You have yet to break through completely to the World Overlord Realm?" The Lifelong Realmlord stared at Qin Wentian.

"If I've broken through, I could already finish you off through that first exchange of blows. It's just that I have no wish to be ordinary like you, only comprehending an ordinary heavenheart mandate and using that to manifest your world heart to enter the world overlord realm." Qin Wentian spoke with pride, mocking the Lifelong Realmlord. His words caused the expression of the Lifelong Realmlord to turn extremely unsightly. "Arrogant! You wish to comprehend a transcendent heavenheart mandate and use that to manifest your world heart? How egotistical is that? I'm afraid you won't have any chance left."

"Although I know that I would be fighting against you, I still didn't choose to break through to the world overlord realm completely. Could it be that you still don't know what this means? I've never treated your Lifelong Realm as my opponent. You are unworthy, you will just be an ordinary world overlord which I killed before I finished my break through to the world overlord realm." Qin Wentian's mocking was as intense as ever. It was true that he has yet to manifest a world heart but he could do so if he wanted to do. It was just that he didn't want an ordinary one.

There were many kinds of heavenheart mandates but there would only be a single world heart. Although it was still possible to transform it in the future, what he wanted to do first was to stabilize his foundations before he continued to develop his world heart. Back then when the Skybreak Heavenly Deity learned that Qin Wentian wanted to comprehend a heavenheart mandate first, he also misunderstood Qin Wentian. But now, that sense of disappointment had already disappeared. Qin Wentian's ambitions were simply too great. Although he chose to comprehend a heavenheart mandate first, that was merely him wanting to try things out and get a feel of using a heavenheart mandate. He didn't plan to manifest his world heart from this particular heavenheart mandate to enter the World Overlord Realm completely.

After tempering himself in the various secret realms. He had his own ideas on how to proceed further on his path of cultivation. The Skybreak Heavenly Deity also knew that when Qin Wentian broke through to the World Overlord Realm, he needn't interfere in anything. He just allowed Qin Wentian to comprehend whatever he wanted and would only provide guidance occasionally.

"This world would never lack geniuses because the majority of them have already died due to arrogance." The Lifelong Realmlord spoke again. His figure flashed, the ancient trees behind him all launched attacks towards Qin Wentian. The radiance emitting from Qin Wentian was as brilliant as ever, the power of his Radiance Conflagration Heavenheart Mandate fought back frenziedly against the Lifelong Realmlord's heart domain, continuously destroying the vines despite them being regenerated again and again. The Lifelong Realmlord simply poured his strength into defending, channeling his powers to rejuvenate the vines, weaving an extremely strong defense.

"Go to hell." The Lifelong Realmlord blasted his palm towards Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian made a clutching motion and the power of his heavenheart mandate burned through everything. However, those disintegrated vines didn't vanish completely. With a wave of his hand, the Lifelong Realmlord caused dark green sap to flow out of the vines before they were disintegrated, as they covered Qin Wentian's body.

"Rot." The Lifelong Realmlord coldly spoke. Every mote of that green sap contained the power of corrosion. Qin Wentian's body was being eaten away, corroded slowly by that green sap. His wounds grew larger, while the radiance from his heavenheart mandate grew brighter, trying to purify the power of the sap.

The Lifelong Realmlord coldly laughed as he stretched out his hand. A boundless amount of sticky dark green sap continued to flow towards Qin Wentian, burying him within.

What he comprehended was the Lifelong World Heart because he realized that he could regenerate all his powers, rendering them almost indestructible through the constant regeneration. For example, for his second heavenheart mandate, Rot, the dark green sap would be able to regenerate itself almost infinitely until Qin Wentian's body was transformed into a pool of blood. Not even his bones would be left behind!

Chapter 1750: Double Heavenheart Mandates

Since the Lifelong Realmlord could govern an entire realm, he naturally had something he can depend on. By merging his Rot Heavenheart Mandate with his Lifelong World Heart, it was able to cause the corrosion energy to be unending, capable of constant regeneration until his opponent corroded completely.

Back then, he depended on his Lifelong Heavenheart Mandate to manifest his world heart. He did this precisely because he wanted the regenerative supporting capabilities.

Boundless corrosion energy continued to invade Qin Wentian's body, destroying it slowly by rotting it away. The lips of the Lifelong Realmlord curled up into a malevolent smile. A genius? Taking just a hundred years to climb from the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm to the gate before the world overlord realm? So what of it? No matter how strong his talent is, it's nothing at all compared to death. As long as he died, everything would return to the void.

The Lifelong Realmlord's expression was extremely cold as he stared at the body parts of Qin Wentian that were vanishing bit by bit.

Challenging him without first becoming a full-fledged world overlord. That was simply courting death.

In the air, the torrents of energy dissipated, the countless vines were retracted, vanishing in an instant. World Overlords had world hearts and had comprehended heavenheart mandates. Their control over their power was so great that they could activate or summon it with just a single thought.

"The battle has ended?" Countless people inclined their heads staring up in the air. Qin Wentian's body had completely vanished yet the Lifelong Realmlord still stood there. At this moment, the subordinates of the Lifelong Realmlord all felt wild joy in their hearts while experts on Qin Wentian's side all turned pale. If the Lifelong Realmlord had really killed Qin Wentian, there was only one ending for them.

"Master's might truly knows no bounds." The Skyair Palace Lord roared, throwing his head back and facing the sky. He felt extremely depressed at how he was suppressed by Huang Zhan while they were fighting. But now, he was looking at Huang Zhan like he was looking at a dead man. Since Qin Wentian had already been exterminated by his master, there would only be one conclusion to today's events.

A satisfied smile appeared on the Lifelong Realmlord's face but at this moment, it was as though he suddenly sensed something. He frowned and in an instant, boundless energy radiated from him as the ancient vines appeared once more, blotting out the sky, forming a defensive shield before him.

This sudden change caused many people to feel puzzled. In the next instant, they only saw a beam of extremely intense light shooting out. Qin Wentian's body seemed to have transformed completely into radiance as he unleashed the fist of radiance technique, brimming with the immense power of his heavenheart mandate. He instantly arrived before the Lifelong Realmlord as he launched his attacks.

Upon seeing Qin Wentian's figure appearing again, the arrogant smile on the Skyair Palace Lord's face suddenly froze. Huang Zhan roared, "RECEIVE YOUR DEATH!"

The battle below that had ceased, suddenly continued again with an even more ferocious momentum. In the air, when Qin Wentian's fist light slammed into the ancient vine shield, his fearsome Radiance Conflagration was used in conjunction with this innate technique, erupting forth, completely decimating the defensive energy of the shield. After that, fiery beams of radiance continued to shoot towards the Lifelong Realmlord. Each beam of radiance was scorchingly hot to the extreme, they directly penetrated the Lifelong Realmlord's body. With a thunderous boom, the Lifelong Realmlord's body exploded into pieces, transformed into nothingness.

However, Qin Wentian could sense a shadow flashing past him. In the instant when the Lifelong Realmlord's body exploded, another figure actually appeared behind it. This figure was also the body of the Lifelong Realmlord.

"He has an overlord-rank divine weapon on him which contains a unique power. In times of danger, the divine weapon can instantly create a substitute body to replace him in death. It would be very tough for your attacks to kill him." From below, Yi issued a voice transmission to Qin Wentian. Before this, he didn't act because he wanted to see Qin Wentian's strength.

The battle between Qin Wentian and the Lifelong Realmlord was something the two of them fought alone, they didn't bring Yi into the considerations because each of them naturally had their own confidence. And at this moment, Yi naturally also wouldn't interfere. He wanted Qin Wentian to feel all the sensations of this high-level combat for himself. It was just that he wanted to remind him since now Qin Wentian has already came into contact with the Lifelong Realmlord's dangerous core abilities.

That overlord-ranked divine weapon was none other than the one in the secret realm which he and the Lifelong Realmlord had obtain together. In the end, the Lifelong Realmlord took it for himself through a series of schemes. It was an extremely powerful self-protection weapon and had miraculous effects if used in battle.

The Lifelong Realmlord's expression grew extremely ugly, he was actually narrowly killed by Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian had only just stepped into this realm and hadn't completed his transformation yet. However, the heavenheart mandate he comprehended was actually so tyrannical, capable of threatening a true world overlord who has already manifested a world heart like him.

Also, how did Qin Wentian vanish completely before him earlier and suddenly appear again?

Something that could even hide itself from his world heart. What sort of ability was this?

There seemed to be only a single possibility. It was the same for Qin Wentian, he hasn't merely comprehended a single heavenheart mandate.

This young man before him actually used such a short amount of time to comprehend two heavenheart mandates? Other than his Radiance Conflagration, he actually managed to gain insight into another one? This wasn't simply something the word 'miracle' could explain. It was impossible even if one had supreme comprehension abilities. Unless, someone was guiding him.

"What is your second heavenheart mandate?" The Lifelong Realmlord stared at Qin Wentian and asked.

Qin Wentian coldly swept his gaze at his opponent. It was true that he hasn't merely comprehended a single heavenheart mandate. Earlier, the heavenheart mandate he used was named Phantasm Space, everything the Realmlord saw was just an illusion and when he activated it, the power of his second heavenheart mandate was able conceal his presence completely. This powerful Phantasm Space Heavenheart Mandate could even fool the Lifelong Realmlord, causing him to be unable to locate Qin Wentian's real body. This was the first time Qin Wentian was trying this out in an actual battle and the results filled him with confidence. It was true that this heavenheart mandate was stronger compared to some of the ordinary heavenheart mandates or he would have been instantly discovered.

Also, his attacks were even able to break through the Lifelong Realmlord's defenses.

"I initially thought that I've underestimated you, this was why I acted so cautiously. Who would have thought that you, the Lifelong Realmlord, would actually be so weak? I have grossly overestimated your capabilities." Qin Wentian didn't reply to the question as he coldly continued, "Just an attack of that degree already caused you to need to use a divine weapon to protect your life. It's truly time for you to give up your position. I'll return your words to you. There's no need for you to worry after your death, I'll take good care of the Lifelong Realm. I'll also make all arrangements and take very good care of your family."

The Lifelong Realmlord's expression turned extremely ugly, no longer as calm as before. Qin Wentian's words were a domineering reply to what he said about Qin Wentian's wives before this. He was the Realmlord of an entire realm and naturally would have immense confidence in himself, causing him to dare to say such words. He basically didn't think about what if he was defeated, what ending would he face then. But now, when the thought of defeat flashed through his mind, he couldn't help but to feel a chill in his heart.

In truth, after the short exchange of blows, he was no longer as confident in himself as before.

The Lifelong Realmlord then took out an ancient mirror which contained a wondrous energy within. This was another overlord-ranked weapon. He activated it and the mirror vanished into the void. Forming incantation gestures with his hands, the ancient mirror reflected each of his movements as he launched out another attack. The reflection naturally mirrored the attack as well, creating a copy of the exact same attack as both attacks were launched towards Qin Wentian.

This was not just a defensive-type overlord-ranked weapon. It was also an offensive-type.

Qin Wentian directly waved his hand, causing a beam of light to manifest. This light emitted from a treasured hoop, which instantly entered the void and flew towards the ancient mirror. A cold smile appeared on his face, he was pondering earlier on how to fight against the Lifelong Realmlord, should he use powerful overlord-ranked divine weapons to end the fight or not? But since the Lifelong Realmlord made the first move, there was no need for him to think any further. By using such an ancient mirror, wasn't the Lifelong Realmlord presenting a gift for him?

This treasured hoop had already seized overlord-ranked treasures before in the ancient battlefield. And now, there was naturally no exception. When the light flashed past, the ancient mirror actually vanished, its connection with the Lifelong Realmlord severed. The treasured hoop then shone with an even brighter light.

"This…" The Lifelong Realmlord turned pale. His overlord-ranked weapon was actually seized away?

What grade of treasure was that treasured hoop exactly? It was actually able to enter the void and seize the treasures of others away.

"You can die now." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, his body flashed, moving with lightning speed as he vanished from sight, launching attacks at the Realmlord. The heavenheart mandates of the Lifelong Realmlord unleashed their full power, instantly coating the air with boundless corrosion energy, wanting to rot Qin Wentian away.

This time around, the Lifelong Realmlord would no longer be careless, he attacked with the entirety of his strength, not holding anything back. Qin Wentian's body disappeared and appeared again, mixing reality and illusion, continuously attacking him. The Lifelong Realmlord wasn't able to differentiate which was real and which was false.

His expression grew even more unsightly as he let out a roar of rage. An immense amount of dark green light manifested around him in floods, wanting to completely corrode the entire space around him, regardless of where Qin Wentian was hiding.

When this scene appeared, Qin Wentian seemed to be the same as him, as though he had comprehended the Lifelong Heavenheart Mandate. He underwent a cycle of destruction and regeneration, again and again, like an undying being. Naturally, those that were destroyed were all Qin Wentian's illusory bodies he created. After many times, the Lifelong Realmlord's expression turned uglier and uglier but a cold intent soon surfaced in his heart. He discovered a rule, there was a limit to Qin Wentian's heavenheart mandate's power.

When Qin Wentian's body was corroded again, the Lifelong Realmlord didn't retreat to intentionally distance himself from Qin Wentian. He took the initiative to attack instead. With a flash of light, he directly stepped across space, appearing behind Qin Wentian whose body was corroding. He then ruthlessly smashed out with a palm attack that contained the immense power of world overlords. With that single strike, the space before him broke apart. No matter who was hiding in that patch of the void, they would be heavily injured or even die due to that attack.

This was the rule the Lifelong Realmlord had discovered. Everytime Qin Wentian's true body appeared, it would appear in the location where the illusory body was destroyed. Even if Qin Wentian had the power of Phantasm

Space, there was still a limit to it. It seemed that he wasn't able to be too far away from the illusory bodies he created.

The Lifelong Realmlord's attack didn't manage to force Qin Wentian's true body out from that patch of void. The reason was because Qin Wentian was already beside him.

A piercing beam of light directly shot out. That rotting illusory body vanished, replaced by Qin Wentian's real body. The beam of light that slashed down towards the Lifelong Realmlord encountered no resistance. This beam of light contained the entirety of Qin Wentian's might and as it landed, numerous bloody wounds instantly appeared on the Lifelong Realmlord!

Chapter 1751: New Era

The Lifelong Realmlord roared loudly, the Lifelong World Heart repaired his damaged body but it was impossible for Qin Wentian to give him any more chances. He directly punched out, onto the Lifelong Realmlord's body. This punch contained the full power of his heavenheart mandate. In an instant, boundless radiance illuminated everything, piercing the eyes of people. Countless people could only shield their eyes from the radiance and the Lifelong Realmlord and Qin Wentian were at the heart of it.

What was different now was that Qin Wentian was bathing in that sacred light while the body of the Lifelong Realmlord was slowly turning into nothingness, disintegrating by the glare.

"How did you do that?" The Lifelong Realmlord's expression contorted as boundless terror appeared in his heart. He stared at Qin Wentian in an extremely confused manner. Earlier, he definitely wasn't wrong. He had learned the limiting rule of Qin Wentian's heavenheart mandate and he also unleashed a sure-kill strike. However, why was Qin Wentian not in that patch of the void? That illusory body that was rotting away actually became his real body instead?

"You have the Lifelong World Heart but I have an undying body. World Hearts can be broken, how can you counter the undying aspect of my body? In the future, the Lifelong Realm will be governed by me. You can go in peace." The boundless radiance from the Radiance Conflagration erupted forth once again with full power, at point-blank range, illuminating the space around them.

"I'M UNWILLING!" The Lifelong Realmlord roared. Supreme authority and countless beauties in his harem. Even if in the future he was stuck at forever at this realm, as long as he was more cautious and didn't go and offend those powerful characters, he would forever be the king of the Lifelong Realm, enjoying boundless glory. The entire world was his, all the women in his territories were his.

However, would all of these become clouds and mist? He actually fell to a subordinate. A subordinate who was merely a mid-stage immortal emperor a hundred years ago. The young man whom he appointed to take over the Lifire Palace was the one who killed him. In addition, his territories and harem would be Qin Wentian's. When he thought of his threats towards Qin Wentian's earlier, fear blossomed in his heart. After he died, how would Qin Wentian treat his women and descendants?

When he thought of those beauties landing in Qin Wentian's hands, his heart felt even more pain. When he thought of Fairy Biyue reuniting with Huang Zhan, the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord, his heart felt like it was being diced into pieces.

He had boundless regret and reluctance in his heart. However, even so, there was no way he could escape death. No matter how powerful or how much authority you have in life, before death, everything would return to the void.

The light was extremely blinding. The battle in the air finally ceased. Countless people inclined their heads and stared at the vanished silhouette of the Lifelong Realmlord as waves of shock rose in their hearts. Many people started to tremble involuntarily due to fear. The Skyair Palace Lord was a very good example of this. Not only him, those from the Lifelong Sainthall, as well as the people who criticized and insulted Ye Qianyu earlier. Right now, all of them seemed to be able to predict what their endings today would be.

Never in their wildest dreams would they have expected that the young man who was reprimanded by the Lifelong Realmlord would be the cause for a large-scale rebellion. They also never imagined that he would directly challenge the Lifelong Realmlord and would even be the victor, directly killing the Lifelong Realmlord. What consequences would there be for them? They didn't even dare to think about it.

And for those who came here to attend the magnificent grand banquet of the Lifelong Realm today, all were completely stunned. That lofty divinity-like character whom they feared and respected, actually died today. He was killed by the legendary character Qin Wentian who was also the Lifire Palace Lord. This scene was like how he killed the previous Lifire Palace Lord back then, replacing his position. How domineering was this?

At this moment, they suddenly realized that a legend was born before their eyes.

Many people suddenly felt an intense anticipation in their hearts. Their anticipation for Qin Wentian, truly a legendary character that enjoyed a meteoric rise, crushing all obstacles in his way. How could they not be filled with anticipation for his future?

Although the Realmlord has died, the words spoken by the four palace lords who rebelled earlier has already caused everyone present to feel doubts about the Lifelong Realmlord's personality. Also, what did whoever would replace the Realmlord have anything to do with them who were ordinary people? They only wanted to see a stronger existence, and a more elite legendary character.

"BOOM!" The sound of an explosion rang out, startling everyone. When the crowd turned their gazes over, they discovered that the statue of the Lifelong Realmlord which had stood for the passage of countless years on the top of the stairway, was destroyed by someone. What was laughable was that the person who destroyed it was actually none other than the Scarlet Origin Palace Lord who has always been on the Lifelong Realmlord's side. After he destroyed the statue, he bowed to Qin Wentian in the air, "Earlier, this subordinate had no choice but to obey the Lifelong Realmlord's command, and had to fight on his side. Now that the Lifelong Realmlord is dead, Palace Lord Qin naturally would replace him as the Realmlord. This subordinate pays my respects to the new Realmlord."

Everyone started for a few moments before they recovered. All of them silently cursed at how shameless the Scarlet Origin Palace Lord was. The reaction of this fellow was actually so fast? His skin was also so thick that it was unbelievable.

This was especially so for the Dragonsaddle Palace Lord and Gengmetal Palace Lord. They had contempt in their eyes as they stared at the Scarlet Origin Palace Lord but soon after that, they also bowed, "Your subordinates are guilty. We pay our respects to the new Realmlord. From now onwards, we would not dare to disobey any of Realmlord Qin's commands."

The experts of the Xuanyuan Palace, Gemini Palace and Jialan Clan were all speechless at how shameless these people were. To protect their lives, they were actually capable of saying such words.

The crowd in the surroundings also stared at these people speechlessly. They were truly shameless enough, moving so quickly to proclaim that they submit to the new Realmlord.

These palace lords naturally could feel the looks of contempt in the eyes of others. But so what of it? The Lifelong Realmlord was already killed by Qin Wentian and the situation couldn't be any clearer. Qin Wentian was sure to replace the Lifelong Realmlord as the new Realmlord. Could it be that they wish to die by continuing to resist? Compared to their lives, what was the loss of face? What was the pride of being a palace lord? Nothing was more important than their lives.

For this point, although everyone still felt contempt for them, they also understood in their hearts. They inclined their heads and stared at the imposing figure in the air. At this moment, the experts of the Xuanyuan Palace, Jialan Clan and many other major powers all bowed and called out, "We pay our respects to Realmlord."

"We pay our respects to Realmlord." Countless people called out. Even for those major powers who fought against Qin Wentian's faction earlier all also called out loudly. The general trend of the situation was set. If they don't surrender now, it would mean that they don't want their lives.

The Skyair Palace Lord's face turned as pale as paper. He didn't greet Qin Wentian because he understood that Qin Wentian might spare everyone but it was impossible for Qin Wentian to spare him.

At the instant Qin Wentian killed the Lifelong Realmlord, the fate of the Skyair Palace Lord was already decided - death.

It was just that even now, he still found it hard to accept this. Today, they had originally prepared to ruthlessly humiliate Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang. His master would then kill Qin Wentian after that. However, why would the winds and clouds suddenly change as this scene which was completely unexpected, actually occurred. Even now when he stared at Qin Wentian, he still found it hard to accept the fact that the Lifelong Realmlord has already been killed and his fate now was in the hands of Qin Wentian.

Concubine Lu's face also turned pale. The moment the Lifelong Realmlord died, she already understood that it was all over. Everything was over.

For people on Qin Wentian's side, their emotions were completely opposite. The Xuanyuan Palace Lord sighed at how fortunate he was to have made the right choice. Initially, he struggled for a long time. But luckily, he gambled correctly.

As for the Jialan Clan, they understood that the glory belonging to their clan has finally arrived. They were the ones who were determined to support Qin Wentian the most. Although they believed in Qin Wentian, they did so because they felt that Qin Wentian would have some back up or external aid and they also didn't expect Qin

Wentian to be able to kill the Realmlord on his own. At this moment, they felt that what just happened was somewhat unbelievable, like they were in a dream. Jialan Jiangshan shivered, he felt that he was too audacious in this gamble. After all, the opponent Qin Wentian had to face was none other than the Lifelong Realmlord but back then, he still made the decision to bet it all on Qin Wentian.

Luckily, Qin Wentian was the victor.

Jialan Qiuyue stared at the magnificent figure in the air as she fell into a daze. The radiance of some people was something no one would be able to block. When they emit their light, they would be the focus of everyone in the world, with the entire world willing to submit to them. Qin Wentian was undoubtedly such an existence.

"The young are to be feared indeed." Yi sighed with admiration in his heart. A junior from Azure Mystic, who was younger than him by countless years, actually could kill the Lifelong Realmlord today.

The two palace lords of the Gemini Palace clenched their fists tightly as excitement could be seen in their eyes. The Saint Lord of this generation was even more tyrannical compared to the second-generation Saint Lord Yi. Would their Battle Saint Tribe be able to climb back up to their former heights? They could see hope now.

Ye Qianyu, as usual, exuded charm freely. Her beautiful eyes stared at Qin Wentian as she felt pride in her heart. This was her man. When he learned of her fate, he only spoke three words to her - 'Wait for me.'

All the humiliation she suffered earlier was completely wiped away at this moment. From now onwards, who in the world would dare to criticize or insult her? Those who had done so earlier all felt boundless fear rising up in their hearts now.

Beiming Youhuang lowered her head as gentleness flashed in her eyes.

This battle was for Ye Qianyu, but from a certain perspective, it was also for her.

The magnificence of the white-robed young man knew no bounds. His figure slowly descended through the air as numerous experts flew towards him. Jun Mengchen and the other empyreans all stood behind his back. For a period of time, it was like this entire group was bathing in rays of radiance and glory. Their strength completely surpassed the forces of the previous Lifelong Realmlord. Now, a stronger Realmlord has been born. This realm would only grow even stronger than before.

"How do you want to die?" Qin Wentian turned his gaze to the Skyair Palace Lord. This man was as despicable as the Lifelong Realmlord. Earlier, his words were filled with venom, disparaging Ye Qianyu and even insulted the relationship between him and Beiming Youhuang. Now that the Lifelong Realmlord has died, the first person Qin Wentian wanted to kill, was naturally the Skyair Palace Lord.

"Qin Wentian, so what even if you've won? You won't be able to cleanse the black mark on your reputation. Your women…" An incredibly malicious look could be seen on the Skyair Palace Lord's face. Even before his death, he wanted to use vile words to curse at Qin Wentian. But at this moment, the light fell on him. The power of the heavenheart mandate directly pierced through his throat, causing him to instantly be unable to speak.

"You don't even know regret before death. I initially wanted to give you a quick one. But since you like to insult and humiliate people so much, why don't you stay alive then?" The light emitting from Qin Wentian brightened, seeping into his opponent's body. The Skyair Palace Lord screamed as all his internal organs and immortal-foundation was damaged.

With a wave of his hand, the Skyair Palace Lord was flung through the air, just like an insect. To the lofty and proud Skyair Palace Lord, living in such conditions was even more miserable than death. As long as he doesn't die, he would have to suffer all kinds of humiliations!

Chapter 1752: Title

The Skyair Palace Lord was crippled, directly swept aside by Qin Wentian. Everyone could already predict what his fate would be.

A once extremely arrogant palace lord of the nine world palaces. Now that he was crippled, what sort of humiliation would he have to endure? Once, he stood high up and was able to peer down imperiously at everything. How would those he had offended before take their revenge on him? Just like what Qin Wentian had said, sometimes, living was even more miserable compared to death. Now, it all depended on whether the Skyair Palace Lord was brave enough to commit suicide or not.

Qin Wentian then turned his gaze towards the Dragonsaddle Palace Lord as coldness flickered in his eyes. Begging for mercy by surrendering?

This Dragonsaddle Palace Lord was most probably the most shameless individual after the Skyair Palace Lord. Before this, he clearly agreed with the Lifelong Realmlord and had also insulted Ye Qianyu, even asking the Lifelong Realmlord for permission to fight on his behalf to subdue Qin Wentian. But now, the one who surrendered the fastest was none other than him. From this, one could already tell his character.

"It's not wrong to serve different masters but do you think you can still live after insulting my woman?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. In an instant, the expression of the Dragonsaddle Palace Lord turned ashen.

"I'll give you two a quick death." Qin Wentian spoke. The Radiance Conflagration Heavenheart Mandate radiated waves of power that enveloped the Dragonsaddle Palace Lord and Scarlet Origin Palace Lord. These two were truly despicable, and they were now actually begging for mercy? If he was defeated, the two of them definitely wouldn't show him any mercy.

The power of his heavenheart mandate directly disintegrated the two palace lords, causing countless people to tremble. In a short instant, three palace lords were already punished.

"Gengmetal Palace Lord, I'll allow you to bring your family along with you to leave the Gengmetal Palace. Remember to settle everything cleanly." Qin Wentian calmly spoke, sparing the Gengmetal Palace Lord's life. Earlier, two palace lords just died. The Gengmetal Palace Lord could already be considered extremely lucky. Fortunately, he kept a low-profile earlier and didn't say anything he shouldn't say, simply obeying the orders of the Lifelong Realmlord. This was what probably saved his life. He bowed, "Many thanks, Realmlord Qin."

After speaking, he turned and left. Right now, those four world palaces that followed the Lifelong Realmlord were all already dealt with. In addition to the fact that Qin Wentian was originally the Lifire Palace Lord as well as the fact that the Kanwater Palace Lord had died, out of the nine world palaces, there would be six world palace lord positions vacant. Right now, the gazes of many people changed when they stared at the Jialan Clan. Before this, all of them felt the Jialan Clan were fools. But only now did they realize the wisdom of the Jialan Clan's choice. The Jialan Clan had always wanted to become one of the nine world palace lords and now, it seems that this goal was extremely close to their reach.

"Desolate Heaven Palace Lord, Xuanyuan Palace Lord, hear my orders. You guys should have remembered clearly the faces of those who insulted Ye Qianyu earlier, right? Go deal with all of them." Qin Wentian coldly spoke, directly issuing a command. Today, he killed the Lifelong Realmlord and he would naturally be the one to replace the Realmlord's position. Living in a world like the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, it was impossible for one to not want power. Without power, his friends and family would all be bullied. Before this, the Lifelong Realmlord's treatment of Ye Qianyu was a very good example.

Hence, he naturally wanted to do a thorough cleansing today so as to make the Lifelong Realm truly become something that belonged to him. Only then, would he be able to set his heart at ease as he pursued even higher cultivation realms.

Only using iron-blooded methods could he cause everyone to fear him. If he showed mercy to those who insulted his woman, who would place him, the new Realmlord, in their eyes at all?

"Roger." The Desolate Heaven and Xuanyuan Palace Lords clasped their hands. After that, they brought along some of the powers in their territories and killed everyone who had insulted Ye Qianyu before. The expressions of many changed as they tried to escape. However, how would they be able to flee? There was no problem for them to be loyal to the Lifelong Realmlord. For example, Qin Wentian has spared the Gengmetal Palace Lord. Qin Wentian also didn't bother with a majority of the major powers under the Lifelong Sainthall's control. However, those who insulted Ye Qianyu, had made the biggest mistake of their lives. They shouldn't have used such a method to fawn on the Lifelong Realmlord.

Countless people felt their hearts shaking as a massacre occurred before the eyes of everyone. Many were killed instantly. After the cleansing was done, the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord returned to Qin Wentian's side and bowed, "Your subordinate has a request, I hope that Realmlord Qin would be able to agree."

"Speak." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Concubine Lu has insulted the woman I love. I want her to die." Huang Zhan spoke.

"Sure. Fairy Biyue will be handed over to you as well." Qin Wentian spoke. Huang Zhan was willing to follow him precisely because of this. He wouldn't interfere too much and would allow Huang Zhan himself to handle everything.

"Concubine Lu, prepare to die." Huang Zhan directly stepped out, moving towards Concubine Lu who had a pale look on her face. Before this, how imposing was she? She was the most beloved concubine of the Lifelong Realmlord and had great power in the harem. But now, since the Lifelong Realmlord has fallen, all his women would surely be in extremely dire straits.

Although Concubine Lu was also an empyrean, how would she be a match for the number one expert of the nine world palaces, Huang Zhan? She was directly killed. After she died, Huang Zhan walked towards Fairy Biyue. Staring at Huang Zhan, tears could be seen in the eyes of Fairy Biyue as she felt extremely complicated in her heart. This man before her was the person she loved most in the world. However, things were already different now. She only felt pain when she stared at him.

"Biyue, follow me in the future okay...?" Huang Zhan spoke. He was an empyrean and was naturally capable of getting as many women as he wanted. Although Biyue was already the Lifelong Realmlord's woman and had bore a child for the Lifelong Realmlord, he didn't mind it at all. From this, one could see that his feelings towards Biyue were true. If not, why would he have joined Qin Wentian in this rebellion?

Huang Zhan might be able to accept this, but Fairy Biyue couldn't. She kept shaking her head, she had no way to face everything. In the end, she could only turn around and walked towards the direction of the Lifelong Sainthall. Huang Zhan stared at her back as he sighed heavily.

"Realmlord Qin. Now that the Lifelong Realmlord has died, this Lifelong Realm would be under your control in the future. This subordinate suggests for Realmlord to change the name of the Realm when you ascend to the throne." At this moment, the Xuanyuan Palace Lord bowed and suggested. The Lifelong Realmlord had governed the Lifelong Realm for many years. Now that the dynasty has changed, there was naturally a need for a new name. After all, this entire realm now belongs to Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. There was indeed a need for a name change. He fell silent for a moment before he asked, "What suggestion does the Xuanyuan Palace Lord have?"

"I wonder if Realmlord has a title?" The Xuanyuan Palace Lord asked.

"Title?" Qin Wentian did have a title in the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. His title was the Heaven Empyrean but it didn't seem to be suitable here.

The Lifelong Realmlord named this the Lifelong Realm because of his cultivation methods. What about him? Should he call himself the Radiance Conflagration Realmlord? It doesn't seem too nice. Also, he has yet to manifest his World Heart. Right now, his title would only just be a form of address.

Qin Wentian turned his gaze towards Little Rascal, Jun Mengchen and the others. After that, his gaze swept across Qing'er. Qing'er who has already broken through to the empyrean realm, also accompanied him in battle today and she was quietly standing at the side now. Today, he fought the Lifelong Realmlord for Ye Qianyu and Beiming Youhuang. However, what did he give Qing`er and Qingcheng?

In addition, he had just announced not long ago that Ye Qianyu was his woman and Qing`er was at the side listening.

When he thought of this, Qin Wentian suddenly had a decision in his heart. Since he killed the Lifelong Realmlord for Ye Qianyu and Beiming Youhuang. In that case, let the new name of the Lifelong Realm be named after Qing`er and Qingcheng.

He turned his gaze to the crowd and spoke, "From now onwards, the Lifelong Realm is no more. It shall be renamed as the Qingcheng Realm. My title shall be the Qingcheng Realmlord."

Qingcheng, the 'Qing' in Qingcheng, refers to the Qing in 'Evergreen Qing'er.' The 'Cheng' in Qingcheng, is the final character that made up Mo Qingcheng's name. He adopted a character from each of their names. From now on, he shall be known as the Qingcheng Realmlord, representing that he, Qing'er and Qingcheng, would always be together, as one entity, unable to be separated.

"Qingcheng Realmlord." Everyone mumbled. To the vast majority of people, they didn't know the meaning behind these two words. It didn't sound tyrannical at all. But for those who knew, they all understood Qin Wentian's intent. This name that didn't project a tyrannical air, actually exuded tenderness. This was especially so for people from the Azure Mystic Realm. They all knew that Qin Wentian gave up the tyrannical sounding title of the Heaven Empyrean and chose the name Qingcheng instead, for his title in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

This name shall accompany Qin Wentian for a very long time. In addition, nobody knew that this title would soon sweep through vast regions of territories and everyone would learn of it.

When Qing`er heard this title, her eyelashes fluttered as warmth appeared in her eyes.

"We pay our respects to the Qingcheng Realmlord." The Xuanyuan Palace Lord reacted quickly, bowing as he called out.

"We pay our respects to the Qingcheng Realmlord." Everyone bowed, their voices congregating together, forming an echo that reverberated through this entire space. Everyone below bowed. From today onwards, the Qingcheng Realmlord shall replace the Lifelong Realmlord, becoming the overlord of this entire realm.

Qin Wentian stared at everyone below as he continued, "The nine world palace lords are to facilitate the passing down of information, the Lifelong Realm no longer exists, it is replaced by the Qingcheng Realm. And now, it's time for me to appoint new world palace lords and change their names."

The Lifelong Realm changed name, some of the nine world palaces would also have a name change. For example, it was impossible for Qin Wentian to continue using the name 'Skyair' for one of the world palaces.

Qin Wentian's words caused many people to be filled with anticipation. Would new world palace lords appear? In the future, these people would be the ones governing the Qingcheng Realm on behalf of Qin Wentian.

"The Desolate Heaven Palace, Xuanyuan Palace, Gemini Palace, will have no change to their palace lords or names. The Skyair Palace will be renamed Battle Saint Palace, Qi Yu will be the Battle Saint Palace Lord." The first command Qin Wentian gave after becoming the Realmlord was this and this palace will naturally be governed by people of the Battle Saint Tribe.

"The Dragonsaddle Palace will be renamed as the Southern Phoenix Palace, the Scarlet Origin Palace will be renamed Darknorth Palace, the Gengmetal Palace will be renamed as the Matriarch Ji Palace, the Kanwater Palace will be renamed as the Myriad Devil Palace and the Lifire Palace will be renamed to the Jialan Palace." Qin Wentian continued. These names were too familiar to people of Azure Mystic. Even if Qin Wentian didn't say anything, they also understood who would be the respective palace lords of these newly named palaces. For the first few palace lords, there was no suspense as to who would take the positions. And as for the Myriad Devil Palace Lord, this position naturally would be left to the younger sister of Qin Wentian whom he was the closest with, Bai Qing. And lastly, for the Jialan Palace, it would naturally be Jialan Jiangshan.

Also, there were many who followed Qin Wentian to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms who had no positions of command yet there were only so many slots. They could only temporarily wait for other arrangements. The Darknorth Immortal Dynasty, Jadestage Immortal Palace and Hundred Refinements Sect had already allied together as one entity back in Azure Mystic. In that case, he will allow them to govern the Darknorth Palace together. As for the name, it was naturally for the sake of Beiming Youhuang. For this point, he didn't care what other people would say. After all, the only person who came here to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms back then, was Beiming Youhuang. She had also almost sacrificed herself for him to the Lifelong Realmlord.

As for the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Jun Mengchen, Little Rascal, Purgatory, Bai Wuya and the others, Qin Wentian planned for them to stay in the Lifelong Sainthall. Naturally, the name of the hall has also been changed to the Qingcheng Sainthall, and Lifelong City was also renamed as Qingcheng City. The name of this city had a connection with the Evergreen Immortal Emperor's name. Since this was the case, he shall leave the governing of this city to the Evergreen Immortal Emperor.

The Lifelong Realm was renamed as the Qingcheng Realm. Six out of the nine world palaces were renamed as well, namely the Battle Saint Palace, Darknorth Palace, Southern Phoenix Palace, Matriarch Ji Palace, Myriad Devil Palace and Jialan Palace. From now on, the Lifelong Realm no longer existed, only the Qingcheng Realm stood tall in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms!

Also, there was a newly titled Realmlord in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. His name is none other than Qin Wentian, the Qingcheng Realmlord!

Chapter 1753: The Curtain is Drawn

The Lifelong Realmlord has died, the Qingcheng Realmlord took over. The nine world palaces were reorganized as the clouds and winds changed.

However, there were still many things that have yet to be settled. For example, those powers who were deeply loyal to the Lifelong Realmlord, as well as many things in the Lifelong Sainthall itself.

"Realmlord, how should we deal with these two? Also, there's the matter about the Qingcheng Sainthall." The Xuanyuan Palace Lord asked. His gaze stared at the two fairies who stood beside the Lifelong Realmlord earlier. Before this, their statuses were extremely lofty, accepting the worship of the masses along with the Lifelong Realmlord. How glorious was that? But now, they were the same as Concubine Lu who had died. Their statuses now were extremely awkward.

"Xuanyuan Palace Lord, what do you suggest?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Earlier, Lifelong was disrespectful to Madam Ye. Also, Realmlord you did suggest for these two to dance to the public instead earlier." The Xuanyuan Palace Lord replied. The expressions of the two fairies instantly changed, becoming extremely unsightly. In the past, their statuses were transcendent, even the Xuanyuan Palace Lord had to bow to them when he saw them. But now, they were actually humiliated like this.

However, they also understood that the circumstances were no longer the same. Before this, their man insulted Qin Wentian's woman. But now, Qin Wentian has already killed their man. What would their fates be?

Earlier, the Lifelong Realmlord did say that if he killed Qin Wentian, he would take 'good care' of Qin Wentian's women.

Qin Wentian glanced at the Xuanyuan Palace Lord and didn't answer him. He then turned to the two fairies. "What do the two of you think? How should I deal with you?"

The expressions of the two fairies changed. They bit their lips and appeared extremely wronged, easily evoking pity in the hearts of those who saw them. They were extremely charming. One of them bowed, "I'm willing to serve at the side of the Qingcheng Realmlord, be it as a slave or maid."

Now, what was important was to continue to live on. Pride had to be thrown aside. It wasn't anything much to wait upon Qin Wentian for them to survive. After all, this person was more outstanding than the Lifelong Realmlord.

"I'm not as despicable as the Lifelong Realmlord." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. It was impossible for him to really take the Lifelong Realmlord's women as his own. Serving by his side as a slave or maid? He was very clear what she meant exactly.

"Huang Zhan, I'll give you a mission. Help me investigate clearly about the Lifelong Realmlord's harem. See which women there were forced to become his concubines back then and free them all. As for those women who had followed him willingly, as well as his descendants, strip them of everything they own, cripple their cultivation bases and let them become commoners." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Those people below all nodded when they heard Qin Wentian's words.

Before their battle, the Lifelong Realmlord's words to Qin Wentian were extremely malicious. However, after Qin Wentian killed him, he didn't really plan to do any sordid things to the Lifelong Realmlord's harem for the sake of revenge. He would release those women who were forced, and cripple the cultivation bases of others. Although this was somewhat ruthless, it can already be considered as him being extremely kind, not choosing to slaughter them all. In a strength-oriented world, who didn't understand the logic of exterminating all roots of future trouble? If one wasn't ruthless enough to his enemies, he might even die in the future because of the mercy he had shown.

Qin Wentian wasn't bothered about revenge by these people. But what about his friends and family? It was unknown how many women and descendants the Lifelong Realmlord had. If one of them matured and began to plot against his friends and family from the shadows, wouldn't he feel regret? Allowing them to be commoners can already be considered a show or mercy from him. If the Lifelong Realmlord had won, he would definitely use even more sinister methods to deal with Qin Wentian's friends and family.

However, Qin Wentian didn't plan to intentionally kill them just for the sake of a possibility. If not, what difference would there be between him and the Lifelong Realmlord?

"Your subordinate obeys." Huang Zhan bowed.

Qin Wentian nodded his head. He then glanced at the crowd below and spoke, "Everyone can return for now. The atmosphere for the grand banquet this time around is already spoiled. However, I'll make another announcement to the world that three months later, the first grand banquet of the Qingcheng Realm shall be held. At that time, there will be even more competition and the rewards will be more generous compared to the past. All of you can come again then to attend the grand banquet."

"The official grand banquet will be organized three months later?" The eyes of many people flashed with sharpness. Today, they had truly witnessed an extremely shocking event. The change of a dynasty and the rise of a new Realmlord. Three months later, they would even be able to witness the first grand banquet held by the new Qingcheng Sainthall.

They understood the meaning of this banquet. Back then, Qin Wentian killed and replaced the Lifire Palace Lord but this time around, things were different. He had completely replaced the Lifelong Realmlord and had changed the name of the Realm.

The first grand banquet of the Qingcheng Realm would only be more lively compared to the past. One could already very well imagine how magnificent the banquet would be.

"During these three months, all new palace lords are to reorganize your world palace's inner structure and control the powers under you well. Also, help me to pass on the message. I have to trouble everyone then." Qin Wentian glanced at the new palace lords as he spoke.

"We will naturally do our best." Jialan Jiangshan bowed, he felt gratitude towards Qin Wentian. Given Qin Wentian's current status and position, he could completely ignore Jialan Jiangshan. However, Qin Wentian didn't make use of them this time around. He truly had them in his considerations and changed the name of the Lifire Palace to the Jialan Palace. The new palace lord would naturally be none other than him, Jialan Jiangshan, the controller of the Jialan Clan.

Also, Qin Wentian intentionally gave the Lifire Palace to them because the foundations of the Jialan Clan were in Lifire City. Since that was the case, they would find it easy to take over from Qin Wentian, there wouldn't be any problems.

Jialan Yuntian and Jialan Yunhai glanced at each other. The Jialan Clan's dream has finally been realized. From now onwards, the Jialan Clan would be one of the nine world palace lords, governing the vast stretch of territories under the Jialan World Palace. They could make use of this to properly train up some of their clan members.

"If it wasn't for Qiuyue, we might have missed this opportunity again. We might have even stood on the Lifelong Realmlord's side." Jialan Yuntian silently mused, glancing at his granddaughter. However, he only saw the eyes of Jialan Qiuyue fixed on Qin Wentian. He could only helplessly shake his head. Regardless of Di Tian or Qin Wentian, both were too outstanding. There were no young ladies who wouldn't have their hearts moved by them.

"Everyone, feel free to disperse." Qin Wentian waved his hand. The crowd wished to continue on but since Qin Wentian had already spoke, they could only leave.

As the crowd gradually dispersed, Qin Wentian came to Yi's side, "Senior, I took so long before I could come over. Sorry for the wait."

Qin Wentian was still very respectful towards Yi. He has already heard of Yi's legendary stories a few hundred years ago when he was merely at the Celestial Phenomenon Realm and gained the inheritance of God's Hand. To Qin Wentian, no matter what his status or position might be, he would always be filled with respect towards Yi.

Yi smiled and shook his head. "I didn't feel this earlier, but now, I suddenly felt that I'm truly old."

Qin Wentian started. After that, he smiled wryly. After all, he was truly much too young when compared to Yi.

"Senior, don't put it this way. I've came all the way till here listening to your legends." Qin Wentian laughed.

"By saying this, I feel even older now." Yi rolled his eyes. Qin Wentian's face was filled with black lines, it seemed that he has said something wrong.

"Haha." Seeing the awkward look on Qin Wentian's face, Yi stretched his hands and patted Qin Wentian on his shoulders, "There are geniuses every generation. I'm truly very happy to witness a junior from Azure Mystic being able to have such achievements today. Because Azure Mystic was sealed for many years and had lost all connections with the outer world, in addition to scarce resources and a lack of guidance, this led a lack of truly powerful individuals being born despite the fact that they might have very good innate talents. You are a miracle and I've also seen that you've brought many people from our world to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. I truly feel proud of you."

"Senior praises me too much." Qin Wentian knew in his heart that this wasn't his credit alone. If it wasn't for the ancient heavenly deities, he wouldn't have such capabilities to bring out an army of empyreans.

"Go and be busy with your own stuff. There's no need to bother about me. I'll stay in the Qingcheng Realm for some days and three months later, I'll come and find you for a drink." Yi laughed.

"Right. That's a deal then." Qin Wentian smiled and nodded. Yi then walked towards Emperor Yu. A meeting of old friends was naturally filled with many emotions. However, now that Emperor Yu has chosen to follow Qin Wentian, he naturally wouldn't follow Yi again. None of the others would do so too. This was a respect for Qin Wentian.

The people of the Gemini Palace and members of Battle Saint Tribe gathered together. Right now, their Battle Saint Tribe was in control of two world palaces - the Battle Saint Palace and Gemini Palace.

Qin Wentian brought everyone to the Lifelong Sainthall and restructured some of the things within. After that, he handed everything that needs to be done to the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord and Xuanyuan Palace Lord before he used the teleportation array to return back to the Lifire Palace. He didn't like to handle these miscellaneous stuff, hence, he delegated it all to his subordinates.

Qin Wentian naturally also brought Ye Qianyu back to the Lifire Palace. This was the first time Ye Qianyu met with Qing'er and Qingcheng and their meeting wasn't as awkward as Qin Wentian imagined. Ye Qianyu was very passionate towards Qing'er and Qingcheng. Also, what sort of characters were Qing`er and Qingcheng? Since Ye Qianyu was already Qin Wentian's woman and had made so many sacrifices for him, they were naturally willing to accept her. Three women of unexcelled beauty, each with their own style, were soon on very good terms with one another. In fact, they even chased Qin Wentian out of the palace lord's bed room in the Lifire Palace. This made Qin Wentian feel extremely depressed. No matter what, he was the Qingcheng Realmlord, right? Wouldn't he lose a lot of face if others learned that he was forced out of the bedroom by his wives?

Mo Qingcheng had a satisfied smile on her face as she replied. Since this realm was named the Qingcheng Realm, doesn't that means that the ones truly in control here was she and Qing`er? How would Qin Wentian dare to say that it was not the case? He could only silently sneak away, sighing in his heart that it was easier to establish an empire than to control a harem. Three women of different charms stayed together in the Lifire Palace Lord's bedroom while he was chased away. How miserable was this?

……

After the new palace lords returned to their palaces, they used iron-blooded methods to cleanse each palace. The Southern Phoenix Matriarch and the Darknorth Immortal Emperor now became the rulers of those powers under the respective world palaces. They were used to having such authority and there was no need to question their methods. Also, now that they were empyreans, Qin Wentian wasn't worried that they wouldn't be able to control their palaces.

After the restructuring, the change in name to the Qingcheng Realm and the changes in name to the six world palaces, soon spread across the realm. In the grand banquet held once every hundred years, the story of how the Qingcheng Realmlord killed the Lifelong Realmlord soon began to circulate around the world. Countless people were discussing this. Qin Wentian was truly a legendary character displaying his brilliance, rising up in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Very swiftly, the news about the upcoming grand banquet that would soon be organized by the Qingcheng Sainthall also spread. More and more people respectively headed towards Qingcheng City, wanting to see the legendary character who killed the Lifelong Realmlord. This was someone who used a mere hundred years to climb from the mid-stage of the immortal emperor realm to the world overlord realm. He was originally a governor from the Lifire Palace and now, he inherited this entire realm, becoming the Qingcheng Realmlord.

There were people who claimed that this name lacked an air of tyranny, but they were soon shot down by those who knew of the finer details and mocked them for their ignorance. The name of the Qingcheng Realm was chosen because the words 'Qingcheng' were the characters of Qin Wentian's beloved first two wives. Such a beautiful story filled with emotions caused countless beautiful women in the world to feel extremely envious!

Chapter 1754: Grand Banquet of the Qingcheng Realm

The first grand banquet of the Qingcheng Realm was about to commence. Today, experts gathered from all eight directions, everywhere outside the Qingcheng Sainthall was filled to the brim. There were even more people now compared to the previous grand banquet held by the Lifelong Sainthall.

Right now, Qin Wentian has already moved to the Qingcheng Sainthall. Everything here was already properly arranged by the Desolate Heaven Palace Lord and the Xuanyuan Palace Lord. The restructuring of the nine world palaces have also been completed, each of the new palace lords ascended to their thrones smoothly, gained their rightful authorities.

Outside the Qingcheng Sainthall, Qin Wentian sat on the throne above the stairway of ten thousand steps. There were four beautiful women beside him. Mo Qingcheng and Qing'er sat on his left and right, Ye Qianyu and Beiming Youhuang sat in the seat next to Mo Qingcheng and Qing'er respectively.

Each of these four beauties had a different demeanor but all of them were undoubtedly incomparably radiant. Countless people stared at Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er. Now, everyone in the Qingcheng Realm already know that the two words of the Qingcheng Realm, 'Qingcheng,' were referring to Qin Wentian's wives. It was rumored that their feelings for each other were extremely deep and had been together for many years. They spent their teens together and shared life and death, enduring many difficulties before they arrived at this point today.

Hence, this was why they sat at the left and right of Qin Wentian, enjoying the worship of the masses. This was something Qin Wentian had once silently vowed. If one day he managed to gain control of an entire realm, he would definitely allow Qing`er and Qingcheng to be together with him as they enjoyed the respect of the crowd together.

The Qingcheng Realmlord has already publicly announced that Ye Qianyu was his woman. But even a woman so charming like Ye Qianyu was unable to replace the position of his first two wives in his heart. For this point, one would be able to infer it just from the seating arrangements.

As for Beiming Youhuang, everyone was filled with speculation. This was especially so given the position of her seating. However, since the Qingcheng Realmlord had announced before that there was nothing on going with him and Beiming Youhuang, there shouldn't be anything false about this. Given his status and position, there was basically no need for him to lie. Let alone, he had also said to the Lifelong Realmlord before that if she was his woman, how would he not dare to admit that?

However, even if there weren't any official relations of love between them, the crowd guessed that they must have suffered many things together and they might have feelings for each other in their hearts.

In the direction of the nine world palaces, many people smiled at the Darknorth Immortal Emperor. He has a chance to be the same like the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, becoming Qin Wentian's father-in-law. Naturally, this was only a possibility. No one could be sure of the exact relationship between Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang.

"Today is the day where the Qingcheng Realm's grand banquet starts. Everyone taking their time to come here is considered a recognition to me. Three months ago, I've already said that the grand banquet this time around would be even more grand compared to the past ones in the Lifelong Realm. Everyone can enjoy the delicacies we prepared freely, I won't be stingy at all. Also, for experts at the immortal-foundation realm and above, we will hold a competition for each cultivation realm on the gigantic platform. Anyone is allowed to participate, this isn't limited only to people from the nine world palaces. People from the various powers, or even unaffiliated cultivators can join as well. For those who manage to place in the top ten, I will heavily reward them. They can either enter one of the nine world palaces to assume an official position or they can choose to be nurtured heavily. If any of the empyreans from the nine world palaces wants to, they can accept the top ten as disciples as well."

Qin Wentian continued, "For the top three in each cultivation realm, I'll allow the nine world palace lords themselves to accept them as personal disciples."

When everyone heard this, their eyes gleamed with sharpness and anticipation. However, when they thought of how intense the competition would be, many people felt somewhat disappointed, knowing that they don't stand a chance. However, the Qingcheng Realmlord did indeed open up the table and gave many geniuses a chance. Even creating a bout of good fortune where the top three of all the cultivation realms can choose to become a personal disciple under one of the world palace lords. Leaving aside the other rewards, just this alone was extremely attractive to many geniuses.

"We immortal-foundation experts have a chance as well." Many juniors at the immortal-foundation realm clenched their fists tightly, feeling excitement. This time, they had to go all out. To many people, this was truly good fortune, capable of propelling them up into the heavens in a single step, directly becoming core characters of the Qingcheng Realm. Right now, all the world palace lords were the Qingcheng Realmlord's trusted aides. As long as they became the disciples of the nine world palace lords, they would have the chance in the future to slowly come in contact with the Qingcheng Realmlord.

"Everyone, don't feel restrained, just enjoy the banquet to your utmost. Next, I will merely act the part of a silent spectator. Everything else shall be handed by the nine world palace lords." Qin Wentian laughed. He originally was extremely young and handsome. The sound of his laughter gave people the feeling of enjoying a breeze in spring time. Many people silently mused that the Qingcheng Realmlord's charisma was far above the Lifelong Realmlord.

The sound of his laughter instantly caused countless beauties here in the crowd to fall into a daze. Right now, many young misses of the various aristocrat clans and major powers were all present here. When they heard of how much value the Qingcheng Realmlord placed on emotions, and the fact that he was also young and handsome, they decided to come here for a look. After they saw him, they realized that the rumors did his appearance no justice. They were all filled with envy and admiration for Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng, able to accompany him by his side.

The Lifelong Realmlord had countless beauties in his harem. Yet now, as the Qingcheng Realmlord, Qin Wentian only had three women. If he was willing to, most probably all the beauties from the major powers wouldn't mind giving themselves to him.

After all, the rumors stated that Qin Wentian cultivated for less than a thousand years, and was even younger than many immortal kings. It was impossible to find another more outstanding person of the younger generation in the Qingcheng Realm.

The Red Dust Immortal Palace Mistress voluntarily led her dancers up to perform. This time, those who performed all did so willingly. Many of them envied Ye Qianyu, being able to be at the side of such a legendary character.

"Senior Yi, Wentian respectfully offers you a toast." When the banquet commenced, Qin Wentian truly did act the part of a silent spectator. He no longer paid attention to the proceedings and turned his gaze towards World Overlord Yi who was seated not far away from him. By arranging Yi's seat to be on the same row as him, this was naturally a mark of his respect to Yi. Yi's existence also caused many people to feel admiration. Today, they actually could see two world overlords.

"Wentian, now that you've already reached my level, there's no need to call me senior. Just refer to me as Yi." World Overlord Yi spoke.

"I've gotten used to that. After all in my heart, you are truly an esteemed senior from the elder generation." Qin Wentian smiled.

"Alright, up to you then. You do really have a sweet tongue, causing the hearts of many to be moved. Seems like you really have the heart to nurture the juniors of the Qingcheng Realm." Yi laughed.

"This world would never lack geniuses. If there are truly elites with surpassing-levels of talent, why don't we put our heart in nurturing them? In the future they would have a chance to become legendary characters as well." Qin Wentian smiled.

"That's only natural. In the past, Lifelong didn't do this because he was selfish. He had too strong a desire towards power and wasn't willing to see people of this realm exceed him."

"He was still too narrow-minded. If he was truly magnanimous, so what if there are people who surpass him? They would still be respectful to him for guiding them and wouldn't have thoughts of replacing him. After all, when one is in the world overlord realm, there are still many other things they can pursue."

"That's indeed true. Wentian, given your talent I'm sure you won't be limited to here. Although the Qingcheng Realm is extremely vast, having endless stretches of territories, such a place was already sufficient for the ambition of the Lifelong Realmlord. But to you, I still feel that this place is too small. You should seek out a vaster stage." Yi suggested.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded his head. This was only something natural.

"Today, although I've comprehended heavenheart mandates and gained the title of the Qingcheng Realmlord, senior should know that in reality, I've yet to fully enter the World Overlord Realm. Next, I'm prepared to put in more effort in cultivation until I can comprehend enough insights to manifest my world heart. At the same time, I also want to learn more about the general situation of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms." Qin Wentian spoke, this was his plan. The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was just too vast, he wouldn't be unduly humble but he would also not be egotistical and arrogant.

In the ancient battlefield, Qin Wentian's horizons were broadened, he had seen before many extremely powerful heavenheart mandates and naturally knew that the Lifelong Realmlord was just considered one of the weaker World Overlords. Right now, although he had sufficient strength to kill the Lifelong Realmlord, he was still too weak in the perspective of the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. If he encountered a world overlord who had comprehended supreme heavenheart mandates, he wouldn't be their opponent.

For the World Overlord Realm, it wasn't divided into smaller tiers. Because, the difference in strength between each world overlord could be extremely vast. So vast to the extend where there was basically no way to contain the difference in tiers.

"Good plan. But now that you would have to endure immense loneliness as you seek to improve via cultivation." Yi laughed. Now that Qin Wentian was the Qingcheng Realmlord, he could do whatever he wanted and there was no need for him to feel any restraints at all, he could enjoy himself to the utmost if he so wanted, or he could go and roam his territories. After all, cultivation was a very boring and assiduous matter.

"To me, cultivation is also joy." Qin Wentian smiled and replied. He turned his gaze towards the crowd. Right now, the Qingcheng Realm has already been established and as the Qingcheng Realmlord, it can be considered that he can already stand stably here in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Next, he needed a period of time for his realm's foundation to be stable first and nothing was more suitable than to use this time for cultivation.

There were still many places in the ancient battlefield where he wished to venture to. How would he feel that cultivation was dry and boring? Everyday would be extremely fascinating, he was prepared to use a very long period of time to fully explore each secret realm inside the ancient battlefield and truly step into the World Overlord Realm.

"Treating cultivation as a joyful matter is also a kind of heart state." Yi shook his head and smiled. He wasn't able to do so. No wonder his talent for cultivation wasn't as good as Qin Wentian's.

At this moment, Qin Wentian's eyes flashed as a frown appeared on his face. He and Yi stared in the distance at the same time. From there, a group of experts could be seen flying through the air, gradually moving nearer. They then arrived here before Qin Wentian, and there were quite a few empyreans in the lead, clearly the leaders of this powerful group.

Countless people below stared in the air at this group of people. Today was the day the grand banquet of the Qingcheng Realm commenced yet there were actually people who directly dared to fly through the air, barging in here uninvited? Who would be so audacious and rude?

"I pay my respects to the Qingcheng Realmlord Qin Wentian." The person standing in the frontmost row clasped his hands, expressing his attitude. However, his manner didn't seem to be very respectful.

"Where are you all from?" Qin Wentian's expression was calm as he stared at them.

"We all came from the Heavenly Talisman Realm. After we heard Realmlord Qin had killed the Lifelong Realmlord and ascended to the throne with the title of the Qingcheng Realmlord, the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord immediately specially arranged for us to come here to offer congratulations to you" That person laughed. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. The Heavenly Talisman Realm was the neighbouring Realm to the Qingcheng Realm. The news had spread very quickly indeed.

"Received. You guys can leave now." Qin Wentian directly sent out a guest-expulsion order. The attitudes of these people from the Heavenly Talisman Realm weren't that polite. Since that was the case, there was naturally no need for him to be polite too.

"Realmlord Qin and us can be considered as being in the same sect before, why is there a need to cast us so far aside? In any case, although Realmlord Qin is the Realmlord of an entire realm now, you can be considered my junior apprentice brother. Master, the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord intentionally asked us here to offer well wishes." That person laughed loudly, instantly causing great shock to surface in the hearts of many people. The Qingcheng Realmlord Qin Wentian was actually a disciple of the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord?

"Scram." Qin Wentian only replied with a single world. That man coldly smiled, he opened his mouth, wanting to say something more but Qin Wentian then continued, "Speak another sentence and you shall be executed."

The expression of that person instantly turned extremely ugly. He continued to smile coldly, staring at Qin Wentian, "Farewell."

As he spoke, he directly led his group away. They came here simply to embarrass Qin Wentian. In the lower world, Qin Wentian had destroyed the Heavenly Talisman Realm's plan and this incident clearly has already spread to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

Everyone could see Qin Wentian's attitude and instantly knew that there was much more to that story which they didn't know. If not, why would Qin Wentian be so respectful to Yi, yet not respectful to his master? Many people felt curious about this but this wasn't something they ought to be worrying themselves over. They might as well enjoy this grand banquet instead. In the future, there would still be opportunities to find out more.

"No need to care about them, let the banquet continue." Qin Wentian waved his hand and spoke. Everyone nodded, the grand banquet of the Qingcheng Realm continued to commence. What happened earlier was just a small ripple of disturbance, it didn't disrupt the banquet in anyway.

Chapter 1755: Convention of the Myriad Realms

The grand banquet of the Qingcheng Realm concluded perfectly, many geniuses appeared. Be it at the immortal emperor realm, immortal king realm or immortal-foundation realm, there were many individuals with outstanding talent that appeared. This was especially so for the immortal-foundation realm because the immortal-foundation realm could be separated into nine levels. Qin Wentian rewarded the top three of each level heavily, and there were even some who joined the nine world palaces, even taking on the palace lords as their master, becoming the subject of envy of countless others.

When the banquet ended, many people left with reluctance. They all stayed for a while more in the city before finally leaving. However, Qin Wentain's figure remained deeply etched in their minds. This was especially so for the younger juniors. They were filled with admiration, worship, respect and reverence for him. They all also longed to be like the Qingcheng Realmlord Qin Wentian, exuding boundless magnificence, controlling endless stretches of territories, surrounded by beauties and enjoying the worship of everyone in the world. How glorious would that be?

After the Qingcheng grand banquet ended, Qin Wentian bade the various palace lords to continue with their restructuring of the various world palaces. Although the time of three months was sufficient for them to control the world palaces, it was impossible for them to sort out everything. There were still some territories under the various world palaces that were in chaos due to the death of their previous palace lords and the Lifelong Realmlord. An example was the many mines of the Qingcheng Realm. These mines were the foundation of the Qingcheng Realm, they were land of treasures and it was best to control them properly. After all, these mines could constantly provide the Qingcheng Realm with cultivation resources.

Now, Qin Wentian wasn't cultivating alone, he had many followers and he had to let them catch up to him in terms of their cultivation bases. Other than the guidance provided by the heavenly deities, cultivation resources cannot be lacking.

After everything was settled, Di Tian returned from the lower world and came to the Qingcheng Realm, taking control of this realm while the Desolate Heaven Palace, Xuanyuan Palace, Jialan Clan and the other palace lords would help out by supporting him.

As for Qin Wentian, he brought his wives and friends and family back down to the lower world once more.

Back then, the things that happened at the grand banquet was just a minor disruption to Qin Wentian. It was impossible that he act against the Heavenly Talisman Realm just because the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord sent people here to embarrass him. That would be completely irrational. Before this, he has already spoken with World Overlord Yi. Now, it can be considered that he could stand stably in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. His top priority now was to completely break through to the World Overlord Realm. This was his only goal for now.

Right now, Azure Mystic was peaceful again. No one else dared to create trouble. The storm of commotion caused by the appearance of the ancient battlefield gradually ceased, it wasn't like before where waves of experts would come here in unending waves. However, there were still some characters with extraordinary identities who sought to enter but they were no longer as high-profile as before and were silently searching for their own good fortune.

The winds and clouds of the world were changing. Tens of years passed in the blink of an eye. Such a period of time can be considered extremely short in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Even to Azure Mystic, this period of time wasn't considered anything much.

During these tens of years, Qin Wentian and the others improved a lot.

Today, Qin Wentian exited from the World of Ten Thousand Laws and was shaking his head in a depressed manner. The shadow of the Skybreak Heavenly Deity appeared beside him and smiled, "What's the matter? Don't you feel very delighted?"

"Senior, don't tease me." Qin Wentian bitterly smiled. The World of Ten Thousand Laws wasn't merely a place for one to comprehend insights, it was also a place for mock combat against those monument spirits who each comprehend a heavenheart mandate. For those who fought in the World of Ten Thousand Laws, they could clearly sense the exact details of the powers of each heavenheart mandate.

Qin Wentian would frequently go for mock combat sessions in the World of Ten Thousand Laws. Right now, he has already comprehended quite a few heavenheart mandates and were all extraordinary ones. Ordinary world overlords wouldn't be his opponent but even so, he still lost several times in the World of Ten Thousand Laws. It was still fine at the start, but as he continued on, some immensely powerful heavenheart mandates would appear and he could only be abused by them. There was actually not much of a difference between now and then when he was at the empyrean realm, he instantly died upon encountering those immensely powerful heavenheart mandates.

"Haha, you've already improved a lot. Your talent is truly very rare seeing that you are able to comprehend so many heavenheart mandates in such a short time. Next, I'll wait for you to manifest your world heart." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity laughed. "How is the progress of that?"

"I'm still trying to comprehend some things, I have no idea when I would receive a breakthrough." Qin Wentian replied.

"Mhm, there's no need to rush things. Given your talent, things will surely flow naturally when the time is right. I would rather you spend a longer period of time to manifest a stronger world heart. In that case, you would be able to save many years of cultivation in the future and would be many times stronger compared to those world overlords who have an ordinary world heart." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity spoke. He wouldn't have such high hopes on ordinary people but it was different for Qin Wentian. The Skybreak Heavenly Deity set a very high goal for Qin Wentian, an extremely high goal. He hoped that Qin Wentian's world heart would be able to shock all his enemies in the future.

The Skybreak Heavenly Deity was filled with anticipation. It was fine now that Qin Wentian has yet to completely break through to the world overlord realm. But once he became one, he would immediately be able to insta-kill those ordinary world overlords.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. It was truly difficult to comprehend a world heart. Right now to him, it was much easier to comprehend heavenheart mandates. Naturally, if it wasn't for Qin Wentian himself wanting to reach for a higher point or he could have already manifested an ordinary world heart and step into the world overlord realm. However, he wasn't willing to settle for less.

"Oh, I have bad news for you. It's said that Beiming Youhuang is already attempting to break through to the World Overlord Realm, she might enter that realm earlier than you." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity smiled.

A strange look appeared on Qin Wentian's face, before a smile appeared. He was naturally happy that Youhuang's talent was good. Also, Beiming Youhuang's ambitions weren't as high as his. Beiming Youhuang, who had comprehended a heavenheart mandate, was already preparing to manifest a world heart from it, thereby officially entering the world overlord ream.

Just when they were speaking, in a place extremely faraway, an intense coldness suddenly radiated out. That entire space instantly transformed into a world of ice and snow, even the dome of heaven seemed to be frozen solid. Qin Wentian and the Skybreak Heavenly Deity turned their gaze over there only to see snowflakes drifting around randomly in the flawlessly pure white world that suddenly appeared.

A flawlessly beautiful silhouette appeared in the world of ice and snow, resembling a goddess. She gleamed with light and exuded the icy pureness of jade. This was naturally none other than Beiming Youhuang.

"I was just saying about that, to think that my words came true and she did break through before you." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity laughed. Qin Wentian stared at that beautiful figure of Beiming Youhuang as a smile appeared on his eyes. He was naturally happy that Beiming Youhuang had broken through. Another world overlord appeared by his side. In the future, there would still be even more world overlords. For example, Qing`er, Mengchen, Little Rascal and the others. He was truly filled with anticipation for that.

"Go." Qin Wentian's figure flashed, flying towards the world of ice and snow. Not only him, many people had discovered the situation here and were all flying here as well. Not long after, many people appeared before Beiming Youhuang. Beiming Youhuang slowly descended from the air, her aura now actually had a few hints of holiness.

To think that back then, the Lifelong Realmlord wanted to take her as his concubine. How ridiculous was that? Given the Lifelong Realmlord's talent, was he even worthy of her? Let alone taking her as a concubine.

Beside Beiming Youhuang, an ethereal silhouette could be seen. She simply stood there, exuding a saint-like holy aura akin to a true goddess. Even the ancient heavenly deities were all very respectful towards her and had never referred to her by her name before. Her title also remained unknown as no one would discuss about her. Qin Wentian only recently knew about this goddess from the Skybreak Heavenly Deity. It seems like the status of the ancient heavenly deity that was guiding Beiming Youhuang was somewhat extraordinary. This person was actually the daughter of the Imperishable Heaven Lord.

Qin Wentian was naturally very joyful that Youhuang was able to take such an esteemed character as her master. Youhuang initially obtained the Death Scripture inheritance from that crazy old freak, inheriting half of the inheritance from the Imperishable Heaven Lord. And now, the Imperishable Heaven Lord's daughter was the one guiding her. Everything seemed to be fated.

"Youhuang, your cultivation base now is even higher than mine." Qin Wentian smiled. Beiming Youhuang's beautiful eyes turned to Qin Wentian. "If you want to break through, you can do so at any time."

"But the fact remains that I still haven't broken through yet. You don't need to console me..., I won't be jealous of you." Qin Wentian joked.

"Youhuang." The Darknorth Immortal Emperor rushed over. He was extremely happy when he saw his daughter. His daughter was already an existence at the world overlord realm.

"It's all due to Master's effort." Beiming Youhuang glanced at the divine goddess beside her.

"If your comprehension abilities are lacking, it's useless even if I guide you." The goddess was extremely calm. She then continued, "However, don't feel too self-satisfied. Stepping into the world overlord realm is merely the initial step. Next, you have to continue to transform your world heart and grow even stronger."

"Mhm, I'll obey the teachings of master." Beiming Youhuang nodded.

"Go and mingle with your friends." The divine goddess spoke and left. Many people teased Qin Wentian asking when would he break through. After all, Qin Wentian's talent was the highest among them but Beiming Youhuang was the first to break through to the World Overlord Realm.

Qin Wentian could feel a great pressure.

Next, Beiming Youhuang naturally wanted to stabilize her foundation and condense her eighth astral soul. This was extremely important. After the gathering, everyone left respectively, no longer disturbing Beiming Youhuang from her cultivation.

Qin Wentian once again chose to enter seclusion to silently meditate. In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Di Tian roamed through all the major mines in the Qingcheng Realm as both of them comprehended and gained insights simultaneously.

After cultivating for several years, unknowingly, much time had passed by once again. In total, a hundred years had actually passed by.

A hundred years was considered short in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms but to Qin Wentian, it was an extremely long period of time. He had never been so focused, using a total of one hundred years solely for his cultivation. But, in order to complete his break through, he didn't hesitate to do so. From this point, one could very well imagine how difficult it must be for Qin Wentian to try and comprehend an extraordinary world heart.

In the Qingcheng Sainthall, the Xuanyuan Palace Lord came by to meet with Di Tian, asking if Qin Wentian would return or not. After all, the second grand banquet of the Qingcheng Realm would soon commence and the nine world palace lords would also have to bring the tributes they collected over.

In the hall, Qin Wentian appeared and granted an audience to the Xuanyuan Palace Lord. Not only was Qin Wentian there, the Xuanyuan Palace Lord also discovered that there were several other world palace lords present as well. This made the Xuanyuan Palace Lord sigh. Seems like these people were the true trusted aides of Qin Wentian. It was rumored that all of them had vanished for a long time since the last grand banquet. This made the Xuanyuan Palace Lord extremely curious at where they went. Did they go to the ancient battlefield to search for good fortune again?

However, he didn't dare to ask. Since Qin Wentian didn't voluntarily tell him, he knew that he shouldn't ask.

"I pay my respects to Realmlord." The Xuanyuan Palace Lord spoke. "I was still wondering if Realmlord would participate in the second grand banquet of the Qingcheng Realm. Seems like I was worried for nothing."

"The organizing of the grand banquet this time will still be handed to you all. I'll just be a silent spectator. However, Xuanyuan Palace Lord, I just received an invitation some time earlier." Qin Wentian spoke.

"What invitation?" The Xuanyuan Realmlord asked.

"Take a look yourself." Qin Wentian waved his hand as an invitation letter with a resplendent seal flew towards the Xuanyuan Palace Lord. When he saw the words on the letter, his eyes narrowed as his heart involuntarily trembled.

On the invitation, there were only five words.

"Convention of the Myriad Realms!"

Chapter 1756: The Eight Regions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms

Qin Wentian knew that the Xuanyuan Palace Lord knew about the Convention of the Myriad Realms from his reaction. He then asked, "Xuanyuan Palace Lord, what's your understanding about this?"

"I know a little, but this subordinate still doesn't have the qualifications to come in contact with it. The convention of the myriad realms in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms is considered the most grand and majestic of all events. This subordinate doesn't even have the qualifications to participate." The Xuanyuan Palace Lord shook his head and continued, "It has been a hundred years since Realmlord ascended to this throne, and this must have coincided with the next convention. To receive this invitation means those organizing this event regards Realmlord highly. This invitation is a confirmation of your strength and status."

"Oh?" Qin Wentian glanced at the Xuanyuan Palace Lord. During these hundred years, other than his cultivation, he also gained an understanding of the situation in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. However, it was impossible for him to learn of everything and familiarize with every great event. He wasn't that clear about this Convention of the Myriad Realms, this was why he asked the Xuanyuan Palace Lord.

"Tell me what you know." Qin Wentian spoke.

"The Convention of the Myriad Realms is one of the most top-notch grand events in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Only Realmlords who control endless territories and authority would have the qualifications to be invited. Naturally, there would also be some superpowers and aristocrat clans participating. It's a gathering of the powers in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that are at the peak and this isn't something our Qingcheng Grand Banquet can be compared to. The Convention of the Myriad Realms is on a much larger scale and consists of countless powers like the Qingcheng Realm." The Xuanyuan Palace Lord explained.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, gleaming with sharpness. This was actually one of the top-notch peak-level gatherings of the Mystic Region. Seems like now that he was the overlord of an entire realm, it can be considered that he has arrived at the edge of those who stands at the peak of this world and had the qualifications to come in contact with people at that level. Through his years of cultivation, he had participated in many grand events before and they had a profound effect on him.

But now, this invitation seemed to be for an event that would far exceed any of the past events he had participated in before.

The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were too vast. The people here divided this world into a total of eight regions namely: Heaven, Earth, Mystic, Yellow, Universe, Eternity, Chaos and Desolate. The region the Qingcheng Realm was in, was known as the Mystic Region and known as the Supreme Ancient Mystic Region.

The vastness of the Mystic Region was unimaginable, capable of holding the territories of ten thousand realms.

"It's those peak existences in the Mystic Region that issued the invitations?" Qin Wentian glanced at the Xuanyuan Palace Lord as he continued asking.

"Mhm, ever since ancient times, this convention was held once every ten thousand years. The Mystic Region will send the invitation out three years in advance, allowing people to prepare. I heard that previously, the Lifelong Realmlord has also participated in it before but he didn't mention anything about it. Maybe, he no longer wanted to participate in it. But I naturally don't know the full details." The Xuanyuan Palace Lord continued.

Qin Wentian nodded, there might be many reasons why the Lifelong Realmlord didn't mention anything about this event. But the largest possibility was that the Lifelong Realmlord didn't even have a sense of existence when he went to this peak-level event as he was a negligible existence. Hence, he didn't even wish to participate in it any more or he might have no longer received an invitation. But since the Lifelong Realmlord has already died, there was no way to verify the truth of this matter. Qin Wentian could only speculate.

However, Qin Wentian could imagine many things. This was a peak-level top-notch event of the Supreme Ancient Mystic Region, and all the ten thousand realms here would receive an invitation. The number of world overlords would naturally be a staggering amount. Given the Lifelong Realmlord's puny strength, he would truly be an insignificant character among them even if he participated. It was only normal that he wouldn't mention anything about this to his subordinates.

"This invitation is truly simple enough, there's no mention of the date and location at all." Qin Wentian laughed. There were only five words in the invitation letter 'Convention of the Myriad Realms.' However, this by itself was a sign of transcendent majesty. These five words were already sufficient to represent everything.

"The time for this event should be roughly about three years after since the moment Realmlord received the invitation." The Xuanyuan Palace Lord spoke.

"Do you know any concrete details about the convention?" Qin Wentian asked.

"This subordinate truly has no idea as this event is too far away for me. Hence, I've never sought out information about this or tried to understand it deeper. I've only heard of the famous name of the Convention of the Myriad Realms." The Xuanyuan Palace Lord bitterly smiled and shook his head. Even the Xuanyuan Palace Lord had no idea about this peak-level grand event of the Supreme Ancient Mystic Region. From this, one could very well imagine how vast the Mystic Region is. There was simply too much news that had no way to be spread to the Qingcheng Realm.

"I understand." Qin Wentian nodded. "You can leave now to prepare the grand banquet. I'll still have to depend on you to do your best, organizing and managing the once per hundred year event."

"Realmlord is too polite, this is something subordinate ought to do. I will naturally put in all my effort." The Xuanyuan Palace Lord clasped his hands. "This subordinate shall take my leave."

After that, the Xuanyuan Palace Lord left the area.

After the Xuanyuan Palace Lord departed, Qin Wentian mumbled to himself as he stared at the invitation in his hand. Should he attend this peak-level gathering of the Mystic Region?

He soon had a decision in his heart. This event would enable him to meet with characters from the various areas who stood at the peak, extremely powerful world overlords would surely be there. Since this was an event that occurs only once every ten thousand years, he mustn't miss out on it.

He decided to go!

"What do you think?" At this moment, the voice of the Skybreak Heavenly Deity rang out.

"Senior, I decided to participate." Qin Wentian replied.

"Mhm, right now since you have already reached this level and have completed your world heart, it's indeed time for you to venture out and roam around a bit to take a look at the various peak powers of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Although you won't be able to meet heavenly deities, there would surely be plenty of those world overlords in the major powers and junior generations. You might as well take this chance to see how outstanding the juniors nurtured by the major powers of these immortal realms are, and see if you can pry into how deep the foundations of these major powers are." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity spoke. He naturally hoped for Qin Wentian to participate to broaden his horizons. Undoubtedly, he had very high hopes for Qin Wentian, wanting him to walk to the peak of this world.

"I'm also filled with anticipation." Qin Wentian's eyes were as bright as the stars. He had seen so many heavenly deities in the ancient battlefield and entered secret realms such as the World of the Ten Thousand Laws. However, what would those characters standing at the true peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms be like? It was impossible for him to come in contact with them if he stayed in the Qingcheng Realm. He would only be able to see them if he went for the Convention of the Myriad Realms.

It's just that in the Mystic Region of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there didn't seem to be any peak powers or any heavenly deity races that were surnamed Qin.

Where was the clan of his father and mother exactly? Would he be able to see some of his parents clan members at the convention?

Right now, he could already stand stably in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and has officially stepped into the world overlord level completely. In the depths of his heart, emotions began to stir especially when he recalled what he had seen in those memory fragments his father left behind for him. When he remembered how much his father had suffered, he suddenly felt an intense impulsiveness to destroy everything and kill those so-called clan members of his father who acted against him all those years ago.

If he didn't seek revenge for this, he wasn't fit enough to be called a son.

Also, he didn't really know much about his mother. He really wanted to know what sort of magnificent character his mother might be.

Right now, he finally has the qualifications to come in contact with people at a higher level. He would definitely be able to climb to the peak one day!

Chapter 1757: Time City

The Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms was at the very top of the thirty-three immortal realms. It was divided into a total of eight regions namely: the Heaven, Earth, Mystic, Yellow, Universe, Eternity, Chaos and Desolate regions. The division of these eight regions had another deeper layer of meaning behind them. For each of the eight regions, they had control over different lower worlds.

Among the thirty-three immortal realms, other than the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there were still thirty-two immortal realms which are otherwise also known as the lower worlds. The peak powers of each region in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms had control over quite a few immortal realms, with one of the regions controlling three, the others four. Azure Mystic Immortal Realms was the only lower world yet to be controlled by any region or if not, just so nicely, each of the eight regions would control four lower worlds.

Naturally, this was an ideal number. If Azure Mystic hadn't been sealed away, it was unknown which region would have control over it.

Right now in the Mystic Region, there were a total of three hegemon-level powers. In their hands, they control a total of four lower worlds. From this, one could very well imagine how strong they are. Naturally, these hegemon powers also have many subordinate powers under them and their subordinate powers were also immensely powerful ones.

But from Qin Wentian's understanding of the general situation in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the Mystic Region wasn't the strongest. A very long time ago, he had already learned from the crazy old freak that there was a region in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms that focused solely on the buddhist-path and they controlled a total of four lower worlds as well. The buddha religion was then spread throughout the four lower worlds as they gathered even more members than ever before.

Also, in the Universe Region in the western direction, the territories under the buddha sect's control also had the name of the Pure Land of Ultimate Bliss.

The location of the Convention of the Myriad Realms was always fixed. It was just that because the Qingcheng Realm was extremely far away but if one made some enquiries, they would learn that for this convention that occurs once every ten thousand years, the location was always at an ancient city that was a symbol to the Mystic Region. It was a place where gods rose. In the ancient era, during the time where the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms were divided into eight regions by the first generations of heavenly deities, one of the eight heavenly deities originated precisely from this city. That was a legendary character that was given the title Time King, there were also others who referred to him as the Godking of Time.

In order to commemorate the city he was born in this city was renamed Time City.

And now, Qin Wentian arrived at this ancient and majestic city. It has been around two years plus since he received the invitation and the Convention of the Myriad Realms would soon commence in several months time inside this city. He came here a few months earlier in advance. He had to travel through several realms and spent a very long time before he arrived.

Naturally, Qin Wentian wasn't the only one who came. There were many people who followed him. Qing`er, Qingcheng, Beiming Youhuang, Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Nanfeng Yaoyue and the others all chose to come with him, preparing to take in the sights of the Convention of the Myriad Realms. Also, all of them possessed enough strength now and could wander about freely. In addition to the fact that he was already a world overlord, they needn't be as cautious as before when they roamed this world.

As for the Qingcheng Realm, everything there now has already been stabilized. With the passage of a hundred years, the nine world palace lords have finished their restructuring completely. There wouldn't be any chaos.

Little Rascal, who was currently in the form of a golden roc, soared through the air and descended on the ground. In this city, many majestic buildings were constructed so tall that their top would touch the clouds. Those traveling in the air needed to take note of this, and there would also be many powerful greater demons flying in the air frequently, consisting of dragons, phoenixes, kirins, taotie, qiongqi and some other powerful variation-type demon beasts.

"I realized that empyreans, who are considered rare in the Qingcheng Realm, cannot be counted as anything here." Jun Mengchen glanced at the experts in the surroundings as he spoke. In the past, the Lifelong Sainthall controlled Lifelong City extremely strictly. Ordinary characters wouldn't have the qualifications to stay in the Lifelong Sainthall, let alone an ancient legendary city like Time City.

"Senior brother, do you see any world overlords?" Jun Mengchen asked Qin Wentian. Even now, he still referred to Qin Wentian as senior brother.

"Mhm, there are quite a few." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Where are they?" Excitement flashed in Jun Mengchen's eyes. He hadn't met many world overlords before, only a few. Now that they've reached Time City, he naturally wanted to see how powerful the world overlords here are.

"You see the white-hair elder in front of you?" Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice to Jun Mengchen. Jun Mengchen started and stared ahead, there was indeed an old man with white hair there. He was currently hobbling slowly with a bent back, and looked extremely aged. Also, his dressing was very simple, his appearance couldn't be anything more ordinary.

"Senior, are you sure you are not lying to me?" Jun Mengchen blinked. When he spoke, the old man in front halted his steps and turned back to glance at Jun Mengchen. His eyes narrowed into slits as he smiled but at this moment, a terrifying beam of light suddenly shot out from the eyes of this old man. In just an instant, Jun Mengchen felt his own soul being confined as he fell into a daze.

"Who asked you to speak nonsense? Quickly apologize to this senior." Qin Wentian laughed. When he spoke, a formless energy radiated from him, causing Jun Mengchen to feel much better. That old man also laughed as he glanced at Qin Wentian.

"Junior has overstepped my bounds. Please forgive me." Jun Mengchen weakly laughed. At this moment, no more doubts filled his heart.

"No worries." The old man laughed. He then spoke to Qin Wentian, "Young man, are you here to participate in the Convention of the Myriad Realms?"

"Mhm, is old sir participating as well?" Qin Wentian smiled and nodded.

"Yes." That old man nodded. "To think that you brought all your family and friends with you. You juniors are truly interesting.

"We have never traveled so far before, since this is a rare to comeby opportunity, I naturally must bring them along with me to broaden our horizons." Qin Wentian replied.

"I see." The old man nodded. After that, he turned around and with a flash, he completely disappeared from this area. Jun Mengchen felt that there was something wrong with his eyes. The space which the old man occupied was now completely empty. Even his immortal sense wasn't able to locate that old man.

"So fast." Jun Mengchen exclaimed in admiration. Qin Wentian smiled at him, "Don't speak randomly like that again, Time City has many crouching tigers and hidden dragons. Other than that old man, there was an extremely young-looking male on our left earlier. Did you notice him?"

"Mhm, he looks to be of roughly the same age as me."

"That person is also an overlord." Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice. Jun Mengchen rolled his eyes, feeling somewhat speechless and depressed. He himself was still an empyrean, he didn't have the capabilities to break through to the world overlord realm yet.

"Let's find an inn to stay in first. We still have to be here for a period of time." Qin Wentian spoke. Everyone nodded in agreement. They had traveled long and far before finally arriving here. It was indeed time to take a break. During these few days, they haven't eaten any food either. Since they are already here now, they also felt like trying out the delicacies of Time City.

Although stellar martial cultivators can survive without food and it wouldn't affect them in any case, wanting to eat was a desire that everyone has. Also, the food in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms weren't simply food, they were all heavenly ingredients and earthly treasures. While enjoying these delicacies, the food could also improve your physique although the effect was quite minute.

Not long after, they found an inn with a restaurant attached to it. In one of the pavilions, they ordered a great deal of food while enjoying the view of the city.

Little Rascal reverted to his puppy form. His appetite was extremely large and could be described as a ravenous wolf, devouring all his food whole. He had a look of intense enjoyment on his face. Jun Mengchen wasn't better in anyway either, constantly stuffing food into his mouth. The beauties here were much more elegant in their table manners. Mo Qingcheng couldn't help but to speak out in admiration, "The food here is truly made from extremely valuable ingredients. After eating them, I can feel that the energy flow in my body is automatically circulating around, providing a sense of comfort."

Mo Qingcheng was only at the immortal emperor realm now and she could feel the positive effects from the food more clearly. But even for empyreans, they could also feel the positive effects although to a lesser degree.

"Sister-in-law, you have to look at the price they are charging us. We are paying in overlord-ranked world stones. This is simply too luxurious, senior brother is there really a need to spend so extravagantly?" Jun Mengchen speechlessly asked. The unit of currency spent here was world stones. Even a piece of world stone was priceless.

"It's very rare for us to tour the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and we must naturally enjoy ourselves to the fullest." Qin Wentian was feeling very good. It was very rare for everyone to be able to gather here like this, enjoying the delicacies. So what even if he had to spend more? Right now, he was already the Qingcheng Realmlord, all the resources there belonged to him. Although world stones are extremely valuable, he didn't lack them. Let alone the fact that he had brought many divine treasures out from the divine depositories in the ancient battlefield along with him.

"Sir, you must have come to Time City from afar, right?" A beautiful serving girl bringing the food dishes over smiled at Jun Mengchen. She belonged to those types of beauties that would cause one to feel comfortable the longer one looked at them. Her smile was filled with amiability. Yet, a beauty like her was only qualified to become a serving girl here. How could this city not be considered grand and majestic?

"Seems like you have guessed correctly." Jun Mengchen grinned.

"Mhm, in Time City, enjoying food delicacies are considered more ordinary, it cannot be considered extravagant. You have yet to visit the treasure transaction market. The prices there are truly what the word 'extravagant' means. If Sir wants to buy a robe or if these beautiful fairies or wishes to buy accessories, the cost might range from a thousand to ten thousand world stones and the grade of these stones cannot be of the inferior quality ones." The serving girl warmly smiled but she didn't give off any feeling of looking down or ridiculing them.

"What clothings and accessories are that?" Jun Mengchen was stunned.

"They are naturally overlord-ranked treasures manufactured by powerful grand masters. A piece of clothing or a single accessory might not be so conspicuous but they all might be extremely powerful, providing either a boost to your attack or heightening your defense. They are the combination of fashion and practicality." The serving girl smiled.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, he glanced at the serving girl. Her words seemed to be spoken to Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er. This beautiful serving girl was truly extremely intelligent, using such a method to introduce these things to them.

"I do feel like taking a tour. Are you willing to guide us around? I will naturally pay you some compensation." Qin Wentian laughed. He did indeed need a guide around here so as to better understand Time City as well as the Convention of the Myriad Realms.

"If sir really needs a guide, I'm happy to serve. It's just that Sir can also see that I'm very busy today. I can only accept this appointment tomorrow." The serving girl bowed.

"Sure." Qin Wentian nodded.

"Ye Zi shall wait for Sir here at this place tomorrow." The serving girl bowed again to Qin Wentian before she retreated.

"Senior brother, are you planning to buy some accessories for the sisters-in-law?" Jun Mengchen blinked. He then continued, "I felt that the serving girl is purposely hinting for sisters-in-law to go shopping."

"That's her intention exactly but we might as well take the chance to tour the city and broaden our horizons. Even if we don't shop for accessories, we should take a look to see if there are any places of interest here. So, how can we lack a guide?" Qin Wentian smiled. Jun Mengchen nodded his head. Nanfeng Yaoyue and the others smiled as they glanced at Qin Wentian. This fellow truly doted on Qing`er and Qingcheng a lot, he didn't mind spending huge amounts of capital on them!

Chapter 1758: Heaven Immortal Tower

During the second day, Ye Zi truly did show up and brought Qin Wentian and his group out of the inn.

This beautiful serving girl from the inn had a cultivation base at the immortal emperor realm and was very young too. If she was in Azure Mystic, she would definitely be an extremely dazzling character but in Time City, she actually was only a serving girl. This was the difference in worlds, the disparity was so great that one doesn't dare to imagine. Even the Southern Phoenix Matriarch felt somewhat surreal. When they had chosen to follow Qin Wentian then, they were only at the immortal emperor realm as well.

"Sir Qin, where do you wish to tour?" Ye Zi smiled at Qin Wentian. From the start to the end, she gave off a sense of amicability. Although her beauty could not be compared to Qing`er, Qingcheng, the Southern Phoenix Matriarch and the others, she still looked really nice when she smiled.

"Yesterday, didn't you tempt me purposely? Hinting at the divine weapons and accessories?" Qin Wentian smiled at Ye Zi.

"Oops, my intentions are exposed." Ye Zi revealed a mischievous smile. "Sir Qin, the vast majority of those who could bear to spend overlord-ranked world stones to enjoy a feast in the inn are usually outsiders who came here to participate in the Convention of the Myriad Realms and they are people who are more willing to spend. When I saw so many beautiful fairies around Sir Qin, I instantly thought that Sir Qin might have needs in these aspects so I intentionally said that. Doing so will enable me to earn some small commision as a guide as well. After all, Ye Zi isn't a cultivator with an impressive background, I can only depend on myself to earn cultivation resources. Sir Qin, please don't blame Ye Zi, alright?"

"If I blame you for that, I wouldn't have come today." Qin Wentian smiled. The people behind him all silently sighed. Seems like it wasn't so easy to be an immortal emperor here. Ye Zi was only doing this so she could continue to advance in her martial path.

"Many thanks Sir Qin for your understanding. You can find all sorts of divine weapons belonging to different ranks here in Time City. For the beautiful fairies, what you all need should be overlord-ranked weapons, right?"

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. Although Di Tian was proficient in weaponsmithing, he still didn't have the capabilities to forge overlord-ranked special treasures such as clothing and accessories. Only world overlords who had immersed themselves in weaponsmithing for long periods of time would be able to do so.

"In that case, let me bring you guys to the Heaven Immortal Tower. There are many beautiful and exquisite divine weapons and treasures there." Ye Zi spoke.

"Just lead the way then." Qin Wentian nodded. He then asked, "Ye Zi, how many world overlords will there be participating in the Convention of the Myriad Realms?"

He was filled with anticipation for this. Ye Zi was a cultivator that has lived here for quite a long time and would surely know of much information. She should be much more familiar with the Convention than him.

"For the Convention of the Myriad Realms, they would issue invitations to the ten thousand realms under the heavens. The heavens naturally refers to the four lower worlds controlled by the Mystic Region. The experts from the four lower worlds would all come. In addition, world overlords from all the other realms inside the Mystic Region would also participate, and there are often many unaffiliated cultivators as well. Not only them, those experts from major powers or those who control endless territories would be here too. The number of living things in the Mystic Region is so numerous that they are countless. Ye Zi also has no way to imagine how many experts would be participating in the convention."

Ye Zi's tone turned solemn. Qin Wentian could understand why as well. Just a single Qingcheng Realm already contained so many territories under it, with a countless number of living things. How vast would the Mystic Region be? How vast would the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms be? This was simply unimaginable.

"The four lower worlds controlled by the Mystic Region would participate as well?" Qin Wentian mumbled.

"Mhm, the Eastern Royal Heavens, Scarlet Sun Heavens, Wuji Heavens and Beginning Heavens. These four immortal realms are under the control of the three supreme hegemonic powers in the Mystic Region. Their positions are very high, even higher than many of the subordinate forces under the three hegemonic powers, and they are very strong as well, nurturing many experts. After the passage of so many years, all those talented individuals are directly absorbed into the major powers in the Mystic Region to cultivate. They naturally would come and participate in the Convention of the Myriad Realms." Ye Zi spoke.

"In that case, what about the experts from the other seven regions? Will they send people here to participate in the Convention of the Myriad Realms of the Mystic Region?" Qin Wentian casually asked.

"Ordinary world overlords wouldn't come. But some of the more powerful world overlords from the other regions might come to take a look at the strength of overlords in the Mystic Region. After all, the Convention of the Myriad Realms is a rare opportunity." Ye Zi continued to explain. Qin Wentian nodded his head. After all, world overlords were the strongest existences below heavenly deities.

Existences at the heavenly deity level stood at the peak of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and it was a given that they were a minority. Despite the vastness of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms and the countless number of living beings, there weren't too many heavenly deities. World Overlords were the backbone of each respective region.

As they traveled, Qin Wentian asked many questions. Ye Zi naturally satisfied his curiosity the best she could, gradually allowing Qin Wentian to have a deeper understanding of the Convention of the Myriad Realms. This was one of the reasons why he hired Ye Zi as a guide. He needed to know this information. Asking from someone who knew them was the simplest method for him to learn the info.

Qin Wentian wanted to know too many things. And unknowingly, a long time passed and they had arrived at their target destination, the Heaven Immortal Tower.

To gain entry into the Heaven Immortal Tower, one has to pay an ordinary world stone first for each person that entered. This was to guarantee that not everyone can enter freely. There were simply too many people in Time City. If there were no restrictions, a place like the Heaven Immortal Tower would be packed to the brim, how would they do any business then? The vast majority of people would only be here to window-shop.

Only those who could disregard the cost of one world stone would have the ability to transact in the Heaven Immortal Tower.

After Qin Wentian entered the Heaven Immortal Tower, he was swiftly shocked by the dazzling lineup. Only the word 'luxurious' could describe this place and it was extremely gigantic, with all sorts of treasures. In addition, all these treasures were specially designed for women.

There were different styles of immortal dresses, all of them extremely beautiful. Qing`er, Mo Qingcheng and the other females usually wouldn't admire these. But now, they were all attracted by these clothes and accessories. After all, which female didn't like to be more beautiful?

"This necklace is so pretty." Mo Qingcheng walked towards a divine treasure in the form of a necklace as she spoke to Qing'er. "If sister Qing'er wears this, she would surely be even more beautiful."

"I won't wear it." Qing`er simply replied, feeling somewhat shy at all the attention. It was true that she has never worn any accessories. Her natural beauty was more than enough, she was beautiful even without needing the aid of rouge and powder.

"What uses does this necklace have?" Qin Wentian asked the serving girl at the counter. This necklace was really pretty, it was formed from crystals of a sky-blue color and exuded a sense of pureness.

"This necklace is named 'Ocean's Heart.' Ocean waves would manifest once this is activated, protecting the wearer, capable of withstanding strikes from ordinary world overlords without being shattered. It can be used until the energy within has completely drained away." The maiden smiled as she introduced.

"I feel that this Ocean's Heart is more suitable for Youhuang given her demeanor." Qin Wentian smiled. Beiming Youhuang froze, casting a glance at Qin Wentian. When she saw many people looking at her, she couldn't help but blush and lower her head. Qin Wentian actually said this accessory suited her in front of so many people? What would these people think?

Qin Wentian did indeed feel that the Ocean's Heart was more compatible to Youhuang's beauty. In addition, it also had defensive properties and could compliment Youhuang's world overlord cultivation realm. In the future, she would have another defensive item to use during combat, there were no other thoughts in it. However, Beiming

Youhuang's reactions caused Qin Wentian to feel somewhat awkward. He could only glance at everyone else, "What does everyone else think?"

"I also feel this is quite suitable for Youhuang." Nanfeng Yaoyue smiled as she saw this scene, speaking out to diffuse the awkwardness.

"Mhm, now thinking about it, I also feel this is more suitable for sister Youhuang compared to sister Qing`er." Mo Qingcheng smiled at Qin Wentian. When Qin Wentian saw the smile on Mo Qingcheng's face, he suddenly felt a little guilty in his heart for some reason. But truthfully, he really didn't think too much about his earlier words, he really felt that it was more suitable for Youhuang.

"What's the price for this?" Mo Qingcheng directly asked.

"Three hundred ordinary world stones. If you have extraordinary-grade world stones, there would be another price." The serving girl smiled. Mo Qingcheng glanced at Qin Wentian, "You should be able to afford it, right?"

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded, he did have many world stones with him.

"Alright then, we want this necklace." Mo Qingcheng smiled, directly confirming the purchase. Those people at the back glanced at Mo Qingcheng, their gazes filled with admiration. With a maiden of her character, no wonder Qin Wentian would love her so deeply.

After buying it, Qin Wentian gifted the necklace to Youhuang, causing Beiming Youhuang to feel a little embarrassed. However, she eventually accepted it and wore it. As they continued walking, she kept her head lowered, no longer having the mood to admire the treasures in the Heaven Immortal Tower.

"Qingcheng, Qing`er, do you guys see anything you like?" Qin Wentian asked. This time around, Ye Qianyu didn't come with them. After all, someone needed to stay behind to manage the Qingcheng Sainthall.

"I don't need anything." Qing`er shook her head.

"No way, how about that dress over there?" Mo Qingcheng pulled Qing`er ahead, staring at a dress floating in the air. The threads of this dress seemed incredibly soft and light, it radiated a faint jade-green luster, and was extremely beautiful.

"These two fairies have good judgement. This is known as the divine concealment dress, possessing the ability to allow the user to hide away and would greatly increase one's defense. If it isn't destroyed, one can use this repeatedly with no problems." The serving girl introduced.

"How beautiful, how many world stones does this cost?" Mo Qingcheng directly asked.

"20,000 ordinary world stones." The serving girl smiled. Mo Qingcheng's eyes widened in shock, she then weakly glanced at Qin Wentian.

"Let us go." Qing`er softly spoke. The price was too terrifying.

Mo Qingcheng felt a little reluctance. She stretched out her hands, wanting to touch the dress a little.

"Don't touch it!" The smile on the serving girl's face suddenly vanished as she berated. This caused Mo Qingcheng to tremble as her hand froze in the air.

"My apologies, the merchandise here is all for sale and cannot be touched casually in case they are damaged." The serving girl smiled. However, the tyrannical aura she radiated earlier had frightened Mo Qingcheng. To think that this serving girl was actually at the empyrean realm. At that instant, an overwhelming might had crushed down on her.

Also, Mo Qingcheng could feel that the smile of this serving girl now had a hint of disdain in it. After all, she was only at the immortal emperor realm, no wonder the serving girl would display such an attitude to her.

"Sorry." Mo Qingcheng retracted her hands and apologized.

"Miss Qingcheng, are you alright?" Ye Zi hurriedly ran over. The tyrannical shout earlier from that serving girl here had startled many people, causing many gazes to turn over. Qin Wentian walked over, his gaze was somewhat cold when he stared at the serving girl. As an empyrean, the serving girl could easily prevent Mo Qingcheng from touching the dress, she could also use gentler methods or just tell her nicely. By berating her so loudly in public, it was clearly an act of rudeness. Although there was a smile on the serving girl's face after that, Qin Wentian could see a hint of disdain in it. Most probably, Qingcheng could sense the same thing as well.

During his journey, he had always protected Qingcheng very carefully. Although her cultivation realm wasn't able to catch up to him, he didn't mind that at all and still loved her deeply. Even when he was here to participate in the Convention of the Myriad Realms, he even brought her together with him. Who would have thought that she would actually be berated by someone here!

Chapter 1759: Making trouble?

Right now, Qin Wentian's gaze was extremely cold. The serving girl naturally saw it as well but she continued to maintain a professional-looking smile. Although this wasn't sincere at all, it was hard for anyone to pinpoint anything wrong with it.

She naturally could sense that this young man before her was a world overlord but she didn't care at all. She has worked here for such a long time, were world overlords really very rare? She could see such existences every day. After all, the customers of the Heaven Immortal Tower were mostly world overlords.

In addition, because the treasures she was selling were priced above 10,000 world stones, the world overlords she came in contact with were all extraordinary characters. There was no way an ordinary world overlord would be able to afford them.

Hence, to her, although world overlords are seniors, she didn't really fear or respect them as she had seen them too frequently. Also, the background of the Heaven Immortal Tower was immensely powerful. Just here alone, there were quite a few world overlords managing things.

"What do you mean by that?" Qin Wentian coldly asked.

"Senior what are you referring to?" The serving girl smiled in reply, pretending what happened earlier didn't happen at all.

"What do you think?" Qin Wentian's voice grew even colder.

"Senior are you referring to that incident earlier?" The serving girl smiled. "I apologize. This dress truly cannot be touched, if it's even damaged the slightest, it might affect the desire of other customers to purchase it. This is a rule of our shop. Senior, please don't take offense."

"If customers are not allowed to touch it, you could have told her so. Given your cultivation base, there are so many gentler methods you could employ yet you resorted to scolding a customer? Is this an attitude the employees here ought to have?" Qin Wentian questioned.

"Under the urgency of the moment, I could only do what I have done. Earlier, I've already apologized." The serving girl was still smiling.

"Is this the attitude you should have when apologizing?" Qin Wentian stared at her.

"Senior, what do you want me to do then?" The serving girl was also beginning to get angry. She inclined her head and directly matched gazes with Qin Wentian.

Many people gathered here. Ye Zi, who was at the side, felt panic when she saw this scene. She didn't expect a conflict to occur, this was something she didn't want to see the most. She naturally could already feel that although Qin Wentian was amiable and approachable, he was in reality a very proud person that also values sentimental emotions. She could sense he loved his wives deeply and the people around him all treated him extremely respectfully. For such a character, he would surely be the overlord of a region somewhere and had an extremely high status. Since his wife was being berated by someone, how would he not ask for an explanation?

However, the Heaven Immortal Tower wasn't an ordinary place. It was fine if this serving girl apologized sincerely but seeing her attitude, it didn't seem like she was going to apologize. Ye Zi was also worried that this serving girl might have an impressive background which is why she was arranged to work here in the Heaven Immortal Tower. After all, the employees here all have terrifying backgrounds, it was impossible for ordinary characters to work here in a place envied by all.

If this was the case, this matter would surely be blown out of proportion since neither wants to compromise. Although Qin Wentian had logic and reason on his side, this matter wasn't something that could be brushed off just like that.

"Bow and apologize to my wife. This matter shall be considered concluded then." Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

"I'm sorry but I can't comply with senior's request." The serving girl replied in a domineering manner.

A heavy pressure radiated from Qin Wentian, boring down on the serving girl. The serving girl only felt like a mountain was crushing her, her expression instantly became extremely ugly. "I'm merely doing my job in accordance to the rules. Why must senior bully me like this? Are you intentionally trying to create trouble here?"

She suddenly counter-attacked verbally, saying that Qin Wentian came here for the purpose of creating trouble. Also, given that Qin Wentian was at the World Overlord Realm and she was just a woman at the empyrean realm, it did look like Qin Wentian was being too tyrannical and was bullying her.

"Esteemed customer, what are you doing?" A voice rang out. With a flash of light, a middle-aged man in black appeared. There were two others behind him and all of them were staring at Qin Wentian. The man in black was one of the managers from the Heaven Immortal Tower that was responsible for maintaining discipline and order. Usually, there wouldn't be any disturbance in the Heaven Immortal Tower and he would normally be in meditation. It was just that since there was a disturbance that he came out today.

"Three world overlords." Qin Wentian glanced over, he could instantly tell that these three were characters at the world overlord realm. This was especially so for the middle-aged man in black, he gave off an extraordinary feeling and should be pretty powerful. If not, although the Heaven Immortal Tower has a powerful background, there might occasionally be troublesome matters and they would need experts strong enough to handle such things.

"Old Huo, earlier this miss here tried to touch the divine dress and was stopped by me verbally in a gentle manner. This senior then came over to question me about it and even wanted me to bow and apologize." The serving girl spoke. Old Huo nodded his head. "Esteemed customer, there are indeed some valuable treasures in our Heaven Immortal Tower which are forbidden for the customers to touch them. Hopefully sir would be able to understand this."

"Stopped verbally in a gentle manner? That's clearly berating her, you even exuded your aura, how impressive is that? Yet, you are speaking like you are the one who is wronged now." Mo Qingcheng's matter was supposedly handled by Qin Wentian. But right now, Jun Mengchen could no longer stand this girl. This person truly knew how to act.

"What's going on?" Old Huo asked the serving girl.

"I didn't do that on purpose, I only shouted out because of the urgency of the situation, hence the volume of my voice is somewhat higher. But I've already apologized." The serving girl continued. No matter what, she was still an empyrean, she naturally wouldn't be foolish enough to use words to insult Mo Qingcheng. However, in her heart and in her gaze, Qin Wentian and everyone else could feel contempt in them.

"She was indeed in the wrong but since she has already apologized, I hope that sir won't be calculative about this matter. If this has spoiled esteemed customer's mood, I'll beg for your forgiveness." Old Huo nodded at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was also a world overlord, although the Heaven Immortal Tower didn't really care about this, they wouldn't intentionally offend a paying customer as well. If not, their reputation would surely suffer damage if word of this incident spread out. Hence, some polite words still had to be said on the surface.

"In that case, you mean that she berating my wife and even exuding her aura to scare my wife can all be settled with just an apology? Also, when she was apologizing, she still held her head up high with a smile on her face. Is that the attitude she should have when apologizing?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Sir, please forgive us for that. After this, I shall properly teach her so she will change her attitude." Old Huo replied. But he might as well not have said anything. His underlying meaning was that you should stop pursuing this matter and I will discipline her properly in the future. However, who knows what would happen if Qin Wentian stops pursuing this matter?

"Wentian, forget it." Qingcheng pulled Qin Wentian's sleeve and spoke in a low voice. She knew what sort of place this was. The experts here in Time City were as numerous as the clouds. World Overlords could be seen everywhere.

The Heaven Immortal Tower could take out so many treasures to transact, it was clear that their foundations were extremely deep. She naturally didn't wish for Qin Wentian to get into trouble for the sake of her.

Qin Wentian turned and gazed tenderly at Qingcheng as he softly spoke, "Let me handle this."

Mo Qingcheng started, she felt a warm current flowing through her heart and no longer said anything more.

"So, you mean that this matter should be settled just like this?" Qin Wentian glanced at Old Huo. Upon seeing that Qin Wentian was bent on this matter, Old Huo's brows began to furrow. There were many experts gathered here now and this wasn't a good influence to their Heaven Immortal Tower's reputation. He then spoke, "Sir, why must you act like this to affect my Heaven Immortal Tower's business?"

"Seems like I was wrong." Qin Wentian suddenly gave a self-mocking laugh. After that, he took out an interspatial ring of treasures and handed it over to Old Huo. "Take a look and check if the treasures within are worth 20,000 world stones."

Old Huo started. Qin Wentian's attitude suddenly seemed to have undergone a complete change. However, he still received the interspatial ring and with a check of his immortal sense, he soon nodded, "This should be enough at first glance, I will get someone to count it properly."

"There's no need to. As for that concealment divine dress, I'm buying it now." Qin Wentian pointed to the divine dress floating in the air. This scene caused many people to have a look of interest on their faces. What an imposing showing of wealth, directly tossing out 20,000 world stones to buy this for his woman.

Even the expression of that serving girl changed slightly, this has truly caused her to be taken aback. Before this when Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng heard the price, they directly said that they should leave. At that time, she thought that it was because they were frightened away by the high price. Who would have thought that this young man could really afford it?

"Why are you not bringing it to me yet?" Qin Wentian glanced at the serving girl. The serving girl smiled. Qin Wentian was using such a method to gain back some face? In any case, she did make quite a lot from the commission of selling this dress. She smiled and took the divine dress, wanting to pass it over to Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian didn't stretch his hand out to receive it. His ice-cold eyes stared at the serving girl, "Did I say you could use your hands to touch it before passing it over to me?"

The serving girl started. After that, her expression changed as though she realized something. However, before she could react, she only saw a palm smacking towards her.

"Pa…!"

A clear sound rang out as the serving girl was directly flung through the air, slamming into a wall. Her face, which was originally extremely beautiful, instantly turned red as an imprint of a palm and five fingers could be seen. And that divine concealment dress in her hands had already reached Qin Wentian's hands.

"Sir, how dare you. You actually dared to create trouble in my Heaven Immortal Tower." Old Huo coldly spoke. Qin Wentian also unleashed his aura, causing the area to be cloaked in brilliant light. He stood before the three world overlords, enduring their pressure while he replied, "You must be joking, right? Before this, the divine concealment dress belonged to the Heaven Immortal Tower and my wife was berated just because she stretched her hand out, wanting to touch it and was pressured by the serving girl's aura. Now that this treasured dress belongs to me, that woman actually used her hands to touch it? I also reacted due to the urgency of the situation and accidentally taught her a lesson. Or could it be that the status of a serving girl of the Heaven Immortal Tower is even higher than that of a customer?"

Qin Wentian's words completely stunned Old Huo, he had no way to rebut although he felt the logic was a little warped. Could it be that a serving girl of your shop can do what she wanted but I cannot?

This was telling Old Huo that since you don't discipline your people, let me help you to discipline them then. It's just that using 20,000 world stones just to teach a serving girl a lesson was truly extravagant to the extreme.

Ye Zi, who was at the side, felt her heart pounding rapidly. This fellow Qin Wentian was truly too crazy. This place was the Heaven Immortal Tower. She felt panic in her heart. If this matter was blown out of proportion, it would be extremely disadvantageous to Qin Wentian. Now, she felt some regret at bringing Qin Wentian's group here.

"That slut naturally cannot be compared to me." That serving girl stood up. Her expression was like ice as fearsome flames flickered in her gaze. She was actually slapped in public by someone. What a great humiliation was this? Since she was humiliated so badly, she couldn't care less about rationale any longer!

Chapter 1760: Transcendent-level World Overlord?

This man was just a world overlord. Although she was a serving girl, she was indeed from an impressive background just like what Ye Zi had guessed. Since she was able to work in the Heaven Immortal Tower, she would naturally have an extraordinary background.

In the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, there were many major powers that were half-clan and half-sect. They treated their clan as the core but they wouldn't neglect accepting disciples with great talent. They had subordinates, disciples and even servants. After the passage of countless years, these would all evolve into major powers.

The major power behind the Heaven Immortal Tower was precisely like that. It was an extremely famous power named the Dragon Pool Manor and the experts within were as common as clouds. They even had several experts at the world overlord realm. The Dragon Pool Manor Lord was also the clan leader of the Dragon Pool Manor with the surname Longyuan. Their authority was immense, everyone in Time City knew of the Dragon Pool Manor.

This serving girl was named Jin Zhi, from the idiom 'golden branch, jade leaves' which denoted a peerless beauty. She was indeed beautiful but originally, she didn't have an impressive background. However, by using some methods and depending on her beauty, she got acquainted with the Dragon Pool Manor which was the power behind the Heaven Immortal Tower. Right now, her status was the girlfriend of one of the younger and extremely talented world overlords of the Dragon Pool Manor. This was the reason why she, who only had an ordinary background, could work in a place like this and earn high wages for the sake of her own cultivation.

Naturally, although it was said that she was the world overlord's girlfriend, in reality she also understood that that world overlord was treating her so nicely because right now, he was still infatuated with her. As for her joining the Dragon Pool Manor, that was only a fantasy. For those females who can marry into the Dragon Pool Manor, they had to be from extraordinary backgrounds. For her, she could at most only become a concubine.

But even so, she was still considered the girlfriend of a genius world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor. Even Old Huo from the management of the Heaven Immortal Tower had to give that world overlord some face. This was why he spoke to Qin Wentian earlier and didn't make the serving girl apologize.

However, she was actually slapped by Qin Wentian in the view of the public. What sort of humiliation was this? This was why she scolded Mo Qingcheng as a 'slut,' how could Mo Qingcheng be able to be compared to her? Mo Qingcheng was only the woman of an ordinary world overlord, how could she be comparable to her, a woman of a young genius world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor?

And her words...what would Qin Wentian feel after he heard this?

In an instant, a terrifying pressure enveloped the vast Heaven Immortal Tower. Qin Wentian icily stared at Jin Zhi. At this instant, killing intent could be seen in his eyes. An expert at the world overlord realm, at the instant he unleashed killing intent, no matter how arrogant Jin Zhi was, she also couldn't help but to tremble. However, she still held a hint of stubbornness in her gaze as she stared at Qin Wentian. At the corner of her mouth, blood was still flowing from the force of that slap.

Old Huo also sensed Qin Wentian's killing intent. His silhouette flashed as he appeared before Qin Wentian, blocking Jin Zhi from him. He then spoke to Qin Wentian, "Sir, you went too overboard."

"Her life, is it for sale?" Qin Wentian stared at Old Huo as he coldly asked. In an instant, the entire atmosphere of the tower turned extremely tense. Qin Wentian wanted to buy the life of this serving girl?

Even for Old Huo, he felt a sense of pressure when he saw Qin Wentian's gaze. He then spoke, "The Heaven Immortal Tower doesn't wish to quarrel with our customers, but we hope that Sir can be more respectful."

Right now, he was silently cursing at Jin Zhi in his heart. For no good reason at all, why did she have to berate a customer? Now that such a commotion was caused, although their Heaven Immortal Tower didn't fear anything, they didn't want to face such matters at all. Even though this customer was an outsider world overlord and couldn't be compared to the Dragon Pool Manor, he isn't someone Jin Zhi, who was just an empyrean, could afford to offend. Eventually, the person who had to settle this, was still him.

Also, from the aura this young world overlord was exuding, Old Huo could sense that this young man was someone extraordinary.

"Respect?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. "Did you not hear her words earlier?"

At this moment, Jin Zhi's expression turned extremely ugly to behold. She took out her messaging crystal and sent her immortal sense in, "In the Heaven Immortal Tower, there's a world overlord who has humiliated me due to his woman, wanting to buy my life."

"Understood." A calm voice rang out in her mind. After that, Old Huo suddenly frowned because the same voice that rang out in the girl's mind, rang out in his just a moment later. "Old Huo, settle the incident at the Heaven Immortal Tower."

"Right." Old Huo replied, cursing Jin Zhi in his heart. This matter still fell to him to settle.

After keeping his messaging crystal, Old Huo looked at Qin Wentian, "Sir, you are the one who first injured her. This is why she cursed due to a fit of anger. If you want to trace who is wrong or right, you are the one who made the first move. But in any case, I no longer wish to pursue who is right and who is wrong in this matter. Let's just forget about it. Sir, please leave."

This sentence was clearly wanting to expel Qin Wentian from the premises. Also, Old Huo's tone had clearly turned more domineering.

Qin Wentian stared at Old Huo. Earlier, that serving girl took out a messaging crystal to send a message and after that Old Huo also took out his messaging crystal to receive a message. How could he not understand what was going on? Evidently, the serving girl's background was able to influence Old Huo. No wonder it was so difficult when he wanted the serving girl to apologize properly earlier. This must be the reason why this serving girl dared to be so arrogant towards him with only an empyrean-level cultivation base and said sorry just for the sake of saying sorry.

Ye Zi panicked when she saw this scene. If trouble truly occurred, the one at a disadvantage would definitely be Qin Wentian. Hence, she transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian, "Sir Qin, I shouldn't have brought you guys here. The power behind the Heaven Immortal Tower is known as the Dragon Pool Manor. This manager Old Huo is someone from there and he clearly has received orders from them earlier. Also, this woman should also have a connection with them too. Sir Qin, you came from afar, it's extremely tough to deal with the Dragon Pool Manor...why don't we retreat temporarily and head to some other places to make Miss Qingcheng feel better?"

This was her trying to persuade Qin Wentian tactfully to give up. She believed that Qin Wentian would understand her worlds.

After all, there are no fools among world overlords.

But would Qin Wentian leave?

He brought Qingcheng with him to tour Time City. Originally, his mood was excellent but now that they encountered such a thing, what would he feel?

Qingcheng had always accompanied him on his journey. The hundreds of years of time they shared together, from their particle world to Azure Mystic to now, the feelings he had for Qingcheng were still as blazingly hot as ever.

How difficult was this? The heavens and earth might have changed but the emotions they had for each other would never change. Through this period of time, he had never lost his temper at this woman whom he loved before, she was the apple of his eye. But now, his woman was first viewed with contempt by the serving girl and was even scolded as a slut? What was Qin Wentian feeling now?

What did he cultivate for?

He had cultivated up until this level and seeing that his wife was being insulted so badly by someone today, Ye Zi actually wanted him to leave?

Even if he came back in the future and obtained revenge, what meaning would there be? The scar of this wound would still remain in Qingcheng's heart.

If someone insulted him, he could close one eye. But this implicated his wives, in that case, there was no room for negotiation.

"Are you chasing me away?" Qin Wentian stared at Old Huo.

"You made trouble in the Heaven Immortal Tower and even injured one of the employees here. I should have thrown you out originally. But because you are an esteemed customer, I decided to take one step back to compromise. Sir, if you continue to act like this, things won't be too good for both sides. Let me repeat one last time, the Heaven Immortal Tower doesn't wish to quarrel with our customers but if you continue to be stubborn…" Old Huo's gaze turned cold. Jin Zhi has already informed that young master and that young master had also gave him a command to settle this. Old Huo right now only wanted Qin Wentian to leave here.

"You are threatening me now, right?" Qin Wentian stared at Old Huo. "I'll also say this one last time. I initially came to the Heaven Immortal Tower to shop for items yet I actually encountered such a thing. I had no intention to create trouble here, but for that serving girl who insulted my wife, I have to bring her away."

"Sir, this means that you are intent on creating trouble?" Old Huo's aura at the world overlord realm erupted forth. The other two world overlords on his side did so as well. Their pressure instantly enveloped the entire Heaven Immortal Tower. Those in the surroundings who were watching all had expressions of interest on their faces and there should be quite a few world overlords among them too. Who would have thought that this young man would be so audacious to really create trouble in the Heaven Immortal Tower for the sake of a woman? Ordinary characters wouldn't have his courage.

Or could it be that this young man didn't know about the Heaven Immortal Tower's background? But even if he didn't know, he should be able to speculate something since he is a realmlord. How could an ordinary power be able to control a place like the Heaven Immortal Tower?

Qin Wentian no longer glanced at Old Huo. His gaze turned to Jin Zhi and he spoke, "I don't care who you are or what your identity is. I won't kill you as well. However, you have to pay a price for the words you spoke earlier."

After speaking, he took a step forward. Old Huo and the two other world overlords released their world hearts and for a period of time, three sources of fearsome pressure permeated the atmosphere at the same time. Almost simultaneously, Qin Wentian's world heart was also released. In just an instant, the faces of Old Huo and the other two overlords all changed. A strange sense appeared in their hearts. At this moment, they actually didn't dare to make any reckless moves.

Qin Wentian stretched out his hand and grabbed Jin Zhi through the air. After that, Jin Zhi seemed to be imprisoned in a sealed space and slowly flew towards Qin Wentian. Her expression drastically changed as she screamed at him, "YOU DARE TO TOUCH ME?!"

Qin Wentian only calmly glanced at her. After that, he turned and departed. He spoke to Mo Qingcheng and the others, "Let's leave."

As he spoke, he directly turned and walked away. Jin Zhi was floating in the air and her body was imprisoned by a terrifying formless energy, floating after Qin Wentian.

"This…" Everyone felt a little dazed when they saw this scene. What ability was this?

What was Old Huo and the two other world overlords doing? They actually didn't stop him?

Ye Zi's expression revealed anxiousness. Qin Wentian actually chose to act. She had no way to stop Qin Wentian. Earlier, she had already said what she needed to say but Qin Wentian was still so domineering, deciding to bring Jin Zhi away in front of the face of these three world overlords.

But what made her shocked was that these three overlords actually didn't obstruct him any further? Even the powerful Old Huo didn't move.

Jun Mengchen and the others turned their heads back and coldly glanced at the three world overlords. After that, their group actually departed the Heaven Immortal Tower just like that, causing the people in the surroundings to stare at this scene dumbfoundedly.

Old Huo and the two other world overlords still stood at their original location as their expressions constantly changed.

"What was that world heart ability?" That immense surge of formless energy had finally dissipated. Old Huo heaved a sigh of relief as he transmitted a question to the two others.

"No idea, but that was truly terrifying." The expressions of the two other world overlords turned ashen. Things were getting troublesome. The woman Jin Zhi insulted might be the woman of a transcendent-level world overlord!

Chapter 1761: Characters from all Around

After Qin Wentian and his group left the Heaven Immortal Tower, their good mood was completely destroyed and naturally, they didn't have any feeling to continue touring Time City and chose to return to their inn.

Jin Zhi was at the empyrean level but she was imprisoned in a space bubble behind Qin Wentian and couldn't move at all. That terrifying pressure caused her to feel like breaking down. She understood that with a single thought, Qin Wentian could cause her to die instantly right now.

At this moment, she felt both rage and fear. Rage because Qin Wentian actually dared to act against her and used such a method to forcibly bring her away. He was so tyrannical that Old Huo and the other two world overlords didn't dare to protect her. She naturally understood what this meant, Old Huo felt that none of them were able to stop Qin Wentian. Or to simply put, the disparity in their strengths was too great. If not, since her boyfriend had given the order, how would Old Huo not do his best?

Hence, this was why she felt fear now. She was worried that Qin Wentian might really do something to her.

On their way back, many people glanced over at the imprisoned her. These included those customers from the Heaven Immortal Tower who followed them out to watch the drama. She felt that she was incomparably humiliated due to being paraded around like this in public.

"I'm the girlfriend of a genius world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor. Do you understand what you are doing? If you still don't release me, you and your woman both have to pay an unimaginable price." Jin Zhi spoke with anger, she wasn't able to endure the gazes from the crowd.

"I don't care whose woman are you. But since you've insulted my wife, you will be the one who pays a price for your words." Qin Wentian icily spoke. Ye Zi, who was at the side, felt her heart tremble when she heard that, she didn't expect Qin Wentian to be so domineering, directly bringing Jin Zhi away from the Heaven Immortal Tower, not giving face at all. In addition, he completely ignored the three other world overlords and none of them dared to stop him as well.

"What sort of power is the Dragon Pool Manor?" Qin Wentian asked Ye Zi. For Qingcheng, he didn't mind creating trouble. But no matter what, he had to understand the strength of the major power he offended. He wouldn't really lose all his rationale just because he was angered. By doing this, the most important reason was for Qingcheng. He wasn't able to endure some things. That was his reverse scale. And as for the secondary reason behind his actions, it was naturally because of his confidence in himself.

Ye Zi had a face filled with black lines, she was completely speechless. Earlier, I've reminded you to take a step back. You don't even know what sort of major power the Dragon Pool Manor is and you directly dared to stir up trouble?

Naturally, it was impossible for her to say such words. Hence, she simply shook her head and replied, "The Dragon Pool Manor is one of the peak powers in Time City. Their experts are as numerous as the clouds and they have several world overlords. The Dragon Pool Manor Lord is also the clan leader of the Dragon Pool Manor, he has long already entered the world overlord realm countless years ago and is now already at the peak of this cultivation realm. As to how strong he is, I'm not too sure either. After all, I've never met such a character, I've only heard rumors about him before."

World Overlords cannot be classified into different tiers of cultivation, this was why it was very hard to describe one's strength clearly. In any case, he should be very powerful or the Dragon Pool Manor wouldn't be able to become a peak power.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian calmly nodded.

"Did you hear it yet? Quickly release me. If you release me now, maybe your punishment won't be so heavy. If not, you won't be able to imagine the consequences." Jin Zhi, who was floating behind, coldly spoke.

Qin Wentian didn't even glance at her. He only icily replied, "Do you truly have no idea about your current circumstances? As the girlfriend of one of the Dragon Pool Manor's World Overlords, you are actually working as a serving girl in the Heaven Immortal Tower. It's evident that you don't have any impressive background. Could it be that you assume after such a huge matter has happened, after you had thrown all his face, that world overlord would still admit that you are his girlfriend? Does he not want face any more?"

Jin Zhi felt chills suddenly when she heard Qin Wentian's words. She wasn't a foolish person and in truth, she can be considered very intelligent. When Qin Wentian designed that little trick earlier causing her to use her hands to pass the dress over, she already knew that she had fallen into a trap. And now, with Qin Wentian's reminder, how could she not understand her current situation?

Just like what Qin Wentian has said, she was a serving girl in the Heaven Immortal Tower and from this, it was clear that she wasn't from any impressive background and wouldn't have any chance to enter the Dragon Pool Manor in the future. Also, now that such a thing happened today and she was forcibly brought away by Qin Wentian in public, this was truly an extremely embarrassing matter. She, whose status was originally already not high, still wished that she could be that world overlord's girlfriend? Even the Dragon Pool Manor couldn't afford to lose so much face, right? It was evident that the world overlord would break up with her. In fact, he might even not recognize her existence and would treat her as an ordinary serving girl from now on.

"Even so, your actions today have already offended him to the max." Jin Zhi's expression grew somewhat malevolent. Even if she wasn't going to be recognized as the world overlord's girlfriend, how could Qin Wentian have a good end?

"Ridiculous to the extreme." Qin Wentian mocked. "Do you really think that just for your sake alone, the entire Dragon Pool Manor would mobilize their forces? As for your so-called 'boyfriend,' although I've never met him before and don't know who he is, but seeing that he even wants a woman like you, the strength he possesses shouldn't be too great."

These words were an insult to Jin Zhi, and it was also a sign of his confidence.

The fear in Jin Zhi's heart grew even more intense. She suddenly felt regret. It was possible that she might have to pay a very high price for her earlier actions, even to the extent where all her earlier efforts in getting her into her current position were going to be wasted. Also, there were many beauties around Qin Wentian. Leaving aside their strength, none of their beauty was inferior to hers. No wonder he dared to say words such as 'seeing that he even wants a woman like you.' This was great contempt with regards to her.

Although she thought like this in her heart, she didn't want to admit it. She still held hope and her gaze turned even more venomous.

The gaze which Ye Zi used to look at Qin Wentian gradually changed. She discovered that she might have underestimated this outsider world overlord. His domineering behavior wasn't because of impulse, it was also because of his confidence.

The news of what happened in the Heaven Immortal Tower swiftly circulated out. Through the usage of messaging crystals, many people in Time City learned of this quickly. The circulation of the news was so swift that even the inn Qin Wentian was staying was discovered by these busybodies. The inn was a famous one named the Ten Miles Inn. The price of lodgings and food there was very high and only world overlords would usually be able to afford to stay there.

Hence, more and more people decided to gather around the Ten Miles Inn. They wanted to see how the Dragon Pool Manor would handle this.

At this moment, there were still many customers inside the Heaven Immortal Tower. There was a particular group of people who had very outstanding auras. The people in the lead was a young man and a maiden. The young man was extremely young but his cultivation was unfathomably deep, at the world overlord realm. The maiden was just an empyrean but there was a group of followers, all at the world overlord realm standing behind them. From this, one could very well imagine how high their status is.

"I've already investigated clearly, they are staying in the Ten Miles Inn." The young man spoke to the maiden beside him. He was handsome and elegant and had an extraordinary appearance, with a magnificent bearing. The woman was even more striking, she had a sense of nobility and her beautiful eyes glowed with luster, sparkling like the stars. She also exuded an extraordinary demeanor.

"Little Princess, why are you suddenly so interested with regards to that world overlord?" The young man smiled and asked. They came to Time City and decided to head to the Heaven Immortal Tower because it was very famous. Who would have thought that they would witness the entire incident between the serving girl and Qin Wentian?

"Don't you feel that it's very interesting?" The maiden being addressed as 'little princess,' smiled brightly, causing the nearby people to be in a daze when they saw it.

"Don't tell me that you felt it's interesting because you saw that world overlord taking out 20,000 world stones for the sake of his wife? If little princess is fond of any treasures here, just let me know. I can take out 20,000 world stones too." The young man smiled.

"Stop currying favor with me." The maiden swept a glance at him, causing the young man to smile weakly. "I'd like to do so, sadly I don't have such an opportunity. I would only have a chance to act so domineeringly for the sake of a beauty then if there truly is someone who dares to stare at little princess in disdain."

A strange look appeared on the maiden's face. Everytime she came out, her father would send some people out with her to protect her. It was very rare for others to view her with disdain and contempt.

"Didn't you say that his world heart was extraordinary? He might be the same as you and have manifested a transcendent world heart. Just so coincidentally, he has already offended the Dragon Pool Manor. If he doesn't have any background and only came here to attend the Convention of the Myriad Realms, why don't we try to recruit him?" The maiden calmly spoke.

"Princess truly loves talents. It's just that little princess is still so young, why are you already so worried about things like this? You should just enjoy yourself and leave such troublesome matters to the elders to handle." The young man speechlessly spoke.

"You don't understand." A look of deep contemplation appeared in the beautiful eyes of the maiden. Earlier after the news about the reappearance of the ancient battlefield of ancient Azure Mystic, rumors were rife but some of these rumors had great implications. She once heard her elders discussing that in the near future, it was very possible that a huge commotion would shake the entire Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms.

"Right, I don't understand." The young man bitterly smiled and shook his head, staring at the maiden with a tender look along with unmasked admiration in his eyes.

"You don't need to understand as well. Your talent lies in cultivation, you should just focus on that." The maiden smiled brightly. She stared at the young man, "Let's go to the Ten Miles Inn for a look."

After that, the group of them left the Heaven Immortal Tower and headed in the direction of the Ten Miles Inn.

A serving girl of the Heaven Immortal Tower was forcibly brought away. Although this matter wasn't really that big, it wasn't that minor as well. This was equivalent to smacking the Heaven Immortal Tower's face and there would surely be some troubles in the future. Not only for this group, several others made their way towards the Ten Miles Inn as well.

At this moment, the Ten Miles Inn suddenly became extremely bustling. Naturally before this, the atmosphere of the courtyard outside the inn was already considered very lively. A manor could be seen near it and this manor was the residence of a world overlord where many people would often come by to pay a visit. They were all willing to wait in the courtyard for long periods of time even though the manor's master might not have any intentions to meet with them. What was even more terrifying was that of all these people who were waiting, they were all world overlords with no exceptions.

"What's going on?" Why is there suddenly so many people in the inn's surroundings?" Among the crowd, a world overlord suddenly frowned as he asked.

"Could it be that the news of Senior Absolute Beginning Overlord's residence being here was leaked?" Someone murmured. The people in the surroundings all nodded their heads respectively. This should be the only possibility. If that was the case, given Senior Absolute Beginning's temperament, he most probably wouldn't meet with them even more!

Chapter 1762: Surnamed Donghuang

At this moment, Qin Wentian was enjoying delicacies in a pavilion. He chatted leisurely with his friends and exuded an extremely carefree air like nothing has ever happened.

Jin Zhi stood at the side and served them. Qin Wentian didn't do anything to her, only telling her to serve tea and pour wine at the side. Before this, she refused to comply but Qin Wentian told her that if she didn't want to obey or tried to escape, he would directly cripple her cultivation base. Just with that single sentence, Jin Zhi was so frightened that she didn't dare to try anything funny and could only honestly obey his orders. However, her gaze when staring at them was extremely cold, like she was silently cursing them. She wanted to see how long Qin Wentian could enjoy life for.

"Senior brother, I feel extremely frustrated every time I see this woman. Why do you want to keep her here? Might as well cripple her cultivation directly." Jun Mengchen coldly spoke, staring at Jin Zhi. This was especially so when he saw how venomous Jin Zhi's gaze was. That truly spoiled the atmosphere and their mood. What sort of character was his senior brother? He had become the ruler of Azure Mystic with the title Heaven Empyrean. He stood high up in the air and had now even became the Qingcheng Realmlord in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. He even led all of them into the ancient battlefield and took on the ancient wills of heavenly deities as their masters.

This woman was just a lover of one of the world overlords from the Dragon Pool Manor. She actually dared to insult and humiliate Qingcheng? To his senior brother's wives, no one in the world would dare to show any disrespect. How dare this woman do so?

Honestly speaking, right now, the ancient will of heavenly deities still resided in some of their consciousness. Hence, Jun Mengchen didn't feel too much trepidation or fear although their opponent was supposedly an extremely strong power, the Dragon Pool Manor. Although his cultivation now was slightly lower, so what of it? That was only because of time. A mere Dragon Pool Manor really dared to antagonize them? At most, he would wait a few hundred or a thousand years later before he came back and annihilated them.

Jun Mengchen's words truly scared Jin Zhi. She could clearly sense the unmasked disgust and loathing Jun Mengchen felt for her. Instantly, the venomous look in her eyes was retracted somewhat, it was as though she was frightened that Qin Wentian would really listen to Jun Mengchen and directly cripple her.

Jun Mengchen grimly watched the change in her expression. Seems like his senior brother was still too kind. He then coldly mocked, "I wonder which world overlord became blind, even wanting a cheap and despicable woman like this, overestimating herself, thinking that she's someone lofty."

Ye Zi also sat at the side. When she heard that, her heart trembled as she was filled with shock. She initially thought that Qin Wentian was already domineering enough. Who would have thought that this extremely handsome looking young man named Jun Mengchen would be also so tyrannical. Although his cultivation base was only at the empyrean realm, he had an imposingness to his tone like he didn't care about this matter that happened today.

It was like although the power they had antagonized wasn't the Dragon Pool Manor. This was simply too crazy. Who were these people exactly? Could they be from some extremely powerful clans and sects?

How would they know that Qin Wentian and the others here had no backgrounds to speak of at all? If one really wanted to talk about backgrounds, they were enough to frighten everyone to death. After all, they had the ancient wills of heavenly deities in their consciousness.

"Sir. What arrogant words." Some others from another pavilion stared over, smiling at Jun Mengchen's group. "Earlier, we heard that someone created trouble at the Heavenly Immortal Tower and abducted a serving girl. Right now, many people are rushing to this inn. Most probably, that deed was done by you all, right? How audacious."

"It wasn't us creating trouble in the Heaven Immortal Tower, it was just that this serving girl was too impudent yet the Heaven Immortal Tower actually still wants to protect her. Could it be that you all think that the Heaven Immortal Tower's actions are logical?" Jun Mengchen stared back and spoke.

"We've already heard what happened. However, this world isn't something that logic holds sway over. Strength is everything. From your words, I guess that you guys have no understanding of the Dragon Pool Manor, right?" A person from that pavilion laughed.

"Sir, what do you want to say?" Qin Wentian glanced at the person who spoke as he asked.

"Nothing much. Since we are staying at the same inn, this can also be considered fate. Most probably, you guys came from outside to attend the Convention of the Myriad Realms, right? We are the same as well. However, we reached here earlier than you, and have already been here for a few years. I have a pretty good understanding of the various major powers in Time City. I'm afraid you guys won't have a good ending after offending the Heaven Immortal Tower but I can point out a path of light for you all to follow. If the owner of this Ten Miles Inn is willing to shield you, there might still be some hope." That person laughed.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Seems like the owner of the Ten Miles Inn wasn't a simple character.

"Naturally, did you guys notice that there are plenty of world overlords gathered outside the inn? From what I know, in the manor near the outside courtyard, a major character resides there. This man is a transcendent-level world overlord and everyone views him with respect. You all can pay a visit to him and if you are lucky enough, he might deign to meet with you. Maybe, the Dragon Pool Manor won't pursue this after that." That person laughed.

"Thanks for your kind intentions but there's no need for you to worry about this matter." Qin Wentian calmly spoke.

"Haha, sure. Just treat it like I spoke too much." That person smiled. He wanted to see how Qin Wentian would deal with the Dragon Pool Manor.

"Senior brother, there are truly more and more people in the surroundings. They must be here to watch the drama. The news truly spread swiftly indeed. We returned right away after that incident yet the name of the inn we are staying in has already been spread." Jun Mengchen spoke.

"This place is Time City. This is normal." Qin Wentian replied. This was the central core region of the Xuan Region, he wouldn't feel shocked by anything that happened.

Not long after, another group of experts arrived at the inn. After that, they walked towards the pavilions. These people all had outstanding auras and a young man and woman were in the lead. They were none other than the group in the Heaven Immortal Tower earlier. When they arrived here, they directly walked towards Qin Wentian.

"People from the Dragon Pool Manor? They don't seem like it." Someone mumbled.

"If they aren't from the Dragon Pool Manor, they should be disciples or descendants of an extremely strong power seeing that they have so many world overlord followers." Someone felt that this was getting more and more interesting. The young man and woman in the lead were extremely outstanding. Naturally, the auras from Qin Wentian, Mo Qingcheng, Qing`er, Beiming Youhuang and the others weren't in anyway inferior as well. It was just that since these two had so many world overlords following them, their status was clearly extraordinary.

Qin Wentian had a look of puzzlement on his face when he saw the young man and woman in the lead walking towards him. Before this in the Heaven Immortal Tower, he knew that this group was in there too but he didn't pay any attention to them. Now that he was observing closely, he could tell that these people were truly extraordinary. The young woman in the lead had a cultivation base at the empyrean level. Her beauty and strength were both outstanding, and wasn't someone Jin Zhi could compare to. Also, her aura was very strong. As for that handsome young man beside her, he was a world overlord. That casual smile on his face also radiated a sense of pride that was carved deep in his bones.

The young maiden also surveyed Qin Wentian and his group. She suddenly laughed, she who was originally extremely beautiful, could topple a kingdom completely at this instant. Even Mo Qingcheng, Qing`er and the other beauties here couldn't help but to admire her. This was purely admiration for her beauty.

"Sir, you have encountered trouble. Not long ago, the Heaven Immortal Tower sent out news that if someone can capture you all back to the Heaven Immortal Tower, they can choose any treasures from the Heaven Immortal Tower save for their ultimate treasures as a reward." The young maiden smiled. This is the latest news. When many people heard that, their eyes gleamed with a bright light. As expected of a Heaven Immortal Tower, what a heavy reward. Although they didn't offer their ultimate treasures, there were many powerful treasures in there still which are extremely valuable. Even world overlords would feel their hearts stirred by greed.

Just when everyone thought the Dragon Pool Manor would personally act, they suddenly used this strategy instead. There was simply no need for them to act, they could just use wealth to crush Qin Wentian. This was the power of wealth and cultivation resources. They most probably felt that if they were to act personally, it would be a loss of face to them.

The face they had lost then, naturally had to be recovered.

Naturally, for Jin Zhi's identity, there would naturally be no one mentioning the fact that she was the girlfriend of one of the world overlords from the Dragon Pool Manor.

"Many thanks for the warning of young miss." Qin Wentian smiled, conveying his gratitude.

"Are you not worried? This promise by them would surely attract many to act. Right now, there are many experts here to attend the Convention of the Myriad Realms. With the reward being so valuable, even I might feel inclined to act." That young maiden laughed.

"Indeed. Miss, you are telling me all of this because of what? What do you want to say?" Qin Wentian asked.

"My surname is Donghuang. I wonder how do I address sir?" The maiden asked.

"My surname is Qin, you can refer to me as the Qingcheng Realmlord." Qin Wentian replied.

"Qingcheng Realmlord, that should be a title, right? Could it be that you are someone who controls a realm in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms?" The maiden asked.

Qin Wentian nodded. These few words exchanged had revealed his identity somewhat but there was nothing for him to hide. In any case, she has already told him her surname.

It was just that this surname was somewhat special. He had recently heard of it and it's truly from an impressive background. Right now, seeing the demeanor of this woman as well as the number of powerful followers behind her, could it be that…?

"Although the territories of a realm can provide plenty of cultivation resources, it's ultimately still a side-path. Those who cultivate all seek to attain a higher realm, and to do so, they would have to travel to the core-most locations in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. Qingcheng Realmlord has such outstanding talent and is also so young. How could you be willing to just be the overlord of a realm? If you join us, the troubling matters from the Dragon Pool Manor will be reduced to nothing at all." The young woman casually spoke, her words tinged with arrogance. It was like she didn't place the Dragon Pool Manor in any regard at all.

However, no one felt that she was boasting. Many world overlords had looks of contemplation when they heard her surname. Could it be just a coincidence?

"This is recruitment. She is trying to recruit the Qingcheng Realmlord." The eyes of everyone flashed sharply. Who would have thought that there would be someone admiring the Qingcheng Realmlord so quickly and was willing to help him to resolve this matter.

"The Donghuang surname, what does it refer to?" Qin Wentian asked in a low voice.

"It's just like what you are thinking." The young woman calmly spoke. A single sentence caused waves to rise in the hearts of everyone. The people in the surroundings all had changed expressions, even world overlords were shocked. What a climax, the changes of the wind and clouds. Donghuang… they were actually willing to help this young world overlord settle his troubles. If Qin Wentian really agreed, this trouble would be no trouble at all.

"This is our little princess." The young man beside her suddenly smiled and spoke, causing the trembling of the hearts of the people in the surroundings to become even more intense.

Surnamed Donghuang, little princess. Her identity was as clear as day.

No wonder she exuded such magnificence. To think that she had such a high status. Everyone instantly stood up, including world overlord characters, to show their respect. Someone then spoke, "It's my fortune to be able to meet the little princess here."

"Little Princess's magnificence knows no bounds yet she is still so friendly and approachable." Another person spoke. At this moment, Jin Zhi also felt her heart trembling. Staring at this beautiful maiden, her eyes flashed with an unmasked admiration. This was a true chosen of the heavens. Compared to her, she was truly extremely insignificant!

东皇 Donghuang, can be translated into Eastern Royal. The Eastern Royal Immortal Realms (One of the four immortal realms that are vassal forces to the Supreme Ancient Mystic Region.)

Chapter 1763: What is the transcendent-level?

This maiden, who was being addressed as little princess, was named Donghuang Ying. Upon seeing several world overlords paying their respects, she smiled and nodded slightly but she didn't say anything. Given her status, she truly didn't need to say anything even when facing world overlord existences.

Her beautiful gaze turned to Qin Wentian again, waiting for his reply.

Qin Wentian was also very astonished when he learned of her identity. He smiled and nodded at her, "Thank you for the grace little princess has shown me. It's just that I'm long used to being unaffiliated and prefer to be the overlord of my realm. Although my realm is located in quite a remote location, I feel at ease and carefree."

This was a clear rejection. Everyone stared at Qin Wentian. This Qingcheng Realmlord actually rejected the little princess's invitation.

Given Donghuang Ying's identity, by personally inviting him to join her was already considered giving him a lot of face. Also, she brought news that was extremely disadvantageous to him. But even in such circumstances, he still chose to reject, causing everyone else to be very curious. What sort of character was this Qingcheng Realmlord exactly. Was he really so mesmerized with the authority of the realm he controlled? But even so, it wouldn't be so easy for him to pass this 'trial' before his eyes, right?

Jin Zhi, who was at the side, felt extremely shocked in her heart. Earlier, as long as Qin Wentian agreed to it, he would a subordinate of the Donghuang Clan. The Dragon Pool Manor wouldn't dare to touch him then. With the status he would gain before him, he actually rejected it with no hesitation. From this, one could see how proud Qin Wentian was. No wonder he would be so angered with regards to her insulting his woman. Jin Zhi started to regret her actions, why did she have to insult Mo Qingcheng then? Could it be that she was jealous of her and Qing`er's beauty?

Donghuang Ying had a look of surprise on her face. The young man beside her also stared at Qin Wentian with interest. Donghuang Ying smiled, "Since this is the case, I won't force you then. It's just that I feel it's a pity."

Nobody knew whether the pity she spoke of was referring to her failure to recruit Qin Wentian or the fact that Qin Wentian wouldn't be able to pass this 'trial' of the Heaven Immortal Tower.

Qin Wentian nodded to her. After that, Donghuang Ying sat down in one of the nearby pavilions and decided to remain here. She wanted to see what would happen later.

The Heaven Immortal Tower made a promise that if someone brought Qin Wentian and his group to the Heaven Immortal Tower, they would be able to select almost any treasure from the Heaven Immortal Tower. Such a tempting condition would definitely cause many to feel greed. Naturally, those who had investigated the commotion in the Heaven Immortal Tower also knew that it was most probably impossible for ordinary world overlords to succeed. Earlier, Old Huo and two other world overlords failed to stop Qin Wentian. From this, one could tell that the person the Heaven Immortal Tower wants to capture wasn't somebody easy to handle.

But even so, greed was the best source of motivation. There would surely be people brave enough to try for the sake of the heavy reward. Also, since the Convention of the Myriad Realms was about to start, Time City naturally has no lack of experts, even for experts that are at the world overlord realm.

Hence, some of these bounty hunters soon arrived at the inn. The first to come was a man and a woman. The man exuded an evil aura and was a world overlord. As for the woman, she had charming features and dressed provocatively, revealing her long fair legs and deep cleavage, exuding a seductive aura. Her smile contained the power to mesmerize the hearts of men. Similarly, she was also at the world overlord realm.

The two of them seemed very close to each other. The woman leaned on the man and the man would openly stroke her soft and supple skin, not fearing outsiders were looking at all.

"It's them." Someone spoke in a low voice, most people instantly recognized this couple when they saw them. Even for those who had never seen them before, world overlords with such personalities were extremely rare. They were two terrifying overlords from Time City and were rumored to be husband and wife. Both of them had an evil aura and their cultivation method was very unique and powerful. This was especially so when the two of them joined forces, they would surely be even more terrifying.

They giggled and their gazes roamed around the crowd. When they noticed Donghuang Ying, they had a strange expression on their face. They could tell that this beautiful woman, who was only at the empyrean realm, was definitely someone not good to antagonize. From the number of world overlord followers behind her, they could already tell that she was someone extraordinary. Also, in an area near this inn, there was also a number of world overlords gathered, they should all be very powerful characters too.

But they didn't feel too much worry as they knew who their target was. Their gazes continued to roam about, and very swiftly, their eyes locked on to Qin Wentian. An evil glint of light could then be seen gleaming in their eyes.

"It's agreed that the treasure this time around, will be given to me as a present." The woman charmingly smiled at the man with an evil aura beside her.

"Sure." That man laughed. The two of them pressed their faces closer and kissed wildly in the public's eyes, not reserved at all.

"Haha, you two freaks of nature can go back now. This time around, the treasure from the Heaven Immortal Tower shall be mine. I'm going to get it." A carefree voice thundered out. A bright beam of light flashed in the air and after that, the crowd saw an imposing figure descending through the air like a heavenly god descending to the mortal world.

This was a middle-aged man with a startling aura. He stood there and resembled a towering ancient mountain that was immovable, brimming with strength. It felt like the moment he raised his hand, he could even make heaven and earth tremble.

Yet another powerful world overlord has appeared. All of them came here for the Heaven Immortal Tower's promise of treasure. So many overlords had already come here to hunt for the bounty when this news was just released. Later on, there would definitely be even more experts.

"Guhua, do you want a fight with us first?" That evil-looking man sinisterly spoke.

"Would I be afraid of you two?" The middle-aged man tyrannically replied.

"Don't waste time, there should be more bounty hunters coming later. Since you've already arrived, let's see which of us can capture him. This man shall belong to whoever succeeds first. How about it?" The charming woman laughed.

"This idea is not bad." The Guhua Realmlord nodded. He glanced at Qin Wentian, "In any case, you won't be able to escape. Why don't you leave with me obediently? If you fall into the hands of these two freaks whose names are Xie Sha and Yin Sha, your ending would surely be extremely dire."

"Don't listen to his nonsense. If you fall into my hands, I will definitely let you have a taste of paradise on earth." Yin Sha charmingly winked. Her gaze sent out a formless energy that entered Qin Wentian's mind, wanting him to be mesmerized.

"Scram."

Qin Wentian continued sitting there. Even now, he still didn't stand up and simply coldly replied.

"What a temper. I like him. How about handing him to me after we succeed in capturing him?" Yin Sha stared at Xie Sha.

"Sure, but I want all his women." Xie Sha spoke.

"Did you hear that? If you follow me, I can at least protect all of you until we reach the Heaven Immortal Tower. At that time, the situation might change. But if you land in their hands, your fate would truly be extremely miserable." The Guhua Realmlord spoke.

Qin Wentian inclined his head. His eyes were icy to the extreme, peering through the distance as they stared at Xie Sha.

"Since this is the case, none of you needs to leave." Qin Wentian stood up. He didn't make any actions and only flew up in the air. Wanting to use him to exchange for treasures? The Heaven Immortal Tower gave out such a promise because they wanted him to have endless trouble. Since this is the case, let's get this done once and for all.

"What arrogance." Yin Sha laughed. "Let's fight higher up in the air then."

There were many people with extraordinary statuses in the inn and the owner of the inn itself was also an extraordinary character. Given how large the aftershocks of an overlord-ranked battle would be, it was very easy to damage the inn or disturb others. Yin Sha was also somewhat worried about offending these people.

"No need for so much trouble." Qin Wentian coldly spoke.

"How arrogant, no wonder you dared to abduct a serving girl from the Heaven Immortal Tower. Since this is the case, I can only ask you for guidance." As the Guhua Realmlord spoke, he released his world heart. In an instant, everything around him slowed down. The people in the inn could feel their movements slowing as well. They wanted to lift their hands but they felt that it was extremely difficult to do so. They needed to struggle just to make any motion at all.

"What world heart energy is this?" Everyone felt their hearts trembling. Under the power of this world heart, how can his opponent fight? This Guhua Realmlord was truly powerful, no wonder he was so arrogant.

"Since you three have came, I assume that you all should also know the price of failure, right?" Qin Wentian was as though he didn't sense the power of his opponents. As the sound of his voice faded, his own world heart was released. When his heart domain enveloped the Guhua Realmlord and Yin Sha and Xie Sha, the three world overlords suddenly trembled as their countenances paled.

At the moment the power of this world heart enveloped the three of them, they could feel the flow of space around them slowing down as a supremely terrifying energy suppressed everything. Shock could be seen in the Guhua Realmlord's eyes. Under the power of his world heart, Qin Wentian could actually retaliate and used a similar method to suppress him. Right now, he felt as though his body didn't belong to him. His reactions had slowed down extremely, and the power of his heavenheart mandate was under absolute suppression.

"Just with your puny abilities, you guys dared to be bounty hunters?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. Although they were a little stronger than Old Huo, there was no difference to him.

Qin Wentian slowly stepped through the air. The three world overlords actually didn't dare to move at all. They could only stare at Qin Wentian as their expressions changed. Where did all their earlier arrogance go to?

Sometimes, when a world heart was released, those at the same level could instantly know who was stronger and who was weaker. If the disparity in strength wasn't that great, the two combatants naturally could still fight. But if the disparity was extremely large, there would be a feeling of absolute suppression. How would the weaker ones have any courage to fight?

"We were only joking with you earlier. Please pardon us." Xie Sha stared at Qin Wentian and bowed.

Qin Wentian cast a glacial glance at him, like how he was looking at a dead man.

"Today, there's actually someone who still dares to show disrespect to my wives." Qin Wentian was truly angered. He stared at the three world overlords in the air as he icily continued, "Those who come and make trouble for me, shall all be killed without mercy. Die!"

As the sound of the word 'die' rang out, a supreme might manifested from the void. The expressions of the three world overlords turned ashen when they felt the heavenly might boring down on them. Other than terror and panic, despair could also be seen in their eyes.

A formless killing light appeared in the air. Everywhere it passed by, only destruction existed. The three world overlords struggled with agony but their bodies were disintegrating rapidly. Soon after, Yin Sha transformed into nothingness and vanished from this world. Her partner Xie Sha followed behind her.

"No…" At the end, Guhua Realmlord was the last one. He roared loudly but he had no way to obstruct death from approaching.

In just an instant, silence filled the atmosphere. The gazes of everyone were all focused on the floating figure in the air as their hearts pounded violently!

Chapter 1764: Interesting People, Interesting Matters

Qin Wentian floated in the air. At this moment, only now did everyone understand why the little princess of the Donghuang Clan came to the inn to personally issue an invitation. The answer was because, this man was a transcendent-level world overlord.

Three powerful world overlords were insta-killed, they didn't even have the strength to resist. In fact, two of them didn't even have the chance to display the power of their world hearts. Before this Qingcheng Realmlord, they were killed in a single strike. How tyrannical was that?

"It's rumored that back then in the Heaven Immortal Tower, the three overlords there didn't dare to obstruct him from bringing the serving girl away. Most probably at that time, those three world overlords had already sensed the suppression brought on by the pressure of his world heart." The experts in the surrounding silently mused. That Xie Sha, Yin Sha and Guhua Realmlord felt that they were very strong, even stronger than the three world overlords of the Heaven Immortal Tower. Also, it was true that they were very famous. When Xie Sha and Yin Sha joined forces, they could use many kinds of heavenheart mandates, allowing them to complement each other, greatly boosting their combat proficiency, easily enabling them to subdue their enemies.

But precisely because they were too confident in their own strength, they chose to come here to hunt Qin Wentian. However, it was evident that they have completely underestimated Qin Wentian. Their cooperation was strong? They basically didn't have a chance to join forces at all. They were completely suppressed by Qin Wentian's world heart. The difference in strength resulted in them being insta-killed.

Donghuang Ying's beautiful eyes shone resplendently, staring at Qin Wentian. Although she sensed something, but because the strength of Qin Wentian's world heart was directed at the three overlords, she couldn't sense it clearly enough. For world overlords, their control over their power was perfect, they could use it as their heart desired.

Jin Zhi also stared at Qin Wentian, she was dumbfounded with shock. Only now did she realize that the woman whom she held in disdain, was actually the woman of such a powerful world overlord. This time around, she has truly created trouble.

Numerous figures sped over, there were still experts coming here, including the world overlords who were originally around in this area. They naturally saw the battle in the air between the four world overlords. It was impossible even if they didn't want to notice it.

The people of the inn felt their hearts trembling, as expected of the convening of the Convention. There were so many experts hidden here. Just a random world overlord staying in this inn was actually a transcendent-level one, capable of insta-killing three world overlords. His world heart should have been formed from a fusion of three source origins, right? He should also have added his insights and comprehensions of innate techniques and secret arts within.

As for the people who just arrived, many of them came here with the intention of hunting Qin Wentian due to the reward promised by the Heaven Immortal Tower. However, after they came here, they immediately saw three world overlords being annihilated. As of now, none of them dared to make any reckless moves.

Qin Wentian coldly swept his gaze at the world overlords who just arrived. There was an unmasked threat in his gaze.

He didn't have any mortal grudges with the three world overlords but those who are kind would always be bullied. Sometimes, one had to act more decisively and ruthlessly. These people wanted to bring him and his friends away just for the promise of treasure? Did they even once think about the fact that they might die? After they captured them, if the Heaven Immortal Tower wanted to kill Qin Wentian and his group, would these bounty hunters feel any pity or show mercy? In addition, Qin Wentian knew that if he didn't act domineeringly enough, there would be endless trouble. There would constantly be people coming to bother him, wanting to hunt his group. He didn't have the mood to deal with them every time they showed up.

Although it was difficult for them to cultivate to the world overlord realm, they should still pay a price for their actions. Since they treated his life as nothing, why should Qin Wentian show mercy?

The death of the three world overlords clearly was a show of force. Nobody dared to make any reckless moves.

In the air, resplendent light flashed. A new world overlord appeared in the Ten Miles Inn. However, this person was stunned when he noticed the tense atmosphere. Why were things so quiet?

He swept their gazes over and soon discovered Qin Wentian, and Jin Zhi who was below him. These people should be their targets, right?

"Seems like everyone came here for the same objective?" This new world overlord who just arrived stared at the other world overlords in the area as he smiled. Right now, the three world overlords who fought with Qin Wentian earlier have all disintegrated into dust, their souls dispersed. This world overlord who just arrived had no idea that a combat just occurred. When everyone heard his words, all of them turned and stared at him with interest. From their gazes, this world overlord could feel a strange sensation. It seems that something was wrong?

Qin Wentian icily stared at that world overlord as he spoke. "Those who want to stay in the inn go look for the waiter. Those who wish to drink wine find your own seats. If there are still people looking at me, I will assume that you guys are here to act against me. I won't show any mercy. If you guys came here for the purpose of the bounty, all of you can scram now."

Qin Wentian's domineering voice spread through this entire region. After that, he returned to his seat and sat down. How tyrannical was this? But he really did have the capabilities to act like this.

"What's the situation?" That newly arrived world overlord was stunned. So arrogant?

Also, the other world overlords in the air actually didn't even dare to let out a fart, as though all of them were silently agreeing with Qin Wentian's words. No one dared to question him at all. This newly arrived world overlord instantly realized that something must have happened earlier or such a scene wouldn't be playing out now.

Could it be that none of the world overlords in the surroundings had the qualifications to antagonize this target?

He found a world overlord that was here earlier and transmitted his voice over to ask. The other party just replied with a single sentence, saying that he could try his luck if he wanted to die. After speaking, that world overlord who had answered instantly turned and left, not wanting to be any part of this. The Heaven Immortal Tower clearly had malicious intentions, how was it possible to earn their treasures so easily. Given how difficult it was to become a world overlord, the treasures might be valuable but how could it compared to his life?

At this moment, at the courtyard where many world overlords had gathered, an extraordinary figure walked out from the residence. He was wearing a green robe and appeared to be a middle-aged man that seemed imposing without being angry. His gaze then casually swept across the world overlords gathered in the courtyard.

"Paying our respects to Senior Absolute Beginning."

"We pay our respects to the Absolute Beginning Overlord." Seeing that this person appeared, many world overlords started, and turned their gazes over to him.

This Absolute Beginning Overlord was a world overlord that has been famous in the Mystic Region since a very long time ago. He was a legend among world overlords. Also, he rose to fame in Time City and he could be considered someone extremely dazzling in the once in ten thousand years Convention of the Myriad Realms. It was rumored that in one of the previous Conventions, the Absolute Beginning Overlord had stirred up some trouble in Time City and antagonized a powerful major clan here. That major clan had deep foundations in Time City and had many world overlords under them. Hence, they were naturally extremely arrogant and wanted the Absolute Beginning Overlord to go over and kneel and bow to them to settle things.

And the ending was that the Absolute Beginning Overlord did go over. After a fierce battle, he slaughtered all their world overlords and exterminated that clan. From then onwards, his name shook Time City and he could be considered a famous character among the world overlords invited here for the Convention. From then on, before the Convention of Myriad Realms commenced, there would be plenty of world overlords paying visit to him on account of his reputation.

Although he didn't come out, everything that happened outside couldn't escape his senses. He had clearly seen that this young world overlord had supreme talent and an extraordinary world heart, he was someone worth nurturing. Also, offending a major power like that the moment the young world overlord came to Time City also reminded Absolute Beginning of his own story back then.

"Little friend, your strength is extraordinary and you have a truly powerful world heart. Why don't you come over to my place and we can have fun sharing our insights?" The Absolute Beginning Overlord stood there but his voice directly rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. Also, his silhouette was also branded in Qin Wentian's eyes.

Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed as he stared in a certain location. Although he couldn't see anything in his eyes, everything around the Absolute Beginning Overlord was imprinted in his mind, there was no difference from personally seeing it with his eyes. Not only that, they also didn't face any barriers when conversing.

This person who spoke to him had an extraordinary demeanor, it was the extraordinary character that expert from the other pavilion reminded him about before, saying that if Qin Wentian can gain his support, the Dragon Pool Manor most likely would forget about the commotion he caused. However, he wasn't acquainted with that extraordinary character, how would he be able to gain his support? That was truly a useless suggestion.

"Mister, your aura is extraordinary as well. It's just that I'm currently enjoying food and wine with my family and friends. I won't be going over then, please understand." Qin Wentian replied.

"Why? Does little friend look down on me?" The Absolute Beginning Overlord felt somewhat taken aback, he was actually rejected. There were so many world overlords who came to visit him but he ignored them all. Earlier, he saw that Qin Wentian's world heart was extraordinary hence he actively chose to reach out to Qin Wentian, telling him to come over to his residence so they could exchange insights.

"I don't have any such intentions." Qin Wentian smiled. It was true that he didn't look down on the other party. It was just that today, his mood wasn't that good anymore. The matter with the Dragon Pool Manor has yet to conclude and he didn't know how Mo Qingcheng was currently feeling. He naturally wanted to be by her side and spend more time with her. How would he be interested to drink and make merry with other world overlords now? In ordinary times, he might have accepted the invitation. After all, since there were so many other world overlords paying a visit to this character, this character should be extraordinary.

"Since little friend doesn't have any intentions to look down on me. Just come and join me. I'm very curious about you." The Absolute Beginning Overlord laughed.

"Everyone has their own cultivation paths, why is there a need to be curious about me? I'll pay a visit to mister once I'm free but I won't go over now." Qin Wentian smiled and replied. He felt that the other party might be an extraordinary character but why was this person so prideful? He truly didn't have any intentions to look down on this person but does that mean that he had to go over? This caused him to feel baffled.

The Absolute Beginning Overlord frowned, feeling somewhat unhappy. He invited Qin Wentian twice but was rejected both times.

"Hmph." He coldly snorted. The Absolute Beginning Overlord flicked his sleeves as though he was angered that Qin Wentian didn't give him face. He returned to his own residence in a huff of anger. Qin Wentian felt extremely baffled but he couldn't be bothered about what the Absolute Beginning Overlord was feeling as he needed to consider the people around him. Although you might be an extraordinary character, there's no reason why I should go over just because you wanted it, right?

If I don't go over to pay you a visit, can't you come and find me for a drink instead?

Clearly, that expert felt that because he was extraordinary, he wanted everyone to give him face.

Donghuang Ying, who was at the side, giggled out loud. Seems like the personality of this Qingcheng Realmlord was like that, he wouldn't give face no matter who the other party was. Not long ago, he just rejected her invitation and now, he rejected an extraordinary world overlord.

"This fellow…" The overlords crowding around the Absolute Beginning Overlord's courtyard felt somewhat speechless. It was difficult for them even if they wanted to meet him once, yet this Qingcheng Realmlord actually rejected when the Absolute Beginning Overlord invited him personally. Many people started mumbling to themselves. When Qin Wentian heard them, he was extremely unhappy, and lost his appetite.

But at this moment, another beautiful serving girl brought up more delicacies and wine. Qin Wentian was somewhat taken aback and he stated, "We still have some dishes not served yet?"

"Sir, you are mistaken. This is free-of-charge, by courtesy of our boss. In addition, in the future, all your lodgings and food here would be on the house, you can stay as long as you want to." The serving girl smiled. Qin Wentian had a bewildered look on his face. There was actually such an interesting person? There are truly many interesting things here and at the very least, his mood now was slightly better!

Chapter 1765: Play All the Way Until the End

The fragrance of the newly served wine permeated the atmosphere, it was clearly of a better grade compared to the previous wines he ordered. After drinking it, a feeling of warmth rose from his stomach and transformed into a cool current of energy that circulated his entire body, causing him to feel extremely comfortable.

Qin Wentian and the others only took a small sip and involuntarily praise it. "Good wine."

"This wine is truly so fragrant. It must be from the inn's boss's private stash." Jun Mengchen laughed. Little Rascal drank bowls after bowls of the wine, appearing extremely adorable.

"The boss of this inn is truly an interesting man." Qin Wentian laughed. The price of the food and drinks here were measured in world stones, yet the boss of this place actually waived the fees for them? What would the other customers think? Clearly, the boss didn't give a damn.

Before this, there was someone saying that he should look for either the inn's boss or that Absolute Beginning Overlord to resolve this issue. And now, both of them have already expressed their attitude. The Absolute Beginning Overlord was too proud and had a very lofty view of himself. Compared to him, the inn's boss made Qin Wentian feel more comfortable. It was because the boss had given him some benefits. The wine and food might be good but what was truly important was the meaning behind his actions. All these were just minor things but they were capable of expressing the boss's attitude. Comparing the inn's boss and the Absolute Beginning Overlord, Qin Wentian preferred the inn's boss more.

The group of them continued to enjoy the food. There were many world overlords who came to the Ten Miles Inn and left after that. The name Qingcheng Realmlord soon began to spread through Time City. Right now, outside the inn, there were many people discussing about Qin Wentian. This man forcefully abducted the serving girl from the Heaven Immortal Tower, rejected the invitation by the Donghuang little princess, not wanting to rely on her for protection. Clearly, this person was somewhat prideful. But after that, he slayed three world overlords in a single battle, rendering the Heaven Immortal Tower's plan useless. And no one actually dared to challenge him again.

Who knew how powerful this transcendent-level world overlord was exactly? His victory over the three world overlords wasn't just a simple victory, he insta-killed them tyrannically. He wanted to tell others that for the sake of a treasure, they might even lose their lives and it wasn't worth it to take the risk. After knowing this, the would-be bounty hunters also didn't feel that the temptation of the Heaven Immortal Tower's treasure was too great as they understood that their target would be a transcendent-level world overlord.

In addition, it was said that the Absolute Beginning Overlord was also residing in the Ten Miles Inn. He personally invited Qin Wentian to join him to dine but was rejected by Qin Wentian, causing the Absolute Beginning Overlord to be in a bad mood. But after that, the inn's boss actually sent up more delicacies free-of-charge for Qin Wentian to enjoy? This matter soon circulated around causing the name of Qingcheng Realmlord to rise sharply in fame in Time City.

Naturally, the people of Time City weren't too bothered about this. To them, this was nothing new. Before the commencement of each Convention, there would always be people rising to fame and there was no exception this time as well. The Qingcheng Realmlord wouldn't be the only one. Right now in another location inside Time City, another matter occurred and a world overlord had also displayed his brilliance.

However, Time City would only pay attention to those who could truly leave their names in history after they became famous. Each of these legendary characters had a shocking story behind their rise. A new person like the Qingcheng Realmlord was still nothing now, he was someone walking on that path of glory. No one knew what his future heights would be.

Many people were paying attention to the movements of the Dragon Pool Manor. The Heaven Immortal Tower's plan was neutralized by that battle. In that case, what actions would they take to resolve this matter?

Could it be that the Dragon Pool Manor would send out domineering experts at the world overlord realm of their own to suppress this Qingcheng Realmlord?

At this moment, in a courtyard inside the Dragon Pool Manor, a young world overlord stood there with his hands behind his back. He had an extraordinary aura and radiated a formless pressure.

His name was Longyuan Haoyu and was a genius world overlord of the Dragon Pool Manor that had an extraordinary status. Jin Zhi was one of his many women. Given a character like him, it was extremely normal for him to be surrounded by beauties. All humans would have desire and world overlords were no exception as well. He wasn't married but does it mean that he would abstain from women? It was naturally not possible.

Also, women to him weren't considered overly important. Back then, Jin Zhi tempted him and he didn't resist. After that, he arranged Jin Zhi to work in the Heaven Immortal Tower and only a minority knew that Jin Zhi was his woman. He naturally wouldn't make public such information as Jin Zhi wasn't qualified to be the woman he married in the future. He didn't really have any deep emotions to Jin Zhi, everything was just for fun to him.

But even so, there was naturally no way he would allow any tom, dick or harry to humiliate his woman, let alone forcibly bringing her away. It was one thing that he didn't want to admit his relationship with Jin Zhi, but it was also the truth that the Qingcheng Realmlord had smacked his face and caused damage to the Heaven Immortal Tower's reputation. Hence, he asked an elder in the clan who was responsible for the Heaven Immortal Tower to give out the command, tempting bounty hunters to act for him.

But even so, he wasn't really bothered about this. To him, this was just a very minor matter. As long as he captured Qin Wentian, he would surely humiliate him badly to repair some reputation of the Heaven Immortal Tower while also helping him to vent his emotions. However, the problem now was that this minor matter wasn't settled at all and this incident has spread even further. The only reason was because the person the Heaven Immortal Tower wanted to deal with was actually a transcendent-level world overlord who could insta-kill three powerful existences at the world overlord realm.

This matter has circulated all over Time City and caused a huge commotion. That Qingcheng Realmlord used the Heaven Immortal Tower to boost his own fame. Many people were waiting for the Heaven Immortal Tower, nay, the Dragon Pool Manor's attitude. They wanted to see how the Dragon Pool Manor would react.

"Haoyu." A voice rang out. Longyuan Haoyu's eyes flashed as he replied through the air, "Uncle."

"Next, what do you plan to do? How do you plan to settle this matter? Right now, your father has already learned about this but he hasn't questioned you yet. After all, this is something stirred up by you. That serving girl is your woman, right?" A voice rang out in Longyuan Haoyu's mind. Since such a major commotion has happened, it was naturally impossible to hide this from the clan's elders.

"I will pay a visit to the Qingcheng Realmlord." Longyuan Haoyu spoke.

"Good." The other party replied and there was no more communication. Longyuan Haoyu might be his junior but was also a world overlord existence. Naturally, there was no need for the elder to interfere in everything. In any case, the matters of the clan would always be handed over to juniors of the latter generations to resolve, helping them to mature faster.

They didn't send anyone to domineeringly suppress Qin Wentian because although their Dragon Pool Manor might be able to do that, they were considered a major power in Time City. How could they truly go all out to suppress a transcendent-level world overlord who came here for the Convention of the Myriad Realms for the sake of a single serving girl? Would that improve their reputation? Would that be able to repair the Heaven Immortal Tower's face? Most probably, there would be even more gossip in the future, feeling that the Dragon Pool Manor had no principles when doing this. One mustn't forget that the start of all of this was because of that serving girl first insulting the other party's wife.

The wife of a transcendent-level world overlord, is she someone a serving girl of your Heaven Immortal Tower could casually insult? Could it be that just because the Heaven Immortal Tower belonged to the Dragon Pool Manor, the serving girl could act so tyrannically?

If the Dragon Pool Manor really did so, they would even suffer more damage to their reputation and be denounced by others.

Hence, for the next few days, there were no movements from the Heaven Immortal Tower. The Dragon Pool Manor also seemed very calm as though they had already forgotten about this matter. Some people even thought that this was already concluded and both sides decided to treat it that this matter has never happened and wouldn't pursue it any longer. After all, a serving girl was captured because she insulted a transcendent-level world overlord? Of course there was nothing anyone could say about it. Could it be that transcendent-level world overlords have no temper?

Jin Zhi, who initially thought that Qin Wentian would be in trouble, actually found him leading peaceful days. She no longer had any temper and was now taking the role of a servant, serving the needs of Qin Wentian's group. She was already filled with despair. Did her boyfriend give her up just like that?

Today, Qin Wentian was in his courtyard. All of a sudden, he furrowed his brows and asked, "Who is it?"

"Longyuan Haoyu." A voice rang out. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, someone from the Dragon Pool Manor has arrived?

"Come in." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. After that, a young-looking figure appeared before him and this was none other than Longyuan Haoyu.

Another figure then sped over. Jin Zhi was filled with joy when she saw the person who came and she called out with excitement, "Haoyu!"

Longyuan Haoyu merely coldly glanced at her before shifting his eyes away. With that single gaze, it caused Jin Zhi to feel chills all over her body as though she had fallen into a freezer.

Jun Mengchen and the others walked over, staring at this uninvited guest with some trepidation in their eyes. The aura of this young man was very strong and he had the surname Longyuan. Clearly, he was from the Dragon Pool Manor. During these days, they had heard the name of the Dragon Pool Manor many times.

"Qingcheng Realmlord." Longyuan Haoyu stared at Qin Wentian. "Recently, Sir's fame has been shooting up in Time City."

"Just speak directly." Qin Wentian stared at Longyuan Haoyu.

"Alright." Longyuan Haoyu nodded. "You forcefully brought away a serving girl of my Heaven Immortal Tower, causing my Dragon Pool Manor to have no good way to react. Why don't we each take a step back? You send the serving girl back to the Heaven Immortal Tower and we will allow you to choose a divine weapon of your choice so that both sides would have a method to step down. How about it?"

Qin Wentian stared at Longyuan Haoyu while coldly laughing in his heart. Wanting him to first send the serving girl back meant that they wanted him to take the first step to make the compromise. After that, the Heaven Immortal Tower would then allow him to pick a divine weapon to reward him?

"Why is it not the Heaven Immortal Tower first bring a treasure here to apologize before I send the serving girl back? In any case, this matter was caused by this woman. But back then if the Heaven Immortal Tower made her apologize, I wouldn't have pursued the matter any further." Qin Wentian replied. He didn't have any objections that Longyuan Haoyu wanted a way where both sides could step down and resolve this peacefully. However, there was no logic for him to be the first to compromise.

The one who did so first and the one who did so later, the meaning behind it was completely different.

"Sir, why must you act like this? Our Dragon Pool Manor has been here in Time City for many years and is still considered somewhat famous." Longyuan Haoyu spoke.

"So, because the Dragon Pool Manor is a major power, I should be the one who first take a step back?" Qin Wentian laughed. "In truth, there's no need for so much trouble. I've already said this before in the Heavenly Immortal Tower that I have no intentions to go against the Heaven Immortal Tower and the Dragon Pool Manor. The one who insulted my wife is this woman, this is the reason why I captured her as she should pay a price for her actions. As for the loss of face caused to the Heaven Immortal Tower, wasn't the Heaven Immortal Tower the one who first tried to tempt bounty hunters to come after me? I can treat this matter as though it didn't happen before."

"In that case, you are not planning to step a step back then?" Longyuan Haoyu frowned. He had already personally made a trip here, but this Qingcheng Realmlord still maintained his attitude.

"If you came here for the sake of making me take a step back for you to save face, you can return now." Qin Wentian impolitely replied. He has already made things very clear, he wouldn't pursue the fact that the Heaven Immortal Tower offered a reward to tempt bounty hunters to hunt him. This was the compromise that he was willing to make. It also wasn't that he wanted to blow this matter up but from what he was hearing now, this Longyuan Haoyu actually wanted him to take the first step and release the woman who had insulted Qingcheng.

This was the attitude of the Dragon Pool Manor?

Since this was the case, he shall play all the way until the end with them!

Chapter 1766: Shameless Overlords

Longyuan Haoyu stared at Qin Wentian, his countenance was extremely sharp. Qin Wentian had issued an expulsion order, truly not giving him face at all.

He was already willing to compromise and no longer sought trouble with Qin Wentian. As long as Qin Wentian sent Jin Zhi back, the Heaven Immortal Tower was willing to express their good will and this matter will be concluded just like this. However, Qin Wentian felt that it should be the Heaven Immortal Tower apologizing first before he would release his hostage.

How tyrannical.

"Farewell." He coldly spoke before flicking his sleeves and departing, feeling extremely angry.

Qin Wentian stared at Longyuan Haoyu's vanishing silhouette with no expression on his face. As expected of a world overlord from a major power, that pride was innate in his bones as though it was only logical that Qin Wentian had to compromise first.

Seeing Longyuan Haoyu simply leaving like this, the beautiful eyes of Jin Zhi stared straight ahead blankly. He was going to leave just like that?

Her man personally came. Qin Wentian still refused to free her. At this moment, boundless sorrow filled her heart.

"This is the source of your reliance. You felt that you are a lofty individual because of your relationship with that world overlord. However, he didn't even spare you a single glance." Qin Wentian had his back facing to Jin Zhi as he calmly spoke. His voice was like swords stabbing into Jin Zhi's heart. That was right, what was she considered as? Just a woman who could be abandoned anytime. Right now, Longyuan Haoyu probably didn't want to have anything to do with her any longer.

"Pitiful woman, scram." Qin Wentian calmly spoke. Jin Zhi started, she stared at Qin Wentian but there was some disbelief on her face. "You are going to release me?"

"I just wanted you to see clearly what situation you are in. This can be considered the price you have to pay for your actions. What's the purpose of me making you stay? I disdain to kill you." Qin Wentian still didn't look at Jin Zhi. He felt no sympathy. Pitiful humans would always have their own detestable points.

Jin Zhi stared dumbly at Qin Wentian. Longyuan Haoyu personally came by but Qin Wentian domineeringly replied saying that the Heaven Immortal Tower had to apologize first. But after Longyuan Haoyu left, Qin Wentian actually was going to release her?

This was the Qingcheng Realmlord's attitude? The Dragon Pool Manor couldn't get him to compromise. He would release her simply because he felt like it. This was his attitude because he had his own pride.

Jin Zhi cast a deep glance at Qin Wentian before leaving this place. She would no longer return to the Heaven Immortal Tower or go to find Longyuan Haoyu again. Their relationship has ended. Even if she really went to find Longyuan Haoyu now, the other party most probably wouldn't want to see her. She would only feel even more sorrowful.

After Jin Zhi left, Qin Wentian glanced at the empty space. "Sir, have you seen enough?"

"Oh, I'm discovered." A low voice rang out. After that, a man in white robes walked out from the void. He was entirely dressed in white, unstained by dust completely. In fact, he even had a pair of white brows. Only his black eyes were full of spirit.

"How interesting, the Dragon Pool Manor came by wanting you to free the serving girl but you refused to compromise. After that, you freed her because you felt that she had already paid the price for her actions? What a wondrous person you are." The white-browed man laughed.

"Sir, it isn't too good for you to hide and spy on me, right?" Qin Wentian stared at him.

"This…" His brows twitched but he soon smiled. "I saw that Longyuan Haoyu was here, hence I came over for a look in case he creates trouble."

"Even if he creates trouble, what does that have to do with you?" Qin Wentian spoke.

"Naturally it would have something to do with me. I'm the boss of this inn." The white-browed man spoke like it should be as such. Qin Wentian started, the white-browed man before his eyes was actually the boss of the Ten Miles Inn? He was that interesting person who allowed him free food and lodging here?

"Even if you are the inn's boss, you should spectate openly if you want to spectate. Why must you intentionally use your world heart's ability to hide in the void? That's truly lacking in manners." Qin Wentian laughed.

"Who knew that I would be discovered?" The white-browed man depressedly mumbled. After that, he laughed, "Also, this inn belongs to me, what's the problem if I come here to take a look. Don't forget that I was the one who allowed you to wine, dine and lodge here for free. So please don't take it to heart about such a minor matter of me hiding in the shadows okay...?"

Qin Wentian had a face filled with black lines, he didn't expect the boss of this inn to be such a weirdo. This logic caused him to be somewhat speechless and he actually didn't know how to reply. It's true that this inn belonged to this man and they were dining and lodging for free. He didn't need to pay a single cent.

"Seems like it is still better for me to pay up." Qin Wentian speechlessly replied.

"Haha, I was just joking. I'm a very straightforward person. The purpose for me showing up is to invite you for a drink. You should have came here for the purpose of attending the Convention of the Myriad Realms, right? I have a few buddies who love to drink too and they would also be participating in the convention. Are you interested to get acquainted with them?" The white-browed man then continued, "Oh, I forgot to introduce myself. My name is a little strange, I'm called Ten Miles Springwind, you can directly refer to me as Ten Miles. Such a poetic name like this can also be considered very rare in the world. It should be very easy to remember."

"Mhm, I can tell." Qin Wentian's face was still filled with black lines. He really could tell...he could tell that this inn's boss seemed to be extremely narcissistic. Earlier, he chose to stay in the shadows to peek yet he still claimed that he was a straightforward person and even praised his own name. How utterly shameless.

"Everyone says that. Although Qingcheng Realmlord is somewhat tacky, your strength isn't too bad. Although the elegance of our names is very far apart, it's quite easy to remember too." Ten Miles Springwind seriously spoke. Jun Mengchen and the others, who were behind Qin Wentian, all had their eyes wide open as they stared dumbfoundedly at this world overlord before them. Today, it can be considered that their horizons were broadened. So there were such shameless individuals among world overlords as well.

"Let's go, let's go. If we go there late, those drunkards would force me to give them even more alcohol." Ten Miles Springwind hurried Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian glanced at the people behind him, "Do you all want to join us?"

"It's fine, we will just stay here." They smiled. Although this inn's boss didn't seem to put on any airs at all, he was truly somewhat shameless. However, it was also clear that he wasn't someone ordinary. Qin Wentian might have the qualifications to sit with them but this doesn't mean that the rest of them were qualified. There was no meaning even if they went.

Qin Wentian nodded, he stared at Ten Miles Springwind, "Let's go then."

"Alright, don't worry. The location is in my inn itself, you will be able to see the situation here, nothing bad will happen to your friends and family." Ten Miles Springwind spoke. After all, this was his inn. He did have this bit of confidence.

Qin Wentian followed Ten Miles Springwind. Jun Mengchen felt a sense of defeat as he stared at their backs. "No, this can't continue. I'm going to enter closed-door seclusion. In this Time City where there are world overlords everywhere, I truly feel a sense of inferiority."

"If you directly use your comprehensions of heavenheart mandates to manifest a world heart, you could have long already entered the world overlord realm. Who asked you to follow Wentian's example? Hmph." Little Rascal mumbled. Jun Mengchen directly turned around and rapped his head. "Senior can do this, why can't I? If you are not happy, why don't we fight right here and now?"

After hearing his words, Little Rascal shrank back as he whispered in a low voice. "Violent brute..."

Ten Miles Springwind led Qin Wentian to a separate pavillion. This was the best location in the entire inn, one could see magnificent scenery here and there were trees with shade-giving foliage. The atmosphere here was extremely peaceful and it was naturally a wonderful thing to be able to enjoy alcohol here.

When Qin Wentian arrived, he noticed three others already sitting in the pavilion. It was an old man, a middle-aged man and a woman. These three completely different people were actually gathered here. In addition to Ten Miles Springwind, the four of them had four completely different types of personalities.

The first person Qin Wentian glanced at was that old man. This was because he met this old man before. In the past, when they were travelling to Time City, this was the old man whom Jun Mengchen doubted. Who could have thought that this old man was a friend of Ten Miles Springwind and he could encounter him again here. The old man narrowed his eyes into slits as he surveyed Qin Wentian as well.

The middle-aged man was clad in robes that were blood-red in color, and was extremely conspicuous. He had a beard and thick brows with big eyes, as well as shoulder-length hair. With a single glance, one could instantly feel how imposing he was. Such an aura was akin to that of emperors, extraordinary to the extreme.

The woman looked very young. She was clad in a long dress that accentuated her perfect figure. Her beauty was comparable to Jin Zhi but she had a heroic air to her.

"Little white-brows, where did you go to for such a long time? Did you go to prepare more good alcohol for us?" The old man narrowed his eyes, smiling at Ten Miles Springwind. The gaze of this old man seemed extremely shameless.

"If you refer to me like that again, you won't have any alcohol to drink today." Ten Miles Springwind replied in anger. His earlier boastings to Qin Wentian was completely unraveled.

"Okay, okay. The young and handsome Springwind Overlord, what good alcohol have you prepared?" The old man was simply like a drunkard, he kept asking Ten Miles Springwind for alcohol.

"This address is much more appropriate." Ten Miles Springwind nodded with a smile. He brought Qin Wentian to the front of the pavilion and took out a jar of wine. "This is the alcohol today."

"Just so little?" The old man spoke depressedly. "This amount of alcohol isn't even enough to fill the gaps between my teeth. Are you a stinking beggar?"

"Since there's a new friend today, why don't you take out another jar?" Ten Miles Springwind then took out another jar of wine.

"When Phoenix joined us that year, you weren't so stingy. Are you looking down on our new friend?" The old man laughed.

"Cough, cough…" Ten Miles Springwind coughed, he then hurriedly replied, "Am I such a person? I was naturally just kidding around with you guys. I only have three jars of wine left. Old ghost, you should know how difficult it is to obtain such wine. Each of you can have one jar. I only have so much."

"Phoenix, he is looking down on you." The old man spoke to the woman. Back then when Phoenix first joined them, he only added two jars of wine.

"So boring. I shall leave then. Don't call me for another gathering in the future." The woman turned and was really preparing to leave.

"Wait. I will add two more jars as an apology." Ten Miles Springwind didn't expect that these fellows were such frauds. They didn't meet each other for ten thousand years and were actually so shameless the moment they met?

"Brother Cao, I can be considered loyal enough to our brotherhood now, right?" Ten Miles Springwind stared at the middle-aged man.

"I control endless stretches of territories, what would I be lacking? Good food, good wine and beauties, I can have them anytime I want. Only in your place do I find that it's so difficult just wanting to drink some good wine. Also, this is a gathering that only occurs once every ten thousand years. What is there still to talk about?" The middle-aged man calmly spoke, his voice was filled with an imposingness to it.

"Consider yourselves ruthless." Ten Miles Springwind took out another eight jars of wine and placed an interspatial ring on the table. "Take a look for yourselves. It's already empty."

"This is the Brother Ten Miles we know. Straightforward indeed." The middle-aged man's imposingness melted away as he smiled. Each of their expressions changed faster than flipping the pages of a book.

"Alright, it's time to introduce this new friend." The old man smiled at Qin Wentian. "Recently, your fame is truly not low. You even dare to antagonize the Dragon Pool Manor."

"Seems like old sir already knows about everything." Qin Wentian smiled.

"Staying in this lousy inn, it's tough even if we didn't want to know about it." Phoenix laughed as she stared at Qin Wentian.

Chapter 1767: Guts as Great as the Heavens

Ten Miles Springwind smiled, "You guys are all great saints. It's been hard for all of you having to stay at my diaplilated inn."

"That's true." The middle-aged man seriously nodded.

"I know your origins are great and I'm not qualified to serve you. If you have the capabilities to do so, don't drink the jar of wine I gave you." Ten Miles Springwind spoke in rage.

"I still have to drink the wine no matter what." The middle-aged man ignored him, causing Ten Miles Springwind to be somewhat speechless. He then turned to Qin Wentian, "Seems like they all already know of you. Since this is the case, let me introduce them to you. This beautiful young woman is named Phoenix. She isn't a demon, but just has this name. As for this middle-aged fellow who has no regard for anything in his eyes, his name is tyrannical to the extreme. He is named Cao Tian, jeering at the heavens. I wonder why his parents gave him such a name."

"If you dare to speak this sentence before them, I guarantee that you won't be able to survive even for one second." Cao Tian coldly snorted.

"Yes, your background is so impressive." Ten Miles Springwind spoke in contempt. He then continued, "As for this shameless old man, you can just refer to him as Old Ghost."

After speaking, Ten Miles Springwind took out five cups and started pouring wine for everyone. "Okay, enough talking. We met each other by chance and now that Brother Qin is able to come here, after we drink this wine, everyone will be brothers. Come, let's toast."

"On account of this little friend, I won't be calculative with you." The old man coldly glanced at Ten Miles Springwind as he toasted to Qin Wentian.

"Brother Qin, my personality is somewhat prideful and people might not be happy to interact with me. In the future, please pardon me when we interact." Cao Tian directly spoke and toasted Qin Wentian as well.

Phoenix also smiled at Qin Wentian. The group was very friendly, but when Qin Wentian noticed their gazes, he couldn't help but feel that some conspiracy was underfoot. However, seeing everyone was toasting him, he could only lift his cup back in response. The five of them then finished drinking their cups of wine. As the wine entered his belly, Qin Wentian felt a wondrous sense of comfort circulating within his body. It was like even his state of heart has cleared up. His perception also grew clearer. This feeling was too amazing.

"Good wine." Qin Wentian praised.

"This fellow has always been stingy. We can only drink this wine once every ten thousand years so how can this wine not be good? Every droplet of wine cannot be exchanged even with gold. It's able to make one's heart state clear and strengthen their perception. It also has the added benefits of tempering one's body. You will sense all of this as long as you continue to drink. It's even useful to world overlords like us." Old Ghost wasn't stingy with his praise of the wine. Qin Wentian nodded his head, seems like this wine was even more precious compared to those medicinal pills. He also wanted to get a few jars so Qingcheng and Qing`er could taste it. But since this wine was so valuable, it wasn't too good for him to ask for it.

"You guys speak of this in such a relaxed manner. Everytime we meet, you all only know how to beg me for this wine yet all of you has no idea how hard it is for me to obtain them. I'm not like Brother Cao who is from an impressive background. Why don't you guys tell him to get us some good wine instead?" Ten Miles Springwind spoke.

"You should know about his circumstances, why must you put it this way." Phoenix calmly spoke. When she saw the bewildered look on Qin Wentian's face, she explained, "Brother Cao's identity is somewhat special. But he established his own power that is separated from his background and became an overlord of a realm."

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded, he didn't probe any further. After all, this was the first time they were meeting. It wasn't too good to ask questions about one's origins.

But from what he has heard, Cao Tian should have originated from a very powerful background. Maybe he had a conflict with his clan and decided to set up his own power.

"These are all old matters, they aren't worthy of being mentioned." Cao Tian took a jar of wine and poured a cup for Qin Wentian. "At this moment, we should only be discussing about this beautiful wine."

After speaking, he directly lifted up the jar of wine and gulped it all down, causing Qin Wentian to be extremely dumbfounded.

"You…" Ten Miles Springwind was completely speechless when he saw this. Old Ghost also sneakily took a jar of wine and gulped it down as though fearing that he might be at a disadvantage if he didn't do so.

After that, Phoenix followed as well. A sexy woman like her was also snatching wine to drink. Such a scene caused Qin Wentian to be speechless. These people were all world overlords with extraordinary statuses, they were truly extremely 'outrageous' indeed.

But in any case, since they said that all of them are already brothers, how could he lose out? Hence, Qin Wentian also took up a jar and drained it right down. Ten Miles Springwind howled in grief but he could only follow what the others did. Just like that, several jars of wine were soon emptied. How could this be called wine tasting? This was simply wine snatching. This was the first time Qin Wentian saw people drinking like this.

"Are you satisfied now?" Ten Miles Springwind stared at everyone in rage. What a waste of heavenly treasures and ingredients, shouldn't beautiful wine be slowly sipped in enjoyment instead?

"Ten Miles, you have always been outspoken and straightforward. Since it's a rare event today as Brother Qin has joined our little group, why don't you take more jars out to celebrate?" Old Ghost spoke to Ten Miles Springwind.

"Scram." Ten Miles Springwind's face was completely red from suppressed anger. How can he be fooled again? Even if he still had some wine left, he would resolutely refuse to take them out. He stared at the people before him and spoke, "Drinking with you guys? No kick at all."

Qin Wentian weakly smiled. He managed to snatch quite a few jars of wine. Right now, he could feel the transformation inside his body. A powerful force was slowly tempering all parts of his body and this feeling was extremely comfortable. He almost couldn't bear drinking all of them and he initially wanted to sneak some away. However, the wine was simply too good.

"Alright, since the wine has been drank, it's time to discuss official matters." Ten Miles Springwind spoke. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed as he stared at Ten Miles Springwind. Official matters?

"Now that Brother Qin has joined us, we are naturally all brothers. During these days, a commotion was caused in Time City and I believed all of you already know about it, right? This Heaven Immortal Tower has gone too far and the Dragon Pool Manor doesn't seem to have any intentions to apologize at all. They even gave out rewards, wanting to tempt bounty hunters to hunt down Brother Qin and after he killed the three world overlord bounty hunters, the Dragon Pool Manor finally made a move, sending a world overlord over to talk to him. But that world overlord's attitude was extremely domineering, they most probably are planning to cause trouble for Brother Qin again."

Ten Miles Springwind spoke, Qin Wentian felt somewhat puzzled. Why did they started talking about his matter all of a sudden.

"That's true. The Heaven Immortal Tower went overboard." Old Ghost narrowed his eyes as though he felt the same hatred towards them.

"We definitely have to vent these unhappy emotions out for Brother Qin. In addition, let's give the Dragon Pool Manor some trouble so they won't have time to make things difficult for Brother Qin." Ten Miles Springwind continued.

"I have no objections, do you guys have any objections?" Phoenix asked.

All of them echoed one another, Qin Wentian felt that these people were putting on a play for him to watch. Why did it seem that everything was pre-planned out before they intentionally invited him over for a drink.

"Let's rob the Heaven Immortal Tower." Ten Miles Springwind's next sentence caused Qin Wentian to be completely stunned.

Rob the Heaven Immortal Tower?

The major power behind the Heaven Immortal Tower was the Dragon Pool Manor. Wasn't robbing the Heaven Immortal Tower the same as declaring war against the Dragon Pool Manor?

This was completely different from him forcefully capturing a servant girl. The weight of a serving girl wasn't enough to shake the Dragon Pool Manor. But robbing the Heaven Immortal Tower was a completely different matter altogether. It was definitely a declaration of war.

Were these few fellows crazy?

"For Brother Qin." Ten Miles Springwind spoke with a straight face. Qin Wentian's countenance was filled with black lines, he was completely speechless. Only a ghost would believe Ten Miles Springwind's words.

This was the first time they met. For his sake, they wanted to rob the Heaven Immortal Tower? What joke was this? This was conspiracy, definitely a conspiracy.

"Good idea." Cao Tian nodded. "Old Ghost, what do you think?"

"I have no objections." Old Ghost laughed loudly.

"The treasures in the Heaven Immortal Tower are mostly designed for female usage. Over here, I'm the only female. When the time comes, I definitely have to be the one who chooses the loot first." Phoenix stared at the others and spoke as her eyes gleamed with light. This was the Heaven Immortal Tower they were talking about and she has naturally been there before. The treasures there would caused one's heart to be stirred by greed and there were many different kinds. She was fond of several divine treasures there.

"As it should be." Ten Miles Springwind nodded his head.

"Brother Qin, what do you think? Your brothers shall vent these unhappy emotions for you. There's no need to thank us. Before this, I've already said that after we drank wine together, we are all already considered brothers." Ten Miles Springwind patted Qin Wentian on his shoulder. Qin Wentian's horizons were further broadened at how shameless and how thick the skin of this person was.

"Wait, speak clearly about this matter. I have no wish to be sold by you four." Qin Wentian spoke. "The Dragon Pool Manor is a peak power here in Time City, you guys can contend against them?"

"Why do we need to contend against the Dragon Pool Manor when we are merely robbing the Heaven Immortal Tower?" Ten Miles Springwind stared at Qin Wentian as he asked. "It's not like you have never been to the Heaven Immortal Tower before. The Dragon Pool Manor is extremely confident and they only sent three world overlords to guard the tower, feeling that no one would dare to rob them. As long as we control the three world overlords, wouldn't we already be able to control the entire Heaven Immortal Tower? We will use the shortest amount of time to seize all the treasures away. No one would know we did this. The Dragon Pool Manor can take their time to investigate and at that time, where would they be free enough to cause trouble for Brother Qin?"

"You guys have already discussed everything before this, right? Why did you all include me?" Qin Wentian could clearly tell that all this was already planned out.

"Of course the reason is because of Brother Qin's charisma." Ten Miles Springwind spoke with a straight face.

"Scram." Qin Wentian's face was filled with black lines.

Ten Miles Springwind smiled awkwardly. He patted Qin Wentian on his shoulder, "Since Brother Qin wishes to know, I will tell you honestly. It's true that the Heaven Immortal Tower has always been unfair when they do things and it's also true that they sent people to make trouble for you. Such overbearing behavior, why can't we touch them? There are plenty of good treasures in the Heaven Immortal Tower. What we are doing can be described by a saying. 'A gentleman has his own way to attain his monetary aspirations.'"

"Since this is the case, you guys can go ahead and carry out the plan. Why is there a need to include me? If the Dragon Pool Manor discovers this, wouldn't I become the scapegoat then?" Qin Wentian stared at Ten Miles Springwind. He had to make things clear. Such a major matter cannot be joked about.

If the Dragon Pool Manor learned of the identities of those who robbed the Heavenly Immortal Tower? What would they do? They would surely take crazy revenge.

"Brother Qin, I reside in Time City and have an inn under me. Brother Cao's foundation is even deeper and he would have no reason to run away. Could it be that you think if something really happens, we can just pat our buttocks and run away so simply?" Ten Miles Springwind spoke. "Don't worry, even if something happens, Brother Cao can simply step out at that time. We will then say that our actions are just to help Brother Qin vent out the negative emotions, I want to see what the Dragon Pool Manor can do then exactly. Now, do you understand why we must involve you?"

"Shameless."

Qin Wentian was completely speechless as he stared at Ten Miles Springwind. So it turned out that they needed an excuse in case they were caught. But if they were really caught, it sounded like Cao Tian could handle everything?

In that case, Cao Tian's background could suppress the Dragon Pool Manor?

Qin Wentian glanced at the people before him. These people were truly one of a kind.

"Brother Qin, we are doing this for you. Just tell us if you want to do it or not. Even if you don't want to do it, given the attitude of that young world overlord who left after meeting you, they would definitely knock on your doors again. It's best to act first to suppress them. If you cannot set your heart at ease, you can investigate about Brother Cao's background first and you will understand that I didn't lie to you." Ten Miles Springwind asked as he looked at Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian's heart pounded, robbing the Heaven Immortal Tower?

Chapter 1768: Robbery

When Qin Wentian first came to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, the first thing he did was to loot a mine. And now that he was already a Realmlord of a region, controlling endless territories, was he really about to go back to robbery again and become a grand bandit at the world overlord realm?

Given his personality, he naturally wished to do it. After all, the Heaven Immortal Tower has issued orders to capture him, his family and friends. If he had enough strength, he would long have demolished the Heaven Immortal Tower and not simply just killed the three overlord-level bounty hunters. Those three people were merely people tempted by the promise of treasure. The one who issued the order was ultimately the Heaven Immortal Tower.

But when he thought about the risk involved, it made him hesitate.

"A great man always acts straightforwardly in any circumstances. Since the Heaven Immortal Tower was not benevolent to you in the first place, why are you still considering? You should just directly take revenge. Naturally, if you are worried about our intentions and are afraid that we are cheating you to harm you, you can directly reject. We won't force you too." Cao Tian directly spoke. Just like what he has said, his personality was as such, he was extremely direct.

Ten Miles Springwind and the others stared at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed brightly and he replied, "I agree."

"Good." Cao Tian nodded. "We didn't waste the wine, from now onwards, we are all brothers. Because I'm older than you, I'm okay if you want to address me as big brother Cao. Naturally, Brother Cao would also do, just call me what you want to."

"Since Brother Qin has agreed, when do the rest of you think would be a good time to carry out the plan?" Ten Miles Springwind smiled brightly. Their target location was the Heavenly Immortal Tower, filled with a multitude of treasures. For every sale of a single treasure, the profit was unimaginably high, their earnings were definitely much higher compared to his inn, there was no way to compare at all.

"Why waste time. Let's make it tonight." Cao Tian directly spoke.

"I agree." Old Ghost's eyes narrowed into slits as he nodded.

"I have no objections as well." Phoenix laughed.

"Since this is the case, let's make it tonight then. We will act during the time when many people are touring the Heaven Immortal Tower. Let's discuss the plan first. We must be sure to leave immediately once we succeed, no delays are permitted. If not, the strength of the Dragon Pool Manor isn't weak, let's try our best not to fight head-on with them. But if there really is a conflict, fight with retreat in mind. But if worst comes to worst and there's nothing we can do, Brother Cao we will have to depend on you to carry this crime for us." Ten Miles Springwind spoke.

Cao Tian nodded his head, the group of them then finished discussing the plan and left respectively. When night arrived, Ten Miles Springwind gathered everyone again. The five of them sneakily left the inn, heading in the direction of the Heaven Immortal Tower.

Today, the atmosphere at the Heavenly Immortal Tower was extremely bustling. Lights lit up the entire place, and it was as bright as day inside it.

Since the Convention was about to commence, the Heaven Immortal Tower would naturally not lack customers. This place was exceedingly popular with females, and as for those major characters, they were naturally willing to spend on lavish gifts for their own women. This was also a method to satisfy one's vanity.

As for Qin Wentian and the four others, they had already arrived in the Heaven Immortal Tower. Naturally, they entered using different means and had concealed their original appearances and auras. There were simply too many methods world overlords could use, such an easy disguise was nothing to them. And as for Qin Wentian, it was even more simple.

The plan today was for Qin Wentian, Phoenix and Cao Tian to control the three world overlords here, not allowing them to make any movements. The essential point naturally was to ensure that they didn't use their messaging crystals. Next, Old Ghost was responsible for controlling the Heaven Immortal Tower, including all the guests here. Among the guests, there would surely be several world overlords. Old Ghost naturally wouldn't offend them for no rhyme or reason, he would just create a distraction and let them watch the drama. His main purpose was to stop people who were from the Dragon Pool Manor acting in disguise among the crowd.

And for the final part of the plan, seizing treasures, Ten Miles Springwind would be the one responsible for it. Each of them knew very well what they should do.

At this moment, Qin Wentian had already concealed his appearance. He acted like a customer and walked around leisurely inside the Heaven Immortal Tower. At the same time, his immortal sense was locked on to four of his comrades and they would frequently exchange information.

"The three world overlords are in three different locations. I'll control Old Huo. Brother Qin, you control the one on the left, Phoenix you control the one on the right." Cao Tian's voice rang out in Qin Wentian and Phoenix's mind. Qin Wentian nodded and headed towards the left direction in the Heaven Immortal Tower.

The Heaven Immortal Tower was very large but no matter how large it is, how can it be larger than the scope of a world overlord's immortal sense? In a luxurious room on the left, a world overlord was resting inside. In addition, there were currently two beauties serving him and he had a face filled with enjoyment. These two beauties were both serving girls of the Heaven Immortal Tower and they were arranged to be here with him to conduct some unclean transactions.

"Who?" At this moment, the world overlord suddenly opened his eyes. The immortal sense of someone actually landed on him, causing wariness to rise in his heart.

A figure directly stepped out from the void and appeared before him. His expression instantly changed and he immediately released his aura. But at this moment, an intense sense of danger appeared in his heart.

His surroundings instantly changed. This place no longer seemed to be his room, but a separate dimension instead. It was something formed from the power of a heavenheart mandate that has something to do with illusions.

"You are not my opponent. Let me urge you first not to make any reckless moves. If not, you will die." Qin Wentian coldly spoke. Right now, his true face and aura were concealed, he naturally didn't use his world heart too. After all, this man had felt the power from his world heart before and he might be able to recognize it. In any case, just using one of his heavenheart mandates was sufficient to suppress this world overlord.

"Who are you?" He stared at the eyes of Qin Wentian. There seemed to be some devilish power at work, easily causing those who matched stares with him to fall into the illusion. The sense of crisis in his heart couldn't be faked though, he knew that if he truly made a move now, he would be killed instantly.

"You don't have to care about my identity. Today, I came to the Heaven Immortal Tower to do something, just stay here in this separate dimension and cooperate with me. I won't kill you if you don't try anything, but if you do, just die." When Qin Wentian spoke, an overwhelming pressure from his heavenheart mandate engulfed the other world overlord. That world overlord trembled and didn't dare to make any moves after he felt how the great disparity between their strengths.

World overlords were extremely sensitive to the disparity in each other's strengths. There was no way to mitigate the difference in strength.

As for the two serving girls, Qin Wentian naturally caused them to fall into their own illusions easily with a single thought. There was no way they would be able to break free.

And during the time when Qin Wentian acted, Cao Tian and Phoenix also made their moves. The two of them used their absolute strength to control the two other world overlords. In an instant, all three world overlords from the Heaven Immortal Tower were completely controlled.

Inside the tower, numerous pair of eyes among the crowd gleamed sharply.

There were three powerful heavenheart mandates being deployed in three directions. To world overlords who were extremely sensitive to such energies, they naturally managed to sense it. As their immortal senses gushed forth wanting to investigate what had happened, Old Ghost actually unleashed the power of his heavenheart mandate at this moment, engulfing the entire Heaven Immortal Tower in an instant.

This was a heavenheart mandate Old Ghost recently comprehended and he has never used this before. Hence, no one would be able to tell that it was him.

When this heavenheart mandate was released, flowing dark-purple lines filled each level of the Heaven Immortal Tower completely. World overlords could sense an overwhelming destructive might from each of the lines. It was as though the controller just has to will it and those who came in contact with the lines would immediately die.

Many people in the Heaven Immortal Tower instantly stopped. Their eyes gleamed sharply, especially for the world overlords in the crowd.

"Everyone just stand here and don't move. My group is here to do some things in the Heaven Immortal Tower and we wish for no implications. We won't kill innocents if no one tries to stop us. But if someone dares to act recklessly and takes out their messaging crystal, I shall kill all of them and show no mercy." A voice thundered through the Heaven Immortal Tower.

When he was speaking, in certain locations inside the Heaven Immortal Tower, a few empyreans employees hurriedly wanted to hide some treasures away. But at this moment, a figure walked out from the void and grabbed everything with a wave of his hand. At the same time, a purple light penetrated through these empyreans. The immortal senses of the people here clearly saw that those empyreans froze and disintegrated completely a moment later when the purple lines touched them.

"What a fearsome heavenheart mandate." Everyone felt their hearts trembling. The air was filled with floating dark-purple lines, they were the manifestations of Old Ghost's heavenheart mandate. One would die instantly if they came in contact with them.

"Bandits? That world overlord walking in the void must be currently plundering the treasures." They could see someone walking in the void that was constantly plundering the treasures inside the tower, moving with incredible speed. At this instant, the hearts of many people trembled. No wonder the Heaven Immortal Tower must be controlled not allowing anyone to make reckless moves. So it turned out that these people wanted to rob the Heaven Immortal Tower.

In Time City, before the Convention of the Myriad Realms started, there actually were people wanting to rob the Heaven Immortal Power that was backed by the Dragon Pool Manor? There were many hidden dragons and crouching tigers who came here for the convention. Could it be that some world overlord-level bandits are mixed within them?

But even so, these people even dared to rob the Heaven Immortal Tower that was controlled by the Dragon Pool Manor? Wasn't their guts a little too great? This was something that has never happened before. It's equivalent to a declaration of war on the Dragon Pool Manor.

At this moment outside the Heaven Immortal Tower, there were some people who wanted to go there for shopping. From afar, when they saw the dark purplish energy surrounding the Heaven Immortal Tower and sensed the might radiating from it, all of them could feel how fearsome that was.

"What's happening?" Someone exclaimed in shock.

"Something seems to be happening in the Heaven Immortal Tower." Someone spoke. More experts arrived but when they sensed the energy enveloping the tower, their expressions all drastically changed. They took out their messaging crystals and instantly sent a message, "Someone is acting against the Heaven Immortal Tower."

Each of their voices were like shocking thunder in the middle of the night, causing a great deal of commotion as everyone also started to circulate what they heard. Also, all of this happened in an extremely short span of time and while this was going on, the robbery in the tower was still continuing. Old Ghost then directly transmitted his voice to the rest of them, "No more time, this incident is sure to be exposed. We should retreat now."

"Alright, retreat." Even Ten Miles Springwind, who was still frenziedly plundering, has stopped his action. The five of them then soared through the air with lightning speed and directly departed from the Heaven Immortal Tower. Thunderous explosions rang out as they left, while the entire Heaven Immortal Tower collapsed into pieces!

Chapter 1769: Mysterious Treasure

The speed of their departure was extremely quick. They knew that after the Dragon Pool Manor received news, they would definitely send reinforcements within the shortest period of time. How strong was the immortal sense of a world overlord? It was able to cover an extremely vast amount of land. But naturally, Time City was extremely vast. Just this city alone was even larger compared to the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. From this, one could very well imagine how terrifying the size of main cities in the Mystic Region are.

If not, given some extremely strong major powers who had developed for countless years with their populations in the billions, where would they be able to stay?

The powers here in Time City all controlled a large area of territories. For example, a power like the Dragon Pool Manor can be considered a supreme empire.

How fast is the speed of world overlords? They could travel a million miles in an instant. After the five of them came out of the tower, they sped towards a certain direction and entered the heart domain of Ten Miles Springwind. This was like a unique space in the void, allowing one to travel through endless distance in an instant. After a few moments, Qin Wentian soon felt that they were moving out of the void, appearing in a courtyard.

"Hu…" Ten Miles Springwind drew in a deep breath. With a wave of his hand, he sealed the space in the void and smiled, "Awesome, but it was a little dangerous. There seemed to be a world overlord hunting the void outside my unique space trying to lock on to me. Luckily I was fast enough and shook him off."

"We are back at the inn now?" Qin Wentian started as he asked.

"Naturally, what did you expect?" Ten Miles Springwind had a strange look on his face as he looked at Qin Wentian.

"This…" Qin Wentian was actually speechless to reply. Wasn't that speed a little too terrifying? This was the power of Ten Miles Springwind's world heart, truly unfathomable.

"You guys return first. I will temporarily store the treasures away and we will split the loot tomorrow. I'm afraid the investigation of the Dragon Pool Manor will soon lead them here." Ten Miles Springwind spoke. The others nodded. Old Ghost then stated, "Let's disperse."

After speaking, his silhouette disappeared with a flash of light. He naturally wouldn't feel that it was safe because they had returned to the inn.

Qin Wentian instantly understood after he thought about it a little. He returned to the place where he stayed in before. Although he has stepped into the World Overlord Realm, it was true that he was still unfamiliar with how world overlords do things and he was still thinking through things with his perspective in the past. However, things were different now. He is already a world overlord and the major powers he come in contact with are all extremely strong ones. For example a power like the Dragon Pool Manor, they would be able to carry out investigations in places they can investigate, in an extremely short period of time. As for those other major powers that are even larger and stronger than them, Qin Wentian's group naturally wouldn't even try to offend such powers.

As expected, not long after, a powerful immortal sense swept through the Ten Miles Inn. Ten Miles Springwind's figure soared up and appeared in the air as he spoke with some unhappiness in his tone, "Sir, what do you mean by this?"

The customers who were staying in the inn were all shocked. All of them walked out and had unhappy looks on their faces as they stared into the air.

"I apologize for disturbing all of you. Today, my Heaven Immortal Tower was robbed and we are now currently investigating. Please pardon us."

"That is your business, what does it have to do with my inn? How dare you disturb my inn's business. Scram." Ten Miles Springwind coldly spoke, sounding extremely domineering. That world overlord furrowed his brows but after that, he still clasped his hands, "I've disturbed everyone. Farewell then."

Even for people of the Dragon Pool Manor, it was impossible for them to offend all the world overlords here. During this time, Time City had many crouching tigers and hidden dragons and those who stayed in the inn might be from superpowers in the Mystic Region. It was naturally not too good to lose all cordiality with them.

This night was destined not to be calm. Who;e the Dragon Pool Manor investigated Time City, a commotion was caused throughout the city. The news of the Heaven Immortal Tower being plundered circulated everywhere swiftly.

To think that there would actually be people who were so crazy, daring to rob the Heaven Immortal Tower. This was simply too audacious. It was rumored that this robbery happened in a very short span of time. The bandits controlled the three world overlords of the Heaven Immortal Tower. The other world overlords who were shopping in the Heaven Immortal Tower also didn't dare to make any reckless moves as they were being controlled. For those outside the tower, it was possible that they didn't even notice it when the robbery started and only discovered something was wrong some time later.

Tonight, many major characters exploded in anger, angrily reacting to the probes by the people of the Dragon Pool Manor. They naturally didn't feel good when there were immortal senses spying on them. In fact, there were some world overlords from the Dragon Pool Manor that were forcefully captured. The Dragon Pool Manor had to provide a proper explanation before their world overlords were released. After all, those major characters also didn't want to offend the Dragon Pool Manor thoroughly. This was something understandable.

But despite the fast reaction speed of the Dragon Pool Manor, they found no clues when they launched their investigations. The bandits fled too quickly, vanishing into the void instantly with no traces they could follow.

Everyone could guess that they had definitely mingled into the crowd but what could the Dragon Pool Manor do? Now, there are so many world lords in Time City, who could be sure who the culprit was?

Many people guessed that since they failed to capture anyone at the initial investigation, it would be even tougher for them to find the culprits in the future. After all, for experts strong enough to plunder the Heaven Immortal Tower, they would definitely not be ordinary people. How could they give you a second chance to catch them?

The commotion this caused lingered for a period of time. Qin Wentian and the others received their split of loot secretly.

The robbery of the Heaven Immortal Tower was a major event. The Dragon Pool Manor naturally was no longer free to find trouble for Qin Wentian. Right now, they were trying to trace the culprits from Old Huo and the two world overlord's descriptions of the heavenheart mandates used against them. After all, it was impossible to change the power of their heavenheart mandates but the people from the Dragon Pool Manor soon discovered that they could find no clues at all.

Several days later in the Ten Miles Inn, Qin Wentian just came back after drinking with Ten Miles Springwind and the others. Back then, Ten Miles Springwind said that he had already ran out of that alcohol but for the next few days, he was able to produce several jars of that wine every day. Also, he would always say that he had already ran out, but the reality wasn't as such. Qin Wentian finally understood one thing. Ten Miles Springwind's words clearly couldn't be trusted. This was especially so when it came to matters of wine.

In the room, only Qing`er and Qingcheng were currently beside him. Before them, there were a dazzling lineup of accessory-type treasures. Only then did they know that the robbery of the Heaven Immortal Tower that shook the entirety of Time City was actually done by Qin Wentian and his group of newly acquainted friends.

"Wentian, don't do such a dangerous thing in the future." Qingcheng softly spoke. It was because of her that Qin Wentian had a grudge with the Heaven Immortal Tower.

"How would there be danger?" Qin Wentian smiled. He searched through the pile to find treasures suitable for Qing`er and Qingcheng. But since these were loot from the Heaven Immortal Tower, it was naturally not appropriate for them to wear it out in Time City as it was inconvenient. But even so, they could keep some of the treasures by their side first.

"Come and take your pick. Although these are loot, they are from the Heaven Immortal Tower. There's no need to feel guilty." Qin Wentian smiled. Mo Qingcheng nodded and smiled too. Just a single treasure from the Heaven Immortal Tower would cause many to be filled with envy, causing bounty hunters to hunt them. She naturally was very clear of what the consequences would be if they are really captured. But now, Qin Wentian has actually plundered the Heaven Immortal Tower instead and obtained so many treasures.

Qingcheng chose a few extremely exquisite accessory-type treasures, she also helped Qing'er to choose, "Elder sis Qing'er, these are very suitable for you. If you wear this phoenix crown, you would surely cause this fellow to be extremely mesmerized."

"I don't want." Qing`er felt a little shy as she shook her head.

"No way, after we return to the Qingcheng Sainthall, I will definitely make you wear it." Mo Qingcheng giggled. At this moment, her gaze landed on a pendant among the pile of treasures. This pendant was actually glowing resplendently, drawing her attention. Qin Wentian and Qing`er also stared at the pendant in bewilderment. Qin Wentian spoke, "This pendant is a little strange, I wonder what sort of treasure it is."

Mo Qingcheng stretched her hand out and placed the pendant on her neck. At the moment the pendant came in contact with Mo Qingcheng, the glow it radiated suddenly intensified and illuminated the entire room. Also, the energy fluctuations from it began to seep out. With a wave of his hand, a formless and powerful might enveloped the energy fluctuations, wanting to stop the seepage.

His gaze turned to Mo Qingcheng only to see that at this moment, Mo Qingcheng's body was also glowing. A phoenix gown shimmered in and out of existence, draped around her body. Phoenix wings also manifested behind her back, causing Mo Qingcheng to hover in the air. As for the pendant, it actually seemingly sank into her body, as though it wanted to fuse together with her. A complicated-looking diagram then manifested, resembling an immensely powerful formation that was brimming with light. In an instant, a huge burst of power gushed forth from the pendant, frenziedly seeping into Mo Qingcheng's body.

"Ah…" Mo Qingcheng cried in shock, as though she had no way to endure this terrifying burst of power. A look of agony could be seen on her face as her expression drastically changed.

"Qingcheng!" Shock filled Qin Wentian's features. With a flash of his silhouette, he wanted to hug Mo Qingcheng but a formless terrifying might burst out from her and directly forced him back. Right now, he was a world overlord existence but the power radiating from the pendant was actually able to force him back. This was simply unimaginable.

His countenance turned as pale as paper as he rushed forward once more. This time, he exerted even greater force and he finally broke through the forcefield and managed to hug Mo Qingcheng. Right now, Mo Qingcheng was in extreme pain. Qing`er who was at the side, had also turned pale with fright. She wanted to rush forward but her body basically couldn't even get near.

"What's going on?" Qin Wentian didn't understand. How would an accessory radiate such fearsome powers? What sort of treasure was this exactly? The phoenix gown was a gift from his mother, brought by Uncle Black for Qingcheng and has long fused as one with Mo Qingcheng's body. Right now, why did it take the initiative to appear? Was it for protecting Mo Qingcheng?

At this moment, Qin Wentian was afraid. It was very rare for him to be afraid like this, while feeling so helpless at the same time. He didn't know what he should do.

"I'm fine." Mo Qingcheng gritted her teeth and spoke when she saw how worried Qin Wentian was.

"Qingcheng." Qin Wentian hugged her tightly. Nothing must happen to Qingcheng!

...

At this moment in the Xuan Region, at a location extremely faraway from Time City, there was a group of experts currently rushing to somewhere. But at this moment, the woman in the lead halted her steps. After that, the people behind her halted as well.

This woman exuded boundless magnificence. She looked very young, roughly about the age of twenty. She also had an extremely beautiful face that would cause the world to stare at her in awe. Her body was covered by a layer of holy divine light but her cultivation base was very terrifying, at the world overlord realm.

"Miss, what's wrong?" An old man beside her asked.

"Why?" The woman mumbled, a doubting tone could clearly be heard in her voice, causing people in the surroundings to feel puzzled.

"There's definitely nothing wrong with my senses. That item is really in Time City. However, why is there someone else that can activate it? That item should belong to me by right." The young woman mumbled. The old man beside her trembled suddenly. That treasure was activated? How can this be possible?

After that, he smiled bitterly. Back then, his young miss tossed the item away willfully. She most probably didn't expect that this would happen!

Chapter 1770: Kiss of the Demon God

In the Ten Miles Inn, Qin Wentian was still hugging Mo Qingcheng. The pain persisted on for a long time and Mo Qingcheng had already fainted into unconsciousness. As for that brilliant glow, it also faded away. Only the pendant around her neck was still shimmering weakly but it no longer radiated any aura, making it seem as though it was just an ordinary pendant.

"What is this exactly?" Qin Wentian stared at the pendant. This was an accessory from the Heaven Immortal Tower but why would it form a resonance with Mo Qingcheng? What has she experienced through the ordeal exactly?

In addition, the phoenix gown earlier had appeared. Was it protecting Mo Qingcheng? And also, what was going on with the resplendent diagram that seemed like a formation? He had no idea about any of this but luckily, all of that has already passed. Mo Qingcheng had only fainted and there didn't seem to be any major injury to her. After she woke up, Qin Wentian should be able to understand more.

Qing`er quietly stayed at the side, both of them had been waiting for Mo Qingcheng. Mo Qingcheng only awoke during the second day. Her beautiful eyes flashed with a strange light, her entire person seemed to be covered by a layer of light.

"Qingcheng." Qin Wentian called out when he saw that she was awake.

Mo Qingcheng smiled gently, "I'm fine now."

"Mhm, that's good then. Qin Wentian's worried heart was finally set at ease. His hand gently caressed her face and stared at her tenderly. Qingcheng also smiled radiantly back at him.

"Qingcheng, what happened earlier?" Qing`er walked over and softly spoke.

A bizarre look flashed in Mo Qingcheng's eyes. She sat up and glanced at the pendant around her neck and with a single thought, the pendant directly entered her skin and left behind a mark there. A wondrous diagram appeared from her body and her entire person suddenly seemed different.

"Kiss of the Demon God." Mo Qingcheng mumbled.

"Kiss of the Demon God?" Qin Wentian started. Mo Qingcheng smiled, "This pendant is named 'Kiss of the Demon God.'"

"You have already formed a connection with it, what sort of treasure is this exactly?" Qin Wentian felt very curious. This pendant wasn't considered an ultimate treasure of the Heaven Immortal Tower and was somewhat ordinary in the dazzling lineup of loot he obtained. It was just that it suddenly activated when Mo Qingcheng wore it? And there seemed to be some unusual effects.

Mo Qingcheng closed her eyes. In the next instant, the glow from her body began to glow brighter and brighter, illuminating the entire room. Countless law formations appeared, also enveloping Qin Wentian and Qing`er. The glow they exuded was so resplendent that even the heavens and earth would lose their color.

In the center of the formation, a faint shadow slowly appeared behind Mo Qingcheng. Or more accurately, the formations all surrounded her.

That faint shadow was that of an immensely large phoenix. Her eyes were sharp and bright, like it was alive. There was no doubt that this was a true phoenix. Currently, a hint of disdain could be seen in her eyes as she stared at Qin Wentian and Qing`er. This phoenix was like a true demon god.

"This…" Qin Wentian's heart pounded. The phoenix gave him a feeling that this pendant could be used to summon it. How could such a majestic and ancient true phoenix actually be summoned from the pendant?

"Who are you all?" The ancient phoenix asked, speaking in the human tongue. Qin Wentian, Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er felt huge waves in their hearts again.

This phoenix was truly alive and it actually has the ability to think. It actually asked them who they were.

"What treasure is this pendant? Why can it be activated by my wife?" Qin Wentian counter-asked, his eyes gleaming with sharpness as he stared at the phoenix.

"Your wife?" The phoenix glanced at the beautiful maiden she was supposed to protect. "The gown she is wearing is created from the energy of my bloodline. This is the reason why she can summon me, forming a resonance between us. Where did she get the gown from?"

Qin Wentian's heart trembled again. So it turned out that the reason for activation was actually because of the phoenix gown.

"This is a gift from my mother." Qin Wentian replied.

The phoenix coldly glanced at Qin Wentian. An immense surge of energy radiated from her, enveloping this room, boring down on Qin Wentian.

Qin Wentian frowned. He released his powerful world heart, completely isolating this space. He stared at the phoenix and coldly spoke, "I have no reason to lie to you."

"You don't have the bloodline?" The phoenix also replied back in a domineering manner, coldly staring at Qin Wentian. Her words seemed a little vague but Qin Wentian instantly thought about something. Could this have something to do with the mother whom he has never seen before?

"I died once and my soul was almost scattered. Upon reviving, I lost my bloodline powers." Qin Wentian spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, he revealed his astral souls. The phoenix glanced at his astral souls and the might radiating from her dissipated a little. Clearly, she began to trust Qin Wentian. If one hasn't died once, it was impossible for a person to have such powerful astral souls, not even if the person had reincarnated.

"Where is your mother? Who is she?" The phoenix asked again.

"I don't know, I've never met her before. I grew up in a particle world and initially thought that I was an orphan. I only learnt that I have parents after that. I also have no idea where she is, whether she is alive or dead. My purpose in coming to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms is precisely because I wish to investigate this matter." If it was others asking him, he wouldn't explain so clearly. But this phoenix seemed to have a connection with his mother. This was why he told the phoenix so much.

"Seems like your wife is truly fortunate." The phoenix spoke in a low voice. She gradually trusted Qin Wentian more and more. Sadly, it seemed that the spirit lord of this generation was going to be somewhat weak.

Qin Wentian frowned, his tone was cold, "If you are unwilling, I won't force you to. You can remove the connection between the pendant and my wife."

"What do you mean?" The phoenix stared at Qin Wentian.

At this moment, a bright light flashed as the Skybreak Heavenly Deity appeared. This caused the phoenix to glance at the Skybreak Heavenly Deity. From his body, she could feel an unknown sense of pressure.

"Just a weapon spirit. How dare you be so arrogant? Since she has become your spirit lord, that is your fortune. What qualifications do you have to say that she is fortunate?" The Skybreak Heavenly Deity coldly spoke.

"Who are you?" The phoenix stared at the Skybreak Heavenly Deity.

"Skybreak Heavenly Deity." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity coldly replied. "Note your attitude when speaking to me."

The phoenix suddenly laughed. She stared at Qin Wentian, "Seems like you are really not simple and have had extraordinary encounters before.

"Are you willing to stay or not? If you are not, I've already said that I wouldn't force you. You can remove the connection between you and my wife." Qin Wentian spoke. He had no wish for a weapon spirit that was disrespectful to Qingcheng to remain. He wouldn't allow anyone or anything to show disrespect to her.

"How arrogant, as expected of a descendant of that clan. Fine, I'm willing to stay and treat her as my spirit lord, obeying her summons."

A smile then appeared on Qin Wentian's face. "Alright, since this is the case. Thank you, senior."

His character was always like this, if the other party was disrespectful, he wouldn't fear them. But if the other party was respectful, he would naturally return the respect, no matter who the other party was.

"Senior, what I said before is the truth. I really have no idea who my mother is. Earlier, when senior said the phrase 'as expected of a descendant from that clan,' which clan are you referring to?" Qin Wentian inquired. He didn't expect that this robbery of the Heaven Immortal Tower would actually bring about such a coincidence, allowing him to meet a treasure from his mother's clan and even formed a resonance with Mo Qingcheng due to a series of coincidences.

He felt that he was gradually getting closer to his mother's clan.

"There is no need for me to tell you this. In the near future, you will naturally learn of it." The phoenix calmly spoke. "Earlier, you were not polite at all. And although I have acknowledge your wife to be the spirit lord, I don't need to listen to your commands."

Qin Wentian awkwardly smiled. Mo Qingcheng then asked, "In that case, senior, can I ask on behalf of him?"

"No. You are clearly tricking me. Hmph." The phoenix spoke. "I'm leaving, if you have need of me in the future, just summon me."

As the sound of her voice faded, the light dimmed as the phoenix returned to the pendant around Mo Qingcheng's neck. After that, the pendant sank back inside Mo Qingcheng's skin, leaving behind just a mark there.

"To think that there actually is such a mystical treasure." Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice.

"Seems like your origins are extraordinary." Although the Skybreak Heavenly Deity was very domineering earlier, when he looked at Qin Wentian now, a small look of surprise could be seen on his face.

"Even until now, I don't know what my origins are. I only know that my parents have a death grudge as deep as an ocean of blood with their clans. I have to avenge them no matter what." Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with a terrifying light.

"If you can become an existence like the Imperishable Heaven Lord, you would have the capability to pay all your enemies back." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity calmly spoke. "It's time for me to sleep. If you need me, just wake me up again."

"Right." Qin Wentian nodded. The manifested will of the Skybreak Heavenly Deity then vanished.

In the room, only Qin Wentian, Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng were left.

"Qingcheng, do you feel that anything is different?" He could sense that something has changed with Mo Qingcheng.

"Mhm...there seems to be a mysterious energy that is constantly tempering my body." Mo Qingcheng nodded her head. "This is especially so in the location of my heart. My heartbeat has became much quicker."

Qin Wentian stretched his hand out and placed it on her chest, feeling the beat of her heart. As expected, her heart was pounding with more force than usual, there seemed to be a mysterious energy circulating through it.

"This should be an effect after the Kiss of the Demon God is activated. This treasure is extraordinary, maybe, its function isn't as simple as merely summoning a spirit phoenix body." Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice but as of now, he had no way to verify his guess.

"Mhm." Mo Qingcheng nodded, she also felt the same.

"Seems like this is an opportunity mother-in-law has bestowed on me. Wentian, do you think that mother-in-law is in the shadows, silently watching you grow?" Qingcheng suddenly spoke. Qin Wentian's gaze turned somewhat ethereal. Was his mother really still alive?

What about his father? How was he now? He had lived two lifetimes, and now during his second life, was he doing good?

"If my mother is still alive, she would surely feel very proud of me after seeing you two." Qin Wentian stretched his hands out and embraced Qing`er and Qingcheng as he tenderly spoke.

...

The commotion of the Heaven Immortal Tower being robbed still hasn't faded away. Time passed by, the bandits seemed to have all evaporated into thin air, there was simply no way to find them. Most probably, never in their wildest dreams would the Dragon Pool Manor expect that one of the bandits would actually be Qin Wentian, that person who forcefully took Jin Zhi away. They initially wanted to use the price of one treasure to capture Qin Wentian but now, in Qin Wentian's hands, there are several treasures of their Heaven Immortal Tower instead.

As time continued to pass, the commencement date of the Convention of the Myriad Realms got nearer and nearer. The atmosphere of Time City naturally also surged up and got livelier!

Chapter 1771: Cao Tian’s Background

During the next few days, Qin Wentian didn't go out needlessly. His understanding of the Convention was already sufficient and he was quietly waiting for its commencement.

The date has finally almost arrived. In just three more days, the Convention shall commence. Also, during these three days, the people who came to Time City to attend the Convention also started to head there to the gathering point.

Dawn just arrived, the sun has yet to rise but right now, the atmosphere of the entire Time City was already extremely bustling. Countless experts was overwhelmed by emotions. Yet another convention was going to commence. After all, this convention was held only once every ten thousand years. They couldn't help but wonder what good fortune they might encounter this time around.

In the Ten Miles Inn, the atmosphere today was different than usual. There would be endless batches of people rising into the air, leaving the inn. The peace and quiet usually was now disrupted early in the morning.

Inside his own courtyard, Qin Wentian stared at the air. He could see countless experts soaring through, heading towards a certain direction. There were simply too many experts, including many world overlords. In addition, there would be an occasional few with extremely powerful auras.

They were all heading towards the same location. This location was named the Time Realm, it was the place where the Convention of the Myriad Realm would commence.

The commencement location naturally would have to be a space that was large enough to accommodate vast amounts of people. After all, many of the participants were all world overlords.

Inside Time City, there was a mysterious realm that existed since ancient times up until now. It was said that that realm was the realm the Time King had cultivated in when he was still alive. Right now, it was jointly governed and shared by the three hegemonic powers of the Mystic Region.

That location, was none other than the Time Realm.

The Time Realm was extremely wondrous. Inside there, the flow of time is often disordered, possessing a unique rhythm. Every ten thousand years, the rate of the flow of time would reach a peak. If you spent a year in there, only a day worth of time would pass on the outside.

Naturally, it was impossible to maintain this flow ratio forever. Only for a short period of time once every ten thousand years would this be possible. If one stayed in Time Realm for a long time, there might be periods where time spent inside the Time Realm is much shorter than time spent on the outside. Maybe a single day in Time Realm might be equal to a year of time outside.

Being able to change the flow of time, how heavenly-defying was that? From this, one could very well imagine how powerful the person named 'Time King' was.

"Brother Qin, when are you moving out?" At this moment, a figure came over. This was none other than the inn's boss, Ten Miles Springwind. He was the same as before and seemed extremely spirited. Below his white brows, his gaze had a look of joyfulness. Although this fellow was a little shameless, he seemed to be living a happy life everyday.

"We are just preparing to set off. What about you?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Haha, let's go together. I'll call for them." Ten Miles Springwind laughed.

"No need." A voice drifted over as Cao Tian directly appeared.

"Brother Cao." Qin Wentian called out. During these days, he grew more and more familiar with this group of new friends. After all, they had robbed the Heaven Immortal Tower together. Their relationships would naturally be deeper after that.

"Mhm, old brother Qin, this is the first time you are attending the Convention, right? Things will surely be very interesting for you." Cao Tian laughed.

"Ai, I'm old now." Old Ghost mumbled. He suddenly appeared directly beside them. He was the oldest among this group of people and ever since he knew Qin Wentian reached this level within a thousand years of cultivation, his confidence had suffered a setback.

"You are indeed old now." Phoenix also arrived. The five man party that looted the Heaven Immortal Manor all gathered here now. It was unknown if the Heaven Immortal Tower would be able to link this group of five to the robbery if they saw them.

"Do you want to bring your family and friends along?" Ten Miles Springwind asked.

"Mhm, since the Time Realm doesn't prohibit that, I wish to bring them along with me and allow them to broaden their horizons." Qin Wentian spoke. In truth, he was worried about leaving Qing`er and Qingcheng alone inside Time City.

"No problem, the Convention of the Myriad Realms will naturally make satisfactory arrangement for that. Many world overlords would bring their friends and family along as well." Ten Miles Springwind explained and continued, "Since this is the case, should we head out now?"

"Sure." Qin Wentian nodded. The others agreed as well. Qin Wentian gathered everyone and the group of them soared into the air, flying towards the direction of the Time Realm.

As the legendary place of Time City, the location of the Time Realm was in the central core location of Time City. There was an ancient building with its top touching the clouds, it exuded a sense of majesticness and although it was a little dilapidated, its original form was maintained and there was a stairway that led upwards. Legend has it that this place was the residence of the Time King, or better known as the Godking of Time. The entrance to the Time Realm existed right at the top of this ancient building.

At this moment, floods of people could be seen below. It was unknown how many had gathered here today. When they stared at the stairway, all of them had looks of anticipation on their faces, as though they hated the fact that they were not able to witness the splendor of the Time King personally and could only revere the place where he stayed in.

Among these people, the world overlords here were as common as clouds and there were also many transcendent-level world overlords. In fact, many existences were major characters who had a realm or numerous territories under them. Their statuses were extremely terrifying.

The crowd all gathered in different locations as they belonged to different camps. There were some people standing independently, not belonging to any group, and there were also many world overlords of the same level gathering together as they went to pay their respects to the major characters at the world overlord realm.

"The people from the Samsara Temple have arrived. At this moment, someone spoke out. Countless people stared in the air only to see experts from an immensely strong major power arriving. Each of them were dazzling in their own rights and had unfathomable auras. Their gazes all felt extremely fearsome as though they had the ability to see through the six cycles of samsara.

Countless people turned their eyes over. Qin Wentian, who have already arrived here, also turned to glance at them. Nanfeng Yaoyue's beautiful eyes flashed as she asked in a low voice. "Are they the legendary powers responsible for the spreading of dao elements?"

In the Mystic Region, there are quite a few powers like this. They were responsible for spreading their dao elements to other locations, including lower worlds. Qin Wentian and the others have heard of this before and this Samsara Temple was precisely one of such powers. Other than the three hegemonic powers that ruled the Mystic Region, the Samsara Temple was second to none other.

"I wonder if the dao elements in the City of Ancient Emperors back in our Azure Mystic has something to do with them or not?" Qin Wentian silently mused.

At this moment, more exclamations could be heard from the crowd as their gazes turned to the horizons, staring at a group of figures who were soaring through the air.

"The Wuji Immortal Realms have arrived."

"Mhm, it's indeed the Wuji Immortal Realms." Many people spoke.

"Mhm, they are indeed from the Wuji Heavens." Many people spoke. This group had many imposing figures, there were many world overlords in there, and was clearly exuding an imposing aura.

"The Wuji Heavens, one of the four immortal realms controlled by the Mystic Region." Qin Wentian mumbled.

"In any case, you wouldn't care too much about it, right?" Ten Miles Springwind lightly laughed. Qin Wentian stared at his smile and speechlessly shook his head. "I'm just not used to following the commands of others."

"I can tell." Ten Miles Springwind laughed. "Look, they have arrived."

As the sound of his voice faded, another group of powerful experts from a major power could be seen flying here from another direction. There were also plenty of world overlords in this group and the might they exuded was extremely terrifying. Although they were flying above the heads of many people, no one dared to say a thing.

In this group, Qin Wentian saw a familiar figure. It was none other than Donghuang Ying, the beautiful maiden who invited him to be her follower back then. The young man from before still followed beside her, as though he was a flower guardian.

"The Eastern Royal Heavens is here as well. It's rumored that they sent a little princess to lead them. Could this little princess be this young woman in the lead?" Many people stared at Donghuang Ying as they speculated.

"How beautiful, and she has a heroic aura. Given her young age, she is already an empyrean. I heard that this little princess is truly extremely young." Many people discussed. Donghuang Ying was naturally none other than the little princess of the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms.

The Mystic Region controls four immortal realms. The Eastern Royal Heavens, Scarlet Sun Heavens, Wuji Heavens and Beginning Heavens. They were different from Azure Mystic, the overlords of each of the immortal realms had complete governance and authority yet they were also vassal forces under the three hegemon-level powers in the Mystic Region.

This was the same for the other Supreme Ancient Regions except for the Desolate Region.

"This lass has grown up." Cao Tian stared at Donghuang Ying as he spoke. Qin Wentian's heart trembled, he had never asked Cao Tian about his identity before but he actually referred to the Eastern Royal's little princess as little lass? What is his background then? He should be on the same level as her at the very least or he wouldn't dared to say that.

In that case, Ten Miles Springwind and the others staged the robbery because they truly had confidence? Even if something went wrong, they would instantly shred all pretense of cordiality and Cao Tian would reveal his identity. Once Cao Tian did so, not even the Dragon Pool Manor would dare to do anything.

"Hey, your clan members have arrived too." Ten Miles Springwind spoke. From afar, another group of powerful experts could be seen flying over. Their bodies glowed with a dazzling divine glow and there were similarly many world overlords in this group, each of them seemingly extraordinary and unexcelled in the world.

"Cao Tian's clan?" Qin Wentian mumbled. The people in the surroundings started to discuss, and after Qin Wentian heard their words, his heart trembled. He stared at Cao Tian, "Who would have thought that Big Brother Cao actually has such an impressive background."

Cao Tian was actually from a clan that controls an immortal realm. His clan was actually the overlord of the Scarlet Sun Immortal Realms.

"Don't mention it. My clan members don't really like me." Cao Tian spoke. "It's still better to depend on myself."

As the sound of Cao Tian's voice faded, a sharp gaze from that group instantly turned over, as though that person heard Cao Tian's words. The gaze was somewhat cold, Cao Tian wasn't willing to be in the weaker position as he began to match gazes with that person. Their gazes collided in midair with such intensity that it seemed as though sparks would appear. Are they really clan members? This seemed like a meeting between two enemies. Qin Wentian was somewhat speechless when he saw this.

However, Cao Tian probably hasn't severed all connections with his clan or Ten Miles Springwind and the others wouldn't say that the Dragon Pool Manor wouldn't dare to do anything once Cao Tian revealed his background.

There should probably be another story behind why Cao Tian chose to venture out and establish his own power.

"Big brother, you are here as well. Why don't you come and join us?" A world overlord stared at Cao Tian. This man was extremely good-looking and had an impressive demeanor.

"Hmph." Cao Tian coldly snorted. "I'm together with my friends."

"Just a bunch of lowlifes, how can they be your friends?" The person who matched gaze with Cao Tian earlier coldly stared at Qin Wentian's group as he spoke with disdain, not giving the slightest bit of face to Cao Tian.

Chapter 1772: Your surname is Qin?

Qin Wentian, Ten Miles Springwind and the others were a little speechless. How presumptuous of this person.

Old Ghost narrowed his eyes, he stared at them, "You guys best speak more politely."

"What a great temper." The middle-aged man who spoke swept his glance over to Old Ghost as a cold light flickered in his eyes.

"Although you are my elder, you can directly tell me if you are unhappy about anything. Why would you insult my friends? Such behavior is truly a disgrace to our Cao Clan." Cao Tian domineeringly replied.

"I am a disgrace to the Cao Clan? Why don't you talk about yourself instead?" It seems that this man was already used to Cao Tian's attitude. He coldly continued, "As for I being your elder? I don't have the honor to be your elder at all."

Qin Wentian didn't say anything. He was completely ignorant about the grudges between Cao Tian and his clan and it wasn't his place to interfere. Both the tones of Cao Tian and the middle-aged man now were filled with unhappiness but as long as they didn't completely sever their relationships, they were still considered kin.

"Brother Qin, your Big Brother Cao has a lot of bitterness in his heart." Ten Miles Springwind transmitted his voice to Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian glanced at him, only to hear Ten Miles Springwind continue explaining, "Do you know why Old Cao fled from his clan and came out to establish his own power?"

Qin Wentian was speechless. Was this actually even a question? He naturally had no idea.

"Because he wanted to evade an arranged marriage." Ten Miles Springwind spoke. "His Clan arranged a wedding for him and the background of his bride was extremely impressive as well. Both sides wished to be allied through marriage. His clan approved of this, the girl he was to marry had no objections as well because your big brother Cao can still be considered pretty charming. However, the problem lies here. Given Old Cao's personality, how would he accept an arranged marriage? Although that woman he was supposed to marry can be considered quite beautiful, she was not a supreme beauty. Also, if he married her, it was probably impossible for him to take in concubines in the future, so how can he not escape? Now that he is alone out there, he can have as many beautiful women as he wants, how carefree is that? Old Cao is truly extremely courageous."

Qin Wentian persperied. He didn't expect the reason to actually be fleeing from an arranged marriage. This was simply too contrived. Cao Tian's personality was too hard, no matter what your background is, he didn't want to marry means he didn't want to marry. At most, he would simply leave the clan and set up his own power.

The words exchanged by Cao Tian and his clan members had the note of unhappiness, it was clear they parted on bad terms. Both parties then shifted their gazes away. Cao Tian's clan went to greet the other major powers and chatted with them, as though they were very familiar with each other. They also went to greet the Donghuang Clan.

There were simply too many experts here today. Many of them were overlords of an entire area, those with similar statuses were all grouped together while the weaker world overlords paid respect to them. For powers like the Samsara Temple, Spatial Saint Hall, Donghuang Clan and Cao Clan, they naturally belonged to the peak-tier of powers. Only the three hegemon-level powers were above them.

At this moment among the crowd, another group of experts finally arrived here. This group of people came from the other Regions and the person in the lead was a beautiful young woman. Although she was very young, her cultivation base was already at the world overlord realm. She instantly drew plenty of attention from the crowd. Similarly, her group also consisted of many world overlord experts.

"We finally arrived." The young woman mumbled.

"Young miss, are you sure that the person you are looking for is among the crowd who is here for the Convention of the Myriad Realms?" An old man beside her asked.

"My instinct tells me so. No worries, even if we cannot find the person, we can just attend the convention this time around." The young woman softly spoke. This was none other than the young woman who detected something was wrong when the pendant formed a connection with Mo Qingcheng. She brought her group and rushed here and finally arrived now.

"You guys don't seem familiar, which major power of the Mystic Region do you all belong to?" At this moment, the handsome and extraordinary-looking young man from the Cao Clan of Scarlet Sun Immortal Realms glanced at the young woman as he asked. Given the Cao Clan's judgement, they naturally could tell that this young woman had an impressive origin. However, they were familiar with the majority of major powers in the Mystic Region and even if they weren't familiar, they should be able to tell where this group was from. However, they seemed to have never seen these people before.

"The Convention of Myriad Realms held in the Mystic Regions wouldn't prohibit people from the other Regions attending it, right?" The young woman stared at the young man as she asked.

Upon hearing her words, many people turned their gazes over. This group of people actually came from the other Regions.

"So you guys are valued guests from other Regions. I'm someone from the Cao Clan of the Scarlet Sun Immortal Realms. I wonder where does young miss and your entourage originate from?" The young man gently smiled, causing many people to feel comfortable when they saw him. However, the identity of this young woman was extremely extraordinary. She has naturally seen plenty of talented geniuses from the various major powers before. She merely calmly replied, "Those who came from afar are guests, there's no need for you to inquire so much."

The young man started but he soon smiled and nodded his head. "Since this is the case, I won't disturb miss then."

At this moment, Qin Wentian was also staring at this young woman. Her aura was extremely outstanding and her beauty was truly supreme, capable of even shaming the moon and flowers. Also, she exuded a sense of nobility and holiness that does not allow anyone to profane her. But not only so, Qin Wentian actually sensed a familiar aura from her. He didn't know where this sense of familiarity came from but he could clearly feel it in his bones.

The young woman seemed to have sensed something. Her beautiful eyes turned over to Qin Wentian as she frowned. This young man was staring at her with an intensity that she found disrespectful.

"My name is Qin Wentian, may I ask for the name of young miss?" Qin Wentian spoke. He didn't know why he spoke as well. Earlier, this young woman has just rejected a young world overlord from the Cao Clan yet he chose now to ask the young woman for her name. Most probably, she wouldn't answer. But even so, the sense of familiarity he was feeling still caused him to ask the question.

"Your surname is Qin?" The young woman frowned. She glanced at the women around Qin Wentian and noted that they were all extremely beautiful. She naturally thought that Qin Wentian also had designs on her and hence, her gaze towards him was somewhat unfriendly. She icily replied, "None of the people surnamed Qin are good characters."

Qin Wentian's face was filled with black lines. He was completely speechless. Her response to him was much worse compared to her response to the young world overlord earlier. He was directly cursed at.

However, he truly had no designs on her, he only wanted to know why he would feel a sense of familiarity towards her.

But now, she actually implicated everyone with the surname Qin. What does this mean? Could it be that in the past, there were people surnamed Qin who had offended her before?

There are so many people under the heavens, countless people would share the same surname. The young woman completely scolded everyone with the surname Qin. How much resentment does she actually feel for people with the surname of Qin?

Bitterly smiling while shaking his head, Qin Wentian had nothing more to say.

Below the stairway, more and more experts rushed here. At this moment, another extraordinary group arrived. There were many young world overlords with extraordinary auras. The instant they appeared, many in the crowd immediately focused on them.

The person leading this group was an old man wearing a robe with star designs. His aura was transcendent and his eyes were full of spirit. Many people went to pay their respects, including some realmlords who were extremely powerful individuals in their own right. In addition, Qin Wentian also knew where this group came from.

These people were from a legendary location that was worthy of respect, where the dao was transmitted. They were from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

In the past, he visited the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy for the sake of returning to Azure Mystic and he left soon after that. Now that they saw the people of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy here, Qin Wentian and his group involuntarily walked forward, moving towards the old man in the lead as they bowed, "Qin Wentian, a student of the sacred academy, pays my respect to senior."

The old man glanced at Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was young and exuded an extraordinary aura and proclaimed that he was a student from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy when greeting him. Seems like he truly must have received some benefits from the academy before.

"Where are you from?" The old man asked.

"Junior is from a lower world named the Azure Mystic Immortal Realms. I was once a student of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy there, cultivating within and attending the dao lectures." Qin Wentian politely replied.

"Azure Mystic." A strange light light appeared in the old man's eyes. Azure Mystic was considered a special place, unique among the thirty-three heavens. This young man was from Azure Mystic yet he actually has such accomplishments today. It was truly extremely difficult and rare.

The Evergreen Immortal Emperor and the others also came by to pay their respects as they were all considered students of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy as well.

"He is the Qingcheng Realmlord." Someone spoke out, causing quite a few people to turn to Qin Wentian. The grudge between the Qingcheng Realmlord and Heaven Immortal Tower might not be considered a major incident in Time City but it still generated quite a large deal of commotion. One was a transcendent-level world overlord, everyone initially thought that he would have some impressive background. Nobody expected that he came from the inconspicuous and weak Azure Mystic.

The people of the Dragon Pool Manor also naturally arrived today. They also stared at Qin Wentian. Although they wouldn't start something with Qin Wentian now at this location, they still had unfriendly looks when they stared at him. This was especially so for Longyuan Haoyu, his gaze was ice-cold.

"Let's ascend the stairway. The entrance is about to open." An expert from the Donghuang Clan spoke, causing the gazes of everyone to turn to the stairway. This stairway had the name of the Stairway of Time, it was the only way to head to the Time Realm's entrance.

Many people nodded their heads respectively. After that, the Donghuang Clan, Cao Clan of the Scarlet Sun Immortal Realms and Samsara Temple, these peak powers were the first to step on the stairway, followed by the famous realmlords. Naturally, the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy also received respect from plenty of people here. Many people gave way for them to proceed first.

The countless experts all began to head up the stairway, towards the ancient palace at the peak that was in the clouds.

Far below, many who came here to spectate had looks of envy in their eyes. Although the number of experts attending the convention here was countless in number, there were even more spectators who came here because they wanted to catch a glimpse of the major characters. These spectators didn't have the qualifications to attend the convention. Only world overlords and their friends and family were qualified to enter the Time Realm.

At the peak of the stairway, there was a time gate. Many world overlords were outside this gate, guarding the entrance. These people were sent here by the three hegemonic powers.

Although the convention was organized by the three hegemon powers, they wouldn't directly appear here and would only operate from behind the scenes. Naturally, there would also be junior world overlords from their side that attended.

"Everyone, it has been tough on all of you." The leader of the guards spoke politely to everyone. He represented the three hegemonic powers and didn't dare to show any disrespect to the guests.

"The entrance to the Time Realm is now opened." A person calmly spoke. After that, the crowd nodded as they started to enter the gate, stepping into the Time Realm.

More and more experts poured in, these people were from all locations in the Mystic Region and there were even experts from the other Regions coming here to attend the Convention of the Myraid Realms.

Today, the location where the convention would be held, the entrance to the Time Realm had opened.

Qin Wentian was among the crowd, he and his group of people had finally arrived before the time gate.

"Convention of the Myriad Realms, how fascinating would it be?" Qin Wentian mused in a soft voice. After that, he nodded to the people around him and pulled Qing`er and Mo Qingcheng with him, stepping through the time gate, arriving at the Time Realm!

Chapter 1773: Inside the Time Realm

The Time Realm was like an entire world all by itself.

When Qin Wentian entered the Time Realm, he instantly knew that the Time Realm was a boundlessly vast world. His immortal sense swept out and he discovered numerous majestic palaces standing tall in the Time Realm, exuding an aura of imposingness.

"Brother Qin." Ten Miles Springwind, who entered just before him, called out. Qin Wentian turned and stared at him only to hear Ten Miles Springwind saying, "This is the first time you are attending the Convention of the Myriad Realms. You should have some understanding of the convention through your own sources during these days, right? Right now, you can choose any one of the palaces to stay in and the palace you choose would be your residence here. Your family and friends can stay in there and as long as they don't exit, it's absolutely safe."

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. He knew that there were many palaces in the Time Realm that were used to host world overlords who came to attend the convention. This grand event occurred only once every ten thousand years and wouldn't be concluded so quickly in a day or two. The convention would last for a period of time.

"Let's move in the same direction." Phoenix spoke. "At the very least, we can take care of each other."

"Phoenix, why don't you stay in the same palace as me? Things wouldn't be boring then." Ten Miles Springwind smiled.

"Scram." Phoenix spoke. Ten Miles Springwind had a wryly smile on his face.

Up ahead, many world overlords already started to move, searching for a palace to stay in. Behind them, more and more experts continued to enter.

Ten Miles Springwind's group and Qin Wentian's group traveled in the same direction.

"We are the first batch to enter, should we select a good location?" Ten Miles Springwind asked.

"Naturally we have to select the palaces in the central area." Cao Tian stated. This wasn't the first time they attended the Convention of the Myriad Realms. They were very familiar with things here.

"Are you not worried that someone might snatch them from us? At that time, we may lose face." Phoenix laughed.

"Who would dare to snatch a palace I claim for my own?" Cao Tian arrogantly spoke. Although he ventured out from his clan and established a separate power, his combat prowess individually was extremely high. Also, he had the status of someone from the Cao Clan, those transcendent-level world overlords would still give him some face no matter what and wouldn't act to seize the palace he chose. After all, there were plenty of good locations in the Time Realm.

"Didn't you say that the palace is very safe? We are not allowed to fight inside the palaces, right?" Qin Wentian then continued, "Why would there be cases of people seizing the palaces?"

"You are too naive." Phoenix spoke. "If you chose a palace that is in a good location and an extremely powerful expert came by saying that he wants this palace instead, telling you to choose another one. He naturally wouldn't act against you in there, but would you allow him to take the palace for himself or not?"

Qin Wentian's face was filled with black lines after he heard this. What else would he do? This world was a place dictated by strength, there is no absolute fairness here. For powerful characters, they would have special treatment wherever they went to.

"Since this is the case, I think it's better for me to casually choose a place to stay instead." Qin Wentian smiled. This time, it was unknown how many supreme experts would enter the Time Realm. There were those supreme world overlords of the older generation, the talented world overlords of the young generation as well. All heroes of the Mystic Region would be present. There was no need to stir up trouble just for the sake of a residence. It was fine to casually select one.

"Up to you then." Ten Miles Springwind didn't say anything more. The group of them still continued traveling in the same direction. There were some major characters who already chose their territories, their residences were all ancient palaces in the central locations that occupied the best spot. They had such confidence to do so, and these major characters were all from peak powers like the Samsara Temple, Eastern Royal Immortal Realms, Scarlet Sun Immortal Realms, etc.

Other than them, those famous Realmlords also picked extremely good palaces for their own families. This was only logical.

Ten Miles Springwind, Cao Tian and the others all chose their own palaces respectively. Their locations were considered very good, and it seemed that they were truly not afraid of trouble. As for Qin Wentian, the palace he picked could be considered quite remote and was some distance away from them. But even so, the palace was big enough. There were many rooms available for his family and friends. In any case, world overlords from major powers would often bring many people for the convention, the residences prepared here naturally must be large enough.

"Youhuang, given your cultivation base you should be able to choose a palace for yourself. Do you want to stay together with everyone or otherwise?" Qin Wentian stood in the airspace above the palace, speaking to Beiming Youhuang as he stared at the beautiful scenery here.

"I will stay with everyone." Beiming Youhuang softly spoke. Qin Wentian nodded, "Alright then, the Convention will soon commence."

"Mhm, this feels like a dream. To think that we are actually able to gather here together with the various major characters of the Mystic Region. All of those major characters would be extremely difficult to meet with usually. Some of them are extremely lofty and even if you are a world overlord paying a visit to them, they might not deign to meet with you." Qin Wentian mumbled softly. He recalled the scene where those world overlords were paying a visit to the Absolute Beginning Overlord and all of those world overlords were waiting in the courtyard.

Everyone was a world overlord but because of the disparity in their strength, it leads to the disparity in their statuses.

RUMBLE~

At this moment, a thunderous boom rang out as though the heavens and earth were trembling. Qin Wentian stood on the roof of the palace, trying to stabilize his steps. The tremors were so great that even the buildings were affected.

In the air, a beam of light cascaded down. Over there was an ancient gigantic mountain that glowed with light. Its walls were like gigantic mirrors, able to reflect the brilliant colors of the world.

"BOOM!" The earth trembled violently. The ancient gigantic mountain had descended in the central location of the Time Realm.

"What is that?" Mo Qingcheng asked.

"Heavenheart Mirror." Qin Wentian replied. He still had some understanding of the Convention of the Myriad Realms and hence, he knew that right before the commencement of the Time Realm, the Heavenheart Mirror Mountain would appear in the Time Realm. This Heavenheart Mirror was able to reflect any world overlord's heavenheart mandate to everywhere in the Time Realm, allowing everyone to see it.

Qin Wentian explained to Mo Qingcheng. Mo Qingcheng's beautiful eyes flashed with a strange light, "In that case, does this mean that some powerful world overlords could use this to display their heavenheart mandates, showcasing their prowess to everyone in the Time Realm?"

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded.

Mo Qingcheng smiled at him, "In that case, do you want to go and display your abilities?"

"Me? Forget it. I'm afraid for the following period of time, many people would display their heavenheart mandates to prove that their talent levels are shockingly high. There is most probably many who are more outstanding than me." Although Qin Wentian had pride in his abilities, he wasn't egoistical.

At the instant the Heavenheart Mirror landed in the Time Realm, there were indeed many transcendent-level world overlords heading in that direction. However, the vast majority were world overlords who were attending the convention for the first time. Those who participated before clearly knew that if you displayed your heavenheart mandates and were not outstanding enough compared to the others, your heart would suffer a grievous setback and your face would feel as though it was smacked. This was something that they had experienced before through the previous conventions.

Naturally, since no one took the lead, many people still kept a low profile. Before the first person displayed his heavenheart mandate to the world in Time Realm, everyone else was content to wait and watch. The first person to display his heavenheart mandate had to have courage. Although this was something that would happen sooner or later.

There was also another reason. The attendants for the convention haven't all arrived yet. For the next three days, they would still be allowed to enter the Time Realm. There should be more batches of people coming in the next few days.

Qin Wentian was currently paying attention to the Heavenheart Mirror but at this moment, a figure flew over in the space above their palace, staring down at Qin Wentian and the others.

This person had an extraordinary aura and exuded a formless pressure. He seemed to be a world overlord that has already been at this realm for a long time.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with some puzzlement. He wasn't acquainted with this world overlord at all.

"Sir, do you have anything you need of me?" Qin Wentian saw that the world overlord kept surveying them, standing in the air with an air of arrogance. The world overlord spoke, "I like this palace. You guys best search for another palace to stay."

"Mhm?" Qin Wentian felt somewhat speechless. This was the exact same scenario mentioned by Ten Miles Springwind. To think that he actually encountered it.

However, this palace wasn't in the central location and was considered somewhat remote. Yet, there's actually somebody who wished to seize it?

"I brought many family members and friends with me. It's inconvenient for us to move about too much. I will have to disappoint you. Why don't you take a look around and see if there are any palaces you like?" Qin Wentian calmly replied.

"There's no need to. I've been looking on my way here, I only feel that this place is good." The other party continued speaking, as though he wanted to seize Qin Wentian's palace no matter what. It didn't seem that he came here because he wanted the palace. It seemed as though he came here specifically with the intent of creating trouble.

Qin Wentian stared at him and smiled, "I'm also fond of this place too. I'm afraid I won't be able to give it up to you."

"Are you sure?" The other party frowned as a powerful aura radiated forth from him.

"I don't wish to repeat myself. Please leave." Qin Wentian issued the expulsion order. He didn't believe that this world overlord would really dare to attack here.

"Fine, since you don't want to give me face, I will remember this." The other party threatened and left. After that, Qin Wentian furrowed his brows, his gaze was a little cold.

After the world overlord departed the area, he headed to a faraway place in the central region. He entered one of the excellent palaces here and before him, a handsome young man stood there. This handsome young man was none other than Longyuan Haoyu and this excellent location was the residence of the Dragon Pool Manor.

"How was it?" Longyuan Haoyu asked.

"Just like what you expected, his attitude is extremely tyrannical." The other party laughed.

"It's normal." Longyuan Haoyu nodded his head. Back then he personally went over wanting Qin Wentian to compromise and take a step back. Qin Wentian didn't agree. But Qin Wentian immediately released Jin Zhi after he left. Wasn't this smacking his face?

Before this, the Heaven Immortal Tower's robbery caused the Dragon Pool Manor to be extremely chaotic. Now, the commotion has already died down. Although they didn't find out who the culprits were and have gradually forgotten about this matter, Longyuan Haoyu still clearly remembered about Qin Wentian.

Daring to make a move against his woman? Although that woman was just someone he casually played with, in addition to the fact that Qin Wentian smacked his face by rejecting his compromise offer despite him personally paying a visit, Longyuan Haoyu could only use other methods to handle this grudge. Since Qin Wentian dared to bring his family and friends into the Time Realm, he best be prepared to suffer the Dragon Pool Manor's anger!

Chapter 1774: To Seize

Although Qin Wentian was filled with suspicion about this matter, he wouldn't directly assume that this was connected to Longyuan Haoyu, he also didn't think that Longyuan Yuhao was thinking of how to deal with him.

Naturally, even if Longyuan Haoyu wanted to deal with him, he wasn't afraid at all. Longyuan Haoyu wasn't able to mobilize the full force of the Dragon Pool Manor against him.

After everyone was settled in the palace, Qin Wentian stood at the tallest point as he stared at the Heavenheart Mirror in the distance. There are finally people before the Heavenheart Mirror and they were releasing their heavenheart mandates before it, causing the scenes to be reflected and transmitted to the entire Time Realm. Everyone here could see the projection in the sky.

"This man isn't bad. He looked very young but he has actually comprehended three heavenheart mandates. He can be considered to be an elite-level world overlord." Beiming Youhuang was beside Qin Wentian. She was filled with anticipation for the Convention of the Myriad Realms. After all, she was also a world overlord now. Naturally currently, she still only comprehended a single heavenheart mandate up to date.

"There are hidden dragons and crouching tigers everywhere. The geniuses here are as common as clouds, this is only the beginning." Qin Wentian laughed. Beiming Youhuang nodded, acknowledging it. To many world overlords attending the convention, let alone three heavenheart mandates, there might even be some comprehending six or seven kinds of heavenheart mandates. The main point was still whether their heavenheart mandates were powerful or not? And was their world heart powerful or not. Quality was of the essence, not quantity.

Between different heavenheart mandates, the disparity in power could be extremely great.

With the first cultivator leading the way, there were continuously more people using the Heavenheart Mirror to display their brilliance. For the next three days, various world overlords displayed the power of their heavenheart mandates. Naturally, the majority of these were young overlords. For those famous ones or those from major powers, they didn't bother to display anything at all.

Today, the entrance to Time Realm closed. Those who came here for the convention have finally all arrived. For this period of time, countless experts were in the Time Realm. Any of the experts staying in the resident palaces might be major characters of the Mystic Region.

At this moment in the air, a few earth-shattering auras descended in the Time Realm. For a period of time, countless people inclined their heads. They saw three mystical thrones of laws appear in the air. An illusory figure could be seen seated on one of the thrones. They were clearly there yet they gave off an ethereal feeling.

Three figures on the thrones occupied three directions, like they were supreme lords of heaven. They would be the witnesses of the commencement of the Convention of the Myriad Realms.

"Today, the Convention of the Myriad Realms will commence. All the heroes in the Mystic Region from the various realms are here to attend this convention. Everyone, you all have to do your best and display your glory, allowing others to remember you." An ethereal voice drifted over, from one of the figures on a throne of laws.

"The convention naturally has its own rules. We will be monitoring everything from the shadows." Another ethereal voice rang out. The people inside the Time Realm all seriously listened.

"The Heavenheart Mirror has already descended upon the Time Realm. Everyone can display your heavenheart mandates before the mirror to verify and confirm your heavenhearts."

In the air, the figures on the three thrones have all spoken. Qin Wentian glanced upwards. Did these three represent the three hegemonic powers in the Mystic Region?

After the sound of their voices faded, the thrones of laws remained but the ethereal human figures gradually faded away. At this moment, countless people from various locations in the Time Realm began to rush towards the Heavenheart Mirror.

Not long after, Ten Miles Springwind also sent a message via a messaging crystal.

"Brother Qin, let's go take a walk around the Heavenheart Mirror. There should be some extraordinary characters showcasing their abilities soon. Let's go and check out the excitement." Ten Miles Springwind laughed.

Qin Wentian took out his messaging crystal and smiled, "Are you so preparing to display your heavenheart mandates?"

"This is the Convention of the Myriad Realms, could it be that you are intending to stay in your palace forever? What's the point of coming here then? If I'm as young as you and have your cultivation base, I would have long went over to show off my abilities. Who knows, after the convention is over, a heavenly deity might favor me and accept me as his disciple? At that time, I would have no regards even for a place like the Heavenly Immortal Tower." Ten Miles Springwind spoke in a joking manner.

"Alright, let's gather at the Heavenheart Mirror." Qin Wentian replied. He then relayed the suggestion to the others. Youhuang was also a world overlord, she would go with him while the others remained in the palace.

The Heavenheart Mirror was an incomparably mystical gigantic mountain. In the surroundings, the experts here were as common as clouds, extraordinary characters could be seen everywhere. Qin Wentian and Beiming Youhuang came over and he went to look for Ten Miles Springwind and the others. The other four in their group stayed in palaces whose locations were closer to here. Hence, they arrived here before Qin Wentian.

"Brother Qin." Ten Miles Springwind called out after he saw Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian moved over while staring at the surging crowd of experts. These people here were all world overlords and all the famous heroes in the Mystic Region would surely turn up. Qin Wentian naturally saw some familiar faces in the crowd. An example was Donghuang Ying, as well as the young woman who seemed to hold those with the surname Qin in contempt, Longyuan Haoyu of the Dragon Pool Manor, as well as a person Qin Wentian never expected to see here. In the past, he has only seen the statue of this person but now, he could see this person in the flesh. This person was none other than the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord.

For the Convention of the Myriad Realms, the various Realmlords would receive invitations. It wasn't anything surprising that the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord would appear here. He sensed someone staring at him and turned over, his gaze landing on Qin Wentian. He was initially stunned but a look of interest soon appeared on his face. Clearly, he has seen Qin Wentian's image before. He knew who Qin Wentian was.

The Heavenly Talisman Realmlord exuded an imposing aura. He was clad in long robes and he stared at Qin Wentian, "This is the first time you met with Master, why are you not coming over to pay your respects?"

Qin Wentian glanced over and furrowed his brows. The Heavenly Talisman Realmlord seemed to have a strong dislike of him. He actually provoked him in public.

Naturally, this was because the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord came to Time City later. He had no idea about the conflict between the Qingcheng Realmlord and the Heavenly Immortal Tower.

"Are you even worthy?" Qin Wentian calmly glanced at him. The expression of the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord turned cold, "After becoming the Qingcheng Realmlord, it seems that your wings have hardened. You even dare to insult your Master?"

Qin Wentian coldly glanced at him before shifting his eyes away, directly disregarding the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord.

"He is your master?" Ten Miles Springwind had a look of interest on his face. Given Qin Wentian's age and talent, his master should be a major character, right? So it was this world overlord?

"He's nothing but a trickster, trying to fool the world under a false title? Back then, he opened up a realm in the lower world of Azure Mystic and recruited people from there. Those who joined had to treat him like their master. In truth, he only wanted to make use of them to control Azure Mystic. After that, I spoiled his plan. This is also the first time I met him." Qin Wentian casually spoke.

"I see. That fellow doesn't even have the slightest bit of self-awareness." Ten Miles Springwind mockingly laughed.

"Look, there's someone from the Donghuang Clan heading over." At this moment, Phoenix spoke. A young world overlord from the Donghuang Clan could be seen walking over to the Heavenheart Mirror. He released his own heavenheart mandate and continuously displayed five different types. One of them was actually extremely powerful and caused exclamations of admiration. Many powerful world overlords were praising it.

"Although having more heavenheart mandates is not assurance of victory, as their quality is the most important, it's actually also considered already very difficult to be able to comprehend five heavenheart mandates. Given how young he is, that's indeed a rare achievement." Someone praised. The people of the Donghuang Clan all felt pride when they heard that. Donghuang Ying then stared at the young man beside her. "When are you going up to show off a little?"

"Me? I don't have the mood now." That young man shrugged. Donghuang Ying rolled her eyes at him.

"How many heavenheart mandates have you comprehended?" Ten Miles Springwind asked Qin Wentian.

"Me?" Qin Wentian shrugged and smiled, "I've forgotten."

Ten Miles Springwind rolled his eyes. How could someone forget how many heavenheart mandates they have comprehended? This fellow should have comprehended at least four to five, right?

Following this, many talented world overlords stepped forth, displaying their brilliance.

At this moment, Longyuan Haoyu turned his gaze at Qin Wentian while a cold smile flashed in his eyes.

Just when the area around the Heavenheart Mirror was extremely lively, the world palace lord that wanted Qin Wentian's residence three days ago, went there again. Right now, he stood in the air as his immortal sense enveloped the entire palace.

Upon sensing the pressure, numerous figures appeared, all of them staring at the world overlord in the air.

"What do you mean by this?" Jun Mengchen stare at the world overlord in the air as he coldly spoke.

"Where is he?" The other party asked.

"He went to the Heavenheart Mirror. Senior, if you have something to look for him for, I will inform him to rush back." Mo Qingcheng spoke, her tone was extremely gentle. She knew at this time, it was best that no conflicts occur. None of them would be able to contend against a world overlord.

"No need. Just get him to find me. You can come with me first, wait for him to come and get you back." As the sound of his voice faded, a powerful energy directly locked onto Mo Qingcheng as a formless pressure bore down on her, forcing her to float in the air towards that world overlord.

"Release her!" Jun Mengchen soared up into the air. A powerful energy radiated from the world overlord, manifesting a screen of light around him. When Jun Mengchen came in contact with the screen of light, his body was directly forced backwards.

"Let's go." After capturing Mo Qingcheng, he didn't stop at all and directly departed the area, leaving behind only after-images. Many people tried to chase after him but how could they catch up with him? They could only take out their messaging crystals and send a message to Qin Wentian.

At the instant when Qin Wentian, who was watching the heavenheart mandates being displayed, received the news; his countenance instantly turned incredibly unsightly. He transformed into a beam of light and soared through the sky, radiating an extremely fearsome killing intent.

"What's wrong?" Ten Miles Springwind was still in a daze.

"What just happened?" Cao Tian was also stunned, not understanding why Qin Wentian suddenly left so quickly.

Beiming Youhuang quickly flew after Qin Wentian.

"Something must have happened. Let's go and take a look." Phoenix spoke. After that, the few of them shot out with lightning speed, chasing after Qin Wentian.

"Mhm?" Longyuan Haoyu started when he saw this scene as a look of suspicion flashed in his eyes. After Qin Wentian left, Ten Miles Springwind and Cao Tian actually followed after him? What did this mean?

Chapter 1775: Might of the Divine Phoenix

Longyuan Haoyu was acquainted with Ten Miles Springwind. This boss of the Ten Miles Inn was quite famous among world overlords in Time City. He was a transcendent-level world overlord.

Cao Tian, was someone from the Cao Clan of the Scarlet Sun Immortal Realms. Their Dragon Pool Manor naturally had to be familiar with descendants of such major powers.

He was even acquainted Old Ghost and Phoenix. The two of them, although they are not from Time City, they both had extraordinary performances before in the previous Convention of the Myriad Realm. These four were all transcendent-level world overlords. And right now, when Qin Wentian left, they actually followed after him and if he left Beiming Youhuang aside...

At this instant, it was like a bolt of lightning went off in Longyuan Haoyu's head. He suddenly had a bold conjecture and when he thought about it, his eyes instantly narrowed.

Five people, five transcendent-level world overlords. If it wasn't for the earlier scene, he wouldn't have noticed this detail at all. After all, there are too many major powers here today and it wasn't rare that five world overlords would gather together. However, his attention had been on Qin Wentian since the very beginning because he sent someone to bring Qin Wentian's woman away. This was how he managed to notice this detail.

He could take revenge on Qin Wentian and since that was the case, was it possible for Qin Wentian to take revenge on him?

If Qin Wentian had the ability to, it wasn't completely impossible that he would rob the Heavenly Immortal Tower for revenge, right?

Naturally, this was merely a guess and he had no proof to verify it. However, a look of extreme sharpness flickered in his eyes.

...

In another location, Mo Qingcheng was abducted by the powerful world overlord. Given her cultivation base, there was basically no way for her to resist. Her entire person was forced to follow the world overlord, the cold wind constantly blew in her face as her black hair fluttered in the wind.

"Stop." Mo Qingcheng called out.

The world overlord turned and coldly smiled, "You are truly a rare beauty. What a pity."

Since Longyuan Haoyu wanted this woman, her ending wouldn't be too good in any case.

Only to see Mo Qingcheng closing her eyes as her heart pounded. All of a sudden, her body began glowing resplendently. At this instant, her entire person seemingly exuded an extremely holy aura.

At her neck area, the imprint of a pendant could be seen. In the next instant, she radiated boundless brilliance as the phoenix gown she was wearing shimmered in and out of existence. A holy aura radiated from her and when the world overlord saw this, lightning flashed in his eyes. The next moment, an ancient phoenix suddenly manifested, protectively enveloping Mo Qingcheng. Mo Qingcheng's movements were no longer controlled by the world overlord.

This ancient phoenix icily stared at the world overlord, causing the world overlord to frown. A demonic beast? Where did it come from? To think that it was actually a divine phoenix.

At this moment, at the location of the Heavenheart Mirror, the expression of that extremely beautiful young woman who came from a Region other than the Mystic Region instantly changed. She immediately stared in Mo Qingcheng's direction. Her body then transformed into lightning as she rushed over with her greatest speed. Naturally, Mo Qingcheng had no idea that such a beautiful young woman would exist and the fact that the young woman was able to sense it when the divine ancient phoenix was summoned.

"Why are you doing this?" Mo Qingcheng stared at the world overlord before her eyes. Her expression was extremely frosty. Was it really because Qin Wentian didn't give the residential palace up to him?

For those who came to the convention, there were experts of all levels. Although there were cases of powerful characters wanting to seize a palace, one has to know that the palace Qin Wentian had chosen was in quite a remote location. Yet even so, this world overlord still wanted it. One could only say that this world overlord clearly had other intentions. She knew that him abducting her was in reality because there was someone who wanted to act against Qin Wentian.

That world overlord stared at the phoenix and when he sensed the phoenix's powerful aura, his expression instantly changed. Clearly, he didn't expect such a thing would happen.

"Qingcheng, are you okay?" At this moment, Qin Wentian's worried voice rang out in Qingcheng's mind.

"I'm fine, I summoned the ancient phoenix to protect me." Mo Qingcheng took out her messaging crystal and replied.

"Good, I'll be there soon. Just delay him for me." Qin Wentian spoke. Mo Qingcheng nodded. Seems like this matter was just as what she has speculated, there should be another story behind this.

Since this world overlord has clearly targeted her, Qin Wentian would clearly want to know the reason behind this or he wouldn't be able to feel at ease.

The world overlord saw Mo Qingcheng taking out her messaging crystal and naturally knew what she wanted to do. At this moment, he was considering whether to flee or not. The aura of this ancient phoenix that was protecting Mo Qingcheng was extremely terrifying. What level was its strength at exactly?

"Senior, can you bind his movements?" Mo Qingcheng asked.

"Sure." The divine phoenix agreed. A bright and clear musical note rang out from her beak. In an instant, the entire sky changed color as a corporeal domain appeared. This domain then transform into the form of a demon and was incomparably gigantic. If one observed it closely, they would be able to discover that this was the shadow of a phoenix.

That world overlord was actually trapped in the shadow of a phoenix.

"Bzz~" When the world overlord sensed this terrifying might, he no longer hesitated and directly sought to flee.

"Ash Incineration!"

The eyes of the divine phoenix flashed red, and an instant later, a red light directly shone upon the world overlord's arm. He screamed in pain, the powerful fire energy directly ignored his defense and burned one of his arms into nothingness. In fact, one couldn't even tell how it vanished, it simply disappeared.

In the corporeal domain, motes of this red light floated about. That world overlord's countenance was as pale as paper. How could this be. This woman who only had a cultivation base at the immortal emperor realm actually was able to summon such a powerful divine phoenix that could insta-kill him if the phoenix felt like it?

"Why did you do this?" Mo Qingcheng coldly asked. Was this person really acting against her? Or was his true purpose acting against Qin Wentian?

That world overlord turned even paler. He stared at Mo Qingcheng, "Back then I felt that I have lost all face after your husband rejected me and I simply want revenge for that. I apologize for my deeds. Can you let me go? I will definitely never return again."

Mo Qingcheng stared at the world overlord, she felt that this person wasn't speaking the truth.

"Since this is the case, didn't you want to meet with him earlier? Let's wait for him here then." Mo Qingcheng icily spoke, how was it possible for her to release this world overlord?

Not long after, spatial fluctuations rocked the area as a figure stepped out from the void. The expression of this figure was ice-cold and his entire person radiated an intense killing intent. It was none other than Qin Wentian.

After Qin Wentian, quite a few other figures rushed here with lightning speed. They were Ten Miles Springwind and the others who had followed him here. When they saw the scene before their eyes, all of them were stunned. They instantly guessed at something. Someone must have wanted to take action against Qin Wentian's wife.

"Qingcheng." Qin Wentian's silhouette flashed as he arrived at Mo Qingcheng's side. His heart finally calmed down when he saw that Mo Qingcheng was completely fine.

"Many thanks, senior." Qin Wentian thanked the divine phoenix.

"Listening to my spirit lord's orders are something I ought to do." The divine phoenix replied.

Qin Wentian didn't say anything else. He turned his gaze to that world overlord as cold fury flickered in his eyes.

"Who are you?" Qin Wentian asked in a glacial tone.

"Sir, I apologize for my actions. I had no intention to harm your wife, I just wanted to gain back some face after you rejected me." The world overlord spoke to Qin Wentian, he still didn't reveal the truth.

"What do the rest of you think?" Qin Wentian glanced at Ten Miles Springwind and the others.

"Since he dared to make a move against your woman, how can we spare him? Break an arm and two legs first before crippling his cultivation. We shall slowly question him after that." Old Ghost sinisterly spoke, his tone causing that world overlord to turn pale.

"I've already apologized and I also said I truly had no intentions to harm her. Why must you all be so ruthless." That world overlord started to panic.

"If it was me, and if someone dared to act against my woman, I would even cripple his 'third leg,' making him live a life worse than death," Cao Tian directly spoke. That world overlord was so frightened that he trembled uncontrollably.

"Right." Qin Wentian nodded and turned back to the world overlord. "I will give you a chance to speak. Don't tell me something so stupid like you have no ill intents. You should know what I want to know. You only have a single chance, and don't bother negotiating for conditions or to speak nonsense."

The expression of the world overlord kept changing. Qin Wentian was only giving him a single chance to speak. If his words weren't to Qin Wentian's satisfaction, his consequences would be extremely dire indeed.

"My patience is limited." Qin Wentian spoke again.

"Longyuan Haoyu is the one who told me to do this. I'm merely following orders, this matter has nothing to do with me and I didn't want to participate initially. However, since Longyuan Haoyu has given the command, I have no way to reject it." The other party spoke. He knew that if he didn't reveal the truth, his ending would be extremely miserable.

"Longyuan Haoyu." Qin Wentian's eyes flashed with an incomparably intense killing intent. It was that young world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor who wanted him to compromise and send Jin Zhi back to the Heavenly Immortal Tower first back then?

No wonder Longyuan Haoyu intentionally stared at him earlier. So this was the reason why.

"Qingcheng, did you leave the palace?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Nope, he directly entered the palace and captured me." Mo Qingcheng spoke.

Qin Wentian turned his gaze to Ten Miles Springwind and asked, "Didn't the Convention have a rule? Within the palace, absolute safety was guaranteed?"

With regards to this point, Ten Miles Springwind has told him before.

"Someone clearly knew about this but still chose to break the rules." Ten Miles Springwind coldly spoke. His eyes also flickered with killing intent. If everyone acted like Longyuan Haoyu, ignoring the rules, the Time Realm would surely be in chaos. At that time, which world overlord would dare to bring their family and friends here?

"Go. Let's go and find Longyuan Haoyu. Bring him along." Cao Tian pointed to that world overlord as he spoke. "Let's cripple him first."

That world overlord instantly paled, "How can you all do this?"

Cao Tian's figure flashed, moving with lightning speed as he appeared once more before the world overlord. With a single smack, he directly attacked the world overlord's body. That person screamed and coughed out blood. His aura instantly weakened, as his features aged.

"Not crippling your 'third leg' is already showing kindness to you. Since you are willing to be the lackey of others, you should be prepared to be slayed at any time." Cao Tian's voice was tyrannical, the thing he hated the most was this kind of character who would act against the family and friends of others. This was especially so if those vile characters that tried to act against women. Cao Tian might have done many wrong things before and was often tyrannical and illogical, but he would never break this bottom line of his.

That world overlord's expression turned ashen. He felt as though he was living in a life where he might as well be dead. Longyuan Haoyu's plot had inadvertently harmed him!

Chapter 1776: Luoshen Clan

Qin Wentian stared at Cao Tian as he asked, "Big Brother Cao. Longyuan Haoyu has broken the rules of the Time Realm. In that case, who will be the one administering his punishment?"

"The vassal forces under the three hegemonic powers, like the four immortal realms or the various saint halls and sacred temples, all have the qualifications to administer the punishment as they can represent the three hegemonic powers to some extent. However, I'm afraid you still have to handle this matter yourself. The Dragon Pool Manor has very close relationships with some of the peak powers. In addition, Longyuan Haoyu can simply choose not to admit it later on. Although I know you would feel extremely angered about this matter, but to the entire Time Realm, this matter isn't of a huge impact. Maybe, no one would care about you." Cao Tian directly spoke.

Qin Wentian coldly laughed, this was saying that he didn't have enough authority to speak. No one would pay attention to an inconsequential world overlord. After all, this place was the Convention of the Myriad Realms and there are too many world overlords. Mo Qingcheng wasn't injured at all as well. The other party also didn't dare to start an act of slaughter when his friends and family were in the palace or he would truly be extremely dumb. Hence, although this matter might be very important to Qin Wentian, to the Time Realm as a whole, it was insignificant.

"I'll bring him over for the confrontation." A wave of energy surrounded the crippled world overlord. Qin Wentian then stepped out, moving towards the direction of the Heavenheart Mirror again.

His gaze was extremely cold. Luckily Mo Qingcheng received the 'Kiss of the Demon God' through a series of good fortune, allowing her to summon a divine phoenix in times of need. If not, the consequences might be unimaginable.

Longyuan Haoyu has already touched his reverse scale.

The group of them flew with great speed. However, before they could reach the Heavenheart Mirror's location, they were obstructed by a group of experts. When Qin Wentian saw these people, he frowned and stared at the young woman in the lead. "Miss, even if you don't like people who are surnamed Qin, there's no need to block my path, right?"

The person who was blocking them was none other than the extremely beautiful young woman who hated those with the Qin surname.

"Where is the 'Kiss of the Demon God'? Who has it now?" At this moment, the beautiful young woman's eyes turned extremely sharp as she swept her gaze over everyone. Not long ago the aura of the phoenix vanished in this direction and after she rushed over, she coincidentally met with Qin Wentian and the others. There should be no mistake then, the treasure she was looking for was with one of these people.

Qin Wentian's eyes narrowed. This young woman knew of the 'Kiss of the Demon God'?

Mo Qingcheng also started. Could it be that the 'Kiss of the Demon God' was an item with an owner?

"As expected." The changes to Qin Wentian and Mo Qingcheng's micro expressions were clearly seen by the young woman. When she was speaking, she took note of their reactions.

"The 'Kiss of the Demon God' belongs to me. Return it to me, I can give you other treasures to compensate you." The young woman spoke.

Qin Wentian knew that there was no way they could hide this from this young woman any longer. "You say that the 'Kiss of the Demon God' belongs to you? Why would it be with me then?"

He was also puzzled. Who was this young woman exactly? Why did he feel a sense of familiarity to her? In addition, she said that the 'Kiss of the Demon God' belonged to her. But that treasure was only activated because of the phoenix gown his mother gave Uncle Black to pass on to Mo Qingcheng. And also, from the words spoken by that divine phoenix, the 'Kiss of the Demon God' might have a connection with his mother.

Since that was the case, he naturally wanted to find out the young woman's identity.

"Back then because of some reasons, I could only abandon this treasure out there in the world. But this is really a treasure that belongs to me or I wouldn't be able to sense its existence. Give it back to me, you can state whatever price you want." The young woman spoke, her words causing a strange look to appear on Ten Miles Springwind's face. What imposing words, they could name any price they wanted to? Seems like this group of people had an extraordinary origin.

Indeed, this beautiful young woman who was already a world overlord, had plenty of world overlords behind her. She was definitely from the young generation of a super power.

"Since you have already abandoned it and now that it is in my hands, this treasure naturally belongs to me. For something you thrown away, how can you take it back just because you want to?" Qin Wentian spoke. Earlier, the 'Kiss of the Demon God' saved Mo Qingcheng and the divine phoenix in it has already acknowledged Mo Qingcheng as her spirit lord. How could he return this back to the young woman just from her words? Let alone the fact that it was very possible for this item to have a connection with his mother.

Since this landed in his hands and Qingcheng coincidentally activated it. This naturally belongs to Qingcheng now.

"The 'Kiss of the Demon God' is a treasure of my clan. Sir, why must you take the belonging of others? My young miss has already spoken, you can raise any conditions, we are willing to use other treasures to exchange for it." An old man beside the young woman spoke out.

"I'm not exchanging." Qin Wentian directly rejected, there was no room for negotiation.

Upon hearing his words, an extremely terrifying aura gushed forth from the old man. The other world overlords in their group also stepped forth as pressure radiated from them. Ten Miles Springwind, Cao Tian and the others also moved forward. In an instant, one could feel the palpable violence in the air as the atmosphere grew incredibly tense. Once a fight broke out, it would surely be a heaven-shaking one.

"Fine, let's temporarily not talk about that. I'll ask you this first. How did you all activate the 'Kiss of the Demon God?" The beautiful young woman asked. This was something that caused her to feel extremely puzzled. It was impossible for people not of her clan to activate this treasure. If the treasure really was in the hands of this young man surnamed Qin and he had activated it, what did this mean?

"I also wish to ask you a question. Since you say that this treasure belongs to you, where do you come from?" Qin Wentian didn't answer, he asked another question which he wanted to know.

The beautiful eyes of the young woman stared at Qin Wentian. After that, her ruby red lips parted, "Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region."

Ten Miles Springwind felt his body turn stiff, he stared at this young woman before him in astonishment and with his mouth wide open. "I…"

Just when the word 'I' came out, he didn't know what he was going to say. Cao Tian's eyes also widened as he stared at this group of people, waves of emotions were also rocking his heart.

What was this situation? They actually met descendants of the legendary Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region here in the Mystic Region?

Old Ghost's eyes narrowed into slits. Phoenix's beautiful eyes surveyed the young woman in curiosity. Clearly, they were no stranger to this clan's name since they have lived for so long in the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. This was especially so after the young woman said the words 'Desolate Region.' In that case, the weightage her clan represents, was something everyone would have to carefully consider.

"Brother Qin, I think it's better to give her that treasure and bring up some other conditions. There's no need to be polite, it's fine even if you suggest very outrageous conditions." Ten Miles Springwind transmitted back a reply. Qin Wentian started, usually given Ten Miles Springwind's carefree character, he usually wouldn't fear anyone or he wouldn't have brought up the suggestion to rob the Heavenly Immortal Tower. However, after the young woman revealed the name of her clan, he actually suggested that he should exchange the treasure with the young woman. This wasn't like his usual personality.

Could it be that the Luoshen Clan was a very famous one?

"What's going on?" Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to ask.

"Desolate Region, Luoshen Clan...Have you never heard of them before?" Ten Miles Springwind speechlessly replied. "For this young woman before you, even if she kills you right now in the Time Realm, no one would seek revenge for you. You have to give in even if you don't want to give in. The Luoshen Clan isn't something the Dragon Pool Manor can be compared to."

"Luoshen Clan." Qin Wentian's eyes gleamed with sharpness. How long has it been since he came to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms? He was still familiar with the peak powers of the Mystic Region but as for the Desolate Region, he wasn't familiar with them at all. Hence, this was the reason why he has never heard of the Luoshen Clan and why he didn't understand the true meaning represented by the Luoshen Clan.

"Now, can you answer my question?" The beautiful young woman stared at Qin Wentian. Not only was Qin Wentian curious about her, she was also very curious about him. Why would he be able to activate the 'Kiss of the Demon God'? In addition, this young man was actually surnamed Qin.

Qin Wentian looked at her, feeling some hesitation. Should he say it or not?

If he said it, what would be the consequences?

However, if he wanted to verify the speculations in his heart, this young woman was the key.

"The 'Kiss of the Demon God' belongs to the Luoshen Clan?" Qin Wentian seriously asked.

"Why should I lie to you?" The young woman stared at Qin Wentian.

"In that case, tell me first what is the condition to activate the 'Kiss of the Demon God'? As long as you answer, I will tell you what you want to know." Qin Wentian replied.

"There's a spirit body inside the 'Kiss of the Demon God,' it is a treasure forged from the spirit body's blood. If there's a resonant treasure that came in contact with the 'Kiss of the Demon God,' it would be activated. For treasures forged using spirit bodies, only my clan has them. Why would you have it?" The young woman transmitted her voice to Qin Wentian. This sentence had cleared up Qin Wentian's speculations by one step.

"During my wedding, my mother once gifted a phoenix gown to my wife. My wife has always been wearing it." Qin Wentian also transmitted his voice to her. The young woman's body trembled as though she was struck by electricity. Her beautiful eyes stared fixedly at Qin Wentian.

"Who is your mother?" The young woman asked.

"I truly have no idea." Qin Wentian spoke. Before this, he was hesitating but he still chose to say it. He didn't know what would await him in the future from him saying such words. Would there be a calamity waiting for him?

He stared at the beautiful young woman before him, looking at her beautiful face, not wanting to miss any details. He wanted to see clearly her expressions to deduce some things. Since he decided to reveal some truth, it was best for him to be prepared.

The beautiful young woman's breathing actually became urgent. She was also looking carefully at Qin Wentian.

After a moment, she suddenly turned and left, no longer pursuing about the 'Kiss of the Demon God.' This caused everyone here to feel strange, no one understood what had just happened.

"What's going on?" Ten Miles Springwind asked.

"I have no idea too." Qin Wentian glanced at the departing back of the young woman as he drew in a deep breath. What would he be facing in the future? He has no way to anticipate it.

"Let's go, we will head to the Heavenheart Mirror. The incident of Longyuan Haoyu hasn't been settled yet." Qin Wentian spoke. Ten Miles Springwind and the others nodded. Qin Wentian evidently didn't want to continue talking about this matter. Seems like there should be some of his personal secrets within. However, they didn't continue asking too. Who wouldn't have a few secrets?

As for that beautiful young woman, as she was flying away, she suddenly increased her speed and went back to her residential palace. Even now, she hasn't calm down yet. Her mind was in a whirl.

"Miss, what's wrong?" The old man followed behind her and asked. He didn't understand why she gave up on obtaining the 'Kiss of the Demon God' and suddenly acted so strangely.

"I wish to be on my own for a while." She then returned to her room and sat there in a daze, thinking of some matters. As she thought about things, a tear suddenly flowed down from the corner of one of her eyes. His surname was Qin, his mother gave his wife a phoenix gown. In that case, it was obvious what his identity truly was.

Did 'she' actually have a son? And her son was already a world overlord now!

Chapter 1777: Can you top that?

Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region. This name was branded in Qin Wentian's mind.

But right now, he had to temporary place this aside. At the Heavenheart Mirror's region, Qin Wentian brought that crippled world overlord there. His eyes were cold to the extreme as he directly headed for Longyuan Haoyu's direction.

Longyuan Haoyu naturally saw Qin Wentian. He also saw that world overlord whose cultivation base was crippled, and Mo Qingcheng who was safe and sound beside Qin Wentian.

His eyes narrowed, flashing with coldness. His plan actually failed, what a trash that pathetic world overlord was? There was no other world overlord in Qin Wentian's residential palace, yet this lackey of his still failed and was even captured? Now seeing how Qin Wentian was rushing over to him, it was clear that his lackey has already betrayed him.

At this moment, a world overlord walked towards the Heavenheart Mirror and was prepared to display his world heart. Qin Wentian's gaze turned over and spoke in a clear voice, "Sir, can you wait for a moment? I have something I want to say."

"Mhm?" That world overlord glanced at Qin Wentian before he nodded, "Sure."

"Many thanks." Qin Wentian nodded to express his gratitude. After that, he turned and faced the crowd, "I'm the Qingcheng Realmlord of the Mystic Region and came here to attend the Convention of the Myriad Realms due to receiving an invitation. I heard that world overlords can bring their family and friends to the Time Realm and there wouldn't be any danger. If they stay in the residential palace, no one would disturb them but today, there was actually someone who went to the residential palace I picked and forcibly abducted my wife. If it wasn't for the fact that my wife has a protective treasure on her, the consequences would surely be dire. Right now in the surroundings, there are many seniors present. Junior wishes to ask what would the punishment of the one who broke the convention's rules be?"

The eyes of many people gleamed with sharpness as they stared at the crippled world overlord behind him. An expert from a major power then spoke, "Isn't his cultivation base already crippled? Since he was captured by you, you have the right to punish him as you see fit."

"Many thanks senior. This junior will naturally handle things well. It's just that this man was acting on orders of someone else." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Oh?" Somebody saw that Qin Wentian was facing the direction where the people of the Dragon Pool Manor were at. Was it somebody from the Dragon Pool Manor?

The Qingcheng Realmlord, the Dragon Pool Manor.

Those who knew about the grudge between the Heaven Immortal Tower and the Qingcheng Realmlord instantly understood some things. Seems like someone in the Dragon Pool Manor was unhappy about the Qingcheng Realmlord and wanted to punish him.

"Who is it?" That person asked.

"Just speak freely." Qin Wentian glanced at the crippled world overlord. That world overlord's aura was clearly extremely weak. He stared at Longyuan Haoyu as his eyes flashed with a venomous light. It was none other than Longyuan Haoyu who gave the order, causing him to be in this situation now. To a lofty and arrogant world overlord, what did it mean now that he has lost his cultivation base? He was clearly already a cripple.

"Longyuan Haoyu, why did you ask me to do that?" The crippled world overlord had a glacial expression on his face. Longyuan Haoyu merely calmly glanced at him and replied quietly, "Do we know each other?"

His words caused Qin Wentian's expression to freeze. After that, Longyuan Haoyu glanced at him and spoke, "He was the one who broke the rules. It's fine that you have crippled him but why are you using this opportunity to frame me?"

Clearly, Longyuan Haoyu wouldn't admit this. He had already thought of the consequences when he did this. It was fine if everything worked out, Qin Wentian's woman would be in his hand and this lackey would naturally not dare to disclose anything. But if things didn't work out, he would simply claim that he doesn't know anything.

"You…" That world overlord turned pale, his finger that was pointing at Longyuan Haoyu was shaking in anger. But right now, he had no aura had all, he was just like a decrepit old man that was about to die.

"We have a witness here. Many people already know of the grudge between the Qingcheng Realmlord and Longyuan Haoyu. Back then, Qin Wentian brought a serving girl away from the Heaven Immortal Tower and that serving girl was one of Longyuan Haoyu's women who was arranged to work in the Heaven Immortal Tower. This is Longyuan Haoyu's motive for revenge. I can be a witness for the Qingcheng Realmlord. How should we punish Longyuan Haoyu? Can everyone give some suggestions?" Cao Tian already knew Longyuan Haoyu would deny this before he came but he still stepped out to speak.

"Haha." Longyuan Haoyu laughed loudly. He stared at Cao Tian, "Senior Cao Tian's relationship is so good with the Qingcheng Realmlord. In addition to senior Old Ghost, Ten Miles Inn's boss and Phoenix. Just nice, there are a total of five of you. Before this, the robbery of my Heaven Immortal Tower was done by you all, right? I believe it should be so. Most probably, you guys targeted my tower for the sake of helping Qin Wentian to take revenge, right?"

Cao Tian and the other four started, they didn't expect Longyuan Haoyu to actually manage to guess it. Seems like they were too careless.

His gaze stared straight at Longyuan Haoyu as Cao Tian spat out a single world. "Right."

Cao Tian didn't deny it, he instantly admitted to the fact.

"Brother Qin is my brother. The Heaven Immortal Tower is too brazen when it does things, insulting a valuable customer. Can't we even teach a serving girl a lesson? To think that the Heaven Immortal Tower actually gave out a promise using a treasure to tempt bounty hunters to capture Brother Qin. I naturally have to help him vent out these unhappy emotions. Hence, I suggested to rob the Heaven Immortal Tower. I dare to admit what I've done. What about you?" Cao Tian stared at Longyuan Haoyu.

"Senior Cao is as expected of someone from the Cao Clan, directly admitting that you are a bandit with no trepidation at all, robbing my Heaven Immortal Tower." Longyuan Haoyu coldly laughed. "As for what you said, my reply is this. If I was the one who suggested this, I would admit it too. But I truly don't know who this crippled world overlord is."

"As expected of a world overlord. What good endurance." Qin Wentian coldly stared at Longyuan Haoyu. Although Longyuan Haoyu now knew that they were the ones behind the robbery, he was still so calm and refused to admit what he has done.

"Brother Cao. You guys have to give a reply to us regarding the robbing of our Heaven Immortal Tower." An elder of Longyuan Haoyu spoke. Although the treasures in the Heaven Immortal Tower were only a small portion of the Dragon Pool Manor's wealth, this act was equivalent to smacking their faces. In addition, Cao Tian even admitted in public that he was the one behind it. Did he even have their Dragon Pool Manor in his eyes?

"What reply?" Cao Tian coldly spoke. "Just with the things your Heaven Immortal Tower has done, so what even if I rob it? Don't tell me you want me to cut my head off? In fact, your Dragon Pool Manor should properly discipline the junior generations. How embarrassing, daring to do something yet having no guts to admit it."

"How tyrannical." Many people had expressions of interest on their faces when they saw this conflict. As expected of Cao Tian from the Cao Clan. So I robbed your Heaven Immortal Tower but what can you do to me? He was the robber yet he spoke so boldly and confidently as though justice was on his side. Where would you be able to find such a bandit? And his reasoning behind it was for the sake of venting unhappiness for his brother, as though his actions were backed by righteousness.

"A reply does indeed need to be given." At this moment, Qin Wentian suddenly spoke, his words causing Cao Tian to start. Has this fellow become silly, he Cao Tian, has already taken responsibility for the robbery but Qin Wentian wanted to admit to it too?

Only to see Qin Wentian staring at Longyuan Haoyu as he continued, "I did participate in the robbery as well, but it's true that your tower did cause bounty hunters to capture me. Now, you even sent someone to act against my wife. Since this is the case, seeing that the convention is about world overlords contending against each other, displaying their prowess, why don't you Longyuan Haoyu have a life-and-death battle against me to settle the grudge? Do you dare to?"

"Interesting." The surrounding experts all laughed. Qin Wentian actually publicly challenged the young genius world overlord of the Dragon Pool Manor, Longyuan Haoyu. Also, he requested for a life-and-death battle.

In that case, would Longyuan Haoyu accept the challenge?

The fact that the Qingcheng Realmlord was a transcendent-level world overlord has already been proven. He could effortlessly insta-kill three world overlords. But since Longyuan Haoyu was known as a young genius of the Dragon Pool Manor, how would he be weak?

In addition, just like what Qin Wentian has said, although the convention wasn't a direct competition between world overlords, the purpose of it was truly to let them contend against each other so the major characters could see the world overlord's talent. At the end, there would be people obtaining heaven-defying fortune and would be able to join peak powers of the Mystic Region. There would also be people obtaining treasures or even having a chance to study under a heavenly deity.

In the convention, conflict was inevitable. Right now, this Qingcheng Realmlord took the initiative to challenge Longyuan Haoyu. If Longyuan Haoyu refused, that would be equivalent to smacking the Dragon Pool Manor's face.

Others would mock him, saying that the young genius world overlord of the Dragon Pool Manor has always been arrogant yet he didn't even dare to accept the challenge of a random world overlord who came from elsewhere?

A transcendent-level world overlord naturally was a fearsome opponent, and Qin Wentian did insta-kill three world overlords in a battle before. Longyuan Haoyu himself was hesitating but when he saw countless gazes of major characters staring at him, he knew that he had to accept this challenge no matter what.

"You have courage!" Cao Tian silently praised Qin Wentian. Leaving aside victory or defeat, by Qin Wentian wanting to take Longyuan Haoyu's life by means of a challenge battle, was already something extremely courageous. He wanted to kill Longyuan Haoyu in the face of the Dragon Pool manor.

"I accept your challenge." Longyuan Haoyu coldly spoke, accepting the challenge.

Qin Wentian soared into the air, Longyuan Haoyu also walked out. The eyes of the world overlords and major characters in the surroundings all focused on them, including the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord. He was somewhat surprised, Qin Wentian actually dared to challenge the Dragon Pool Manor? Although Qin Wentian killed the Lifelong Realmlord, but he has just became a world overlord recently, right? How strong could he be?

"Right now, since the two of you want to battle, why don't you two fight in the zone of the Heavenheart Mirror where its reflection could shine on the two of you? You guys can display your heavenheart mandates and display your talent." In the air, an immensely powerful world overlord from a major power calmly spoke. Longyuan Haoyu nodded, "Right."

It was clear that the person who spoke had an extraordinary status.

His silhouette flashed and entered the reflection zone of the Heavenheart Mirror. Qin Wentian entered there as well. At the peak of this resplendent mountain, the two of them faced each other. This would be the first battle in the Convention of the Myriad Realms. Also, everyone in the Time Realm would be able to witness this battle.

With an intention of his will, Longyuan Haoyu caused the colors of the sky to change. Incomparably terrifying ripples manifested around him, they then transformed into rings of light that enveloped him protectively. In an instant, it felt as though this entire piece of sky became his protector and at this moment, a bright beam of light shot out from the Heavenheart Mirror.

"A defensive-type heavenheart mandate." Everyone silently mused when they saw this scene.

Longyuan Haoyu stretched out his hand again and grabbed out in the air. A supremely strong power descended, crushing everything. Another beam of light shot out from the Heavenheart Mirror, like a bolt of lightning arcing through the Time Realm.

However, things weren't concluded yet. Longyuan Haoyu continued to display the power of his heavenheart mandates until the fifth beam of light shot out from the Heavenheart Mirror. This caused the eyes of many people to involuntarily narrow. As expected of a young genius world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor.

"Can you top that?" Longyuan Haoyu coldly spoke, staring at Qin Wentian. Although the number of heavenheart mandates one comprehended couldn't represent one's strength, it could still be a representation of one's comprehension abilities. If he comprehended more heavenheart mandates compared to Qin Wentian, he would naturally feel much more confident about their challenge battle!

Chapter 1778: Is it very difficult?

"Can you top that?"

Longyuan Haoyu's words were filled with an intense provocation. Qin Wentian calmly stared at him, there was only coldness in his deep eyes.

"When was the strength of a world overlord ever determined by the number of heavenheart mandates they comprehended?" Qin Wentian spoke.

"Laughable. The strength of a world overlord naturally cannot be determined by the number of heavenheart mandates they comprehended but why were countless people are stuck at the empyrean realm unable to break through to the world overlord realm? It's naturally because they had no way to comprehend heavenheart mandates, not even a single type. The number of heavenheart mandates comprehended can directly tell a world overlord's comprehension abilities. If you don't even have quantity, why talk about quality?" Longyuan Haoyu arrogantly spoke.

"Longyuan Haoyu's words are right." Although the vast majority of attendants of the Convention are world overlords, one must know that they are gathered from the upper echelons of the entirety of major powers in the Mystic Region. Maybe, there would only be a single world overlord out of a billion humans. From this, one can tell how difficult it is to comprehend a heavenheart mandate."

A major character slowly spoke, standing in the air. He then continued, "Being able to comprehend a single type of heavenheart mandate means that this person would surely be the most ordinary world overlord. It is already considered not bad to be able to comprehend two heavenheart mandates, and it is extremely difficult to comprehend three. As for four to five types of heavenheart mandates, only those with great talent can do so. The two of you cannot be considered to have cultivated for a long time. Since Longyuan Haoyu was able to comprehend five heavenheart mandates, it proves that his talent is extraordinary."

"These words are true. Given Longyuan Haoyu's age, it's truly not easy." Another person spoke. Longyuan Haoyu smiled coldly, his gaze was filled with a mocking light as he stared at Qin Wentian.

"Seniors, all of you are right. Seems like junior has said it incorrectly earlier." Qin Wentian spoke to the experts who were speaking for Longyuan Haoyu. But at this moment, there was a disdainful smile on his face. Qin Wentian then continued, "It's just that, is it really very difficult to comprehend many heavenheart mandates?"

"What big words." The people of the Dragon Pool Manor berated.

"Hehe, it's naturally very difficult. This is especially so for five types of heavenheart mandates." Someone in the air spoke.

"Ah, I see." Qin Wentian nodded. After that, a beam of light radiated from him. This was the power of his Radiance Conflagration heavenheart mandate. As his heavenheart mandate was unleashed, the Heavenehart Mirror shot out a beam of light, indicating that Qin Wentian had released one heavenheart mandate.

After that, Qin Wentian's figure turned illusory as he faded away into the void before instantly reappearing. This continued on for some time. The Heavenheart Mirror shot out a second beam of light, reflecting Qin Wentian's heavenheart mandate to the Time Realm.

"This Qingcheng Realmlord is a transcendent-level world overlord. Although he might not be able to comprehend five heavenheart mandates, four shouldn't be a problem for him. I just wonder if he is able to come to a draw with Longyuan Haoyu." Many people knew that Qin Wentian was a transcendent-level world overlord. This indicated that it was possible for a single heavenheart mandate of Qin Wentian to be formed from a fusion of three source origins. For the three source origins, if he fused two of them each separately, he would end up with a total of three heavenheart mandates. That, in addition to the heavenheart mandate that is formed from a fusion of three source origins, it would be a total of four types.

However, if a world overlord placed all his experience just fusing the same three source origins, his comprehension abilities would clearly be much inferior. Hence, it shouldn't be so easy for him to comprehend a fifth type of heavenheart mandate.

Just like what the crowd anticipated, Qin Wentian continuously released four types of heavenheart mandates. The Heavenheart Mirror shot out four beams of light. Longyuan Haoyu narrowed his eyes, staring at Qin Wentian. Would Qin Wentian still have more heavenheart mandates to display?

Qin Wentian's actions slowly stopped. At this instant, countless gazes were focused on him. Even Longyuan Haoyu felt slightly nervous, his gaze was fixed on Qin Wentian.

Only to see Qin Wentian's hand gently waving as an ethereal energy gushed forth. The energy transformed into a fearsome might that instantly enveloped Longyuan Haoyu but it dissipated before it did anything. A moment later, a fifth beam of light shot out from the Heavenheart Mirror.

Qin Wentian released a total of five heavenheart mandates and he did so in an extremely casual and carefree manner.

"Before I comprehended my world heart, I've already comprehended several heavenheart mandates. Although my cultivation time is short and the period of time I spent in the world overlord realm is also not long, is it really that difficult to comprehend heavenheart mandates?"

Qin Wentian calmly spoke. As the sound of his voice faded, resplendent streams of light flew towards him. At this instant, the divine weapons and treasures of the world overlords in the surroundings started to tremble, emitting a humming noise as they sought to free themselves from their owner's control.

"This…" The world overlords narrowed their eyes, staring at Qin Wentian in shock. The Heavenheart Mirror shot out the sixth beam of light. Right now, Qin Wentian's number of heavenheart mandates have already surpassed Longyuan Haoyu.

In an instant, Longyuan Haoyu felt the burning sensation of shame on his face. His face was smacked in public. And as for those seniors who spoke out for Longyuan Haoyu earlier, all of them now had no choice but to shut up. They stared at Qin Wentian and didn't know what to say.

Was it very difficult to comprehend heavenheart mandates?

Qin Wentian meant that although the amount of time he spent in the world overlord realm was short, it wasn't too much of a pressure for him to comprehend heavenheart mandates. In fact, before he had even comprehend his world heart, it seemed that he has already gained comprehension of quite a few heavenheart mandates. This meant that his world heart wasn't formed from an extension of his heavenheart mandates. He was taking reference from his comprehension of many different heavenheart mandates to truly manifest a unique world heart. He was a true transcendent-level world overlord.

However, was everything concluded?

Of course not. Qin Wentian waved his hand again and released another beam of resplendent light. This light transformed into a thin ray and curved around, it was a fusion of darkness and light and brimmed with supreme destructive might. The Heavenheart Mirror shot out a seven beam of light.

This meant that the number of heavenheart mandates Qin Wentian had comprehended, had already reached seven types.

"Do you still want to see?" Qin Wentian stared at Longyuan Haoyu as a look of contempt appeared on his face. At this moment, Longyuan Haoyu's countenance was like dead ashes. His pride was completely stomped.

"Since you are able to comprehend many types of heavenheart mandates and the convention is about to commence, why don't you show us all of them? After all, this ought to be a stage for geniuses, you can use it to display your brilliance." An old man from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy spoke out.

"Senior is right. Before this, junior thought that there was no need for this. But now, I can only hope that the various seniors here won't ridicule me." Qin Wentian bowed towards the old senior from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and spoke in a humble manner. But at the instant he inclined his head, a bright light flickered in his eyes, seemingly capable of affecting the hearts of people. The Heavenheart Mirror shot out an eighth beam of light. This single look shot out by Qin Wentian was also the power of a heavenheart mandate.

Next, the ninth and tenth beam of light shot out from the heavenheart Mirror. Boundless radiance was reflected, and ten halos revolved around Qin Wentian, proving his magnificence beyond a doubt. Nobody spoke, silence was in the air. Regardless of young world overlords or old, all of them were staring at Qin Wentian in awe.

Ten types of heavenheart mandates, this was twice the amount of what Longyuan Haoyu has comprehended. Longyuan Haoyu's face has been completely smacked swollen.

At this instant, not only those around the Heavenheart Mirror saw it, the experts in the entire Time Realm also saw the supreme figure of Qin Wentian that was radiating boundless magnificence.

In a certain palace, an old man froze when he saw this. After that, he spoke out towards a certain direction, "Young miss, quickly come out and take a look."

"I told you not to disturb me, right?" A voice rang out from within the palace.

"It's that young fellow surnamed Qin. He is currently displaying his heavenheart mandates before the Heavenheart Mirror." The old man spoke. Although he had no idea what happened earlier that caused his young miss to act so strangely, it should have something to do with this young man surnamed Qin.

A silhouette flashed as a beautiful woman appeared. Her eyes stared into the horizons and saw the reflection projected by the Heavenheart Mirror. Qin Wentian was like a god king imperiously staring down at everything in the world, radiating boundless magnificence.

"He is competing with a young genius world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor and has already displayed ten heavenheart mandates. This man is extremely young, his talent is truly terrifying." The old man spoke. The beautiful young woman was in a daze as she stared at Qin Wentian's figure. Her heart stirred slightly. Ten heavenheart mandates…?

But then again, how could his talent not be high?

"He is still releasing heavenheart mandates. This is already the eleventh type." The old man exclaimed in shock. When the Heavenheart Mirror shot out the eleventh beam of light, the entire Time Realm seemed to freeze.

In the next instant, another beam of light shot out, this was already the twelfth heavenheart mandate. The old man felt his heart shuddering, turning somewhat numb. He has already been a world overlord for countless years and can be considered a major character among world overlords, having comprehended quite a number of heavenheart mandates himself. But even so, what was he compared to this young man? Naturally, what he sought for now wasn't quantity, but quality instead.

But even so, given how young Qin Wentian was, he should have just recently broken through to the world overlord realm and he could already display twelve heavenheart mandates. This meant that comprehending heavenheart mandates were truly of no difficulty to him. In that case, how high would his accomplishments be in the future?

The eyes of the beautiful young woman turned red, they were slightly wet around the rims. She sighed softly in her heart, "Father, what were all your actions for? Right now, someone has returned."

In the Heavenheart Mirror's surroundings, many experts and major characters from the various peak powers were all staring at Qin Wentian as waves of emotions rocked their hearts.

Transcendent-level world overlord? Truly transcendent indeed. In fact, his talent already couldn't be described with the word 'transcendent-level.' With twelve halos revolving around him, wasn't he making it so that no one else would want to display their heavenheart mandates after him? Who would be able to surpass him? Most probably, only a few major characters could do so. But was there any meaning in them competing with a young junior like Qin Wentian?

The Heavenly Talisman Realmlord's face turned completely dark, he found it hard to accept this. How could Qin Wentian have such talent? This was someone who once belonged to his Heavenly Talisman Realm and can be considered a junior to him. How was he able to comprehend twelve heavenheart mandates? No one could be clearer than him that a few hundred years ago, Qin Wentian was merely a minor and insignificant character.

The people of the Dragon Pool Manor felt their hearts trembling as their expressions were all incredibly ugly to behold. This time around, the fact that Longyuan Haoyu accepted Qin Wentian's challenge, would prove to be a calamity to him

To Longyuan Haoyu, right now he completely had no more confidence in combat. Before this, after he displayed five types of heavenheart mandates, he basked in the glory and was exceedingly confident and arrogant, showing off to everyone. But now when he saw the twelve halos of light revolving around Qin Wentian, his arrogance, pride and confidence had completely shattered. His heart was trembling violently.

Everyone instantly recalled what Qin Wentian said earlier. Is it really very difficult to comprehend many heavenheart mandates?

They initially thought Qin Wentian was just bragging. But, what about now?

Twelve halos were revolving around him. Was this very difficult?

Chapter 1779: Qin Wentian's World Heart

To Qin Wentian, the comprehension of heavenheart mandates were difficult at the start. But after the gate to that was pushed open, it was no longer a problem.

He once cultivated in the World of Ten Thousand Laws for many years. Which heavenheart mandates would he not have seen before? After experiencing that secret realm, he had gained insights into countless powerful heavenheart mandates, wanting to use them as a reference for him to manifest a world heart. To him, heavenheart mandates were powers that were extremely easy to comprehend. Naturally, this only referred to ordinary heavenheart mandates that were formed from the fusion of two source origins. As for extraordinary heavenheart mandates, they wouldn't be so easy to comprehend. One would need even higher comprehension abilities and much more time if they wanted to do so.

Before this, he truly had no intentions to display his brilliance here but considering what Longyuan Haoyu did, changed his mind. Longyuan Haoyu actually broke the rules of the convention and directly sent a lackey to his residential palace to capture Mo Qingcheng? What was Longyuan Haoyu depending on? Naturally, it was his strong background. Qin Wentian was just an outsider world overlord, for world overlords like him who had no backgrounds to speak off, you can find any number of them in the crowd who came here for the convention.

Hence, Qin Wentian knew what he needed to do. He needed to let everyone attending the convention, including the major characters of the peak powers to know of his existence.

This was why this scene occurred. The twelve halos revolving around his body all came from the Heavenheart Mirror. This meant that he has displayed twelve different types of heavenheart mandates.

"Being able to comprehend twelve heavenheart mandates is sufficient to prove that your comprehension abilities are extraordinary. But there was one point you said earlier that is right. The strength of a world overlord is never determined by the quantity of the heavenheart mandates he comprehended. You spent so much time on comprehending heavenheart mandates but have wasted time with regards to pursuing a truly powerful one. This is simply neglecting fundamentals to concentrate on the minor useless details." That expert who spoke out for Longyuan Haoyu earlier spoke out again now. It was like he felt a loss of face when Qin Wentian displayed so many heavenheart mandates.

Before this, he once said how difficult it was to comprehend heavenheart mandates and felt that Longyuan Haoyu's talent was extraordinary because he could comprehend five. But after Qin Wentian displayed twelve, his face was completely smacked.

Qin Wentian coldly laughed in his heart. Longyuan Haoyu was praised by this man simply because he had five heavenheart mandates. As for him who had displayed twelve, this man instantly changed his words.

However, no matter how brazen Qin Wentian was, he wouldn't be foolish enough to contend directly against these major characters. After all, he only wanted to deal with a single person right now at this instant and that person was Longyuan Haoyu. He wanted to temporarily steer clear of other troubles for now.

"Senior's teaching is right. Junior will solemnly remember this advice and reflect on this seriously." Qin Wentian's attitude was as humble as ever, and extremely courteous. No one could pick on him because of it.

His gaze slowly turned towards Longyuan Haoyu. Earlier, it was just displaying heavenheart mandates. In truth, that was just a prelude to the life-and-death battle between him and Longyuan Haoyu.

"Are you prepared?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. Longyuan Haoyu's expression sank, his confidence was completely gone. After seeing the twelve heavenheart mandates, it was impossible for his state of heart to remain unaffected.

"Next, it's time for our battle to start." As the sound of Qin Wentian's voice faded, the wind and clouds changed color as a terrifying energy manifested, directly boring down on this space.

World overlords were above empyreans. A single thought from them could become laws. Their wills were heaven's will.

At the instant Qin Wentian released his world heart, with him and Longyuan Haoyu in the center, the vast area around here became a world that belonged to him. This world generated his heart domain, and was the origin of his strength.

At this moment, Longyuan Haoyu's expression was like dead ashes. If one were to say that he had lost all confidence after seeing the twelve heavenheart mandates Qin Wentian displayed earlier. Right now, after Qin Wentian released his world heart, despair was the only thing in his heart.

Because, Longyuan Haoyu felt that his body was completely out of his control. This entire world seemed to have become a zone that was under the absolute control of Qin Wentian. Qin Wentian was the controller of this world, the god of this world.

Longyuan Haoyu released his own world heart but he felt that the world heart which he has always been so proud of, was now under absolute suppression. This was due to a difference between the levels of world heart. Right now, his world heart and the heavenheart mandates he comprehended all seemed completely useless in this zone. Inside this heart domain, Qin Wentian was the controller of everything.

In the Heavenheart Mirror, a thirteenth beam of resplendent light shot out. This indicated that a new heavenheart mandate was displayed. This was Qin Wentian's innate heavenheart mandate, which meant that this heavenheart mandate was born from his world heart and could directly fuse with it. His heart domain was the source of this heavenheart mandate.

Qin Wentian stepped out. Longyuan Haoyu stared at his figure as his expression was ugly to the extreme. At this moment, he felt that Qin Wentian was like an invincible heavenly deity standing high up in the heavens, staring down imperiously at him.

He was a genius of the Dragon Pool Manor but right now, he felt as lowly as an ant. He felt as though he was trampled by Qin Wentian, and was viewed with contempt. This feeling was extremely strong. He knew that it was impossible for him to win against this man before him.

Longyuan Haoyu started to regret. Why did he choose to accept the challenge? He had no chance of victory at all. Or to put it in other words, he had already lost. The two of them were completely on different levels.

Qin Wentian's world heart made him feel despair.

Upon seeing Qin Wentian moving closer and closer to him as well as seeing the killing intent in Qin Wentian's eyes, Longyuan Haoyu hurriedly spoke, "I give up on this battle. This battle has concluded."

At the instant his voice rang out, many people felt astonished. Giving up on the battle? Running away?

Longyuan Haoyu earlier agreed to the challenge before everyone. What did him giving up mean?

This meant that he has abandoned his pride, his arrogance, and had lost without even needing to battle. He felt terror, and didn't even have the courage to fight. This was even more shameful than an actual defeat.

However, if he was truly defeated, death was his ending. Hence, he'd rather chose to give up on his dignity.

"Laughable. This is the convention of the myriad realms and before the eyes of so many seniors and major characters of the peak powers, how can you go back on your words like that?" Qin Wentian coldly spoke. His killing intent flared even more as he continued walking towards Longyuan Haoyu. Longyuan Haoyu felt as though a god of death was moving closer and closer to him.

"I concede, is that okay then?" Longyuan Haoyu spoke.

"Naturally." Qin Wentian coldly laughed. As the sound of his voice faded, his body vanished from the spot. In the next instant, he reappeared before Longyuan Haoyu and grabbed out with his hand. Longyuan Haoyu wanted to evade but Qin Wentian's strength was too high. In this absolute zone, Qin Wentian was like a god. There was no way Longyuan Haoyu could evade.

His body was directly grabbed. There seemed to be an ethereal hand holding his body, slowly lifting him up into the air.

"What are you doing?" Longyuan Haoyu roared in rage, his expression was one of malevolence and terror.

"Since it is a life-and-death battle, conceding means death." The killing intent in Qin Wentian's eyes towered up into the sky. How could he spare someone who dared to act against Mo Qingcheng?

"Stay your hand!" A thunderous roar rang out from the direction of the Dragon Pool Manor. They naturally wanted to stop Qin Wentian from killing Longyuan Haoyu.

"Die."

As the thunderous roar faded, the word 'die' punctured the air. After that, everyone only saw Longyuan Haoyu's body directly disintegrating as his soul dispersed. He didn't even have the time to beg for mercy and was domineeringly killed. In fact, Qin Wentian didn't even make any other movements. Just a single word from him has determined Longyuan Haoyu's death.

Many people felt their hearts shaking. The person who died wasn't an ordinary world overlord but was a genius world overlord of the Dragon Pool Manor, Longyuan Haoyu.

But, he actually died like that? In such a simple manner? There was no battle at all, nor were there any exchanges of moves. He died due to the overwhelming disparity in their strengths.

What was a genius?

A true genius always needed to be contrasted against other geniuses. And Longyuan Haoyu who was a genius world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor, had undoubtedly became the foil that allowed Qin Wentian to shine brighter. However, the price he paid was truly extremely great. He died to do that.

"What world heart is that? How terrifying." Many people silently mused.

Qin Wentian inclined his head. He stared at the expert from the Dragon Pool Manor who told him to stay his hand as he spoke, "Is there a problem?"

That expert's countenance darkened, an intense anger could be felt radiating from him. Earlier, Qin Wentian clearly disregarded his words and disregarded the existence of the Dragon Pool Manor, killing Longyuan Haoyu with no hesitation before everyone's eyes.

Now that Longyuan Haoyu was already dead, what else could he say?

A life-and-death challenge, this was something everyone could be a witness to. Even if he hated Qin Wentian extremely much at this moment, he wouldn't be able to say anything with regards to Longyuan Haoyu's death.

"Your methods are so ruthless. Killing a person of my Dragon Pool Manor just because of a grudge. In that case, your robbery of the Heaven Immortal Tower should be accounted for now, right?" That expert icily spoke. Cao Tian was here, they would simply not kill Cao Tian but they had to deal with Qin Wentian.

"The robbery was done by me. I will take responsibility for everything. Whatever your Dragon Pool Manor wants to do, I will bear it all." Cao Tian tyrannically spoke.

"Why don't both parties temporarily set aside the grudges they have for now?" At this moment, a voice rang out. The expressions of the experts from the Dragon Pool Manor froze, staring at the person who spoke. It was actually someone from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy."

"The world heart you manifested is extremely unique. What is your world heart's power?" The expert from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy asked Qin Wentian. For some people, the world hearts they comprehended were unique and extremely special. Qin Wentian's world heart was of this category. Although the power of his world heart only enveloped the zone he and Longyuan Haoyu were in earlier, the surrounding experts could all feel the existence of that special heavenheart mandate he used.

"Replying to senior, this world heart was formed from my understandings of various heavenheart mandates as well as my comprehension, innate techniques and secret arts. After that, my innate heavenheart mandate was born from the world heart. When both my world heart and innate heavenheart mandate are released, the entire surroundings here would be under my absolute control, both my opponent's world heart and their heavenheart mandates would be completely suppressed. I have not named my world heart yet as I don't dare to do so. In any case, a name isn't important." Qin Wentian spoke. In truth, the power of his world heart wasn't as simple as he described.

"In that case for world overlords fighting against you, as long as you employ the power of your world heart, you can directly control everything? You are the god of the zone you created, your will is equal to heaven's fate and you can determine their life and death with a single word. No wonder Longyuan Haoyu couldn't even fight back." That expert nodded his head. "Why don't you name your world heart the Heaven's Fate World Heart?"

Chapter 1780: Invitation Once Again

"Heavenly Fate World Heart," Qin Wentian mumbled. The old man spoke again, "Naturally, this is only a suggestion. For the world heart you comprehended, if you have a name you want to use more, it will naturally follow your opinion."

Qin Wentian smiled. It can be said that he was fated with the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy and can be considered half of a disciple. The sentence spoken by the old man interrupted the aggression the Dragon Pool Manor had shown, and was considered to have helped him resolve the situation somewhat. Right now, he even helped him to name his world heart. Qin Wentian naturally understood that the old man admired his talent. Also, this name sounded quite apt as well. How would he reject and not give the old man face?

"Since senior is willing to suggest a name for junior, this student feels only incomparable gratitude. My world heart shall be named as the Heavenly Fate World Heart from now on." Qin Wentian nodded. The old man from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy smiled and stroked his beard. Clearly, Qin Wentian's personality was very much to his taste.

Having strong talent, exuding boundless radiance, with an excellent comprehension ability and innately had a source of pride in his bones. Even for a world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor, Qin Wentian killed him while disregarding his background, yet he wasn't blindly arrogant at all and was still so humble and polite towards him, a random old man from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Also, Qin Wentian had attended dao lectures in the academy before and had fate with it. With so many reasons, there were no reasons why the old man shouldn't feel closeness to him.

"Today, you have displayed your heavenheart mandates, resulting in thirteen halos around you. I wonder if there would be any people willing to display their heavenheart mandates after that." The old man shook his head and smiled. With such a dazzling example like Qin Wentian, those world overlords who only comprehended two to three kinds of heavenheart mandates probably would no longer have any face to display their heavenheart mandates.

This was indeed the thoughts of many world overlords. With Qin Wentian here, there was no meaning in them displaying their heavenheart mandates.

Great waves of emotions rose in the heart of the Heavenly Talisman Realmlord as he stared at the figure in the air. Never in his wildest dreams did he think that this young man who once had a close connection with him, would actually display such glory. Right now, he was thinking whether Qin Wentian would find him for revenge or not?

If Qin Wentian wanted to deal with him, he wouldn't even be able to retaliate. The power of that world heart named 'Heavenly Fate,' Longyuan Haoyu wasn't able to resist it and was insta-killed, neither would he be able to.

In a residential palace that was extremely faraway, the beautiful young woman who came from the Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region, personally witnessed Qin Wentian's battle. Her heart was filled with restlessness. The old man beside her spoke in a low voice, "This young man's talent is extraordinary high. From his appearance, I don't think he is very old."

As he spoke, he cast a glance at the young woman. He was guessing that this young man surely had a connection with his young miss. If not, she wouldn't act so strangely now and even abandon her pursuit of the 'Kiss of the Demon God.' It seemed like she no longer had any intentions of wanting it back.

The young woman's beautiful eyes stared into the distance fixedly. The old man wasn't able to guess what was in her heart.

At this moment, at the area of the Heavenheart Mirror, a figure suddenly stepped out. This person gave off an extremely outstanding feeling and was extremely young and good looking. What was most terrifying was his pair of eyes, they were as deep as the abyss and could feel how fearsome they were despite looking at him from a distance. When you looked at his eyes for too long, you would fall into an illusion. The pupils in that pair of eyes seemed to be revolving, as though it was automatically manifesting a world formed from an eye-technique.

The eyes of many in the surroundings flashed with sharpness. Just after the old man from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy spoke, someone walked out instantly after that? Wasn't that considered a forceful reply?

Evidently, because all the peak powers of the Mystic Region would gather for the convention, how can their top geniuses be willing to allow Qin Wentian to hog the limelight alone?

This person who walked out was clearly from a peak power, he was from the Samsara Temple, one of the strongest powers below the three hegemonic powers.

This young man was none other than a supreme genius there, the representative of their younger generation. His talent was extremely rare and outstanding, he wasn't somebody a genius from the Dragon Pool Manor, Longyuan Haoyu, could compare to.

"It's Bai Qingfeng, a supreme character from Samsara Temple." At this moment, the hearts of many people trembled. Clearly, this young man was extremely famous in the Mystic Region and many in the Time Realm knew of his name.

The young genius world overlord of the Samsara Temple, Bai Qingfeng. It was rumored that out of those world overlords who fought with him before, none of them were able to walk out from this world heart's power with no exceptions. He had already spent several thousand years in the world overlord realm and had no records of being defeated at all. This was his first time participating in the convention.

"Today, will we finally be able to see Bai Qingfeng's world heart and heavenheart mandate personally?" Many people mused. After that, they soon saw Bai Qingfeng unleashing the power of his world heart and heavenheart mandate before the Heavenheart Mirror. In an instant, those who were looking at him all fell into an illusion. Not only for those in the surroundings, those looking at the reflections from the Heavenheart Mirror experienced the same thing as well. Their thoughts were not of their own control and they fell into a samsara cycle illusion, experiencing scenes they had never experienced before.

"This…" Their hearts trembled, wanting to struggle free but the vast majority of people failed to do so until Bai Qingfeng retracted the power of his world heart. After he retracted it, things went back to normal. Those affected had experienced countless scenes in just an instant.

"How powerful." Many people were shocked. Bai Qingfeng simply displayed a single heavenheart mandate, which was his innate heavenheart mandate that came from his world heart's power. After that, his figure flashed and he disappeared from the Heavenheart Mirror.

He didn't compete with Qin Wentian in terms of quantity. In truth, Qin Wentian's words were logical. Although the quantity of heavenheart mandates can prove one's comprehension ability, it wasn't able to determine the strength level of world overlords. The true determinant factor was the power of one's world heart and innate heavenheart mandate.

"Is that Bai Qingfeng's World Samsara World Heart?" Many people silently mused. Bai Qingfeng's world heart was named 'World Samsara,' although he had only unleashed his innate heavenheart mandate, who would dare to doubt his prowess?

The expressions of the experts from the Samsara Temple were calm as they silently watched this scene. In another direction, the people from another peak power stared at a young man in their own ranks. This was also a transcendent-level young world overlord who was participating in the convention for the first time.

The young man stepped out, exuding grace and carefreeness, instantly arriving at the inner area of the Heavenheart Mirror.

"Clearsky God Mountain." This young man was also from a peak power below the three hegemonic powers. This power was named as the Clearsky God Mountain and can be considered a super power capable of transmitting dao elements to the lower realms.

The Clearsky God Mountain dared to use the name 'God Mountain' because it once had an incomparable history and belonged to a true heavenly deity-tier power. Even after that heavenly deity died, he left behind his inheritance that was named 'Force of the World.'

This young man was named Li Xiao, his strength was extremely strong and was also very famous in the Mystic Region. He started to release his world heart and power of his heavenheart mandate, causing his surroundings to manifest numerous world gates that released resplendent light and color. Each world gate brimmed with immense energy and when everyone felt the vastness of his strength that seemed endless, all of them felt breathless from the stifling pressure.

In Qin Wentian's residential palace, Jun Mengchen and the others were here. After Qin Wentian found Mo Qingcheng, he naturally sent back a voice transmission to inform them. Right now, they were all looking at the situation of the Heavenheart Mirror from the reflections. Before this, they naturally saw Qin Wentian displaying his brilliance. And now, when they saw Li Xiao releasing his power, Jun Mengchen felt a sense of great familiarity to it.

"Force of the World?" Jun Mengchen mumbled silently. He had to break through to the world overlord realm as quickly as possible or he would be too useless. Before this, a world overlord abducted Mo Qingcheng before his eyes and he was helpless to do anything. It felt truly humiliating.

"Seems like senior brother has caused many true geniuses to step out." Jun Mengchen mused. Next, there were many genius world overlords who came out respectively and they were all incredibly famous in the Mystic Region and this was their first time participating in the convention. As for the major characters who had participated in the convention before, there wasn't much meaning to them displaying their heavenheart mandates again.

"The Mystic Region is a place filled with crouching tigers and hidden dragons." Qin Wentian silently mused. After him, several powerful world overlords showed up, as though they were all drawn out by him. And after this group of people, those world overlords with more ordinary-level of talents felt embarrassed to display their heavenheart mandates.

After observing for a long time, Qin Wentian decided to bring Mo Qingcheng with him and leave. He bid farewell to that senior from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. That old man seeing that Qin Wentian took the initiative to bid farewell, smiled at him, "When you have the time to, you can come and find me. We can do an exchange of dao insights between the world overlords of the academy."

"If Junior has the chance, I will definitely head over to seek guidance." Qin Wentian nodded and left. Ten Miles Springwind, Cao Tian and the others also left with him, as they were worried about the retaliations by the Dragon Pool Manor. Qin Wentian had killed Longyuan Haoyu and their deed of robbing the Heaven Immortal Tower was exposed. It shouldn't be so easy for this matter to reach a conclusion.

As for Qin Wentian, it was clear that the Dragon Pool Manor wouldn't spare him so easily.

As expected, after Qin Wentian left, the people of the Dragon Pool Manor also silently left the Heavenehart Mirror. Many intelligent people naturally knew that they wouldn't give up just because of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. Things weren't that simple.

Among the crowd, the little princess of the Donghuang Clan, which was the ruler of the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms, had been observing the situation. Upon seeing the Dragon Pool Manor leaving, her silhouette flashed as she chased after the direction where Qin Wentian had left. The experts from the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms naturally followed after her.

Donghuang Ying bade a powerful world overlord of her clan to bring her along, increasing her speed. She soon caught up to Qin Wentian. After that, Donghuang Ying spoke, "Qingcheng Realmlord, please hold on for a moment."

Qin Wentian halted his steps, he turned and stared at Donghuang Ying, "Little Princess, is there anything I can do for you?"

"You publicly killed a genius world overlord of the Dragon Pool Manor, they would definitely not spare you. My offer is still the same, I wish to invite you to join my Eastern Royal Immortal Realms and I'll give you the best cultivation conditions. Also, I won't restrict your freedom and will give you the title of a guest elder. How about it?" Donghuang Ying spoke. After seeing Qin Wentian displaying his talent, she was even more keen to recruit him.

"I, Qin, am filled with endless gratitude at little princess's persistence of inviting me two times. However, I, Qin truly don't like joining other powers for self-protection. I hope little princess can understand." Qin Wentian rejected the invitation again. A smile appeared in Donghuang Ying's beautiful eyes, she wasn't disappointed. "Since this is the case, it shouldn't be a problem for us to become friends, right?"

As she spoke, she even winked at Qin Wentian and had a mischievous smile on her face. She who was already originally very beautiful, was even more enchanting now. Ten Miles Springwind who was at the side, silently marveled at this young woman. She was so young and was only an empyrean but she already understood how to use all sorts of advantages like her beauty and background.

Chapter 1781: Luoshen Lei

In the residential palace of the Luoshen Clan, Luoshen Lei kept pacing about her room, her heart filled with hesitation. After a long time, she finally took out a messaging crystal and contacted an imprint of immortal sense there.

"Father." Luoshen Lei transmitted her voice.

"Lei`er." A warm voice filled with doting love rang out in her mind. When she heard that familiar voice, she lowered her head slightly and continued, "Father, I just met someone in the Mystic Region and I'm currently hesitating, not sure if I should tell you or not?"

"Who is it?" Her father's voice was filled with bewilderment.

Luoshen Lei stayed silent, she was still hesitating but eventually, she still transmitted over, "His surname is Qin."

"A person from 'that' clan?" The voice in her mind grew colder. Although she wasn't by her father's side, Luoshen Lei could still clearly feel the chill radiating from him.

"Father, I knew of his existence when I was pursuing the 'Kiss of the Demon God.' His wife has a phoenix gown that activated the 'Kiss of the Demon God.'" Luoshen Lei spoke.

"Impossible, for a gown like that, only those in our clan would have. That clan wouldn't have one."

"Mhm, I also believe that that clan wouldn't have one. But he said that during the date of his wedding, his mother gifted this gown to his wife. Also, he had no idea who his mother was, and it's also very possible he doesn't know the identity of his father. However, his surname is Qin." Luoshen Lei spoke again. She didn't know how large the waves of emotions her words caused in the heart of her father who was extremely far away from her.

But her father has also confirmed that only those from the Luoshen Clan would have that type of phoenix gown. It was impossible for those surnamed Qin to have it. But that young man was precisely surnamed Qin and he said that his mother was the one who gifted it to his wife.

"How old is he?" Her father's voice rang out in her mind again. But this time, a slight tremble could be heard in the voice.

"He looked very young and his wife is even younger, only at the immortal emperor realm. However, his talent is extremely good, he's currently at the world overlord realm and is also a transcendent-level world overlord. At the Heavenheart Mirror of the convention, he released a total of thirteen heavenheart mandates, displaying his brilliance. Also, he seemed to be trying to find out about his own identity. That day during our conversation, I sensed that he suspected something about my identity and intentionally asked who I was. He might know of something and wish to find some answers."

Her father suddenly turned silent. After a long time, he replied, "Lei`er, you should know who he is and you should understand father's heart. Wait for me in the Mystic Region, I'm heading there right now."

"Father, but you…" Luoshen Lei's beautiful gaze froze, she felt some worry.

"Don't worry. Lei`er, you should understand me." A warm voice rang out in her mind once more. Luoshen Lei's eyes turned red as she heavily nodded her head. She naturally understood her father and knew what was in his heart. In this world, there was nobody who didn't know what her father sacrificed for them before.

After keeping her messaging crystal, Luoshen Lei hugged her knees with her hands and resembled a young lady deep in contemplation. Her eyes were slightly red. Would her father blame 'him'? But what does he have to do with this? In addition, she also knew that her father would hope for her to do this.

After a long time, she stood up. It was like she had came to a decision and she left her room.

...

Qin Wentian naturally wouldn't know how much struggle Luoshen Lei was feeling in her heart. Right now, after he heard Donghuang Ying's words, a smile lit up his face. "Being able to become friends with the little princess of the Donghuang Clan is my glory. I'm only afraid I would tarnish little princess's reputation. Not long ago, I just admitted to the world that I'm a robber."

"Just a minor thing." Donghuang Ying smiled. "I'm truly curious where your talent comes from. Even now, I have not comprehended even a single heavenheart mandate. You look so young yet you have actually already comprehended a total of thirteen and your innate heavenheart mandate felt so tyrannical, capable of determining the life and death of your opponent with a single word.

"It's just that Longyuan Haoyu was too weak. If I really encountered a powerful world overlord, I wouldn't be able to do that." Qin Wentian replied. His world heart was able to suppress Longyuan Haoyu completely, this was why he was able to do what he did.

"A genius world overlord of the Dragon Pool Manor is brushed off as too weak by your evaluation. If Longyuan Haoyu resurrected, I'm afraid he would be angered to death." Donghuang Ying smiled gently. The two of them spoke and unconsciously became closer like they had known each other for some time.

At this moment, a sudden burst of immense pressure drifted over from the air. Qin Wentian frowned, and a moment later, he saw a group of experts moving his way. Clearly, these were the people from the Dragon Pool Manor and all of these experts here now were at the world overlord level. They released their might, radiating an extremely imposing aura.

"Can't the Dragon Pool Manor afford to lose?" Cao Tian stared at them, his tone was ice-cold.

"Cao Tian, although you are someone from the Cao Tian, my Dragon Pool Manor isn't some weakling in Time City either. You guys robbed our Heaven Immortal Tower first, are we supposed to forget it just based on a single sentence from you?" A powerful world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor spoke. He didn't mention anything about Longyuan Haoyu's death, deciding to use the reason of robbery instead in case they would incur ridicule and gossip.

"What great fame your Dragon Pool Manor has. Tell me then, what do you want to do?" Cao Tian coldly spoke.

"You are someone from the Cao Clan, for your deeds, we will negotiate separately with your clan. But for these four people, my Dragon Pool Manor will be bringing them away today."

"Arrogant. Didn't I say before this entire heist was my idea? I, Cao Tian, will bear the responsibility alone. If you wish to bring them away, do it after you step over my dead body." Cao Tian coldly continued. But everyone understood how would the Dragon Pool Manor dare to kill him? He was merely threatening them.

"The robbery of the Heaven Immortal Tower, how can things be brushed off just for you Cao Tian alone? What does my Dragon Pool Manor count for?" That expert replied.

"Can the Dragon Pool Manor give me face and forget about this matter?" Donghuang Ying spoke to the people from the Dragon Pool Manor. The Dragon Pool Manor's experts were completely taken aback, they didn't expect the Donghuang Clan to interfere. The Cao Clan was already the controlling clan of the Scarlet Sun Immortal Realms. The Donghuang Clan was the controller of the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms. Both these controllers actually stood on Qin Wentian's side.

"It isn't that my Dragon Pool Manor doesn't want to give little princess's face but this matter caused too great a commotion and my Dragon Pool Manor has to pursue it no matter what. But since little princess has spoken, I'll only bring one person back. The person who started of all these troubles, the Qingcheng Realmlord. He was the one who abducted a serving girl from our Heaven Immortal Tower first, causing the other things to happen later. I have to bring the Qingcheng Realmlord away. As for the others, I can give face to little princess and the Cao Clan and won't pursue them any longer. In this case, at the very least my Dragon Pool Manor still has some face."

The Dragon Pool Manor directly expressed their thoughts. Clearly, the person they wanted to deal with the most, was Qin Wentian.

Robbery was just like icing on the cake. The fact that he killed Longyuan Haoyu in public was the straw that broke the camel's back. How would they give up so easily?

"The Dragon Pool Manor truly gives me face indeed." Donghuang Ying coldly snorted unhappily. "Seems like I'm ultimately still a junior and the weight of my words aren't heavy enough."

"Little princess why must you say this. It's just that this matter will affect the reputation of my Dragon Pool Manor and we have to treat this very seriously. By just bringing one person back, we are already giving face to little princess."

Although the Donghuang Clan was very strong, the Donghuang Clan was merely governing a lower world, their hands wouldn't be able to stretch so far as to Time City. How could they really go all out to deal with their Dragon Pool Manor because of a minor matter like this? Just a little princess, Donghuang Ying didn't have that much authority yet. It was impossible for the Donghuang Clan to act like this just for the sake of an outsider. Hence, there was no need for the Dragon Pool Manor to give Donghuang Ying too much face.

"In that case, does the Dragon Pool Manor want war?" Cao Tian coldly spoke.

"I don't have this intention but we have to bring the Qingcheng Realmlord away today. If everyone is determined to obstruct us, my Dragon Pool Manor can only offend all of you." As the sound of this voice faded, all the world overlords from the Dragon Pool Manor released their auras. It felt that a great battle truly might occur anytime.

"If you all dare to bring him away, just try it and see." A voice rang out from afar. Everyone felt somewhat strange, they knew that someone was moving in this direction but there were so many experts in the Time Realm and it wasn't strange for people who wished to watch drama. However, this person who just arrived seemed as though they wanted to interfere.

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed, staring at the person who came. The young woman who spoke was none other than that young beauty from the Luoshen Clan, of the Desolate Region.

Upon seeing this beauty as well as the experts behind her, a world overlord from the Dragon Pool Manor coldly snorted. "You really know how to hide behind women."

First it was Donghuang Ying, and next, Luoshen Lei. Both were extremely beautiful. This Qingcheng Realmlord truly has good luck with the ladies.

Ten Miles Springwind had a fascinated look on his face, he knew very well the status of Luoshen Lei. But why would she speak up for Qin Wentian? When he thought of this, a look of puzzlement could be seen in his eyes.

"How brazen." A cold snort rang out. The old man beside Luoshen Lei released a terrifying might which bore down on the world overlord who spoke earlier. Upon seeing this might, the world overlord froze. Who were these people?

"Scram." Luoshen Lei coldly regarded the people from the Dragon Pool Manor and spoke, her tone much more tyrannical than Donghuang Ying.

The countenances of the experts from the Dragon Pool Manor all turned cold. Their Dragon Pool Manor was considered a major power in Time City, when had they ever suffered humiliation like today? There were so many powers wanting to threaten them as though their statuses were above them.

"What insolence. I will bring the Qingcheng Realmlord away with us today no matter what." One of the strongest world overlords from the Dragon Pool Manor that had the appearance of an old man spoke. His name had shaken Time City before and was a truly immensely powerful world overlord. How could he not be angered now that the Dragon Pool Manor was encountering provocation and disregarded by others one after another?

"If you dare to bring him away, I will dare to trample the Dragon Pool Manor flat." Luoshen Lei's expression was ice-cold, turning to stare at that old man. Her tone was extremely tyrannical. Even Donghuang Ying wouldn't dare to utter such words because she knew that there was no way for her to accomplish this. In the Donghuang Clan, she didn't have that much authority yet. But this young woman who appeared to be even more beautiful than her, actually dared to say this.

She was a young world overlord and clearly, she wasn't a fool. Since she dared to say such a thing, how can she possibly have nothing to back her up? At this instant, that expert from the Dragon Pool Manor couldn't help but to ask, "Who are you guys?"

"Desolate Region, Luoshen Clan." Luoshen Lei coldly glanced at him. The people from the Dragon Pool Manor felt their hearts trembling violently as their expressions turned pale.

Desolate Region, Luoshen Clan. Experts from that power naturally had the ability to trample the Dragon Pool Manor flat.

The Dragon Pool Manor had never felt so suppressed before. All their lofty world overlords were panicking from the words spoken by this young female, and they had no reply. No matter how great their guts are, they wouldn't dare to act arrogantly before someone from the Luoshen Clan. And this young woman from the Luoshen Clan who dared to say such tyrannical words, what status did she have in the Luoshen Clan exactly?

The Lei(泪) in Luoshen Lei's name, means tears.

Chapter 1782: Elder brother

The experts of the Dragon Pool Manor stared at Qin Wentian. Cao Tian felt somewhat unhappy. Earlier, he had already been mixing together with Qin Wentian but now, was it only because after Qin Wentian displayed his brilliance that these two peak powers came by to try and recruit him?

However, for a power like the Luoshen Clan, they had all sorts of supreme characters in their clan. Was there a need for them to come all the way to the Mystic Region to recruit people? The Mystic Region was so vast, could it be simply just because Qin Wentian released a total of thirteen heavenheart mandates, they decided to group him with the truly peak geniuses of the Mystic Region? Surely, things weren't so exaggerated, right?

But the Luoshen Clan truly did act for the sake of Qin Wentian and their attitude was so domineeringly, wanting to protect him. The Dragon Pool Manor didn't understand.

But even they didn't understand, they could only silently accept this fact.

Because of the two words...Luoshen Clan.

"Farewell." The experts of the Dragon Pool Manor spoke this word with reluctance. The group of them then directly left with blackened faces, feeling extremely unhappy. The Luoshen Clan was so tyrannical. They in truth had no need to give any face to the Luoshen Clan, both parties originally have no connection and even if the Luoshen Clan was powerful, that was only in the Desolate Region. If there wasn't any true conflict between the two parties, the Luoshen Clan also wouldn't deliberately target their Dragon Pool Manor. But even so, they had chosen to submit.

Donghuang Ying's heart was trembling as well, her beautiful eyes staring at the young woman that was more outstanding than her. This young woman came from the Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region and her light instantly covered hers.

The Dragon Pool Manor didn't give Donghuang Ying face but because of a single sentence from this young woman, they left like losers, not daring to say anything in return. This was the disparity. Although her clan was the ruler of a lower world immortal realms, the threat they posed still wasn't comparable to the Luoshen Clan.

However, Qin Wentian was even acquainted with people from the Luoshen Clan?

Ten Miles Springwind was truly confused right now. Earlier, this young woman still wanted to take a treasure from Qin Wentian. But now, she actually acted so domineeringly, helping him to chase away the Dragon Pool Manor. What was the reason behind it.

However, Luoshen Lei wouldn't care about what the others are thinking. Her beautiful eyes landed on Qin Wentian once again as she seriously surveyed this young man before her. He was so young and had a cultivation base at the world overlord realm. He displayed thirteen heavenheart mandates and had an extremely powerful world heart and innate heavenheart mandate. Was this, their son?

Qin Wentian felt somewhat uncomfortable being stared at Luoshen Lei like that. Although he had faintly guessed at the connection between him and the Luoshen Clan, he didn't dare to be sure how the Luoshen Clan would view him because he didn't understand how the grudge started. Back then when he revealed some of the things he knew to Luoshen Lei, it was actually taking a risk.

Right now, this young woman from the Luoshen Clan appeared before him once more and helped him to chase away the Dragon Pool Manor. In that case, what was her attitude towards him?

"I wish to speak with you." Luoshen Lei spoke to Qin Wentian.

"Let's head to my residential palace?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Sure." Luoshen Lei nodded, not hesitating at all.

"Let's go." Qin Wentian also felt some curiosity and anticipation in his heart. What did Luoshen Lei want to chat with him about?

Mo Qingcheng was also very curious about this young woman who wanted the 'Kiss of the Demon God' earlier. Her beautiful eyes were staring at her.

"Can I go along with you guys?" Donghuang Ying smiled.

"I naturally welcome little princess." Qin Wentian laughed. In truth, Donghuang Ying wished to understand more about the Luoshen Clan, what status did this young woman have in the Luoshen Clan exactly?

The group of them then left the area and soon came to Qin Wentian's residential palace. Qing`er and the others seeing that Mo Qingcheng returned safely, naturally crowded around. At the same time, they felt that it was strange why there were so many experts coming here together.

"Father, Yaoyue, can you two help me to entertain the guests abit?" Qin Wentian spoke to the Evergreen Immortal Emperor and Southern Phoenix Matriarch. "I have something I need to do."

"Sure." Although the Evergreen Immortal Emperor felt a little puzzled, he still nodded his head. He simply watched as Qin Wentian and Luoshen Lei walked into the depths of the palace, heading to the back.

The gentle wind gusted by, Qin Wentian and Luoshen Lei stood side by side together, leaning against the railing as they stared into the horizon. At the same time, this entire space was completely sealed, blocking the immortal senses of others from prying. Their voices wouldn't leak out as well. They would instantly know if anyone tried to spy on them.

"Father?" Luoshen Lei glanced at Qin Wentian, referring to how he addressed the Evergreen Immortal Emperor. Although she had some speculations in her heart, she still asked the question.

"My father-in-law." Qin Wentian replied. Luoshen Lei nodded lightly, this was just as what she had speculated.

"Where is your birth father?" Luoshen Lei asked.

"Do you know?" Qin Wentian stared straight at Luoshen Lei, staring at her beautiful eyes. Luoshen Lei's eyes turned to the distance, as though she hasn't heard Qin Wentian's words. Only after a long time did she speak slowly, "Although I didn't have an opportunity to meet him, I have already heard his name countless times. If I'm not mistaken, your father should be named Qin Yuanfeng, right?"

Qin Wentian's eyes narrowed slightly but he didn't feel too shocked. Since this young woman seemed to be acquainted with his mother, it wasn't too strange that she knew about his father.

"Is your father still alive?" Luoshen Lei turned her beautiful eyes onto Qin Wentian as she asked.

"I have no idea but I naturally hope that he is. I'm the same as you, I have never met my father before." Qin Wentian slowly spoke. In his heart, he truly yearned to meet with his father.

"Since you have never met your father and mother before, how did you know about your origins?" Luoshen Lei asked again.

"They left behind some memories on me, this is why I knew." Qin Wentian didn't hide it. Since the two of them had already revealed certain truths to each other, there was no longer a need to conceal things.

The fact that his father was Qin Yuanfeng was a great secret but since the young woman had guessed it herself, the other matters didn't really matter if he told her about them.

"What is the relationship between us?" Qin Wentian finally asked. He had been wanting to ask this question. This young woman from the Luoshen Clan, what relationship does she have with him exactly? Undoubtedly, they were related by blood. It's just that he had no way to guess at what was their connection exactly.

Luoshen Lei's heart trembled lightly. Her gaze showed signs of evasion but she eventually inclined her head and stared seriously at Qin Wentian. She suddenly asked, "Now, I've cultivated for over four hundred years. Are you older, or am I older?"

"Four hundred plus years and already a world overlord?" Qin Wentian silently mused. This talent was truly shocking. Naturally, since the Luoshen Clan was a power that could make the Eastern Royal Immortal Heavens and Dragon Pool Manor feel trepidation, they should be an incredible existence. In that case, there wasn't anything strange about this. Regardless of inheritances, talent or cultivation resources, all of these factors were at the peak. But even so, this young woman's comprehension abilities must be extremely shocking as well or it was impossible for her to enter the world overlord realm within such a short time.

"I'm slightly older than you." Qin Wentian spoke.

Luoshen Lei's lips trembled slightly, like she wanted to say something but didn't know how she should say it. The powerful and prideful her felt very nervous at this moment. Finally, her gaze fixed on Qin Wentian as she softly called out, "Elder brother."

"Elder brother!" This soft voice was like a bolt of thunder in Qin Wentian's mind, causing him to be instantly stunned. Although he had guessed that there was a connection between him and this young woman, never in his wildest dreams did he expect that she would call him 'elder brother.'

This was his younger sister!

Before this, he had many sisters; Qin Yao, Ye Lingshuang, Bai Qing and Luo Huan. All of them were as close as true sisters to him but this young woman was different. She was someone that had a blood connection with him.

"How can this be?" Qin Wentian also actually felt nervous. He had never experienced such a thing before. He stared at Luoshen Lei and asked, "Are you really my younger sister?"

"It can be considered so. I'm Luoshen Lei from the Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region. My father is your mother's blood elder brother. Which means that he is your uncle." Luoshen Lei spoke. Qin Wentian felt his heart trembling again. The elder brother of his mother, his blood uncle.

Before this, he had only thought to look for his parents, he had never imagined that he had other relatives existing.

Luoshen Clan had his uncle there and his little cousin. Naturally, his maternal grandfather was there as well.

Since Luoshen Lei was willing to address him as elder brother, this meant that her father, who was also his uncle, didn't treat him as an outsider even though the Luoshen Clan had forbidden his parents from being together back then.

However, many things would change with the passage of time. Other than some memories, Qin Wentian was completely ignorant of many things that happened back then. He naturally couldn't be clear of all these relations that he had never came in contact with before.

Qin Wentian stared at Luoshen Lei, his younger sister.

Right now, Luoshen Lei also went all out, her beautiful eyes staring fixedly at Qin Wentian. Her expression resembled one of hidden bitterness which teenage girls often felt, completely different from her imposing demeanor earlier when she was talking to the Dragon Pool Manor. Staring at her expression, Qin Wentian suddenly smiled in an extremely radiant manner.

He took a step forward and asked her, "Can I hug you?"

Luoshen Lei's beautiful eyes instantly widened. She stared unblinkingly at Qin Wentian. There never has been a man who dared to speak like this to her before. But when she saw the tenderness in Qin Wentian's eyes, she was like someone who had no temper. She actually nodded her head in agreement.

Qin Wentian walked over and softly embraced Luoshen Lei. His actions were very gentle and the smile on his face grew even more radiant, with no hints of complexity. This was a joy that came from his heart. So it turned out that he had a younger sister in this world although they were in truth, first cousins.

"Younger sis." Qin Wentian spoke in a low voice. Luoshen Lei's body started to stiffen from the embrace but when she heard Qin Wentian's voice, she gradually released the tension in her heart. However, her expression was still somewhat strange. Didn't she have a conflict with him earlier? Why did their relationship improve so quickly? This was too strange. Was this because of the closeness they felt due to being related by blood?

"In the future, I will call you Lei`er. Is that alright?" Qin Wentian softly spoke before releasing her from his embrace. Luoshen Lei glared at him, but she still nodded her head. "I've already spoken of your matter with my father. He is currently rushing over to the Mystic Region. He wishes to meet with you."

"Uncle is coming?" Qin Wentian mumbled softly. After that, he laughed. He sensed no falsehood from Luoshen Lei's attitude. In that case, her feelings towards him most probably were influenced by her father's attitude. From this, one could very well imagine that his uncle didn't feel hatred for him at all. Upon thinking of this, Qin Wentian also felt an intense anticipation, wanting to meet with this uncle of his!

Chapter 1783: Qin Wentian’s Fantasy

Qin Wentian stared at Luoshen Lei as he drew in a deep breath. After that, he asked, "Back then, what happened exactly? Where is the location of my father's clan? Lei`er, you didn't manage to meet my father before, but have you met my mother before?"

He came all the way to the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms, growing stronger and stronger on his way here. But his obsession with the matter that happened in the past has never faded. He could still remember clearly when he watched his father die and he had vowed that he would take revenge then.

"No, my birth was later than you. At that time, aunt has already disappeared hence my impression of her is only from my father's descriptions. Also there are many rumors in my clan. For that period of history, I didn't personally experience it before. But I'm sure no one knew of your existence. You say that you are only slightly older than me? The timeline doesn't seem to match. In that case, in that internal battle of the Qin Clan, your father truly didn't die?"

She has cultivated for over four hundred years. Qin Wentian said that he was slightly older than her but during that internal warfare, the amount of time that had passed was much longer. There was only a single possibility, Qin Yuanfeng didn't die.

"In that case, aunt vanished after being brought back to our clan. She should have left with your father, right?" Luoshen Lei's eyes stared fixedly at Qin Wentian. Her eyes were red and somewhat wet. After that, she walked to the side with some difficulty as though she wanted to know about something.

"Lei`er, what's wrong?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Nothing much. You will understand after meeting with my father. He is more clear than me with regards to many things that happened in the past, he has experienced them all. At that time, you can direct your questions to him." Luoshen Lei's heart seemed to be bogged down by worries but she didn't say why. In his heart, although Qin Wentian really wanted to know everything that happened then, he still nodded his head after he heard Luoshen Lei's words and suppressed the eagerness in his heart.

"Where is the Qin Clan?" Qin Wentian asked. This Qin Clan naturally referred to the clan of his father, Qin Yuanfeng. That clan who stole everything from his father. The clan whom his hatred for them was so deep that his hatred was etched in his bones.

"In the Heaven Region of the eight regions." Luoshen Lei replied. Qin Wentian's expression froze. The eight regions of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms are separated into Heaven, Earth, Mystic, Yellow, Universe, Eternal, Chaos and Desolate. Although it wasn't said that the first few named regions were the strongest, this was pretty obvious. The Heaven Region that is situated in the center of the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms definitely wouldn't be weak. They are absolutely one of the strongest realms here.

The two of them continued chatting for a long time. Because this space was sealed, no one came to disturb them. Many people outside felt bewildered, what was Qin Wentian and Luoshen Lei chatting about exactly? To think that they actually chatted for such a long time. Even Mo Qingcheng had a strange expression on her face. Although she wouldn't suspect Qin Wentian of anything but Luoshen Lei ultimately was a great beauty. The two of them were interacting alone for such a long time and she couldn't help but feel a little jealous at that.

Naturally, in truth, Mo Qingcheng already had some speculations. Luoshen Lei came here for the 'Kiss of the Demon God,' and from the conversation that day between the ancient phoenix and Qin Wentian, she could infer that this matter might have a connection to the clan of Qin Wentian's mother.

Could it be that Luoshen Lei… When she thought of this, her heart trembled slightly.

Finally, two figures walked over. This was none other than Qin Wentian and Luoshen Lei. Qin Wentian was smiling and Luoshen Lei appeared to be extremely relaxed. After guessing at Qin Wentian's identity, her feelings were very complicated until that talk with her father. She finally faced squarely with regards to the relationship between her and Qin Wentian. And after meeting with him, she truly began to accept that she had an elder brother. After all, blood was thicker than water. They were related by blood.

Her father and Qin Wentian's mother were sibilings. She and Qin Wentian also shared the same grandfather. In addition, she knew how much her father doted on his younger sister and all the things he did for her.

All of these, she didn't mention them to Qin Wentian. She believed that Qin Wentian naturally would understand after her father came here.

After they walked out, the two of them stayed very close to each other. This caused the expressions of many people to feel strange. After a chat, their relationship became this good? Even if they were very good friends, they shouldn't be acting like this and would try to avoid gossip, right? But now, this situation didn't seem intentional at all. It was like they unconsciously maintained this close distance.

Ten Miles Springwind's expression was extremely strange. This brother whom he just got acquainted with, settled a beauty from the Luoshen Clan so quickly? Does things need to be so exaggerated? Although Qin Wentian was very outstanding, but this beautiful young woman was from the Luoshen Clan! She should have seen all sorts of geniuses before.

However, both Qin Wentian and Luoshen Lei didn't care about what others were thinking. At this moment, Qin Wentian was still filled with joy at having a younger sister. Naturally, his heart was also filled with anticipation about the meeting with his uncle.

"I'll return first." Luoshen Lei spoke softly to Qin Wentian.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded.

"If you want to meet with me, directly come and look for me." Luoshen Lei spoke again. The expressions on the faces of everyone turned even stranger after they heard that. For those who didn't know of their relationship, such words sounded like those spoken between lovers.

Ten Miles Springwind already had a face filled with worship as he stared at Qin Wentian. A goddess-like character actually said that to Qin Wentian. 'If you want to meet with me, directly come and look for me.' This...

"Alright, take care of yourself." Qin Wentian instructed. Luoshen Lei nodded. Her silhouette flashed as she directly flew through the air. The people from the Luoshen Clan naturally followed after her. The old man who was her protector felt extremely puzzled. This young man was now already so close with the young miss?

Should he inform his master?

Although this didn't seem fair, but in order to prevent his young miss from being cheated, this was a must do. The old man was still someone very loyal. He reported this matter straight to Luoshen Lei's father yet Luoshen Lei's father merely laughed loudly, causing this old man to feel even more bewildered. However, since his master and young miss seemed to be fine with this, he also didn't bother to probe further. Clearly, there should be some reasons unknown to him.

After Luoshen Lei left, Cao Tian, Donghuang Ying and the others were still around. They had strange looks on their faces as they stared at Qin Wentian. Cao Tian walked over and patted Qin Wentian on his shoulder while speaking in a low voice, "Brother, you are awesome. Your elder brother has no choice but to be impressed. With this connection to the Luoshen Clan, the Dragon Pool Manor would most probably not dare to find trouble for you. There's no need for me to do anything else I guess. In the future, you have to settle things properly in your harem."

After speaking, he laughed loudly and left in a carefree manner. Qin Wentian's face was filled with black lines and was completely speechless. There was no way to explain this matter. He naturally wouldn't announce to the public that Luoshen Lei was his younger sister. This was a secret between them.

"Brother Qin, I shall bid my farewell too." Donghuang Ying had a smile that was not a smile on her face as she stared at Qin Wentian. Her address of Qin Wentian also became more intimate. Clearly, she truly had the intention to make friends with him. Although Qin Wentian was just a world overlord with good talent, he was also the brother of Cao Tian from the Scarlet Sun Immortal Realms and Ten Miles Springwind, Old Ghost and the others. Right now, he even had such a good relationship with the Luoshen Clan. The future of this Qingcheng Realmlord was immeasurable, he's worthy enough to be her acquaintance.

After everyone left, the Evergreen Immortal Emperor, Southern Phoenix Matriarch and the others naturally wouldn't probe Qin Wentian's secrets. But Little Rascal's eyes were flashing with a sneaky light as he kept looking at Qin Wentian.

"Wentian gege, who is she?" Bai Qing innocently asked. Most probably, only she would be the one to ask so directly.

"She's the same as you." Qin Wentian placed his hand on Bai Qing's head. Bai Qing stared at him, no matter what she was already an empyrean now but this elder brother of hers always liked to tousle her hair… But no matter, her heart felt a sweetness. That young woman was the same as her? Did Wentian gege also treat that beautiful young woman as a sister?

"Qingcheng, Qing'er, I have something I need to talk to you two about." Qin Wentian called out to Mo Qingcheng and Qing'er. Although the two of them felt curious in their hearts, they didn't say anything. They truly trusted Qin Wentian, but it was impossible for Qin Wentian not to tell them of this. He had no secrets he needed to keep from them.

"Mhm." Qing'er nodded lightly. She and Mo Qingcheng went to the place Qin Wentian brought Luoshen Lei earlier. Qin Wentian sealed the space again and directly pulled them both into his embrace. He then continued in a soft voice, "Qingcheng, Qing'er. I've found the clansmen of my mother. Finally, I'm getting closer to the truth."

Mo Qingcheng's body trembled slightly. Was her speculations real? Qing`er inclined her head and stared at Qin Wentian. The two of them could see the joy in his smile. Maybe, he had always been pursuing the truth. Both of them knew that Qin Wentian was an orphan. Qin Chuan was only his foster father and no one has told him anything about his mother before. He buried all of these deep in his heart and today, he finally found it.

"Is it the Luoshen Clan? Mother-in-law is also someone from there?" Qingcheng asked in a light voice.

"Mhm. That girl earlier is named Luoshen Lei, she is my younger sister, the daughter of my uncle." The joyful smile on Qin Wentian's face grew even more radiant. Upon sensing his joy, Mo Qingcheng and Qing`er also felt happy for him.

"Where is mother-in-law? Is she still in the clan?" Qing`er softly asked.

"No." Qin Wentian frowned, "Back then, she disappeared together with my father. There seems to be no one who knows where they are. Lei`er said that uncle is coming here to look for me. I wonder if he knows anything about my mother's location."

"Wentian, we will definitely be able to meet father-in-law and mother-in-law again." Mo Qingcheng leaned against him. She knew the worries in Qin Wentian's heart. He had always yearned to meet his parents because he was afraid that his parents were no longer in this world.

"I also wish to meet them." Qing`er also leaned against him, feeling happy for Qin Wentian. She quietly accompanied him in enjoying this happiness.

Right now, Qin Wentian's uncle was already coming over here to find him. In the near future, they would get closer and closer to the truth. No matter what the future entailed, they would always accompany him down the road he has chosen. Regardless of whether it was happiness or sorrow!

"I really hope my parents would be able to see all of you. Our family would be united then, at that time, we will birth a bunch of sons and daughters and enjoy the bliss of a united family." Qin Wentian smiled radiantly. The two maidens blushed but still nestled themselves closely against him!

Chapter 1784: Sword Monarch

Qin Wentian initially came here for the purpose of attending the convention, he had never once imagined that he would meet his mother's clansmen. This can be considered a coincidence. If it wasn't Ten Miles Spring Wind suggesting to rob the Heaven Immortal Tower, most probably even if he encountered Luoshen Lei now, he wouldn't know there was such a connection between them and would treat her like a stranger.

And as of now, the importance of this matter in Qin Wentian's heart, has already exceeded the Convention of the Myriad Realms.

However to many world overlords in the Mystic Region, the convention was the purpose for their journey here. Their gazes shone brightly and they were ready for it.

After that day since Qin Wentian displayed thirteen heavenheart mandates, a period of time has already passed. Although there were still people heading to the Heavenheart Mirror to display their brilliance, none was able to cause the level of commotion Qin Wentian caused that day. This lasted all the way until the Heavenheart Mirror disappeared, causing the mountain it was on to turn back into an ordinary one.

And during the second day after the Heavenheart Mirror vanished, on the top of the ancient mountain, inside the Time Realm, it suddenly began to glow with resplendent light. This light seemed to have originated from the heavens and shot out in four directions, illuminating all corners of the Time Realm. It was a large monument with four-sides to it, slowly revolving in the air. Some experts wanted to grab hold of it only to discover that there was no substance to it. It was truly like light, it was impossible for them to touch it.

"What is that?" At this moment, in the residential palace Qin Wentian was in, Mo Qingcheng stood beside him and asked in a soft voice. Those four beams of light were too resplendent. There seemed to be a wondrous diagram in them, radiating might from the great dao. Qin Wentian similarly wasn't able to see through it. He stared at the four beams of light and replied, "There would always be wondrous objects appearing during every convention to test the world overlords here to attend it. There should be some secrets hidden in this four-sided stone monument but I have no way to see through it for now."

"All of these, are they really controlled by the three hegemonic powers behind?" Mo Qingcheng asked. It was rumored that the Time Realm was the place the Time King cultivated in back then in the past. Maybe, there might be some inheritances left behind by him. Naturally, this was only a conjecture.

"Who knows. But the three hegemonic powers are considered the supreme overlords of the Mystic Regions. They should be the clearest about this." Qin Wentian replied.

In another residential palace, Old Ghost's eyes narrowed into slits as he stared at the four-sided stone monument that was radiating light. His expression was extremely heavy, this seemed to be the Time Monument Inscription in the legends. Even in the Convention of the Myriad Realms, it was extremely rare for it to appear. He had participated in many conventions before but this was only the second time he saw this.

And the previous time it appeared, a character that even the three hegemonic powers were terrified of, rose up. And now, that fearsome character was already a legend of the Mystic Region but as for him, Old Ghost, he was still a relatively unknown individual.

Old Ghost took out his messaging crystal and sent out a message to a few other immortal senses, "Quickly come over to my place and follow me somewhere."

"Old Ghost, what's the matter?" Ten Miles Springwind asked.

"Right." Cao Tian nodded.

Phoenix and Qin Wentian also replied respectively as they headed towards Old Ghost's palace. Old Ghost was the most mysterious individual among the five of them. His age was the greatest and Qin Wentian always felt that Old Ghost was cloaked in a haze of mystery. Back then when Old Ghost, who was wearing simple clothing, was heading to the Time City, Jun Mengchen even thought that this person was just an ordinary old man. If it wasn't for the fact that Qin Wentian was at the world overlord realm, he also wouldn't have sensed it and would have thought the same as Jun Mengchen.

Not long after, all of them gathered at Old Ghost's place.

"Old Ghost, why did you suddenly gather us? Is it because of the four beams of light that shot out of that monument?" Phoenix asked directly.

"Mhm. Other than Wentian, this shouldn't be the first time that you guys have participated in the convention, right? Have you seen this before?" Old Ghost asked.

"Never." The three others shook their heads. Cao Tian then spoke, "You should have attended the convention the most. Could it be that you know something? Is there something special about the four beams of light?"

"A very long time ago, I've seen it once before. And in the convention of that year, there's still one more person who attended. You guys would surely know of him." Old Ghost mysteriously spoke.

"Who?" Ten Miles Springwind curiously asked. The others also stared at Old Ghost. This old fellow was purposely building up the suspense.

"Jian Junlai" Old Ghost heavily spoke.

"Who?" Ten Miles Springwind had a look of bewilderment on his face, he hasn't heard of this name before.

"I don't know him." Cao Tian also shook his head. There was also a look of puzzlement on Phoenix's face.

Qin Wentian had a face filled with black lines. Didn't Old Ghost say that everyone would know of this person? Why is it that none of them knew about this Jian Junlai? This Old Ghost...

Old Ghost who wanted to build up their suspense, also had a face filled with black lines now. He speechlessly stared at them, "I've forgotten your ages. It's impossible for you all to know his realm name. He has another title though, he is known as the Sword Monarch."

"What?" Ten Miles Springwind instantly turned to stone. His eyes shone with a bright light. He has never heard of the name 'Jian Junlai', but who would not know who the Sword Monarch is? This person was an absolute legend, an extremely powerful character.

"Sword Monarch of the Mystic Region, the number one sword under the heavens." Cao Tian's eyes narrowed. He stared at Old Ghost, "Old Ghost, how old are you exactly? To think that you attended the same convention as the Sword Monarch before."

Ten Miles Springwind and Phoenix both had strange looks on their faces when they heard this. All of them had mock looks of disdain in their eyes when they looked at Old Ghost.

"He, the Sword Monarch, is already so famous that his name shakes the heaven and is known as the number one sword in the Mystic Region. Old man, you are still here attending the Convention of Myriad Realms? Isn't the disparity a little too great?" Phoenix spoke contemptuously. Old Ghost's expression instantly turned dark. "Fine, you guys can leave then. I don't want to speak any longer."

"Don't. Old Ghost, did the Sword Monarch really attend the same convention as you before?" Ten Miles Springwind weakly smiled, as he asked in curiosity. The Sword Monarch was his idol.

"Hmph, do you guys think it's very long ago? How many years have the Sword Monarch been famous for? It's not even 100,000 years yet. Is it considered long to spend 100,000 years cultivating in the World Overlord Realm? Of course not." Old Ghost stared at them and grumbled. "If everyone has Sword Monarch's talent, right now my fame would have also rocked the world. Do I still need to be friends with you guys?"

"Yes, yes. You are right." Ten Miles Springwind laughed. "In that case, when you attended the same convention with the Sword Monarch back then, the same scene appeared?"

"Mhm." Old Ghost's expression turned heavy. He nodded his head, "Back then when Sword Monarch had attended the convention, he wasn't famous then but his performance was extremely dazzling. He was noticed by everyone and he even had a conflict with a genius from the superstrong Heaven Hiding Mansion. You guys should already know what happened next. Jian Junlai went there alone with a sword in his hands and razed the entire Heaven Hiding Mansion to flat ground. This caused a tsunami-level of commotion back then and the three hegemonic powers also noticed him because the Heaven Hiding Mansion was a vassal force to one of the three hegemonic powers. You guys should know which power I'm speaking about and must also have heard of what happened next."

"In that case, is the rumor true that Jian Junlai really did defeat that heavenly deity that was sent out by the Heavenly Deity Mountain?" Ten Miles Springwind asked.

"The truth is far more ridiculous than the rumors. If not, why did you think that that particular hegemonic power decided to compromise and not pursue Jian Junlai any longer? From then on, the title Sword Monarch rang out famously in the Mystic Region but it was said that the Sword Monarch also made a compromise. From then on, he seemed to have disappeared. Only very few people were able to see him." Old Ghost slowly spoke.

"There are even rumors saying that he might have already been killed. I wonder if that is true." Cao Tian spoke.

"Naturally not." Old Ghost directly rejected this. Cao Tian stared at him puzzled. "How can you be so sure? Can it be that you know something?"

"How can it be possible for the Sword Monarch to be killed?" Old Ghost didn't reply directly. He continued, "Enough, let's temporarily not mention about the matter those years ago. The more important thing now is this, the stone monument generating the four beams of light were known as the Time Monument Inscription. I dared to confirm that this has nothing to do with the hegemonic powers, it's something the Time Realmlord left behind.

"Time Realmlord." The eyes of everyone gleamed sharply. "What is the Time Monument Inscription exactly?

"I don't know. I only know that in the convention that year, Jian Junlai managed to comprehend the true meaning of the Time Monument Inscription. From then on, his sword skills improved at a tremendous pace until he was known as the Sword Monarch, the number one sword under the heavens in the Mystic Region. But as to what he had comprehended, I'm not very sure. Maybe, the comprehension everyone gains from the Time Monument Inscription is different from the others." Old Ghost slowly spoke.

"Seems like a new Sword Monarch is about to be born." Ten Miles Springwind mumbled in a serious tone.

"Who?" Cao Tian stared at him and asked.

"That person is just right before you. Can't you see him?" Ten Miles Springwind spoke with mock bewilderment.

"Scram." Cao Tian roared, this Ten Miles Springwind was truly shameless, referring to himself.

"Let's go the the location below the monument. Although we can see it here, I still feel some distance when looking at it from so far away." Old Ghost spoke. After that, five silhouettes flashed as they headed towards the ancient mountain where the Heavenheart Mirror effect used to be at.

When they arrived, many world overlords have already gathered here. This included the world overlords of the various peak powers.

For the things Old Ghost knew about, ordinary world overlords might not know. But these were all the major powers at the peak of the Mystic Region, they naturally would also know about it. Hence, they treated the appearance of the Time Monument Inscription with extreme importance. Even world overlords from the older generations have arrived too. They were seated cross-legged in different locations on the ancient mountain, all staring up at the revolving four-sided stone monument in the air.

Qin Wentian's group sat together. He was also staring up at the stone monument. Sword Monarch, Jian Junlai, although he hasn't heard this name before, but since he could be known as the number one sword under the heavens, one could very well imagine how powerful he is. Maybe all his accomplishments couldn't be credited to this Time Monument Inscription alone but this was still worth it to try and probe the mysteries within.

Chapter 1785: Ultimate Dao

There were many experts, all of them quietly sat at their chosen locations. Even for those world overlords of the older generations, they were seriously staring at the four-sided stone monument in the air. They did know of Jian Junlai's story as well as some rumors of the Time King. The Time King was an expert of the first generation in the Mystic Region and was a character that could shock the heavens and earth, ghosts and gods.

Back then, the Time King who was the ruler of the Mystic Region, caused the other rulers of the regions to feel fear.

If this Time Monument Inscription truly has something to do with the Time King, and Jian Junlai truly did dominated the world after he comprehended something from the Time Monument Inscription, one could very well imagine how great this good fortune is.

Qin Wentian silently contemplated. He could sense that the great dao was hidden within the Time Monument Inscription. There seemed to be a mysterious energy that was as tough to see through as heavenly fate. It felt extremely blurry and the inscriptions on all four-sides were the same. Naturally, Qin Wentian understood that if it was so easy to comprehend this, Old Ghost's expressions wouldn't be that heavy and even intentionally introduced to them the legend of the Sword Monarch.

More and more people gathered here. The experts on the ancient mountain were as common as clouds but the atmosphere was incredibly silent. Everyone was silently comprehending.

Luoshen Lei also came. After she saw Qin Wentian, she walked to a location not far from him and sat down as she also started to ponder over the Time Monument Inscription.

The convention was after all a peak-level grand occasion of the Mystic Region and it was extremely famous through the Supreme Ancient Immortal Realms. She crossed realms to come here and naturally wouldn't miss out on such an opportunity to try and gain some insights in this convention.

Time, slowly flowed by.

Qin Wentian was trying to contemplate them but the meaning within was still extremely blurry to him. However, it felt gradually clearer compared to the start. He could already faintly sense the energy within the Stone Monument Inscription and it felt extremely profound. In fact, he even felt that his will has entered the Time Monument Inscription and was contemplating it from within. It felt like he was now in an illusory world formed from the Great Dao. Boundless runic lights weaved together, giving off an extremely arcane feeling.

"What dao is this?" In the middle of the air of that illusory space, Qin Wentian's will roamed about. He had no way to comprehend what type of energy this was exactly. Although he had tempered himself in the World of Ten Thousand Laws before, he had never sensed something like this energy.

Could this be the illusory and ethereal energy of time?

If this energy truly belonged to the Dao of Time, how would one be able to control it?

Despite pondering over the inscription for a long time, Qin Wentian still didn't have any true gains. He could only retract his will. When he opened his eyes, he stared at the surroundings. Right now, quite a few years have already passed. Everyone was still exceptionally quiet as though they just arrived here. A few years of time was truly too short to world overlords. It would passed by in the blink of an eye.

Naturally, there were also some ordinary world overlords who had no gain at all. Hence, they completely had no mood to comprehend things and was sighing in their hearts.

Qin Wentian stared at the second-side of the stone monument. He discovered that he wasn't able to send his will into this at all. There seemed to be a formless gate that obstructed everything. He could only give up and change to another stone side.

This time, things were different from before. As he cultivated, his will managed to slowly seep into it. There seemed to be a space of void and chaos that felt extremely mysterious. However, the feeling it gave Qin Wentian was different compared to the first two sides of the stone monument. Hence, he tried to unleash his own powers in this space only to discover that there was no reaction. He still couldn't find the key.

He once again retracted his will and tried to comprehend the last side. His will entered but soon after, he discovered the space within was extremely quiet, like there was nothing there. He still couldn't gain anything.

On the ancient mountain, Qin Wentian opened his eyes, He was sighing in his heart while staring at the four-sided Time Monument Inscription that was revolving around in the air.

"Brother Qin, can you comprehend anything?" Ten Miles Springwind stared at him and asked.

"Too mysterious and profound. There seems to be a wondrous energy within but I cannot grasp it." Qin Wentian shook his head and sighed.

"Haha, how can it be so easy to comprehend. If it is so easy, everyone would become a Sword Monarch." Ten Miles Springwind laughed. "Don't rush it. Although I also didn't gain any insights yet, I understand that to become a character like the Sword Monarch, I naturally have to endure loneliness. I will continue to try and gain insights."

Qin Wentian had a face filled with black lines but he was already very used to Ten Miles Springwind's shamelessness.

"How do you all feel?" In a certain location on the ancient mountain, the people from a major power were conversing.

"Unfathomable." A person replied in a low voice.

"When my will entered the Time Monument, I can't sense the existence of any energy. Could it be the power of time?" Someone mused.

"It's very possible. Time is something formless and ethereal. In the Time Realm, the flow of time is different but who is actually able to truly sense it?"

"That's true. Time is a very ethereal concept, existing in formlessness. It's one of the most mysterious daos."

"Time, formless…" Qin Wentian mumbled. A formless dao was naturally tough to comprehend. Hence, although he felt it was extremely wondrous, but which aspect of it was wondrous exactly? It was very tough to describe it perfectly.

"Elder brother, did you gain any insights?" A voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. This voice belonged to Luoshen Lei. Only she would address Qin Wentian like this. Bai Qing has always addressed him as "Wentian gege'.

"My will has entered three sides of the stone monument. Within two sides, I can sense a wondrous energy flowing there. For the third one, things were extremely quiet, as though there was nothing there at all. And there's also one which I couldn't see through. My will cannot enter at all." Qin Wentian replied.

"So awesome, my will can only enter two of the sides." Luoshen Lei smiled and transmitted. "Elder brother, the first generation overlord of the Mystic Region was known as the Time Godking. The Time Realm was also something established by the Time Godking who was also known as the Time King. If this four-sided stone monument really has something to do with him, you can try considering things from the perspective of time. I once read through the ancient records of my clan. The Time King has invincible might but the most basic power of the dao of time is to affect the flow rate of time. For this, world overlords can also achieve this effect. You can consider things from this direction."

Qin Wentian contemplated and nodded his head. Luoshen Lei's words sounded logical. She who is from the Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region, her horizons were definitely broader compared to ordinary world overlords. Her words seemed to be pointing at the essence of this matter.

"I'll try to analyse the three sides of the stone monument more thoroughly again." Qin Wentian spoke.

"Mhm." Luoshen Lei replied. In fact, she still has some words she hasn't said. She also knew what the embryonic form of the dao of time should be like but she didn't tell Qin Wentian. Because, only when he comprehended it on his own would his insights belong to him. He would then have a better chance of obtaining good fortune from this.

Qin Wentian's will entered the stone monument again. This time around, he was prepared to temporarily give up on the stone side which his will had no way to enter, and he would tackle that last. He wanted to try gaining insights from the other three sides first.

He tried again and again, sending his will into the different sides and at the end, he depended on undying energy and his soul force to enter all three sides of the stone monument simultaneously. For a period of time, that mysterious and wondrous feeling faintly became slightly clearer. He could sense traces of something in there, it wasn't completely formless or ethereal.

Qin Wentian tried to attack using his will inside the stone monument. Inside the space of the three sides, the sword light he unleashed was completely at the same level of power and speed, no differences can be felt.

"Time, is relative." Qin Wentian mumbled. Even if the flow of time changed, for example in the Time Realm, the attack he unleashed here and outside would have no difference to it. Because in this entire space, the rate of flow of time is the same.

"In that case, if I want it to be different, I would have to affect different flows of time." A thought appeared in Qin Wentian's mind. He closed his eyes and stood up. With a wave of his hand, he directly slashed out a sword attack. Many people glanced at Qin Wentian. This sword attack was extremely ordinary with nothing special. This caused many to be bewildered. Wasn't this attack too common? Why is there a need to display it?

But in truth, Qin Wentian was now verifying his conjectures. When he unleashed the sword attack, the same scene mirrored itself in the three sides of the stone monument. A strange sight appeared. Inside the space of the first stone side, the sword attack speed became faster. For the second space, the sword attack speed became slower. And as for the third space, the sword attack actually came to a complete halt.

"As expected." Qin Wentian's heart trembled. The flow of time is different, but because time is relative, those who had no reference wouldn't be able to sense this.

The space in the first stone side increased the flow of time, the second space reduced the flow of time and as for the third space, it halted time. No wonder the third space feels so quiet like there was nothing there.

"In that case, could it be that the dao of time has three states? Increase flow, reduce flow and stop flow?" Qin Wentian mused. Was this the true essence the Time Monument Inscription wanted to impart?

If that was the case, what about the fourth remaining stone side?

Although he comprehended an insight that the flow of time was different in the first three spaces, he didn't have a time-attributed astral soul. It was impossible for him to truly comprehend the power of time. With the lack of a proper attribute, it was impossible for him to truly change time.

His will then drifted towards the fourth stone side. At this moment, the fourth side actually didn't obstruct his will from entering. The light radiating from the Time Monument seemed to cascade down on Qin Wentian and at this moment, Qin Wentian felt an incomparably frightening power. This power caused him to feel fear. It was like he was shuttling through the river of time.

At this instant, time seemed to change completely, he felt a sense of disappearance, like everything around him was vanishing. This space contained countless majestic ancient palaces, like a flourishing period of prosperity in the mortal world.

"Where is this?" Qin Wentian stared at all these unfamiliar things as his heart pounded rapidly. This power was too heaven-defying, so heaven-defying that he had no way to imagine it. It felt like this power shouldn't exist in this world.

"This is the past." An ethereal voice drifted over. Qin Wentian's heart trembled even more violently.

This is, the past.

"Do you understand what 'the past' means?" The voice rang out again.

"The ultimate dao of the dao of time, can surpass the river of time, reverse its flow and return to the past?" Qin Wentian mumbled. What was the past? Only 'surpassing' time can allow one to return there.

Chapter 1786: I Will be Waiting for you in the Future

Right now, Qin Wentian's state of heart was extremely disturbed. Although Old Ghost did tell him how extraordinary the Time Monument Inscription is, never in his wildest dreams did he imagine that this monument contained the power from the great dao and actually caused him to travel back in time, returning to the past.

In that case, it was clear that who was the one who created this monument.

An existence of the first generation at the peak of the Mystic Region, the Time King. This city was named after him and this realm, was the place he cultivated in. Even in the later generations, when characters of the three hegemonic powers organized the convention, the location was still set in the Time Realm inside Time City instead of where the three hegemonic powers were located. From this, one could very well imagine what sort of existence the Time King was.

Experts at the world overlord realm could control heavenheart mandates. In that case, what was the power that heavenly deities could control?

Surpassing time, traversing through the river of time. In the past, Qin Wentian definitely wouldn't dare to think about it. But right now, this matter did truly happen to him.

"Do you know are you now in the past?" That ethereal voice rang out from unknown locations. Qin Wentian's expression turned heavy as he speculated, "Is it because I comprehended some insights about the power in the Time Monument Inscription and triggered it which resulted in me being brought here?"

"That is only one of the reasons. But why would the Time Monument Inscription appear at this time?" That person smiled. "Surpassing time, seeing the past, prying into the future. It isn't that you have comprehended the Time Monument Inscription but rather, it has always been waiting for you."

"The Time Monument Inscription was waiting for me?"

Qin Wentian's heart stirred. Surpassing time, looking into the past and future. Isn't the power of time more terrifying compared to the power of prophecy?

In that case, the Sword Monarch who had such accomplishments. Was it already destined then at the moment when he comprehended the Time Stone Monument? Because, the overlord of time, Time King, was able to see into the future.

"Senior, with such abilities, are you not invincible under the heavens?" Qin Wentian asked in a light voice.

"Haha, you are too naive. How can the daos of the world be as simple as you imagined. When you reach my level, you would be able to understand. I might be known as the Time King, but can I really be invincible under the heavens? Wanting to reverse the flow of time for this entire world, I'm not able to do it. I'm also not able to change this world. Ultimately, my dao still has a limit. I hope that someone would be able to surpass me and truly surpass time itself."

That voice laughed. As expected, it was truly from the Time King, the first generation overlord of the Mystic Region.

"Enough, time's up. You should return." That voice drifted over. After that, a beam of light directly blasted into Qin Wentian. At this instant, Qin Wentian felt something entering his body, directly imprinted on his chest.

"BOOM!"

At this moment, Qin Wentian's body trembled violently as he returned to reality. He was still at his original location, on top of the ancient mountain and his movements were the same as well. It was like everything was just a dream, like he had experienced nothing.

"I will wait for you in the future…"

A voice seemed to pass through the river of time, directly ringing out loud in the Time Realm. This voice was extremely ethereal, like it shouldn't exist but it rang out in the ears of everyone here.

At this moment, the bodies of everyone trembled violently. Their eyes opened and stared up at the sky but there was simply nothing there nor was there any aura. Only the echoes of that ethereal voice that passed through time remained.

"Who?" A major character spoke. Great waves of shock rose in his heart. A voice like this actually appeared in the Time Realm. I will wait for you in the future…

There was no reply. It was impossible for there to be any. Qin Wentian stared into the distance as shock filled his heart.

In that instant earlier, he had actually returned to the past but nobody knew about this. It was like he was the only one that was enveloped by the laws of time from the Time Monument Inscription, allowing him to travel back in time. In that case, that Time King there, was the Time King of the past? Or was he the current Time King?

In the air, the four-sided stone monument increased the speed of its revolution. After that, it transformed into four beams of light that illuminated the entire Time Realm and vanished all of a sudden.

"Is it Senior Godking?" A major character asked but there was no response. However, it was true that everyone has heard that voice and the Time Monument Inscription vanished after that. They understood that it was very possible for the rumor to be true. The Time Monument Inscription should be a creation of the Time King. Back then, the Sword Monarch also gained an inheritance of this power left behind by the Time King and became the number one swordsman of the Mystic Region.

In that case who was it today that received the Time King's inheritance?

I will wait for you in the future. Who did the 'you,' refer to?

Numerous gazes roamed the crowd, wanting to see who it was that received the Time King's inheritance.

"Qingfeng, is it you?" In the Samsara Temple, an elder used a voice transmission to ask their supreme genius Bai Qingfeng.

"No." Bai Qingfeng replied. The elder of the Samsara Temple was slightly disappointed but that emotion was soon replaced by curiosity. Not Bai Qingfeng? Who was it then? Was it another supreme genius from a peak power?

Not only did this elder have this thought? At this moment, many people were asking the supreme geniuses of their sects and clans. However in the end, all of them discovered that the inheritor wasn't among them. Naturally, all this occurred through voice transmission, nobody knew about the situation of the others. Hence, everyone was suspecting each other.

"Who is it that has comprehended the Time Monument Inscription and obtained the inheritance of the Time King?" A major character spoke out. "Given such a bout of good fortune, I believe that the inheritor would have a chance to enter the tutelage of a heavenly deity-ranked power."

The hearts of many people trembled. That's true. For the person who gained the Time King's inheritance, it was very possible that this person would be a future Sword Monarch. It's considered normal for that inheritor to be able to join a heavenly deity-ranked power, and most people would surely be enticed by it.

However, no one admitted it. Everyone was surveying the others suspiciously.

At this moment, Qin Wentian naturally wouldn't admit that it was he who had obtained the inheritance. No matter how nicely the major characters put it, who knew what would truly happen? The importance of this matter was too great. Because he had witnessed the Time King's ability, he suspected that even heavenly deities would covet this power. So, only a fool would admit in public that he gained the Time King's inheritance.

At this moment, he sensed his chest's location, there was indeed something that appeared there. It seemed to be a rune bone with many runes of the great dao inscribed upon it, like a true dao bone. Also, it seemed to have completely integrated as one with his body. With just an intention, he was able to release the energy within. However, he didn't dare to use it at this moment. He was worried that the fluctuations of this energy would leak out and others would sense the source of this power.

"Senior." At this moment, Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to the Skybreak Heavenly Deity's consciousness in his mind.

"I'm here." Skybreak replied.

"The sentence spoken by the Time King earlier, was spoken to me." Qin Wentian stated.

"I know, I'm one with your consciousness and have experienced that scene earlier too." The voice of the Skybreak Heavenly Deity also sounded somewhat shaky. Seems like the successor of the Imperishable Heaven Lord was truly extraordinary. In the future, Qin Wentian would definitely have heaven-defying success.

Earlier, that was a god king character.

"There's an additional rune bone in my chest. What is that?" Qin Wentian asked.

"It's a dao bone. Young man, your luck is truly heaven-defying. Only a rare few people in the world have the good fortune to inherit a dao bone. Their ancestors must be god king characters before they had a possibility but as for you, a god king actually directly bestowed it to you." Skybreak Heavenly Deity spoke with many emotions in his voice.

"Oh is that so?" Qin Wentian silently mused. In that case, his luck was truly very good. This dao bone had a possibility that it's more valuable compared to a bloodline.

Back then, he also heard that the Battle Saint Bone which was the dao bone of the Battle Saint Tribe's ancestor, was seized away from then. From then on, all the later generations of tribe members suffered a lack of inheritance. In that case, it seems like the Battle Saint Tribe once had a god king character there before as well.

Also in his memories during the first time when his father died, everything of his father was plundered away, including his flesh, blood and bones.

"Haha, your luck is truly too good." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity seemed to have thought of something as he laughed again. "Before this, we were still discussing what should you select for your eighth astral soul. Although you have broken through to the world overlord level, you are also still hesitating. And now, since the dao bone has already integrated with you, do you even need to consider what you want for your eighth astral soul?"

Qin Wentian's eyes flashed before he smiled. That's right. Before this, although he has entered the world overlord realm, he did so through comprehending a world heart and heavenheart mandate. This breakthrough didn't really have that important a connection with regards to the speed of one's comprehension of one's astral soul. His will had once headed up to the nine heavenly layers but he was hesitant to select a constellation to condense an astral soul from. Because right now, he could at most only condense two more astral souls left to determine his ultimate dao path. Hence, he had to treat this matter very seriously and has not made any decision with regards to which astral souls he wanted to condense yet.

Right now, it was like what the Skybreak Heavenly Deity has said. Good fortune descended from the sky. Everything was destined.

"With this dao bone of time, maybe I don't need to depend on a time-attributed astral soul but can also control time attribute energy." Qin Wentian mused.

"It's indeed so. However, with an astral soul, your magnitude of attribute energy would grow even stronger. The dao bone of time can help you to boost your strength and allow you to comprehend the laws of time faster. The dao of time has always been one of the most difficult daos to comprehend. You shouldn't waste such an opportunity. I suggest that you condense a time-attributed astral soul." The Skybreak Heavenly Deity suggested.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian nodded. A time-attributed astral soul can complement the dao bone of time. If he comprehend a time-related heavenheart mandate and incorporated it into his world heart, what effects would there be?"

"Lei`er." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to Luoshen Lei.

"Brother, what's wrong?" Luoshen Lei replied.

"The legendary Godking of Time that was the first generation overlord of the Mystic Region. Does the Luoshen Clan's ancient records have information about him?" Qin Wentian asked.

"Mhm, there are some. It's said that the first generation overlord, Time King, was equivalent to the peak characters from the three hegemonic powers combined together. He is immensely powerful and was the same level as that existence from the Western Paradise of the Universe Region. I didn't expect that the Time King truly left his inheritance here in the Time Realm." Luoshen Lei spoke.

"What happened to the Time King later on?" Qin Wentian asked.

"I'm not very sure. There are some rumors stating that he has surpassed time and headed to the future and the past. There are also rumors saying that he was pursuing the ultimate dao of time, seeking to control the river of time." Luoshen Lei replied.

"If that voice earlier truly belonged to the Time King, I wonder who in the Mystic Region has obtained his inheritance. What sort of existence would the one he is waiting for in the future become? Would another Sword Monarch appear in the Mystic Region?" Luoshen Lei seemed to be mumbling to herself.

Qin Wentian smiled. Lei'er still had no idea that the ethereal voice was talking to him. Also, he didn't expect that Lei'er has heard of the Sword Monarch before.

Luoshen Lei didn't know, everyone else had no idea as well. Only Qin Wentian himself knew.

The eyes of those major characters flashed, staring at the crowd. Their immortal senses kept sweeping through the crowd, as though wanting to find the person who gained the inheritance. The Time King was waiting for him in the future. This meant that this person would definitely become a major character of the Mystic Region in the future. However, they didn't even know who it was or which major power this inheritor was from.

"How unfortunate. I almost comprehended it but that person managed to do so one step before me. I wonder which bastard it is." Ten Miles Springwind cursed. Qin Wentian had a face filled with black lines. Old Ghost was sighing. Did he miss another opportunity yet again?

Cao Tian and Phoenix were also scanning the crowd. Everyone was speculating who the Time King was speaking to!

Chapter 1787: A Fake

Just when everyone was speculating, among the numerous world overlords on the ancient mountain, a young world overlord in long robes cast his glance at Ten Miles Springwind as he coldly spoke, "Who did you say is a bastard?"

"Huh?"

As the sound of this voice rang out, the attention of everyone instantly turned over. Earlier, Ten Miles Springwind said that he didn't know which bastard has comprehended the Time Monument Inscription a step before him. And now, this young man actually stood out to say something. What did this mean? Could it be…?

Ten Miles Springwind was staring at this person too. A strange look appeared on his face. Could it be that his cursing has drawn the inheritor out?

"You are?" Someone asked. This young world overlord before them didn't seem too familiar.

"I come from the Sunmoon Sacred Mountain." The young man calmly spoke. Everyone could see pictures of the sun and moon embroidered on his robes and many had speculated about his identity before this. At this moment, seeing that the young man had spoken personally, their eyes all gleamed with sharpness.

They should have long thought that it would be him. How could they forget to consider a world overlord that came from the Sunmoon Sacred Mountain?

"Who is Old Man Tianshi to you?" A major character asked. After that, many people felt their hearts trembling. Old Man Tianshi was the master of the Sunmoon Sacred Mountain. He was an extremely ancient existence and was even more famous than the Sword Monarch before the Sword Monarch rose up. Also, the power he was most proficient in, has something to do with time.

The power of time from a certain perspective, cannot be considered a type of power. Because, just the power of time alone, it wouldn't have any substantial attacks but its effects were extremely mysterious and terrifying. This was especially so when this time effect fused together with the heavenheart mandates you comprehended.

"My master." The young man calmly spoke. "My name is Yue Changkong. For the convention this time around, I represent the Sunmoon Sacred Mountain."

"You are his successor?" Someone asked.

"Naturally." Yue Changkong nodded.

"Did you comprehend the Time Monument Inscription?" An expert from another peak power asked. At this moment, this young man who first appeared in the convention had the eyes of everyone on him. Countless world overlords were staring at him.

The Time King said that he would wait for someone in the future. Was he talking to this young man?"

"For the four-sided stone monument, the first three-sides affects the rate of time flow. They are respectively increasing the flow, reducing the flow and halting the flow. As for the final side, it contained an extremely powerful time might and can traverse to the past or to the future. Earlier, Senior Time King's voice came from the future." Yue Changkong spoke frankly with assurance. The sunmoon robes he was wearing fluttered with the wind as he exuded boundless magnificence, like a resplendent star in the sky. The attention of everyone was focused on him, in the future, he was bound to be extraordinary.

One couldn't help but to say that his analysis was extremely close to the truth. He who originally possessed time-attributed powers wouldn't find it too difficult to sense the change in the flow of time inside the first three sides of the monument. As for the fourth side, it was purely his conjecture. He made this guess after hearing what the Time King has said but everyone couldn't help but believe in him because his analysis sounded extremely logical, forming a match with the Time King's words.

In addition, only a single person stood out to say something. In that case, other than him, who else could it be?

A strange expression appeared on Qin Wentian's face as he stared at this world overlord named Yue Changkong. Even when he was lying, he still did so in such a graceful manner. Because no one stood out to admit, hence he decided to appear as the fake inheritor.

"What sort of power is the Sunmoon Sacred Mountain?" Qin Wentian transmitted his voice to ask Ten Miles Springwind.

"The Sunmoon Mountain is a major power in the Mystic Region. Although it isn't as large as the Samsara Temple and Clear Sky God Mountain, nobody would dare to antagonize. The reason is because Old Man Tianshi of the Sunmoon Sacred Mountain is immensely powerful. And now that the inheritance of the Time King has been obtained by someone from that sect, it's undoubtedly akin to a tiger growing wings. What a pity." Ten Miles Springwind spoke in a somewhat depressed manner.

"He originally already has an impressive background and most probably, he chose to falsely claim that he gained the favor of the Time King because he wanted to rise up in the Mystic Region, gaining the favor of the various major powers. However, there is a risk to this too." Qin Wentian stared at Yue Changkong. This man truly was extremely audacious and was exceedingly scheming.

Naturally, Qin Wentian wouldn't stand out to expose him. He was different from Yue Changkong. He had a sensitive origin and in addition, he didn't have a major power in the Mystic Region acting as his backer. If he admitted that he was the inheritor, he would be placing himself in an extremely risky environment. As to what his situation would be like, that would have to depend on the mood of those characters at the peak. They might favor him but they might also plot against him. He didn't dare to forget what happened to the ancestor of the Battle Saint Tribe back then. Right now, he has a heavenly deity dao bone and that can be considered a supreme treasure. If others coveted it, wouldn't they directly dig it out from him? But since this faker Yue Changkong didn't have anything, he thus doesn't need to have this worry. He could invent other lies such as he had gained more comprehension into the laws of time.

Hence, their situations were completely different. Since there's someone like Yue Changkong willing to fake this for him, Qin Wentian was naturally willing to stand at the side to watch. In the future, nobody would notice him and when he really displayed the power of time, he can explain it by saying that he has a time-attributed astral soul. There shouldn't be anything strange.

As for Yue Changkong, for a period of time, he became the focal point of the entire convention. Characters from the major powers all went over to speak to him. Some congratulated him, some admired him, some wanted to recruit him. At this moment, a major character from a peak power laughed, "I once met Old Man Tianshi before. Now that I've encountered noble nephew here and witnessing your accomplishment, I'm sure your master would be happy for you too. After the convention ends, you will surely have an opportunity to reach an even higher peak."

"Many thanks for senior's kind words." Yue Changkong spoke in a tone neither servile nor overbearing, and had an air of carefreeness as he smiled and thanked them all.

"You can directly address me as uncle, there's no need to regard me as an outsider." That major character laughed.

"In that case, your nephew shall comply instead of going against your orders." Yue Changkong instantly changed his way of speaking. He knew that right now, he should maintain a good relationship with the various major powers. Doing so would only be of benefit to him in case there are some people really plotting against him.

"Who would have thought that we are lucky enough to hear the Time King's voice and it even came from the future. World Overlord Changkong's comprehension abilities are extraordinary and in the future, you would surely become a character like Sword Monarch." Donghuang Ying walked over and smiled. Her charisma was extraordinary. Not only was her talent outstanding, she was also skilled in winning people's hearts. The elders around her all trusted her to do her responsibilities well.

"Little princess praises me too much. Given your young age and you are already an empyrean, you would definitely step into the world overlord realm sooner or later. Not only that, you have beauty that would cause flowers to shy away. I wonder who would be the lucky one in the future that would win little princess's heart. How envious I am of him." Yue Changkong laughed, praising Donghuang Ying's beauty, and seemingly hinting at something. This caused the genius young man beside Donghuang Ying to stare at Yue Changkong with wariness.

A look of shyness appeared on Donghuang Ying's face as she blushed, causing her beauty to be even more apparent, stirring the hearts of others, mesmerizing those who looked at her.

"This woman is really an expert. She is acting the same way back then when she tried to recruit you. Now that she's trying to recruit Yue Changkong, she exudes the potential of her beauty to the max. Given her character, how would she blush so easily?" Ten Miles Springwind transmitted his voice to Qin Wentian.

"Mhm. Donghuang Ying does have some methods. In addition to her natural beauty, it's easy to cause people to feel good will towards her." Qin Wentian replied.

"This Yue Changkong is extremely scheming. His words clearly hinted at a hidden meaning. Given his talent and his identity as Old Man Tianshi's successor, plus him having the inheritance of the Time King, if he really became the son-in-law of the Donghuang Clan, who else would dare to touch him? The various experts of the Mystic Region would only watch as he slowly grows stronger." Ten Miles Springwind spoke. Qin Wentian naturally understood this. He already knew Yue Changkong was scheming when he faked being the inheritor of the Time King.

Qin Wentian was thinking that if Yue Changkong really had the intention to become the son-in-law of the Donghuang Clan, should he warn Donghuang Ying?

"The Time Monument Inscription has already vanished. The next bout of good fortune probably won't appear so quickly. I'll return and cultivate first." Qin Wentian glanced at the lively crowd as he spoke. Ten Miles Springwind and the others nodded their heads. They didn't wish to be a part of this liveliness.

"Lei`er, I will return first." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice. Luoshen Lei replied, "I'll head back as well."

After that, Qin Wentian quietly left. With how lively the ancient mountain was after Yue Changkong revealed himself, there was basically no one who noticed his departure.

After returning, Qin Wentian quietly cultivated as he tried to comprehend the power of the dao bone. In his residential palace, he sealed the space he was in and sat down with his eyes closed. In his chest's location, formless time energy flowed. This entire space had a flow of time compared to the Time Realm. This dao bone contained extraordinary abilities and was extremely strong and unfathomable.

Qin Wentian was trying to gain insights while simultaneously trying to fuse the time energy into his world heart and heavenheart mandates. In the future, he definitely wanted to comprehend even stronger heavenheart mandates. After he left the Time Realm, he would then seek out a constellation and condense an astral soul from it.

The location Qin Wentian was in was very quiet. But during this period of time, Yue Changkong's name has already resounded throughout the convention. He accepted visits from everyone and became an extremely famous person while maintaining a good relationship with the various peak powers.

Ten Miles Springwind would occasionally chat with Qin Wentian via voice transmission and the content would usually be gossips. He said that Yue Changkong truly had sinister motives and had the intention to express his good will to Donghuang Ying, causing the flower protector which was the young man always beside Donghuang

Ying to be extremely unhappy. The two of them almost came to blows but was stopped by Donghuang Ying. Ten Miles Springwind guessed that Donghuang Ying might eventually forsake her flower protector and choose to be with Yue Changkong.

After all, Yue Changkong's potential was boundless and a god king was waiting in the future for him.

"Why didn't I see Brother Qin around during these few days?" And today just so nicely, Donghuang Ying suddenly transmitted a message to Qin Wentian. Since both were already friends, given Donghuang Ying's method of winning over people's hearts, she naturally would frequently maintain contact.

Qin Wentian took out his messaging crystal. He felt somewhat hesitant as he replied, "I heard that recently, little princess has been very busy. There seemed to be a genius wooing you. Little princess, has your heart been moved by the pursuer?"

"What? Don't tell me you are jealous?" Donghuang Ying giggled.

"Little princess, you have met my wives before. How would I have such thoughts?" Qin Wentian laughed. "Little princess, how do you feel about Yue Changkong's character?"

"He's a dragon among humans, exuding boundless magnificence with unparalleled talent. Right now, there's already people guessing that he would soon be able to join a heavenly deity-ranked power." Donghuang Ying had a very high evaluation of Yue Changkong.

"But when I saw him in the past, when he was speaking with little princess for the first time, his words seemed a little inappropriate, almost to the point of outraging your modesty. As for his character, it's tough to gauge." Qin Wentian reminded. He initially didn't wish to interfere in this. But since Donghuang Ying said that they were friends, he had to remind her no matter what.

Donghuang Ying had a strange expression on her face. After that she smiled, "Brother Qin, you said that you wouldn't be jealous but I suspect that you are. You must have felt that he has stolen your glory. But Brother Qin's achievement of thirteen heavenheart mandates clearly showcases your talent to the world. Although Yue Changkong is a supreme character, his presence wouldn't mask Brother Qin's talent. There's no need to compare yourself to him."

Donghuang Ying seemed as though she was consoling Qin Wentian, telling him not to compare himself with Yue Changkong. She felt that Qin Wentian was somewhat jealous of Yue Changkong.

Note: 月长空 Yue Changkong literally means Moon, Vast Sky.

Chapter 1788: The Three Hegemonic Powers of the Mystic Region

Qin Wentian was somewhat speechless. Donghuang Ying still had the intention to praise his talent but she also told him not to compare himself with Yue Changkong. Evidently, she felt that Yue Changkong was superior despite the fact that Qin Wentian displayed a total of thirteen heavenheart mandates.

But in truth, Yue Changkong was indeed a character with supreme talent. His attainment in time laws was extremely deep or no matter how audacious he was, it was impossible for him to dare to stand out as a fake. If his talent wasn't high enough, he would be easily exposed. Would the Time King choose a mediocre person as his inheritor?

During these days, Yue Changkong also did have the intention to display his talent. In the convention, under the gazes of so many world overlords, he was the most glorious one. No wonder Donghuang Ying would say such a thing.

"Little princess, I don't have any intentions to make invidious comparisons with him, I'm merely speaking of facts. It's naturally okay that you admire his talent. But if he wants to be closer with you, it's a must to check his character and personality." Qin Wentian reminded once more.

"Alright Brother Qin, I naturally know this. There might be other bouts of good fortune appearing for the duration of the convention. Brother Qin has to work harder." Donghuang Ying laughed, intentionally shifting the topic. Evidently, she didn't really place Qin Wentian's words in her heart.

Since she intentionally didn't want to talk about this, Qin Wentian naturally wouldn't continue. He could only reply, "Mhm, let's hope that there are more good fortune. Little princess, I'm going off to cultivate now, there's no need to reply."

After speaking, Qin Wentian kept his messaging crystal, bitterly smiling while shaking his head. He has already reminded her, if Donghuang Ying wanted to, she would have bear his words in mind. He had already said what he needed to say. He didn't even tell Ten Miles Springwind and the others that he obtained the dao bone. Based on relationships, they were closer to him compared to Donghuang Ying. Naturally, this matter was a secret to him but in truth, this matter wasn't that critical to them anyway. Hence, it wasn't that he intentionally kept this a secret from them.

"Maybe I'm overthinking things." Qin Wentian mumbled. Even if Donghuang Ying eventually ended up together with Yue Changkong, most probably given her status, Yue Changkong wouldn't dare to do anything to her and would treat her well. In addition, Yue Changkong's talent was also extraordinary, he can be considered a good candidate for Donghuang Ying's marriage. Why was he worrying on behalf of her?

The three hegemonic powers of the Mystic Region are known as: Ziwei Divine Court, Great Devil Divine Palace, Heavenly Deity Mountain.

The Eastern Royal Immortal Realms was a vassal force subordinated to the Ziwei Divine Court. How can Donghuang Ying's background not be strong?

It's just that if Donghuang Ying was fantasizing that Yue Changkong would be the same as the Sword Monarch back then, challenging a heavenly deity from the Heavenly Deity Mountain, this should be highly impossible. That sort of glory can be classified as truly unparalleled in the world. But how many in the world can have that?

Qin Wentian didn't think too much. He continued to be immersed in his cultivation. The disputes and excitement in the outside world had nothing to do with him.

This time, he came to participate in the convention because he wanted to broaden his horizons and take a look at the world overlords of the Mystic Region. And now, he was already extremely satisfied that he managed to meet Luoshen Lei and learned of his mother's clan, also learning the information that his father's clan was in the Heaven Region. He even saw the mysterious abilities of the Time King and went back in the past and received the heavenly deity dao bone of time. To him, this trip here was already very rewarding.

Right now, other than cultivation, he also did hope that he would be able to meet with his uncle who was currently rushing here quicker.

Naturally, the flow of time in the Time Realm was different from the external world. A few years might pass here but only a few days pass on the outside. There was truly no need for him to be anxious.

Today, the entire Time Realm suddenly trembled. Even Qin Wentian who was cultivating in his residential palace could feel the rumblings of heaven and earth. He opened his eyes which gleamed with sharpness before he walked out and stared into the distance.

He saw an incomparably majestic giant mountain descending from the sky, completely replacing the previous mountain.

This mountain was even taller and more imposing, as though it was impossible to climb up to its peak. The entire mountain shone with a pure and resplendent light, extremely dazzling.

"Heavenly Deity Mountain?" Within the time realm, many exclamations of shock rang out. This mountain resembled the Heavenly Deity Mountain. Those major characters all understood that this was a bout of good fortune sent by them. Everyone can enter the mountain to search for opportunities.

Just when the excitement of the world overlords was surging up, the entire space in the Time Realm started trembling once more as devil might radiated forth, it felt like an apocalypse was coming.

After that, a devil-path platform descended from the sky, floating in the air while radiating an unexcelled might. On this devil divine platform, a devil god throne could be seen there. On the throne, a supreme devil treasure in the form of a devil god armor could be seen and there was also a devil god spear beside the throne, exuding tyrannical might that could suppress the sky.

"The Devil Divine Battle Platform." The hearts of everyone pounded. They knew the significance of it appearing.

The experts in the Great Devil Divine Palace are all fans of combat. They have always used combat prowess to prove themselves, reveling in bloody battles. Now that a giant devil platform descended in the time realm, everyone naturally should understand that the hegemonic powers wished for everyone who came here to attend the convention to fight on top of it. The treasures we see are reserved for the victors and they are definitely extremely terrifying. Sadly, the vast majority of people can only dream about it.

For treasures given by the Great Devil Divine Palace, even major characters would feel tempted to try for it. For ordinary world overlords, or even for transcendent-level world overlords, they most probably wouldn't have any chance when they fight against supreme experts from the major powers. They might have a better opportunity if they went to search for good fortune in the Heavenly Deity Mountain.

The Heavenly Deity Mountain and Great Devil Divine Palace have both sent something out, causing the Time Realm to tremble. However, things weren't concluded yet because the third hegemonic power of the Mystic Region has yet to act. They would always act in unison during the convention. Right now, the Ziwei Divine Court still had no movements.

Just when everyone thought about this, a resplendent beam of astral light suddenly shot down from the sky, born from the Ziwei Star.

In astrology, the Ziwei Star always represented the constellation for emperors. It was incomparably majestic.

At this moment, resplendent rays of emperor light filled the air. Cascading down on the Time Realm. A stretch of starry ocean actually appeared in the central location, spreading out into four smaller constellation seas. Each constellation sea then transformed into the shape of a human, they appeared to be illusory and extremely blurry.

In the next moment, the light from the four seas swept out and enveloped the entire Time Realm, shining on every expert. Next, the four illusory figures began to project the faces of the world overlords. With every moment, the illusory figures would flash and the face projected would change.

Many people saw this bizarre scene, could it be that the appearance of every world overlord here would be projected by the Constellation Ocean?"

But this wasn't the truth. When the light swept past many people, nothing happened, their appearances weren't projected at all. Only when the light swept passed those younger world overlords would the illusory figures formed from the constellation seas project their appearances.

Qin Wentian who was in his residential palace, naturally was also included in the scan. When the light fell on his body, one of the illusory figures projected his face. After that, he could sense the ziwei's star constellation light summoning him towards the Constellation Ocean.

"What a mystical energy." Qin Wentian mused.

Heavenly Deity Mountain, Devil Divine Battle Platform, Constellation Ocean. Behind these, are the three hegemonic powers of the Mystic Region - the Heavenly Deity Mountain, the Great Devil Divine Palace and the Ziwei Divine Court.

The convention of the myriad realms was the grandest event of the Mystic Region. How could the three hegemonic powers of the Mystic Region be missing from it?

They were why the convention could attract so many world overlords. Countless world overlords from the various locations of the Mystic Region would rush here once every ten thousand years to participate in it.

"Elder brother, I see you." Luoshen Lei's voice rang out in his mind.

"I've also seen your face flashing past by earlier in the Constellation Ocean." Qin Wentian took out his messaging crystal and replied.

"Seems like for this convention, the Ziwei Divine Court wants to focus more on nurturing the world overlords from the younger generation. It's clear who their targets are, they directly exclude those from the older generations. Also, since the ocean split into four seas resulting in four figures, they might want to select four younger world overlords out from the crowd today. The chosen four might have a chance to join the Ziwei Divine Court.

Luoshen Lei continued, "Brother, if you participate, I don't think there's a problem. You should be able to join the Ziwei Divine Court."

"Joining the Ziwei Divine Court?" Qin Wentian mumbled. For some reason, he didn't have any thoughts of joining a hegemonic power in the Mystic Region. Maybe it was because he had already obtained the undying inheritance of the Imperishable Heaven Lord, or maybe it was because he had no trust towards these hegemonic powers.

He would still respect those lofty powers at the peak but respect wasn't the same as trust. To him, they were unfamiliar powers and he didn't even understand them. Since there was no understanding, how could there be trust? Let alone he still had a debt of revenge he has yet to settle. In the future, he might come to blows with the heavenly deities of the Heaven Region.

"The Great Devil Divine Palace is as domineering and direct as ever. They sent down a battle platform, allowing those who wish to fight to fight all they want. They have already prepared the rewards, and are just waiting for the victor to claim them. This is how they always do things." Luoshen Lei smiled. She then continued, "As for the Heavenly Deity Mountain, they prefer more ethereal things like getting people to hunt for their own good fortune. Their actions are somewhat vague. No wonder they are ranked last out of the three hegemonic powers in the Mystic Region. But even so, you still can go there to take a look at what is hidden on the mountain."

"Lei`er, do you think I should join a heavenly deity-ranked power?" Qin Wentian suddenly asked.

Luoshen Lei suddenly fell silent. Qin Wentian's situation was quite complicated. No one understood this more than her.

If the Luoshen Clan was of one heart and was united, things would be easy to settle. Qin Wentian can directly head to the Luoshen Clan. However, the Luoshen Clan was divided in their perspectives with regards to that matter which happened so many years ago. If Qin Wentian went to the Luoshen Clan, she didn't know if it would be good or bad.

Also, Qin Wentian's enemies were extremely strong. She was very clear that it was impossible for any of the three hegemonic powers in the Mystic Region to stand out for Qin Wentian to help him against his enemies.

Hence, Luoshen Lei didn't know how to reply to this question. After being silent for a long time, she finally replied, "Elder brother, you should decide on your own. But no matter what, I will always stand by your side."

"Mhm, good." Qin Wentian smiled and nodded his head. Although he didn't inquire about the internal situation of the Luoshen Clan, Qin Wentian could guess a little. Naturally, things would only become clearer after he met with his uncle!

But for now, for this convention, should he display his brilliance?

Chapter 1789: The Eighth Astral Soul

When Qin Wentian was still thinking whether he should display his prowess, there were already people acting.

A figure transformed into a beam of light and directly shot towards the Constellation Ocean by the Ziwei Divine Court. That figure was dressed in robes with the pattern of a sun and moon on it. The light from the constellation sea was incomparably dazzling, enveloping his body. This man was none other than the disciple of the Sunmoon Sacred Mountain's Old Man Tianshi, he was Yue Changkong.

It seemed that he couldn't wait any longer. He falsified himself as being the one that obtained the inheritance of the Time King and maintained very good relations with the various peak powers. What was his ultimate objective?

Undoubtedly, it's to join the highest-tier powers of the Mystic Region. He might even be aiming to enter the tutelage of a heavenly-deity ranked power.

The Great Devil Divine Palace wasn't suitable for him while the Heavenly Deity Mountain was considered the weakest among the three hegemonic power. The Ziwei Divine Court was undoubtedly his first choice. And now, seeing that the Ziwei Divine Court has caused the constellation ocean to manifest, shining its light on the bodies of all the young geniuses, this was simply a chance bestowed by the heavens. How could he missed out on this opportunity?

When he entered one of the constellation seas, one of the four illusory figures transformed into his appearance, and was like the lord of this particular constellation sea.

Bai Qingfeng from the Samsara Temple, Li Xiao from the Clear Skies God Mountain all flew over, each occupying a sea.

When the young man beside Donghuang Ying saw Yue Changkong acting, he felt an intent to compete in his heart. His silhouette also flashed as he occupied a constellation sea.

In an instant, all four of the constellation seas were occupied completely.

The constellation seas that were occupied were still shining their glow at many other young genius world overlords as though beckoning them to come over to challenge the occupiers for the position of four constellation lords.

"Yue Changkong seemed so imposing. Little Yu appears to be too impetuous, jealousy will truly cause him to make the wrong decisions." Over in the direction of the Royal Eastern Immortal Realms, an elder world overlord spoke. He was an elder of Donghuang Ying and naturally knew of Little Yu's heart.

The young man who was always beside Donghuang Ying was named Xiao Yu and was a disciple of a very good friend of his. This good friend of his was an immensely powerful figure that has chosen to live hidden from the world, staying inside a remote location in the Donghuang Clan's Eastern Royal Immortal Realms for his cultivation.

"The personality of Little Yu isn't bad, but he isn't able to think straight when it comes to Xiao Ying's matters. There will definitely be many challengers wanting to contend for the positions of the four constellation lords. Now that he took the initiative to occupy one of the seas, it's most probably extremely difficult for him to remain till the end. The genius world overlords from the various major powers are all eyeing those who occupies the four seas like how tigers eyed their prey."

"For the constellation ocean by the Ziwei Divine Court, let's leave that to the young people to compete. And as for the devil platform, the two supreme treasures might be extremely powerful divine weapons. Should we send someone to try and win them?"

"The difficulty is extremely high." An expert from the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms spoke as his eyes gleamed sharply. All the major characters from the peak powers here all wanted to be number one in combat prowess on the devil battle platform. From this, its difficulty could be imagined.

"It's true that there are many old monsters who haven't acted yet." The person beside him smiled. However, things would truly be very embarrassing for those defeated the moment they stepped up on the battle platform. The Great Devil Divine Palace was truly direct enough, not bothering to leave face for the various major characters. At the very least, they could make the results more secretive, right? If one lost, all the world overlords in the Time Realm would be able to see it.

"The Cao Clan will definitely try to contend for it."

The governing clan of the Scarlet Sun Immortal Realms the Cao Clan, was a vassal power subordinate to the Great Devil Divine Palace. For the Convention of the Myriad Realms, it was also considered a competition between the subordinate forces under the three hegemonic powers.

Over at the Heavenly Deity Mountain's location, many people were heading towards the ancient mountain, wanting to seek good fortune there.

Qin Wentian quietly sat here to watch everything. Ten Miles Springwind glanced over here and spoke, "Among us, most probably only Wentian can contend for the position of one of the constellation lords. The rest of us can only head to the heavenly deity mountain."

Because of their age, the constellation ocean from the Ziwei Divine Court didn't beckon to them. And as for the devil battle platform, they weren't confident that they could defeat everyone else. The only choice remaining to them was the heavenly deity mountain.

"Wentian, which of the constellation seas do you want to occupy? Why don't you compete against Yue Changkong for his?" Cao Tian smiled as he looked at Qin Wentian.

"It's fine, I have no interest to compete against anyone." Qin Wentian replied. He has already decided not to display his brilliance.

He will just simply observe the fascinating things happening in the Convention of the Myriad Realms. In any case, his initial purpose in coming here was to broaden his horizons. Even if he was just an observer, things would also be extremely exciting.

In any case, he has already gained so many things by coming here. If he chose to compete against the other geniuses, the other peak powers would definitely notice him. At that time if they invited him to join them, should he accept them or reject them? He would have no way out of the dilemma, unable to advance or retreat.

"No interest to compete?" Many people stared in astonishment at Qin Wentian. This fellow was truly relaxed. However, each to his own. They wouldn't say anything either, only feeling that it was somewhat a pity. Qin Wentian did have a chance to compete with everyone else given his strength and talent. He has never displayed his full combat prowess before, he might not lose out to these supreme geniuses from the various peak powers.

"Elder brother, seems like you have come to a decision." Luoshen Lei smiled and transmitted her voice over.

"Mhm." Qin Wentian replied. He decided to give up on this opportunity.

At this moment, another figure flashed, challenging the position of a constellation lord. This person was also a genius of a peak power. He was challenging the position Li Xiao occupied.

Li Xiao was a disciple of the Clear Sky God Mountain. Once, the Clear Sky God Mountain was a heavenly-deity ranked power but has now declined. He wanted to see how strong Li Xiao was.

The constellation ocean was extremely vast, spreading to the four directions, forming four starry constellation seas that were like separate worlds for world overlords to battle.

When that expert entered the starry space Li Xiao occupied, Li Xiao's world heart enveloped him as numerous world gates manifested. From within, powerful waves of Clear Sky Divine Might gushed forth like bolts of desolate thunder, wanting to split everything apart. That challenger's expression drastically changed when he felt the divine might but Li Xiao naturally wanted to establish his might since this was his fight. As a disciple of the Clear Sky God Mountain and the fact that he was the first to be challenged, was considered a humiliation to him.

The numerous world gates issued blasts of punishing thunder. The crackling bolts of lightning chained together, blasting downwards directly on the challenger, shattering his body and soul.

"BOOM!" Below, terrifying auras from experts of a major power radiated forth, all of them coldly staring at Li Xiao in the constellation sea. One person angrily spoke, "Li Xiao, you are actually so ruthless."

Li Xiao calmly swept his gaze below. He didn't say anything, the experts from the Clear Sky Divine Mountain replied instead, "Going up to challenge people with this bit of strength, how embarrassing is that? Is he even qualified to contend for the position of a constellation lord? Why should Li Xiao not kill him?"

"You guys are truly ruthless." The other party icily spoke. The moment a challenger stepped up, there was no mercy shown at all. Seems like everyone was truly serious about vying for these four positions.

Next, another person challenged Xiao Yu. Xiao Yu's strength was also extraordinary and he defeated the challenger.

Another challenger went up to challenge Yue Changkong. After Yue Changkong released his world heart a fearsome desolate intent radiated forth, there seemed to be moon light cascading down, directly rendering his opponent immobile, causing his opponent to stay put at his original location. After that, a beam of terrifying light flashed, so quick that immortal senses couldn't track it and directly left behind a bloody scar on his opponent's throat but Yue Changkong didn't act to kill.

"Thank you for allowing me to win." Yue Changkong spoke with grace as he clasped his hands, appearing humble and courteous.

"A true dragon has emerged from the Sunmoon Sacred Mountain. I'm completely convinced by my defeat to you." That genius clasped his hands and bowed. Yue Changkong could have killed him but he showed mercy. This naturally cause this person to feel good will towards him.

Upon seeing this scene, the experts from the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms nodded their head. A dragon among humans, this disciple of Old Man Tianshi was so low-profile before this, but now, he amazed the world with a single brilliant feat.

The battle here was extremely fascinating. However, despite such a long time, no one stepped up on the devil battle platform. Clearly, those major characters felt some trepidation in their hearts.

"Lei`er, I will return first." Qin Wentian transmitted his voice over.

"You don't want to watch anymore?" Luoshen Lei asked.

"I should be able to watch from my residential palace too." Qin Wentian smiled. After that, he silently left but his departure didn't cause people to notice him. Right now, the attention of everyone was on the constellation ocean.

After returning to the palace, Qin Wentian closed his eyes and cultivated. His perception soared upwards, directly reaching towards the nine heavenly layers.

The Time Realm was a very unique place. This place might be isolated from the outside world with different flow rates of time, it didn't isolate the Time Realm from the nine heavenly layers. Or to better put it, the nine heavenly layers were too wondrous, there should be almost nothing that could isolate a sealed space from them.

Right now seeing that the combat was so intense, there should be no one paying attention to him. He might as well take this chance to condense his eighth astral soul.

Boundless astral light cascaded down from the nine heavenly layers as Qin Wentian's perception continued to climb up. When his perception reached the peak of the 8th heavenly layer, an indescribable pressure abruptly descended like heavenly might that was inviolable.

But even so, Qin Wentian continued to persist and tried his best to climb further upwards. He already has a total of seven astral souls that hailed from the 8th heavenly layer. As for his eight astral soul, he hoped that he would be able to condense one from the 9th heavenly layer.

"BOOM!" An immensely powerful pressure crushed down on him. Qin Wentian gritted his teeth and endured it while his perception continued to climb. A burst of heavenly might descended down, directly wiping out his perception body, causing his true body that was in the Time Realm to groan in pain.

However, he didn't give up just like this and attempted this repeatedly. Finally, after many days, his perception finally arrived at the 9th heavenly layer. Over here, there were only a few constellations and they were spaced extremely far apart from each other. But each of the constellations shone extremely brilliantly.

"Time." Since Qin Wentian already had some insights into time-attribute energy, his perception was directly searching for a time-attributed astral soul while enduring the crushing pressure. His perception floated towards an ethereal constellation that took the form of a long river which spanned across nine skies.

Qin Wentian's perception directly entered the river and formed an innate connection with it. In the next instant, the light from the long river seemingly flowed downwards, passing through space, directly cascading down to the Time Realm onto Qin Wentian.

At this instant, despite the fact that everyone's attention was drawn by the constellation ocean, devil battle platform and heavenly deity mountain, there were still those major characters with powerful perceptions who turned their gazes towards the location Qin Wentian's residential palace was in. Over there, they could feel immense astral energy and there seemed to be light from a constellation from the nine heavenly layers cascading down onto there.

Chapter 1790: Initiative to Provoke

For some major characters who were spectating the battles, they suddenly turned their gazes towards the location of Qin Wentian's residential palace. They could sense the purity of the astral energy that descended down there. It was also extremely strong.

"There's actually someone condensing an astral soul." They felt somewhat astonished. In the Time Realm, they clearly didn't feel that it was someone breaking through to the heavenly deity level. It should be someone condensing their eighth astral soul at the world overlord level.

Powerful strands of immortal senses gushed forth, ignoring the distances as numerous major characters scried the residential palace Qin Wentian was in.

At this moment, Qin Wentian didn't reveal the newly condensed astral soul. He opened his eyes and stood up. When he sensed the power of these immortal senses, he could tell how strong some of these people are. His own immortal sense wasn't able to traverse such a long distance. But luckily, only a relatively few people had such powerful immortal senses among them and they were all major characters.

"It's actually him." After the immortal senses 'saw' Qin Wentian, many people were stunned. Before this, Qin Wentian displayed a total of thirteen heavenheart mandates and insta-killed a genius world overlord of the Dragon Pool Manor, Longyuan Haoyu. They naturally knew who he is. But this transcendent-level world overlord actually has not condensed his eighth astral soul until now? What does this mean?

This meant that the time which Qin Wentian has broken through to the world overlord realm wasn't that long. Also, among the thirteen heavenheart mandates he displayed before, he has yet to integrate the attribute energy of the source origins of the new law of his newly condensed astral soul into it.

He was at the transcendent-level the moment he entered the world overlord realm, these major characters naturally knew what this meant. This meant that Qin Wentian might have directly comprehended an extraordinary world heart first before gaining insights into his innate heavenheart mandate. This meant that the fact he comprehended so many different kinds heavenheart mandates was actually not a waste of time. He must have referenced them in order to manifest his extraordinary world heart.

Yue Changkong who has occupied one of the constellation seas suddenly froze as he stared into the distance. Earlier, he felt a hint of familiar energy. That was time-attributed energy. At their current levels of cultivation, their senses were naturally extremely sharp. There should be no mistake.

At the moment when the time energy descended from the sky, Yue Changkong couldn't help but to think of a thing. After all, he was the only one who knew that the sentence spoken by the Time King earlier, wasn't referring to him. Right now, everyone thought he was the inheritor and they weren't curious any more. But he knew clearly that he was a fake. He was the one who wanted to know the most about the identity of the person the Time King was waiting for. If not, he would always feel a threat, as though someone was staring at him in the shadows. Such a feeling was extremely uncomfortable. That person should be mocking him in the dark, right? He also didn't know why that person didn't expose him. To him, the identity of this unknown person was a time bomb.

"What's wrong?" Somebody asked when they noticed the strange expression of a major character's face.

"Nothing much, it's just that the young world overlord who had displayed thirteen heavenheart mandates earlier, just condensed an astral soul." That major character replied in a low voice.

"What? Isn't he already a transcendent-level world overlord before this? He only condensed his eighth astral soul now?" A shocked look appeared on the face of someone.

"Mhm, seems like his talent is truly extraordinary." That major character nodded. Many people crowded around in discussion and soon, this matter circulated through the crowd.

In the direction of the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms, a major character of the Donghuang Clan spoke to Donghuang Ying, "Your judgement isn't bad. That Qingcheng Realmlord only condensed his eighth astral soul now. He will surely have extraordinary accomplishments in the future and might have a position at the peak of the Mystic Region."

Given how vast the Mystic Region is, a position at the peak meant that Qin Wentian would become someone who could truly call the wind and summon the rain. This evaluation was already extremely high.

"That's only natural." Donghuang Ying smiled.

"However, compared to Yue Changkong who received the inheritance of the Time King, he is still slightly inferior. In the future, Yue Changkong has a chance to become the equal of the Sword Monarch. Do your best to maintain a good relationship with him." That major character spoke.

"I know." Donghuang Ying nodded. Xiao Yu, who was beside her, had a depressed look on his face. He was the same as Yue Changkong and was one of the first few people who occupied a constellation sea. However, he was eventually defeated and came back here.

Yue Changkong still stood there, glowing dazzling in his brilliance, as though his talent was unrivalled.

Not only so, out of the four people who first occupied the constellation seas, he was the only one who was ousted. Yue Changkong, Bai Qingfeng and Li Xiao were still there.

At the location Qin Wentian was in, he could sense numerous immortal senses rushing over before retreating. However right now in the air space above his residential palace, a silhouette slowly manifested. It was actually that old man who spoke out for him before from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy. He smiled at Qin Wentian, "I didn't expect that you only condensed your eighth astral soul now. Given how strong the astral fluctuations are, it should be a higher-tiered astral soul, right. May I ask what law attribute does it have?"

"Replying to senior, that's the time-attribute." Qin Wentian replied. This wasn't considered a secret. In the future, he would use time-attributed energy in his attacks sooner or later. Hence, he might as well admit it openly now so others wouldn't be so suspicious in the future.

"Time. It's a very powerful law, and the insights of this law are naturally extremely tough to comprehend. I didn't expect you to choose time." The old man mumbled.

Qin Wentian smiled and replied, "I heard rumors about the Godking of Time. Earlier, the Time Monument Inscription had also appeared and my heart was filled with reverence and respect upon learning that the Time King was an expert that could travel to the past and future. Hence, I also wished to comprehend the time laws."

"No wonder you didn't even want to spectate the fascinating fights of the convention and chose to cultivate here." The old man smiled and shook his head. "For the positions of the four constellation lords, are you not intending to contend for one?"

"The experts in the convention are as many as the clouds. There are countless genius world overlords here. I'll just be a spectator." Qin Wentian has already thought things through and decided not to participate in case he drew the attention of the various peak powers. He especially wanted to avoid notice from the three hegemonic powers.

"Your personality…" The old man speechlessly shook his head. After that, his figure turned illusory and he vanished from sight.

After he left, many people came over here. Mo Qingcheng, Qing`er, Beiming Youhuang and the others came by. Many people had smiles on their faces. Qin Wentian finally condensed his eighth astral soul and it was a time-attributed one. Such astral souls were extremely rare and as for time-attributed constellations, none of them had ever encountered any within the nine heavenly layers before. Such constellations should only exists at very high heavenly layers.

"Why are you all looking at me like that for?" Qin Wentian couldn't help but shrug when he saw the gazes of everyone.

"Wentian gege, you've comprehended time laws? In the future, will you be able to create a realm that's like the Time Realm and change the flow of time? In that case, when we cultivate in there in the future, it would save us a lot of time." Bai Qing softly laughed. Qin Wentian rolled his eyes, "I just condensed my astral soul, how can I be so powerful."

Bai Qing giggled as she stared at her Wentian gege who was getting more and more outstanding.

"Do you all want to go around the convention to take a look? Right now the Ziwei Divine Court, Great Devil Divine Palace and Heavenly Deity Mountain are all granting opportunities for people to gain good fortune and things are very lively there. Although you guys cannot participate, I can bring you there for a look." Qin Wentian spoke.

With him around them, there was no need to worry about something that might happen to his family and friends. The Dragon Pool Manor was fearful of Lei`er, they didn't dare to make any reckless moves and he didn't have any other enemies.

"Alright, I also want to go over to take a look." The Southern Phoenix Matriarch spoke. She was very interested to see battles between transcendent-level world overlords but it's just that it wasn't too appropriate to take the initiative to ask Qin Wentian to bring them there. Now, Qin Wentian was climbing higher and higher away from them. She also wished to step into the world overlord realm as quickly as possible.

Quite a few people nodded their heads in agreement. Qin Wentian smiled and brought them over to the central area in the Time Realm. They found a spot near the heavenly deity mountain that was quite remote and sat there as they quietly watched.

"The Qingcheng Realmlord." Many people stared over. They already knew that Qin Wentian was the one who just condensed his eighth astral soul for the world overlord level. Right now, many people had different looks in their eyes when they stared at him.

The eyes of those from the Dragon Pool Manor were slightly cold. The more outstanding Qin Wentian was, the more unhappy they would be.

However, Qin Wentian and his group were extremely low-profile and were merely here as spectators of the combat on the devil battle platform and constellation ocean. Regardless of world overlords of the older or younger generations, their combat was so intense that it made spectators sigh in admiration. This was especially so for the battles on the devil battle platform. The scenes there were too terrifying but then again, there would only be one battle every several days. There weren't many

After some days passed, Ten Miles Springwind, Old Ghost and the two others came out from the Heavenly Deity Mountain. When they saw Qin Wentian and his group at that secluded spot, they went over and asked, "Are you really not participating?"

"Yup." Qin Wentian smiled and nodded. "What about you guys? Did you all find anything good on the heavenly deity mountain?"

"There are many good stuff in there where we can comprehend and gain insights from. I do have some rewards but the rewards I gained definitely cannot be compared to one of the four positions of the constellation lords or the number one expert on the devil battle platform." Ten Miles Springwind spoke.

"That's only natural."

"You guys came out." Donghuang Ying also flew over, smiling at everyone. After that, she spoke to Qin Wentian, "Brother Qin, since the light from the constellation ocean did shine upon you, why don't you go up there and challenge the experts occupying the seas for the position of one of the constellation lords?"

"If he is going to challenge Yue Changkong, who do you hope will win?" Ten Miles Springwind had a look of interest on his face as he stared at Donghuang Ying.

"I will be happy no matter who wins." Donghuang Ying smiled.

"Oh?" Ten Miles Springwind's smile grew wider as he stared at Donghuang Ying. He doubted her words very much.

"Qingcheng Realmlord." At this moment, from the direction of one of the constellation seas, a voice drifted through the air. Qin Wentian turned his gaze over as a strange look appeared on his face. The person who called him was actually Yue Changkong.

"Before this, the Qingcheng Realmlord has displayed thirteen kinds of heavenheart mandates. And now, since the light from the constellation ocean has shone upon Brother Qin, why don't you come over and spar a little?" Yue Changkong issued a challenge through the distance. Qin Wentian started, the look on his face grew even stranger. Yue Changkong wasn't acquainted with him, right? He actually took the initiative to provoke him? Why was this so?

Donghuang Ying was also astonished. After that, she stared in mock anger at Yue Changkong in the air a distance away as she spoke, "Brother Qin has no intention to participate. What are you doing?"

She thought that Yue Changkong was challenging Qin Wentian because of her. If he didn't pay attention to her, how would Yue Changkong suddenly speak up after she said those words? Clearly, their conversation was heard by Yue Changkong.

Yue Changkong did indeed pay attention here. However, the person he was paying attention to wasn't Donghuang Ying. It was Qin Wentian instead.

Because, he knew from the conversations of the crowd that the person condensing his eighth astral soul was Qin Wentian. That astral soul was a time-attributed one, and other than that, Qin Wentian has also comprehended a total of thirteen heavenheart mandates.

In that case, for the person whom the Time King was waiting for in the future, could it be this Qingcheng Realmlord?

The possibility of this was very huge.

Naturally, only Yue Changkong alone would think like this. Everyone else thought that he, Yue Changkong, was the person the Time King was waiting for!

Chapter 1791: Bloodline Talent, Rearing Divinity

Qin Wentian felt a little puzzled. Yue Changkong was trying to provoke him. Was it because he wanted to display his brilliance before Donghuang Ying?

"Oh, someone wants you to go up there." Ten Miles Springwind smiled. Cao Tian and the others also stared at Yue Changkong. This man was indeed very outstanding but he gave them a sense of hypocrisy. Before this, Yue Changkong had always hidden himself, but once he became famous, he immediately built relations with the various major powers and even tried to worm his way into Donghuang Ying's heart. He was an extremely scheming individual.

Right now, Yue Changkong wanted to use Qin Wentian as a stepping stone to display his abilities before Donghuang Ying?

However, although Donghuang Ying was beautiful, Qin Wentian didn't have any feelings towards her. He naturally wouldn't feel jealousy. He simply calmly glanced at Yue Changkong in the air and smiled, "It's fine, I'll just spectate."

"Little princess, I brought up the suggestion for a spar against Brother Qin simply because I admire his glory earlier. I don't have any other meaning. No matter which of us wins, the radiance we both exude is hard to mask." Yue Changkong explained to Donghuang Ying. After that, he smiled at Qin Wentian, "Brother Qin, it's truly a pity that you don't want to come up here to display your capabilities given your talent."

"If this is the case, Brother Qin you can consider this a little. No matter who wins or loses, both your radiance is hard to mask." Donghuang Ying smiled. "The two of you are my friends, I won't interfere."

"Why does it sound so weird. No matter who wins or loses, the radiance they both exudes is hard to mask? Why does it sound like she is consoling Brother Qin, as though Brother Qin would truly be defeated?" Ten Miles Springwind spoke.

Qin Wentian casually smiled. "Since there's no difference. Why is there a need to compete?"

Since he made the decision not to participate, he wouldn't do so then. Once he did so, he would surely attract the focus of the Ziwei Divine Court. At that time, he wouldn't be able to retreat even if he wanted to. Also, if the Ziwei Divine Court summoned him for a meeting, should he attend it or not?

"That's a pity then, I initially still wanted to spar against Brother Qin." Yue Changkong politely stated. If it wasn't Qin Wentian already knowing that he is a fake that claimed he was the inheritor of the Time King, Qin Wentian might have believed that Yue Changkong was a gentleman. But now, the more gentlemanly Yue Changkong was acting, the larger a hypocrite he felt this man was. Sadly, it was useless no matter how much he tries to remind Donghuang Ying.

Donghuang Ying had an extraordinary background, she was the little princess of the Donghuang Clan and from this, one could tell how esteemed her status was. She has seen countless geniuses before and many would fawn on her, willing to submit. Now that she saw a genius like Yue Changkong, she naturally would feel interested and maybe attracted to him.

Just when Qin Wentian thought that this matter was at an end, Yue Changkong slowly turned his gaze over and stared at another person. He smiled, "Among the crowd of experts in the convention, actually the person I wish to challenge most isn't Brother Qin. It's a guest who came here from extremely far away."

When everyone heard Yue Changkong's words, they all stared at him. Who was it that Yue Changkong wanted to challenge?

"Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region, I long have respect in my heart towards such a majestic clan. I didn't expect that I would be able to see guests from the Luoshen Clan in this convention at the Mystic Region. Now that the constellation ocean shone its light on every world overlord of the younger generation, I can see there's a goddess from the Luoshen Clan shining in her glory and I wish to seek guidance from her in the martial path. By doing so, I can also witness the glory of the Luoshen Clan with my eyes." Yue Changkong slowly spoke, his eyes were staring straight at Luoshen Lei of the Luoshen Clan.

Luoshen Lei was also one of the talented world overlords of the younger generation that was shone upon by the light from the constellation ocean. She also has the qualifications to join in the battles if she wanted.

Yue Changkong's tone sounded polite, praising her as the goddess of the Luoshen Clan and he admired and respected them hence he wanted to seek guidance from her.

However, in his polite words, there was another layer of meaning. Luoshen Clan was from the Desolate Region after all and is considered an outsider. For Yue Changkong, in the future if he could join the Ziwei Divine Court, he would naturally be representing them. If he was able to defeat Luoshen Lei now, there was a higher possibility that he could be selected by the Ziwei Divine Court. Hence, he made this gesture.

He wanted to use the Luoshen Clan as a platform to elevate himself.

It wasn't any great secret that the Luoshen Clan has appeared in the convention. Back then when Luoshen Lei threatened the Dragon Pool Manor, it was already not possible for the Luoshen Clan's name to remain a secret. Those major characters all knew about it but they pretended not to know anything. Now that Yue Changkong was bringing this out in public, what sort of attitude should they treat the Luoshen Clan with?

Even though they were peak powers of the Mystic Region, they still didn't have the qualifications to stand on equal grounds with the Luoshen Clan. If one wanted them to act more arrogantly, they didn't have the courage. But it was also impossible for them to act servilely. If not, what would the three hegemonic powers of the Mystic Region think of them? This place was the Mystic Region after all and this was the convention of the Mystic Region. The Luoshen Clan was an outsider from the Desolate Region.

Qin Wentian's eyes abruptly shone with a cold sharpness. After Yue Changkong challenged him, he immediately challenged Luoshen Lei? What did this mean?

Qin Wentian naturally understood that although everyone tried not to mention the matters about Luoshen Lei, but it's no secret that Luoshen Lei had helped him before. Many people knew about this.

In that case, did Yue Changkong know of this too?

If Yue Changkong knew and still challenged Luoshen Lei, there should be another layer of meaning behind his actions. Did Yue Changkong want to target him?

No matter if this is true or not, Qin Wentian increasingly felt that Yue Changkong was a sinister individual.

Luoshen Lei also started, she clearly didn't expect that there would be people challenging her. Her initial purpose for coming to the Mystic Region wasn't for the convention. She naturally had no wish to participate in this battle of the constellation ocean from the Ziwei Divine Court. She only wanted to take a look at the strength of the world overlords here. Also, she has been very low-profile and had only exposed her identity when she helped Qin Wentian that one time.

The words spoken by Yue Changkong instantly reminded everyone that the Luoshen Clan was an outsider. Also, his seemingly polite words placed himself as the representative of the Mystic Region. It was like this battle wasn't one between individuals, but one between the chosen of the Mystic Region and the Desolate Region.

Her beautiful eyes stared at Yue Changkong. This person was truly scheming to the extreme.

"Little miss, we have no need to accept the challenge. We can simply find an excuse." The old man beside her transmitted his voice over. Although Yue Changkong was extremely scheming, his prowess has already been determined. Yue Changkong was truly strong. His little miss was still young, there was no need for her to participate due to a fit of anger.

However, it seemed as though Luoshen Lei hadn't heard his words. Her beautiful eyes stared at Yue Changkong. Since this man has already put it this way, how could she still reject the battle? If she didn't fight, wouldn't people gossip that the Luoshen Clan was full of cowards that only knew how to dodge fights?

"I'm not a goddess, I'm just an ordinary member of the Luoshen Clan and cannot represent all the geniuses there. But since you wish to spar with me, I will accept your challenge. Up till now, I've cultivated for four hundred years and have never sparred with the peak geniuses of the Mystic Region before." Luoshen Lei slowly spoke, even revealing her age. This caused many people to feel fear in their hearts. What terrifying talent, as expected of a member from the Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region.

She even intentionally revealed her age. She naturally didn't want to increase the degree which she represented the Luoshen Clan. If not, if she lost, the Luoshen Clan would be embarrassed.

Many major characters silently nodded their heads. This genius young woman from the Luoshen Clan was also an extraordinary individual who was also extremely meticulous in her thoughts.

"Being able to spar against a goddess from the Luoshen Clan is a fortune I must have cultivated good karma for, for a total of three lifetimes. Please." Yue Changkong still acted with grace and elegance as he smiled.

Luoshen Lei's silhouette flashed, soaring up into the air. Very swiftly, she arrived at the constellation sea Yue Changkong was in. When the starry light enveloped her, she who was originally already extremely beautiful, now truly seemed like a goddess descending to the mortal world. At this instant, it was as though all the spiritual qi of heavens and earth was gathered on her.

"I heard that the Luoshen Clan is known as the god of all demons, all demons would submit themselves to you. The Luoshen Clan also has a very powerful and unique bloodline ability, they are able to nurture and rear divine creatures. Today, I finally have the chance to seek the guidance from a member of the Luoshen Clan." Yue Changkong spoke. Evidently, his understanding of the Luoshen Clan was very deep. He even knew about one of their bloodline abilities.

"Although I've broken through to the world overlord realm, my foundation isn't stable yet as I just broken through. I cannot truly unleash the true potential of my talent. In the future if you have the chance to compete against true geniuses of my clan, only then would you know how powerful my Luoshen Clan is. However, you might not be qualified enough to compete with them." Luoshen Lei calmly spoke.

"Hahaha…" Yue Changkong laughed loudly. "In that case, I shall wait and see. As for today, I will temporarily experience the teachings of goddess first. Please."

Luoshen Lei didn't say anything more. Her long hair fluttered in the wind as her body began to glow with light, like a real goddess. Her entire body was covered in a layer of holy light as her aura rapidly climbed. A dazzling demon god portrait appeared in the starry space, enveloping her within. The demon god portrait contained a myriad of sacred demonic creatures and was radiating a terrifying aura.

"My world heart, Moon Radiance." Yue Changkong spoke and as the sound of his voice faded, the power of his world heart and innate heavenheart mandate gushed forth, causing a desolate aura to bore down on everything. The power he unleashed shot towards the location Luoshen Lei was in. He wanted to directly lock Luoshen Lei's movements. In his heart domain, a powerful binding force manifested. Everything in his heart domain became immobile, no one weaker than him would be able to do anything if they were caught within it.

This has already exceeded the limits of spatial binding. In the domain generated by Yue Changkong's world heart, everything came to a halt. Luoshen Lei tried to move but a terrifying energy seemed to hold her back. The formless radiance from the world heart unceasingly cascaded down on her, every beam of light was like a pillar of binding force, locking her in place.

"Bzz~" A beam of divine moonlight shot over, quicker and fiercer than lightning, directly blasting towards Luoshen Lei.

Luoshen Lei's eyes gleamed with sharpness. In an instant, a gigantic divine turtle suddenly appeared. It spat out a terrifying screen of light that transformed into an absolute defensive energy barrier, surrounding her.

The divine moon light descended, boring down on the turtle, wanting to seal its movements.

Luoshen Lei's expression didn't change. She shouted again as a terrifying phoenix appeared inside Yue Changkong's heart domain. The phoenix breathed out in Yue Changkong's direction but Yue Changkong directly vanished. In the space he was in earlier, a column of ashes appeared. And in another location, a portion of Yue Changkong's sleeve was actually burning.

"The talent: rearing divinity, of the Luoshen Clan, is truly extraordinary and worthy of its reputation." Yue Changkong slowly spoke. Before him, another python appeared. In the next moment, he felt as though he was about to be frozen solid.

In the air, the demon god portrait continued spawning greater demons. Every saint beast within was able to fight for Luoshen Lei. Also, each of them had their own respective demon-attribute heavenheart mandates. This meant that Luoshen Lei was able to use many types of heavenheart mandates!

This was one of the terrifying abilities of the Luoshen Clan bloodline. They were able to nurture and rear demons using their blood. It was extremely terrifying.

Everyone exclaimed in admiration. Luoshen Lei has only cultivated for slightly over four hundred years. In the future when she grew stronger, this ability of hers would naturally grow stronger as well!

Chapter 1792: Those of different paths don’t walk together

It was rumored that when this ability of the Luoshen Clan reached the peak, it was able to summon demon gods to the world. The myriad of demons would act as their protectors and each of those demons would be terrifyingly strong. However, the degree of talent one had in this ability was different for everyone. To cultivate this, one needed a supremely powerful comprehension.

As to what rearing divinity means, it meant trying to rear and nurture a demon god. The strengths and weaknesses of the demons summoned would depend on the summoner's cultivation talent.

Luoshen Lei had just entered the world overlord realm. Although she has this bloodline ability that was very powerful, her world heart was still weaker in comparison. Her true body was being bound, chained to her original location by the moonlight. If it wasn't for her innate bloodline ability that gave her an inherent advantage, she would have already lost.

"I heard that the cultivation of the rearing divinity ability needs a long period of time. Each divine creature you nurture depends on the master's comprehension. Although goddess has extraordinary talent, your cultivation is still too weak. These demons might have many types of heavenheart mandates but they are all inferior ones." Yue Changkong casually spoke, his voice ringing out loud in the air.

At this moment, an even brighter light radiated from Yue Changkong. This entire space was covered by a supremely intense moonlight that radiated a sense of desolation. Yue Changkong was in the center of it. Everything in this space seemed to slow to a halt. Even those divine creatures summoned by Luoshen Lei couldn't move, entering a state of perpetual stillness.

"Suppression of world heart." Everyone silently mused when they saw this. Yue Changkong had an absolute advantage when comparing world hearts to Luoshen Lei. His world heart was able to suppress her. In that case, the ending of this battle was already fated.

"Please pardon me." Yue Changkong spoke. He gracefully waved his hand as the creatures summoned by Luoshen Lei directly exploded. They were completely unable to block his tyrannical attack.

Luoshen Lei wanted to retreat but she discovered that she seemed to be situated in a formless prison. Only she alone existed in the entire space, her movements were completely confined by that power.

"Stop." At this moment, a shout broke the air. After that Luoshen Lei groaned in pain as a beam of light directly blasted into her body, causing her to cough out blood.

The silhouette of the old man from the Luoshen Clan flashed and came to her side. Luoshen Lei lifted her hand to stop him. Her gaze was staring at Yue Changkong and her expression was extremely cold.

"Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region. From what I see today, it's merely ordinary. I hope I will be able to see stronger characters from there in the future." Yue Changkong calmly spoke, radiating pride from defeating a world overlord from the Luoshen Clan, which also cause his radiance to glow even brighter. Also, he was different from before. In his proud words, there was a faint disdain for the Luoshen Clan.

"Before this, when Yue Changkong and the experts from the Mystic Region fought, he would show mercy and not injure his opponents. But now, when he was fighting against the Luoshen Clan of the Desolate Region, his actions were different from before and he intentionally injured Luoshen Lei, even saying that the Luoshen Clan was merely ordinary." Somebody mused silently

However, they soon understood. Yue Changkong was doing this to gain good will from the Ziwei Divine Court. If he was accepted into the Ziwei Divine Court, and if he defeated a genius from the Luoshen Clan before he was even accepted, wouldn't that be an extremely glorious thing? This way, it cannot be considered as him offending the Luoshen Clan. Although the Luoshen Clan might be unhappy, this was after all an official battle. It was impossible for the Luoshen Clan to take revenge just because of this. Such a superpower cannot afford to do such a thing but it might be possible they get a world overlord from the younger generations to challenge him again.

Luoshen Lei's countenance turned colder after she heard Yue Changkong's words. He was clearly using her as a platform to elevate his own standing, by emphasizing the words Luoshen Clan. Although she knew that such an ending might occur, it was impossible for her to dodge from this battle. Yue Changkong has already named the Luoshen Clan. Even if she would be defeated, she still had to fight. This was her attitude.

Right now, Qin Wentian's gaze was also exceptionally glacial. He stared at Yue Changkong who was in the air as a cold intent radiated from his body.

"He is even able to effortlessly defeat a genius from the Luoshen Clan, Yue Changkong's talent is truly incomparable." Donghuang Ying softly spoke, her beautiful eyes staring at the glorious Yue Changkong in the air.

"He's just a despicable person." Qin Wentian calmly refuted. His words caused the beautiful eyes of Donghuang Ying who was beside him, who was currently immersed in joy, to flash with surprise. She turned and faced Qin Wentian, "Brother Qin, I know this fairy maiden from the Luoshen Clan has helped you before but Yue Changkong did defeat her fairly. There's no need for you to insult him like this, right?"

It seems like Yue Changkong could also hear Qin Wentian's words. He turned his gaze over and smiled, "Brother Qin, why is there a need to slander me?"

"Elder brother, don't forget the agreement between us. It's fine that I was defeated, there's no need to stand out for me." Luoshen Lei's voice rang out in Qin Wentian's mind. She didn't want anyone to know how close she was with Qin Wentian in case there were people who started to investigate this matter. After all, Qin Wentian's identity was a little sensitive.

Hence, Luoshen Lei intentionally reminded him, she didn't want him to display his true capabilities.

"Before this, Miss Luoshen has a treasure with me, this is why we are acquainted with each other. I didn't know of her identity then." Qin Wentian spoke to Donghuang Ying. He then continued, "It's fine that Yue Changkong took the initiative to challenge people, but why is he intentionally emphasizing the fact that she is of the Luoshen Clan, using her to elevate his own standing and even saying the Luoshen Clan is merely ordinary? Before this, Yue Changkong didn't even injure a single one of his opponents but now, he actually purposely injured such a young maiden? Using such methods to step on others to climb up himself, isn't this shameless and despicable behavior? Little princess, you have to judge people more clearly."

As for Yue Changkong's words, it was actually directly ignored by Qin Wentian.

"I've been respectful to Brother Qin, I didn't expect Brother Qin to slander me like this. I wonder how did I offend Brother Qin?" Yue Changkong still acted politely like a gentleman.

"That's right, Yue Changkong has always been very respectful of you. Even if your relationship with Luoshen Lei isn't bad, you shouldn't insult him like that. It's clear that Brother Qin is in the wrong, how can you say that I have to judge people more clearly?" Donghuang Ying spoke for Yue Changkong.

"I have no intentions to guess at Brother Qin's thoughts. But seeing Brother Qin being so stubborn in not joining the constellation ocean battles, could it be that you have already agreed to join a super power elsewhere?" Yue Changkong calmly spoke. A moment later, the eyes of everyone flashed. Yue Changkong's words clearly hinted that Qin Wentian might have already joined the Luoshen Clan.

Could it be that Qin Wentian wanted to marry into the Luoshen Clan.

"As expected of a despicable person." Qin Wentian swept his gaze towards Yue Changkong. Yue Changkong lied to everyone saying that he was Time King's inheritor. After that, he got close to Donghuang Ying and now, he's even using such words to affect the thoughts of people here.

"Yue Changkong defeated a young genius from the Luoshen Clan. His talent is extraordinary yet you actually insult him? What do you mean by that? Could it be that you are really preparing to leave the Mystic Region?" Someone directly spoke. The person who spoke was an expert from the Dragon Pool Manor, a power that has hatred with Qin Wentian and the Luoshen Clan.

"Little friend Qin's words are a little off. Given Yue Changkong's performance today, there's nothing to pick at." A powerful world overlord from the Eastern Royal Immortal Realms spoke. The Eastern Royal Immortal Realms was a vassal force to the Ziwei Divine Court and Yue Changkong has a very high possibility of becoming a disciple of the Ziwei Divine Court. In addition, given the relationship between Yue Changkong and Donghuang Ying, he naturally wanted to help Yue Changkong.

Qin Wentian didn't expect that by standing out to criticize Yue Changkong, he himself actually became the target of a multitude of arrows. One couldn't help but say that during these days, everything Yue Changkong has done, wasn't a waste of his efforts. Also, because he originally already has extraordinary talent and the fact that everyone believed the Time King was waiting for him in the future, many naturally stood on his side.

"Many of you are major characters of a region. Let me ask you all first. If I was the one who defeated a world overlord from one of your powers, does that mean that I have the reason to openly mock the powers you are from to be so-so? What would you all think? Would you all feel that I'm egotistical and arrogant?" Qin Wentian calmly spoke, ignoring the pressure from all these major characters that hailed from the peak powers. Although Luoshen Lei didn't want him to stand out for her, he could no longer endure this. He began to loathe Yue Changkong more and more.

"Yue Changkong's world heart is evidently stronger compared to the little miss from the Luoshen Clan. His cultivation base is more stable and the amount of time he cultivated for is also longer. Bullying someone clearly weaker than him and even still speaking so arrogantly after that, to the extent of mocking the Luoshen Clan. In the future, if Yue Changkong really has a chance to enter a hegemonic power of our Mystic Region and the supreme geniuses of other regions also defeat him, wouldn't they mock our Mystic Region for being weak and ordinary too?"

Qin Wentian continued, "Among people of our generation, no matter where they come from or what power from whichever respective Regions they belong to, we have to respect them. Being so arrogant after a single victory, he would only be ridiculed by people. I don't believe Yue Changkong doesn't know this. Before this, his actions all seemed so humble and courteous yet he intentionally acted in such a manner now. He is clearly planning to use the Luoshen Clan as a platform to elevate his own status. If he wasn't someone despicable, what is he?"

"Ridiculous. When Yue Changkong challenged you, you didn't dare to accept. But now, you are insulting him? Don't forget that Yue Changkong is someone who obtained the Time King's inheritance. What do you count for? What qualifications do you have to speak here?" Someone coldly spoke.

"Such is the conduct of a despicable person. You guys believed everything he said? I can also say that I was the one who gained the Time King's inheritance. Do you all believe me?" Qin Wentian replied.

"Haha, I've attended so many conventions but this is the first time I heard such ridiculous words." Someone laughed loudly. Could it be that Yue Changkong dared to lie to everyone in the Mystic Region? As for Qin Wentian's words, everyone felt that it was a joke, he was only intentionally trying to cast doubt on Yue Changkong.

Donghuang Ying's expression grew extremely unsightly. She stared at Qin Wentian, "Brother Qin, I've always treated you as a friend. Who would have thought that you actually have it in you to act in such a manner. Truly disappointing."

Qin Wentian glanced at her. Before this, Donghuang Ying wanted to recruit him because of his talent. But now, she actually chose to believe completely in Yue Changkong. He understood that this was because on Yue Changkong, she saw an even higher value compared to him.

As to the word 'friend,' wasn't it too cheaply-priced? If Donghuang Ying truly did treat him as a friend, she would have more meticulously considered his words. Some of the things he spoke was based on logic and it wasn't hard to understand. Right now, she felt that no matter what Qin Wentian said or did was wrong simply because the one standing in opposition to Qin Wentian, was Yue Changkong.

If she had to choose one from the two of them, she would naturally choose Yue Changkong. After all, everyone knew that Yue Changkong was the one chosen by the Time King.

"Since those of different paths cannot walk together. Little Princess, please go." Qin Wentian didn't wish to continue talking. He bluntly spoke. Donghuang Ying stared at Qin Wentian before she coldly snorted, turning to depart!

Chapter 1793: Battle

Donghuang Ying returned to where the other experts of the Eastern Royal Immortal Realm were and her expression was extremely unsightly. She always thought that she has treated Qin Wentian very politely, but she didn't expect Qin Wentian would conduct himself in such a way and slander Yue Changkong. When she thought back to those years ago when Qin Wentian warned her that there was a problem with Yue Changkong's character, she couldn't help but feel that it's true Qin Wentian was really jealous of Yue Changkong for stealing his limelight.

If not, when Yue Changkong challenged Qin Wentian earlier, why didn't he dare to accept the battle?

"Little princess, I feel that Brother Qin's words are not without logic. Could you not have discovered that Yue Changkong's character is really problematic? If not, why would he intentionally injure the young woman from the Luoshen Clan and even insulted her clan like that?" Xiao Yu, who was beside her, spoke in a low voice. Donghuang Ying glanced at Xiao Yu and her face was cold, "You are also jealous of Yue Changkong? Is it because he is still standing there in the position he occupied while you were ousted by others?"

Xiao Yu's countenance instantly paled, he stared with some disbelief at this beautiful young woman whom he was acquainted with for many years. Their relationship had always been very good, even if the little princess fell in love with others, their friendship still existed. He didn't expect her to humiliate him directly like this.

At this moment, Xiao Yu felt as though his heart turned to ashes.

"Xiao Yu don't mind her. Xiao Ying only said that in the spur of the moment." An old man from the Donghuang Clan at the side spoke. "Yue Changkong has extraordinary talent and has also obtained the Time King's inheritance, it's very normal for him to be arrogant. He has suppressed himself before this, only revealing his arrogance upon defeating an expert from the Luoshen Clan. Although this is slightly brazen, why can't he do so? For geniuses, which of them aren't confident and arrogant?"

"Mhm." Xiao Yu nodded lightly and didn't say anything more but his heart was filled with sorrow. Seems like even the elders of the Donghuang Clan supports Yue Changkong. There was no choice, Yue Changkong was the one chosen by the Time King and the Time King himself would be waiting for him in the future. For such a character, even immensely powerful world overlords would have to show some respect to him. Let alone the fact that the attitude Yue Changkong has shown Donghuang Ying, the Donghuang Clan would naturally support them being together. As for him, Xiao Yu, who could he be considered as?

"Now, we can tell her real feelings from her attitude. Before this I've already said that when I asked who she would support if Qin Wentian fought against Yue Changkong, her reply felt very fake." Ten Miles Springwind smiled, he wasn't really disappointed. He had always been a good judge of character and has met many people like Donghuang Ying before. Hence, his mood wasn't affected.

"His cultivation base now is merely at the World Overlord Realm, he hasn't become a character like the Sword Monarch. The various powers need not fall over in a rush to form good relationships with him, right? No matter what, these major characters are all famous and reputable people in the Mystic Region, they should at least save some face for themselves." Cao Tian didn't care at all, directly denouncing those who spoke out for Yue Changkong.

Qin Wentian felt some warmth in his heart. Right now, many major characters at the convention all supported Yue Changkong. Donghuang Ying also revealed her true attitude. Only those people who partook in the robbery of the Heaven Immortal Tower still stood by him. Sometimes, they would share joy, and cursed at each other. But are they not true friends? Such things need not be specifically spoken of. At critical moments, whether someone was a true friend or not, would automatically be revealed.

Before this when Qin Wentian said that sentence with regards to the Time King's inheritance, many ignored him.

In fact, many thought that those were words spoken in anger, trying to insult Yue Changkong. But who would have expected that that sentence was nothing but the truth?

Only that powerful world overlord from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy felt that it was the truth. He has been paying attention to Qin Wentian and when Qin Wentian condensed his eighth astral soul earlier, he personally went over to ask what attribute was it. Qin Wentian replied that it was the time-attribute, Qin Wentian said that he was inspired by the Time King's legend and hence, he decided to condense a time-attribute astral soul.

However, how could one easily condense a time-attribute astral soul? In addition, the laws of time were among the most supreme and powerful laws and they were the toughest to comprehend. Just because of the Time King's story, he went to condense a time-attribute astral soul just like that?

Qin Wentian also didn't have any intentions to compete, was he trying to conceal something?

Earlier, the casual statement he spoke, did he want to reveal something?

"Strength is the best method to prove everything. No matter if your words are logical or not, strength is the determinant on whether you have the authority to speak. The voice of the old man from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy drifted into Qin Wentian's ears. "Why don't you participate in the constellation battles? I don't feel that you are someone who is afraid to lose face because of a defeat. The Ziwei Divine Court is a hegemonic level power and truly has some extraordinary aspects to it. Do you have any apprehensions?"

Qin Wentian started after he heard this. He glanced in the direction of that old man from the sacred academy and replied using a voice transmission, "Senior, this junior is long used to freedom and I don't like restrictions. If I became a disciple of a peak power, I would have to follow their orders."

"You mean you don't intend to join any of the peak powers of the Mystic Region? Hence, you intentionally avoided contact with the Ziwei Divine Court?" That expert asked, feeling somewhat strange in his heart. This young fellow was really interesting.

"I guess so." Qin Wentian didn't really need to conceal this. He still felt good will towards the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy, hence he spoke directly. In any case, it didn't really matter if this information was spread.

"Don't worry, if your performance is really outstanding and attracts the attention of the Ziwei Divine Court, you can simply say that you are going to the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy to cultivate. The people of the Ziwei Divine Court won't force you. Naturally, our Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy wouldn't impose any restrictions on you, you can leave whenever you want and stay as long as you wish for." The old man laughed. Qin Wentian's eyes flashed. Given this old man's status, there was no need for him to lie to him. In that case, this old man was truly confident that the Ziwei Divine Court wouldn't be able to interfere in the affairs of the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy.

The two of them communicated via voice transmission and the amount of time it took was only a few moments. Yue Changkong still stood in the air and stared down at everything. There was still a carefree look of grace on his face, exuding an extraordinary aura. The countless world overlords gathered for the convention watched everything that was happening. They felt that although Qin Wentian was also a supreme character, he was clearly inferior compared to Yue Changkong who gained the inheritance of the Time King. The experts from the various powers naturally understood who they should support.

"As for everything Brother Qin has said, I don't wish to offer any explanations. Since Brother Qin wants to insult me like this, I have to issue a challenge to him once again no matter what." Yue Changkong spoke. This casual sentence by itself was an expression of dominance. No matter what you say, I won't rebut. Let's fight it out. Strength will decide everything.

Many people stared at Qin Wentian with interest, as though waiting to see him ridicule himself. Would he avoid the battle again? If that was the case, everything he said before would be nothing but courting his own humiliation. He would no longer have any face to remain in the Time Realm.

"I'll grant you your wish." Qin Wentian stepped out, directly flying towards the constellation ocean. In an instant, the light from the constellations enveloped him. His white robes and long hair fluttered in the wind and that in addition to his handsome countenance, even those unhappy with Qin Wentian couldn't help but to admit he does truly seem like an extraordinary individual. One mustn't forget that he once displayed thirteen kinds of heavenheart mandates and insta-killed Longyuan Haoyu.

It's just that right now, his opponent was stronger than Longyuan Haoyu by an unknown amount of times. Yue Changkong was a true peak genius of the Mystic Region.

Yue Changkong has already experienced many battles before. His world heart, Moon Radiance had a supreme binding force that could cause everything in its area of effect to halt to stillness. His heavenheart mandate attacks were also tyrannical to the extreme with incredible speed.

"Brother Qin, please make your move. If not, if I release my world heart, I'm afraid Brother Qin won't have any chance to attack." Yue Changkong smiled.

"This is the true you. There's no need to mask your arrogance. You have fought so many battles, are you not tired that you have to pretend to be humble and courteous for every single battle?" Qin Wentian stared at Yue Changkong.

"Haha, since Brother Qin put it like that, I would have to be arrogant for this once then." Yue Changkong laughed. As the sound of his voice faded, his world heart and innate heavenheart mandate were released at the same moment. An instant later, moon light with a sense of desolation landed on Qin Wentian, binding everything here. Qin Wentian could feel his body being halted.

The power of this heavenheart mandate, did it integrate the source origins of time laws? That might be the case.

In the next instant, Qin Wentian released his world heart and innate heavenheart mandate. Their energy enveloped this entire space and Qin Wentian's aura suddenly changed. Even if his movements were bound, he was still like a divinity, like the god of this world. This was his world heart, his will is equal to heaven's will. No one can defy it.

The Qin Wentian right now could sense killing intent. Yue Changkong wanted to kill him.

This caused an extremely cold light to flash through Qin Wentian's eyes. Between him and Yue Changkong, there shouldn't be any great hatred. Yue Changkong wanted to kill him simply because he denounced Yue Changkong as a shameless and despicable person earlier? In that case if he did so, wouldn't all his acting in the past be seen through? Or was there some other reason he didn't know of?

In fact, the true reason was that Yue Changkong suspected Qin Wentian was the person the Time King was waiting for in the future. Hence, if he killed him, no one would know this secret forever.

Numerous fearsome attacks akin to thunderbolts that brimmed with tyrannical might directly shot towards Qin Wentian.

From the looks of things, these immensely destructive attacks were about to blast into Qin Wentian but at this moment, Qin Wentian's body seemingly shifted backwards by a little and the tyrannical attacks actually stopped before him, unable to hit him.

"Wait, he didn't actually move." The eyes of everyone flashed. Qin Wentian's body didn't move at all but those attacks couldn't get close to him, let alone blasting into him. Although the distance between the attacks and his body seemed near, they were as far as worlds apart.

A terrifying coldness shone in Qin Wentian's eyes. At this moment, a fearsome beam of light appeared in the space around Yue Changkong, shooting from the void. The speed of this attack was extremely quick and there seemed to be no way for Yue Changkong to block it. However at this moment, Yue Changkong suddenly glowed with light and when the attack was about to land on him, that beam of light involuntarily grinded to a halt, unable to advance any further.

During the moments when the two of them exchanged blows, the eyes of many world overlords gleamed with sharpness. The two of them were so powerful and were using similar methods yet different types of energy. Both their world hearts and innate heavenheart mandates were immensely domineering, shocking everyone. Qin Wentian's movements were restricted but Yue Changkong's attacks couldn't hit him. Yue Changkong stood there, the terrifying beam of light that shot out from the void was forced to halt when it neared him.

In this case, both of them have extraordinary world hearts. Which of them was the stronger one?!

Chapter 1794: One Cannot Defy Heavenly Fate

Qin Wentian and Yue Changkong exchanging blows, everyone attending the convention was waiting to see it. Even for the other supreme geniuses in the three other constellation seas also stopped and glanced over.

As for Donghuang Ying and the experts of the Luoshen Clan, there was naturally no need to say anything about them.

"Yue Changkong's world heart can halt everything. It's like a space where everything is completely static. It was impossible for any attacks to get near him. If Qin Wentian wanted to win, it would merely be a foolish dream." Donghuang Ying coldly spoke. Even right now, she still felt resentment in her heart. She was very unhappy with Qin Wentian.

Luoshen Lei glanced at Donghuang Ying icily. Although she didn't wish for Qin Wentian to act, but now since the two of them were already fighting, she naturally hoped that Qin Wentian would be the one to win.

"If your body can't move, how can you fight with me? Your heavenheart mandate might be strong but if you cannot even get close to me, there's no need to speak about defeating me." At this moment Yue Changkong, who was standing a distance away, spoke out. Inside this particular constellation sea, although the distance between him and Qin Wentian was very far away, given the strength of world overlords, their attacks naturally could envelop a large enough area to affect each other.

"Under the domain generated by my world heart, do you really think your world heart can bind me? Ignorant." As the sound of Qin Wentian's voice faded, his body vanished from the spot and appeared in another direction.

Yue Changkong frowned, he felt as though his face just got smacked.

He coldly snorted as the moonlight gushed forth again, wanting to bind Qin Wentian's movements. However, in the next moment, Qin Wentian disappeared once more. It was like it wasn't his body which was moving but he was ignoring the rules of distance and space and teleporting to different areas.

Yue Changkong's countenance was ice-cold. He continued moving forward only to see Qin Wentian coldly staring at him. In the blink of an eye, it seemed that the world around him was changing. Qin Wentian's aura suddenly changed, he was now like a divine god as a formless pressure directly bore down on Yue Changkong. At this moment, Yue Changkong felt that it was he himself whose movements were bound. He had no way to move.

His frown deepened. He who was proficient in binding the movements of others actually had his own movements bound instead.

"In my world heart, my will is heaven's will. It transcends everything." Qin Wentian spoke proudly, like a lofty god in the sky. A resplendent halo revolved around him, generating an aura of invincibility.

In the time it took for a spark to be generated, it felt like the most terrifying destructive might converged together and shot towards Yue Changkong. Rumbling sounds rang out in the air, the glow from Yue Changkong's body intensified, wanting to halt the attack.

A wave of killing intent appeared in this entire space. This killing intent seemed to traverse through the void, and was gushing towards Yue Changkong, wanting to tear the space Yue Changkong was in apart.

Numerous beams of light shot out, ignoring all defenses, wanting to blast Yue Changkong. At this moment, all kinds of killing techniques instantly erupted forth, generated by the power of Qin Wentian's heavenheart mandates. The attacks were incomparably violent and seemed endless. Within this domain generated by his world heart, he could control everything. With just a single thought, he could generate killing energy from his heavenheart mandates.

Instantly, the one with the initiative shifted to Qin Wentian while Yue Changkong was relegated into the passive position, enduring the unending waves of attacks.

Donghuang Ying's expressions changed. At this moment, a gigantic full moon appeared above Yue Changkong. The feeling of desolation crushed down and enveloped this space. This full moon radiated boundless moonlight, wanting to cause everything to enter a static state where all movements were halted. Even attacks could not continue, they were all forced to halt, bound by the power of the full moon.

"Moon Devour." Yue Changkong spoke. In an instant, an incomparably radiant moonlight radiated from his body, absorbing all the energy in the air. The energy from the waves of attacks unleashed by Qin Wentian were all completely absorbed into the full moon as they disappeared. At this moment, Yue Changkong seemed to be a god of the moon, appearing so majestic that none could profane him.

Everywhere the moonlight swept by, the space there froze and entered a static state completely.

"How powerful, this should be Yue Changkong's peak strength." Someone exclaimed in wonder.

"As expected of a genius that could obtain an inheritance from a godking. The Time King is waiting for him in the future. We will be able to witness the rise of another grand character like the Sword Monarch."

"Although back then I didn't attend the same convention as the Sword Monarch, the situation then should be similar to this now, right?" Many major characters praised. Such power when generated by a world overlord, truly made others sigh in admiration.

Upon hearing the praises of many people for Yue Changkong, Donghuang Ying's originally furrowed brows gradually smoothed over. Bright light gleamed in her eyes, filled with a faint admiration.

"The light of a firefly ultimately cannot be compared to the light of the bright moon." Donghuang Ying spoke in satisfaction, comparing Qin Wentian to a firefly while Yue Changkong as the bright moon. She felt this was very appropriate.

"The Sword Monarch those years ago, surpassed him by more than ten times." Old Ghost mockingly spoke. These people have never met the younger Sword Monarch before. They were comparing a newly appeared genius with the Sword Monarch? How ridiculous. As someone who could become a heavenly deity, how could the Sword Monarch be so easy to compare to?

In that case, wouldn't there by numerous heavenly deities around?

Only an existence who could trample all geniuses under his or her feet, would have a chance to become a heavenly deity.

Yue Changkong's gaze was cold as he stared at Qin Wentian. He was like a proud god, staring down at the multitude of living things. He spoke in a glacial tone, "Is this your world heart? It's merely so-so, but it's already considered not too bad. Next, it's time for this battle to end."

The moonlight grew even more intense. That full moon radiated enough light to envelop this entire world. Qin Wentian was enveloped as well and seemed incomparably tiny. All of his attacks couldn't even last before the Moon Devour ability of Yue Changkong. The energies within were all absorbed completely.

"The Heavenly Fate World Heart? What a ridiculous name." Yue Changkong mocked. The moonlight bore down on Qin Wentian wanting to freeze his body as a desolate killing intent gushed out.

"Slay." When the moonlight intensified, Yue Changkong spoke. A saber formed from the moonlight manifested, and slashed out through space, wanting to slash Qin Wentian's body apart. But at this moment, Qin Wentian's body seemed to fade away into the void. He reappeared again when the killing energy vanished and stood once more at his original location. This caused Yue Changkong to frown deeply.

This Qin Wentian was stubborn enough indeed. He had so many heavenheart mandates he could make use of.

But even so, the ending would not change.

He was then the fated future godking of the Mystic Region, a character that would be comparable to the Sword Monarch. The Time King had judged wrongly.

"Do you know what heavenly fate is?" Qin Wentian who had remained silent for a long while suddenly spoke. His words caused Yue Changkong to furrow his brows, he didn't understand Qin Wentian's question.

Qin Wentian's world heart was named the Heavenly Fate World Heart. It was that old man from the Heavenly Dao Sacred Academy who suggested this name.

What did Qin Wentian mean by asking this question?

"Heavenly fate cannot be defied." Qin Wentian's lips moved as he spoke. When the sound of his voice rang out in the air, the energy in this entire space frenziedly flowed and converged on his palm. In an instant, a pulsing explosive might flowed into his fist. The Heavenly Fate World heart seemed to have fused as one as an innate technique attack.

Yue Changkong had the ability named Moon Devour, he achieved this by fusing his heavenheart mandate and an innate technique. So how could Qin Wentian not have any fused techniques at his arsenal?

"Break." Qin Wentian punched out. At this moment, this punch seemed to represent Qin Wentian's world heart, his opponent couldn't defy this. It directly shot through heaven and earth, ignoring all obstructions and blasted towards the place Yue Changkong was in. In an instant, that entire space exploded. The void there was fragmented. Yue Changkong's face was filled with shock, he retreated with explosive speed as the full moon continued to radiate resplendent light.

"RUMBLE~" With a thunderous bang, the full moon directly exploded into pieces and vanished into the void. The power of the punch had yet to dissipate, Qin Wentian also wanted to smash Yue Changkong into smithereens.

In an instant, a terrifying storm converged once again. The power of Qin Wentian's heavenheart mandate was like gigantic demons from the primordial era, frenziedly rushing towards Yue Changkong. Qin Wentian moved forward as well and at this moment, Yue Changkong felt dazed. It was like Qin Wentian was just standing right before him.

When he saw Qin Wentian raising his fist again, fear began to appear in Yue Changkong's heart. He finally understood how much danger he was in.

The heavens and earth rumbled deafeningly as Qin Wentian punched out once more. At this moment, the moonlight glow around Yue Changkong's body solidified into moon armor, enveloping him protectively. But when that attack that was tyrannical to the extreme blasted into him, his body was flung through the air with such force that he flew extremely far away before smashing into an ancient mountain.

At this moment, the countenances of everyone changed. This battle was truly fascinating.

Qin Wentian didn't bother about the thoughts of other people. He soared through the air in pursuit yet at this moment, a silhouette flashed, and appeared before him, obstructing his path. A voice then rang out, "Victory has been determined, why must you act so forcefully?"

The person who acted was an expert from a vassal force under the Ziwei Divine Court. Although Qin Wentian has defeated Yue Changkong, it was impossible for this expert to watch on as the Time King's inheritor perished here.

Qin Wentian glanced at the person who acted but he didn't say anything. He attacked with such overwhelming force because he felt Yue Changkong's killing intent towards him.

But since he was now obstructed by others, he didn't persist on killing Yue Changkong. He simply stared at the presently sorry sight of Yue Changkong.

"I'm just an ordinary world overlord from the Mystic Region. You are even inferior to me, what qualifications do you have to criticize others? Before this, I didn't accept your challenge because I was filled with disdain for you. Yet, you actually thought that you are unrivalled in the Mystic Region? How ridiculous is this. You don't know the immensity of the heavens and earth." Qin Wentian mocked. Yue Changkong's expression turned ashen but he had no way to rebut because he had lost.

At this moment, countless gazes turned to Qin Wentian. They initially thought the victor of this battle would be Yue Changkong. He basked in glory, and was the inheritor of the Time King, alongside with extraordinary talent. How was it possible for him to lose? He should have dominated Qin Wentian.

But the truth was as such. So what even if he was the Time King's inheritor? He was still defeated by this Qingcheng Realmlord.

What was heavenly fate? Heavenly fate couldn't be defied. How imposing was this?

For the convention in the Mystic Region this time around, just this battle alone would be able to become the stuff of legends, creating shock and awe in people's hearts.

Chapter 1795: Yue Changkong's Shamelessness

The Time King's inheritor could also be defeated. He had lost to the Qingcheng Realmlord.

Before this when Yue Changkong challenged him, Qin Wentian rejected it. Many people felt that it was because Qin Wentian didn't dare to battle. But how ridiculous was that thought now? Qin Wentian was so powerful, how would he not have dared to battle?

It was just that they didn't understand. Since Qin Wentian was so powerful, why did he keep such a low profile, unwilling to display his brilliance?

Before this, it seemed that Qin Wentian also desired to keep a low profile. During the time when there was the Heavenheart Mirror, many geniuses had displayed their heavenheart mandates yet Qin Wentian didn't do so until he fought Longyuan Haoyu. Only at that time did the Qingcheng Realmlord's name became known throughout the convention.

And now, the situation was somewhat similar. He had no wish to participate in any battles but Yue Changkong challenged him twice and he finally accepted. Upon fighting, he defeated the Time King's inheritor Yue Changkong.

Right now, many people had bizarre thoughts. Qin Wentian was so dazzling, so when the Ziwei Divine Court selects new members, would they choose Qin Wentian or Yue Changkong?

"Awesome. This battle can finally shut the mouths of those people who spoke earlier. Everyone criticized others just because they have some reputation in the Mystic Realm, grossly overestimating themselves. What about now? Their faces were all slapped!" Cao Tian laughed loudly. Those who spoke out for Yue Changkong and insulted Qin Wentian earlier all shut up now. At this moment, they did indeed feel as though their faces were smacked.

"Oh, I really want to know what that person who considered herself a friend of Qin Wentian, is thinking about now." Ten Miles Springwind mocked in a casual tone, causing many people to turn their gazes towards Donghuang Ying.

Donghuang Ying's expression turned extremely unsightly. This was truly very face smacking. She kept claiming Qin Wentian was jealous of Yue Changkong before this. But, what about now?

Did Qin Wentian even need to be jealous of Yue Changkong?

If he was, he would have already stood out to challenge and defeat him. However, Yue Changkong challenged him twice but Qin Wentian didn't accept it. Clearly, he disregarded Yue Changkong completely, and wasn't bothered about him at all.

Donghuang Ying's expression kept changing, it was extremely fascinating to behold. The experts from the Donghuang Clan all stared at the dazzling figure in white in the air. Qin Wentian exuded boundless magnificence, defeating the Time King's inheritor Yue Changkong. Qin Wentian could be considered one of the most dazzling world overlords of the younger generations in this convention. But for Yue Changkong, Donghuang Ying didn't hesitate to give up on their friendship, fully committed to supporting Yue Changkong. Was it worth it?

"So what if he temporarily won? Yue Changkong is the inheritor of the Time King. Even the godking himself said that he would wait for him in the future. Although he is defeated now, he would surely be able to rise to greater heights in the future and avenge this defeat." Donghuang Ying's heart felt extremely complicated now and she ultimately found a reason to comfort herself. Her relationship with Qin Wentian was already severed, she didn't hope that she would feel regret because of her choice. Hence, she still believed that a defeat meant nothing. Yue Changkong was the Time King's inheritor. In the future, he would surely be more dazzling than Qin Wentian.

This battle was merely a single victory for Qin Wentian. That's all to it.

Qin Wentian also didn't glance at Donghuang Ying. Since she has already chosen this, those of different paths naturally wouldn't walk together. From now on, they would be strangers, there was also no need for him to ridicule her now. Once, as a friend, he warned Donghuang Ying sincerely, asking her to take a good and clear look at Yue Changkong. If Donghuang Ying truly had the heart to, she would have seriously considered his words. If not, if she regretted in the future, she could only blame herself.

She wanted to wait for a character like the Sword Monarch to appear before her, becoming her dao companion. This unrealistic fantasy was nothing but a dream. It was impossible for Yue Changkong to become one because he was never the one who had inherited the Time King's inheritance. Everything was just a lie.

"Brother Qin's strength is extraordinary, and your talent is also outstanding. I, Yue Changkong having lost to you, is nothing shameful at all. Before this although my words were arrogant, it's inevitable since we are going to fight. Given Brother Qin's talent, it's only natural that you occupy one of the constellation seas." Yue Changkong walked over, as though the one who was extremely arrogant before this fight wasn't him. His personality changed in the blink of an eye, even causing Qin Wentian to start.

Earlier, Yue Changkong still revealed killing intent towards him. This sudden change in personality proved that Yue Changkong was a very flexible person. But if one wanted to put it more bluntly, Yue Changkong was extremely shameless.

"Is someone as despicable as you fit to call me Brother Qin?" Qin Wentian mocked.

"Haha, alright. Since this is the case, I shall refer to you as the Qingcheng Realmlord. I will remember this defeat today in my heart and constantly remind myself of it. In the future, I shall challenge you again to avenge my loss today." Yue Changkong calmly spoke.

"Good spirit. On the path of cultivation, who wouldn't suffer a few defeats? As long as you don't give in to defeat, you would always be able to climb back." A major character spoke out for Yue Changkong.

"Truly remarkable." A major character from the Donghuang Clan also spoke.

"That's right, he is unlike someone who forgets himself after a victory. By referring to you as Brother Qin, you actually addressed him as a despicable person instead. From this, we can see the distance between your characters." Donghuang Ying also spoke. She naturally stood on Yue Changkong's side, and would feel whatever he did or said was correct. Qin Wentian was then the despicable person.

Qin Wentian cast a glance at her as he silently shook his head. Seems like Donghuang Ying was in so deep that she could no longer extricate herself. Before this, he once thought she was wise and farsighted, knowing how to use her abilities to recruit people. But now, she was actually completely bedazzled by Yue Changkong.

Naturally, in truth, one couldn't say that Donghuang Ying was foolish. She was simply trying to recruit people but the person she was trying to recruit now was none other than Yue Changkong. She naturally wouldn't feel that she was in the wrong.

